- treatment support order—the relevant day 1
for the forensic order or treatment support 2
order that has ended; 3
- (b) if the relevant patient has been transferred 4
under chapter 12, part 10, division 2 to an 5 interstate mental health service or another 6
country—the day the patient leaves 7
Queensland; 8
- (c) if the person entitled to receive information 9
under the notice notifies the chief 10
psychiatrist the person no longer wishes to 11
receive the information—the day the person 12
gives the notice; 13
- (d) if the chief psychiatrist revokes the 14
information notice under section 323—the 15
day the notice is revoked. 16
- (2) Within 7 days after an information notice ceases 17
to have effect under subsection (1)(a), (b) or (c), 18
the chief psychiatrist must give the person who 19
was entitled to receive information under the 20
notice a written notice stating— 21
- (a) the information notice has ceased to have 22
effect; and 23
- (b) the reason the information notice ceased to 24
have effect; and 25
- (c) if the information notice ceased to have 26 effect under subsection (1)(a) or (b)—the 27 person is not entitled to appeal the ceasing 28
of effect of the information notice. 29
- (3) Despite subsection (1)(b), if the relevant patient 30
returns to Queensland before the patient's 31
forensic order or treatment support order ends 32
under section 528— 33
- (a) the information notice is reinstated on the 34
day the relevant patient returns to 35
Queensland; and 36

[s 69]

- (b) within 7 days after the chief psychiatrist becomes aware the relevant patient has returned to Queensland, the chief psychiatrist must give notice of the reinstatement of the information notice to the person entitled to receive information under the notice. 1

323 Revocation of information notice 8

- (1) The chief psychiatrist must revoke an information notice relating to a relevant patient if the chief psychiatrist is satisfied disclosure of information under the notice is likely to— 9 10
12
 - (a) result in serious harm to the relevant patient’s health or welfare; or 13 14
 - (b) put the safety of the relevant patient or someone else at serious risk. 15 16
- (2) The chief psychiatrist may revoke an information notice relating to a relevant patient if— 17 18
 - (a) the chief psychiatrist is unable, after making reasonable efforts, to locate the person entitled to receive information under the notice; or 19 20
21
22
 - (b) the person entitled to receive information under the notice has contravened section 326. 23
24
25
- (3) However, before revoking an information notice under subsection (2)(b), the chief psychiatrist must give the person a reasonable opportunity to make a submission to the chief psychiatrist about why the notice should not be revoked. 26

- (c) the arrangements for the transfer are adequate to protect the safety of the community; and
- (d) for an application for an interstate transfer approval—the transfer is, or may be, permitted under a law of the State in which the interstate mental health service stated in	1

	the application is located.	2
Clause 96	Replacement of ss 526–528	3
	Sections 526 to 528—	4
	omit, insert—	5
	526 When interstate transfer approval or	6
	international transfer approval takes effect	7
	An interstate transfer approval or international	8
	transfer approval takes effect—	9
	(a) if the tribunal imposes 1 or more conditions	10
	on the approval that must be satisfied before	11
	the approval takes effect—when all of the	12
	conditions are satisfied; or	13
	(b) otherwise—on the granting of the approval.	14
	527 Transport of patient seeking transfer under	15
	interstate transfer approval	16
	(1) This section applies if an interstate transfer	17
	approval is in effect.	18
	(2) The patient seeking transfer may be transported	19
	under the approval by—	20
	(a) if the approval states that a particular entity	21
	may transport the patient seeking transfer	22
	under the approval—the stated entity; or	23
	(b) otherwise—	24
	(i) an authorised person; or	25

- service—an authorised practitioner 1
under the Forensic Disability Act; or 2
- (iii) a person who is authorised under a 3 corresponding law to transport the 4 patient seeking transfer from the 5 responsible service for the patient to 6
the interstate mental health service 7 stated in the approval. 8
- (3) As soon as practicable after the approval takes 9
effect, the administrator of the responsible service 10
for the patient seeking transfer must arrange for 11
the patient to be transported to the interstate 12
mental health service stated in the approval by an 13 entity authorised under subsection (2). 14
- 527A Transport of patient seeking transfer under 15
international transfer approval 16
- (1) This section applies if an international transfer 17
approval is in effect. 18
- (2) The patient seeking transfer may be transported 19
under the approval by— 20
- (a) if the approval states that a particular entity 21
may transport the patient seeking transfer 22
under the approval—the stated entity; or 23
- (b) otherwise— 24
- (i) an authorised person; or 25
- Note—* 26
- For the powers of an authorised person 27
when detaining and transporting a person, 28
see chapter 11, part 6, division 5. 29
- (ii) if the patient seeking transfer is to be 30 transported from the forensic disability 31
service—an authorised practitioner 32
under the Forensic Disability Act. 33
- (3) As soon as practicable after the approval takes 34

effect, the administrator of the responsible service 1
for the patient seeking transfer must arrange for 2
the patient to be transported to the country stated 3
in the approval by an entity authorised under 4
subsection (2). 5

