36B Meaning of law practice certificate 2

- (1) A law practice certificate is a certificate in a form 3 approved by the commission that states the 4 matters mentioned in subsections (2) to (4). 5
- (2) The certificate must state— 6
- (a) the supervising principal and each associate 7 of the law practice have not— 8
- (i) given, agreed to give or allowed or 9 caused someone else to give 10 consideration to another person for a 11 claim referral or potential claim 12
referral for the claim in contravention 13
of section 74(1); or 14
- (ii) received, agreed to receive or allowed 15 or caused someone else to receive 16 consideration from another person for a 17 claim referral or potential claim 18
referral for the claim in contravention 19
of section 74(2); or 20
- (b) if section 74 does not apply to the 21
supervising principal or an associate of the 22
law practice—the circumstances mentioned 23
in section 74(3) why it does not apply. 24
- (3) Also, the certificate must state— 25
- (a) the supervising principal and each associate 26
of the law practice have not personally 27 approached or contacted the claimant and 28 solicited or induced the claimant to make 29
the claim in contravention of section 75; or 30
- (b) if section 75 does not apply to the 31
supervising principal or an associate of the 32
law practice—the circumstances mentioned 33

[s 6]

- (4) Further, if the claim is a speculative personal injury claim, the certificate must state the costs agreement relating to the claim complies with section 79 or with the Legal Profession Act 2007, section 347. 1
5
- (5) The law practice certificate must be signed by the supervising principal and verified by statutory declaration. 6
8

(1) This section applies if—	3
(a) a law practice is retained by a claimant to act in relation to the claimant’s claim; and	4
(b) either—	6
(i) the claimant or the insurer accepts an offer (or counter offer) of settlement;	7
	8
or	9
(ii) judgment is given on the claim.	10
(2) The supervising principal of the law practice in relation to the claim must—	11
	12
(a) complete a law practice certificate for the claim; and	13
	14
(b) give the certificate to the insurer and a copy of the certificate to the claimant within 7 days after the acceptance or judgment.	15
Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.	18

	After section 73—	2
	insert—	3
	Part 5AA	4
	Referrals of claims and	5
	contact to solicit or	6
	induce claims	6
	74 Giving or receiving consideration for claim	7
	referrals	8
	(1) A person (a payer) must not give, agree to give or	9
	allow or cause someone else to give consideration	10
	to another person (a payee) for a claim referral or	11
	potential claim referral.	12
	Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.	13
	(2) A person (also a payee) must not receive, agree to	14
	receive or allow or cause someone else to receive	15
	consideration from another person (also a payer)	16
	for a claim referral or potential claim referral.	17
	Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.	18
	(3) This section does not apply if—	19
	(a) the payee is a law practice (the current	20
	practice) that is selling all or part of the law	21
	practice’s business to another law practice	22
	(the new practice); and	23
	(b) the new practice gives, agrees to give or	24
	allows or causes someone else to give the	25
	current practice an amount for the referral of	26
	a claimant to the new practice; and	27
	(c) the amount is not more than the current legal	28
	costs for the claimant; and	29
	(d) the new practice discloses payment of the	30 amount to the claimant in a costs agreement.	31

- (4) In this section— 1
- claimant includes a potential claimant. 2
- claim referral— 3
- (a) means a referral of a claimant by the payee 4 or someone else— 5
- (i) to the payer for the purpose of the 6
payer providing a service for the 7
claimant; or 8
- (ii) to the payer or someone else for the 9 purpose of a person other than the 10
payer providing a service for the 11
claimant; but 12
- (b) does not include the advertisement or 13 promotion of a service or person that results 14 in a claimant using the service or person if 15 the advertisement or promotion is made to 16
the public or a group of persons. 17
- Examples of advertisement or promotion that is not a 18
claim referral— 19*
- an advertisement of services provided by a 20 law practice on the website or in the 21 newsletter of a sporting association or charity 22
 - the distribution of promotional stationery or 23 clothing that displays a law practice’s logo to 24 members of an industrial organisation 25
- consideration means a fee or other benefit but 26 does not include a gift, other than money, or 27 hospitality if the gift or hospitality has a value of 28 $200 or less. 29
- legal costs, for a claimant, means the fees and 30 costs, including disbursements, a law practice is 31 entitled to charge and recover from the claimant 32 in relation to the claimant’s claim. 33
- service, for a claimant, means a service related to 34
the claimant’s claim. 35

Examples—	1
a legal service, a medical service	2
75 Approach or contact for the purpose of making a claim	3
	4
Maximum penalty—300 penalty units.	9
(2) For subsection (1), a person personally approaches or contacts another person if the person specifically contacts that person, whether in person or by mail, telephone, email or another form of electronic communication.	10
	14
(3) This section does not apply if—	15
(a) the first person—	16
(i) does not expect or intend to receive, and does not receive, consideration because of the approach or contact; and	17
	19
(ii) does not ask for someone else to receive, or agree to someone else receiving, consideration because of the approach or contact; or	20
	21
	23
(b) the first person—	24
	26
	28
(ii) reasonably believes the second person will not object to the approach or contact; or	29
	30
(c) the first person—	32

- (i) is a law practice or lawyer that has been asked by a person on behalf of a community legal service or industrial organisation (a representative) to approach or contact the second person; and
- (ii) has been advised by the representative that the representative reasonably believes the second person will not object to the approach or contact.
- (4) This section applies regardless of whether—
- (a) the second person is entitled to make the claim; or
- (b) the second person had already decided to make, or had made, the claim.
- (5) In this section—
- community legal service* see the Legal Profession Act 2007, schedule 2.
- consideration* means a fee or other benefit but does not include a gift, other than money, or hospitality if the gift or hospitality has a value of $200 or less.
- industrial organisation* means a federal organisation, or an organisation, as defined under the Industrial Relations Act 2016, schedule 5.
- legal services* means work done, or business transacted, in the ordinary course of legal practice.
- 76 Responsibility for acts or omissions of representative
- (1) This section applies to a proceeding for an offence against section 74(1) or (2) or 75.
- (2) If it is relevant to prove a person’s state of mind

[s 15]

- about a particular act or omission, it is enough to show— 1 2
- (a) the act was done or omitted to be done by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority; and 3
- (b) the representative had the state of mind. 7
- (3) An act done or omitted to be done for a person by a representative of the person within the scope of the representative’s actual or apparent authority is taken to have been done or omitted to be done also by the person, unless the person proves the person could not, by the exercise of reasonable precautions and proper diligence, have prevented the act or omission. 8
12
13
15
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a representative for an individual includes an employee or agent of a partner of a partnership. 16 17
- (5) In this section— 19
- executive officer*, of a corporation, means a person who is concerned with or takes part in its management, whether or not the person is a director or secretary or the person’s position is given the name of executive officer. 20 21
23
24
- representative* means— 25
- (a) for an individual—an employee or agent of the individual; or 26 27
- (b) for a corporation—an executive officer, employee or agent of the corporation. 28 29
- state of mind*, of a person, includes— 30
- (a) the person’s knowledge, intention, opinion, belief or purpose; and 31 32
- (b) the person’s reasons for the intention, opinion, belief or purpose. 33 34

