A Bill

for

An Act about the termination of pregnancies, and to amend this Act, the Criminal Code, the Evidence Act 1977, the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000, the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 and the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 for particular purposes

[s 1]

The Parliament of Queensland enacts—	1
Part 1 Preliminary	2
1 Short title	3
This Act may be cited as the Termination of Pregnancy Act 2018 .	4 5
2 Commencement	6
This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.	7
3 Purposes	8
The purposes of this Act are—	9
(a) to enable reasonable and safe access by women to terminations; and	10 11
(b) to regulate the conduct of registered health practitioners in relation to terminations.	12 13
4 Definitions	14
The dictionary in schedule 1 defines particular words used in this Act.	15 16

Part 2	Performance of terminations by registered health practitioners	1 2
5	Termination by medical practitioner at not more than 22 weeks	3 4
	A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is not more than 22 weeks pregnant.	5 6
6	Termination by medical practitioner after 22 weeks	7
(1)	A medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is more than 22 weeks pregnant if—	8 9
(a)	the medical practitioner considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed; and	10 11 12
(b)	the medical practitioner has consulted with another medical practitioner who also considers that, in all the circumstances, the termination should be performed.	13 14 15
(2)	In considering whether a termination should be performed on a woman, a medical practitioner must consider—	16 17
(a)	all relevant medical circumstances; and	18
(b)	the woman’s current and future physical, psychological and social circumstances; and	19 20
(c)	the professional standards and guidelines that apply to the medical practitioner in relation to the performance of the termination.	21 22 23
(3)	In an emergency, a medical practitioner may perform a termination on a woman who is more than 22 weeks pregnant, without acting under subsections (1) and (2), if the medical practitioner considers it is necessary to perform the termination to save the woman’s life or the life of another unborn child.	24 25 26 27 28 29

[s 7]

- 7 Registered health practitioners who may assist 1
- (1) A medical practitioner may assist in the performance of a 2 termination on a woman by another medical practitioner. 3
- (2) A nurse, midwife, pharmacist, Aboriginal and Torres Strait 4
Islander health practitioner or other registered health 5 practitioner prescribed by regulation may, in the practice of 6 his or her health profession, assist in the performance of a 7 termination on a woman by a medical practitioner. 8
- (3) However, subsections (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to a 9 termination that the assisting registered health practitioner 10 knows, or ought reasonably to know, is being performed by 11
the medical practitioner other than under section 5 or 6. 12
- (4) A reference in this section to assisting in the performance of a 13 termination by a medical practitioner includes dispensing, 14 supplying or administering a termination drug on the medical 15
practitioner's instruction. 16
- 8 Registered health practitioner with conscientious 17
objection 18
- (1) This section applies if— 19
- (a) a person asks a registered health practitioner to— 20
- (i) perform a termination on a woman; or 21
- (ii) assist in the performance of a termination on a 22
woman; or 23
- (iii) make a decision under section 6 whether a 24
termination on a woman should be performed; or 25
- (iv) advise the person about the performance of a 26
termination on a woman; and 27
- (b) the practitioner has a conscientious objection to the 28
performance of the termination. 29
- (2) The registered health practitioner must disclose the 30
practitioner's conscientious objection to the person. 31

- (3) If the request is by a woman for the registered health practitioner to perform a termination on the woman, or to advise the woman about the performance of a termination on the woman, the practitioner must refer the woman, or transfer her care, to—
- (a) another registered health practitioner who, in the first practitioner’s belief, can provide the requested service and does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination; or
 - (b) a health service provider at which, in the practitioner’s belief, the requested service can be provided by another registered health practitioner who does not have a conscientious objection to the performance of the termination.
- (4) This section does not limit any duty owed by a registered health practitioner to provide a service in an emergency.
- 9 Compliance with this part relevant to professional conduct or performance
- (1) In considering a matter under an Act about a registered health practitioner’s professional conduct or performance, regard may be had to whether the practitioner—
- (a) performs a termination on a woman other than as authorised under section 5 or 6; or
 - (b) assists in the performance of a termination on a woman other than as authorised under section 7; or
 - (c) contravenes section 8.
- (2) The matters to which subsection (1) applies include matters arising in—
- (a) a notification under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland); or
 - (b) a complaint under the Health Ombudsman Act 2013; or
 - (c) a referred matter under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland).

