332A Surveillance device warrant authorises use of existing device	1
	2
(1) This section applies to a surveillance device warrant of a kind mentioned in section 332(1)(a), (b) or (c) that authorises the use of a stated kind of surveillance device on premises, or in or on a vehicle, object or class of vehicle or object.	3
	4
	7
(2) The surveillance device warrant also authorises the use of a device (an existing device) that is on the premises, or in or on the vehicle or object, or a vehicle or object of the class, as a surveillance device of the stated kind.	8
	9
	10
	11
	12
Example of an existing device—	13
a security camera	14
(3) This section applies whether or not it is necessary to do anything to or in relation to the existing device to enable it to be used as a surveillance device.	15

Clause 15	Insertion of new ch 13, pt 3A	7
	Chapter 13—	8
	insert—	9
	Part 3A
	Tracking device authorisations	10 11
	348A Power to give tracking device authorisation	12
	(1) A senior officer of the police service may authorise a police officer to use a tracking device for a stated period (the authorisation period) to find or monitor the geographical location of a person if—	13 14 15 16 17
	(a) the person is to be taken into custody; and	18
	(b) the senior officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds that—	19 20
	(i) taking the person into custody may pose a serious risk to the safety of the person or another person; and	21 22 23
	(ii) the use of a tracking device will help in taking the person into custody at a time or location that minimises the risk.	24 25 26
	(2) An authorisation given under subsection (1) is a tracking device authorisation .	27 28
	(3) The authorisation period for a tracking device authorisation must not be longer than 48 hours after the authorisation is given.	29 30 31

- (4) Section 332(1) to (5) applies to a tracking device authorisation as if a reference in the subsections to a surveillance device warrant were a reference to a tracking device authorisation. 1
2
3
4
- (5) However— 5
- (a) section 332(2) and (4) applies to a tracking device authorisation subject to any conditions of the authorisation; and 6 7
8
- (b) a tracking device authorisation must not authorise entry into a dwelling— 9 10
- (i) to install a tracking device or enhancement equipment in the dwelling; or 11 12
13
- (ii) to retrieve a tracking device or enhancement equipment from the dwelling. 14
15
16
- (6) A tracking device authorisation authorises the use of the tracking device stated in the authorisation and any enhancement equipment for the purpose of retrieving the device and equipment. 17
18
20

348B Tracking device authorisation authorises use of existing device 21
22

- (1) This section applies to a tracking device authorisation that authorises the use of a tracking device on premises, or in or on a vehicle, object or class of vehicle or object. 23
24
26
- (2) The tracking device authorisation also authorises the use of a device (an existing device) that is on the premises, or in or on the vehicle or object, or a vehicle or object of the class, as a tracking device. 27
28
29
30
31
- (3) This section applies— 32

[s 15]

- (a) whether or not it is necessary to do anything 1 to or in relation to the existing device to 2 enable it to be used as a tracking device; and 3
- (b) subject to any conditions of the tracking 4
device authorisation. 5

348C Record of tracking device authorisation 6

As soon as reasonably practicable after a tracking 7 device authorisation is given, the senior officer of 8
the police service who gave the authorisation 9 must make a written record stating— 10

- (a) the date and time the authorisation was 11
given; and 12
- (b) the grounds for giving the authorisation. 13

348D When tracking device authorisation ends 14

(1) A tracking device authorisation ends when the 15
first of the following happens— 16

- (a) the person to whom the authorisation relates 17 is taken into custody; 18
- (b) the authorisation period for the authorisation 19 ends or, if the authorisation period is 20 extended under section 348E, the period as 21 extended ends. 22

(2) If a tracking device authorisation ends under 23
subsection (1), the authorisation stops having 24 effect other than to the extent it authorises— 25

- (a) the retrieval of the tracking device and any 26 enhancement equipment; and 27
- (b) the use of the tracking device and any 28 enhancement equipment for the purpose of 29 retrieving the device and equipment. 30

(3) However, after a tracking device authorisation 31 ends, a police officer may exercise a power 1 mentioned in subsection (2) only if a senior 2 officer of the police service approves the exercise. 3

- (4) This section does not stop a police officer from 4 retrieving a tracking device and any enhancement 5 equipment from premises if the presence of the 6 police officer on the premises is not an offence. 7