- 77 Additional consequences for law practice 1
- (1) This section applies if an associate of a law 2 practice is convicted of an offence against section 3 41A, 74(1) or (2) or 75 in relation to a claim or 4 potential claim. 5
- (2) The law practice is not entitled to recover any fees 6 or costs, including disbursements, that relate to 7 the provision of services for the claim and must 8 repay any amount received that relate to the 9 services to the person from whom it was received. 10
- 78 Injunction to prevent or restrain a 11 contravention of s 74 or 75 12
- (1) This section applies if the commissioner 13 reasonably believes a person (an offending party) 14 has engaged, is engaging or is proposing to 15 engage in conduct, whether in Queensland or 16 elsewhere, that contravened, is contravening or 17 would contravene section 74(1) or (2) or 75. 18
- (2) The commissioner may apply to a court of 19 competent jurisdiction (the court) for an 20 injunction restraining the offending party from 21 engaging, or continuing to engage, in the conduct. 22
- (3) The court may grant an interim injunction 23 restraining the offending party from engaging, or 24 continuing to engage, in the conduct pending a 25 decision about the application. 26
- (4) After considering the application, the court 27 may— 28
- (a) if it is satisfied on the balance of 29
probabilities that the offending party has 30 engaged, or is likely to engage or continue 31 to engage, in the conduct—grant the 32 injunction; or 33
- (b) refuse to grant the injunction. 34

[s 15]

- (5) The court may grant the injunction— 1
- (a) if it is satisfied the offending party has 2 engaged in the conduct—whether or not it 3 considers the offending party intends to 4 engage again, or continue to engage, in the 5 conduct; or 6
- (b) if it is satisfied the offending party will 7 likely engage in the conduct if the injunction 8 is not granted—whether or not the offending 9 party has previously engaged in the conduct. 10
- (6) If the court is satisfied there is a sufficient reason 11 for doing so, it may grant an injunction under 12 subsection (3) or (4) without notice to the 13 offending party. 14
- (7) In this section— 15
- court of competent jurisdiction* includes a court 16 of another State or Territory vested with 17 jurisdiction under the cross-vesting laws. 18
- cross-vesting laws* means the Jurisdiction of 19 Courts (Cross-vesting) Act 1987 and the 20 corresponding laws of the other States and 21 Territories. 22

79 Maximum amount of legal costs for claims 23

- (1) This section applies if— 24
- (a) a law practice has the conduct of a 25 speculative motor accident claim; and 26
- (b) the Legal Profession Act 2007, section 347 27 does not apply to the practice. 28
- (2) The maximum amount of legal costs the law 29 practice may charge and recover from a client for 30 work done in relation to the claim can not be more 31 than the amount worked out using the formula 32 stated in the Legal Profession Act 2007, section 33

347(1).	1
(3) However, approval to charge and recover a greater amount may be applied for and approved in the way described in the Legal Profession Act 2007 , section 347(2) to (4).	2 3 4 5
(4) This section applies to a barrister only if the barrister has not been retained by another law practice.	6 7 8
(5) This section applies despite anything to the contrary in the costs agreement that relates to the claim.	9 10 11
(6) In this section— legal costs see the Legal Profession Act 2007 , section 346. speculative motor accident claim means a claim or potential claim if the right of a law practice to charge and recover legal costs from the client who made the claim for work done is dependent on the client's success in pursuing the claim.	12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19
80 Extraterritorial application of part	20
(1) This part, other than section 78, applies both within and outside Queensland.	21 22
(2) This part applies outside Queensland to the full extent of the extraterritorial legislative power of the Parliament.	23 24 25

	omit, insert—	21
	87E Production or display of identity card	22
	(1) In exercising a power in relation to a person in the person's presence, an authorised person must—	23 24
	(a) produce the authorised person's identity card for the other person's inspection before exercising the power; or	25 26 27

- (2) However, if it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the authorised person must produce the identity card for the other person's inspection at the first reasonable opportunity. 1
4
- (3) For subsection (1), an authorised person does not exercise a power in relation to a person only because the authorised person has entered a place as mentioned in section 87G(1)(b) or (d). 5

Division 2 Entry of places by 25
authorised persons 26

Subdivision 1 Power to enter 27

87G General power to enter places	1
(1) An authorised person may enter a place if—	2
(a) an occupier at the place consents under subdivision 2 to the entry and section 87J has been complied with for the occupier; or	3 4 5
(b) it is a public place and the entry is made when the place is open to the public; or	6 7
(c) the entry is authorised under a warrant and, if there is an occupier of the place, section 87Q has been complied with for the occupier; or	8 9 10 11
(d) it is a licensed insurer’s premises and is—	12
(i) open for carrying on business; or	13
(ii) otherwise open for entry.	14
(2) For subsection (1)(d), a licensed insurer’s premises does not include a part of the premises where a person resides.	15 16 17
(3) If the power to enter arose only because an occupier of the place consented to the entry, the power is subject to any conditions of the consent and ceases if the consent is withdrawn.	18 19 20 21
(4) The consent may provide consent for re-entry and is subject to the conditions of consent.	22 23
(5) If the power to enter is under a warrant, the power is subject to the terms of the warrant.	24 25
(6) If the power to re-enter is under a warrant, the re-entry is subject to the terms of the warrant.	26 27

Subdivision 2 Entry by consent	28
---------------------------------------	----

87H Application of subdivision	29
---------------------------------------	----

This subdivision applies if an authorised person	30

intends to ask an occupier of a place to consent to 1 the authorised person or another authorised 2 person entering the place under section 87G(1)(a). 3

87I Incidental entry to ask for access 4

For the purpose of asking the occupier for the 5 consent, an authorised person may, without the 6 occupier's consent or a warrant— 7

- (a) enter land around premises at the place to an 8 extent that is reasonable to contact the 9 occupier; or 10
- (b) enter part of the place the authorised person 11 reasonably considers members of the public 12 ordinarily are allowed to enter when they 13 wish to contact an occupier of the place. 14

87J Matters authorised person must tell occupier 15

Before asking for the consent, the authorised 16 person must— 17

- (a) explain to the occupier the purpose of the 18 entry, including the powers intended to be 19 exercised; and 20
- (b) tell the occupier that— 21
 - (i) the occupier is not required to consent; 22
and 23
 - (ii) the consent may be given subject to 24 conditions and may be withdrawn at 25 any time. 26

87K Consent acknowledgement 27

- (1) If the consent is given, the authorised person may 28
ask the occupier to sign an acknowledgement of 29
the consent. 30

- (2) The acknowledgement must state— 1
- (a) the purpose of the entry, including the 2 powers to be exercised; and 3
 - (b) that the occupier has been given an 4 explanation about the purpose of the entry, 5 including the powers intended to be 6
exercised; and 7
 - (c) that the occupier has been told— 8
 - (i) that the occupier is not required to 9 consent; and 10
 - (ii) that the consent may be given subject 11 to conditions and may be withdrawn at 12 any time; and 13
 - (d) that the occupier gives the authorised person 14 or another authorised person consent to 15 enter the place and exercise the powers; and 16
 - (e) the day and time the consent was given; and 17
 - (f) any conditions of the consent. 18
- (3) If the occupier signs the acknowledgement, the 19 authorised person must immediately give a copy 20 to the occupier. 21
- (4) However, if it is impractical for the authorised 22 person to give the occupier a copy of the 23 acknowledgment immediately, the authorised 24 person must give the copy as soon as practicable. 25
- (5) If— 26
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about 27 whether the occupier consented to the entry; 28
and 29
 - (b) a signed acknowledgement complying with 30 subsection (2) for the entry is not produced 31 in evidence; 32
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the 33

