The Parliament of Queensland enacts—	1
Chapter 1 Preliminary	2
Part 1 Introduction	3
1 Short title	4
This Act may be cited as the Public Guardian Act 2014 .	5
2 Commencement	6
(1) This Act, other than sections 241 and 243, commences on 1 July 2014.	7 8
(2) Sections 241 and 243 commence on assent.	9
3 Definitions	10
The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.	11 12
4 Act binds all persons	13
This Act binds all persons, including the State, and, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.	14 15 16

Part 2	Purpose and principles of Act	1
5	Purpose	2
	The purpose of this Act is to establish the public guardian to promote and protect the rights and interests of—	3 4
	(a) adults with impaired capacity for a matter; and	5
	(b) relevant children and children staying at visitable sites.	6
6	Principles for adults with impaired capacity for a matter	7
(1)	The principles to be applied by persons performing functions or exercising powers under this Act for a matter in relation to an adult with impaired capacity for the matter are stated in the Guardianship Act, schedule 1 (the general principles and, for a health matter or a special health matter, the health care principle).	8 9 10 11 12 13
(2)	Persons performing functions or exercising powers under this Act for a matter in relation to an adult with impaired capacity must also have regard to the acknowledgements stated in the Guardianship Act, section 5 when performing the functions or exercising the powers.	14 15 16 17 18
7	Principles for relevant children and children staying at visitable sites	19 20
(1)	The main principle to be applied by persons performing functions or exercising powers under this Act in relation to a relevant child or a child staying at a visitable site is that the best interests of the child are paramount.	21 22 23 24
(2)	The persons must also apply the following general principles when performing functions or exercising powers under this Act in relation to the child—	25 26 27

- | | |
|--|----------------------|
| (b) the child is a valued member of society; | 1 |
| (c) the child is— | 2 |
| (i) to be treated in a way that respects the child’s dignity and privacy; and | 3
4 |
| (ii) to be cared for in a way that protects the child from harm, promotes the child’s wellbeing and allows the child to reach his or her full potential; | 5
7 |
| (d) the child’s emotional, moral, social and intellectual development is important and must be taken into account; | 8
10 |
| (e) the child is entitled to be heard, even if others may not agree with the views expressed by the child; | 11
12 |
| (f) the child should be able to exercise his or her rights and participate in decisions that affect his or her life; | 13
14 |
| (g) the child should be able to access available services necessary to meet his or her needs; | 15
16 |
| (h) an ongoing relationship between the child and the child’s family is important for the child’s welfare and wellbeing and must be taken into account; | 17
19 |
| (i) an ongoing connection with the child’s culture, traditions, language and community is important for the child’s welfare and wellbeing and must be taken into account. | 20

Part 3 Relationship with other Acts 24

8 Relationship with Guardianship and Administration Act 2000 and Powers of Attorney Act 1998 25 26

- (1) This Act, to the extent it relates to an adult with impaired capacity for a matter, is to be read in conjunction with the Guardianship Act and the Powers of Attorney Act. 27

- (2) The Guardianship Act provides a scheme by which the tribunal may do the following—
- (a) appoint a guardian for an adult with impaired capacity for personal matters to make particular decisions and do particular other things for the adult in relation to the matters;
 - (b) appoint an administrator for an adult with impaired capacity for financial matters to make particular decisions and do particular other things for the adult in relation to the matters;
 - (c) consent to the withholding or withdrawal of a life-sustaining measure and to particular special health care.
- (3) The Guardianship Act also provides a scheme for health care for adults with impaired capacity for the matter concerned, including an order of priority for dealing with health care.
- (4) The Powers of Attorney Act provides a scheme by which—
- (a) by enduring power of attorney or advance health directive, an adult may authorise other persons to make particular decisions and do particular other things for the adult in relation to financial matters and personal matters at a time when the adult does not have capacity to do those things; and
- Note—*
- Personal matters do not include special personal matters or special health matters—Powers of Attorney Act, schedule 2, section 2.
 - (b) by advance health directive, an adult may make directions for the adult’s future health care; and
 - (c) a statutory health attorney is authorised to do particular things for an adult in particular circumstances in relation to health care.
- (5) If there is an inconsistency between this Act and the Guardianship Act, the Guardianship Act prevails.

14	Powers	17
(1)	The public guardian has the powers given under this Act or another Act, including the powers of a community visitor, or child advocacy officer, given under this Act.	18 19 20
(2)	Also, the public guardian may do all things necessary or convenient to be done to perform the public guardian’s functions.	21 22 23
15	Not under Ministerial control	24
	In performing the public guardian’s functions and exercising the public guardian’s powers, the public guardian is not under the control or direction of the Minister.	25 26 27

Chapter 3	Provisions relating to adults with impaired capacity	1 2
Part 1	Preliminary	3
16	Overview of ch 3	4
	This chapter contains provisions relating to the public guardian's functions and powers for adults with impaired capacity for a matter.	5 6 7
17	Definitions for ch 3	8
	In this chapter—	9
	adult means an adult with impaired capacity for a matter.	10
	power of attorney means—	11
	(a) a general power of attorney made under the Powers of Attorney Act; or	12 13
	(b) an enduring power of attorney; or	14
	(c) a power of attorney made otherwise than under the Powers of Attorney Act, whether before or after its commencement.	15 16 17
Part 2	Advice and supervision	18
18	Public guardian may give advice and impose supervision	19
	(1) The public guardian may do any of the following—	20
	(a) give advice to an adult's attorney, guardian or administrator;	21 22

[s 19]

- (b) by written notice, make an adult’s attorney, guardian or administrator subject to the public guardian’s supervision for a reasonable period if the public guardian believes, on reasonable grounds, it is necessary in the adult’s interests including, for example, because the attorney, guardian or administrator has contravened this Act, the Guardianship Act or duties, though not wilfully; 1
8
- (c) require an attorney who may exercise power for a financial matter for an adult or an adult’s administrator to present a plan of management for approval. 9
11
- (2) An adult’s attorney, guardian or administrator may apply to the tribunal to review the public guardian’s decision relating to the advice, notice or requirement and the tribunal may make the order it considers appropriate. 12
13
15
- (3) In this section— 16
- administrator*, in relation to an adult, means the administrator appointed for the adult under the Guardianship Act. 17 18
- attorney*, in relation to an adult, means the adult’s attorney authorised under an enduring document or the adult’s statutory health attorney. 19 20
21
- guardian*, in relation to an adult, means the guardian appointed for the adult under the Guardianship Act. 22
23

Part 3 Investigations 24

19 Investigate complaints 25

The public guardian may investigate any complaint or allegation that an adult— 26
27

- (a) is being or has been neglected, exploited or abused; or 28

(b)	has inappropriate or inadequate decision-making arrangements.	1 2
20	Delegate for investigation	3
(1)	If the public guardian decides to investigate a complaint or allegation, the public guardian may delegate to an appropriately qualified person the public guardian's powers under this part, other than the power to give notice under section 25(1) or 29.	4 5 6 7 8
(2)	Subsection (1) does not affect the public guardian's authority to delegate power to someone else under section 144.	9 10
(3)	A delegate exercising power under this part must, if asked, produce evidence of the delegation.	11 12
(4)	If a delegate is given power to carry out an investigation, the delegate must, after carrying out the investigation, make a written report and give a copy of the report to the public guardian.	13 14 15 16
(5)	It is a lawful excuse for the publication of any defamatory statement made in the report that the publication is made in good faith and is, or purports to be, made for this Act.	17 18 19
(6)	A delegate (other than a delegate who is a member of the public guardian's staff) given power to carry out an investigation is entitled to the remuneration decided by the public guardian.	20 21 22 23
21	Records and audit	24
(1)	The public guardian may, by written notice to an attorney for an adult who has power for a financial matter or to an administrator for an adult, require that, by the date stated in the notice, the attorney or administrator file with the public guardian a summary of receipts and expenditure, or more detailed accounts of dealings and transactions, for the adult for a specified period.	25 26 27 28 29 30 31

[s 22]

4
- (3) The attorney or administrator must comply with the notice, unless the attorney or administrator has a reasonable excuse. 5
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 7
- (4) The summary or accounts filed may be audited by an auditor appointed by the public guardian. 8 9
- Note—* 10
See the Powers of Attorney Act, section 122 (Records and audit) which gives the court similar power in relation to an attorney for a financial matter. 11
- (5) In this section— 14
attorney means an attorney under an enduring power of attorney. 15

22 Right to information 17

- (1) The public guardian has a right to all information necessary to investigate a complaint or allegation, or to carry out an audit, in connection with an adult. 18 19 20
- Note—* 21
In addition, the Powers of Attorney Act, section 81 (Right of attorney to information) gives the public guardian a right to information as an attorney. 22
23
24
- (2) The public guardian may, by written notice given to a person who has custody or control of the information, require the person— 25
26
- (a) to give the information to the public guardian; and 28
- (b) if the person is an attorney or administrator and the information is contained in a document—to give the document to the public guardian; and 29

(c)	if the person is not an attorney or administrator and the information is contained in a document—to allow the public guardian to inspect the document and take a copy of it.	1 2 3 4
(3)	The person must comply with the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	5 6 7
(4)	It is a reasonable excuse for a person not to comply with the notice because complying with the notice might tend to incriminate the person.	8 9 10
(5)	Subject to subsection (4), this section overrides—	11
(a)	any restriction, in an Act or the common law, about the disclosure or confidentiality of information; and	12 13
(b)	any claim of confidentiality or privilege, including a claim based on legal professional privilege.	14 15
(6)	In this section—	16
	attorney means—	17
(a)	an attorney under a power of attorney; or	18
(b)	an attorney under an advance health directive; or	19
(c)	a statutory health attorney.	20
23	Information by statutory declaration	21
(1)	If a person is required to give information to the public guardian under this chapter, the public guardian may, by written notice given to a person, require the person to give the information by statutory declaration.	22 23 24 25
(2)	The person must comply with the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—100 penalty units.	26 27 28

[s 24]

24	Protection from liability for giving information	1
(1)	This section applies to the giving of information to the public guardian under section 22 or 23.	2 3
(2)	A person may give the information despite any other law that would otherwise prohibit or restrict the giving of the information.	4 5 6
(3)	If a person, acting honestly, gives the information to the public guardian, the person is not liable, civilly, criminally or under an administrative process, for giving the information.	7 8 9
(4)	Also, merely because the person gives the information, the person can not be held to have—	10 11
(a)	breached any code of professional etiquette or ethics; or	12
(b)	departed from accepted standards of professional conduct.	13 14
(5)	Without limiting subsections (3) and (4)—	15
(a)	in a proceeding for defamation, the person has a defence of absolute privilege for publishing the information; and	16 17
(b)	if the person would otherwise be required to maintain confidentiality about the information under an Act, oath or rule of law or practice, the person—	18 19 20
(i)	does not contravene the Act, oath or rule of law or practice by giving the information; and	21 22
(ii)	is not liable to disciplinary action for giving the information.	23 24
(6)	In this section—	25
	giving , of information contained in a document, includes allowing the document to be inspected and a copy to be taken of it.	26 27 28
25	Witnesses	29
(1)	For the performance of adult guardian functions, the public guardian may, by written notice given to a person, require the	30 31

- person to attend before the public guardian at a stated time and place to give information and answer questions, or produce stated documents or things. 1
3
- (2) The person must comply with the notice, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 4
5
- Note—* 6
- See section 28 (Self-incrimination not a reasonable excuse). 7
- Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 8
- (3) The public guardian may— 9
- (a) require the person to take an oath; and 10
- (b) administer an oath to the person, or, if technology allowing reasonably contemporaneous and continuous communication is to be used, make the arrangements the public guardian considers appropriate in the circumstances for administering an oath to the person; and 11
14
15
16
- (c) allow the person to give information by tendering a written statement, verified, if the public guardian directs, by oath. 17
18
19
- (4) The person must comply with a requirement under subsection (3)(a), unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 20
- Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 22
- (5) The person is entitled to be paid by the public guardian an amount equivalent to the amount the person would receive under the Court Fees and Allowances Regulation if the person's attendance before the public guardian were attendance in a Magistrates Court as a witness. 23
26
27
- (6) In this section— 28
- Court Fees and Allowances Regulation means a regulation made under the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991 providing for the fees and allowances payable to witnesses attending before a court. 29 30
31
32