348E Extension of tracking device authorisation 8

- (1) Before a tracking device authorisation ends, a 9 senior officer of the police service may extend the 10 authorisation period for the authorisation, if the 11 officer is satisfied on reasonable grounds of the 12 matters mentioned in section 348A(1)(b). 13
- (2) The authorisation period may be extended more 14
than once, but must not be extended by more than 15 48 hours each time. 16
- (3) As soon as reasonably practicable after extending 17
the authorisation period, the senior officer of the 18 police service must make a written record 19 stating— 20
- (a) the date and time the extension was given; 21 and 22
 - (b) the length of the extension; and 23
 - (c) the grounds for the extension. 24

	Dealing with explosives	29

[s 25]

715A Commissioner may authorise police officers to destroy explosives	1 2
The commissioner may authorise a police officer to destroy relevant things that are explosives, if the police officer—	3 4 5
(a) has the necessary experience or expertise to be able to destroy explosives; or	6 7
(b) has satisfactorily completed a course of training about the destruction of explosives approved by the commissioner.	8 9 10
715B Destruction of explosives	11
(1) This section applies in relation to a relevant thing that is an explosive.	12 13
(2) An approved officer may destroy the explosive where it is found or move it, or arrange for it to be moved, to another place where it can safely be destroyed, if—	14 15 16 17
(a) the approved officer is satisfied it is not reasonably practicable to take the explosive to a property point or to keep it at a police station; or	18 19 20 21
(b) it may be dangerous to take the explosive to a property point or to keep it at a police station.	22 23 24
(3) Before destroying the explosive, a police officer must, if reasonably practicable, photograph the explosive where it is found.	25 26 27
(4) This section applies even though a proceeding for an offence in which the explosive may be relevant has not been started or, if started, has not been decided.	28 29 30 31
(5) However, this section does not apply if a declaration has been made under the Public Safety Preservation Act 1986 , section 5, 8G or 12 in	32 33 34

	relation to the explosive.	1

omit, insert—

- (6) A declaration under section 5 or 8G of an area surrounding a moving activity, or an extraordinary emergency authorisation for an area surrounding a moving activity—

- (a) may be made even if the area is outside Queensland at the time the declaration is made or the authorisation is given; and

- (b) is not affected if the area moves outside Queensland while the declaration or authorisation is in effect.

	Division 4 Extraordinary emergency powers	11 12
	Subdivision 1 Authorising exercise of extraordinary emergency powers	13 14 15
	8AS Power to authorise exercise of extraordinary emergency powers	16 17
	(1) This section applies if—	18
	(a) an emergency situation has, under section 5, been declared to exist in respect of a specified area; and	19 20 21
	(b) a terrorist emergency has not, under section 8G, been declared to exist in relation to the emergency situation; and	22 23 24
	(c) the emergency commander is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the emergency situation involves or may involve—	25 26 27
	(i) an explosive; or	28

- (ii) a person's life or safety being seriously endangered by an act of another person; and
- Examples for subparagraph (ii)—*
- the person is being held hostage by the other person
 - the other person has a weapon and is close to or has access to the person
- (d) the emergency commander is satisfied on reasonable grounds that the exercise of 1 or more particular extraordinary emergency powers is necessary to effectively deal with the emergency situation because of the scale or complexity of the situation.
- Examples of complex emergency situations—*
- 1 A number of people have been wounded by a weapon in a crowded public place and it is not known who used the weapon.
 - 2 An explosion has occurred inside a public building and there are reports that further explosives have been placed at the main exits from the building.
- (2) The emergency commander may authorise the exercise, under this subdivision, of stated extraordinary emergency powers in a stated area (the authorisation area) within the area specified for the emergency situation.
- (3) The exercise of the stated extraordinary emergency powers is subject to section 8AZ.
- (4) The authorisation area must be the smallest area reasonably necessary to effectively deal with the emergency situation.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (2), an authorisation area may be any description of area surrounding a moving activity.

[s 35]

Examples—

- an area within a stated distance of a stated moving motor vehicle or vessel
- an area within a stated distance of a stated person who is on foot, in a moving motor vehicle or vessel or moving in another way

8AT Steps after giving extraordinary emergency authorisation

As soon as reasonably practicable after giving an extraordinary emergency authorisation for an emergency situation, the emergency commander must—

- (a) ensure that a State police officer of at least the rank of assistant commissioner is informed that the authorisation has been given; and
- (b) note the following matters on the emergency situation certificate for the emergency situation—
 - (i) that the authorisation has been given;
 - (ii) the date and time the authorisation was given;
 - (iii) the authorisation area;
 - (iv) the extraordinary emergency powers that may be exercised;
 - (v) the circumstances relevant to the giving of the authorisation.