[s 19]

lawfulness of the entry to prove the occupier

Subdivision 3 Entry under warrant 3

87L Application for warrant 4

- (1) An authorised person may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place. 5 6
- (2) The authorised person must prepare a written application that states the grounds on which the warrant is sought. 7
9
- (3) The written application must be sworn. 10
- (4) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the authorised person gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires. 11
13
14
15

Example— 16

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the written application to be given by statutory declaration. 17

87M Issue of warrant 20

- (1) The magistrate may issue a warrant for the place only under subsection (2). 21
- (2) The magistrate may issue the warrant for the place
if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting there is at the place, or will be at the place within the next 7 days, a particular thing or activity that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act or the National Injury Act. 23
25
26
27
28
29
- (3) The warrant must state— 30

- (a) the place to which the warrant applies; and 1
 - (b) that a stated authorised person or any 2 authorised person may with necessary and 3 reasonable help and force— 4
 - (i) enter the place and any other place 5 necessary for entry to the place; and 6
 - (ii) exercise the authorised person’s 7 powers; and 8
 - (c) particulars of the offence that the magistrate 9 considers appropriate; and 10
 - (d) the name of the person suspected of having 11 committed the offence unless the name is 12 unknown or the magistrate considers it 13 inappropriate to state the name; and 14
 - (e) the evidence that may be seized under the 15 warrant; and 16
 - (f) the hours of the day or night when the place 17 may be entered; and 18
 - (g) the magistrate’s name; and 19
 - (h) the day and time of the warrant’s issue; and 20
 - (i) the day, within 14 days after the warrant’s 21 issue, the warrant ends. 22

87N Electronic application 23

- (1) An application under section 87L may be made by 24
phone, fax, email, radio, videoconferencing or 25 another form of electronic communication if the 26 authorised person reasonably considers it 27 necessary because of— 28
 - (a) urgent circumstances; or 29
 - (b) other special circumstances, including, for 30 example, the authorised person’s remote 31 location. 32

[s 19]

- (2) The application— 1
 - (a) may not be made before the authorised 2 person prepares the written application 3 under section 87L(2); but 4
 - (b) may be made before the written application 5 is sworn. 6

87O Additional procedure if electronic application 7

- (1) For an application made under section 87N, the 8 magistrate may issue the warrant (the original 9 warrant) only if the magistrate is satisfied— 10
 - (a) it was necessary to make the application 11
under section 87N; and 12
 - (b) the way the application was made under 13
section 87N was appropriate. 14
- (2) After the magistrate issues the original warrant— 15
 - (a) if there is a reasonably practicable way of 16 immediately giving a copy of the warrant to 17 the authorised person, including, for 18 example, by sending a copy by fax or email, 19 the magistrate must immediately give a copy 20 of the warrant to the authorised person; or 21
 - (b) otherwise— 22
 - (i) the magistrate must tell the authorised 23 person the information mentioned in 24 section 87M(3); and 25
 - (ii) the authorised person must complete a 26 form of warrant, including by writing 27 on it the information mentioned in 28 section 87M(3) provided by the 29 magistrate. 30
- (3) The copy of the warrant mentioned in subsection 31 (2)(a), or the form of warrant completed under 32 subsection (2)(b) (in either case the duplicate 33

- warrant*), is a duplicate of, and as effectual as, the original warrant. 1 2
- (4) The authorised person must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate— 3 4
- (a) the written application complying with section 87L(2) and (3); and 5 6
- (b) if the authorised person completed a form of warrant under subsection (2)(b), the completed form of warrant. 7
9
- (5) The magistrate must keep the original warrant and, on receiving the documents under subsection (4)— 10
12
- (a) attach the documents to the original warrant; and 13 14
- (b) give the original warrant and documents to the clerk of the court of the relevant magistrates court. 15
- (6) Despite subsection (3), if— 18
- (a) an issue arises in a proceeding about whether an exercise of a power was authorised by a warrant issued under this section; and 19
22
- (b) the original warrant is not produced in evidence; 23 24
- the onus of proof is on the person relying on the lawfulness of the exercise of the power to prove a warrant authorised the exercise of the power. 25 26
27
- (7) This section does not limit section 87L. 28
- (8) In this section— 29
- relevant magistrates court*, in relation to a magistrate, means the Magistrates Court that the magistrate constitutes under the Magistrates Act 1991. 30

87P Defect in relation to a warrant

- (1) A warrant is not invalidated by a defect in—
- (a) the warrant; or
 - (b) compliance with this subdivision;
- unless the defect affects the substance of the warrant in a material particular.
- (2) In this section—
- warrant* includes a duplicate warrant mentioned in section 87O(3).

87Q Entry procedure

- (1) This section applies if an authorised person is intending to enter a place under a warrant issued under this subdivision.
- (2) Before entering the place, the authorised person must do or make a reasonable attempt to do the following things—
- (a) identify himself or herself to a person who is an occupier of the place and is present by producing the authorised person’s identity card or another document evidencing the authorised person’s appointment;
 - (b) give the person a copy of the warrant;
 - (c) tell the person the authorised person is permitted by the warrant to enter the place;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the authorised person immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) However, the authorised person need not comply with subsection (2) if the authorised person reasonably believes that entry to the place without compliance is required to ensure the execution of the warrant is not frustrated.

(4) In this section—	1
warrant includes a duplicate warrant mentioned	2
in section 87O(3).	3
Division 3
Other authorised persons’	4 powers and related	5
matters	6
Subdivision 1
General powers of	7
authorised persons after	8
entering places	9
87R Application of subdivision	10
(1) The powers under this subdivision may be	11
exercised if an authorised person enters a place	12
under section 87G(1)(a), (c) or (d).	13
(2) However, if the authorised person enters under	14
section 87G(1)(a) or (c), the powers under this	15
subdivision are subject to any conditions of the	16 consent or terms of the warrant.	17
87RAGeneral powers	18
(1) The authorised person may do any of the	19
following (each a general power)—	20
(a) search any part of the place;	21
(b) inspect, examine or film any part of the	22
place or anything at the place;	23
(c) take for examination a thing, or a sample of	24
or from a thing, at the place;	25
(d) place an identifying mark in or on anything	26
at the place;	27

[s 19]

- (e) take an extract from, or copy, a document at the place, or take the document to another place to copy; 1
3
- (f) produce an image or writing at the place from an electronic document or, to the extent it is not practicable, take a thing containing an electronic document to another place to produce an image or writing; 4
9
- (g) take to, into or onto the place and use any person, equipment and materials the authorised person reasonably requires for exercising the authorised person's powers under this part; 10
13
14
- (h) remain at the place for the time necessary to achieve the purpose of the entry. 15 16
- (2) The authorised person may take a necessary step to allow the exercise of a general power. 17 18
- (3) If the authorised person takes a document from the place to copy it, the authorised person must copy the document and return it to the place as soon as practicable. 19 20
22
- (4) If the authorised person takes from the place an article or device reasonably capable of producing a document from an electronic document to produce the document, the authorised person must produce the document and return the article or device to the place as soon as practicable. 23
26
27
28
- (5) In this section— 29
- examine* includes analyse, test, account, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify. 30 31
- film* includes photograph, videotape and record an image in another way. 32 33
- inspect*, a thing, includes open the thing and examine its contents. 34 35