[s 26]

26	Power of court if noncompliance with attendance notice	1
(1)	This section applies if, without reasonable excuse, a person fails to comply with a notice given under section 25.	2 3
(2)	A Magistrates Court, at the request of the public guardian, may issue a subpoena requiring the attendance of the person before the court.	4 5 6
(3)	The Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 , other than rules 417, 418 and 420, apply in relation to the subpoena.	7 8
	Note—	9
	See the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 , chapter 11 (Evidence), part 4 (Subpoenas) and rules 417 (Order for cost of complying with subpoena), 418 (Cost of complying with subpoena if not a party) and 420 (Production by non-party).	10 11 12 13
(4)	The court may require the person to take an oath.	14
(5)	The public guardian may examine the person attending before the court under a subpoena issued under subsection (2).	15 16
(6)	In this section—	17
	subpoena means—	18
(a)	a subpoena for production; or	19
(b)	a subpoena to give evidence; or	20
(c)	a subpoena for production and to give evidence.	21
27	Power of court if failure to cooperate under subpoena	22
(1)	This section applies if a person subpoenaed under section 26 attends before a Magistrates Court and without reasonable excuse—	23 24 25
(a)	refuses to take an oath; or	26
(b)	refuses to answer a question put to the person; or	27
(c)	fails to give an answer to the court’s satisfaction.	28
(2)	The court may treat the person’s refusal or failure as a contempt of court.	29 30

28	Self-incrimination not a reasonable excuse	1
(1)	This section applies to—	2
(a)	a person who fails to comply with a notice under subsection 25(1) to give information and answer questions or to produce documents or things; or	3 4 5
(b)	a person subpoenaed under section 26 who attends before a Magistrates Court and refuses to answer a question put to the person or fails to give an answer to the court’s satisfaction.	6 7 8 9
(2)	It is not a reasonable excuse for the person to—	10
(a)	fail to comply with the notice; or	11
(b)	refuse to answer the question or fail to give an answer to the court’s satisfaction;	12 13
	because compliance with the notice, answering the question or giving an answer to the court’s satisfaction might tend to incriminate the person.	14 15 16
(3)	However, evidence of, or directly or indirectly derived from, information given by a person or a person’s answer or production of a document or thing that might tend to incriminate the person is not admissible in evidence against the person in a civil or criminal proceeding, other than—	17 18 19 20 21
(a)	a proceeding for an offence about the falsity of the information, answer, document or thing; or	22 23
(b)	if the information, answer or production is relevant to the person’s employment—a proceeding brought by or for the person against the person’s employer; or	24 25 26
(c)	if the information, answer or production is relevant to the person’s professional registration or licence—a proceeding about the registration or licence; or	27 28 29
(d)	if the information, answer or production is relevant to the person’s registration, licence or approval as proprietor or operator of a service or facility involved in	30 31 32

	the care of adults with impaired capacity for a matter—a proceeding about the registration, licence or approval.	1 2
29	Cost of investigations and audits	3
(1)	If—	4
	(a) the public guardian undertakes an investigation concerning a financial matter or an audit at the request of a person; and	5 6 7
	(b) the public guardian is satisfied the request was frivolous or vexatious or otherwise without good cause;	8 9
	the public guardian may, by written notice, require the person to pay to the public guardian the amount the public guardian considers appropriate for the cost of the investigation or audit.	10 11 12
(2)	If—	13
	(a) the public guardian undertakes an investigation concerning a financial matter or an audit; and	14 15
	(b) the public guardian considers the attorney or administrator concerned has contravened this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act;	16 17 18
	the public guardian may, by written notice, require the attorney or administrator to personally pay to the public guardian the amount the public guardian considers appropriate for the cost of the investigation or audit.	19 20 21 22
(3)	The public guardian may, by written notice, require a person who requests an investigation or audit to pay to the public guardian the amount the public guardian considers appropriate as security for a payment under subsection (1).	23 24 25 26
(4)	A person given notice under this section may apply to the tribunal to review the public guardian’s decision to require the payment, or the amount of the payment required, and the tribunal may make the order it considers appropriate.	27 28 29 30
(5)	In this section—	31
	attorney means an attorney under a power of attorney.	32

30	Obstructing investigation or audit	1
(1)	A person must not obstruct or improperly influence the conduct of an investigation or audit.	2
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	3
(2)	In this section—	4
	influence includes attempt to influence.	5
	obstruct includes hinder, resist and attempt to obstruct.	6
31	Report after investigation or audit	7
(1)	After the public guardian has carried out an investigation or audit in relation to an adult, the public guardian must make a written report and give a copy of the report to the person at whose request the investigation or audit was carried out and to every attorney, guardian or administrator for the adult.	8
(3)	The public guardian must allow an interested person to inspect a copy of the report at all reasonable times and, at the person's own expense, to be given a copy of the report.	10
(4)	If a report made by the public guardian contains information about a person and the public guardian considers it appropriate to protect the person's identity, the public guardian may remove, from the copy of the report to be given or inspected, information likely to result in the person's identification.	11
(5)	In this section—	12
	attorney means—	13
(a)	an attorney under a power of attorney; or	14
(b)	an attorney under an advance health directive.	15

[s 32]

32	Prohibited use of report after investigation or audit	1
(1)	This section applies if—	2
(a)	a report contains information about a person but does not identify the person (the de-identified person); and	3 4
(b)	another person accesses the report.	5
(2)	The other person must not, unless the other person has a reasonable excuse, publish information contained in the report to the public, or a section of the public, if the publication is likely to result in the identification of the de-identified person by a member of the public, or by a member of the section of the public to whom the information is published.	6 7 8 9 10 11
	Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.	12
(a)	a relevant person; or	16
(b)	the public guardian; or	17
(c)	a member of the public guardian’s staff; or	18
(d)	an attorney; or	19
(e)	a community visitor; or	20
(f)	a person consulted or employed by the public guardian for this Act; or	21 22
(g)	a public guardian’s delegate for an investigation.	23
	Note —	24
	For the confidentiality requirements for a relevant person, see the Guardianship Act, section 249A. For the confidentiality requirements for an attorney, see the Powers of Attorney Act, section 74A. For the confidentiality requirements for a person mentioned in paragraph (b), (c), (e), (f) or (g), see section 138.	25 26 27 28 29
(4)	In this section—	30
	attorney means—	31
(a)	an attorney under a power of attorney; or	32

- (b) an attorney under an advance health directive; or 1
 - (c) a statutory health attorney. 2
- relevant person* see the Guardianship Act, section 246. 3

Part 4 Protective powers 4

33 Proceedings for protection of property 5

If the public guardian considers— 6

(a) property of an adult is wrongfully held, detained, 7 converted or injured; or 8

(b) money is payable to the adult; 9

the public guardian, either in the name of the public guardian 10 or the adult, may claim and recover possession of the 11 property, damages for conversion of or injury to the property, 12 or payment of the money, by application to the Supreme 13
Court. 14

34 Suspension of attorney's power 15

(1) The public guardian may, by written notice to an attorney, 16 suspend the operation of all or some of an attorney's power 17 for an adult if the public guardian suspects, on reasonable 18 grounds, that the attorney is not competent. 19

(2) An attorney is not competent if, for example— 20

(a) a relevant interest of the adult has not been, or is not 21 being, adequately protected; or 22

(b) the attorney has neglected the attorney's duties or 23 abused the attorney's powers, whether generally or in 24 relation to a specific power; or 25

[s 35]

- (c) the attorney has otherwise contravened this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act. 1
2
- (3) The suspension may not be for more than 3 months. 3
- (4) The public guardian may lift the suspension on the terms the public guardian considers appropriate. 4
5
- (5) The attorney whose power has been suspended may apply to the tribunal to review the public guardian’s decision to suspend the attorney or the terms on which the suspension is lifted and the tribunal may make the order it considers appropriate. 6
10
- (6) In this section— 11
attorney means an attorney under an enduring document. 12
- 35 Exercise of power during suspension 13
- (1) During the suspension of the operation of power of an attorney, the attorney must not exercise the power. 14
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 16
- (2) During the suspension of the operation of power of an attorney for a personal matter, the public guardian is taken to be the attorney for the adult for the exercise of the power. 17
19
- (3) During the suspension of the operation of power of an attorney for a financial matter, the public trustee is taken to be the attorney for the adult for the exercise of the power. 20 21
- 36 Power to apply for entry and removal warrant 23
- (1) This section applies if the public guardian considers there are reasonable grounds for suspecting there is an immediate risk of harm, because of neglect (including self neglect), exploitation or abuse, to an adult. 24
27
- (2) The public guardian may apply to the tribunal for a warrant under the Guardianship Act, section 148 to enter a place and to remove the adult. 28
29

37	Health providers may advise public guardian	1
(1)	This section applies if a health provider who is treating a person over the age of 18 reasonably considers—	2 3
	(a) the person has impaired capacity for a matter; and	4
	(b) the person does not have an attorney, guardian or administrator for the matter.	5 6
(2)	The health provider may advise the public guardian of the following details—	7 8
	(a) the person’s name;	9
	(b) the person’s current location and contact address;	10
	(c) the contact details for the person’s nearest relative;	11
	(d) the health provider’s opinion about the person’s capacity.	12 13

Part 5	Power to consent to forensic examination	1
38	Consent to forensic examination	3
	The public guardian may consent to the forensic examination of an adult with impaired capacity for consenting to the examination if—	4 5 6
	(a) the public guardian reasonably considers the examination is in the adult’s best interests; and	7 8
	(b) any of the following apply—	9
	(i) no guardian or attorney for the adult is appointed or available to consent for the adult to the examination;	10 11 12
	(ii) any guardian or attorney for the adult who is available has failed to consent;	13 14
	(iii) the public guardian reasonably considers the adult’s interests would not be adequately protected if the consent of any guardian or attorney for the adult were sought.	15 16 17 18
	Example of forensic examination that may be in an adult’s best interests—	19
	a forensic examination to obtain evidence that a criminal offence has been committed against the adult	20 21

Division 2 Purpose 12

40 Purpose and allocation of community visitors (adult) 13

- (1) The purpose of providing a program involving community 14 visitors (adult) for visitable sites is to protect the rights and 15 interests of consumers at the visitable sites. 16
- (2) The public guardian may allocate 1 or more community 17 visitors (adult) for a visitable site. 18

Division 3 Functions 19

41 Inquiry and complaint functions 20

- (1) A community visitor (adult) has inquiry and complaint 21 functions. 22
- (2) The inquiry functions of a community visitor (adult) for a 23
visitable site are to inquire into, and report to the public 24 guardian on— 25
 - (a) the adequacy of services for the assessment, treatment 26 and support of consumers at the visitable site; and 27

- (b) the appropriateness and standard of services for the accommodation, health and wellbeing of consumers at the site; and
- (c) the extent to which consumers at the site receive services in the way least restrictive of their rights; and
- (d) the adequacy of information given to consumers at the site about their rights; and
- (e) the accessibility and effectiveness of procedures for complaints about services for consumers at the site; and
- (f) at the request of the public guardian, another matter about the visitable site or consumers at the site.
- (3) The complaint functions of a community visitor (adult) for a visitable site are to—
- (a) inquire into, and seek to resolve, complaints; and
- (b) identify and make appropriate and timely referrals of unresolved complaints to appropriate entities for further investigation or resolution.
- (4) If a community visitor (adult) reasonably considers that the visitor can discharge the visitor’s functions or a particular function by contacting a consumer or someone else at a visitable site by using relevant technology, the visitor may discharge the functions or function in that way.
- (5) In this section—
- relevant technology means a telephone or any other technology that reasonably allows persons using the technology to communicate effectively.
- Examples—*
- video conferencing
 - text messaging

[s 42]

