---

40 Main purposes of part	1
This part—	2
(a) establishes a scheme for screening persons, by obtaining and considering their criminal history and other relevant information, to assess whether the persons pose an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability; and	3 4 5 6 7 8
(b) requires persons who carry out, or propose to carry out, particular work with people with disability to be screened under the scheme before they start carrying out the work; and	9 10 11 12 13
(c) prohibits persons from carrying out particular work with people with disability if the chief executive decides they pose an unacceptable risk of harm to the people with disability.	14 15 16 17 18
41 Paramount consideration	19
The paramount consideration in making a decision under this part is the right of people with disability to live lives free from abuse, violence, neglect or exploitation, including financial abuse or exploitation.	20 21 22 23 24
42 Part applies despite Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986	25 26
This part applies to a person despite the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986 .	27 28
43 Exemption for secondary school student on work experience	29 30
(1) This section applies if—	31

- (a) a secondary school student on work experience carries out disability work for a service provider (the work experience provider); and
- (b) another provision of this part requires a person who is engaged to carry out the disability work to hold a clearance or interstate NDIS clearance.
- (2) Despite the other provision, the student is not required to hold the clearance or interstate NDIS clearance to carry out the disability work.
- (3) The work experience provider does not commit an offence against the other provision in relation to the student carrying out the disability work if the student carries out the work under the direct supervision of—
- (a) for NDIS disability work—a person who holds an NDIS clearance or interstate NDIS clearance; or
- (b) for State disability work—a person who holds a clearance.

Subdivision 2 Interpretation

44 When a person is engaged to carry out work for entity

- (1) A person is engaged to carry out work for an entity if—
- (a) the person has an agreement with the entity to carry out the work as an employee or volunteer of the entity; or
- (b) the person carries out the work under a contract for services between—
- (i) the entity and the person; or

---

- (ii) the entity and another person. 1
- (2) For this section, it does not matter— 2
  - (a) whether the agreement or contract is written 3 or unwritten; or 4
  - (b) whether the work is carried out voluntarily 5 or for financial reward; or 6
  - (c) how long the person is engaged to carry out 7
the work; or 8
  - (d) whether the agreement or contract provides 9 for the person to carry out work on 1 occasion or an ongoing basis, whether 10 regularly or irregularly. 11 12
- (3) Also, for this section, the nature of the work does 13
not matter. 14
- Note—* 15
  - See also sections 46, 48 and 49. 16

- 45 Meaning of NDIS disability work and 17
risk-assessed NDIS work 18
  - (1) NDIS disability work is work that includes the 19 delivery of NDIS supports or services to a person 20
with disability. 21
  - (2) Risk-assessed NDIS work is NDIS disability 22 work carried out in a role for which the normal 23 duties— 24
    - (a) include the direct delivery of specified 25
NDIS supports or services to a person with 26 disability; or 27
    - (b) are likely to require more than incidental 28 contact with a person with disability. 29
  - (3) For subsection (2)(b), the normal duties of a 30 person’s role are likely to require more than 31 incidental contact with a person with disability if 32
the duties include— 33

- (a) physically touching a person with disability; 1 or 2
- (b) building a rapport with a person with 3 disability as an integral and ordinary part of 4 the performance of the duties; or 5
- (c) duties that, under the NDIS (Worker 6 Screening) Practice Standards, are defined 7 to be, or otherwise described as, duties that 8 require more than incidental contact with a 9 person with disability. 10
- (4) In this section— 11
contact includes— 12
- (a) physical contact; and 13
- (b) face-to-face contact; and 14
- (c) oral, written and electronic communication. 15
- rapport* means a relationship or understanding 16 that is more than merely polite and functional. 17
- specified NDIS supports or services* means NDIS 18 supports or services that, under the NDIS (Worker 19 Screening) Practice Standards, are— 20
- (a) specified supports or specified services; or 21
- (b) identified as supports or services that, if 22 delivered directly to a person with disability, 23 must be delivered by a person who holds an 24 NDIS clearance or interstate NDIS 25
clearance. 26
- 46 Key personnel of NDIS service provider taken 27 to be engaged in risk-assessed NDIS work 28
- (1) A person is taken to be engaged to carry out 29 risk-assessed NDIS work for an NDIS service 30 provider if the person is key personnel of the 31 service provider. 32

(2) In this section—	1
key personnel see the National Disability Insurance Scheme Act 2013 (Cwlth), section 11A.	2 3
47 Meaning of State disability work	4
(1) State disability work is work that includes providing disability services that is carried out for the department or a funded service provider.	5 6 7
(2) State disability work does not include work carried out at a place where a funded service provider provides disability services that is carried out—	8 9 10 11
(a) by a consumer of the service provider; or	12
(b) by a tradesperson who—	13
(i) performs work at the place from time to time; and	14 15
(ii) is not an employee of the service provider; or	16 17
(c) by a volunteer who—	18
(i) is a relative of a person who receives disability services at the place; and	19 20
(ii) is at the place only to help with the care of the person.	21 22
48 When person is engaged to carry out State disability work	23 24
(1) A person is engaged to carry out State disability work for the department if the person—	25 26
(a) is engaged to carry out the work at a place at which the department provides disability services; or	27 28 29

- (b) is a public service employee employed at a place mentioned in paragraph (a); or
- (c) is a member of a committee established under section 222(a).
- (2) A person is engaged to carry out State disability work for a funded service provider if the person is engaged to carry out the work at a place at which the service provider provides disability services.
- (3) A person is not engaged to carry out State disability work for the department or a funded service provider if the person is engaged to carry out the work, and carries out the work, for not more than 7 days in a calendar year.
- (4) This section does not limit section 44.
- 49 Particular members or officers taken to be engaged in State disability work for funded service provider
- A person is taken to be engaged to carry out State disability work for a funded service provider if—
- (a) the person is a member of a board, management committee or other governing body of the service provider; or
- (b) if the service provider is a corporation—the person is an executive officer of the service provider.
- 50 Meaning of clearance and types of clearances
- (1) A clearance is a declaration, issued by the chief executive to a person, that—
- (a) screening of the person has been conducted under this part; and
- (b) the person is permitted to carry out disability work.

[s 11]

---

- (2) An NDIS clearance is a clearance issued to a person who made an NDIS worker screening application. 1
3
- (3) An interstate NDIS clearance is a declaration, however called, issued under a corresponding law that corresponds to an NDIS clearance. 4
6
- (4) A State clearance is a clearance issued to a person who made a State disability worker screening application. 7
9
- 51 Meaning of exclusion and types of exclusions 10
- (1) An exclusion is a declaration, issued by the chief executive to a person, that— 11 12
- (a) screening of the person has been conducted under this part; and 13 14
- (b) the person is excluded from carrying out disability work. 15 16
- (2) An NDIS exclusion is an exclusion issued to a person who made an NDIS worker screening application. 17
19
- (3) An interstate NDIS exclusion is a declaration, however called, issued under a corresponding law that corresponds to an NDIS exclusion. 20
22
- (4) A State exclusion is an exclusion issued to a person who made a State disability worker screening application. 23
25
- 52 Meaning of *notifiable person 26
- (1) Each of the following is a notifiable person for a person— 27 28
- (a) if the chief executive is aware that an NDIS service provider engages, or proposes to engage, the person to carry out NDIS disability work—the NDIS service provider; 29 30
32

- (b) if the chief executive is aware that a funded service provider engages, or proposes to engage, the person to carry out State disability work—the funded service provider; 1
5
- (c) another entity prescribed by regulation to be a notifiable person for the person. 6 7
- (2) Subsection (3) applies for a person if— 8
- (a) the person delivers NDIS supports or services to an NDIS participant as— 9 10
- (i) an NDIS sole trader; or 11
- (ii) a person engaged by an NDIS service provider to deliver the supports or services; and 12
- (b) the Agency is not wholly managing the funding for supports under the NDIS participant’s plan; and 15
17
- (c) the chief executive is notified, or otherwise becomes aware, that the person is delivering the NDIS supports or services to the NDIS participant. 18 19
21
- (3) Each of the following is also a notifiable person for the person— 22 23
- (a) the NDIS participant; 24
- (b) another person recognised by the chief executive as a person with the authority or responsibility to act for the NDIS participant in relation to the participant’s plan, other than the Agency. 25

- (2) A court may not find that the person contravened the provision unless the person was given notice about the cancellation of the clearance or interstate NDIS clearance held by the person or the issue of the exclusion or interstate NDIS exclusion to the person. 16
19 20
21
- 63 Complying with requirement to end, or not start, person’s engagement 22 23
- (1) This section applies if it would be an offence against a provision of this part for an NDIS service provider or funded service provider to engage, or continue to engage, a person (the engaged person) to carry out disability work. 24
25
27
28
- (2) The NDIS service provider or funded service provider must comply with the provision despite another Act or law or any industrial award or agreement. 29 30
32
- (3) The NDIS service provider or funded service provider does not incur any liability because, in 33 34

complying with the provision, the service provider does not engage, or continue to engage, the engaged person to carry out disability work.	1 2 3
(4) A person whose clearance is suspended under division 6, or whose interstate NDIS clearance is suspended under a corresponding law, may be engaged by the NDIS service provider or funded service provider other than to carry out disability work until the suspension ends.	4 5 6 7 8 9
Division 3            Disability worker screening applications	10 11
Subdivision 1    Prohibited disability worker screening applications	12 13 14
64    Application by exclusion holder prohibited	15
(1) A person who holds an exclusion or an interstate NDIS exclusion must not make a disability worker screening application.	16 17 18
Maximum penalty—500 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.	19 20
(2) An application made in contravention of subsection (1) has no effect.	21 22
Subdivision 2    Applications generally	23
65    Application related to NDIS disability work	24
A person may apply to the chief executive for a clearance if the person—	25 26
(a) is, or proposes to be—	27

---

- (i) engaged by an NDIS service provider to carry out NDIS disability work; or 1 2
    - (ii) an NDIS sole trader; or 3
    - (iii) engaged by an entity prescribed by regulation for this section; and 4 5
  - (b) complies with each other criterion prescribed by regulation for this section. 6 7
- 66 Application related to State disability work 8
- A person may apply to the chief executive for a clearance if the person is, or proposes to be— 9 10
- (a) engaged by the department or a funded service provider to carry out State disability work; or 11 12
  - (b) a State sole trader; or 14
  - (c) engaged by an entity prescribed by regulation for this section. 15 16
- 67 Application combined with working with children check application 17 18
- (1) A person may combine an application under section 65 or 66 with a working with children check application. 19
  - (2) An application made under subsection (1) is a combined application. 22 23
  - (3) This part applies to a combined application to the extent it is an application under section 65 or 66. 24
25
  - (4) If a combined application is made to the chief executive, the chief executive must give the information in the combined application, to the extent the information relates to the person's working with children check application, to the chief executive (working with children). 26
27
28
29
30
31

- 68 Form of application 1
- (1) A disability worker screening application must be— 2 3
- (a) made in the approved form and in an approved way; and 4 5
- (b) signed by the applicant; and 6
- (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation for the application. 7 8
- (2) The approved form must provide for the applicant— 9 10
- (a) to provide proof of the applicant’s identity; and 11 12
- (b) to consent to being screened under this part; and 13 14
- (c) if the applicant is engaged, or proposes to be engaged, to carry out disability work—to provide information about the entity that has engaged, or proposes to engage, the applicant to carry out the disability work. 15 16
18
19
- 69 Chief executive may request further information 20 21
- (1) After receiving a disability worker screening application, the chief executive may give the applicant a notice asking the applicant to give the chief executive, within a reasonable stated time— 22
25
- (a) stated information the chief executive reasonably needs to establish the applicant’s identity; or 26 27
28
- (b) stated information, including by way of a submission, about a stated matter that the chief executive reasonably believes is relevant to the application. 29 30
32
- (2) A request under subsection (1) must state that, if 33

[s 11]

the applicant does not comply with the request 1 within the stated time, the application may be 2 withdrawn. 3

70 Applicant must give notice of change in 4
information 5

- (1) This section applies if, before the chief executive 6 decides a disability worker screening 7 application— 8
- (a) the applicant’s name or contact details as 9 stated in the application change; or 10
- (b) if the application states information about 11
the applicant’s engagement with an NDIS 12 service provider or funded service 13 provider—the stated information changes; 14
or 15
- (c) another matter, prescribed by regulation for 16 this section, changes in relation to the 17 applicant. 18
- (2) The applicant must give the chief executive a 19
notice about the change, in the approved form and 20 in an approved way, within 7 days after the 21 change happens. 22
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 23

71 Notice of change in police information or risk 24 assessment matter 25

- (1) This section applies if, before the chief executive 26 decides a disability worker screening application, 27 the applicant becomes aware that— 28
- (a) the police information about the applicant 29 changes; or 30
- (b) a risk assessment matter relating to the 31 applicant changes. 32

- (2) The applicant must immediately give the chief executive a notice about the change, in the approved form and in an approved way. Maximum penalty—100 penalty units. 1
4
- (3) For subsection (1)(a), the police information about a person changes if a criminal history event happens in relation to the person. 5
- 72 Expired clearance continues in force pending decision 8 9
- (1) This section applies if an applicant holds a clearance that, but for this section, would end under section 101(2). 10
- (2) The clearance remains in force— 13
- (a) from when the clearance would have ended under section 101(2); and 14
- (b) until— 16
- (i) the applicant’s disability worker screening application is decided or withdrawn; or 17
19
- (ii) the applicant stops being a person who may apply for a clearance under section 65 or 66. 20 21
- 73 Holder of expired interstate NDIS clearance taken to hold NDIS clearance pending decision 23 24
- (1) This section applies if an applicant holds an interstate NDIS clearance that ends under a corresponding law because the term of the clearance has ended. 25
26
28
- (2) The applicant is taken to hold an NDIS clearance— 29 30

---

- (a) from the end of the term of the interstate NDIS clearance under the corresponding law; and 1
- (b) until— 4
  - (i) the applicant's disability worker screening application is decided or withdrawn; or 5
7
  - (ii) the applicant stops being a person who may apply for a clearance under section 65; or 8
10
  - (iii) an interim bar is imposed on the applicant. 11 12

Subdivision 3 Withdrawal of application 13

74 Notice of withdrawal 14

- (1) If the chief executive withdraws a disability worker screening application under this subdivision before it is decided, the chief executive must give the applicant a notice that states— 15
18
19
  - (a) the application is withdrawn; and 20
  - (b) the reason for the withdrawal. 21
- (2) The chief executive must also give a notice mentioned in subsection (1) to each notifiable person for the applicant. 22

75 Withdrawal by applicant 25

- (1) The applicant may ask the chief executive to withdraw the applicant's disability worker screening application at any time before it is decided. 26 27
29
- (2) The request may be made orally or in writing. 30

- (3) The chief executive must withdraw the application unless the chief executive refuses to withdraw the application under section 76.

76 Refusal to withdraw by chief executive

- (1) The chief executive may refuse to withdraw an applicant's disability worker screening application if—
- (a) an interim bar is in effect for the applicant; or
  - (b) an interstate NDIS clearance held by the applicant is suspended under a corresponding law; or
  - (c) the applicant was previously issued an exclusion or an interstate NDIS exclusion; or
  - (d) the chief executive, in relation to deciding the application—
    - (i) has given, or is proposing to give, the applicant a show cause notice under section 95; or
    - (ii) reasonably suspects a risk assessment of the applicant will demonstrate that the applicant poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.
- (2) If the chief executive refuses to withdraw the application, the chief executive must give the applicant a notice that states the reasons for the refusal.