528 Effect on order 6

- (1) This section applies to a forensic order (mental 7 health), forensic order (disability) or treatment 8 support order to which a patient seeking transfer 9
is subject when the patient is transferred under an 10 interstate transfer approval or an international 11
transfer approval. 12
- (2) The order has effect only if the patient seeking 13
transfer returns to Queensland and while the 14
patient is in Queensland. 15
- (3) Also, the order ends— 16
- (a) on the last day of any non-revocation period 17
for the order if, on that day, the patient 18
seeking transfer has been out of Queensland 19
for a continuous period of at least 3 years; or 20
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—if the 21
patient seeking transfer is out of Queensland 22
for a continuous period of 3 years. 23
- (4) In this section— 24
- out of Queensland*, in relation to a patient seeking 25
transfer, means out of Queensland because of the 26
transfer of the patient under an interstate transfer 27 approval or international transfer approval. 28

	46A Applications for restoration of licence	10
	(1) If a person’s licence expires, the person may apply to the local government that issued the licence for the restoration of the licence.	11 12 13
	(2) The application must be made within 30 days after the licence expires.	14 15
	(3) The application must comply with section 58.	16
	(4) The local government must consider the application and decide to—	17 18
	(a) restore the licence; or	19
	(b) restore the licence subject to conditions; or	20
	(c) refuse to restore the licence.	21
	(5) In deciding whether to grant the application, the local government may have regard to—	22 23
	(a) whether, under section 35, the applicant is a suitable person to hold the licence; and	24 25
	(b) whether, under section 36, the premises at which higher risk personal appearance services are to be provided under the	26 27 28

licence, if the application is granted, are suitable for providing the services; and	1 2
(c) the results of inspections to monitor compliance with this Act during the term of the licence that ended on the expiry of the licence.	3 4 5 6
(6) If the local government decides to restore the licence, with or without conditions—	7 8
(a) the local government must give the applicant notice of the decision; and	9 10
(b) the licence continues in force for the period of up to 3 years stated in the licence, or in the notice mentioned in paragraph (a), starting on the day the licence would have expired but for section 46C.	11 12 13 14 15
(7) The local government must immediately give the applicant an information notice for the following decisions—	16 17 18
(a) a decision to restore the licence subject to conditions;	19 20
(b) a decision to refuse to restore the licence.	21
(8) An expired licence may be restored, with or without conditions, by—	22 23
(a) endorsing the expired licence with details of the restoration; or	24 25
(b) issuing another licence.	26
46B Inquiries into application for restoration of licence	27 28
(1) Before deciding the application, the local government may, by notice given to the applicant, require the applicant to give the local government, within a reasonable period of at least 40 days stated in the notice, further information or a	29 30 31 32 33

document the local government reasonably	1
requires to decide the application.	2
(2) The applicant is taken to have withdrawn the	3
application if, within the stated period, the	4
applicant does not comply with the requirement.	5
46C Expired licence taken to be in force while	6
application for restoration is considered	7
(1) If an application is made under section 46A, the	8
expired licence is taken to be in force—	9
(a) from the day after the day on which the	10
licence would otherwise have expired; and	11
(b) until the application is—	12
(i) decided under section 46A; or	13
(ii) taken to have been withdrawn under	14
section 46B(2); or	15
(iii) otherwise withdrawn.	16
(2) However, if the application is refused, the expired	17
licence continues in force until the information	18
notice for the decision is given to the applicant.	19
(3) This section does not apply if the licence is earlier	20
suspended or cancelled.	21
Clause 110 Amendment of s 58 (Applications)	22
(1) Section 58(1)—	23
insert—	24
(ba) an application for the restoration of a licence	25
under section 46A;	26
(2) Section 58(1)(ba) to (d)—	27
renumber as section 58(1)(c) to (e).	28