42	Requirement to regularly visit visitable site	1
(1)	A community visitor (adult) for a visitable site must regularly visit the visitable site to perform the visitor’s functions.	2 3
(2)	The public guardian may decide priorities for visiting particular visitable sites that affect the frequency of visits to a visitable site by a community visitor (adult).	4 5 6
43	Requirement to visit visitable site if asked	7
(1)	A consumer at a visitable site, or a person for the consumer, may—	8 9
(a)	ask the public guardian to arrange for a community visitor (adult) to visit the site to perform the visitor’s functions; or	10 11 12
(b)	ask a staff member at the visitable site to arrange for a community visitor (adult) to visit the site to perform the visitor’s functions.	13 14 15
(2)	If the request is made to a staff member at the visitable site, the staff member must, within 3 business days after the request is made, tell the public guardian about the request.	16 17 18
	Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	19
(3)	A community visitor (adult) for the visitable site must visit the site as soon as practicable if informed of a request to visit.	20 21

Division 4 Powers 22

44	Power to do all things necessary or convenient	23
(1)	A community visitor (adult) for a visitable site may do all things necessary or convenient to be done to perform the visitor’s functions, including, for example, the following things—	24 25 26 27
(a)	enter the site during normal hours without notice;	28

(b)	with the public guardian’s authorisation, enter the site outside normal hours without notice;	1 2
(c)	require a staff member at the site to answer questions, and produce visitable site documents, relevant to the visitor’s functions;	3 4 5
(d)	inspect and take extracts from, or make copies of, any visitable site document;	6 7
(e)	confer alone with a consumer or a staff member at the site;	8 9
(f)	require a staff member at the site to give the visitor reasonable help, if it is practicable to give the help, to enable the visitor to do the things mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (e).	10 11 12 13
(2)	A person who complies with a requirement under subsection (1)(c) or (f) does not incur any liability, either to the consumer or anyone else, because of the compliance.	14 15 16
(3)	A person must comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(c) or (f), unless the person has a reasonable excuse. Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.	17 18 19
(4)	It is a reasonable excuse for a person not to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(c) or (f) because compliance with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person.	20 21 22
45	Public guardian may authorise access outside normal hours	23 24
(1)	This section applies if the public guardian considers a community visitor (adult) can not adequately inquire into a complaint by entering a visitable site during normal hours.	25 26 27
(2)	The public guardian may authorise the visitor to enter the site outside normal hours to inquire into the complaint.	28 29
(3)	In authorising an entry outside normal hours, the public guardian must specify a period of not more than 2 hours during which the entry is authorised.	30 31 32

46	Consumer's views and wishes	1
(1)	To the greatest extent practicable, a community visitor (adult) must seek and take into account the views and wishes of a consumer before—	2 3 4
(a)	asking a staff member at the visitable site a question relevant to a function of the visitor in relation to the consumer; or	5 6 7
(b)	inspecting, taking extracts from, or making copies of, a visitable site document relevant to a function of the visitor in relation to the consumer.	8 9 10
(2)	A consumer's views and wishes may be expressed orally, in writing or in another way, including, for example, by conduct.	11 12
(3)	However, regardless of the consumer's views and wishes, the visitor must act in a way consistent with the consumer's proper care and protection.	13 14 15
47	Reports by community visitors (adult)	16
(1)	As soon as practicable after a visit to a visitable site by a community visitor (adult) for the visitable site, the visitor must—	17 18 19
(a)	prepare a report on the visit; and	20
(b)	give a copy of the report to the public guardian.	21
(2)	If the visitor entered the site outside normal hours, the visitor must state the authority for the entry in the report.	22 23
(3)	As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of a report in relation to the site, the public guardian must give a copy of the report to a person in charge of the site.	24 25 26
(4)	The public guardian may also give a copy of the report to any of the following—	27 28
(a)	if the report relates to a complaint—the consumer;	29
(b)	the public advocate;	30

(c)	the director of mental health under the Mental Health Act 2000 ;	1 2
(d)	the director of forensic disability under the Forensic Disability Act 2011 ;	3 4
(e)	if a restrictive practice under the Guardianship Act, chapter 5B is being used at the visitable site—	5 6
	(i) the tribunal; or	7
	(ii) a guardian or administrator for a consumer in relation to whom the restrictive practice is used; or	8 9
	(iii) the chief executive (disability services).	10
48	Public guardian’s directions about the exercise of powers	11
	A community visitor (adult) is subject to the public guardian’s directions in the exercise of a power.	12 13
Division 5	Miscellaneous	14
49	Privacy of correspondence between community visitor (adult) and consumers	15 16
	A staff member at a visitable site must not open, read, copy or remove any correspondence sent, or being sent, between a community visitor (adult) and a consumer residing at the site, unless the consumer asks the staff member to do so.	17 18 19 20
	Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.	21

- (2) A child stops being a relevant child if—
- (a) subject to subsection (3), the child stops being the subject of an order, intervention or agreement mentioned in subsection (1); or
- (b) subject to subsection (4), the child turns 18.
- (3) A child to whom subsection (2)(a) refers continues to be a relevant child if—
- (a) immediately before the child stopped being subject to the order, intervention or agreement, the public guardian was providing particular help to the child and the public guardian believes it is appropriate to finish providing the help to the child; or
- (b) the public guardian believes that the child requires particular help to review a decision ending the order, intervention or agreement.
- (4) A person to whom subsection (2)(b) refers continues to be a relevant child if—
- (a) the person asks the public guardian for help in the person’s transition from being a relevant child; and
- (b) the public guardian is satisfied the person continues to be in need of particular help for the transition.

[s 53]

(5)	A person stops being a relevant child under subsection (3) or (4) when the public guardian—	1 2
(a)	has finished providing the particular help mentioned in subsection (3)(a) or (b) or (4)(b); and	3 4
(b)	advises the person that he or she is no longer a relevant child for this Act.	5 6
53	Who is a parent	7
(1)	A parent of a child is the child’s mother, father or someone else, other than the chief executive (child safety), having or exercising parental responsibility for the child.	8 9 10
(2)	However, a person standing in the place of a parent of a child on a temporary basis is not a parent of the child.	11 12
(3)	A parent of an Aboriginal child includes a person who, under Aboriginal tradition, is regarded as a parent of the child.	13 14
(4)	A parent of a Torres Strait Islander child includes a person who, under Island custom, is regarded as a parent of the child.	15 16
54	Child’s views and wishes	17
(1)	To the greatest extent practicable, the public guardian or another entity who performs a child advocate function or exercises a power under this Act in relation to a child must seek, and take into account, the views and wishes of the child when performing the function or exercising the power.	18 19 20 21 22
(2)	The child’s views and wishes may be expressed orally, in writing or in another way, including, for example, by conduct.	23 24
(3)	The child’s views and wishes should be taken into account in a way that has regard to the child’s age and maturity.	25 26
(4)	In this section—	27
	child means a relevant child or a child staying at a visitable site.	28 29

63	Application for warrant—visitable home	1
(1)	The public guardian may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a visitable home at which a child under care is staying.	2 3
(2)	The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.	4 5
(3)	The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the public guardian gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.	6 7 8 9
	Example—	10
	The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration.	11 12
64	Issue of warrant—visitable home	13
(1)	The magistrate may issue a warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied a community visitor (child) can not properly carry out 1 or more of the visitor’s functions in relation to the child without gaining entry to the visitable home.	14 15 16 17
(2)	The warrant must state—	18
(a)	that a named community visitor (child) may, with necessary and reasonable help and force—	19 20
(i)	enter the visitable home and any other place necessary for entry; and	21 22
(ii)	exercise the visitor’s powers under this subdivision; and	23 24
(b)	the hours of the day or night when the home may be entered; and	25 26
(c)	the date, within 14 days after the warrant’s issue, the warrant ends.	27 28

65	Warrants—procedure before entry to visitable home	1
(1)	This section applies if a community visitor (child) named in a warrant issued under section 64 for a visitable home is intending to enter the home under the warrant.	2 3 4
(2)	Before entering the home, the visitor must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—	5 6
(a)	identify himself or herself to a person who is a carer staying at the visitable home by producing the visitor’s identity card;	7 8 9
(b)	give the person a copy of the warrant;	10
(c)	tell the person the visitor is permitted by the warrant to enter the home;	11 12
(d)	give the person an opportunity to allow the visitor immediate entry to the home without using force.	13 14
66	Powers relating to visitable homes	15
(1)	After entering a visitable home with consent or under a warrant, a community visitor (child) may do any of the following—	16 17 18
(a)	look around the home and assess its appropriateness for the accommodation of the child under care;	19 20
(b)	have access to the child under care;	21
(c)	talk with the child under care out of the hearing of other persons at the home;	22 23
(d)	require a carer staying at the home to give the visitor reasonable help to exercise the visitor’s powers under paragraphs (a) to (c).	24 25 26
(2)	A person must comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(d).	27 28
(3)	A person does not commit an offence only by failing to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(d).	29 30

Subdivision 2	Visitable sites	1
67	Power of entry—visitable site	2
(1)	A community visitor (child) may do all things necessary or convenient to be done to perform the visitor’s functions, including, for example, the following things—	3 4 5
(a)	enter a visitable site during normal hours without notice;	6
(b)	with the public guardian’s authorisation, enter a visitable site outside normal hours without notice;	7 8
(c)	inspect a visitable site;	9
(d)	have access to a child staying at a visitable site;	10
(e)	talk with a child staying at a visitable site out of the hearing of other persons at the site (including staff members of the site);	11 12 13
(f)	require a staff member of a visitable site to answer questions, and produce visitable site documents, relevant to the visitor’s functions;	14 15 16
(g)	inspect and take extracts from, or make copies of, any visitable site document;	17 18
(h)	confer alone with a staff member of a visitable site;	19
(i)	require a staff member of a visitable site to give the visitor reasonable help, if it is practicable to give the help, to enable the visitor to do the things mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (h).	20 21 22 23
(2)	A person who complies with a requirement under subsection (1)(f) or (i) does not incur any liability, either to the child or anyone else, because of the compliance.	24 25 26
(3)	A person must comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(f) or (i) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	27 28

- | | | |
|-----------|--|----------------------------|
| (4) | It is a reasonable excuse for a person not to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(f) or (i) because compliance with the requirement might tend to incriminate the person. | 1
3 |
| (5) | If the visitable site is a corrective services facility or detention centre, it is a reasonable excuse for a person not to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(f) or (i) if the disclosure of the information could reasonably be expected to prejudice the security or good order of the facility or centre. | 4

Subdivision 3	General	1
69	Community visitor (child) to respect privacy	2
(1)	In performing a function or exercising a power in relation to a child under care staying at a visitable home, a community visitor (child) must act in a way that—	3 4 5
(a)	respects, as far as practicable, the privacy of persons staying at the home and does not cause them unnecessary inconvenience; and	6 7 8
(b)	respects the wishes of any of the children staying at the home who does not wish to communicate with the visitor.	9 10 11
(2)	In performing a function or exercising a power in relation to a child staying at a visitable site, a community visitor (child) must act in a way that—	12 13 14
(a)	respects, as far as practicable, the privacy of children staying at the site; and	15 16
(b)	respects the wishes of any of the children who does not wish to communicate with the visitor.	17 18
70	Reports by community visitors (child)	19
(1)	As soon as practicable after visiting a child under care staying at a visitable home or a child staying at a visitable site, a community visitor (child) must—	20 21 22
(a)	prepare a report on the visit; and	23
(b)	give a copy of the report to the public guardian.	24
(2)	If the visitor entered a visitable site outside normal hours, the visitor must state the authority for the entry in the report.	25 26
(3)	So far as the public guardian considers appropriate, the public guardian may give a copy of a report about a visit to a child under care staying at a visitable home, or information from the report, to any of the following entities—	27 28 29 30