77 Request to withdraw combined application

- (1) This section applies if the applicant made a combined application.
- (2) The applicant may combine a request to withdraw

---

- the applicant's disability worker screening application under section 75 with a notice withdrawing the applicant's working with children check application. 1
4
- (3) A request made under subsection (2) is a combined withdrawal request. 5 6
- Note—* 7
- The request may be made orally or in writing. See— 8
- (a) section 75(2); and 9
- (b) the Working with Children Act, section 196(3). 10
- (4) This subdivision applies to a combined withdrawal request to the extent it is a request under section 75. 11
- (5) If a combined withdrawal request is made to the chief executive, the chief executive must give a notice about the combined withdrawal request to the chief executive (working with children). 14 15
17
- 78 Withdrawal because identity can not be established 18 19
- The chief executive must withdraw a disability worker screening application if— 20 21
- (a) the chief executive gives the applicant a notice under section 69(1)(a); and 22 23
- (b) the notice includes the warning mentioned in section 69(2); and 24 25
- (c) the chief executive can not establish the applicant's identity with certainty. 26 27
- 79 Withdrawal because of failure to comply with particular requests 28 29
- The chief executive may withdraw a disability worker screening application if— 30 31

- (a) the chief executive gives the applicant— 1
    - (i) a notice under section 69(1)(b) asking 2
the applicant to provide stated 3 information; or 4
    - (ii) a notice under section 138U or 138X 5 asking the applicant to give the 6 consent, or take the other action, stated 7
in the notice; and 8
  - (b) the notice includes a warning that, if the 9 applicant does not comply with the notice, 10
the application may be withdrawn; and 11
  - (c) the applicant does not comply with the 12
notice. 13

80 Withdrawal of NDIS worker screening 14 application in particular circumstances 15

The chief executive must withdraw an NDIS 16 worker screening application if the chief 17 executive is satisfied— 18

- (a) that, before the application was made, the 19 applicant applied for an interstate NDIS 20 clearance under a corresponding law and 21 that application has not been decided or 22 withdrawn; or 23
- (b) since the application was made, the 24 applicant has been issued an interstate NDIS 25
exclusion. 26

Subdivision 4 Interim bar for particular 27 applicants 28

81 Application of subdivision 29

- (1) This subdivision applies if any of the following 30 happens in relation to an applicant— 31

(a) the applicant—	1
(i) is charged with a disqualifying offence that has not been dealt with; and	2 3
(ii) was an adult when the offence is alleged to have been committed;	4 5
(b) the applicant becomes the subject of a banning order made for a reason that, in the chief executive’s opinion, is relevant to whether the applicant poses a risk of harm to people with disability;	6 7 8 9 10
(c) the chief executive, in deciding the applicant’s application, reasonably suspects a risk assessment of the applicant will demonstrate that the applicant poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	11 12 13 14 15 16
(2) However, this subdivision does not apply in relation to an applicant who holds a clearance that is suspended under division 6.	17 18 19
Note—	20
See sections 56, 60 and 113 in relation to the effect of the suspension of a person’s clearance.	21 22
82 Chief executive must impose interim bar on applicant	23 24
(1) The chief executive must impose an interim bar on the applicant.	25 26
(2) The chief executive imposes an interim bar by giving the applicant a notice that states—	27 28
(a) the interim bar is imposed on the applicant; and	29 30
(b) the reason for imposing the interim bar; and	31
(c) the effect of the interim bar.	32

83	Notifiable persons and potential employers notified about interim bar	1 2
(1)	The chief executive must give each notifiable person for the applicant a notice that states—	3 4
(a)	the applicant has made a disability worker screening application that has not been decided; and	5 6 7
(b)	an interim bar has been imposed on the applicant; and	8 9
(c)	the effect of the interim bar; and	10
(d)	an employer of the applicant who is given notice about the interim bar under this section must not terminate the applicant's employment solely or mainly because the interim bar is in effect for the person.	11 12 13 14 15
	Note—	16
	See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this section if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person.	17 18 19
(2)	Also, the chief executive may give a notice mentioned in subsection (1) to a potential employer of the applicant.	20 21 22
84	Effect of interim bar	23
(1)	This section applies if the chief executive imposes an interim bar on an applicant under section 82.	24 25
(2)	While the interim bar is in effect, the applicant must not—	26 27
(a)	start an engagement to carry out disability work; or	28 29
(b)	if, when the interim bar is imposed, the applicant is engaged to carry out disability work for an NDIS service provider, funded service provider or the department—carry	30 31 32 33

- out work for the service provider or department that is disability work; or 1
- (c) carry out disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader. 3 4
- Maximum penalty—500 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment. 5 6
- (3) An employer of the applicant who is given notice about the interim bar under section 83 must not terminate the applicant’s employment solely or mainly because the interim bar is in effect for the applicant. 7
10
11
- Notes—* 12
- 1 See also sections 56 and 60 in relation to NDIS service providers or funded service providers allowing the applicant to carry out disability work. 13
15
- 2 See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under section 83 if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person. 16
17
- 85 When interim bar ends 19
- (1) An interim bar imposed on an applicant ends if— 20
- (a) the applicant’s disability worker screening application is— 21 22
- (i) decided under division 4; or 23
- (ii) withdrawn under subdivision 3; or 24
- (b) the chief executive decides to end the interim bar under subsection (2). 25 26
- (2) The chief executive may decide to end an interim bar if the chief executive reasonably suspects that a risk assessment of the applicant will demonstrate that the applicant does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability. 27
28
30
31
32
- (3) If an interim bar has been imposed on the 33

| applicant for at least 6 months, the applicant may      | 1  |
| apply to the chief executive to end the interim bar.    | 2  |
| (4) The application must be made in the approved        | 3  |
| form and in an approved way.                            | 4  |
| (5) The chief executive is not required to decide the   | 5  |
| applicant's application to end the interim bar if—      | 6  |
| (a) a charge for an offence against the person          | 7  |
| has not been dealt with; or                             | 8  |
| (b) the chief executive is aware that an incident       | 9  |
| involving the person, or an allegation or               | 10 |
| complaint about the person's conduct, that is           | 11 |
| relevant to whether the person poses a risk             | 12 |

| investigated and the investigation has not              | 14 |
| ended.  | 15 |
| (6) The chief executive may decide the applicant's      | 16 |
| application to end the interim bar—                     | 17 |
| (a) by deciding to end the interim bar under            | 18 |
| subsection (2); or                                      | 19 |
| (b) if the applicant has asked the chief executive      | 20 |
| to withdraw the applicant's disability worker           | 21 |
| screening application under section 75—by               | 22 |
| withdrawing the application; or                         | 23 |
| (c) by refusing to end the interim bar.                 | 24 |
| (7) If the chief executive decides to refuse to end the | 25 |
| interim bar, the chief executive must give the          | 26 |
| applicant a notice that states—                         | 27 |
| (a) the decision and the reasons for the                | 28 |
| decision; and   | 29 |
| (b) the relevant review and appeal information.         | 30 |

Division 4	Dealing with and deciding	31
	application	32

Subdivision 1 Preliminary	1
86 Application of division	2
This division applies if a person made a disability worker screening application and the application has not been withdrawn.	3 4 5
87 Dealing with application	6
(1) The chief executive must—	7
(a) consider the person’s application and the information available to the chief executive about the person; and	8 9 10
(b) if section 89 or 90 apply to the person— decide the application under that section; and	11 12 13
(c) if section 91 or 92 apply to the person— conduct a risk assessment of the person before deciding the application under that section.	14 15 16 17
(2) However, the chief executive is not required to decide the person’s application if—	18 19
(a) a charge for an offence against the person has not been dealt with; or	20 21
(b) the chief executive is aware that an incident involving the person, or an allegation or complaint about the person’s conduct, that is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability is being investigated and the investigation has not ended.	22 23 24 25 26 27 28
88 Information to be considered	29
(1) The chief executive must consider each of the	30

- following types of information for a person of which the chief executive is aware, if any—
- (a) police information;
  - (b) domestic violence information;
  - (c) disciplinary information;
  - (d) NDIS disciplinary or misconduct information;
  - (e) information about—
    - (i) whether the person holds, or has previously held, a clearance, interstate NDIS clearance, exclusion or interstate NDIS exclusion; or
    - (ii) if the person has previously held a clearance or interstate NDIS clearance—whether the clearance was suspended at any time or cancelled.
- (2) The chief executive may consider other information about the person that is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability.

Subdivision 2 Deciding application

89 Deciding application—no relevant information

The chief executive must issue a clearance to the person if the chief executive is not aware of any information mentioned in section 88 about the person.

90 Deciding application—disqualified person

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is aware the person is a disqualified person.

[s 11]

(2)	The chief executive must issue an exclusion to the person.	1 2
91	Deciding application—exceptional circumstances for adult offender	3 4
(1)	This section applies if the chief executive is aware—	5 6
(a)	the person has a conviction for a serious offence and was an adult when the offence was committed; or	7 8 9
(b)	the person—	10
(i)	has been charged with a disqualifying offence or serious offence that has not been dealt with; and	11 12 13
(ii)	was an adult when the offence is alleged to have been committed.	14 15
	Note—	16
	See section 95 for the requirement for the chief executive to give the person a show cause notice before deciding the person’s application if this section applies.	17 18 19
(2)	The chief executive must issue the person an exclusion.	20 21
(3)	However, the chief executive may issue the person a clearance if satisfied there are exceptional circumstances such that the person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	22 23 24 25 26
92	Deciding application—general assessment of risk posed	27 28
(1)	This section applies if sections 89, 90 and 91 do not apply to the person.	29 30
(2)	The chief executive must—	31

- (a) if satisfied the person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability—issue a clearance to the person; or 1
4
  - (b) if satisfied the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability—issue an exclusion to the person. 5

Subdivision 3 Assessing risk person poses to people with disability 8

93 How chief executive conducts risk assessment 11 12

- (1) The chief executive conducts a risk assessment of a person by— 13 14
  - (a) considering the information about the person obtained by the chief executive under this part; and 15
  - (b) deciding whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability. 18 19 20
- (2) In conducting the risk assessment, the chief executive— 21 22
  - (a) must consider information as required under this division; and 23 24
  - (b) may decide the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability— 25
26
27
    - (i) if satisfied there is a real and appreciable risk that the person might cause harm to people with disability; and 28
29
30
31

[s 11]

---

- (ii) without needing to be satisfied it is likely the person will cause the harm. 1

94 Matters to consider 3

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is aware of conduct of the person (the person's offending conduct) that— 4
  - (a) involved the commission of an offence; or 7
  - (b) was the subject of a complaint, allegation or investigation under a law; or 8 9
  - (c) is otherwise relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability. 10
- (2) The chief executive must consider the following matters— 13 14
  - (a) the nature, gravity and circumstances of the person's offending conduct; 15 16
  - (b) how the person's offending conduct is relevant to disability work; 17 18
  - (c) how long ago the person's offending conduct occurred; 19 20
  - (d) if the person's offending conduct was committed against another person (the victim)— 21
22
23
    - (i) the victim's vulnerability at the time of the conduct; and 24 25
    - (ii) the person's relationship to, or position of authority over, the victim at the time of the conduct; 26 27
28
  - (e) whether the person's offending conduct indicates a pattern of concerning behaviour; 29 30
  - (f) the person's conduct since the offending conduct; 31 32

- (g) any other circumstances relevant to the person's offending conduct. 1 2
- 95 Action before making adverse decision 3
- (1) This section applies if— 4
- (a) section 91 applies to the person; or 5
- (b) the chief executive is proposing to decide that the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability. 6
8
- (2) Before deciding the person's application, the chief executive must— 9 10
- (a) give the person a notice (a show cause notice) that complies with section 96; and 11 12
- (b) consider any submissions the person makes in response to the show cause notice. 13
14
- 96 Requirements for show cause notice 15
- A show cause notice given to a person under section 95 must— 16 17
- (a) state the following information about the person of which the chief executive is aware— 18 19 20
- (i) police information; 21
- (ii) domestic violence information; 22
- (iii) disciplinary information; 23
- (iv) NDIS disciplinary or misconduct information; 24 25
- (v) other information that the chief executive reasonably believes is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability; 26 27
28
and 30

- (b) state that, because of the circumstances mentioned in section 95(1), the chief executive proposes to issue the person an exclusion unless the chief executive is satisfied that—
  - (i) if section 91 applies to the person— there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (ii) the person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability; and
- (c) invite the person to make submissions to the chief executive about—
  - (i) if section 91 applies to the person— whether there are exceptional circumstances; and
  - (ii) why the chief executive should not issue an exclusion to the person; and
- (d) state the period in which the person may make the submissions, which must be at least 7 days after the chief executive gives the notice to the person.

Subdivision 4 Steps after application decided

97 Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies if the chief executive decides a person's disability worker screening application.

98 Issuing clearance and clearance card

- (1) If the chief executive decides to issue a clearance

- to the person, the chief executive must— 1
- (a) give the person a notice that states the chief 2
executive has decided— 3
- (i) if the person made an NDIS worker 4
screening application—to issue the 5 person an NDIS clearance; or 6
- (ii) if the person made a State disability 7
worker screening application—to issue 8
the person a State clearance; and 9
- (b) issue a clearance card for the clearance to 10
the person. 11
- (2) A clearance card, for a clearance issued to a 12 person, is a document, in the form of a card, that 13 evidences that the clearance has been issued to the 14
person. 15

99 Issuing exclusion 16

- If the chief executive decides to issue an 17 exclusion to the person, the chief executive must 18 give the person a notice that states— 19
- (a) the chief executive has decided— 20
- (i) if the person made an NDIS worker 21
screening application—to issue the 22
person an NDIS exclusion; or 23
- (ii) if the person made a State disability 24
worker screening application—to issue 25
the person a State exclusion; and 26
- (b) the reasons for the decision; and 27
- (c) the relevant review and appeal information; 28
and 29
- (d) that it is an offence against this Act for a 30 person who holds an exclusion to— 31

(i) make a disability worker screening application; or	1 2
(ii) start or continue to be engaged in carrying out disability work; or	3 4
(iii) carry out NDIS disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State disability work as a State sole trader.	5 6 7
100 Notifiable persons and potential employers notified about decision	8 9
(1) The chief executive must give each notifiable person for the person a notice that states whether the person was issued—	10 11 12
(a) if the person made an NDIS worker screening application—an NDIS clearance or NDIS exclusion; or	13 14 15
(b) if the person made a State disability worker screening application—a State clearance or State exclusion.	16 17 18
Note—	19
See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this section if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person.	20 21 22
(2) Also, the chief executive may give a notice mentioned in subsection (1) to a potential employer of the person.	23 24 25
101 Term of clearance	26
(1) The term of a clearance starts—	27
(a) when the clearance is issued; or	28
(b) if the person holds another clearance with a term that ends on a later day—immediately after the existing clearance ends.	29 30 31
(2) Unless it is cancelled earlier under division 6, the	32

term of a clearance ends—	1
(a) for an NDIS clearance—5 years after it starts under subsection (1); or	2 3
(b) for a State clearance—3 years after it starts under subsection (1).	4 5
102 Term of exclusion	6
An exclusion remains in force unless it is cancelled under division 7.	7 8
Division 5            General provisions about clearances	9 10
Subdivision 1    Change in information	11
103 Clearance holder to notify if no longer carrying out work as volunteer or on unpaid basis	12 13
(1) This section applies if—	14
(a) a person holds a clearance that is not suspended; and	15 16
(b) during the term of the clearance, the person is or was—	17 18
(i) engaged to carry out disability work only as a volunteer; or	19 20
(ii) carrying out disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader only on an unpaid basis; and	21 22 23
(c) either of the following changes happens—	24
(i) the person is engaged to carry out disability work other than as a volunteer;	25 26 27

---

- (ii) the person starts carrying out disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader for financial reward. 1
3
- (2) The person must, within 14 days after the change happens— 4 5
- (a) give the chief executive a notice, in the approved form and in an approved way, about the change; and 6
8
- (b) if the person is required to pay the prescribed application fee under subsection (3)—pay the prescribed application fee to the chief executive. 9 10
12
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 13
- Note—* 14
- See section 106 in relation to the chief executive issuing a replacement clearance card because of the change. 15 16
18
20
- (a) engaged, or to be engaged, to carry out disability work only as a volunteer; or 21 22
- (b) carrying out, or proposing to carry out, disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader only on an unpaid basis. 23
- (4) In this section— 26
- prescribed application fee means the fee prescribed by regulation for a disability worker screening application made by a person— 27 28
29
- (a) for a person who gives a notice under subsection (2) for a change mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(i)—engaged to carry out disability work other than as a volunteer; or 30 31
32
33

---

(b) for a person who gives a notice under subsection (2) for a change mentioned in subsection (1)(c)(ii)—carrying out disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader for financial reward.

unpaid basis, for carrying out disability work, means the work is carried out other than for financial reward.