87RB Power to require reasonable help	1
(1) The authorised person may make a requirement (a help requirement) of an occupier of the place or a person at the place to give the authorised person reasonable help to exercise a general power, including, for example, to produce a document or to give information.	2 3 4 5 6 7
(2) When making the help requirement, the authorised person must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.	8 9 10
(3) In this section— general power see section 87RA(1).	11 12
87RC Offence to contravene help requirement	13
(1) A person of whom a help requirement has been made must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse. Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.	14 15 16 17
(2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to comply with a help requirement if complying might tend to incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty.	18 19 20 21
(3) In this section— help requirement see section 87RB(1).	22 23
Subdivision 2 Seizure by authorised persons	24 25
87RD Seizing evidence at a place that may be entered without consent or warrant	26 27
An authorised person who enters a place the authorised person may enter under this part without the consent of an occupier of the place	28 29 30 and without a warrant may seize a thing at the 1 place if the authorised person reasonably believes 2 the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act 3 or the National Injury Act. 4

87RESeizing evidence at a place that may be 5 entered only with consent or warrant 6

- (1) This section applies if— 7
- (a) an authorised person is authorised to enter a 8 place only with the consent of an occupier 9 of the place or a warrant; and 10
 - (b) the authorised person enters the place after 11 obtaining the consent or under a warrant. 12
- (2) If the authorised person enters the place with the 13
occupier’s consent, the authorised person may 14 seize a thing at the place only if— 15
- (a) the authorised person reasonably believes 16
the thing is evidence of an offence against 17
this Act or the National Injury Act; and 18
 - (b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the 19 purpose of entry as explained to the 20 occupier when asking for the occupier’s 21 consent. 22
- (3) If the authorised person enters the place under a 23 warrant, the authorised person may seize the 24 evidence for which the warrant was issued. 25
- (4) The authorised person may also seize anything 26 else at the place if the authorised person 27 reasonably believes— 28
- (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against 29
this Act or the National Injury Act; and 30
 - (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing 31 being hidden, lost or destroyed. 32
- (5) The authorised person may also seize a thing at 33

the place if the authorised person reasonably 1 believes it has just been used in committing an 2 offence against this Act or the National Injury 3
Act. 4

87RF Seizure of property subject to security 5

- (1) An authorised person may seize a thing, and 6 exercise powers relating to the thing, despite a 7 lien or other security over the thing claimed by 8 another person. 9
- (2) However, the seizure does not affect the other 10 person's claim to the lien or other security against 11 a person other than the authorised person or a 12 person acting under the direction or authority of 13
the authorised person. 14

87RG Power to secure seized thing 15

- (1) Having seized a thing under this subdivision, an 16 authorised person may— 17
- (a) leave it at the place where it was seized (the 18 place of seizure) and take reasonable action 19 to restrict access to it; or 20
- (b) move it from the place of seizure. 21
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), the authorised person may, 22 for example— 23
- (a) seal the thing, or the entrance to the place of 24 seizure, and mark the thing or place to show 25 access to the thing or place is restricted; or 26
- (b) for equipment—make it inoperable; or 27
- Example—* 28
- make it inoperable by dismantling it or removing a 29 component without which the equipment can not 30 be used 31

[s 19]

- (c) require a person the authorised person 1 reasonably believes is in control of the place 2 or thing to do an act mentioned in paragraph 3
(a) or (b) or anything else an authorised 4 person could do under subsection (1)(a). 5

87RH Offence to contravene seizure requirement 6

A person must comply with a requirement made 7 of the person under section 87RG(2)(c) unless the 8 person has a reasonable excuse. 9

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 10

87RI Offence to interfere 11

- (1) If access to a seized thing is restricted under 12 section 87RG, a person must not tamper with the 13 thing or with anything used to restrict access to 14
the thing without— 15

- (a) an authorised person’s approval; or 16

- (b) a reasonable excuse. 17

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 18

- (2) If access to a place is restricted under section 19
87RG, a person must not enter the place in 20 contravention of the restriction or tamper with 21 anything used to restrict access to the place 22 without— 23

- (a) an authorised person’s approval; or 24

- (b) a reasonable excuse. 25

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units. 26

87RJ Receipt and information notice for seized 27 thing 28

- (1) This section applies if an authorised person seizes 29 anything under this subdivision unless— 30

- (a) the authorised person reasonably believes there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing or it has been abandoned; or
- (b) because of the condition, nature and value of the thing it would be unreasonable to require the authorised person to comply with this section.
- (2) The authorised person must, as soon as practicable after seizing the thing, give an owner or person in control of the thing before it was seized—
- (a) a receipt for the thing that generally describes the thing and its condition; and
- (b) an information notice for the decision to seize it.
- (3) However, if an owner or person from whom the thing is seized is not present when it is seized, the receipt and information notice may be given by leaving them in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way at the place at which the thing is seized.
- (4) The receipt and information notice may—
- (a) be given in the same document; and
- (b) relate to more than 1 seized thing.
- (5) The authorised person may delay giving the receipt and information notice if the authorised person reasonably suspects giving them may frustrate or otherwise hinder an investigation by the authorised person under this part.

87RK Access to seized thing	1
(1) Until a seized thing is forfeited or returned, the authorised person who seized the thing must allow an owner of the thing—	2 3 4
(a) to inspect it at any reasonable time and from time to time; and	5 6
(b) if it is a document—to copy it.	7
(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.	8 9 10
(3) The inspection or copying must be allowed free of charge.	11 12
87RL Return of seized thing	13
(1) This section applies if a seized thing is not forfeited or transferred under subdivision 3 or 4.	14 15
(2) As soon as the commission stops being satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing, the commission must return it to its owner.	16 17 18
(3) If the thing is not returned to its owner within 3 months after it was seized, the owner may apply to the commission for its return.	19 20 21
(4) Within 30 days after receiving the application, the commission must—	22 23
(a) if the commission is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for retaining the thing and decides to retain it—give the owner an information notice for the decision; or	24 25 26 27
(b) otherwise—return the thing to the owner.	28
(5) For this section, there are reasonable grounds for retaining a seized thing if—	29 30
(a) the thing is being, or is likely to be, examined; or	31 32

- (b) the thing is needed, or may be needed, for the purposes of—
- (i) a proceeding for an offence against this Act or the National Injury Act that is likely to be started or that has been started but not completed; or
 - (ii) an appeal from a decision in a proceeding for an offence against this Act or the National Injury Act; or
- (c) it is not lawful for the owner to possess the thing.
- (6) Subsection (5) does not limit the grounds that may be reasonable grounds for retaining the seized thing.
- (7) Nothing in this section affects a lien or other security over the seized thing.
- (8) In this section—examine includes analyse, test, measure, weigh, grade, gauge and identify.

Subdivision 3 Forfeiture 20

87RM Forfeiture by commission decision 21

- (1) The commission may decide a seized thing is forfeited to the State if an authorised person—
- (a) after making reasonable inquiries, can not find an owner; or
 - (b) after making reasonable efforts, can not return it to an owner; or
 - (c) reasonably believes it is necessary to keep the thing to prevent it being used to commit the offence against section 74(1) or (2), 75 or 87T for which it was seized.