(a)	the chief executive (child safety);	1
(b)	the chief executive of a department responsible for providing services to the child who is a subject of the report;	2 3 4
(c)	a carer of the child;	5
(d)	a service provider, holding a licence to provide care services under the Child Protection Act, involved in the placement of the child in the home;	6 7 8
(e)	the child.	9
(4)	So far as the public guardian considers appropriate, the public guardian may give a copy of a report about a visit to a child staying at a visitable site, or information from the report, to any of the following entities—	10 11 12 13
(a)	a person in charge of the site;	14
(b)	a government service provider responsible for regulating the site;	15 16
(c)	the chief executive officer of an entity responsible for operating the site;	17 18
(d)	the chief executive of a department responsible for providing funding or services to the site;	19 20
(e)	the chief executive of a department responsible for providing services to children staying at the site;	21 22
(f)	the child.	23
71	Public guardian’s directions about the exercise of powers	24
	A community visitor (child) is subject to the public guardian’s directions in the exercise of a power.	25 26

[s 72]

Division 4	Miscellaneous	1
72	Privacy of correspondence between community visitor (child) and children	2 3
(1)	A carer at a visitable home or a staff member of a visitable site must not open, read, copy or remove any correspondence sent, or being sent, between a community visitor (child) and a child staying at the site or home, unless the child asks the staff member or carer to do so.	4 5 6 7 8
	Maximum penalty—20 penalty units.	9
(2)	In this section—	10
	visitable site does not include a corrective services facility where a child is staying.	11 12
	Note —	13
	See the Corrective Services Act 2006 , chapter 2, part 2, division 4, subdivision 1 for provisions dealing with a prisoner’s mail.	14 15
Part 3	Child advocacy officers	16
Division 1	Functions	17
73	Functions of child advocacy officer	18
	A child advocacy officer may perform child advocate functions for a relevant child.	19 20

Division 2	Powers	1
74	Power of entry	2
(1)	A child advocacy officer may enter—	3
(a)	a visitable site—	4
(i)	during normal visiting hours without notice; or	5
(ii)	with the public guardian’s authorisation, outside normal hours without notice; or	6 7
(b)	another place where a relevant child is staying if—	8
(i)	a person in charge of the place consents to the entry; or	9 10
(ii)	it is a public place and the entry is made when it is open to the public; or	11 12
(iii)	the entry is authorised by a warrant.	13
(2)	For the purpose of asking a person who is in charge of a place for consent to enter under subsection (1)(b)(i), an officer may, without the person’s consent or a warrant—	14 15 16
(a)	enter land around the place to an extent that is reasonable to contact the person; or	17 18
(b)	enter part of the place the officer reasonably considers members of the public ordinarily are allowed to enter when they wish to contact the person.	19 20 21
75	Public guardian may authorise access to visitable site outside normal hours	22 23
(1)	This section applies if the public guardian considers a child advocacy officer can not adequately perform 1 or more of the officer’s functions by entering a visitable site during normal hours.	24 25 26 27

(2)	The public guardian may authorise the officer to enter the visitable site outside normal hours to perform the function or functions.	1 2 3
(3)	In authorising an entry outside normal hours, the public guardian must specify a period of not more than 2 hours during which the entry is authorised.	4 5 6
76	Powers in relation to staff members of visitable sites	7
(1)	After entering a visitable site, a child advocacy officer may do any of the following—	8 9
(a)	have access to a child staying at the site;	10
(b)	talk with a child staying at the site, out of the hearing of staff members of the site and other persons at the site;	11 12
(c)	at any reasonable time, require a staff member of the site to give the officer reasonable help, if it is practicable to give the help, to exercise the officer’s powers under paragraph (a) or (b).	13 14 15 16
(2)	A staff member must comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(c), unless the staff member has a reasonable excuse.	17 18 19
	Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—40 penalty units.	20
77	Consent to entry	21
(1)	This section applies if a child advocacy officer intends to ask a person who is in charge of a place (other than a visitable site) where a relevant child is staying to consent to the officer entering the place under section 74(1)(b)(i).	22 23 24 25
(2)	Before asking for the consent, the officer must tell the person—	26 27
(a)	the purpose of the entry; and	28
(b)	that the person is not required to consent.	29

- (3) If the consent is given, the officer may ask the person to sign an acknowledgement of the consent. 1
2
- (4) The acknowledgement must state— 3
- (a) that the person has been told— 4
- (i) the purpose of the entry; and 5
- (ii) that the person is not required to consent; and 6
- (b) the purpose of the entry; and 7
- (c) that the person gives the officer consent to enter the place and exercise powers under this division; and 8
- (d) the time and date the consent was given. 10
- (5) If the person signs the acknowledgement, the officer must immediately give a copy to the person. 11
- (6) If— 13
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether a person who was in charge of a place consented to the entry; and 14
15
- (b) an acknowledgement complying with subsection (4) for the entry is not produced in evidence; 16
17
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the entry to prove a person mentioned in paragraph (a) consented. 18 19

78 Application for warrant 21

- (1) The public guardian may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place (other than a visitable site) where a relevant child is staying. 22
24
- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought. 25
26
28
30

[s 79]

Example— 1
The magistrate may require additional information supporting the 2 application to be given by statutory declaration. 3

79 Issue of warrant 4

- (1) The magistrate may issue a warrant for a place (other than a 5 visitable site) where a relevant child is staying only if the 6 magistrate is satisfied a child advocacy officer can not 7 properly carry out 1 or more of the officer’s functions without 8 gaining entry to the place. 9
- (2) The warrant must state— 10
- (a) that a named child advocacy officer may, with necessary 11 and reasonable help and force— 12
- (i) enter the named place and any other place 13 necessary for entry; and 14
- (ii) exercise the officer’s powers under this division; 15 and 16
- (b) the hours of the day or night when the place may be 17 entered; and 18
- (c) the date, within 14 days after the warrant’s issue, the 19
warrant ends. 20

80 Warrants—procedure before entry 21

- (1) This section applies if a child advocacy officer named in a 22 warrant issued under section 79 for a place where a relevant 23 child is staying is intending to enter the place under the 24 warrant. 25
- (2) Before entering the place, the officer must do or make a 26 reasonable attempt to do the following things— 27
- (a) identify himself or herself to a person who is in charge 28 of the place by producing the officer’s identity card; 29
- (b) give the person a copy of the warrant; 30

(c)	tell the person the officer is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;	1 2
(d)	give the person an opportunity to allow the officer immediate entry to the place without using force.	3 4
81	Powers relating to places where child is staying	5
(1)	After entering a place where a relevant child is staying with consent or under a warrant, a child advocacy officer may do any of the following—	6 7 8
(a)	look around the place and assess its appropriateness for the accommodation of the child;	9 10
(b)	have access to the child;	11
(c)	talk with the child out of the hearing of other persons;	12
(d)	require a carer staying at the place or someone else who is in charge of the place to give the officer reasonable help to exercise the officer’s powers under paragraphs (a) to (c).	13 14 15 16
(2)	A person must comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(d).	17 18
(3)	A person does not commit an offence only by failing to comply with a requirement under subsection (1)(d).	19 20
82	Child advocacy officer to respect privacy	21
(1)	In performing a function or exercising a power in relation to a visitable site, a child advocacy officer must act in a way that respects, as far as practicable, the privacy of children staying at the site.	22 23 24 25
(2)	In performing a function or exercising a power in relation to a place where a relevant child is staying, a child advocacy officer must act in a way that respects, as far as practicable, the privacy of persons staying at the place and does not cause them unnecessary inconvenience.	26 27 28 29 30

[s 83]

Part 4	Information exchange	1
83	Purpose	2
	The purpose of this part is to authorise and facilitate an appropriate exchange of information, including confidential information about a child and a child’s circumstances, between a prescribed entity and the public guardian to help the public guardian perform child advocate functions in relation to relevant children.	3 4 5 6 7 8
84	Prescribed entities	9
	The following entities are prescribed entities for this part—	10
	(a) the Queensland Family and Child Commission;	11
	(b) the chief executive (child safety);	12
	(c) the chief executive (corrective services);	13
	(d) the chief executive (disability services);	14
	(e) the chief executive (education);	15
	(f) the chief executive (health);	16
	(g) the chief executive (housing);	17
	(h) the chief executive (youth justice services);	18
	(i) the director of public prosecutions;	19
	(j) the chief executive officer of Legal Aid Queensland;	20
	(k) the commissioner of the Queensland Police Service;	21
	(l) a health service chief executive within the meaning of the Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011 ;	22 23
	(m) the chief executive officer of the Mater Misericordiae Health Services Brisbane Ltd (ACN 096 708 922);	24 25
	(n) the principal of a school that is accredited, or provisionally accredited, under the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Act 2001 ;	26 27 28

- (o) the chief executive officer (however described) of a visitable site; 1 2
 - (p) a recognised entity; 3
 - (q) an external contractor; 4
 - (r) another entity prescribed under a regulation. 5

85 Information requirement made by public guardian 6

- (1) The public guardian may ask a prescribed entity for particular information in the entity's possession or control for the purpose of this part. 7
9
- (2) Subject to this section, the prescribed entity must comply with the request. 10 11
- (3) However, if the prescribed entity is the director of public prosecutions or the chief executive officer of Legal Aid Queensland, the information to be made available by the director or chief executive officer must not relate to anyone or anything other than a child and the child's circumstances. 12
13
15
16

Examples of information that does not relate to the child and the child's circumstances— 17
18

- If the director of public prosecutions is prosecuting a parent of the child for an offence against the child, the director is not required to provide information about the prosecution of the parent. Similarly, if Legal Aid Queensland is also representing a parent of the child, Legal Aid Queensland is not required to provide information relevant to the parent's representation. 19 20
22
24
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the chief executive officer of Legal Aid Queensland, must comply with a request for information about a child and the child's circumstances if the Childrens Court has made an order under the Child Protection Act, section 110 that the child be separately represented by Legal Aid Queensland. 25
26
28
29
30
- (5) For subsection (1), information is not taken to be in the prescribed entity's control merely because of an agreement between the prescribed entity and another entity under which 31
32

[s 86]

- the other entity must give the information to the prescribed entity. 1 2
- (6) A prescribed entity may refuse to comply with a request under this section to provide information that is subject to legal professional privilege. 3
5
- (7) Also, a prescribed entity may refuse to comply with a request under this section to provide the information if the prescribed entity decides that giving the information could reasonably be expected to— 6
9
- (a) prejudice the investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of a law in a particular case; or 10 11
- (b) prejudice an investigation under the Coroners Act 2003; or 12
13
- (c) prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of a law; or 14
15
17
- (d) enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of a law, to be ascertained; or 18 19
- (e) endanger a person’s life or physical safety. 21
- (8) The prescribed entity is not required to satisfy itself that the request for particular information is made for the purpose of this part. 22
23
- 86 Use of information 25
- (1) The public guardian may use information obtained under this part or another law to help the public guardian discharge the public guardian’s child advocate functions in relation to a child. 26
27
28
29
- (2) For example, information may be used— 30
- (a) to help a child by providing information or advice about a matter to the child; or 31
32

- | | | |
|-----------|--|-----------------------|
| (b) | for a child mentioned in the Child Protection Act, section 74(1)—to help the child if the child considers that the charter of rights set out in the Child Protection Act, schedule 1 is not being complied with in relation to the child; or | 1
5 |
| (c) | to help a child by monitoring any plan prepared for the child’s health, education or benefit to ensure it is being adhered to; or | 6
8 |
| (d) | to help a child by monitoring any case plan, under the Child Protection Act, that is prepared for the child to ensure it is being adhered to; or | 9
10
11 |
| (e) | to link a child with someone else who is in a position to help the child with a particular matter; or | 12
| (f) | to work with another entity to meet a child’s needs; or | 14 |
| (g) | to support a child in the resolution of an issue a child may have with a particular entity; or | 15
16 |
| (h) | to help the child to lodge a complaint about something with a particular entity; or | 17
18 |
| (i) | to support a child at a conference, mediation or other meeting; or | 19
20 |
| (j) | to support or make submissions on behalf of a child at a court or tribunal hearing. | 21
22 |
| (3) | Without limiting subsection (1), the public guardian may also use the information to help decide the children receiving visits from community visitors (child) under part 2 or the frequency of the visits. | 23
26 |
| 87 | Chief executive (child safety) to advise public guardian when child is subject to particular orders, etc. | 27
28 |
| (1) | The chief executive (child safety) must advise the public guardian as soon as practicable after— | 29
30 |
| (a) | making a reviewable decision in relation to a child; or | 31 |