8AU Changes to extraordinary emergency authorisation

The emergency commander may, at any time, change the authorisation area, or the circumstances relevant to the giving of the

- extraordinary emergency authorisation, by— 1
- (a) amending the description of the area or 2 circumstances on the emergency situation 3 certificate; and 4
- (b) noting the date and time of the amendment 5
on the emergency situation certificate. 6

8AV When extraordinary emergency authorisation 7 ends 8

An extraordinary emergency authorisation for an 9 emergency situation ends when the first of the 10
following happens— 11

- (a) the authorisation is revoked by the 12
emergency commander; 13
- (b) the declaration made under section 5 for the 14
emergency situation is revoked; 15
- (c) a declaration is made under section 8G that 16
a terrorist emergency exists in relation to the 17
emergency situation. 18

8AW When extraordinary emergency authorisation 19 must be revoked 20

- (1) The emergency commander must revoke an 21 extraordinary emergency authorisation for an 22 emergency situation if satisfied that the exercise 23 of each of the extraordinary emergency powers 24 stated in the authorisation is no longer necessary 25 to effectively deal with the emergency situation. 26
- (2) If the emergency commander revokes the 27 extraordinary emergency authorisation, the 28 emergency commander must as soon as 29 reasonably practicable— 30

[s 35]

- (a) note the date and time of the revocation on the emergency situation certificate for the emergency situation; and
- (b) inform police officers of the revocation.

8AX Effect if extraordinary emergency authorisation ends because of terrorist emergency

- (1) This section applies if an extraordinary emergency authorisation for an emergency situation ends under section 8AV(c) because a terrorist emergency has been declared to exist for the emergency situation.
- (2) A direction given, or requirement made, in relation to the emergency situation and mentioned in column 1 of the following table continues in effect for the terrorist emergency as if—
 - (a) the direction were given, or the requirement were made, by a terrorist emergency officer in relation to the terrorist emergency under the section mentioned opposite in column 2 of the following table; and
 - (b) the declared area for the terrorist emergency includes the authorisation area, if it does not already do so.

Column 1 Direction or requirement	Column 2 Section
a direction given under section 8AZA(2)	section 8M(2)
a requirement made under section 8AZC(2)	section 8O(1)
a requirement made under section 8AZC(3)	section 8O(2)

Column 1 Direction or requirement	Column 2 Section
a requirement made under section 8AZE(2)	section 8PAB(2)
(3) Subsection (4) applies if—		1
(a) an emergency situation officer is exercising a power under section 8AZB(2) in relation to a person when the terrorist emergency is declared to exist; and		2 3 4 5
(b) the declared area for the terrorist emergency does not include the authorisation area.		6 7
(4) The emergency situation officer may—		8
(a) continue to exercise the power; and		9
(b) if the extraordinary emergency authorisation authorises the exercise of a power under section 8AZB(3) or 8AZE(2) or (6)—exercise the power in relation to the person as if the extraordinary emergency authorisation were still in effect.		10 11 12 13 14 15
(5) A thing seized under section 8AZB(3) in relation to the emergency situation is taken to have been seized under section 8N(3) in relation to the terrorist emergency.		16 17 18 19
(6) A thing seized under section 8AZE(6) in relation to the emergency situation is taken to have been seized under section 8PAB(6) in relation to the terrorist emergency.		20 21 22 23
(7) A person's biometric information taken and kept under section 8AZD in relation to the emergency situation is taken to have been taken and kept under section 8PAA in relation to the terrorist emergency.		24 25 26 27 28

[s 35]

Subdivision 2	Exercise of extraordinary emergency powers	1
		2
8AY	Application of subdivision	3
	This subdivision applies if an extraordinary emergency authorisation is in effect for an emergency situation.	4 5 6
8AZ	Grounds for exercise of power	7
(1)	An emergency situation officer may exercise an extraordinary emergency power stated in the extraordinary emergency authorisation only if—	8 9 10
(a)	for a power under section 8AZA(2)—the officer is satisfied that giving a person a direction under that section is necessary—	11 12 13
(i)	for the safety of the person or another person; or	14 15
(ii)	to effectively manage the evacuation of the person; or	16 17
(iii)	to effectively receive, identify or assess the person; or	18 19
(iv)	otherwise, to effectively deal with the emergency situation; or	20 21
(b)	for a power under a section other than section 8AZA(2)—the officer is satisfied the exercise of the power is necessary to effectively deal with the emergency situation.	22 23 24 25 26
(2)	An emergency situation officer exercising an extraordinary emergency power may use the force that is reasonably necessary.	27 28 29