[s 19]

- (2) However, the authorised person is not required to— 1 2
- (a) make inquiries if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to find an owner; or 3 4
- (b) make efforts if it would be unreasonable to make efforts to return the thing to an owner. 5 6
- Example for paragraph (b)—* 7
- The owner of the thing has migrated to another country. 8 9
- (3) Regard must be had to the thing’s condition, nature and value in deciding— 10 11
- (a) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and 12 13
- (b) if inquiries or efforts are made—what inquiries or efforts, including the period over which they are made, are reasonable. 14

87RN Information notice about forfeiture decision 17

- (1) If the commission decides under section 87RM(1) to forfeit a thing, the commission must as soon as practicable give a person who owned the thing immediately before the forfeiture (the former owner) an information notice about the decision. 18
22
25
26
27
29
30
- (4) However, subsections (1) to (3) do not apply if— 31
- (a) the decision was made under section 87RM(1)(a) or (b); and 32 33

- (b) the place where the thing was seized is— 1
- (i) a public place; or 2
- (ii) a place where the notice is unlikely to 3
be read by the former owner. 4

Subdivision 4 Dealing with property 5 forfeited or transferred to 6
State 7

87RO When thing becomes property of the State 8

- A thing becomes the property of the State if— 9
- (a) the thing is forfeited to the State under 10
section 87RM(1); or 11
- (b) the owner of the thing and the State agree, in 12 writing, to the transfer of the ownership of 13
the thing to the State. 14

87RP How property may be dealt with 15

- (1) This section applies if, under section 87RO, a 16 thing becomes the property of the State. 17
- (2) The commission may deal with the thing as the 18 commission considers appropriate, including, for 19 example, by destroying it or giving it away. 20
- (3) The commission must not deal with the thing in a 21 way that could prejudice the outcome of an appeal 22 against the forfeiture under this part. 23
- (4) If the commission sells the thing, the commission 24 must, after deducting the costs of the sale, make 25 reasonable efforts to return the proceeds of the 26 sale to the former owner of the thing. 27
- (5) In this section— 28
former owner, of a thing, see section 87RN(1). 29

[s 19]

Subdivision 5 Other	1
information-obtaining	2
powers of authorised	3
persons	4
87RQ Power to require name and address	5
(1) This section applies if an authorised person—	6
(a) finds a person committing an offence	7 against this Act or the National Injury Act;	8
or	9
(b) finds a person in circumstances that lead the	10
authorised person to reasonably suspect the	11
person has just committed an offence	12
against this Act or the National Injury Act;	13
or	14
(c) has information that leads the authorised	15
person to reasonably suspect a person has	16
just committed an offence against this Act	17
or the National Injury Act.	18
(2) The authorised person may require the person to	19
state the person’s name and address.	20
(3) The authorised person may also require the person	21
to give evidence of the correctness of the stated	22
name or address if, in the circumstances, it would	23
be reasonable to expect the person to—	24
(a) be in possession of evidence of the	25
correctness of the stated name or address; or	26
(b) otherwise be able to give the evidence.	27
(4) When making a personal details requirement, the	28
authorised person must give the person an offence	29 warning for the requirement.	30
(5) A requirement under this section is a personal	31
details requirement .	32

(6) In this section—	1
address , of a person, includes the person’s	2
residential and business address and, for a person	3 temporarily in Queensland, includes the place	4
where the person is living in Queensland.	5
87RROffence to contravene personal details	6
requirement	7
(1) A person of whom a personal details requirement	8
has been made must comply with the requirement	9
unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	10
Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	11
(2) A person may not be convicted of an offence	12 against subsection (1) unless the person is found	13
guilty of the offence in relation to which the	14
personal details requirement was made.	15
(3) In this section—	16
personal details requirement see section	17
87RQ(5).	18
87RSPower to require information	19
(1) This section applies if an authorised person	20
reasonably believes a person has information	21
relevant to any of the following matters—	22
(a) a liability under the statutory insurance	23
scheme;	24
(b) an entitlement under the statutory insurance	25
scheme;	26
(c) an offence the authorised person reasonably	27
believes has been committed against this	28
Act or the National Injury Act.	29
(2) The authorised person may require the person	30
to—	31

- (a) give the authorised person the information by a stated reasonable time; or
 - (b) produce a document to the authorised person for inspection at a stated reasonable time and place and allow the authorised person to make a copy of the document.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that under subsection (2) an authorised person may require the information to be given, or document to be produced, immediately at the place the requirement is made, if the requirement is reasonable in the circumstances.
- (4) When making a requirement under subsection (2), the authorised person must give the person an offence warning for the requirement.
- (5) For information that is an electronic document, compliance with the requirement requires the giving of a clear image or written version of the electronic document.

87RTO Offence to contravene information requirement

- (1) A person of whom a requirement is made under section 87RS(2) must comply with the requirement unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
- Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.
- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for an individual not to give the information or produce the document if—
- (a) the person would be entitled to refuse to give the information or produce the document in a court proceeding on the ground that giving the information or producing the document might tend to

incriminate the individual or expose the individual to a penalty; or	1 2
(b) for a requirement to produce a document—the cost of producing the document would be unreasonable, having regard to its evidentiary value and any other relevant circumstances.	3 4 5 6 7
(3) The person does not commit an offence against this section if the information or document sought by the authorised person is not relevant to a matter mentioned in section 87RS(1).	8 9 10 11
Division 4	Miscellaneous provisions relating to authorised persons	12 13 14
Subdivision 1	Damage	15
87RU	Duty to avoid inconvenience and minimise damage	16 17
	In exercising a power, an authorised person must take all reasonable steps to cause as little inconvenience, and do as little damage, as possible.	18 19 20 21
	Note—	22
	See also section 87RW.	23
87RV	Notice of damage	24
(1)	This section applies if—	25
(a)	an authorised person damages something when exercising, or purporting to exercise, a power; or	26 27 28

[s 19]

- (b) a person (the assistant) acting under the direction or authority of an authorised person damages something. 1
3
- (2) However, this section does not apply to damage the authorised person reasonably considers is trivial or if the authorised person reasonably believes— 4
7
- (a) there is no-one apparently in possession of the thing; or 8 9
- (b) the thing has been abandoned. 10
- (3) The authorised person must give notice of the damage to a person who appears to the authorised person to be an owner, or person in control, of the thing. 11
14
- (4) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (3), the authorised person must— 15
17
- (a) leave the notice at the place where the damage happened; and 18 19
- (b) ensure it is left in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way. 20 21
- (5) The authorised person may delay complying with subsection (3) or (4) if the authorised person reasonably suspects complying with the subsection may frustrate or otherwise hinder the performance of the authorised person’s functions. 22
23
26
28
30
- (7) If the authorised person believes the damage was caused by a latent defect in the thing or other circumstances beyond the control of the authorised person or the assistant, the authorised person may state the belief in the notice. 31 32
34
35

- (8) The notice must state— 1
- (a) particulars of the damage; and 2
 - (b) that the person who suffered the damage 3 may claim compensation under section 4 87RW. 5

Subdivision 2 Compensation and costs 6 of investigation 7

87RW Compensation 8

- (1) A person may claim compensation from the 9 commission if the person incurs loss because of 10
the exercise, or purported exercise, of a power by 11 or for an authorised person including a loss 12 arising from compliance with a requirement made 13 of the person under division 3. 14
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not include loss 15 arising from a lawful seizure or a lawful 16 forfeiture. 17
- (3) The compensation may be claimed and ordered in 18
a proceeding— 19
 - (a) brought in a court with jurisdiction for the 20 recovery of the amount of compensation 21 claimed; or 22
 - (b) for an alleged offence against this Act or the 23
National Injury Act the investigation of 24 which gave rise to the claim for 25 compensation. 26
- (4) A court may order the payment of compensation 27 only if it is satisfied it is just to make the order in 28
the circumstances of the particular case. 29
- (5) In considering whether it is just to order 30 compensation, the court must have regard to any 31 relevant offence committed by the claimant. 32