[s 88]

- (b) becoming aware that a child is subject to an order, intervention or agreement of a kind mentioned in section 52(1). 1
3
- (2) The chief executive (child safety) must advise the public guardian as soon as practicable after becoming aware that the child is no longer the subject of an order, intervention or agreement of a kind mentioned in section 52(1). 4
- (3) In this section— 8
- reviewable decision* means a decision that is a reviewable decision under the Child Protection Act, other than— 9 10
- (a) a decision about a licence under section 129 of that Act; 11 or 12
- (b) a decision about a certificate of approval under section 136 of that Act; or 13
14
- (c) a decision about an authority under section 137, 138, 140, 140AG(3) or (4) or 140AH of that Act. 15 16
- Note*— 17
- Reviewable decisions under the Child Protection Act are in schedule 2 of that Act. See schedule 3, definition reviewable decision of that Act. 18 19
- 88 Making information available to prescribed entities 21
- The public guardian may disclose information, including confidential information, about a child or a child’s circumstances to a prescribed entity to protect, in the performance of child advocate functions, the rights and interests of the child. 22

safety department for the purposes of the Child Protection Act.	1 2
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the arrangement may provide for the electronic transfer of information, including on a daily basis.	3 4 5
90 Protection from liability for giving information	6
(1) This section applies if a person, acting honestly, gives information in compliance with this part.	7 8
(2) The person is not liable, civilly, criminally or under an administrative process, for giving the information.	9 10
(3) Also, merely because the person gives the information, the person can not be held to have—	11 12
(a) breached any code of professional etiquette or ethics; or	13
(b) departed from accepted standards of professional conduct.	14 15
(4) Without limiting subsections (2) and (3)—	16
(a) in a proceeding for defamation, the person has a defence of absolute privilege for publishing the information; and	17 18
(b) if the person would otherwise be required to maintain confidentiality about the information under an Act, oath or rule of law or practice, the person—	19 20 21
(i) does not contravene the Act, oath or rule of law or practice by giving the information; and	22 23
(ii) is not liable to disciplinary action for giving the information.	24 25
91 Interaction with other laws	26
(1) This part does not limit a power or obligation under another Act or law to give information.	27 28

[s 92]

- (2) Subject to the Child Protection Act, sections 186, 189, 193 and 194 this part applies to information despite any other law that would otherwise prohibit or restrict the giving of the information. 1
4
- Examples of other laws prohibiting or restricting the giving of information—* 5 6
- Child Protection Act, section 187 7
 - Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, section 426 8
 - Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011, section 142(1) 9
 - Legal Aid Queensland Act 1997, section 82 10
 - Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 10.1 11
 - Youth Justice Act 1992, section 288 12
- (3) Information obtained by the public guardian under another law may be used by the public guardian to protect, in the performance of child advocate functions, the rights and interests of a child. 13

Chapter 5 Administration 17

Part 1 Appointment of public guardian and related provisions 18 19

92 Appointment of public guardian 20

- (1) The public guardian is appointed by the Governor in Council on the recommendation of the Minister. 21
22
- (2) The Minister may recommend a person for appointment only if the Minister is satisfied the person has demonstrated qualities of leadership, management and innovation in a senior government or private sector role. 23
24
26

(3)	A person may not hold office as the public guardian while the person holds another office having functions concerning—	1 2
(a)	the rights and interests of, or the provision of services or facilities to, adults with impaired capacity for a matter; or	3 4 5
(b)	the rights and interests of, or the provision of services or facilities to, children.	6 7
93	Public guardian employed under this Act	8
	The public guardian is appointed under this Act and not under the Public Service Act 2008 .	9 10
94	Selection	11
(1)	For selecting a person for recommendation for appointment as public guardian, the Minister must advertise for applications from appropriately qualified persons to be considered for selection.	12 13 14 15
(2)	The Minister may recommend to the Governor in Council a person for appointment as public guardian only if subsection (1) has been complied with for the appointment.	16 17 18
(3)	Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to the reappointment of a person as the public guardian.	19 20
95	Term of office	21
	Subject to this part, the public guardian holds office for a term of not longer than 5 years.	22 23
	Note—	24
	However, the public guardian may be reappointed—see the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 , section 25(1)(c).	25 26

[s 96]

96	Conditions of appointment	1
(1)	The public guardian is to be paid the remuneration and allowances decided by the Governor in Council.	2 3
(2)	The public guardian holds office on the terms and conditions, not provided for by this Act, that are decided by the Governor in Council.	4 5 6
97	Vacancy in office	7
(1)	The office of public guardian becomes vacant—	8
(a)	if the public guardian—	9
(i)	resigns office by signed notice to the Minister giving at least 1 month’s notice; or	10 11
(ii)	is convicted of an indictable offence; or	12
(iii)	is a person who is an insolvent under administration under the Corporations Act, section 9; or	13 14 15
(iv)	is removed from office by the Governor in Council under subsection (2); or	16 17
(b)	if the public guardian is suspended by the Minister under subsection (4)—during the period of suspension.	18 19
(2)	The Governor in Council may, at any time, remove the public guardian from office on the recommendation of the Minister.	20 21
(3)	The Minister may recommend the public guardian’s removal if the Minister is satisfied the public guardian—	22 23
(a)	has been guilty of misconduct; or	24
(b)	is incapable of performing his or her duties; or	25
(c)	has neglected his or her duties or performed them incompetently.	26 27
(4)	The Minister may suspend the public guardian for up to 60 days by signed notice to the public guardian if—	28 29

- (a) there is an allegation of misconduct against the public guardian; or 1 2
- (b) the Minister is satisfied a matter has arisen in relation to the public guardian that may be grounds for removal under this section. 3
- 98 Preservation of rights of public guardian 6
- (1) This section applies if a public service officer is appointed as the public guardian. 7 8
10
11
- (3) At the end of the person's term of office or on resignation as the public guardian, the person's service as public guardian is taken to be service of a like nature in the public service for deciding the person's rights as a public service officer. 12
13
- 99 Acting public guardian 16
- (1) If there is a vacancy in the office of public guardian or the public guardian is absent or for any other reason is unable to perform the functions of the office, the Minister may appoint a person to act as public guardian for a period of not more than 6 months. 17
20
21
- (2) A person can not be appointed to act as the public guardian unless the Minister could recommend the person be appointed as public guardian under section 92. 22
23
24
- (3) A person appointed to act as public guardian may be appointed to act as public guardian for a further period— 25
26
28
29
30
- (b) by the Governor in Council in other circumstances. 31

[s 100]

- (4) The Governor in Council may at any time cancel the appointment of a person to act as public guardian. 1
2

Part 2 Office and staff of the public guardian 3 4

100 Office 5

- (1) An office called the office of the public guardian is established. 6 7
- (2) The office of the public guardian consists of the public guardian and the staff of the office. 8

101 Control of the office 10

- (1) The public guardian is to control the office. 11
- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent the attachment of the office to the department for the purpose of ensuring that the office is supplied with the administrative support services that it requires to carry out its functions effectively and efficiently. 12
15

Note— 16

The public trustee also provides the public guardian with financial and other resources approved by the Minister. See the Public Trustee Act 1978, s 63A. 17

102 Staff 20

- (1) The staff of the office are employed under the Public Service Act 2008. 21
22
- (2) The following persons are not staff of the office— 23
- (a) a person consulted, employed or remunerated under section 103; 24
25

(b)	a person holding appointment as a community visitor.	1
103	Consultation and employment of professionals, etc.	2
(1)	In performing the public guardian’s functions, the public guardian may consult with, employ, and remunerate the medical, legal, accounting or other professionals the public guardian considers necessary.	3 4 5 6
(2)	Also, in performing the public guardian’s functions, the public guardian may—	7 8
(a)	obtain help from someone else whom the public guardian considers to be appropriately qualified to give the help; and	9 10 11
(b)	cooperate with any service provider or other entity providing services or dealing with issues affecting children.	12 13 14
	Example—	15
	The public guardian may enter into arrangements to secure a service provider’s cooperation to obtain information about services or issues affecting children.	16 17 18
(3)	The public guardian is entitled to reimbursement from an adult for remuneration paid under subsection (1) in relation to the adult.	19 20 21
(4)	In this section—	22
	service provider includes an entity providing a service under an arrangement that involves a written agreement to which a service provider is a party.	23 24 25
	Example—	26
	services provided to children under foster care arrangements	27

[s 104]

Part 3	External contractors	1
104	Engaging external contractor	2
(1)	The public guardian may, in writing, authorise an entity (an external contractor) to perform a child advocate function (authorised function) the public guardian may perform under this Act.	3 4 5 6
(2)	However, the public guardian may not authorise an external contractor—	7 8
(a)	to provide the community visitor program (child); or	9
(b)	to perform the functions of a community visitor (child); or	10 11
(c)	to apply for a warrant under section 78.	12
(3)	When performing an authorised function, an external contractor has the same powers as the public guardian, including a power of delegation, but not including the power to authorise an external contractor under subsection (1).	13 14 15 16
(4)	The public guardian may give the authority subject to stated conditions and limitations, including, for example, a condition—	17 18 19
(a)	that a particular power only be exercised subject to a decision of the public guardian; or	20 21
	Example—	22
	a condition requiring the external contractor to obtain the public guardian’s approval before delegating a particular power	23 24
(b)	imposing particular duties on the external contractor’s employees.	25 26
	Examples—	27
	• a condition requiring the external contractor to ensure the contractor’s employees receive the training required by the public guardian	28 29 30
	• a condition requiring the external contractor to ensure the contractor’s employees are subject to the equivalent of the	31 32

approved code of conduct for public service agencies, and	1
any approved standard of practice for the office of the public	2
guardian, under the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994	3
(5) The authorisation of an external contractor to perform an	4
authorised function does not relieve the public guardian of the	5 public guardian's obligation to ensure the function is properly	6
performed.	7
(6) Laws apply to the external contractor, and to persons in	8
relationship to the external contractor, in the performance of	9 an authorised function, or in the exercise of a power for an	10 authorised function, as if the external contractor were the	11 public guardian.	12
(7) In this section—	13
entity does not include a public service employee.	14
105 Acts applying to external contractor	15
(1) The Right to Information Act 2009 and the Information	16
Privacy Act 2009 , chapter 3 apply to an external contractor	17
prescribed under a regulation as if—	18
(a) the contractor were an agency; and	19
(b) the holder of a specified office, prescribed by regulation,	20
of the contractor were the chief executive officer of the	21
contractor; and	22
(c) the Minister were the responsible Minister.	23
(2) The Crime and Misconduct Act 2001 applies to an external	24
contractor prescribed under a regulation as if—	25
(a) the contractor were a unit of public administration; and	26
(b) the holder of a specified office, prescribed by regulation,	27
of the contractor were the chief executive officer of the	28
contractor; and	29
(c) a person employed by the contractor were a person	30
holding an appointment in a unit of public	31 administration.	32

[s 106]

- (3) The Judicial Review Act 1991 applies to an external contractor prescribed under a regulation as if—
- (a) the contractor were a State authority; and
 - (b) a decision of an administrative character made, proposed to be made, or required to be made, by the contractor or a person employed by the contractor, whether or not in the exercise of a discretion, were a decision to which that Act applies.
- (4) The Ombudsman Act 2001 applies to an external contractor prescribed under a regulation as if—
- (a) the contractor were an agency; and
 - (b) the holder of a specified office, prescribed by regulation, of the contractor were the chief executive officer of the contractor; and
 - (c) a person employed by the contractor were an officer of an agency; and
 - (d) the Minister were the responsible Minister.
- (5) The Public Interest Disclosure Act 2010 applies to an external contractor as if—
- (a) the contractor were a public sector entity; and
 - (b) a person employed by the contractor were a public officer; and
 - (c) the holder of a specified office, prescribed by regulation, of the contractor were the chief executive officer of the contractor.
- 106 Review of external contractor's performance
- (1) The public guardian may appoint an appropriately qualified person to review an external contractor's performance of its authorised functions.
 - (2) The external contractor must allow the person unlimited access to—