104 Clearance holder to notify change in other information

(1) A person who holds a clearance must immediately give the chief executive a notice, in the approved form and in an approved way, if the person becomes aware that—

(a) the police information about the person changes; or

(b) a risk assessment matter relating to the person changes.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

(2) For subsection (1), the police information about a person changes if a criminal history event happens in relation to the person.

(3) Also, a person who holds a clearance must, within 14 days after any of the following matters change, give the chief executive a notice, in the approved form and in an approved way, about the change—

(a) the person's name;

(b) the person's contact details;

(c) another matter about the person, other than a matter to which section 103 or subsection (1) applies, prescribed by regulation for this subsection.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Subdivision 2 Replacement of clearance card	1 2
105 Replacement of lost or stolen card	3
(1) If a person's clearance card is lost or stolen (the lost or stolen card ), the person must, within 14 days after the loss or theft—	4 5 6
(b) either—	10
(i) apply for a replacement clearance card; or	11 12
(ii) ask the chief executive under section 124 to cancel the person's clearance.	13 14
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.	15
(2) An application under subsection (1)(b)(i) must be—	16 17
(a) made in the approved form and in an approved way; and	18 19
(b) accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation for the application.	20 21
(3) The chief executive must—	22
(a) cancel the lost or stolen card; and	23
(b) if the person applied for a replacement clearance card under subsection (1)(b)(i)—	24 25
issue a replacement clearance card to the person.	26 27
106 Replacement for change of name, contact details or volunteer or unpaid status	28 29
(1) This section applies if a person who holds a	30

- clearance gives the chief executive notice that— 1
- (a) the person’s name or contact details have 2 changed; or 3
  - (b) a change mentioned in section 103(1)(c) has 4 happened. 5
- (2) If the chief executive considers it is appropriate to 6
do so because of the change, the chief executive 7 may issue a replacement clearance card to the 8
person. 9
- (3) If the chief executive issues a replacement 10 clearance card to the person, the chief executive 11 must cancel the person’s previously held 12
clearance card. 13

107 Requirement to return replaced card 14

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive issues a 15
clearance card (the replacement card) to a person 16 who holds a clearance to replace a clearance card 17
(the original card) previously issued to the 18
person. 19
- (2) If the replacement card is issued other than 20 because the person’s original card expired or was 21 lost or stolen, the person must give the original 22 card to the chief executive within 14 days after the 23 replacement card is issued. 24
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 25
- (3) If the person’s original card was lost or stolen and 26
the person regains possession of it, the person 27 must give the original card to the chief executive 28 within 7 days after regaining possession of it. 29
- Maximum penalty—10 penalty units. 30
- (4) A person does not commit an offence against 31 subsection (2) or (3) if the person has a reasonable 32 excuse. 33

	harm to people with	5
	disability	6
108	Reassessment of risk of harm posed by holder	7
	of clearance	8
(1)	The chief executive may conduct a risk	9
	assessment of a person who holds a clearance if	10
	the chief executive becomes aware of information	11
	about the person that—	12
(a)	was not known to the chief executive when	13
	the decision to issue the clearance was	14
	made; and	15
(b)	in the chief executive’s opinion, is relevant	16
	to whether the person poses a risk of harm to	17
	people with disability.	18
(2)	The chief executive must conduct a risk	19
	assessment of a person, under subsection (1) or	20
	otherwise, before the chief executive makes a	21 decision under this division about whether the	22
	person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to	23
	people with disability.	24
109	Application of div 4, sdiv 3 to conducting risk	25
	assessment	26
(1)	Division 4, subdivision 3 applies with necessary	27
	changes for conducting a risk assessment of a	28
	person under section 108.	29
(2)	Without limiting subsection (1), section 95	30 applies if, under this division, the chief executive is proposing to decide that the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.

Note—

Section 95 requires the chief executive to give a person a show cause notice, and invite the person to make submissions, before the chief executive decides the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.

Subdivision 2 Suspension of clearance

110 Application of subdivision

This subdivision applies in relation to a person who holds a clearance if—

- (a) the person—
  - (i) is charged with a disqualifying offence that has not been dealt with; and
  - (ii) was an adult when the offence is alleged to have been committed; or
- (b) the person becomes the subject of a banning order made for a reason that, in the chief executive’s opinion, is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability; or
- (c) the chief executive—
  - (i) is conducting a risk assessment of the person under subdivision 1; and
  - (ii) reasonably suspects the assessment will demonstrate that the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.

- 111 Chief executive must suspend clearance 1
- (1) The chief executive must suspend the person's 2 clearance by giving the person a notice (a 3 suspension notice) about the suspension. 4
- (2) The suspension notice must state— 5
- (a) the person's clearance is suspended; and 6
- (b) the reason for the suspension; and 7
- (c) how long the suspension will continue; and 8
- (d) the effect of the suspension; and 9
- (e) under section 128, the person must return 10
the person's clearance card to the chief 11 executive immediately after the notice is 12 given, unless the person has a reasonable 13 excuse; and 14
- (f) the relevant review and appeal information. 15
- 112 Notifiable persons and potential employers 16 notified about suspension 17
- (1) The chief executive must give each notifiable 18 person for the person a notice that states— 19
- (a) the person's clearance is suspended; and 20
- (b) how long the suspension will continue; and 21
- (c) the effect of the suspension; and 22
- (d) it is an offence for an NDIS service provider 23 or funded service provider to allow the 24 person to carry out disability work while the 25 clearance is suspended; and 26
- (e) an employer of the person who is given 27
notice about the suspension of the person's 28 clearance under this section must not 29 terminate the person's employment solely or 30 mainly because of the suspension. 31

Note—

- See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this section if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person.
- (2) Also, the chief executive may give a notice mentioned in subsection (1) to a potential employer of the person.

113 Effect of suspension of clearance

- (1) This section applies while the person's clearance is suspended.
- (2) The person must not—
- (a) start an engagement to carry out disability work; or
  - (b) if the person is engaged to carry out disability work for an NDIS service provider, funded service provider or the department—carry out work for the service provider or department that is disability work; or
  - (c) carry out disability work as an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader.
- Maximum penalty—500 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.
- (3) An employer of the person who is given notice about the suspension of the person's clearance under section 112 must not terminate the person's employment solely or mainly because of the suspension.

Notes—

- 1 See also sections 56 and 60 in relation to NDIS service providers or funded service providers allowing the person to carry out disability work.

[s 11]

---

- 2 See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under section 112 if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person. 1
3
- (4) The person's clearance continues in force even if it would otherwise end under section 101(2). 4 5
- 114 When suspension of clearance ends 6
- The suspension of the person's clearance ends if— 7 8
- (a) the chief executive decides to cancel the clearance under section 115; or 9 10
- (b) the suspension ends under section 118; or 11
- (c) the clearance is otherwise cancelled under this division. 12 13
- 115 Deciding whether to cancel suspended clearance 14 15
- (1) The chief executive may decide whether or not to cancel the person's suspended clearance— 16 17
- (a) on the chief executive's own initiative; or 18
- (b) in response to an application made by the person under section 116. 19 20
- (2) The chief executive must cancel the person's clearance if the chief executive decides the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability. 21
22
23
24
- Note—* 25
- See sections 108(2) and 109 in relation to making a decision under this section. 26 27
- (3) Otherwise, the chief executive may decide to— 28
- (a) not cancel the person's clearance; and 29
- (b) end the suspension of the clearance. 30

- 116 Application to chief executive to end suspension of clearance 1 2
- (1) If the person’s clearance has been suspended for 3 at least 6 months, the person may apply to the 4 chief executive to end the suspension of the 5
clearance. 6
- (2) The application must be made in the approved 7
form and in an approved way. 8
- (3) The chief executive is not required to decide the 9 person’s application if— 10
- (a) a charge for an offence against the person 11
has not been dealt with; or 12
- (b) the chief executive is aware that an incident 13
involving the person, or an allegation or 14
complaint about the person’s conduct, that is 15
relevant to whether the person poses a risk 16
of harm to people with disability is being 17 investigated and the investigation has not 18
ended. 19
- (4) The chief executive may decide the application— 20
- (a) by deciding under section 115 whether or 21 not to cancel the person’s clearance; or 22
- (b) by deciding— 23
- (i) not to make a decision under section 24
115; and 25
- (ii) to continue the suspension of the 26
person’s clearance. 27
- (5) If the chief executive makes a decision mentioned 28 in subsection (4)(b), the chief executive must give 29
the person a notice that states— 30
- (a) the decision and reasons for the decision; 31
and 32
- (b) the relevant review and appeal information. 33

[s 11]

---

- 117 Chief executive decides to cancel suspended clearance 1 2
- (1) If the chief executive decides to cancel the 3 person's clearance under section 115, the chief 4 executive must— 5
- (a) cancel the clearance; and 6
- (b) issue an exclusion to the person as 7
follows— 8
- (i) for a person who held an NDIS 9
clearance—an NDIS exclusion; 10
- (ii) for a person who held a State 11
clearance—a State exclusion; and 12
- (c) give the person a notice that states— 13
- (i) the decision and reasons for the 14
decision; and 15
- (ii) that, if the person has not returned the 16 person's clearance card to the chief 17 executive, under section 128, the 18 person must return the person's 19 clearance card to the chief executive 20 immediately, unless the person has a 21 reasonable excuse; and 22
- (iii) the relevant review and appeal 23
information; and 24
- (iv) the circumstances in which the person 25 may apply under section 130 for the 26 exclusion to be cancelled; and 27
- (d) give each notifiable person for the person, 28 and each potential employer of the person 29 given notice about the suspension of the 30 clearance under section 112(2), a notice that 31
states— 32
- (i) the person's clearance has been 33
cancelled; and 34

(ii) the person has been issued an exclusion; and 1
2

(iii) it is an offence for an NDIS service provider or funded service provider to engage, or to continue to engage, the person to carry out disability work. 3

Note— 7

See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this paragraph if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person. 8
11

(2) Also, the chief executive may give a notice mentioned in subsection (1)(d) to another potential employer of the person. 12

118 Chief executive decides not to cancel suspended clearance 15
16

(1) This section applies if, under section 115, the chief executive decides not to cancel the person's clearance and end the suspension of the clearance. 17

(2) The suspension of the person's clearance ends. 20

(3) The chief executive must— 21

(a) give a notice that states the suspension of the person's clearance has ended to— 22
23

(i) the person; and 24

(ii) each notifiable person for the person; and 25
26

(iii) each potential employer for the person who was given a notice about the suspension under section 112(2); and 27
28
29

(b) if the chief executive has the person's clearance card and the term of the person's clearance has not ended under section 101(2)—return the person's clearance card to the person. 30

Subdivision 3	Cancelling clearance by chief executive	1 2
119	Cancelling clearance—disqualified person	3
(1)	The chief executive must cancel a person’s clearance if the person becomes a disqualified person.	4 5 6
(2)	This section applies whether or not the person’s clearance is suspended under section 111.	7 8
120	Cancelling clearance—wrong or incomplete information	9 10
(1)	The chief executive must cancel a person’s clearance if the chief executive—	11 12
(a)	becomes aware the decision to issue the clearance was based on information that was wrong or incomplete; and	13 14 15
(b)	decides the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	16 17
	Note—	18
	See sections 108(2) and 109 in relation to making a decision under this section.	19 20
(2)	A risk assessment of the person conducted before the chief executive makes a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must include consideration of the correct or complete information.	21 22 23 24
(3)	This section applies whether or not the person’s clearance is suspended under section 111.	25 26
121	Cancelling clearance—new relevant information	27 28
(1)	The chief executive must cancel a person’s clearance if the chief executive—	29 30

- (a) becomes aware of information that— 1
- (i) was not known to the chief executive 2 when the decision to issue the 3 clearance was made; and 4
- (ii) in the chief executive’s opinion, is 5 relevant to whether the person poses a 6 risk of harm to people with disability; 7
and 8
- (b) has not suspended the person’s clearance 9
under section 111; and 10
- (c) decides the person poses an unacceptable 11
risk of harm to people with disability. 12
- Note—* 13
- See sections 108(2) and 109 in relation to making a 14 decision under this section. 15
- (2) A risk assessment of the person conducted before 16
the chief executive makes a decision mentioned in 17 subsection (1)(c) must include consideration of 18
the information mentioned in subsection (1)(a). 19

122 Action after decision 20

If the chief executive is required, or decides, to 21 cancel a person’s clearance under this 22 subdivision, the chief executive must— 23

- (a) cancel the person’s clearance; and 24
- (b) issue an exclusion to the person as 25
follows— 26
- (i) for a person who held an NDIS 27
clearance—an NDIS exclusion; 28
- (ii) for a person who held a State 29
clearance—a State exclusion; and 30
- (c) give the person a notice that states— 31

[s 11]

---

- (i) the decision to cancel the clearance and issue the exclusion and the reasons for the decision; and 1
3
- (ii) under section 128, the person must return the person's clearance card to the chief executive immediately, unless the person has a reasonable excuse; and 4
7
- (iii) the relevant review and appeal information; and 8 9
- (iv) the circumstances in which the person may apply under section 130 for the exclusion to be cancelled. 10

- (1) If the chief executive cancels a person's clearance under this subdivision, the chief executive must give each notifiable person for the person a notice that states— 15
17
18
  - (a) the person's clearance has been cancelled; and 19 20
  - (b) the person has been issued an exclusion; and 21
  - (c) it is an offence for an NDIS service provider or funded service provider to engage, or to continue to engage, the person to carry out disability work. 22
25