[s 19]

(6)	A regulation may prescribe other matters that may, or must, be taken into account by the court when considering whether it is just to order compensation.	1 2 3 4
(7)	Section 87RU does not provide for a statutory right of compensation other than as provided by this section.	5 6 7
(8)	In this section— loss includes costs and damage.	8 9
87RX Costs of investigation		10
(1)	This section applies if a person is convicted by a court of an offence against this Act or the National Injury Act.	11 12 13
(2)	The court may order the person to pay the commission's reasonable costs of an investigation about the offence, including reasonable costs of preparing for the prosecution.	14 15 16 17
(3)	This section does not limit the order for costs the court may make on the conviction.	18 19
Subdivision 3 Other offences relating to authorised persons		20 21
87RY Obstructing authorised person		22
(1)	A person must not obstruct an authorised person exercising a power, or someone helping an authorised person exercising a power, unless the person has a reasonable excuse. Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.	23 24 25 26 27

exercise of the power, the authorised person must warn the person that—	1 2
(a) it is an offence to cause an obstruction unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and	3 4 5
(b) the authorised person considers the person’s conduct an obstruction.	6 7
(3) In this section—	8
obstruct includes assault, hinder, resist, attempt to obstruct and threaten to obstruct.	9 10

Subdivision 1	Internal review	17
87S Review process must start with internal review	18
An affected person for an original decision may appeal to a Magistrates Court only if a decision on an application for internal review of the decision has been made, or taken to have been made, under this subdivision.	19 20 21 22 23
87SA Who may apply for internal review	24
(1) An affected person for an original decision may apply to the commission for a review of the	25 26

[s 19]

- decision under this subdivision (an internal review). 1 2
- (2) If the affected person has not been given an 3 information notice for the original decision, the 4 affected person may ask the commission for an 5 information notice for the decision. 6
- (3) A failure by the commission to give the affected 7 person an information notice for the original 8 decision does not limit or otherwise affect the 9 person's right to apply for an internal review of 10
the decision. 11

87SB Requirements for application 12

- (1) An application for internal review of an original 13 decision must— 14
- (a) be written; and 15
- (b) for a person who has been given an 16 information notice for the decision—include 17 enough information to enable the 18 commission to decide the application; and 19
- (c) be made to the commission within— 20
- (i) for a person who has been given an 21
information notice for the decision— 22 28 days after the day the person is 23 given the notice; or 24
- (ii) for a person who has not been given an 25
information notice for the decision— 26
28 days after the day the person 27 becomes aware of the decision. 28
- (2) The commission may, at any time, extend the 29 period within which the application may be made. 30
- (3) The application does not affect the operation of 31 the original decision or prevent the decision being 32 implemented. 33

Note—	1
Subdivision 2 provides for a stay of the original decision.	2 3
87SCInternal review	4
(1) The commission must, within 20 days after receiving an application for internal review of an original decision—	5 6 7
(a) review the original decision; and	8
(b) decide to—	9
(i) confirm the original decision; or	10
(ii) amend the original decision; or	11
(iii) substitute another decision for the original decision; and	12 13
(c) give the affected person for the original decision a decision notice for the commission’s decision under paragraph (b).	14 15 16
(2) The commission and the affected person may, before the period stated in subsection (1) ends, agree to a longer period for the commission to comply with the subsection.	17 18 19 20
(3) The application may be dealt with only by a person who—	21 22
(a) did not make the original decision; and	23
(b) holds a more senior office than the person who made the original decision.	24 25
(4) Subsection (3) does not apply to an original decision made by the commission personally.	26 27

[s 19]

87SD Decision notice

(1) A notice given for an internal review decision (a decision notice) must state the following information—

(a) the decision;

(b) the reasons for the decision;

Note—

See the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 27B for matters that must be included with the reasons.

(c) that the person to whom the notice is given may appeal the decision under this Act;

(d) how, and the period within which, the appeal may be started;

(e) how the person may apply for a stay of the operation of the decision.

(2) If the commission does not give an affected person a decision notice for an internal review decision within the period required under section 87SC, the affected person may ask the commission for the decision notice.

(3) A failure by the commission to give an affected person a decision notice for an internal review decision does not limit or otherwise affect the person's right to appeal to the Magistrates Court the internal review decision.

Subdivision 2 Staying operation of original decision

87SECourt may stay operation of original decision

(1) An affected person for an original decision may apply to the Magistrates Court for a stay of the operation of the decision.

4
- (3) The court may make an order staying the operation of the original decision only if it considers the order is desirable after having regard to the following— 5
8
- (a) the interests of any person whose interests may be affected by the making of the order or the order not being made; 9
11
- (b) any submission made to the court by the entity that made the original decision; 12 13
- (c) the public interest. 14
- (4) A stay by the court under this section— 15
- (a) may be given on conditions the court considers appropriate; and 16 17
- (b) operates for the period fixed by the court; and 18 19
- (c) may be amended or revoked by the court. 20
- (5) The period of a stay by the court under this section must not extend past— 21
22
- (a) the end of the period within which an application for an internal review of the original decision may be made under subdivision 1; or 23
26
- (b) if an application for an internal review of the original decision is made under subdivision 1 within the period allowed under that subdivision—the end of the period within which an appeal against the internal review decision may be made under section 87SF. 27

Subdivision 3 Appeals

[s 19]

87SF	Appealing internal review decision	1
(1)	This section applies to a person who—	2
(a)	has applied for an internal review of an original decision; and	3 4
(b)	is dissatisfied with the internal review decision.	5 6
(2)	The person may appeal to a Magistrates Court (the court) against the internal review decision by filing a notice of appeal with the registrar of the court.	7 8 9 10
(3)	The notice of appeal must state fully the grounds of the appeal.	11 12
(4)	The person must file the notice of appeal within 28 days after a decision notice for the internal review decision is given to the person.	13 14 15
(5)	However, the court may, on application and at any time, extend the time for filing the notice of appeal.	16 17 18
(6)	The person must serve a copy of the notice of appeal, and any application to extend the time for filing the notice of appeal, on the commission.	19 20 21
(7)	The appeal does not affect the operation of the internal review decision or prevent the decision being implemented.	22 23 24
87SG	Staying operation of internal review decision	25
(1)	A person mentioned in section 87SF(1) may apply to the court for a stay of the operation of the internal review decision.	26 27 28
(2)	The court may, by order, stay the operation of the internal review decision to secure the effectiveness of the appeal.	29 30 31
(3)	The court may stay the operation of the internal review decision on conditions the court considers	32 33 appropriate. 1

(4) The stay operates for the period decided by the 2
court. 3

(5) However, the period of the stay must not extend 4 past the time when the court decides the appeal. 5

87SH Powers of court on appeal 6

(1) When deciding an appeal against an internal 7 review decision, the court— 8

(a) has the same powers as the commission in 9 making the internal review decision; and 10