	(a) records relating to the performance of the authorised functions; or	1 2
	(b) persons employed or engaged by the contractor; or	3
	(c) anything else stated in the appointment.	4
(3)	The person must prepare a report on the review for the public guardian and give it to the public guardian.	5 6
Part 4	Appointment of community visitors and child advocacy officers and related provisions	7 8 9
107	Appointment	10
(1)	The public guardian may appoint a person to be—	11
	(a) a community visitor (adult); or	12
	(b) a community visitor (child); or	13
	(c) both a community visitor (adult) and a community visitor (child); or	14 15
	(d) a child advocacy officer.	16
(2)	An appointment may be on a full-time, part-time or casual basis.	17 18
108	Eligibility for appointment as community visitor (adult)	19
(1)	A person is eligible for appointment as a community visitor (adult) only if the public guardian considers the person has knowledge, experience or skills needed to perform the functions of a community visitor (adult).	20 21 22 23
(2)	However, a person may not hold office as a community visitor (adult) while the person—	24 25

(a)	is a public service employee of the disability services department or the health department; or	1 2
(b)	has a direct pecuniary interest in any contract with the disability services department or the health department; or	3 4 5
(c)	has a direct pecuniary interest in any visitable site.	6
(3)	In appointing persons as community visitors (adult), the public guardian must take into account the desirability of community visitors (adult)—	7 8 9
(a)	having a range of knowledge, experience or skills relevant to the exercise of the functions of community visitors (adult); and	10 11 12
(b)	reflecting the social and cultural diversity of the general community.	13 14
(4)	A community visitor (adult) is appointed under this Act and not under the Public Service Act 2008 .	15 16
(5)	For subsection (2), a person is taken to have a direct pecuniary interest if the person's spouse has a direct pecuniary interest.	17 18
109	Eligibility for appointment as community visitor (child)	19
(1)	A person is eligible for appointment as a community visitor (child) only if the public guardian considers the person has the knowledge, experience or skills needed to perform the functions of a community visitor (child).	20 21 22 23
(2)	However, a person may not hold office as a community visitor (child) while the person is—	24 25
(a)	a member of the police service; or	26
(b)	a public service employee employed in—	27
(i)	the child safety department; or	28
(ii)	the corrective services department; or	29
(iii)	the disability services department; or	30

	(iv) the health department; or	1
	(v) the youth justice department; or	2
	(c) engaged in any capacity in relation to a correctional institution, other than as an official visitor under the Corrective Services Act 2006 ; or	3 4 5
	(d) an approved carer under the Child Protection Act.	6
(3)	In appointing persons as community visitors (child), the public guardian must take into account the desirability of community visitors (child)—	7 8 9
	(a) having a range of knowledge, experience or skills relevant to the exercise of the functions of community visitors (child); and	10 11 12
	(b) reflecting the social and cultural diversity of children in Queensland.	13 14
(4)	A community visitor (child) is appointed under this Act and not under the Public Service Act 2008 .	15 16
110	Eligibility for appointment as child advocacy officer	17
	A person is eligible for appointment as a child advocacy officer only if the person is a member of the public guardian's staff and the public guardian considers the person has the knowledge, experience or skills needed to perform the functions of a child advocacy officer.	18 19 20 21 22
111	Duration of appointment as community visitor	23
(1)	A community visitor holds office for a term of not longer than 3 years stated in the visitor's instrument of appointment.	24 25
	Note—	26
	A community visitor may be reappointed—see the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 , section 25(1)(c).	27 28
(2)	A community visitor may resign office by signed notice of resignation given to the public guardian.	29 30

[s 111]

- (3) The public guardian may terminate the appointment of a community visitor if the public guardian is satisfied the community visitor—
- (a) has become physically or mentally incapable of satisfactorily performing the duties of a community visitor; or
 - (b) has performed the community visitor’s duties carelessly, incompetently or inefficiently; or
 - (c) is guilty of misconduct that could warrant dismissal from the public service if the community visitor were a public service officer; or
 - (d) has been found guilty of an offence the public guardian considers makes the person unsuitable to perform the duties of a community visitor.
- (4) Also, the public guardian may, by written notice given to a person, suspend the appointment of the person as a community visitor if—
- (a) the public guardian reasonably suspects a ground mentioned in subsection (3) may exist in relation to the person; and
 - (b) the public guardian needs to make investigations about the person to help the public guardian decide whether the person is suitable to continue to be a community visitor.
- (5) A suspension under subsection (4) starts on the day the person is given written notice of the suspension and ends on the earliest of the following—
- (a) the day the public guardian gives the person written notice that the suspension has ended;
 - (b) the day the public guardian terminates the person’s appointment as a community visitor;
 - (c) the day that is 30 days after the day the suspension starts.

- (6) The public guardian must terminate the appointment of a community visitor (adult) if the chief executive is satisfied the visitor is a person who may not hold office as a community visitor (adult) under section 108(2). 1
4
- (7) The public guardian must terminate the appointment of a community visitor (child) if the chief executive is satisfied the visitor is a person who may not hold office as a community visitor (child) under section 109(2). 5
8
- 112 Terms of appointment of community visitors 9
- (1) The public guardian must decide the remuneration and allowances payable to community visitors. 10 11
- (2) A community visitor is entitled to be paid the remuneration and allowances decided by the public guardian. 12
13
- (3) To the extent this Act does not state the terms on which a community visitor holds office, the visitor holds office on the terms decided by the public guardian and stated in the visitor’s instrument of appointment. 14
15
17
- 113 Limitation of powers 18
- (1) The powers of a community visitor or child advocacy officer may be limited— 19 20
- (a) by regulation; or 21
- (b) under a condition of appointment; or 22
- (c) by written notice of the public guardian given to the visitor or officer. 23
24
- (2) Notice under subsection (1)(c) may be given orally, but must be confirmed in writing as soon as practicable after it is given. 25
26
- 114 Identity card 27
- (1) The public guardian must give each community visitor and each child advocacy officer an identity card. 28
29

[s 115]

- (2) The identity card must— 1
- (a) contain a recent photo of the visitor or officer; and 2
 - (b) be in the approved form; and 3
 - (c) be signed by the visitor or officer; and 4
 - (d) identify the person as— 5
 - (i) a community visitor (adult) under this Act; or 6
 - (ii) a community visitor (child) under this Act; or 7
 - (iii) a community visitor (adult) and a community 8 visitor (child) under this Act; or 9
 - (iv) a child advocacy officer under this Act; and 10
 - (e) state the expiry date for the card. 11
- 115 Failure to return identity card 12
- A person who ceases to be a community visitor or child 13 advocacy officer must return the person’s identity card to the 14 public guardian within 21 days after ceasing to be a 15 community visitor or child advocacy officer, unless the person 16 has a reasonable excuse. 17
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 18
- 116 Production or display of identity card 19
- A community visitor or child advocacy officer may exercise a 20 power in relation to another person only if the visitor or 21 officer— 22
- (a) first produces his or her identity card for the person’s 23 inspection; or 24
 - (b) has the visitor’s or officer’s identity card displayed so it 25 is clearly visible to the other person. 26

Part 5	Assessing suitability of persons to be engaged in particular employment	1
		3
117	Person seeking to be engaged by the public guardian must disclose criminal history	4
		5
	A person seeking to be engaged by the public guardian as a community visitor or child advocacy officer must disclose to the public guardian, before being engaged—	6
		8
	(a) whether or not the person has a criminal history; and	9
	(b) if the person has a criminal history—the person’s complete criminal history.	10
		11
118	Investigations about suitability of applicant to be community visitor or child advocacy officer	12
		13
	(1) The public guardian may make investigations about a person to help the public guardian decide whether the person is suitable to be a community visitor or child advocacy officer.	14
		15
		16
	(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the public guardian may ask the commissioner of the police service for a written report about the criminal history of the person.	17
		18
		19
	(3) The commissioner must give the report to the public guardian.	20
		22
119	Community visitor or child advocacy officer to disclose change in criminal history	23
		24
	(1) This section applies if there is a change in the criminal history of a community visitor or child advocacy officer.	25
		26
	(2) The visitor or officer must immediately disclose the details of the change to the public guardian.	27
		28

[s 120]

- (3) The disclosure under subsection (2) must be in the approved form. 1 2
- (4) Information disclosed in the approved form by the visitor or officer about a conviction or charge for an offence in the visitor's or officer's criminal history must include— 3
5
- (a) the existence of the conviction or charge; and 6
- (b) when the offence was committed or alleged to have been committed; and 7 8
- (c) the details of the offence or alleged offence; and 9
- (d) for a conviction—whether or not a conviction was recorded and the sentence imposed on the visitor or officer. 10
12
- (5) For a visitor or officer who does not have a criminal history, there is taken to be a change in the visitor's or officer's criminal history if the visitor or officer acquires a criminal history. 13
14
16
- 120 Failing to make disclosure or making false, misleading or incomplete disclosure 17 18
- (1) A community visitor or child advocacy officer must not— 19
- (a) fail to give the public guardian a disclosure as required under section 117 or 119, unless the visitor or officer has a reasonable excuse; or 20
22
- (b) give the public guardian an approved form under section 119 that is false, misleading or incomplete in a material particular. 23
24
25
- Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment. 26 27
29
30
- (a) indicates in the approved form the information that the visitor or officer is unable to provide; and 31
32

(b)	otherwise gives the information in the approved form to the best of the visitor's or officer's ability.	1 2
121	Person to be advised of information obtained from commissioner of the police service	3 4
(1)	This section applies to information obtained by the public guardian about a person under section 118 from the commissioner of the police service.	5 6 7
(2)	Before using the information to assess the person's suitability to be a community visitor or child advocacy officer, the public guardian must—	8 9 10
(a)	disclose the information to the person; and	11
(b)	allow the person a reasonable opportunity to make representations to the public guardian about the information.	12 13 14
122	Use of information obtained under this part	15
(1)	This section applies to the public guardian in considering information about a person received under this part.	16 17
(2)	The information must not be used for any purpose other than assessing the person's suitability to be a community visitor or child advocacy officer.	18 19 20
(3)	When making the assessment, the public guardian must have regard to the following matters relating to any criminal history—	21 22 23
(a)	when the offence was committed or was alleged to have been committed;	24 25
(b)	the nature of the offence and its relevance to the person's duties or proposed duties as a community visitor or child advocacy officer;	26 27 28
(c)	anything else the public guardian considers relevant to the assessment of the person.	29 30

[s 123]

123	Guidelines for dealing with information obtained under this part	1 2
(1)	The public guardian must make guidelines, consistent with this Act, for dealing with information obtained by the public guardian under this part.	3 4 5
(2)	The purpose of the guidelines is to ensure—	6
(a)	natural justice is afforded to the persons about whom the information is obtained; and	7 8
(b)	only relevant information is used in assessing the persons' suitability to be appointed as community visitors or child advocacy officers; and	9 10 11
(c)	decisions about the suitability of persons, based on the information, are made consistently.	12 13
(3)	The public guardian must give a copy of the guidelines, on request, to a community visitor or child advocacy officer.	14 15

Part 6 Other provisions 16

124	Annual report	17
(1)	As soon as practicable after the close of each financial year but not later than 4 months after the close, the public guardian must—	18 19 20
(a)	prepare a report on the performance of the public guardian's functions during the year, including—	21 22
(i)	a report on the performance of the adult guardian functions; and	23 24
(ii)	a report on the performance of the child advocate functions; and	25 26
(b)	give a copy of the report to the Minister.	27