8AZA Power to control movement of persons	1
(1) This section applies to a person who is in the authorisation area.	2 3
(2) An emergency situation officer may direct the person—	4 5
(a) not to enter a stated place in the authorisation area; or	6 7
(b) to go to, or stay at or in, a stated place in the authorisation area.	8 9
(3) When an emergency situation officer is satisfied a direction given under subsection (2) is no longer reasonably necessary for a purpose mentioned in section 8AZ(1)(a), the officer must ensure the direction is withdrawn.	10 11 12 13 14
(4) A person given a direction under subsection (2) is not, for that reason only, under arrest or in the custody of a police officer for the purposes of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 .	15 16 17 18
(5) A direction given under subsection (2) is not an enforcement act under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 .	19 20 21
8AZB Power to search a person without a warrant	22
(1) This section applies to a person who is in the authorisation area.	23 24
(2) An emergency situation officer may, without a warrant, stop, detain and search the person, and anything in the person's possession, for anything relevant to the emergency situation.	25 26 27 28
Examples of things that may be searched—	29
laptop, mobile phone	30
(3) The emergency situation officer may seize all or part of a thing if the officer reasonably suspects—	31 32

[s 35]

- (a) the thing may provide evidence of the commission of an offence; or
- (b) the person may use the thing to cause harm to the person or another person.
- (4) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 20, applies as if anything done under subsection (2) or (3) were done under that Act.
- (5) Nothing done under this section, other than the search mentioned in subsection (6), is an enforcement act under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.
- (6) A search of a person involving the removal of the person's clothing, other than outer clothing, is an enforcement act under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.
- 8AZC Power to require name, address and date of birth
- (1) This section applies to a person who is in the authorisation area.
- (2) An emergency situation officer may require the person to state the person's correct name, address and date of birth.
- (3) Also, an emergency situation officer may require the person to give evidence of the correctness of the stated name, address and date of birth if, in the circumstances, it would be reasonable to expect the person—
- (a) to be in possession of evidence of the correctness of the stated name, address and date of birth; or
- (b) to otherwise be able to give the evidence.

8AZD Power to collect biometric information	1
(1) This section applies to a person who is in the authorisation area.	2 3
(2) An emergency situation officer may take and keep a photograph of the person for the purpose of identifying the person.	4 5 6
(3) Subsection (4) applies if—	7
(a) the person has not complied with a requirement under section 8AZC(2); or	8 9
(b) the person has not given evidence of the correctness of the name, address or date of birth stated by the person; or	10 11 12
(c) an emergency situation officer reasonably suspects that—	13 14
(i) the name, address or date of birth stated by the person is false; or	15 16
(ii) evidence given by the person of the correctness of the name, address or date of birth stated by the person is false.	17 18 19 20
(4) An emergency situation officer may, for the purpose of identifying the person or confirming the person's identity—	21 22 23
(a) electronically take and keep the person's fingerprints; and	24 25
(b) use a biometric system to compare the person's biometric information with other biometric information stored in the system.	26 27 28
(5) Subsection (6) applies if the commissioner is satisfied that a person's biometric information taken under this section—	29 30 31
(a) is no longer required for the investigation or prosecution of an offence relating to an emergency; and	32 33 34

(b) is no longer required for an inquiry or 1 inquest, or proposed inquiry or inquest, in 2 relation to an emergency, including, for 3 example, a commission of inquiry or an 4 investigation under the Coroners Act 2003. 5

(6) The commissioner must take reasonable steps to 6 destroy the biometric information, and any data 7 about the biometric information, held by the 8
Queensland Police Service. 9

8AZE Power to require access information 10

(1) This section applies if— 11

(a) under section 8AZB, a storage device is 12 being searched or has been seized; and 13

(b) information stored on the storage device is 14 accessible, or can be read, only by using 15 access information; and 16

(c) an emergency situation officer reasonably 17 suspects that a person knows, has or is able 18 to provide the access information. 19