Part 3	Protection from criminal responsibility	1 2
10	Woman does not commit an offence for termination on herself	3 4
	Despite any other Act, a woman who consents to, assists in, or performs a termination on herself does not commit an offence.	5 6
Part 4	Safe access zones	7
Division 1	Preliminary	8
11	Purpose	9
	The purpose of this part is to protect the safety and well-being, and respect the privacy and dignity, of—	10 11
	(a) persons accessing services provided at termination services premises; and	12 13
	(b) persons who are employed to provide services at termination services premises or otherwise need to access the premises in the course of their duties or responsibilities.	14 15 16 17
12	Application of part	18
	This part applies despite the Peaceful Assembly Act 1992 .	19
13	Meaning of termination services premises	20
	In this part—	21
	termination services premises —	22
	(a) means premises at which a service of performing terminations on women is ordinarily provided; but	23 24

(b) does not include a pharmacy. 1

14 Meaning of safe access zone 2

- (1) A place is in the safe access zone for termination services premises if the place is— 3 4
- (a) in the premises; or 5
- (b) not more than the prescribed distance from an entrance to the premises. 6 7
- (2) Unless a distance is prescribed under subsection (3), the prescribed distance for subsection (1)(b) is 150m. 8 9
- (3) A regulation may prescribe a distance for subsection (1)(b) for stated termination services premises. 10
11
- (4) The Minister may recommend to the Governor in Council the making of a regulation under subsection (3) only if satisfied that, having regard to the location of the premises, a prescribed distance of 150m is insufficient, or greater than is necessary, to achieve the purpose of this part in relation to the premises. 12
13

Division 2 Offences 18

15 Prohibited conduct in safe access zones 19

- (1) A person's conduct in the safe access zone for termination services premises is prohibited conduct if the conduct— 20 21
- (a) relates to terminations or could reasonably be perceived as relating to terminations; and 22
23
- (b) would be visible or audible to another person in, or entering or leaving, the premises; and 24
25
- (c) would be reasonably likely to deter a person mentioned in paragraph (b) from— 26
27
- (i) entering or leaving the premises; or 28
- (ii) requesting or undergoing a termination; or 29

[s 16]

	(iii) performing, or assisting in the performance of, a termination.	1 2
(2)	A person's conduct may be prohibited conduct whether or not another person sees or hears the conduct or is deterred from taking an action mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(i) to (iii).	3 4 5
(3)	A person must not engage in prohibited conduct in the safe access zone for termination services premises.	6 7
	Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.	8 9
(4)	Subsection (3) does not apply to a person employed to provide a service at the termination services premises.	10 11
16	Recording persons in or near termination services premises	12 13
(1)	This section applies in relation to a recording (a restricted recording) that—	14 15
(a)	is an audio or visual recording of a person while the person is in, or entering or leaving, termination services premises; and	16 17 18
(b)	contains information that identifies, or is likely to lead to the identification of, the person.	19 20
(2)	A person must not, without reasonable excuse, make a restricted recording of another person without the other person's consent.	21 22 23
	Example—	24
	It may be a reasonable excuse for the occupier of premises to make a restricted recording of persons in or near the premises, without the persons' consent, for security purposes.	25 26 27
	Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.	28 29
(3)	A person must not, without reasonable excuse, publish or distribute a restricted recording of another person without the other person's consent.	30 31 32

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment. 1
2

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) do not apply to a police officer doing a thing in the course of performing the officer's duties. 3
4