(2)	The public guardian must include in the annual report a report on the operations of community visitors during the year, including the number of entries of visitable sites outside normal hours authorised by the public guardian.	1 2 3 4
(3)	The Minister must table a copy of the report in the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days after receiving the report.	5 6
125	Not a statutory body for particular Acts	7
	To remove any doubt, it is declared that the public guardian is not a statutory body for the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982 or the Financial Accountability Act 2009 .	8 9 10 11
Chapter 6	General	12
Part 1	Tribunal provisions (child)	13
126	Meaning of reviewable decision for pt 1	14
(1)	In this part— reviewable decision means any of the following decisions, whether made before or after the commencement of this section—	15 16 17 18
(a)	a decision, under the Child Protection Act, section 87(2), by the chief executive (child safety) not to take action under that subsection;	19 20 21
(b)	a decision by the chief executive (child safety) to take, or not to take, a step under the Child Protection Act, section 122 for the purpose of ensuring a child placed in care under section 82 of that Act is cared for in a way	22 23 24 25

that meets the statement of standards under section 122 of that Act;	1 2
(c) a reviewable child protection decision.	3
(2) For paragraph (b) of the definition reviewable decision in subsection (1), a failure by the chief executive (child safety) to decide to take a step for the purpose mentioned in that paragraph is taken to be a decision not to take the step.	4 5 6 7
(3) Subsection (4) applies if, in the course of the public guardian seeking to have a reviewable decision resolved to the public guardian’s satisfaction—	8 9 10
(a) the chief executive (child safety) amends, or substitutes another reviewable decision for, the first reviewable decision and the amended reviewable decision or substituted reviewable decision does not resolve the matter to the public guardian’s satisfaction; or	11 12 13 14 15
(b) in relation to a failure to take action or to decide to take a step as mentioned in subsection (2)—the chief executive (child safety) actually makes a reviewable decision and the reviewable decision does not resolve the matter to the public guardian’s satisfaction.	16 17 18 19 20
(4) For section 131, the amended or substituted reviewable decision, or the reviewable decision actually made, becomes the reviewable decision.	21 22 23
127 References to public guardian	24
(1) A reference in this part to the public guardian includes a reference to someone authorised in writing by the public guardian for this part.	25 26 27
(2) A person authorised in writing by the public guardian for this part must, if asked, produce evidence of the authorisation.	28 29
128 Right to appear, etc.	30
(1) The public guardian—	31

[s 129]

-
- | | | |
|------------|---|----------------------------|
| (a) | is entitled to support a relevant child at, and participate in, conferences or mediations ordered or facilitated by the tribunal and to present the child's views and wishes at the conference or mediation; and | 1
4 |
| (b) | has a right to appear before the tribunal in relation to a child protection matter for a child— | 5
6 |
| | (i) to present the child's views and wishes to the tribunal; and | 7
8 |
| | (ii) to make submissions, call witnesses and test evidence, including by cross-examining witnesses. | 9
10 |
| (2) | If the public guardian intends to attend at a conference or mediation or appear before the tribunal, the public guardian must give written notice of the intention to the principal registrar of the tribunal registry within a reasonable time before the conference, mediation or appearance. | 11
12
14

[s 130]

130	Access	1
(1)	This section applies to a proceeding in relation to a child protection matter mentioned in section 129 at which the public guardian appears or intends to appear.	2 3 4
(2)	If—	5
	(a) a document has been filed in the tribunal registry for the proceeding; or	6 7
	(b) a document or other thing has been produced to the tribunal or a party to the proceeding under an order under the QCAT Act, section 63 or 97;	8 9 10
	subject to subsection (3), the public guardian must be given a reasonable opportunity to access the document or thing before, during or after a hearing.	11 12 13
(3)	However, the public guardian may access a document filed in the registry or a document or thing produced to the tribunal under an order under section 63 only if a party to the proceeding may also access the document or thing.	14 15 16 17
(4)	If a party to whom a document or thing has been produced fails to give the public guardian access to the document or thing, the tribunal may, on the public guardian’s application, make an order requiring the party to give the public guardian access to the document or thing.	18 19 20 21 22
(5)	Without limiting section 128(1)(b), the public guardian may make submissions about a document or other information accessed under this section.	23 24 25
(6)	This section has effect despite the Child Protection Act, section 99ZF.	26 27
(7)	However, the tribunal may displace the right to access a document or other information only by a confidentiality order.	28 29
(8)	In this section—	30
	confidentiality order see the Child Protection Act, section 99ZD.	31 32

131	Public Guardian may apply for review of reviewable decisions	1 2
(1)	This section applies if, in performing the public guardian’s child advocate functions in relation to a relevant child, the public guardian—	3 4 5
	(a) is dissatisfied with a reviewable decision; and	6
	(b) has been unable to resolve the matter with the chief executive (child safety) to the public guardian’s satisfaction.	7 8 9
(2)	The public guardian may apply, on behalf of the child or on the public guardian’s own initiative, to the tribunal to have the reviewable decision reviewed.	10 11 12
(3)	The public guardian may apply to the tribunal only if the public guardian is satisfied that to do so would be in the child’s best interests.	13 14 15
(4)	Before the public guardian may apply to the tribunal to have the reviewable decision reviewed, the public guardian must give the chief executive (child safety) a written notice stating—	16 17 18 19
	(a) the public guardian is dissatisfied with the decision; and	20
	(b) the reasons the public guardian is dissatisfied with the decision; and	21 22
	(c) the matter has not been resolved to the public guardian’s satisfaction; and	23 24
	(d) the public guardian intends to apply to the tribunal for a review of the decision.	25 26

[s 132]

Part 2	Evidence and legal proceedings	1 2
132	Proof of status as relevant child	3
(1)	This section applies to a proceeding under or in relation to this Act and for any other purpose.	4 5
(2)	A certificate signed by the public guardian that an identified child is or was a relevant child at a stated time or during a stated period is proof that the child is or was a relevant child at the stated time or during the stated period.	6 7 8 9
133	Evidentiary provisions	10
(1)	This section applies to a proceeding under or in relation to this Act.	11 12
(2)	Unless a party, by reasonable notice, requires proof of—	13
(a)	the appointment of a community visitor or child advocacy officer under this Act; or	14 15
(b)	the authority of a community visitor or child advocacy officer to do something under this Act;	16 17
	the appointment or authority must be presumed.	18
(3)	A signature purporting to be the signature of the public guardian, a community visitor or child advocacy officer is evidence of the signature it purports to be.	19 20 21
(4)	A certificate purporting to be signed by the public guardian stating either of the following matters is evidence of the matter—	22 23 24
(a)	a stated document is a copy of a notice given or issued under this Act;	25 26
(b)	on a stated day, a stated person was given a stated notice under this Act.	27 28

134	Proceeding for offences	1
	A proceeding for an offence against this Act must be taken in a summary way under the Justices Act 1886 .	2 3
135	When proceeding may start	4
	A proceeding for an offence against this Act may be started within—	5 6
	(a) 1 year after the offence is committed; or	7
	(b) 1 year after the offence comes to the complainant’s knowledge, but within 2 years after the offence is committed.	8 9 10
Part 3	False or misleading statements or documents	11 12
136	False or misleading statements	13
	A person must not state anything to the public guardian the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	14 15
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	16
137	False or misleading documents	17
	(1) A person must not give the public guardian a document containing information the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.	18 19 20
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	21
	(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person, when giving the document—	22 23
	(a) tells the public guardian, to the best of the person’s ability, how it is false or misleading; and	24 25

[s 138]

- (b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information—gives the correct information. 1
2

Part 4 Confidentiality 3

138 Confidentiality of information 4

- (1) This section applies to confidential information. 5
- (2) If a person gains confidential information through involvement in the administration of this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act, the person must not— 6
9
- (a) make a record of the information or intentionally disclose the information to anyone, other than under subsection (4); or 10 11
12
- (b) recklessly disclose the information to anyone. 13
- Maximum penalty—200 penalty units. 14
- (3) A person gains confidential information through involvement in the administration of this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act if the person gains the information because of being, or an opportunity given by being— 15
16
18
- (a) the Minister or a member of the Minister’s staff; or 19
- (b) the public guardian; or 20
- (c) a member of the public guardian’s staff, including a child advocacy officer; or 21
22
- (d) a community visitor; or 23
- (e) a person consulted or employed by the public guardian for this Act; or 24
25
- (f) a public guardian’s delegate for an investigation; or 26
- (g) an external contractor; or 27

- (h) a person authorised in writing by the public guardian under section 127. 1 2
- (4) A person may make a record of confidential information or disclose it to someone else— 3
4
- (a) for this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act; or 5 6
- (b) to discharge a function under another law; or 7
- (c) for a proceeding in a court or the tribunal; or 8
- (d) if authorised by a court or the tribunal in the interests of justice; or 9 10
- (e) if authorised by regulation or another law; or 11
- (f) if the person is authorised in writing by the person to whom the information relates; or 12
13
- (g) for the purpose of obtaining counselling, advice or other treatment for the person to whom the information relates; or 14
15
16
- (h) for the purpose of reporting a suspected offence to a police officer or helping a police officer in the investigation of a suspected offence; or 17
18
19
- (i) if the confidential information relates to an adult with impaired capacity for a matter— 20 21
- (i) to prevent a serious risk to the adult’s life, health or safety; or 22
23
- (ii) for the purpose of obtaining legal or financial advice; or 24
25
- (iii) to assist the public advocate in the performance of functions under the Guardianship Act; or 26
27
- (j) if the confidential information relates to a child—for a purpose related to protecting the child’s rights and interests, including the child’s wellbeing or protection. 28
29

[s 139]

139	Confidentiality of information given by persons involved in administration of Act to other persons	1 2
(1)	This section applies to a person (the receiver) who is given confidential information under section 138(4).	3 4
(2)	The receiver must not use or disclose the information to anyone else. Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.	5 6 7
(3)	However, the receiver may use or disclose the information to someone else—	8 9
(a)	if the use or disclosure is authorised by the public guardian; or	10 11
(b)	if the use or disclosure is otherwise required or permitted by law.	12 13
140	Disclosure of information about investigations	14
(1)	Section 138 does not prevent the public guardian from disclosing information to the public or a section of the public about an issue the subject of an investigation by the public guardian if the public guardian is satisfied the disclosure is necessary and reasonable in the public interest.	15 16 17 18 19
(2)	In deciding whether the disclosure is necessary and reasonable in the public interest, the public guardian must have regard to the following—	20 21 22
(a)	any likely prejudice to the investigation;	23
(b)	any need to protect the identity of a complainant or another entity;	24 25
(c)	any circumstances of urgency.	26
(3)	Also, if the disclosure would include information adverse to an entity and procedural fairness would ordinarily require the public guardian to give the entity notice of the information and an opportunity to comment on it, the public guardian—	27 28 29 30

[s 141]

- (a) must have regard to this fact in deciding whether the disclosure is necessary and reasonable in the public interest; but
- (b) may decide the disclosure is necessary and reasonable in the public interest despite the entity not being given notice of the information and an opportunity to comment on it.
- 141 Disclosure by public guardian of information for research purposes
- (1) The public guardian may disclose the information to a person undertaking research if—
- (a) the public guardian is satisfied the research is genuine; and
- (b) the person gives a written undertaking to preserve the confidentiality of the information and the anonymity of the person to whom the information relates.
- (2) The person must not contravene the undertaking.
Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.
- (3) If the person contravenes the undertaking and by contravening it also contravenes the Child Protection Act, section 189, the person may be prosecuted under this section or the Child Protection Act, section 189 at the election of the prosecution.

Part 5 Miscellaneous

- 142 Complaints agency or other government service provider to inform public guardian about actions taken for complaint
- (1) The public guardian may—

[s 142]

- (a) make a complaint about services provided by a service provider to a relevant child to a complaints agency or other government service provider; or
- (b) on behalf of a relevant child, refer a complaint about the services to a complaints agency or other government service provider.
- (2) If the public guardian makes a complaint or refers a complaint under subsection (1), the public guardian, by written notice to the complaints agency or government service provider, may ask for information about—
- (a) the outcome of the complaint, including any action taken to address the complaint; or
- (b) a decision not to investigate or to continue to investigate the complaint and the reasons for the decision.
- (3) The complaints agency or government service provider must comply with a request for information from the public guardian under subsection (2).
- (4) Subsection (3) applies despite any express provision in an Act establishing a complaints agency that makes it an offence for anyone involved with administration of the Act to disclose the information.
- (5) In this section—
- complaints agency means any of the following—
- (a) the Anti-Discrimination Commissioner under the Anti-Discrimination Act 1991;
- (b) the Crime and Misconduct Commission under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001;
- (c) the Health Ombudsman under the Health Ombudsman Act 2013;
- (d) the ombudsman under the Ombudsman Act 2001.
- service provider includes an entity providing a service under an arrangement that involves a written agreement to which the service provider is a party.