Note— 26

See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this section if the NDIS commission communicates the relevant information to the notifiable person. 27
28
29

- (2) Also, the chief executive may give a notice mentioned in subsection (1) to a potential employer of the person. 30

Subdivision 4 Cancellling clearance on holder's request	1 2
124 Request to cancel clearance	3
(1) A person may ask the chief executive to cancel the person's clearance.	4 5
(2) The request must be made in the approved form and in an approved way.	6 7
125 Refusal to cancel clearance	8
(1) The chief executive must refuse a person's request under section 124 if—	9 10
(a) the person's clearance is suspended; or	11
(b) the chief executive is conducting, or proposes to conduct, a risk assessment of the person under subdivision 1; or	12 13 14
(c) the chief executive is aware the person has become a disqualified person.	15 16
(2) The chief executive must give the person a notice that states—	17 18
(a) the chief executive is refusing the request to cancel the person's clearance; and	19 20
(b) the reasons for the refusal.	21
126 Cancellation of clearance	22
(1) This section applies if a request under section 124 is not refused by the chief executive under section 125.	23 24 25
(2) The chief executive must—	26
(a) cancel the person's clearance; and	27
(b) give the person a notice that states—	28

[s 11]

---

- (i) the clearance has been cancelled; and 1
- (ii) under section 128, the person must 2 return the person's clearance card to 3 the chief executive immediately after 4 the notice is given, unless the person 5 has a reasonable excuse; and 6
- (iii) it is an offence for the person to be 7 engaged in carrying out disability 8 work, or to carry out disability work as 9 an NDIS sole trader or State sole 10 trader, other than as allowed under 11 division 2. 12

127 Notifiable persons and potential employers 13 notified about cancellation 14

- (1) If the chief executive cancels a person's clearance 15 under section 126, the chief executive must give a 16 notice to each notifiable person for the person that 17
states— 18
  - (a) the person's clearance has been cancelled on 19
the person's request; and 20
  - (b) it is an offence for an NDIS service provider 21 or funded service provider to engage, or 22 continue to engage, the person in disability 23 work other than as allowed under division 2. 24

Note— 25

See section 138ZZB in relation to notices under this 26 section if the NDIS commission communicates the 27 relevant information to the notifiable person. 28

- (2) Also, the chief executive may give a potential 29 employer for the person a notice mentioned in 30
subsection (1). 31

Subdivision 5 Return of clearance card 32

128 Requirement to return suspended or cancelled card	1 2
(1) This section applies to a person if the chief executive gives the person a notice that states the person's clearance is suspended or cancelled.	3 4 5
(2) The person must return the person's clearance card for the clearance to the chief executive immediately after the notice is given, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.	6 7 8 9
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.	10
Division 7 Cancellation of exclusion	11
129 Application of div 4, sdiv 3 to conducting risk assessment	12 13
(1) The chief executive must conduct a risk assessment of a person before the chief executive makes a decision under this division about whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	14 15 16 17 18
(2) Division 4, subdivision 3 applies for conducting the risk assessment with necessary changes.	19 20
(3) Without limiting subsection (2), section 95 applies if, under this division, the chief executive is proposing to decide that the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	21 22 23 24 25
Note—	26
Section 95 requires the chief executive to give a person a show cause notice, and invite the person to make submissions, before the chief executive decides the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	27 28 29 30 31

- 130 Application to cancel exclusion 1
- (1) A person who holds an exclusion, other than a disqualified person, may apply to the chief executive to cancel the exclusion if— 2
- (a) the application is made more than 5 years after— 3
- (i) the exclusion was issued; and 4
- (ii) if the person has previously applied to cancel the exclusion under this section—the most recent previous application was decided; or 5
- (b) a court decides an appeal, under section 138K, and sets aside a decision that information is investigative information about the person; or 6
- (c) there has been a significant or exceptional change in the person’s circumstances since the exclusion was issued. 7
- Example of a significant or exceptional change in a person’s circumstances—* 8
- a person’s conviction for an offence is quashed 9
- 131 Form of application 11
- (1) The application must be— 12
- (a) made in the approved form and in an approved way; and 13
- (b) signed by the person; and 14
- (c) accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation for the application. 15

- (2) The person may state anything in the application 1 that the person considers is relevant to the chief 2 executive's decision, including, for example, a 3 change in the person's circumstances since the 4 exclusion was issued. 5

132 Cancellation on application 6

- (1) This section applies if a person made an 7 application under section 130. 8
- (2) The chief executive may cancel the person's 9
exclusion if the chief executive is satisfied the 10
person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm 11 to people with disability. 12

Note— 13

See section 129 in relation to making a decision under 14
this section. 15

133 Other cancellation of exclusion 16

- (1) The chief executive may act under this section 17 whether or not a person made an application 18
under section 130. 19
- (2) The chief executive may cancel the person's 20
exclusion if the chief executive is satisfied the 21
person does not pose an unacceptable risk of harm 22 to people with disability and any of the following 23
apply— 24
- (a) the exclusion was issued because the person 25 was a disqualified person and the person is 26 no longer a disqualified person; 27
- (b) the chief executive is satisfied the decision 28 to issue the exclusion was based on wrong 29 or incomplete information; 30
- (c) the chief executive becomes aware of 31 information (further information) that— 32

[s 11]

---

- (i) was not known to the chief executive when the decision to issue the exclusion was made; and
    - (ii) in the chief executive's opinion, is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability.
  - (3) A risk assessment of the person conducted before the chief executive makes a decision for a reason mentioned in subsection (2)(b) or (c) must include consideration of the correct and complete information or the further information.
- Note—*
- See section 129 in relation to making a decision under this section.

134 Action after decision to cancel exclusion

- (1) If the chief executive decides to cancel a person's exclusion under this division, the chief executive must—
  - (a) cancel the exclusion; and
  - (b) give the person a notice about the cancellation.
- (2) The chief executive may decide a disability worker screening application made by the person after the exclusion is cancelled without conducting a risk assessment of the person unless the chief executive is aware of information that—
  - (a) was not known to the chief executive when the decision to cancel the exclusion was made; and
  - (b) is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability.

135 Notice of decision to refuse application	1
(1) This section applies if—	2
(a) a person made an application under section 130; and	3 4
(b) the chief executive decided to refuse the application.	5 6
(2) The chief executive must give the person a notice that states—	7 8
(a) the application has been refused and the person’s exclusion continues in force; and	9 10
(b) the reasons for the chief executive’s decision to refuse the application; and	11 12
(c) the relevant review and appeal information.	13
Division 8	Provisions about	14
	obtaining, giving and	15
	dealing with information	16
Subdivision 1	Preliminary	17
136 Meaning of relevant person	18
(1) For this division, each of the following persons is a relevant person —	19 20
(a) a person who holds a clearance;	21
(b) a person who has made a disability worker screening application that has not been decided or withdrawn;	22 23 24
(c) a person to whom all of the following apply—	25 26

---

- (i) the person has purported to make a disability worker screening application; 1
3
- (ii) the application has not been properly made, including, for example, because the application was not accompanied by the fee prescribed by regulation for the application; 4
6
8
- (iii) the application, as made, contains sufficient information for the chief executive to establish the person's identity with certainty; 9 10
12
- (d) a person who has made an application under section 130 to cancel the person's exclusion and the application has not been decided or withdrawn; 13
14
15
16
- (e) a person who holds an exclusion if— 17
  - (i) there is an undecided appeal, review or application under section 138J(2), 138L(2), 138ZV or 138ZW relating to the exclusion; or 18
21
  - (ii) there is an undecided appeal against a decision on an appeal or review under section 138J(2) or 138ZW relating to the exclusion. 22
23
25
- (2) Also, a person is a relevant person for this division if the chief executive is aware that— 26 27
  - (a) the person holds an interstate NDIS clearance; or 28 29
  - (b) the person has made an application under a corresponding law that corresponds to an NDIS worker screening application and an NDIS worker screening unit has asked the chief executive for information about the person in relation to deciding the application. 30 31
32
33
34
35
36

- (3) In this section— 1
undecided, in relation to an appeal, review or 2 application, means the appeal, review or 3 application has been started or made but not 4 decided. 5

137 Chief executive may disclose information 6 about relevant persons 7

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive may ask 8 an entity for information about a relevant person 9 under this division. 10
- (2) The chief executive may include information that 11 is reasonably necessary to identify the relevant 12 person in the request. 13
- (3) The chief executive may also give information 14 about the identity of a relevant person to an entity 15 that is authorised, under this division or another 16 law, to give information about relevant persons to 17
the chief executive— 18
- (a) to advise the entity whether or not a 19 particular person is a relevant person; or 20
- (b) from time to time to advise the entity about 21 the persons who are relevant persons at a 22 particular time. 23

138 Information that need not be given 24

- (1) This section applies if, under another provision of 25
this division, an entity is required to give 26 information to the chief executive and the entity 27 reasonably believes that giving the information 28 may do any of the following— 29
- (a) prejudice the investigation of a 30 contravention or possible contravention of 31
the law in a particular case; 32

[s 11]

---

- (b) enable the existence or identity of a confidential source of information, in relation to the enforcement or administration of the law, to be ascertained; 1
4
- (c) prejudice the effectiveness of a lawful method or procedure for preventing, detecting, investigating or dealing with a contravention or possible contravention of the law; 5
7
9
- (d) prejudice a matter before a court, including, for example— 10 11
  - (i) a matter or an investigation before the Mental Health Court; and 12 13
  - (ii) a prosecution; 14
- (e) prejudice a matter before the Mental Health Review Tribunal; 15 16
- (f) endanger a person’s life or physical safety; 17
- (g) adversely affect a person’s mental health. 18
- (2) Despite the other provision, the entity is not required to— 19 20
  - (a) give the information to the chief executive; or 21 22
  - (b) disclose the existence of the information to the chief executive. 23 24

Subdivision 2 Obtaining police information and related information from police commissioner 25 26
27
28

138A Provision about police commissioner’s obligation to provide information 29 30

A requirement under this subdivision for the 31

- police commissioner to give the chief executive information about a relevant person applies— 1 2
- (a) only to information in the commissioner’s possession or to which the commissioner has access; and 3 4
5
- (b) despite the Youth Justice Act 1992, part 9. 6

138B Meaning of *criminal history event 7

- (1) Any of the following events that happen in relation to a person is a criminal history event— 8 9
- (a) the person acquires a criminal history; 10
- (b) the person’s criminal history changes; 11
- (c) the police commissioner decides, under section 138I, that information about the person is investigative information; 12 13
14
- (d) the person becomes subject to— 15
- (i) offender reporting obligations; or 16
- (ii) an offender prohibition order; or 17
- (iii) an offender prohibition disqualification order; 18
19
- (e) the person is named as the respondent for an application for an offender prohibition
21
22
- (f) the person is the subject of an application for an offender prohibition disqualification order. 23
25
- (2) For subsection (1)(c), it does not matter when the conduct related to the investigative information happened or is alleged to have happened. 26

138C Chief executive's request for police information about relevant person	1 2
(1) The chief executive may ask the police commissioner for police information about a relevant person.	3 4 5
(2) The police commissioner must comply with a request under subsection (1) by—	6 7
(a) giving the chief executive the police information that exists about the relevant person; or	8 9 10
(b) telling the chief executive there is no police information about the relevant person.	11 12
(3) If there is police information about the relevant person, the chief executive may ask the police commissioner for—	13 14 15
(a) a brief description of the circumstances of a conviction, charge or investigative information mentioned in the police information; and	16 17 18 19
(b) a section 93A transcript relating to an offence mentioned in the police information; and	20 21 22
(c) the information mentioned in section 138F(1) about an offender prohibition order or offender prohibition disqualification order mentioned in the police information; and	23 24 25 26 27
(d) the information mentioned in section 138F(2) about an application for an offender prohibition order or offender prohibition disqualification order mentioned in the police information if the order is not, or was not, made.	28 29 30 31 32 33
(4) The police commissioner must comply with a request under subsection (3).	34 35

- (5) If the chief executive no longer needs the information requested— 1 2
- (a) the chief executive must tell the police commissioner the information is no longer needed; and 3
5
- (b) the police commissioner’s obligation to comply with the chief executive’s request ends. 6
8
- 138D Chief executive’s request for domestic violence information about relevant person 9 10
- (1) This section applies if the chief executive reasonably believes a domestic violence order may have been made against a relevant person. 11
13
- (2) The chief executive may ask the police commissioner for domestic violence information about the relevant person. 14
16
- (3) The police commissioner must comply with a request under subsection (2) by— 17 18
- (a) giving the chief executive the domestic violence information that exists about the relevant person; or 19 20
21
- (b) telling the chief executive there is no domestic violence information about the relevant person. 22
23
24
- (4) If there is domestic violence information about the person, the chief executive may ask the police commissioner for a brief description of the circumstances of a domestic violence order mentioned in the domestic violence information. 25
26
28
29
- (5) The police commissioner must comply with a request under subsection (4). 30 31
- (6) If the chief executive no longer needs the information requested— 32
33

---

- (a) the chief executive must tell the police commissioner the information is no longer needed; and
- (b) the police commissioner's obligation to comply with the chief executive's request ends.