(2) An emergency situation officer may require the 20 person to give the officer— 21

(a) the access information; and 22

(b) any other information or help that is 23 necessary to access or read information 24 stored on the storage device. 25

(3) When making the requirement, the emergency 26 situation officer must inform the person that the 27 person must comply with the requirement even 28 though complying might tend to incriminate the 29 person or expose the person to a penalty. 30

(4) The person must comply with the requirement 31
unless the person has a reasonable excuse. 32

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 1 year's 33

- imprisonment. 1
- (5) It is not a reasonable excuse to fail to comply with 2
the requirement that complying might tend to 3 incriminate the person or expose the person to a 4
penalty. 5
- (6) If the storage device is being searched under 6
section 8AZB(2) and the person does not comply 7 with the requirement, an emergency situation 8 officer may seize the storage device. 9
- (7) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, 10 chapter 20 applies as if anything done under 11
subsection (6) were done under that Act. 12
- (8) Nothing done under subsection (6) is an 13
enforcement act under the Police Powers and 14 Responsibilities Act 2000. 15
- 8AZF What power to search or seize a storage 16
device includes 17
- Without limiting sections 8AZB and 8AZE(6), 18
the power under those sections to search or seize 19 a thing that is a storage device includes a power to 20 do any of the following— 21
- (a) use the storage device to gain access to 22
information stored on the device; 23
- (b) examine information stored on the storage 24 device to find out whether the information 25 may be relevant to an emergency; 26
- (c) use another device to make a copy of 27 information stored on the storage device, or 28 send the information to a device for the 29 purpose of copying the information, if the 30 information may be— 31
- (i) relevant to an emergency; or 32
- (ii) evidence of an offence; 33

[s 35]

- (d) use the storage device to send a copy of information stored on the storage device to a person if—
 - (i) the information may be relevant to an emergency; and
 - (ii) the information is sent to the person for the purpose of managing or resolving the emergency.

Subdivision 3 Reporting

8AZG Report to Minister

- (1) The commissioner must give the Minister a report about the exercise of extraordinary emergency powers under an extraordinary emergency authorisation within 3 months after the authorisation ends.
- (2) The report—
 - (a) must state the following—
 - (i) the nature of the emergency situation for which the extraordinary emergency authorisation was given;
 - (ii) when and why the extraordinary emergency authorisation was given;
 - (iii) if the extraordinary emergency authorisation was revoked—when it was revoked;
 - (iv) the extraordinary emergency powers that were exercised and why and how they were exercised;
 - (v) whether or not a terrorist emergency was declared to exist in relation to the emergency situation; and

- (b) may include anything else the commissioner considers appropriate. 1 2
- (3) If a terrorist emergency was declared to exist in relation to the emergency situation, the report may form part of the report about the terrorist emergency under section 8R. 3 4
5
6

8AZH Tabling of report in Legislative Assembly 7

- (1) The Minister must table in the Legislative Assembly a report about the exercise of extraordinary emergency powers under an extraordinary emergency authorisation within 6 months after the authorisation ends. 8 9
10
11
12
- (2) The report— 13
- (a) must state the matters mentioned in section
8AZG(2)(a); and 14
15
- (b) may include anything else the Minister
considers appropriate. 16
17
- (3) However, the report is not required to include information that could reasonably be expected— 18 19
- (a) to prejudice the investigation of a contravention or possible contravention of the law; or 20 21
22
- (b) to enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law, to be ascertained;
or 23
24
25
26
27
- (c) to endanger a person's life or physical safety; or 28
29
- (d) to prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a 30

- Clause 37 Insertion of new ss 8PAA–8PAC 7
- Part 2A, division 2, subdivision 1— 8
insert— 9
- 8PAA Power to collect biometric information 10
- (1) This section applies to a person— 11
- (a) who is in the declared area for a terrorist 12
emergency; or 13
- (b) who is about to enter the declared area for a 14
terrorist emergency; or 15
- (c) who a terrorist emergency officer 16 reasonably suspects has recently left the 17 declared area for a terrorist emergency. 18
- (2) A terrorist emergency officer may take and keep a 19 photograph of the person for the purpose of 20 identifying the person. 21
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if— 22
- (a) the person has not complied with a 23 requirement under section 8O(1); or 24
- (b) the person has not given evidence of the 25
correctness of the name, address or date of 26 birth stated by the person; or 27
- (c) a terrorist emergency officer reasonably 28
suspects that— 29