(b) is not bound by the rules of evidence; and 11

(c) must comply with natural justice. 12

(2) An appeal is by way of rehearing. 13

(3) The court may— 14

(a) confirm the internal review decision; or 15

(b) substitute another decision for the internal 16 review decision; or 17

(c) set aside the internal review decision and 18 return the matter to the commission with 19 directions the court considers appropriate. 20

87SI Effect of court's decision on appeal 21

(1) If the court substitutes another decision for the 22 internal review decision— 23

(a) the substituted decision is taken to be a 24 decision of the decision-maker; and 25

(b) the commission may give effect to the 26 decision as if— 27

(i) the decision were the original decision 28 of the decision-maker; and 29

[s 20]

	(ii) no application for review or appeal of the original decision had been made.	1 2
	(2) If the court sets aside the internal review decision and returns the matter to the original decision-maker with directions, any decision made by the decision-maker in accordance with the directions may not be reviewed or appealed against under this part.	3 4 5 6 7 8
	(3) In this section— decision-maker , of an original decision, means—	9 10
	(a) for an original decision mentioned in section 87RJ—an authorised person; or	11 12
	(b) otherwise—the commission.	13

Subdivision 1 Risk to authorised person's safety	1 2
87V Commission's power to obtain criminal history report for authorised person's safety	3 4
(1) The commission may ask the commissioner of the police service for a written report about the criminal history of a person if an authorised person reasonably suspects the person—	5 6 7 8
(a) may be present at a place when the authorised person enters the place under part 5A; and	9 10 11
(b) may create an unacceptable level of risk to the authorised person's safety.	12 13
(2) The commissioner of the police service must give the report to the commission.	14 15
(3) However, the report is required to contain only criminal history in the commissioner's possession or to which the commissioner has access.	16 17 18
(4) The commission must examine the report and identify, to the extent it is reasonably practicable to do so, offences involving the use of a weapon or violence against a person.	19 20 21 22
(5) The commission may give the authorised person information in the report about the offences identified under subsection (4).	23 24 25
(6) The commission or an authorised person to whom the report or written information in the report is given must destroy the report as soon as practicable after the authorised person considers the risk to the authorised person's safety.	26 27 28 29 30

87VAConfidentiality of criminal history under s 87V	1 2
(1) A person must not use or disclose to anyone else a report about a person’s criminal history, or information contained in the report, given under section 87V unless the use or disclosure is allowed under subsection (2).	3 4 5 6 7
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	8
(2) The person may use the information, or disclose the information to another person, if the use or disclosure—	9 10 11
(a) is for the purpose of the other person performing a function under this Act; or	12 13
(b) is with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or	14 15
(c) is otherwise permitted or required by law.	16
Subdivision 2 Offence against this Act or National Injury Act	17 18
87VBCommission’s power to obtain criminal history report about offence	19 20
(1) The commission may ask the commissioner of the police service for information in the possession of the Queensland Police Service that is mentioned in subsection (2) about a person the commission reasonably suspects to have committed an offence against this Act or the National Injury Act.	21 22 23 24 25 26
(2) The information that may be given is—	27
(a) the person’s criminal history or part of the person’s criminal history; and	28 29

[s 25]

87ZCAAppointment of investigator

- 1
- (1) If the commission considers it desirable in the public interest, the commission may appoint an investigator to investigate the affairs of an insurer that is, or has been, licensed under this Act. 2
5
- Note—* 6
- See also section 87ZE. 7
- (2) Also, the commission may appoint an investigator to investigate the relevant affairs of either of the following entities— 8
10
- (a) a law practice or lawyer that is acting or has acted for a claimant; 11 12
- (b) an entity prescribed by regulation for this section. 13 14
16
18
19 20
- (4) The commission may, by written instrument, appoint any of the following persons as an investigator— 21 22
23
- (a) an Australian legal practitioner; 24
- (b) a qualified accountant; 25
- (c) another appropriately qualified person. 26
28
29
- (6) The instrument of appointment may state a period within which the investigation must be completed. 30 31
32
- (7) The commission may, by written notice given to the investigator— 33 34

- (a) amend the instrument of appointment; or 1
- (b) end the appointment. 2
- (8) In this section— 3
- Australian legal practitioner* see the Legal Profession Act 2007, section 6. 4

- relevant affairs*, of an investigated person, means matters relating to how the investigated person received or was referred instructions for a claim, and how the investigated person gave or referred instructions for a claim, and includes a transaction involving the investigated person or an associated person for the investigated person relevant to the receipt or referral of instructions. 9
- 87ZD Delegation of powers by investigator 10
- (1) An investigator may delegate a power under this part other than the power to administer an oath or affirmation or the power to examine on oath or affirmation. 11
- (2) A delegate must produce the instrument of delegation for inspection on request by an investigated person or an associated person for an investigated person. 12

[s 25]

87ZE Investigation of related body corporate 1

If an investigator considers it necessary, in 2 investigating the affairs of an insurer, to 3 investigate the affairs of a body corporate that is 4 or has at any relevant time been a related body 5 corporate for the insurer, the investigator may 6 investigate the affairs of the body corporate with 7
the commission's written agreement. 8

87ZF Powers of investigators 9

- (1) An investigator may, by written notice, require an 10 investigated person or an associated person for an 11 investigated person— 12
- (a) to produce to the investigator a document 13 that is in the custody or control of the 14 investigated person or associated person; 15
and 16
- (b) to give the investigator all reasonable help in 17 connection with the investigation. 18
- (2) An investigator may, by written notice, require an 19
investigated person, or an associated person for an 20 investigated person, who is an individual to 21 appear before the investigator for examination on 22 oath or affirmation. 23
- (3) An investigator may administer an oath or 24 affirmation. 25
- (4) For an electronic document, compliance with the 26 requirement requires the giving of a clear image 27 or written version of the electronic document. 28

87ZG Documents produced to investigator 29

- (1) If a document is produced to an investigator under 30
this part, the investigator may keep the document 31 for the period that the investigator reasonably 32 considers necessary for the investigation. 33

- (2) The investigator must allow a person who would be entitled to inspect the document if it were not being kept by the investigator to inspect the document at all reasonable times.
- (3) The investigator must allow an owner of the document to copy it.

87Z Examination of investigated person or associated person

- (1) An investigated person or associated person for an investigated person must not—
- (a) fail to comply with a lawful requirement (a relevant requirement) of the investigator to the extent the person is able to comply with it; or
 - (b) in purported compliance with a relevant requirement, give information knowing it to be false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (c) when appearing before an investigator for examination under a relevant requirement—
 - (i) state anything knowing it is false or misleading in a material particular; or
 - (ii) fail to be sworn or to make an affirmation.
- Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person if the person, when giving information in a document—
- (a) tells the investigator, to the best of the person's ability, how the information is false or misleading; and

[s 25]

- (b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information—gives the correct information to the investigator. 1
3
- (3) A person who complies with the requirement of an investigator under this section does not merely because of the compliance— 4
6
 - (a) contravene a provision of an Act or a law imposing a statutory or commercial obligation or restriction to maintain secrecy; or 7
10
 - (b) incur any civil liability. 11
- (4) A person required to attend for examination under this part is entitled to the allowances and expenses prescribed by regulation. 12
14