138E Police commissioner must notify change in police information

- (1) This section applies if—
  - (a) the police commissioner reasonably suspects a person is a relevant person; and
  - (b) a criminal history event happens in relation to the person.
- (2) The police commissioner must give the chief executive a notice about the criminal history event.
- (3) The notice must state the following information, to the extent the information relates to the criminal history event—
  - (a) the particulars of an offence the relevant person was charged with or convicted of, including the day the person was charged or convicted;
  - (b) a brief description of information that the police commissioner has decided is investigative information about the relevant person;
  - (c) the information mentioned in section 138F(1) about an offender prohibition order or offender prohibition disqualification order to which the relevant person is, has been or becomes subject;
  - (d) the information mentioned in section 138F(2) about an application for an offender

prohibition order or offender prohibition 1 disqualification order if the order is not, or 2 was not, made. 3

138F Particular information to be given about 4 orders and applications for orders refused 5

- (1) For section 138C(3)(c) or 138E(3)(c), the 6 information about an offender prohibition 7 or offender prohibition disqualification order is— 8
- (a) details of the order, including its duration; 9
and 10
- (b) for an offender prohibition order— 11
- (i) a brief description of the conduct that 12 gave rise to the order; and 13
- (ii) whether the order is or was a temporary 14 order or final order under the Child 15 Protection (Offender Reporting and 16 Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004. 17
- (2) For section 138C(3)(d) or 138E(3)(d), the 18 information about an application for an offender 19
prohibition order or offender prohibition 20 disqualification order, if the order is not or was 21 not made, is— 22
- (a) the reasons the application was made; and 23
- (b) the reasons the order was not made; and 24
- (c) if the application was for an offender 25 prohibition order—the reasons given by the 26 magistrate or court hearing the application 27 for deciding not to make the order. 28

138G Person to be notified if investigative 29 information given 30

- (1) This section applies if the police commissioner 31 gives investigative information about a relevant 32

[s 11]

person to the chief executive under section 138C or 138E.	1 2
(2) The police commissioner must give the relevant person a notice that states—	3 4
(a) the police commissioner has decided that information about the person is investigative information; and	5 6 7
(b) the investigative information has been given to the chief executive.	8 9
138H Use of information given to police commissioner	10 11
(1) Information given to the police commissioner under this division—	12 13
(a) must not be accessed or disclosed for any purpose other than—	14 15
(i) a purpose under this part; or	16
(ii) a purpose relevant to law enforcement; and	17 18
(b) must not be used for any purpose other than for a purpose under this part.	19 20
(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to information obtained by the police commissioner before the chief executive gave the information to the police commissioner under this division.	21 22 23 24
Subdivision 3 Provisions about investigative information	25 26
138I Police commissioner may decide information is investigative information	27 28
(1) The police commissioner may decide that information related to the conduct of a person (the	29 30

- investigated person*) is investigative information 1 about the investigated person if satisfied— 2
- (a) there is or was evidence that, at the time of 3
the investigated person’s conduct, it 4 constituted a schedule 6 or 7 offence (the 5 alleged offence) committed by the 6 investigated person against another person 7
(the complainant); and 8
- (b) the matters stated in subsection (2) apply in 9 relation to the alleged offence. 10
- (2) The matters are— 11
- (a) the police investigated the alleged offence; 12
and 13
- (b) the investigated person was formally 14 notified about the investigation, including— 15
- (i) by participating, or being asked to 16 participate, in an interview about the 17 alleged offence; or 18
- (ii) by otherwise being given an 19 opportunity to answer allegations about 20
the alleged offence; and 21
- (c) there was sufficient evidence to establish 22
each element of the alleged offence; and 23
- (d) the investigated person was not charged 24 because— 25
- (i) the complainant died before the charge 26 was brought; or 27
- (ii) the complainant was unwilling to 28 proceed; or 29
- (iii) an adult, who was the complainant’s 30 parent or guardian, decided the matter 31 should not proceed in the interests of 32
the complainant. 33
- (3) Evidence of conduct includes information from a 34

[s 11]

---

third party if the complainant did not make a formal complaint at or about the time of the investigation.

- (4) Despite the Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 4.10, the police commissioner may not delegate the police commissioner's powers under subsection (1) other than to a police officer of at least the rank of superintendent.

138J Appealing investigative information decision

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) the police commissioner decides that information is investigative information about a person; and
  - (b) the investigative information is given to the chief executive under subdivision 2; and
  - (c) after the investigative information is given to the chief executive, the chief executive issues the person an exclusion, including because the chief executive cancels the person's clearance.
- (2) The person (the appellant) may appeal to a Magistrates Court about the decision (the investigative information decision) that information, given to the chief executive as investigative information about the appellant, is investigative information.
- (3) However, an appeal under subsection (2) may only be made within 28 days after the appellant is given notice that the exclusion has been issued.
- (4) The chief executive and police commissioner must be given a copy of the notice of appeal.
- (5) The tribunal does not have jurisdiction to review a decision of the police commissioner that—

- (a) information is investigative information about a person; or
  - (b) information that is investigative information about a person may be given to the chief executive.

138K Court to decide matter afresh

- (1) A Magistrates Court hearing an appeal about an investigative information decision under section 138J must decide afresh whether information given to the chief executive is investigative information about the appellant.
- (2) The appellant must not ask or call on the complainant for the investigative information to give evidence in person before the court.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent documentary evidence being tendered and received in evidence by the court.
- (4) After hearing the appeal, the court may confirm or set aside the investigative information decision.
- (5) For subsection (4), the court must consider the matters the police commissioner was required to consider under section 138I when making the investigative information decision.
- (6) The clerk of the court must give the appellant notice of the court's decision on the appeal.
- (7) The notice must state—
  - (a) that, if the chief executive's decision to issue the appellant an exclusion is a reviewable decision, the appellant may apply for a review of the decision subject to section 138ZT(2); and
  - (b) how, and the period within which, the person may apply for the review.

[s 11]

---

- (8) In this section— 1
complainant, for investigative information about 2 the appellant, means the complainant under 3 section 138I for the alleged offence under that 4 section that was committed by the appellant who 5 is the subject of the investigative information. 6

138L Consequence of decision on appeal 7

- (1) This section applies if a Magistrates Court decides 8 an appeal about an investigative information 9 decision under section 138K. 10
- (2) If the court decides to set aside the investigative 11
information decision, the appellant may apply to 12
the chief executive under section 130(1)(b) to 13 cancel the appellant’s exclusion. 14
- (3) If the court confirms the investigative information 15 decision, the appellant may apply under section 16 138ZT for an internal review of the decision to 17 issue the exclusion to the appellant, subject to 18
section 138ZT(2). 19
- (4) An application mentioned in subsection (3)— 20
- (a) must be made within 28 days after the 21 appellant receives the notice under section 22 138K(6); and 23
- (b) may be made even if the appellant applied 24 for an internal review of the decision to 25 issue the exclusion to the appellant before 26
the court decided the appeal. 27

Subdivision 4 Obtaining police 28 information from other 29
State entities 30

- 138M Obtaining information from director of public prosecutions 1 2
- (1) If the chief executive is aware a relevant person 3 has been charged with or convicted of an offence, 4
the chief executive may, by notice, ask the 5
director of public prosecutions for the following 6 information about the relevant person— 7
- (a) a written statement briefly describing the 8 circumstances of a charge or conviction for 9
the offence; 10
- (b) a copy or written summary of evidentiary 11 material about the offence; 12
- (c) if a charge for the offence was not 13 proceeded with—a written summary of the 14 reasons the charge was not proceeded with. 15
- (2) The director of public prosecutions may comply 16 with the chief executive’s request if the director 17 reasonably believes the information may help the 18 chief executive to perform the chief executive’s 19 screening functions in relation to the person. 20
- (3) However, the director of public prosecutions must 21 not give the chief executive a copy or written 22 summary of evidentiary material about the 23 offence that relates only to a person other than the 24 relevant person. 25
- Example—* 26
- a report by an expert about a person other than the 27
relevant person 28
- (4) The director of public prosecutions is authorised 29 to give information, or a document containing 30 information, under this section despite any other 31
Act or law, including a law imposing an 32 obligation to maintain confidentiality about the 33
information. 34

(6) In this section—	8
evidentiary material , about an offence, means material compiled in the course of the investigation or prosecution of the offence, including, for example, the following—	9 10 11 12
(a) a summary of the circumstances of the alleged offence prepared by a police officer;	13 14
Examples—	15
bench charge sheet, QP9	16
(b) a witness statement;	17
(c) an indictment;	18
(d) a record of an interview or a transcript of a record of an interview, including a section 93A transcript;	19 20 21
(e) a report by an expert about the person alleged to have committed the offence.	22 23
138N Obtaining information from chief executive (corrective services)	24 25
(1) The chief executive (corrective services) must give the chief executive a notice about each person who is subject to a sexual offender order.	26 27 28
(2) The notice must state—	29
(a) the person is subject to a sexual offender order; and	30 31

(b) any other information the chief executive (corrective services) reasonably believes may help the chief executive to perform the chief executive's screening functions.

(3) The chief executive (corrective services) is authorised to give information under this section despite any other Act or law, including a law imposing an obligation to maintain confidentiality about the information.

Note—

See section 227 for restrictions on disclosing or giving access to information or documents obtained under this part.

(4) In this section—

chief executive (corrective services) means the chief executive of the department in which the Corrective Services Act 2006 is administered.

Subdivision 5 Obtaining disciplinary and other information from particular entities

1380 Meaning of disciplinary information and *disciplinary action

(1) Disciplinary information about a person is information about any disciplinary action taken against the person.

(2) Disciplinary action, in relation to a person, means—

(a) for a person who holds, or has held, a foster carer certificate, kinship carer certificate or provisional certificate under the Child Protection Act 1999—the person's certificate was amended, suspended or cancelled under that Act; or

---

- (b) for a person who holds, or has held, a provider approval, service approval or supervisor certificate under the Education and Care Services Act 2013 or the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland)—the person’s approval or certificate was amended, suspended or cancelled under that Act or Law; or
- (c) the person was given a prohibition notice under—
  - (i) the Education and Care Services Act 2013; or
  - (ii) the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland); or
  - (iii) the repealed Child Care Act 2002; or
- (d) for a person who held a licence to conduct a child care service, including a provisional licence, under the repealed Child Care Act 2002—the person’s licence was amended, suspended or revoked under that Act; or
- (e) for a person who is, or has been, a registered teacher or holds, or has held, a permission to teach under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005—
  - (i) the person’s registration or permission to teach was suspended under that Act; or
  - (ii) the person’s registration was cancelled under that Act; or
  - (iii) a practice and conduct body made a decision about practice and conduct proceedings against the teacher under that Act; or

- (f) for a person who was a registered teacher under the repealed Education (Teacher Registration) Act 1988—
- (i) the person’s registration was suspended or cancelled under that Act; or
- (ii) the Board of Teacher Registration under that Act made an order about the person after inquiring into a matter concerning the person’s conduct under that Act.
- (3) In this section—
- amended, in relation to an approval, certificate or licence held by a person, means the approval, certificate or licence was amended other than—
- (a) at the person’s request; or
- (b) with the person’s agreement; or
- (c) to extend the term of the approval, certificate or licence; or
- (d) in another way that is consistent with, or not contrary to, the person’s interests.

138P Request for information about disciplinary action against relevant person

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice, ask any of the following entities (each a State entity) for disciplinary information about a relevant person—
- (a) the chief executive (child safety) in relation to disciplinary action mentioned in section 138O(2)(a);
- (b) the chief executive (education and care) in relation to disciplinary action mentioned in section 138O(2)(b), (c) or (d);

[s 11]

---

- (c) the college of teachers in relation to disciplinary action mentioned in section 138O(2)(e) or (f). 1 2
3
- (2) In this section— 4
chief executive (education and care) means— 5
- (a) the chief executive of the department in which the Education and Care Services Act 2013 is administered; or 6
8
- (b) the children’s services regulator under the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland). 9 10
11
- college of teachers* means the Queensland College of Teachers under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005. 12 13
14
- 138Q State entity must comply with request for disciplinary information 15 16
- (1) This section applies if a State entity is given a request about a relevant person under section 138P. 17
19
- (2) The State entity must give the requested disciplinary information about the relevant person to the chief executive if the State entity reasonably believes the information may help the chief executive to perform the chief executive’s screening functions. 20 21
23
24
25
- (3) Disciplinary information given under subsection (2) must include the following information— 26 27
- (a) the disciplinary action taken; 28
- (b) when the conduct that constituted a ground for the disciplinary action happened; 29 30
- (c) the nature of the conduct that constituted a ground for the disciplinary action; 31
32

- (d) other information about the disciplinary action the State entity reasonably believes may help the chief executive to perform the chief executive's screening functions. 1
4
- (4) Disciplinary information given under subsection (2) must not include information that identifies, or is likely to identify, a particular child. 5
7
- 138R Request for other information about relevant person from prescribed entities 8 9
- (1) This section applies if the chief executive reasonably believes a prescribed entity has information, other than disciplinary information, that is relevant to whether a relevant person poses a risk of harm to people with disability. 10 11
13
14
- (2) The chief executive may, by notice, ask the prescribed entity for information about the relevant person. 15
17
- (3) The prescribed entity may give the information about the relevant person to the chief executive if the entity reasonably believes the information may help the chief executive to perform the chief executive's screening functions. 18 19 20 21
22
- (4) This section applies subject to the Child Protection Act 1999, section 186. 23 24
- (5) In this section— 25
- prescribed entity means— 26
- (a) the chief executive (child safety); or 27
- (b) the chief executive of the department in which the Community Services Act 2007 is administered; or 28 29
30
- (c) another entity that— 31
- (i) is prescribed by regulation for this section; and 32 33

---

- (ii) has entered into an arrangement with the chief executive to give the chief executive information under this section. 1
4

138S State entity must update disciplinary information 5 6

- (1) This section applies if a State entity gives disciplinary information about a relevant person to the chief executive under this subdivision and the information changes. 7
10
- (2) The State entity must give the chief executive a notice about the change in the information. 11 12

Subdivision 6 Obtaining information about person's mental health 13 14

138T Application of subdivision 16

- (1) This subdivision applies if— 17
  - (a) the chief executive is deciding whether a relevant person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability; and 18
20
  - (b) the relevant person was— 21
    - (i) charged with a disqualifying offence alleged to have been committed when the person was an adult; or 22
24
    - (ii) charged with or convicted of a serious offence committed, or alleged to have been committed, when the person was an adult; or 25 26
28

- (iii) charged with or convicted of an offence that relates to or involves a person with disability; and
- (c) the chief executive reasonably believes it is necessary to consider the relevant person's mental health to make the decision mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (2) The chief executive may form the reasonable belief mentioned in subsection (1)(c) only if—
- (a) for a charge or conviction mentioned in subsection (1)(b)—
- (i) the matter of the relevant person's mental state relating to the offence has been referred to the Mental Health Court or an entity of another State with similar functions to that court; or
- (ii) a court has ordered the relevant person to undertake psychiatric treatment; or
- (iii) a court has been given a report about the relevant person's mental health prepared by a registered health practitioner; or
- (b) the chief executive has, under this part, been given a report about the relevant person's mental health prepared by a registered health practitioner.
- 138U Request to relevant person for consent to preparation of report about person's mental health
- (1) The chief executive may, by notice, ask the relevant person—
- (a) to consent to a registered health practitioner nominated by the chief executive preparing withdraw the application under section 79; or	1 2

(ii) decide whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability without a report about the person's mental health.	3 4 5 6
(3) The chief executive must be satisfied the registered health practitioner nominated is appropriately qualified to conduct the examination.	7 8 9 10
138V Obtaining report about person's mental health from registered health practitioner	11 12
(1) This section applies if the relevant person gives the consent mentioned in section 138U(1)(c) to the registered health practitioner giving the report about the person's mental health to the chief executive.	13 14 15 16 17
(2) The chief executive must give a copy of the relevant person's consent to the registered health practitioner.	18 19 20
(3) The registered health practitioner may give the report to the chief executive.	21 22
(4) The registered health practitioner is authorised to give the report under this section despite any other Act or law, including a law imposing an obligation to maintain confidentiality about the examination.	23 24 25 26 27
Notes—	28
1 See section 138ZA in relation to the registered health practitioner being given information about the relevant person obtained by the chief executive from the Mental Health Court or Mental Health Review Tribunal, and restrictions on the use of the information.	29 30 31 32 33 34

- 2 See section 227 for restrictions on disclosing or 1 giving access to information or documents obtained 2
under this part. 3

138W Chief executive to bear medical costs 4

The chief executive must bear the costs for the 5 following amounts charged by the registered 6 health practitioner for preparing a report about the 7 relevant person's mental health under this 8 subdivision— 9

- (a) the amount charged for examining the 10 person to enable the health practitioner to 11 prepare the report; 12
- (b) the amount charged for preparing the report. 13

138X Request for consent to obtain information 14 from Mental Health Court or Mental Health 15 Review Tribunal 16

- (1) This section applies if— 17
- (a) the relevant person has been charged with, 18
but not convicted of— 19
- (i) a disqualifying offence or serious 20 offence alleged to have been 21 committed when the person was an 22 adult; or 23
- (ii) an offence that relates to or involves a 24 person with disability; and 25
- (b) either— 26
- (i) the matter of the person's mental state 27 relating to the offence was referred to 28
the Mental Health Court; or 29
- (ii) the Mental Health Review Tribunal 30 reviewed a forensic order to which the 31 person is subject, or the person's fitness 32

- for trial, under the Mental Health Act 1
2016, chapter 12, part 3, 4 or 6. 2
- (2) The chief executive may, by notice, ask the 3 relevant person to consent to the chief executive 4 obtaining information about the person from the 5
Mental Health Court or Mental Health Review 6 Tribunal— 7
- (a) for the chief executive to use when deciding 8
whether the person poses an unacceptable 9 risk of harm to people with disability; or 10
- (b) if the chief executive asked the person, 11
under section 138U, to consent to a 12 registered health practitioner preparing a 13 report about the person’s mental health—to 14 be given to the health practitioner to use 15 when preparing the report. 16
- (3) The notice must state the following— 17
- (a) the reasons for the chief executive’s request; 18
- (b) the information that the Mental Health 19
Court or Mental Health Review Tribunal 20 may give the chief executive under section 21 138Y or 138Z; 22
- (c) that the chief executive may consider the 23 report about the relevant person’s mental 24 health when deciding whether the person 25 poses an unacceptable risk of harm to 26
people with disability; 27
- (d) that, if the relevant person has made a 28 disability worker screening application, the 29 person may ask the chief executive to 30 withdraw the application under section 75; 31
- (e) that, if the relevant person does not give the 32 consent, the chief executive may— 33

[s 11]

---

- (i) if the person made a disability worker screening application—withdraw the application under section 79; or
- (ii) decide whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability without obtaining the information.

