(1)	For section 75(1), a unit trust that is a managed investment scheme is taken to be an exempt managed investment scheme, during the deeming period for the trust, if the scheme has been approved under section 76F as a deregistered managed investment scheme.	17 18 19 20 21 22
(2)	In this section—	23
	deeming period , for a unit trust, means the period—	24 25

- (b) ending immediately before the time that either of the following happens—
    - (i) the ASIC order mentioned in section 76F(3)(a) ceases to apply;
    - (ii) a unit in the trust is issued or transferred to a person who is not a wholesale client.

76F Approval of unit trust as a deregistered managed investment scheme

- (1) The trustee of a unit trust that is a managed investment scheme may apply to the commissioner for the approval of the scheme as a deregistered managed investment scheme.

Note—
See section 76E(1).
- (2) The application must—
  - (a) be in the approved form; and
  - (b) be supported by enough information to enable the commissioner to decide the application.
- (3) The commissioner may give the approval if—
  - (a) ASIC made an exemption or declaration under the Corporations Act, section 601QA (the ASIC order), enabling an application for deregistration of the scheme (the deregistration application) to be made under the Corporations Act, section 601PA; and

- (d) ASIC deregistered the scheme under the Corporations Act, section 601PA, applying chapter 5C of that Act under the ASIC order; and
- (e) the scheme is not required to be registered under the Corporations Act, section 601ED because of an exemption from that section under the ASIC order; and
- (f) the commissioner is satisfied it would be appropriate to give the approval, having regard to—
  - (i) the reasons why the members of the scheme agreed the scheme should be deregistered; and
  - (ii) the reasons for the decision by ASIC to deregister the scheme; and
  - (iii) the terms of the ASIC order; and
  - (iv) whether the scheme has ever been a public unit trust and, if so, why it is no longer a public unit trust; and
  - (v) the circumstances of the scheme's operation since it was deregistered by ASIC; and
  - (vi) the purposes of this division.
- (4) The commissioner must give the applicant notice of the decision on the application.
- (5) If, because of the decision on the application, the

- commissioner makes an assessment on the basis 1
that the scheme is not an exempt managed 2 investment scheme for section 75(1), an objection 3 to the decision may be made as part of an 4 objection to the assessment. 5
- (6) If the approval is given, it takes effect on— 6
- (a) the day it is given; or 7
- (b) if the notice of the decision to give the 8 approval states a day on which the approval 9 takes effect—that day. 10
- (7) The day mentioned in subsection (6)(b) may be 11
earlier or later than the day the approval is given. 12

76G Approval holders must notify commissioner if 13
deeming period ends 14

76F(3)(a) ceases to apply; 19
- (b) a unit in the trust is issued or transferred to a 20
person who is not a wholesale client. 21
- (2) Within 28 days after the trustee becomes aware, 22 or ought reasonably to have become aware, of the 23
notifiable event, the trustee must give the 24 commissioner notice of the notifiable event. 25
