- (a) an authorised person is authorised to enter a place only with the consent of an occupier of the place or a warrant; and
 - (b) the authorised person enters the place after obtaining the consent or under a warrant.
- (2) If the authorised person enters the place with the occupier's consent, the authorised person may seize a thing at the place only if—
- (a) the authorised person reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as explained to the occupier when asking for the occupier's consent.
- (3) If the authorised person enters the place under a warrant, the authorised person may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.
- (4) The authorised person may also seize anything else at the place if the authorised person reasonably believes—
- (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act; and
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being hidden, lost or destroyed.
- (5) The authorised person may also seize a thing at the place if the authorised person reasonably believes it has just been used in committing an offence against this Act.

133 Seizure of property subject to security

- (1) An authorised person may seize a thing, and exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a lien or other security over the thing claimed by another person.
- (2) However, the seizure does not affect the other person's claim to the lien or other security against a person other than the authorised person or a person acting for the authorised person.

Subdivision 2	Powers to support seizure	1
134	Power to secure seized thing	2
(1)	Having seized a thing under this division, an authorised person may—	3 4
(a)	leave it at the place where it was seized (the place of seizure) and take reasonable action to restrict access to it; or	5 6 7
(b)	move it from the place of seizure.	8
(2)	For subsection (1)(a), the authorised person may, for example—	9 10
(a)	seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of seizure, and mark the thing or place to show access to the thing or place is restricted; or	11 12 13
(b)	for equipment—make it inoperable; or	14
	Example—	15
	make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a component without which the equipment can not be used	16 17
(c)	require a person the authorised person reasonably believes is in control of the place or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) or anything else an authorised person could do under subsection (1)(a).	18 19 20 21
135	Offence to contravene other seizure requirement	22
	A person must comply with a requirement made of the person under section 134(2)(c) unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	23 24 25
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	26

[s 136]

136	Offence to interfere	1
(1)	If access to a seized thing is restricted under section 134, a person must not tamper with the thing or with anything used to restrict access to the thing without—	2 3 4
(a)	an authorised person's approval; or	5
(b)	a reasonable excuse.	6
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	7
(2)	If access to a place is restricted under section 134, a person must not enter the place in contravention of the restriction or tamper with anything used to restrict access to the place without—	8 9 10 11
(a)	an authorised person's approval; or	12
(b)	a reasonable excuse.	13
	Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	14
Subdivision 3	Safeguards for seized things	15
137	Receipt and information notice for seized thing	16
(1)	This section applies if an authorised person seizes anything under this division unless—	17 18
(a)	the authorised person reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or	19 20 21
(b)	because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the authorised person to comply with this section.	22 23 24
(2)	The authorised person must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—	25 26 27
(a)	a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and	28 29

- (b) an information notice about the decision to seize it. 1
- (3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized 2 is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information 3 notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous 4 position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which 5
the thing is seized. 6
- (4) The receipt and information notice may— 7
- (a) be given in the same document; and 8
- (b) relate to more than 1 seized thing. 9
- (5) The authorised person may delay giving the receipt and 10 information notice if the authorised person reasonably 11 suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an 12 investigation by the authorised person under this chapter. 13
- (6) However, the delay may be only for so long as the authorised 14 person continues to have the reasonable suspicion and 15 remains in the vicinity of the place at which the thing was 16 seized to keep it under observation. 17
- 138 Access to seized thing 18
- (1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the authorised 19 person who seized the thing must allow an owner of the 20 thing— 21
- (a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to 22 time; and 23
- (b) if it is a document—to copy it. 24
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would 25 be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying. 26
- (3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge. 27
- 139 Return of seized thing 28
- (1) This section applies if a seized thing is not— 29

| (b) | subject to a disposal order under division 4. | 2 |
| (2) | As soon as the chief executive stops being satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing, the chief executive must return it to its owner. | 3
5 |
| (3) | If the thing is not returned to its owner within 3 months after it was seized, the owner may apply to the chief executive for its return. | 6
8 |
| (4) | Within 30 days after receiving the application, the chief executive must— | 9
10 |
| (a) | if the chief executive is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing and decides to retain it—give the owner notice of the decision, including the grounds for retaining the thing; or | 11
12
13
14 |
| (b) | otherwise—return the thing to the owner. | 15 |
| (5) | For this section, there are reasonable grounds for retaining a seized thing if— | 16
17 |

25 |
| (c) | it is not lawful for the owner to possess the thing. | 26 |
| (6) | Subsection (5) does not limit the grounds that may be reasonable grounds for retaining the seized thing. | 27
28 |
| (7) | Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing. | 29
30 |
| (8) | In this section— | 31 |

examine includes analyse, test, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify. 1

Subdivision 4 Forfeiture 3

140 Forfeiture by chief executive decision 4

- (1) The chief executive may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an authorised person— 5 6
- (a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or 7
8
- (b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner; or 9
10
- (c) reasonably believes it is necessary to keep the thing to prevent it being used to commit the offence for which it was seized. 11
12
13
- (2) However, the authorised person is not required to— 14
- (a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or 15 16
- (b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner. 17 18
- Example for paragraph (b)—* 19
- The owner of the thing has migrated to another country. 20
- (3) Regard must be had to the thing's condition, nature and value in deciding— 21
22
- (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and 23
- (b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made,
are reasonable. 24

[s 141]

141	Information notice about forfeiture decision	1
(1)	If the chief executive decides under section 140(1) to forfeit a thing, the chief executive must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice about the decision.	2 3 4 5

143	How property may be dealt with	1
(1)	This section applies if, under section 142, a thing becomes the property of the State.	2 3
(2)	The chief executive may deal with the thing as the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, by destroying it or giving it away.	4 5 6
(3)	The chief executive must not deal with the thing in a way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal against the forfeiture under this chapter.	7 8 9
(4)	If the chief executive sells the thing, the chief executive may, after deducting the costs of the sale, return the proceeds of the sale to the former owner of the thing.	10 11 12

(a)	anything that was the subject of, or used to commit, the offence;	22 23
(b)	another thing the court considers is likely to be used by the person or another person in committing a further offence against this Act.	24 25 26
(3)	The court may make a disposal order for a thing—	27