138Y Obtaining information from Mental Health Court

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice, ask the Mental Health Court (the court) for information about the relevant person if—
  - (a) the matter of the person’s mental state relating to an offence mentioned in section 138X(1)(a) was referred to the court (the referred matter); and
  - (b) the person gives the consent mentioned in section 138X(2) for the chief executive to obtain information about the person from the court.
- (2) The chief executive must give a copy of the relevant person’s consent to the court.
- (3) If the relevant person’s consent is for the chief executive to use the information when deciding whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability, the court may comply with the request if the court considers the information may help the chief executive make the decision.
- (4) If the relevant person’s consent is for the information to be given to the registered health practitioner preparing a report about the person’s mental health, the court must comply with the chief executive’s request.

- (5) The court complies with the chief executive's request by giving the chief executive the following information—
- (a) the court's decision about the referred matter and reasons for the decision;
  - (b) a copy or written summary of any expert's report about the relevant person received in evidence by the court, including, for example, a medical report, psychiatrist's report or expert report that accompanied the reference of the matter to the court;
  - (c) transcripts of a hearing conducted for the referred matter if the court directed the transcript may be given to a party to the hearing or another person.
- (6) A decision of the court not to give an expert report about the relevant person under this section does not prevent the chief executive applying for leave of the court under the Mental Health Act 2016, section 160(2) in relation to the report.

138Z Obtaining information from Mental Health Review Tribunal

- (1) The chief executive may, by notice, ask the Mental Health Review Tribunal (the tribunal) for information about the relevant person if—
- (a) the tribunal reviewed a forensic order to which the person is subject, or the person's fitness for trial, under the Mental Health Act 2016, chapter 12, part 3, 4 or 6; and
  - (b) the person gives the consent mentioned in section 138X(2) for the chief executive to obtain information about the person from the tribunal.
- (2) The chief executive must give a copy of the

[s 11]

---

relevant person's consent to the tribunal. 1

(3) If the relevant person's consent is for the chief 2 executive to use the information when deciding 3 whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of 4 harm to people with disability, the tribunal may 5 comply with the request if the tribunal considers 6 the information may help the chief executive 7 make the decision. 8

(4) If the relevant person's consent is for the 9 information to be given to the registered health 10 practitioner preparing a report about the person's 11 mental health, the tribunal must comply with the 12 chief executive's request. 13

(5) The tribunal complies with the request by giving 14
the chief executive the following information— 15

(a) the tribunal's decision on the review and 16 reasons for the decision; 17

(b) a copy or written summary of an expert's 18 report about the relevant person received by 19
the tribunal in the proceeding for the review, 20 including, for example, a report about an 21 examination of the person under the Mental 22
Health Act 2016, section 454; 23

(c) transcripts of any hearing conducted for the 24 review that the tribunal has directed may be 25 given to a party to the hearing or another 26
person. 27

138ZA Chief executive must give information to 28 registered health practitioner 29

(1) This section applies if— 30

(a) the chief executive is given information 31 about the relevant person under section 32
138Y or 138Z; and 33

- (b) the person consented to the information being given to the registered health practitioner preparing a report about the person's mental health. 1
4
- (2) The chief executive must give the information to the registered health practitioner as soon as practicable after receiving the information. 5
7
- (3) The registered health practitioner must not— 8
- (a) make a record of the information; or 9
- (b) disclose the information to anyone; or 10
- (c) give anyone access to the information; or 11
- (d) include any details of the information in a report about the relevant person's mental health prepared under this subdivision. 12
14
- Maximum penalty for subsection (3)—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment. 15 16
- 138ZB Information that cannot be disclosed to relevant person under confidentiality order 17 18
- (1) This section applies if information given to the chief executive under section 138Y or 138Z includes information (restricted information) that cannot be disclosed to the relevant person under a confidentiality order under the Mental Health Act 2016, section 696 or 722. 19 20
22
23
24
- (2) If section 138ZA applies to the restricted information, the chief executive— 25 26
- (a) must give the information to the registered health practitioner under that section; and 27 28
- (b) must not keep the information, or a record or copy of the information, after giving the information to the health practitioner. 29 30
31
- (3) Otherwise, the chief executive must not use the restricted information for any purpose. 32 33

138ZC Further restrictions on chief executive's use of information	1 2
(1) This section applies if the chief executive—	3
(a) is given information, other than restricted information under section 138ZB(1), about the relevant person under section 138Y or 138Z; and	4 5 6 7
(b) is deciding whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability.	8 9 10
(2) The chief executive may use the information to make the decision only if the relevant person consented to the chief executive using the information to make the decision.	11 12 13 14
138ZD Giving information authorised despite other laws	15 16
(1) The Mental Health Court and Mental Health Review Tribunal are authorised to give information to the chief executive under section 138Y or 138Z despite any other Act or law, including a law imposing an obligation to maintain confidentiality about the information.	17 18 19 20 21 22
Note—	23
See section 227 for restrictions on disclosing or giving access to information or documents obtained under this part.	24 25 26
(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the information may be given—	27 28
(a) even if it cannot be disclosed to the relevant person under a confidentiality order under the Mental Health Act 2016 , section 696 or 722; and	29 30 31 32

- (b) if the information is an expert’s report— 1
despite the Mental Health Act 2016, section 2
160. 3

138ZE Information that must not be given 4

Information or documents given by the Mental 5
Health Court under section 138Y or the Mental 6 Health Review Tribunal under section 138Z must 7 not include— 8

- (a) any material (or any record or copy of the 9 material) given to the court or tribunal under 10
the Mental Health Act 2016, section 155, 11 163 or 742, or how the material was taken 12
into account; or 13
- (b) the reasons of the court or tribunal for taking 14 material mentioned in paragraph (a) into 15 account or not taking the material into 16 account; or 17
- (c) the content of an expert report about a 18 person other than the relevant person; or 19
- (d) information about a person, other than the 20 relevant person, that the court or tribunal 21 considers is not relevant to the chief 22 executive deciding whether the relevant 23 person poses a risk of harm to people with 24
disability. 25

Subdivision 7 Giving information to other 26 worker screening units 27 and NDIS commission 28

138ZF Application of subdivision 29

This subdivision applies to information about a 30
person— 31

---

- (a) the chief executive was given, or given access to, under this part; or 1 2
- (b) in the chief executive's possession in relation to the performance of the chief executive's screening functions. 3
5

138ZG Giving information to chief executive (working with children) 6
7

- (1) The chief executive may give information about a person to the chief executive (working with children) if the chief executive reasonably believes the information is relevant to the functions of the chief executive (working with children) under the Working with Children Act. 8
11
12
13
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the information that may be given includes— 14 15
  - (a) information about a disability worker screening application made by a person; and 16 17
  - (b) information about a clearance, interstate NDIS clearance, exclusion or interstate NDIS exclusion held by a person; and 18 19 20
  - (c) police information about a person, including investigative information; and 21 22
  - (d) disciplinary information or NDIS disciplinary or misconduct information about a person; and 23 24
  - (e) information about a person's mental health. 26

138ZH Giving information to NDIS worker screening unit or working with children screening unit 27 28
29

- (1) This section applies if— 30
  - (a) the chief executive is aware a person holds— 31 32

- (i) an interstate NDIS clearance issued by an NDIS worker screening unit under a corresponding law; or
- (ii) an interstate working with children authority issued by a working with children screening unit under a corresponding WWC law; or
- (b) an NDIS worker screening unit or working with children screening unit has asked the chief executive for information about a person in relation to deciding an application made by the person under a corresponding law or corresponding WWC law.
- (2) If the police commissioner gives the chief executive information about the person under subdivision 2, the chief executive may give the information to the NDIS worker screening unit or working with children screening unit.
- (3) The chief executive may also give the NDIS worker screening unit or working with children screening unit other information about the person if the chief executive reasonably believes the information is relevant to the functions of the screening unit under the corresponding law or corresponding WWC law.
- (4) However, the chief executive must not give the NDIS worker screening unit or working with children screening unit a section 93A transcript, or information contained in a section 93A transcript.
- (5) In this section—
- corresponding WWC law means a law of another State that substantially corresponds to the Working with Children Act.
- interstate working with children authority means an authority, however called, issued under a corresponding WWC law that corresponds to a 1 working with children authority under the 2

[s 11]

Working with Children Act. 3 working with children screening unit means the 4 entity responsible, under a corresponding WWC 5 law, for issuing interstate working with children 6 authorities. 7

138ZI Giving information to NDIS commission 8

- (1) The chief executive may give information about a 9 person to the NDIS commission— 10
- (a) under an arrangement between the chief 11 executive and the NDIS commission, for the 12 purpose of the information— 13
- (i) being included in the NDIS worker 14 screening database; or 15
- (ii) being communicated to the person, or a 16
notifiable person for the person, by the 17
NDIS commission, including, for 18 example, electronically through the 19
NDIS worker screening database; or 20
- (b) if the chief executive reasonably believes the 21 information is otherwise relevant to the 22 functions of the NDIS commission. 23
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the information 24 may include— 25
- (a) information about an NDIS worker 26 screening application made by a person; and 27
- (b) information about an NDIS clearance issued 28 to a person, including the suspension or 29 cancellation of the clearance; and 30
- (c) information about an NDIS exclusion issued 31 to a person, including the cancellation of the 32 exclusion; and 33

---

(d) information about a notice given to a person that relates to an NDIS worker screening application made by the person or an NDIS clearance or NDIS exclusion issued to the person.	1 2 3 4 5
(3) For subsection (1)(a), information is given to the NDIS commission if the information is entered into, or uploaded to, the NDIS worker screening database.	6 7 8 9
Subdivision 8 Giving information about person engaged in State disability work to particular entities	10 11 12 13
138ZJ Authorised entities for person	14
Each of the following is an authorised entity for a person—	15 16
(a) a funded service provider (the person’s engaging provider ) if—	17 18
(i) the service provider has notified the chief executive under this Act that the service provider engages, or proposes to engage, the person to carry out State disability work; and	19 20 21 22 23
(ii) neither the service provider nor the person has notified the chief executive otherwise;	24 25 26
(b) another person the chief executive accepts is an authorised representative of the person’s engaging provider;	27 28 29
(c) another person who is a notifiable person for the person;	30 31

[s 11]

---

- (d) an entity to whom the chief executive is required to, or may, give a notice about the person under this Act that relates to—
  - (i) a State disability worker screening application made by the person; or
  - (ii) a State clearance or State exclusion issued to the person.

138ZK Chief executive may give authorised entities particular information

- (1) The chief executive may give an authorised entity for a person information about—
  - (a) a State disability worker screening application made by the person; or
  - (b) a State clearance or State exclusion issued to the person; or
  - (c) a notice about the person given, or required to be given, to the authorised entity under this Act that relates to—
    - (i) a State worker screening check application made by the person; or
    - (ii) a State clearance or State exclusion held by the person.
- (2) The chief executive may give the information under subsection (1) by allowing the authorised entity to access the information electronically.

138ZL Use of information obtained under section 138ZK about person

- (1) This section applies to a person who is given, or accesses, information about a person under section 138ZK.
- (2) The person must not use the information, or

- disclose or give access to the information to anyone else, unless the use, disclosure or giving of access is allowed under subsection (3).
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.
- (3) The person may use the information, or disclose or give access to the information to another person, if the use, disclosure or giving of access—
- (a) is to identify, assess or monitor a risk, or potential risk, of harm to a person or people with disability in relation to the person to whom the information relates carrying out disability work; or
  - (b) is to establish whether or not the person to whom the information relates—
    - (i) has made a State disability worker screening application; or
    - (ii) has been issued a State clearance or State exclusion; or
  - (c) is to comply with an obligation under this Act; or
  - (d) happens with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
  - (e) is required to lessen or prevent a serious threat to the life, health, safety or welfare of an individual, or the health, safety or welfare of the public; or
  - (f) is required by a law enforcement agency to prevent, detect, investigate, prosecute or punish an offence; or
  - (g) is required for a proceeding in a court or a tribunal; or
  - (h) is authorised under a regulation or another law.
- (4) In this section—

[s 11]

---

- law enforcement agency* means— 1
- (a) an entity mentioned in the Information Privacy Act 2009, schedule 5, definition law enforcement agency, paragraph (b); or 2 3
  - (b) an enforcement body within the meaning of 5
the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth). 6

Subdivision 9 Other provisions 7

138ZM Chief executive may advise whether clearance or interstate NDIS clearance is in force 8 9 10

- (1) This section applies if a person (the requester)— 11
  - (a) asks the chief executive whether, when the 12 request is made, a clearance or interstate 13 NDIS clearance held by another person is in 14 force; and 15
  - (b) in making the request, gives the chief 16
executive— 17
    - (i) the other person's name in which the 18 person's clearance is issued; and 19
    - (ii) the number of the other person's 20 clearance; and 21
  - (c) makes the request in the approved form and 22
in an approved way. 23
- (2) The chief executive may tell the requester 24 whether or not the other person's clearance or 25 interstate NDIS clearance is in force at the time. 26

138ZN Arrangements with chief executive (working with children) about asking for and giving information 27 28 29