[s 37]

- (i) the name, address or date of birth stated by the person is false; or
 - (ii) evidence given by the person of the correctness of the name, address or date of birth stated by the person is false.
- (4) A terrorist emergency officer may, for the purpose of identifying the person or confirming the person's identity—
 - (a) electronically take and keep the person's fingerprints; and
 - (b) use a biometric system to compare the person's biometric information with other biometric information stored in the system.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if the commissioner is satisfied a person's biometric information taken under this section—
 - (a) is no longer required for the investigation or prosecution of an offence relating to an emergency; and
 - (b) is no longer required for an inquiry or inquest, or proposed inquiry or inquest, in relation to an emergency, including, for example, a commission of inquiry or an investigation under the Coroners Act 2003.
- (6) The commissioner must take reasonable steps to destroy the biometric information, and any data about the biometric information, held by the Queensland Police Service.

8PAB Power to require access information

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) under section 8N or 8P, a storage device is being searched or has been seized; and

- (b) information stored on the storage device is accessible, or can be read, only by using access information; and
- (c) a terrorist emergency officer reasonably suspects that a person knows, has or is able to provide the access information.
- (2) A terrorist emergency officer may require the person to give the officer—
- (a) the access information; and
- (b) any other information or help that is necessary to access or read information stored on the storage device.
- (3) When making the requirement, the terrorist emergency officer must inform the person that the person must comply with the requirement even though complying might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.
- (4) The person must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
- Maximum penalty—40 penalty units or 1 year’s imprisonment.
- (5) It is not a reasonable excuse to fail to comply with the requirement that complying might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty.
- (6) If the storage device is being searched under section 8N(2) or 8P(1)(c) and the person does not comply with the requirement, a terrorist emergency officer may seize the device.
- (7) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 20 applies as if anything done under subsection (6) were done under that Act.
- (8) Nothing done under subsection (6) is an enforcement act under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.

8PAC What power to search or seize a storage device includes	1
	2
Without limiting sections 8N, 8P and 8PAB(6), the power under those sections to search or seize a thing that is a storage device includes a power to do any of the following—	3
	4
	5
	6
(a) use the storage device to gain access to information stored on the device;	7
	8
(b) examine information stored on the storage device to find out whether the information may be relevant to an emergency;	9
	10
	11
(c) use another device to make a copy of information stored on the storage device, or send the information to a device for the purpose of copying the information, if the information may be—	12
	13
	14
	15
	16
(i) relevant to an emergency; or	17
(ii) evidence of an offence;	18
(d) use the storage device to send a copy of information stored on the device to a person if—	19
	20
	21
(i) the information may be relevant to an emergency; and	22
	23
(ii) the information is sent to the other person for the purpose of managing or resolving the emergency.	24

	Surveillance devices	4
	43E Power to authorise use of surveillance device	5
	(1) This section applies if a commissioned officer reasonably suspects that—	6 7
	(a) an emergency (the relevant emergency) involves, may involve or may lead to a serious risk to the life, health or safety of a person; and	8 9 10 11
	(b) the use of a surveillance device will help to reduce the risk.	12 13
	(2) The commissioned officer may authorise a police officer to use a surveillance device, in the emergency area and during the period of the relevant emergency, to assess and monitor the risk.	14 15 16 17 18
	(3) An authorisation given under subsection (2) is a surveillance device authorisation .	19 20
	(4) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 , section 332(1) to (5) applies to a surveillance device authorisation as if a reference in the subsections to a surveillance device warrant were a reference to a surveillance device authorisation.	21 22 23 24 25
	(5) However, section 332(2) and (4) of that Act applies to a surveillance device authorisation subject to any conditions of the authorisation.	26 27 28
	(6) A surveillance device authorisation authorises the use of the surveillance device stated in the authorisation and any enhancement equipment for the purpose of retrieving the device and equipment.	29 30 31 32 33

[s 39]