Example—	1
services provided to children under foster care arrangements	2
143 Protection from liability	3
(1) An official is not civilly liable for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act, the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act.	4 5 6
(2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to an official, the liability attaches instead to the State.	7 8
(3) However, no-one, including the State, is liable for an honest report by a community visitor under section 47 or 70.	9 10
(4) In this section—	11
official means—	12
(a) the Minister; or	13
(b) a community visitor; or	14
(c) a person consulted or employed by the public guardian; or	15 16
(d) a person acting under the direction of the public guardian or a member of the public guardian’s staff.	17 18
144 Delegation	19
(1) The public guardian may delegate the public guardian’s functions and powers under this Act or another Act (other than the powers under section 25(1), 29 and 104) to—	20 21 22
(a) an appropriately qualified member of the public guardian’s staff; or	23 24
(b) another individual, including a community visitor, who the public guardian considers is an appropriately qualified person to perform the functions or exercise the powers delegated to the person.	25 26 27 28

[s 145]

- (2) A person exercising the public guardian’s mediation or conciliation power under a delegation must, if asked, produce evidence of the delegation. 1
3
5
7
- (a) an appropriately qualified person who is caring for the adult; 8 9
- (b) a health provider of the adult; 10
- Note—* 11
- This is despite an adult’s health provider not being eligible to be appointed as the adult’s guardian or administrator (see the Guardianship Act, section 14(1) (Appointment of 1 or more eligible guardians and administrators)) or as the adult’s attorney (see the Powers of Attorney Act, section 29 (Meaning of eligible attorney)). 12
13
15
16
17
- (c) an attorney under an enduring document; 18
- (d) 1 of the persons who could be eligible to be the adult’s statutory health attorney. 19 20
- (4) In this section— 21
- day-to-day decision means a minor, uncontroversial decision about day-to-day issues that involves no more than a low risk to the adult. 22
23
24
- Example of day-to-day decision—* 25
- a decision about podiatry, physiotherapy, non-surgical treatment of pressure sores and health care for colds and influenza 26

(3)	The terms of the person’s appointment as a community visitor under the former Act are taken to be the terms of the person’s appointment as a community visitor (child) under this Act, with necessary changes, until changed by the public guardian under this Act.	20 21 22 23 24
(4)	If the person is appointed as a community visitor (child) under section 107 before the end of 30 September 2014, no amount, whether by way of compensation, reimbursement or otherwise is payable by the State for or in connection with the ending of the person’s appointment as a community visitor under subsection (2)(a).	25 26 27 28 29 30
(5)	If the person is not appointed as a community visitor (child) under section 107 before the end of 30 September 2014, no	31 32 amount, whether by way of compensation, reimbursement or 1 otherwise is payable by the State for or in connection with the 2 ending of the person's appointment as a community visitor 3 under subsection (2)(b), other than as expressly provided for 4 under the person's terms of appointment or the *Industrial 5

Relations Act 1999*. 6

(6) For the purpose of working out the person's entitlements 7 under the Industrial Relations Act 1999, employment by the 8 commissioner and employment by the public guardian are 9 taken to be employment by the same employer. 10

(7) A notice under the Industrial Relations Act 1999 given by a 11 person holding appointment as a community visitor under 12 repealed section 107 immediately before the commencement 13 to the commissioner as the person's employer is taken to have 14 been given to the public guardian. 15

(8) If, under the person's instrument of appointment as a 16 community visitor, a decision about an entitlement was 17 required to be made by the commissioner or assistant 18 commissioner, the decision must now be made by the public 19 guardian. 20

155 Repealed s 111 (Failure to return identity card) 21

(1) This section applies to a person who ceased to be a 22 community visitor before the commencement and has not 23 returned the person's identity card to the commissioner before 24
the commencement. 25

(2) The person must return the person's identity card to the public 26 guardian as soon as possible after the commencement (but 27 within 21 days), unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 28

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 29

156 Repealed s 370 (Commissioner may apply for review of 30 reviewable decisions) 31

(1) This section applies if, before the commencement— 32

- (a) the commissioner applied to QCAT to have a reviewable decision reviewed under repealed section 370; and 1 2
- (b) the reviewable decision had not been reviewed. 3
- (2) For the purpose of reviewing the reviewable decision— 4
- (a) a reference to the commissioner in a document relevant to the review is taken to be a reference to the public guardian; and 5
7
- (b) the review may proceed as if the application had been made under section 131. 8 9
- 157 Transitional regulation-making power 10
- (1) A regulation (a transitional regulation) may make provision of a saving or transitional nature about any matter— 11
12
- (a) for which it is necessary to make provision to allow or facilitate the doing of anything to achieve the transition from the former Act to this Act; and 13
14
15
- (b) for which this Act does not make provision or sufficient provision. 16
17
- (2) A transitional regulation may have retrospective operation to a day that is not earlier than the day on which this section commences. 18 19
20
- (3) A transitional regulation must declare it is a transitional regulation. 21
22
- (4) This section and any transitional regulation expire 6 months after this section commences. 23

Part 2	Transitional provisions for the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000	1 2 3
158	Definition	4
	In this part—	5
	commencement means 1 July 2014.	6
159	References to adult guardian	7
	In an Act or document, a reference to the adult guardian is, if the context permits, taken to be a reference to the public guardian.	8 9 10
160	References to repealed sections	11
	In this part, a reference to a repealed section by number is a reference to the repealed section of that number of the Guardianship Act.	12 13 14
161	Public guardian is successor in law of adult guardian	15
	The public guardian is the successor in law of the adult guardian.	16 17
162	Repealed s 173 (Adult guardian)	18
	(1) The person who, immediately before the commencement, held the office of adult guardian goes out of office.	19 20
	(2) However, the person holding the office of adult guardian before the commencement is to be offered appointment to the office of public guardian effective on the commencement.	21 22 23
	(3) Subsection (2) applies despite section 94.	24

- (4) The Minister must give the person a written notice stating the conditions decided by the Governor in Council for appointment to the office. 1
3
- (5) If the person consents to hold office as the public guardian— 4
- (a) the person holds the office subject to this Act and the conditions decided by the Governor in Council until 12 August 2015; and 5
7
- (b) no amount, whether by way of compensation, reimbursement or otherwise is payable by the State for or in connection with the abolition of the adult guardian’s office. 8
9
11
- (6) If the person does not consent to hold office as public guardian, no amount, whether by way of compensation, reimbursement or otherwise is payable by the State for or in connection with the abolition of the adult guardian’s office, other than as expressly provided for under the person’s contract of employment. 12
13
15
16
17
- (7) It is declared that subsection (6) does not limit or otherwise affect the person’s right to a benefit or entitlement that, under the person’s contract, had accrued or was accruing immediately before the commencement. 18 19
20
21
- (8) Also, if the person does not consent to hold the office, on the commencement, a benefit or entitlement mentioned in subsection (7) ceases to accrue and becomes payable as if— 22
23
24
- (a) the person’s contract had, according to its terms, been terminated on that day; and 25 26
- (b) the termination is other than by the person. 27
- (9) Nothing in this section displaces the operation of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 17. 28
29

163 Repealed s 177 (Delegation) 30

- (1) A delegation made by the adult guardian under repealed section 177(1), (2) or (4) and in force immediately before the commencement continues in force, with necessary changes, as 31
32
33

[s 164]

	if the delegation had been made by the public guardian under section 144.	1 2
(2)	A delegation mentioned in subsection (1) ends 12 months after the commencement unless earlier revoked by the public guardian.	3 4 5
164	Repealed s 178 (Consultation and employment of professionals)	6 7
(1)	This section applies if, under repealed section 178, the adult guardian consulted or employed a professional under a contract that was in force immediately before the commencement.	8 9 10 11
(2)	The contract continues in force according to its terms (with necessary changes) as if it had been entered into by the public guardian under section 103.	12 13 14
(3)	In this section— contract includes written arrangement.	15 16
165	Repealed s 179 (Advice and supervision)	17
(1)	An attorney, guardian or administrator who, immediately before the commencement, is subject to the adult guardian's supervision under a written notice given under repealed section 179 continues to be subject to the public guardian's supervision in accordance with the written notice as if the notice had been given by the public guardian under section 18.	18 19 20 21 22 23
(2)	A requirement made of an attorney under repealed section 179 to present a plan of management for approval that has not, on the commencement, been complied with continues to have effect according to its terms as if the notice had been given by the public guardian under section 18.	24 25 26 27 28

166	Repealed s 180 (Investigate complaints)	1
	A complaint or allegation made to the adult guardian under repealed section 180 that has not been investigated or fully investigated on the commencement may be investigated by the public guardian under section 19.	2 3 4 5
167	Repealed s 181 (Delegate for investigation)	6
(1)	This section applies if the adult guardian delegated the adult guardian's powers under repealed chapter 8, part 2 (other than the power to give notice under section 185(1) or 189) to a person to investigate a complaint or allegation and the investigation had not been completed on the commencement.	7 8 9 10 11
(2)	The person may continue to carry out the investigation, make a written report and give a copy of the report to the public guardian as if the delegation had been given by the public guardian under section 20.	12 13 14 15
168	Repealed s 182 (Records and audit)	16
	A written notice given by the adult guardian to an attorney or an administrator under repealed section 182 that has not been complied with on the commencement continues to have effect according to its terms (with necessary changes) as if the notice had been given by the public guardian under section 21.	17 18 19 20 21
169	Repealed s 183 (Right to information)	22
	A written notice given by the adult guardian under repealed section 183(2) that has not been complied with on the commencement continues to have effect according to its terms (with necessary changes) as if the notice had been given by the public guardian under section 22.	23 24 25 26 27

170	Repealed s 184 (Information by statutory declaration)	1
171	Repealed s 185 (Witnesses)	7
172	Repealed s 186 (Power of court if noncompliance with attendance notice)	13 14
	If a subpoena is issued by a Magistrates Court at the request of the adult guardian requiring the attendance of a person before the court on or after the commencement—	15 16 17
	(a) the subpoena continues to have effect as if it had been issued at the request of the public guardian under section 26; and	18 19 20
	(b) the public guardian may examine the person when the person attends before the court under the subpoena.	21 22
173	Repealed s 189 (Cost of investigations and audits)	23
	(2) If—	29

- (a) an investigation concerning a financial matter or an audit was undertaken under repealed section 189(1) at the request of a person; and
- (b) the public guardian is satisfied the request was frivolous or vexatious or otherwise without good cause; and
- (c) no notice had been given by the adult guardian under repealed section 189(1);
- the public guardian may, by written notice under section 29(1), require a person to pay to the public guardian the amount the public guardian considers appropriate for the cost of the investigation or audit.
- (3) A written notice under repealed section 189(2) that has not been complied with on the commencement continues to have effect according to its terms (with necessary changes) as if the notice had been given by the public guardian under section 29(2).
- (4) If—
- (a) an investigation concerning a financial matter or an audit was undertaken under repealed section 189(2); and
- (b) the public guardian considers the attorney or administrator concerned had contravened the Guardianship Act or the Powers of Attorney Act; and
- (c) no notice had been given by the adult guardian under repealed section 189(2);
- the public guardian may, by written notice under section 29(2), require the attorney or administrator to personally pay to the public guardian the amount the public guardian considers appropriate for the cost of the investigation or audit.

174 Repealed s 193 (Report after investigation or audit)

- (1) This section applies if the adult guardian carried out or was carrying out an investigation or audit under repealed section 189 and had not made and given a written report about the investigation or audit to a person under repealed section 193.

[s 175]

- (2) If the investigation or audit was not completed, or a copy of the report was not made and given to a person under repealed section 193, before the commencement, the public guardian may complete the investigation or audit and make and give a copy of the report to the person under section 31. 1