- (1) The chief executive must enter into a written 30

- arrangement with the chief executive (working with children) about— 1 2
- (a) asking the chief executive (working with children) for information, or giving the chief executive (working with children) information, under this part or the Working with Children Act; and 3 4
5
7
- (b) the chief executive (working with children) asking the chief executive, or giving the chief executive information, under this part or the Working with Children Act. 8
11
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the arrangement may provide— 12
13
- (a) for information to be asked for and given electronically, including on a daily basis; or 14 15
- (b) for information to be given by way of providing electronic access to the information. 16
18
- (3) If the arrangement provides for information to be given or accessed electronically and, under this Act or another law, there is a limitation on who may be given the information or access to the information or the purposes for which the information may be used, the arrangement must provide for the limitation. 19 20
22
23
24
25
- 138ZO Arrangements with police commissioner or other entity about asking for and giving information 26 27
28
- (1) The chief executive may enter into a written arrangement with the police commissioner or another entity about asking for, or giving, information under this part. 29 30
32
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the arrangement may provide— 33
34

---

- (a) for information to be asked for and given electronically, including on a daily basis; or
- (b) for information to be given by way of providing electronic access to the information.
- (3) If the arrangement provides for information to be given or accessed electronically and, under this Act or another law, there is a limitation on who may be given the information or access to the information or the purposes for which the information may be used, the arrangement must provide for the limitation.
- 138ZP Guidelines for dealing with information
- (1) The chief executive must make guidelines, consistent with this Act, for dealing with information the chief executive obtains under this part.
- (2) The purpose of the guidelines is to ensure that, in the performance of the chief executive's screening functions—
- (a) natural justice is afforded to persons about whom information is obtained; and
- (b) only relevant information is used to make decisions under this part; and
- (c) decisions under this part, based on the information, are made consistently.
- (3) The chief executive must give a copy of the guidelines to a person, free of charge, on request.
- 138ZQ Chief executive must give person's current address to police commissioner
- (1) If the police commissioner is required to give a notice to a person under this part, the police

- commissioner may, by notice— 1
- (a) state the person’s address or addresses 2 known to the police commissioner; and 3
- (b) ask whether the chief executive knows other 4 information about the person’s address. 5
- (2) The chief executive must give the police 6 commissioner other information about the 7 person’s address known to the chief executive. 8
- (3) The information must not be used, disclosed or 9 accessed for a purpose other than to give a notice 10 to the person under this part. 11

Division 9            Review and appeal 12

138ZR Reviewable decisions and affected persons 13

- (1) Each of the following decisions of the chief 14 executive is a reviewable decision— 15
- (a) a decision to issue an exclusion to a person; 16
- (b) a decision, on the application of a person 17 under section 85(3), not to end the interim 18 bar imposed on the person; 19
- (c) a decision under section 116(4)(b) not to 20 end the suspension of the person’s 21
clearance; 22
- (d) a decision, on the application of a person 23
under section 130 to cancel the person’s 24 exclusion, to refuse the application. 25
- (2) A person mentioned in subsection (1) in relation 26 to a reviewable decision is the affected person for 27
the decision. 28

[s 11]

---

138ZS Review process must start with internal review	1 2
An affected person for a reviewable decision may apply to the tribunal for a review of the decision only if—	3 4 5
(a) the affected person has applied for an internal review of the decision; and	6 7
(b) the internal review application has been decided, or is taken to have been decided, under this division.	8 9 10
138ZT Who may apply for internal review	11
(1) An affected person for a reviewable decision may apply to the chief executive for a review of the decision under this division (an internal review ).	12 13 14
(2) However, if the chief executive made the reviewable decision because the affected person is a disqualified person, the affected person may apply for an internal review of the decision only on the ground that the chief executive mistakenly identified the person as a disqualified person.	15 16 17 18 19 20
(3) If an affected person for a reviewable decision has not been given a notice about the decision and the reasons for the decision (an information notice ), the affected person may ask the chief executive for a notice about the decision and reasons.	21 22 23 24 25
(4) A failure by the chief executive to give the affected person an information notice about the reviewable decision does not limit or otherwise affect the person’s right to apply for an internal review of the decision.	26 27 28 29 30
138ZU Requirements for application	31
(1) An application for internal review of a reviewable decision must—	32 33

- (a) be made in the approved form and in an approved way; and 1 2
- (b) be made to the chief executive within— 3
- (i) for a person who has been given an information notice for the decision— 4 28 days after the day the person is 5 given the notice; or 6 7
- (ii) for a person who has not been given an information notice for the decision— 8 28 days after the day the person 9 becomes aware of the decision. 10 11
- Note—* 12
- See also section 138L for the circumstances in 13 which a person may apply for internal review of a 14 reviewable decision after the day mentioned in 15
this section. 16
- (2) The chief executive may, at any time, extend the 17 period within which the application may be made. 18
- (3) The application does not affect the operation of 19
the reviewable decision or prevent the decision 20 being implemented. 21
- (4) In this section— 22
- information notice*, for a reviewable decision, see 23
section 138ZT(3). 24

138ZV Internal review 25

- (1) The chief executive must, within 28 days after 26 receiving an application for internal review of a 27
reviewable decision— 28
- (a) review the reviewable decision; and 29
- (b) decide to— 30
- (i) confirm the reviewable decision; or 31
- (ii) substitute another decision for the 32
reviewable decision; and 33

[s 11]

---

- (c) give the affected person for the reviewable decision a QCAT information notice for the chief executive's decision. 1
3
- (2) The chief executive may give the affected person notice extending, for a further 28 days, the period for the chief executive to comply with subsection (1). 4 5
7
- (3) The application may be dealt with only by a person who— 8 9
- (a) did not make the reviewable decision; and 10
- (b) holds a more senior office than the person who made the reviewable decision. 11 12
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply to a reviewable decision made by the chief executive personally. 13 14
- (5) If the chief executive does not give the affected person a QCAT information notice within the period required under subsection (1) or a longer period notified under subsection (2), the chief executive is taken to confirm the reviewable decision. 15 16
18
19 20
- 138ZW Applying for external review 21
- (1) This section applies to a person who must be given a QCAT information notice for an internal review decision. 22
24
- (2) The person may apply to the tribunal, as provided under the QCAT Act, for a review of the internal review decision. 25 26
27
- 138ZX Stay of operation of particular tribunal decisions 28 29
- (1) This section applies if, on an application for a review of an internal review decision under section 138ZW, the tribunal sets aside the internal 30 31
32

- review decision and decides to— 1
- (a) issue a clearance to a person; or 2
  - (b) end an interim bar imposed on a person; or 3
  - (c) end the suspension of a person’s clearance. 4
- (2) The tribunal’s decision does not take effect 5 until— 6
- (a) the end of the period within which an appeal 7 against the tribunal’s decision may be 8 started; or 9
  - (b) if an appeal against the tribunal’s decision is 10 started—the appeal is decided or withdrawn. 11
- (3) This section applies despite the QCAT Act, 12 sections 145 and 152. 13
- 138ZY Effect of applicant for review becoming 14
disqualified person 15
- (1) This section applies if— 16
    - (a) an affected person for a reviewable decision 17 applies— 18
      - (i) to the chief executive for an internal 19 review of the decision; or 20
      - (ii) to the tribunal for a review of an 21 internal review decision; and 22
    - (b) after making the application, the affected 23 person becomes a disqualified person. 24
  - (2) The application and any proceeding that relates to 25
the application must be dismissed. 26
  - (3) Subsection (2) applies to a proceeding before the 27 tribunal, even if dismissal would be contrary to a 28 direction of the Court of Appeal. 29
  - (4) Any appeal from a decision of the tribunal that 30 relates to the application must also be dismissed. 31

Division 10	Miscellaneous provisions	1
138ZZ False or misleading information		2
A person must not, for this part, give information,		3
or a document containing information, that the		4 person knows is false or misleading in a material		5 particular to—		6
(a) the chief executive; or		7
(b) an NDIS service provider or funded service		8
provider that engages, or is proposing to		9
engage, the person.		10
Maximum penalty—100 penalty units or 2 years		11
imprisonment.		12
138ZZA Chief executive may arrange for use of	information system	13
		14
(1) The chief executive may approve a system (an		15
information system ) for—		16
(a) generating, sending, receiving, storing or		17
otherwise processing electronic		18
communications between the chief		19
executive and another person under this		20
part; or		21
(b) generating a decision of the chief executive		22
under this part, other than a decision—		23
(i) that requires the chief executive to		24
conduct a risk assessment of a person		25
before making the decision; or		26
(ii) prescribed by regulation as a decision		27
that may not be generated by the		28
information system.		29
(2) The chief executive must take all reasonable steps		30
to ensure that a decision generated by the		31

information system is correct. 1

(3) A decision generated by the information system is 2 taken to be a decision made by the chief executive 3
under this part. 4

(4) The chief executive may make a decision in 5 substitution for a decision the chief executive is 6 taken to have made under subsection (3) if the 7 chief executive is satisfied that the decision 8 generated by the information system is incorrect. 9

138ZZB Notice given to notifiable person by NDIS 10 commission 11

(1) This section applies if— 12

(a) another provision of this part requires the 13 chief executive to give a notice about a 14 person to a notifiable person for the person; 15
and 16

(b) the person— 17

(i) is the applicant for an NDIS worker 18 screening application; or 19

(ii) holds an NDIS clearance, NDIS 20 exclusion, interstate NDIS clearance or 21 interstate NDIS exclusion. 22

(2) Despite the other provision, the chief executive is 23 not required to give the notice to the notifiable 24 person if the chief executive, under an 25 arrangement mentioned in section 138ZI(1)(a)— 26

(a) has given the NDIS commission the 27 information about the person that is 28 required, under the provision, to be included 29
in the notice; and 30

(b) is satisfied the information has been, or will 31 be, communicated to the notifiable person 32
by the NDIS commission, including, for 33

368 Particular terms having meaning given under unamended Act	1 2
(1) In this division, a term defined under the unamended Act but not under the amended Act has the meaning it had under the unamended Act.	3 4 5
(2) In this section— unamended Act means this Act as in force from time to time before the commencement.	6 7 8
Subdivision 2 Existing prescribed notices, exemption notices, prescribed notice applications and exemption notice applications	9 10 11 12 13 14
369 Existing positive notice and positive notice card	15 16
(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a person holds a current positive notice or current positive exemption notice.	17 18 19
(2) The positive notice or positive exemption notice is taken to be a clearance (a transitioned clearance ), that is both an NDIS clearance and a State clearance, issued to the person under new part 5, division 4.	20 21 22 23 24
(3) However, for the purposes of a corresponding law, the positive notice or positive exemption notice is taken to be a State clearance issued to the person under new part 5, division 4.	25 26 27 28
(4) The term of the transitioned clearance ends, unless it is cancelled earlier—	29 30

---

- (a) if the person holds a positive notice—when the positive notice would have ended under the unamended Act; or 1
3
  - (b) if the person holds a positive exemption notice because, on the commencement, the person also holds a working with children authority—on the day the term of the person’s working with children authority is due to end under the Working with Children Act, regardless of whether the authority is cancelled earlier under that Act. 4
7
8
9
10
11
  - (5) A positive notice card for the person’s positive notice, or an exemption card for the person’s positive exemption notice, is taken to be a clearance card issued to the person under new section 98 for the person’s clearance under subsection (2). 12
13
15
16
17
  - (6) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (2) applies even if the person is a disqualified person on the commencement. 18
19 20
- Note—* 21
- See, however, new section 119 which requires the chief executive to cancel a person’s clearance if the person becomes a disqualified person. 22
23
24

370 Existing suspension of positive notice or positive exemption notice 25
26

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement— 27 28
  - (a) former section 74 applied to a person and a prescribed event under that section had not happened for the person; or 29 30
31
  - (b) a current positive notice held by a person was suspended under former section 86; or 32
33

- (c) a current positive exemption notice held by a person was suspended under former section 88. 1
3
- (2) The person's transitioned clearance is taken to have been suspended under new section 111. 4 5
- (3) The chief executive must give the person, and each notifiable person for the person, a notice that states— 6
8
- (a) the person's transitioned clearance is taken to have been suspended under new section 111; and 9 10
11
- (b) how long the suspension will continue; and 12
- (c) the effect of the suspension. 13
- (4) An application under former section 87 or 89 to cancel the person's suspended positive notice or positive exemption notice that, immediately before the commencement, had not been decided or withdrawn is taken to be an application under new section 116 to end the suspension under subsection (2). 14 15
17
18
19 20
- (5) The suspension and application may be dealt with under the amended Act. 21 22
- (6) However, the person may not apply under new section 116 to end the suspension under subsection (2) until 6 months after the commencement. 23 24
26
- 371 Existing current negative notice or current negative exemption notice 27 28
- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a person holds a current negative notice or current negative exemption notice. 29 30
31
- (2) The negative notice or negative exemption notice is taken to be an exclusion (a transitioned exclusion), that is both an NDIS exclusion and a 32 33

[s 24]

---

State exclusion, issued to the person under new 1 part 5, division 4. 2

(3) However, for the purposes of a corresponding 3 law, the negative notice or negative exemption 4 notice is taken to be a State exclusion issued to the 5 person under new part 5, division 4. 6

(4) New section 130(1)(a) applies in relation to the 7 transitioned exclusion as if the reference in new 8 section 130(1)(a) to 5 years after the exclusion 9 was issued were a reference to 5 years after the 10 negative notice or negative exemption notice was 11 issued to the person. 12

372 Existing prescribed notice application or 13 exemption notice application 14

(1) This section applies if— 15
(a) immediately before the commencement, a 16 prescribed notice application or exemption 17 notice application about a person had been 18 made but not decided, withdrawn or taken to 19 be withdrawn; or 20

(b) an exemption notice application about a 21 person given, under an arrangement 22 between the chief executive and the chief 23 executive (working with children), to the 24 chief executive (working with children) 25 before the commencement is given to the 26 chief executive after the commencement. 27

(2) If the person is a person who may make an 28
application under new section 65, the application 29 is taken to be an NDIS worker screening 30 application (a transitioned application) made by 31
the person. 32

(3) If the person is a person who may make an 33
application under new section 66, the application 34 is taken to be a State disability worker screening 35

application (also a transitioned application ) made by the person.	1 2
(4) If neither subsection (2) nor (3) applies to the application—	3 4
(a) the application lapses on the commencement; and	5 6
(b) the chief executive must give the person who made the application and the person about whom the application was made a notice that states the application has lapsed.	7 8 9 10
(5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsections (2) and (3) apply even if the person is a disqualified person on the commencement.	11 12 13
373 Existing consent to screening by person engaged by department	14 15
(1) This section applies if—	16
(a) before the commencement, a person gave the chief executive consent under former section 50 to undertake screening of the person under former part 5; and	17 18 19 20
(b) immediately before the commencement—	21
(i) the person's consent had not been withdrawn; and	22 23
(ii) the chief executive had not made a decision about issuing the person a prescribed notice or exemption notice.	24 25 26
(2) The person's consent is taken to be a State disability worker screening application (also a transitioned application ) made by the person.	27 28 29

[s 24]

374 Dealing with and deciding transitioned applications	1 2
(1) The amended Act applies for dealing with and deciding a transitioned application.	3 4
(2) The chief executive must give a notice that states the transitioned application is being dealt with and decided as an application made under the amended Act by the transitioned applicant for the application to—	5 6 7 8 9
(a) the transitioned applicant; and	10
(b) if the transitioned applicant is not the person who made the application—the person who made the application.	11 12 13
Note—	14
See new section 69 in relation to the chief executive asking for further information relating to the transitioned application.	15 16 17
(3) The notice must be given to the transitioned applicant and person mentioned in subsection (2)(b) within 1 month after—	18 19 20
(a) for a transitioned application mentioned in section 372(1)(b)—the chief executive (working with children) gives the transitioned application to the chief executive; or	21 22 23 24 25
(b) otherwise—the commencement.	26
375 Application of new pt 5 to transitioned applicants	27 28
(1) This section applies to a person if, on the commencement, the person—	29 30
(a) is the transitioned applicant for a transitioned application; and	31 32
(b) is engaged to carry out disability work by an NDIS service provider, funded service	33 34

- provider or the department, other than as a volunteer; and
- (c) does not hold a transitioned exclusion.
- (2) This section also applies to a person if, on the commencement, the person—
- (a) is the transitioned applicant for a transitioned application; and
- (b) is carrying out disability work as either—
- (i) an NDIS sole trader or State sole trader; or
- (ii) a volunteer engaged by an NDIS service provider, funded service provider or the department to carry out disability work; and
- (c) holds a transitioned clearance or a working with children authority.
- (3) Despite new part 5 and until a relevant event happens for the person—
- (a) the person may continue to carry out, or be engaged to carry out, the disability work;
and
- (b) new sections 53, 54, 59 and 61 do not apply in relation to the person carrying out the disability work.
- (4) Each of the following is a relevant event for the
person—
- (a) the person's transitioned application is decided or withdrawn;
- (b) for a person who holds a transitioned clearance—the clearance is suspended or cancelled;
- (c) an interim bar is imposed on the person.