- (7) This section does not stop a police officer from— 1
- (a) using an optical surveillance device in a 2 place where the presence of the police 3 officer is not an offence; or 4
- (b) using a listening device, in a place where the 5 presence of the police officer is not an 6 offence, to overhear, record, monitor or 7 listen to a conversation, if the use is not an 8 offence against the Invasion of Privacy Act 9 1971, section 43(1). 10
- (8) In this section— 11
- emergency area means— 12
- (a) if the relevant emergency is an emergency 13 situation that has been declared to exist— 14
the area specified for the emergency 15 situation; or 16
- (b) if the relevant emergency is a terrorist 17 emergency—the declared area for the 18
terrorist emergency; or 19
- (c) if the relevant emergency is a CBR 20
emergency—an area that is or may be 21 affected by a CBR substance involved in the 22
CBR emergency. 23
- listening device see the Police Powers and 24
Responsibilities Act 2000, schedule 6. 25
- optical surveillance device see the Police Powers 26 and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 322. 27

43F Surveillance device authorisation authorises 28 use of existing device 29

- (1) This section applies to a surveillance device 30 authorisation that authorises the use of a 31 surveillance device on premises, or in or on a 32 vehicle, object or class of vehicle or object. 33

- (2) The surveillance device authorisation also authorises the use of a device (an existing device) that is on the premises, or in or on the vehicle or object, or a vehicle or object of the class, as a surveillance device. 1 2
3
4
5
- Example of an existing device—* 6
a security camera 7
- (3) This section applies— 8
- (a) whether or not it is necessary to do anything to or in relation to the existing device to enable it to be used as a surveillance device; and 9 10
12
- (b) subject to any conditions of the surveillance device authorisation. 13 14

43G When surveillance device authorisation ends 15

- (1) A surveillance device authorisation for a relevant emergency ends— 16 17
- (a) if a commissioned officer revokes the authorisation—when it is revoked; or 18 19
21
22
23
24
- (c) if paragraphs (a) and (b) do not apply—when the declaration for the relevant emergency ends. 25
26
27
- (2) If a surveillance device authorisation ends under subsection (1), the authorisation stops having effect other than to the extent it authorises— 28
29
30
- (a) the retrieval of the surveillance device and any enhancement equipment; and 31 32

[s 39]

- (b) the use of the surveillance device and any enhancement equipment for the purpose of retrieving the device and equipment. 1 2
3
- (3) However, after a surveillance device authorisation ends— 4 5
- (a) covert entry to a building in order to retrieve a surveillance device or any enhancement equipment is not authorised; and 6 7
8
- Note—* 9
- For retrieval warrants for surveillance devices and enhancement equipment lawfully installed under a surveillance device authorisation, see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 13, part 2, division 3. 10 11
12
13
14
- (b) a police officer may exercise a power mentioned in subsection (2) only if a commissioned officer approves the exercise. 15
16
17
- (4) This section does not stop a police officer from retrieving a surveillance device and any enhancement equipment from premises if the presence of the police officer on the premises is not an offence. 18 19
20
21
22
- 43H When surveillance device authorisation must be revoked 23 24
- A commissioned officer must revoke a surveillance device authorisation if the officer is satisfied that the use of a surveillance device is no longer needed to help reduce the risk mentioned in section 43E(1)(a). 25
26
27
28
29
- 43I Report about surveillance device authorisations 30 31
33

	authorisations given during the financial year.	1
(2)	The Minister must table a copy of the report in the Legislative Assembly within 14 sitting days after the Minister receives the report.	2 3 4
	43J Register of surveillance device authorisations	5
(1)	The commissioner must keep a register of surveillance device authorisations.	6 7
(2)	The register must record the following information for each surveillance device authorisation—	8 9 10
(a)	the date and time the authorisation was given;	11 12
(b)	the name of the commissioned officer who gave the authorisation;	13 14
(c)	the grounds on which the authorisation was given.	15 16

	47C Use of particular evidence in proceedings	20
(1)	This section applies if—	21
(a)	a person complied with a requirement under section 8AZE or 8PAB to provide access information in relation to information stored on a storage device; and	22 23 24 25
(b)	particular information (the prescribed information) stored on the storage device was accessible, or could be read, only by using the access information; and	26 27 28 29

[s 41]

	(c) a criminal proceeding is started in relation to the person; and	1 2
	(d) the criminal proceeding does not relate to—	3
	(i) an emergency situation that, under section 5, was declared to exist; or	4 5
	(ii) a terrorist emergency.	6
	(2) The prescribed information is not admissible in evidence against the person in the criminal proceeding, unless the proceeding relates to—	7 8 9
	(a) an indictable offence for which the maximum penalty is at least 7 years imprisonment; or	10 11 12
	(b) an offence against the Criminal Code, section 218B.	13 14
	(3) This section applies despite section 47B.	15
