[s 31]

- | | |
|---|----------------------------|
| (a) hardware shops; | 1 |
| (b) shops engaged in selling motor vehicles or caravans. | 2
3 |
| (3) From the commencement, the extended hours do not apply to shops to which this section applies unless the industrial commission makes an order under section 21 applying the hours to the shops (an extended hours order). | 4
5
6
7
8 |
| (4) An extended hours order does not take effect until it is approved by regulation. | 9
10 |
| (5) The order takes effect— | 11 |
| (a) on the day the regulation is notified; or | 12 |
| (b) if the regulation states a later day—the later day. | 13
14 |
| (6) If the extended hours do not apply to a shop because of this section, a reference in section 16F(1) to the shop’s opening time under part 4, division 2, subdivision 2 is, if the day in question is a Sunday, taken to be a reference to 9a.m. | 15

| 59 Moratorium on trading hours orders and restriction on making applications | 22
23 |
| (1) During the moratorium period— | 24 |
| (a) the industrial commission must not make an order under section 21, other than an extended hours order; and | 25
26
27 |
| (b) an industrial organisation, another organisation or a local government must not make an application for an order mentioned in paragraph (a). | 28
29
30
31 |
| (2) An application for an order mentioned in subsection (1)(a) made or purportedly made during the moratorium period is of no effect. | 32

60 Existing applications for orders under former s 21	1
	2
(1) This section applies to an application for an order under former section 21 that was made, but not decided, before the introduction.	3 4 5
(2) If the application relates to shops to which section 58 applies, the industrial commission may, if it considers it appropriate and with the consent of the applicant, deal with the application as if it were an application for an extended hours order.	6 7 8 9 10
(3) If the industrial commission does not deal with the application under subsection (2), the industrial commission must dismiss the application.	11 12 13
(4) Subsection (3) applies despite part 5.	14
61 Existing appeals against decisions on applications for orders under former s 21	15
	16
(1) This section applies to an appeal—	17
(a) against a decision made, before the commencement, by the industrial commission on an application for an order under former section 21; and	18 19 20 21
(b) that was started, but not decided by the industrial court, before the commencement.	22 23
(2) If the decision was to make an order under former section 21, the proceeding for the appeal ends on the commencement.	24 25 26
Note—	27
An order made under former section 21 before the commencement was repealed on the commencement—see section 57.	28 29 30
(3) Subsections (4) and (5) apply if—	31
(a) the decision was to refuse to make an order under former section 21; and	32 33

[s 31]

- (b) on the commencement, all of the shops to which the order would have applied if it had been made are shops to which section 58 applies; and
- (c) the industrial court decides to allow the appeal, set aside the decision of the industrial commission and substitute another decision.
- (4) The only decision that may be substituted by the industrial court is a decision to make an extended hours order for the shops.
- (5) Subsection (4)—
- (a) applies despite—
- (i) the Industrial Relations Act 2016, section 558(1)(b); or
- (ii) if the repealed Industrial Relations Act 1999 continues to apply to the appeal proceeding—section 341(3)(b) of that Act; and
- Note—*
- See the Industrial Relations Act 2016, section 1023 for the continued application of the repealed Act in relation to particular proceedings.
- (b) does not otherwise limit the industrial court’s power to dismiss or allow the appeal.
- (6) The appeal proceeding ends on the commencement if—
- (a) the decision mentioned in subsection (1) was to refuse to make an order under former section 21; and
- (b) on the commencement, any of the shops to which the order would have applied if it had been made are not shops to which section 58 applies.

62	Restriction on starting appeal if decision made before commencement	1 2
	From the commencement, a person can not start an appeal against any of the following decisions made by the industrial commission before the commencement—	3 4 5 6
	(a) a decision to make an order under former section 21;	7 8
	(b) a decision to refuse to make an order under former section 21, other than an order that, if it had been made, would have applied only to shops to which section 58 applies.	9 10 11 12
63	Applications and appeals relating to orders under former s 22	13 14
	(1) On the commencement—	15
	(a) a section 22 application that was not decided before the commencement is taken to have been withdrawn; and	16 17 18
	(b) an appeal that was started, but not decided, before the commencement against a decision of the industrial commission on a section 22 application ends.	19 20 21 22
	(2) From the commencement, a person cannot start an appeal against a decision of the industrial commission on a section 22 application.	23 24 25
	(3) In this section—	26
	section 22 application means an application made before the commencement for an order under former section 22.	27 28 29