Subdivision 3 Application of new part 5 1
for particular persons 2

376 Working with children authority holders 3

- (1) This section applies to a person if, on the 4
commencement, the person— 5
- (a) holds a working with children authority; and 6
  - (b) does not hold a transitioned clearance or a 7
transitioned exclusion. 8
- (2) This section also applies to a person if— 9
- (a) the person is issued a working with children 10 authority after the commencement in 11 relation to a working with children check 12 application made by the person before the 13
commencement; and 14
  - (b) when the working with children authority is 15 issued to the person, the person does not 16 hold a clearance or exclusion, including a 17 transitioned clearance or transitioned 18
exclusion. 19
- (3) However, this section does not apply to a person 20
who is a transitioned applicant for a transitioned 21
application on the commencement. 22
- (4) Until a relevant event happens for the person— 23
- (a) the person may carry out, or be engaged to 24
carry out, disability work; and 25
  - (b) a registered NDIS provider or funded 26 service provider may engage the person to 27
carry out disability work; and 28
  - (c) new sections 53, 54, 59 and 61 do not apply 29 in relation to the person carrying out 30
disability work. 31
- (5) Subsection (4) applies only to the extent the 32

---

disability work includes the delivery of disability 1 services or NDIS supports or services to a child or 2 children with disability. 3

- (6) Each of the following is a relevant event for the 4
person— 5
- (a) the person’s working with children authority 6
expires under the Working with Children 7 Act and, at the time of the expiry, the person 8 has not made a disability worker screening 9
application; 10
  - (b) the person’s working with children authority 11 is suspended or cancelled under the 12
Working with Children Act; 13
  - (c) a negative notice is issued to the person 14
under the Working with Children Act; 15
  - (d) the person makes a disability worker 16 screening application and the application is 17 decided or withdrawn or an interim bar is 18 imposed on the person. 19

377 Registered health practitioners 20

- (1) This section applies to a person if, on the 21
commencement, the person— 22
- (a) is a registered health practitioner; and 23
  - (b) does not hold a transitioned clearance or a 24
transitioned exclusion. 25
- (2) However, this section does not apply to a person 26
who is a transitioned applicant for a transitioned 27
application on the commencement. 28
- (3) Until a relevant event happens for the person— 29
- (a) the person may carry out, or be engaged to 30
carry out, disability work; and 31

[s 24]

---

- (b) a registered NDIS provider or funded service provider may engage the person to carry out disability work; and 1
3
- (c) new sections 53, 54, 59 and 61 do not apply in relation to the person carrying out disability work. 4 5
6
- (4) Each of the following is a relevant event for the person— 7 8
- (a) the person’s current health profession registration expires under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland) and, at the time of the expiry, the person has not made a disability worker screening application; 9 10
12
13
14
- (b) the person’s current health profession registration is surrendered, suspended or cancelled under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland); 15 16
17
18
- (c) the person makes a disability worker screening application and the application is decided or withdrawn or an interim bar is imposed on the person. 19 20 21
22
- (5) In this section— 23
- current health profession registration* means the person’s registration in a health profession under the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law (Queensland) during the period of registration that is in effect on the commencement. 24 25
26
27
28
- Subdivision 4 New disqualifying offences and new serious offences 29 30

- 378 Effect of conviction or charge for new disqualifying offence or new serious offence 1 2
- (1) For applying this Act in relation to a person 3 convicted of a new disqualifying offence or new 4 serious offence, it does not matter when the 5 offence was committed or when the person was 6 convicted of the offence. 7
- (2) This Act applies in relation to a person who is 8 charged with a new disqualifying offence or new 9 serious offence even if the charge, or the acts or 10 omissions constituting the alleged offence, 11 happened before the commencement. 12
- (3) For applying this Act to a transitioned 13
clearance— 14
- (a) a person convicted of a new disqualifying 15 offence or new serious offence before the 16
commencement is taken to have been 17 convicted of the offence on the 18
commencement; and 19
- (b) a person the subject of a charge for a new 20 disqualifying offence or new serious offence 21 that has not been dealt with on the 22
commencement is taken to have been 23 charged with the offence on the 24
commencement; and 25
- (c) the fact that the person has been charged 26 with, or convicted of, a new disqualifying 27 offence or new serious offence, is taken to 28 be information not known to the chief 29 executive before the commencement. 30
- (4) In this section— 31
- new disqualifying offence* means an offence 32
that— 33
- (a) is a disqualifying offence; but 34

[s 24]

---

(b) was not a disqualifying offence immediately before the commencement. 1 2

new serious offence means an offence that— 3

(a) is a serious offence; but 4

(b) was not a serious offence immediately before the commencement. 5 6

379 Existing application to cancel negative notice or negative exemption notice 7 8

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, an application under former section 82 to cancel a person's negative notice or negative exemption notice had not been decided or withdrawn. 9 10
12
13

(2) If the person is a disqualified person— 14

(a) the application is taken to be withdrawn; and 15
16

(b) the chief executive must give a notice about the withdrawal to the person. 17
18

(3) If subsection (2) does not apply— 19

(a) the application is taken to be an application made under new section 130 in relation to the person's transitioned exclusion; and 20 21
22

(b) the amended Act applies for deciding the application. 23
24

Subdivision 5 Reassessment of holders of transitioned clearances 25 26

28

(1) This section applies if, under new section 108, the 29

- chief executive conducts a risk assessment of a person who holds a transitioned clearance. 1 2
- (2) The chief executive may give the person a notice asking the person to give the chief executive stated information, including by way of a submission, about a stated matter that the chief executive reasonably believes is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people with disability. 3 4
6
7
9
- (3) A request under subsection (2) must state that, if the person does not comply with the request within the reasonable time stated in the request, the chief executive may decide whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability without the stated information. 10 11
13
14
15
16
- (4) If, after conducting the risk assessment of the person, the chief executive is required, or decides, to cancel the person's transitioned clearance under new part 5, division 6, subdivision 3, the chief executive must issue a State exclusion to the person. 17 18
20 21
22
- (5) Subsection (4) applies despite new section 122. 23

Subdivision 6 Reviews and appeals 24

381 Definitions for subdivision 25

In this subdivision— 26 affected person, for a part 5 reviewable decision, means the person about whom the decision was made. 27 28

29

part 5 reviewable decision means a part 5 reviewable decision under former section 108. 30 31

[s 24]

---

382 Undecided reviews or appeals	1
(1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement—	2 3
(a) an application for a review of a part 5 reviewable decision, made under former section 109 by the affected person for the decision, had not been decided or withdrawn; or	4 5 6 7 8
(b) an appeal against a decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 reviewable decision, started under the QCAT Act by the affected person for the decision or the chief executive, had not been decided or withdrawn.	9 10 11 12 13 14
(2) The entity hearing the review or appeal must dismiss—	15 16
(a) the application or appeal; and	17
(b) any proceeding that relates to the application or appeal.	18 19
(3) Subsection (2) applies to a proceeding before the tribunal even if the dismissal would be contrary to a direction of the Court of Appeal.	20 21 22
(4) The chief executive must make a new decision about the affected person under section 385.	23 24
383 Reviews not started on commencement	25
(1) This section applies if—	26
(a) before the commencement—	27
(i) the chief executive made a part 5 reviewable decision; and	28 29
(ii) the affected person for the decision had not applied for a review of the decision under former section 109; and	30 31 32

- (b) on the commencement— 1
- (i) the affected person is not a disqualified 2 person; and 3
- (ii) the period for applying for a review of 4
the decision had not ended. 5
- (2) The affected person may, within the period 6
mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(ii), apply to the 7 chief executive to make a new decision about the 8
person under section 385. 9
- (3) No fee is payable for an application under 10
subsection (2). 11

384 Appeals not started on commencement 12

- (1) This section applies if— 13
- (a) before the commencement, the chief 14 executive or the affected person had a right 15 to appeal, under the QCAT Act, against a 16 decision of the tribunal relating to a part 5 17
reviewable decision; and 18
- (b) on the commencement, the period for 19
starting the appeal had not ended. 20
- (2) The right to appeal ends on the commencement. 21
- (3) Instead, within the period mentioned in 22 subsection (1)(b)— 23
- (a) the affected person may apply to the chief 24 executive to make a new decision about the 25 affected person under section 385; or 26
- (b) the chief executive may decide to make a 27
new decision about the affected person 28
under section 385. 29
- (4) No fee is payable for an application under 30

385 Chief executive must make new decision about affected person	1 2
(1) This section applies in relation to the chief executive making a new decision about an affected person for a part 5 reviewable decision—	3 4 5
(a) under section 382(4) or 384(3)(b); or	6
(b) on application by the affected person under section 383(2), 384(3)(a), 386(5) or 387(5).	7 8
(2) The chief executive must, within the prescribed period—	9 10
(a) conduct a risk assessment of the affected person; and	11 12
(b) decide—	13
(i) if the person holds a transitioned exclusion—to cancel or not to cancel the exclusion; or	14 15 16
(ii) if the person holds a transitioned clearance that is suspended—to cancel or not to cancel the suspension; and	17 18 19
(c) give the person a QCAT information notice for the chief executive’s decision.	20 21
(3) The chief executive may give the affected person a notice extending, for a further 28 days, the period for the chief executive to comply with subsection (2).	22 23 24 25
(4) For conducting the risk assessment under subsection (2)(a)—	26 27
(a) new part 5, division 4, subdivision 3 applies with necessary changes; and	28 29
(b) the chief executive may give the affected person a notice asking the person to give the chief executive stated information, including by way of a submission, about a stated matter that the chief executive	30 31 32 33 34

- reasonably believes is relevant to whether the person poses a risk of harm to people
with disability.
- (5) A request under subsection (4)(b) must state that, if the affected person does not comply with the request within the reasonable time stated in the request, the chief executive may decide whether the person poses an unacceptable risk of harm to people with disability without the stated information.
- (6) The chief executive must decide the matter under subsection (2)(b) afresh, disregarding the part 5 reviewable decision and the reasons for that decision.
- (7) The risk assessment under subsection (2)(a), and the decision under subsection (2)(b), may be conducted and made only by a person who—
- (a) did not make the part 5 reviewable decision;
and
- (b) holds a more senior office than the person who made the part 5 reviewable decision.
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply to a part 5 reviewable decision made by the chief executive personally.
- (9) If the chief executive does not give the affected person a QCAT information notice within the prescribed period or a longer period notified under subsection (3), the chief executive is taken to have decided—
- (a) if the person holds a transitioned exclusion—not to cancel the exclusion; or
- (b) if the person holds a transitioned clearance that is suspended—not to cancel the suspension.
- (10) New sections 138ZW, 138ZX and 138ZY apply in relation to the chief executive's decision under 1 this section as if it were an internal review 2

decision. 3

(11) In this section— 4

prescribed period means 28 days after— 5

(a) for making a new decision under section 6
382(4)—the commencement; or 7

(b) for making a new decision under section 8
384(3)(b)—the period mentioned in section 9
384(1)(b) ends; or 10

(c) for making a new decision on application by 11
an affected person under section 383(2), 12 384(3)(a), 386(5) or 387(5)—the application 13 is made. 14

386 Undecided appeals about investigative 15 information decisions 16

(1) This section applies if, immediately before the 17 commencement, an appeal to a Magistrates Court 18 about a decision that information is investigative 19 information, made under former section 113, had 20 not been decided or withdrawn. 21

(2) The court may continue to hear and decide the 22 appeal as if the amendment Act had not been 23 enacted. 24

(3) Former sections 113 and 114 continue to apply in 25 relation to the appeal as if the amendment Act had 26 not been enacted. 27

(4) If the court sets aside the decision appealed 28 against, the appellant may apply to the chief 29 executive under new section 130(1)(b) to cancel 30
the appellant's transitioned exclusion. 31

(5) If the court confirms the decision appealed 32 against, the appellant may apply for a new 33 decision under section 385 in relation to the 34

- relevant part 5 reviewable decision. 1
- (6) An application mentioned in subsection (5)— 2
- (a) must be made within 28 days after the 3 appellant is given notice of the court's 4 decision under former section 114(4); and 5
- (b) may be made even if, before the appeal was 6 decided, the appellant applied to the chief 7 executive for a new decision under section 8 385 in relation to the relevant part 5 9
reviewable decision. 10
- (7) No fee is payable for an application under 11
subsection (5). 12
- (8) In this section— 13
- relevant part 5 reviewable decision*, in relation to 14
the appellant, means a part 5 reviewable decision 15 relating to the issue of the negative notice or 16 negative exemption notice in relation to which the 17 appellant started the appeal. 18
- 387 Appeals about investigative information 19 decisions not started on commencement 20
- (1) This section applies if— 21
- (a) before the commencement, a person had a 22 right to appeal to a Magistrates Court under 23 former section 113 about a decision that 24 information, given to the chief executive as 25 investigative information, is investigative 26
information; and 27
- (b) on the commencement, the period for 28
starting the appeal had not ended. 29
- (2) The person may, within the period mentioned in 30 subsection (1)(b), appeal to a Magistrates Court 31 about the decision. 32
- (3) Former sections 113 and 114 apply in relation to 33

[s 24]

- the appeal as if the amendment Act had not been enacted. 1 2
- (4) If the court sets aside the decision appealed against, the appellant may apply to the chief executive under new section 130(1)(b) to cancel the appellant's transitioned exclusion. 3 4
6
- (5) If the court confirms the decision appealed against, the appellant may apply for a new decision under section 385 in relation to the relevant part 5 reviewable decision. 7
9
10
- (6) An application mentioned in subsection (5)— 11
- (a) must be made within 28 days after the appellant is given notice of the court's decision under former section 114(4); and 12
14
- (b) may be made even if, before the appeal was decided, the appellant applied to the chief executive for a new decision under section 385 in relation to the relevant part 5 reviewable decision. 15
16
17
18
19
- (7) No fee is payable for an application under subsection (5). 20 21
- (8) In this section— 22
