Section 477G—

omit, insert—

477G Chief executive may approve a compliance management plan

- (1) This section applies if, under a transport Act, the chief executive grants or enters into, or proposes to grant or enter into, an arrangement to establish, construct, maintain, manage or operate transport infrastructure with a relevant entity.
- (2) The chief executive may ask or give consent to the relevant entity to submit a compliance management plan (a CMP) addressing 1 or more compliance matters for the arrangement.

- (3) If subsection (2) applies, the relevant entity may submit to the chief executive a CMP for the compliance matter.
  - (4) A CMP may apply, adopt or incorporate any document.
  - (5) The chief executive may approve a CMP for a compliance matter only if the chief executive—
    - (a) has consulted the relevant agency; and
    - (b) is satisfied the compliance matter is adequately addressed in the CMP.
  - (6) The chief executive may approve a CMP subject to any conditions (CMP conditions) the chief executive considers necessary or desirable.
  - (7) If the chief executive approves a CMP subject to CMP conditions, the conditions form part of the approved CMP.
  - (8) If the chief executive approves a CMP, the chief executive must give written notice to the relevant entity stating—
    - (a) that the CMP is approved; and
    - (b) any conditions the chief executive imposed under subsection (6); and
    - (c) the date the approved CMP takes effect and the date it expires; and
    - (d) the compliance matters addressed in the CMP (the approved compliance matters).
  - (9) The chief executive must publish the notice and any other information about the approved CMP the chief executive considers appropriate on the department's website.

Note—

The department's website is located at <www.tmr.qld.gov.au>.

(10) If the relevant entity complies with the approved CMP, the relevant entity is taken to have met the requirements for the approved compliance matters under the relevant laws.

(11) In this section—

address, a compliance matter, means demonstrate how the purpose of the relevant law will be satisfied in relation to the compliance matter.

133 Business owner to record information about repairs and painting

(1) A person (business owner) who operates a business that includes the repair or painting of motor vehicles or trailers must ensure a record is kept of each of the following (the required information) for a motor vehicle or trailer the business owner or an employee of the business owner repairs or paints in the course of operating the business—

- (a) the make and model of the motor vehicle or trailer;
- (b) the VIN or chassis number of the motor vehicle or trailer;
- (c) if the motor vehicle or trailer has a number plate—the registration number displayed on the plate;
- (d) the colour of the motor vehicle or trailer—
  - (i) before it is repaired or painted; and
  - (ii) after it is repaired or painted (if different);
- (e) the name and contact details of the person for whom the repair or painting is carried out (the customer);
- (f) the date and time the motor vehicle or trailer is delivered to the business owner or access is given to it;
- (g) the proposed nature of the repair or painting at the time the motor vehicle or trailer is delivered or access is given to it;
- (h) if, during the period the motor vehicle or trailer is in the business owner's control, a person drives the motor vehicle or a motor vehicle attached to the trailer on a road outside the business owner's premises—
  - (i) the person's name and contact details; and
  - (ii) the date and time the person started and ended driving the motor vehicle;

Example for paragraph (h)—

If an employee of the business owner tests the motor vehicle or trailer on a road, the employee's name, contact details and the date and time the employee started and ended driving the motor vehicle must be recorded.

- (i) if a part for the repair of the motor vehicle or trailer is supplied by the customer or another person on the customer's behalf—details of the part;
- (j) if the repair or painting carried out is different from the proposed nature of the repair or painting recorded under paragraph (g)—the repair or painting carried out;
- (k) any other information prescribed under a regulation.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (2) If both a motor vehicle and a trailer attached to the motor vehicle are being repaired or painted, the business owner must ensure the required information is recorded for both the motor vehicle and the trailer.
- (3) The required information may be recorded in different documents.

Example for subsection (3)—

A business owner may record the required information about the same motor vehicle or trailer in a job card, invoice, receipt or computer program.

- (4) If the required information is recorded in more than 1 document, the business owner must also record in each document information that identifies the motor vehicle or trailer.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Example for subsection (4)—

A business owner may record in each document a job code that identifies the motor vehicle or trailer.