87ZISelf-incrimination and legal professional privilege 15
16

- (1) This section applies to a person who is an investigated person or an associated person for an investigated person if the person is required to answer a question put to the person by an investigator or produce a document to an investigator. 17 18
20 21
22
- (2) The person is not excused from failure to comply with the requirement on the basis that complying— 23
25
 - (a) might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty; or 26 27
 - (b) in the case of an investigated person mentioned in section 87ZC(2) or an associated person for an investigated person mentioned in section 87ZC(2), would disclose a privileged client communication. 28 29
30
31
32
- (3) The investigator must inform the person, in a way that is reasonable in the circumstances, that— 33 34

- (a) the person must comply with the requirement even though complying—
- (i) might tend to incriminate the person or expose the person to a penalty; or
- (ii) would disclose a privileged client communication; and
- (b) if the person is an individual—under section 87ZQ, there is a limited immunity against the future use of the information or document given in compliance with the requirement.
- (4) If the person is an individual and the individual fails to comply with the requirement when the investigator has failed to comply with subsection (3), the individual may not be convicted of the offence against section 87ZH(1).
- (5) If, in complying with a requirement made under section 87ZH, the person discloses a privileged client communication—
- (a) the person is taken for all purposes not to have breached legal professional privilege in complying with the requirement; and
- (b) the disclosure does not constitute a waiver of legal professional privilege or otherwise affect any claim of legal professional privilege for any purpose other than a proceeding for an offence against section 36A, 36D, 36E, 37AB, 39A, 41A, 74(1) or (2) or 75.
- (6) In this section—
- privileged client communication* means communication protected against disclosure by legal professional privilege that operates for the benefit of a client of an investigated person.

87ZJ Failure of person to comply with requirement of investigator	1 2
(1) If an investigated person or associated person for an investigated person fails to comply with a requirement of an investigator, the investigator may give the Supreme Court a certificate about the failure to comply.	3 4 5 6 7
(2) If an investigator gives a certificate under subsection (1), the court may inquire into the case and may—	8 9 10
(a) order the person to comply with the requirements of the investigator within a period fixed by the court; and	11 12 13
(b) if the court is satisfied that the person failed without lawful excuse to comply with the requirement of the investigator—punish the person in the same way as if the person had been guilty of contempt of the court.	14 15 16 17 18
87ZK Recording of examination	19
(1) An investigator must make a record of the questions asked and the answers given at an examination under this part.	20 21 22
(2) Subject to section 87ZQ, a record of the examination of a person under this part may be used in evidence in a legal proceeding against the person.	23 24 25 26
(3) A copy of the record of the examination of a person must be given to the person on the written request of the person without fee.	27 28 29
(4) The record must be included with the investigator's final report on the investigation.	30 31
(5) Nothing in this section affects or limits the admissibility of other written or oral evidence.	32 33

- (1) An investigator may, and, if directed by the commission, must make interim reports to the commission.
 - (2) On the completion or termination of the investigation, the investigator must report to the commission the investigator's opinion on the matters under investigation, together with the facts on which the opinion is based.
 - (3) A copy of a final report must, and a copy of the whole or a part of an interim report may, be given by the commission to the investigated person to which the report relates.
 - (4) However, the commission is not bound to give an investigated person a copy of a report, or a part of a report, if the commission is of the opinion that there is good reason for not divulging its contents.
 - (5) If the commission is of the opinion that it is in the public interest, the commission may publish, on its website and any other place the commission considers appropriate, the whole or a part of a report.
 - (6) If an investigator has given a record of an examination under this part to the commission with the report to which the record relates, a copy of the record may be given to any person, and on the conditions, that the commission considers appropriate.

87ZM Admission of investigator's report in evidence

33
34
35
- (1) A document certified by the commission to be a copy of an investigator's report is admissible in a legal proceeding as evidence of any facts stated in the report.
 - (2) Nothing in this section operates to diminish the protection given to witnesses by law. 1

[s 25]

87ZN Documents taken during investigation 2

- (1) On the completion or termination of the 3 investigation, an investigator must give the 4 commission any documents the investigator has 5 taken possession of under this part. 6
- (2) The commission may— 7
- (a) keep the documents for the period that the 8 commission reasonably considers necessary 9 to enable a decision to be made about 10 whether or not a legal proceeding ought to 11 be started; and 12
- (b) keep the documents for any further period 13
the commission reasonably considers 14 necessary to enable a legal proceeding to be 15 started and continued. 16
- (3) The commission may— 17
- (a) allow other persons to inspect the 18 documents while they are in the 19 commission’s possession; and 20
- (b) allow the use of the documents for a legal 21 proceeding started because of the 22 investigation. 23
- (4) The commission must allow a person who would 24 be entitled to inspect a document if it were not in 25
the commission’s possession to inspect the 26 document at all reasonable times. 27

87ZO Costs of investigation 28

- (1) The commission may recover the costs of and 29 incidental to an investigation under this part from 30 the investigated person to which the investigation 31 relates. 32

- (2) However, costs may not be recovered from an investigated person under this section if the investigation established—
- (a) for an insurer or related body corporate for an insurer—no irregularity on the part of the insurer or related body corporate; or
 - (b) for an investigated person mentioned in section 87ZC(2)—no evidence of a contravention by the person of section 74(1) or (2) or 75.

87ZPOther offences about investigations

- (1) A person must not—
- (a) conceal, destroy, mutilate or alter a document of or about an investigated person whose affairs are being investigated under this part; or
 - (b) send, cause to be sent or conspire with someone else to send out of the State a document mentioned in paragraph (a) or any property belonging to or under the control of the investigated person.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (2) It is a defence to a prosecution of an offence against subsection (1) for the defendant to prove that the defendant did not act with intent to defeat the purposes of this part or to delay or obstruct the carrying out of an investigation under this part.

87ZQEvidential immunity for individuals complying with particular requirements

- (1) This section applies if an individual gives or produces information or a document to an investigator under section 87ZF.

[s 25]

- (2) Evidence of the information or document, and other evidence directly or indirectly derived from the information or document, is not admissible against the individual in any proceeding to the extent it tends to incriminate the individual, or expose the individual to a penalty, in the proceeding. 1
4
5
7
- (3) However, this section does not apply to— 8
- (a) a proceeding about the false or misleading nature of the information or anything in the document or in which the false or misleading nature of the information or document is relevant evidence; or 9 10
12
13
- (b) a proceeding for an offence against section 36A, 36D, 36E, 37AB, 39A, 41A, 74(1) or (2) or 75. 14 15

87ZR Extraterritorial application of part 17

- (1) This part applies both within and outside Queensland to the extent necessary for any investigation of— 18
20
- (a) a contravention of section 36A, 36D, 36E, 37AB, 39A, 41A, 74(1) or (2) or 75; or 21 22
- (b) the affairs of an investigated person under section 87ZC(2). 23 24
- (2) For subsection (1), this part applies outside Queensland to the full extent of the extraterritorial legislative power of the Parliament. 25 26

87ZS Confidentiality of information 28

- (1) An investigator must not, whether directly or indirectly, disclose confidential information. 29 30
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 31
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if— 32

	(a) the confidential information is disclosed—	1
	(i) in the performance of functions under this part; or	2 3
	(ii) with the written consent of the person to whom the information relates; or	4 5
	(iii) to the person to whom the information relates; or	6 7
	(iv) in a form that could not identify any person; or	8 9
	(b) the disclosure of the confidential information is authorised under an Act or another law.	10 11 12
	(3) In this section—	13
	confidential information means information that has become known to an investigator in the course of performing the investigator’s functions for this part.	14 15 16 17