- (5) The business owner must ensure the name and address of the business owner's business is recorded in at least 1 of the documents in which the required information is recorded.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

---

- (6) A person must not state, or cause or allow to be stated, required information, or information that must be recorded under subsection (4) or (5), that the person knows, or ought reasonably to know, is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (7) In this section—

contact details, of a person, means the person's address or telephone number.

employee includes agent or contractor.

paint, a motor vehicle or trailer, means—

- (a) paint to change the predominant colour of the motor vehicle or trailer; or
- (b) paint a part of the motor vehicle or trailer that has or may have been damaged because of a collision involving the motor vehicle or trailer.

repair, a motor vehicle or trailer, means to restore or replace a part of the motor vehicle or trailer that has or may have been damaged because of—

- (a) corrosion; or
- (b) a collision involving the motor vehicle or trailer.

133A When information in s 133 must be recorded

- (1) The business owner must record the information mentioned in section 133(1) within the following periods—
- (a) for information mentioned in section 133(1)(a) to (c), (d)(i) and (e) to (g)—as soon as practicable after the motor vehicle or trailer is delivered or access is given to it;

- (b) for information mentioned in section 133(1)(d)(ii) and (j)—as soon as practicable after the motor vehicle or trailer is repaired or painted but before the motor vehicle or trailer ceases to be under the business owner’s control;
  - (c) for information mentioned in section 133(1)(h)—as soon as practicable after the person mentioned in section 133(1)(h) drives the motor vehicle or a motor vehicle attached to the trailer;
  - (d) for information mentioned in section 133(1)(i)—as soon as practicable after the part is supplied;
  - (e) for information mentioned in section 133(1)(k)—the period prescribed under a regulation.
- (2) The business owner must record the information mentioned in section 133(4) when the required information is recorded in the relevant document.
  - (3) The business owner must record the information mentioned in section 133(5) when the required information mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is recorded.

133B How long information in s 133 must be kept

The business owner must keep the information mentioned in section 133(1), (4) and (5) for 3 years after the day the motor vehicle or trailer ceases to be under the business owner’s control.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Division 2            Transport easement for support

28AB Definitions for div 2

In this division—

benefited land see section 28AE(1).

burdened land see section 28AE(1).

original owner, for benefited land or burdened land for a transport easement for support, means the owner of the land when the easement was created.

owner, of land, means—

- (a) for freehold land—the registered owner or lessee of the land; or
- (b) for non-freehold land—
  - (i) the lessee or licensee of the land; or
  - (ii) if the land is a reserve or unallocated State land—the State.

registered means registered under the Land Act 1994 or Land Title Act 1994.

transport easement for support see section 28AC.

transport infrastructure has the meaning given in the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994, schedule 6.

unallocated State land means unallocated State land under the Land Act 1994.

28AC Meaning of *transport easement for support

- (1) A transport easement for support is an easement created for the purpose of support.
- (2) A transport easement for support may be created only—
  - (a) in relation to adjoining lots; and
  - (b) if the benefited land is transport land.
- (3) A document or instrument of easement for a transport easement for support must state that the easement is created for the purpose of support.
- (4) The approval of the Minister administering the Land Act 1994 is not required for—
  - (a) the creation of a transport easement for support under section 362(1) of that Act; or
  - (b) the registration of a document creating a transport easement for support under section 363(1) of that Act.
- (5) In this section—

adjoining lot, for a transport easement for support, includes a lot (contiguous lot) adjoining the adjoining lot for the easement, if the contiguous lot is needed for support.

transport land includes land—

- (a) proposed to be acquired for transport purposes or for an incidental purpose; and

- (b) used, or proposed to be used, for transport purposes or for an incidental purpose.

28AD Application of div 2

- (1) This division applies to a registered easement that is a transport easement for support.
- (2) A provision of an Act that provides for the creation, recording or taking of an easement applies to a transport easement for support to the extent the provision is not varied under this division.
- (3) In this section—

Act includes the Acquisition of Land Act 1967, Land Act 1994 and Land Title Act 1994.

28AE Rights and liabilities relating to benefited land and burdened land

- (1) An easement for lateral, subadjacent or superjacent support exists in favour of land (the benefited land) against other land (the burdened land) if the burdened land is capable of supplying lateral, subadjacent or superjacent support to the benefited land.
- (2) The easement entitles the owner of the benefited land to enter the burdened land, other than a part of the land where a person resides, for the easement—
  - (a) to inspect the burdened land for the purpose of preventing or rectifying any infringement of the rights of the owner of the benefited land; and
  - (b) to maintain, change or replace all or part of a structure providing support.
- (3) An owner of the burdened land—

[s 113]

---

- (a) must do all things necessary to ensure that support for the benefited land by the burdened land is maintained; and
- (b) must not, without the written consent of the owner of the benefited land—
  - (i) remove, or allow another person to remove, support for the benefited land, other than as required under paragraph (a); or
  - (ii) change, or allow another person to change, support for the benefited land, other than as required under paragraph (a); or
  - (iii) do, or allow another person to do, anything that interferes with, or otherwise compromises, support for or the structural integrity of the benefited land, other than as required under paragraph (a).
- (4) If the owner of the burdened land does not comply with subsection (3)(a) or (b), the owner of the benefited land may recover the cost of maintaining or replacing any support from the owner of the benefited land as a debt payable to the owner of the benefited land.
- (5) In a proceeding, subsection (3) is to be read in favour of the owner of the benefited land.

28AF Notice of entry

- (1) This section applies if the owner of benefited land is entitled to enter the burdened land under section 28AE.
- (2) Before exercising the right of entry, the owner of the benefited land must give the owner of the burdened land reasonable notice in writing of—

- (a) the owner's intention to enter the burdened land; and
  - (b) details of the inspection or the maintenance, change or replacement to be carried out.
- (3) However, if in the circumstances, urgent maintenance, change or replacement is required (because the structure has been destroyed, for example) and it is impractical to give a notice under subsection (2)—
- (a) the owner of the benefited land may exercise the right of entry without giving the notice to carry out the urgent maintenance or replacement; and
  - (b) as soon as practicable after the entry, the owner of the benefited land must give the owner of the burdened land written notice of the entry and details of the maintenance or replacement carried out.

28AG Continuation of transport easement for support

- (1) A transport easement for support continues over affected land.
- (2) Affected land is land that is benefited, or burdened, by a transport easement for support and—
  - (a) is dealt with under the Land Act 1994 or Land Title Act 1994; or
  - (b) becomes unallocated State land.
- (3) The owner of the affected land is taken to be the successor in title of the original owner of the land.
- (4) The benefit of a transport easement for support passes with the benefited land.

- (5) The burden of a transport easement for support passes with the burdened land.
- (6) This section applies to affected land that becomes unallocated State land despite the following—
  - (a) section 28AC(2)(b);
  - (b) the Land Act 1994, section 372;
  - (c) the Land Title Act 1994, section 85(3).
- (7) In this section—

dealt with means—

  - (a) for land under the Land Act 1994—
    - (i) granted in fee simple or in fee simple in trust; or
    - (ii) leased; or
    - (iii) dedicated as a reserve under an Act; or
    - (iv) surrendered as a lease; or
  - (b) for land under the Land Title Act 1994—reconfigured under that Act.

28AH Terms bind successors in title

- (1) Each term, whether positive or negative, for a transport easement for support—
  - (a) is for the benefit of any successors in title of the benefited land; and
  - (b) is binding on any successors in title of the burdened land.
- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply to a term expressed to apply only to the original owner of the benefited land or burdened land.
- (3) In this section—

term, for a transport easement for support, means—

- (a) a covenant or other term stated in the document or instrument of easement; and
- (b) a requirement under section 28E(3).

114 Omission of s 36H (Storing emergency contact information electronically on a relevant prescribed document)

Part 7                      Transitional provision for the Transport and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2014

39 Easement for support registered before commencement

- (1) This section applies if an easement for support is registered over State land before the commencement of this section.
- (2) The easement for support is taken to be a transport easement for support under section 28AC.
- (3) Part 4, division 2 applies to the easement for support as if that division was in force when the easement for support was registered.
- (4) In this section—

easement for support means a document or instrument of easement that, when registered, complied with section 28AC(1), (2) and (3) as if those provisions were in force before the commencement.

State land has the meaning given by the Transport Infrastructure Act 1994.
