, (g) or (h)

- (3) Section 125—

insert—

- (3) Subsection (4) applies if an inspector is intending to enter, under section 122(1)(h), a place.
- (4) The inspector may enter the place if the inspector, after making reasonable inquiries over a period of at least 2 days, can not contact the owner or occupier of the place for consent to enter.

- (5) However, the inspector is not required to make inquiries under subsection (4) if it would be unreasonable to make inquiries to contact the owner or occupier of the place.

10 Amendment of s 152 (Return of seized animal)

- (1) Section 152(2)—

insert—

(aa) the inspector has given the chief executive information about a matter mentioned in section 154(2)(a), (b) or (c) but the chief executive has not decided, under that section, whether to forfeit the animal; or

- (2) Section 152(2)(aa) to (f)—

renumber as section 152(2)(b) to (g).

- (3) Section 152—

insert—

(2A) If subsection (2)(b) applies, the inspector must promptly return the animal to its owner if the chief executive—

- (a) does not make a decision within the period mentioned in section 154(5); or
(b) decides that the animal should not be forfeited to the State.

- (4) Section 152(3), '(2)(c)'—

omit, insert—

(2)(d)

- (5) Section 152(4), '(2)(d)'—

omit, insert—

(2)(g)

11 Amendment of s 154 (Power to forfeit)

insert—

- (5) The chief executive must decide whether to forfeit an animal or thing under this section within 14 days after an inspector or police officer gives the chief executive sufficient information about a matter mentioned in subsection (2)(a), (b) or (c) to enable the chief executive to make the decision.

12 Amendment of s 189 (Recovery of seizure, compliance or destruction costs)

Section 189(3), '(2)(d)'—

omit, insert—

(2)(e)

13 Insertion of new s 214B

After section 214A—

insert—

214B Confidentiality of information

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
(a) is, or has been, any of the following—

- (i) the chief executive;
 - (ii) an inspector;
 - (iii) another person involved in administering this Act, including, for example, a public service employee; and
- (b) obtains confidential information about another person in administering, or performing functions or exercising powers under, this Act.
- (2) The person must not use or disclose the confidential information unless the use or disclosure is—
- (a) in the performance of a function or exercise of a power under this Act; or
 - (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (c) otherwise required or permitted by law.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (3) In this section—
- confidential information—
- (a) means any information that—
 - (i) could identify an individual; or
 - (ii) is about a person’s current financial position or financial background; or
 - (iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but
 - (b) does not include—
 - (i) information that is publicly available; or

[s 14]

- (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.

14 Amendment of s 215B (Sharing of information by authorised officer or inspector)

Section 215B(1), ‘section 85’—

omit, insert—

section 214B

15 Amendment of s 215C (Interaction with other laws)

Section 215C, heading, after ‘laws’—

insert—

about giving information

16 Insertion of new ss 215D and 215E

After section 215C—

insert—

215D Chief executive (transport) must disclose information

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an inspector is reasonably satisfied that vehicle registry information may be used, in an investigation under this Act about an animal welfare offence, to identify—
 - (i) the owner of a vehicle the inspector reasonably suspects was used in the commission of the offence; or
 - (ii) a person whom the inspector reasonably suspects committed the offence; and

- (b) the inspector asks the chief executive (transport) for the information.
- (2) The chief executive (transport) must disclose the information to the inspector if the chief executive (transport) reasonably considers that the information may be used to identify the person or the owner of the vehicle.
- (3) In this section—

chief executive (transport) means the chief executive of the department in which the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995 is administered.

vehicle registry information means information kept in the register of registered vehicles under a regulation under the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995.

215 Use of body-worn camera by authorised officer or inspector

- (1) It is lawful for an authorised officer or inspector to use a body-worn camera to record images or sounds while—
 - (a) for an authorised officer—the authorised officer is exercising a power under chapter 5, part 4; or
 - (b) for an inspector—the inspector is exercising a power under chapter 6, part 2.
- (2) Use of a body-worn camera by an authorised officer or inspector under subsection (1) includes use that is—
 - (a) inadvertent or unexpected; or
 - (b) incidental to use while exercising the authorised officer's or inspector's power.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect an ability the authorised officer or inspector has at common law or under another Act to record images or sounds.

[s 17]

Part 3A Biosecurity zone maps

130A Meaning of biosecurity zone map

- (1) A biosecurity zone map is a map, identifying a biosecurity zone, held by the department and published on its website.

Editor's note—

A biosecurity zone map can generally be reduced or enlarged to show the exact location of the boundaries of a biosecurity zone identified on the map.

- (2) A reference to a particular biosecurity zone map by name is a reference to the biosecurity zone map of that name.

[s 31]

130B Amendment of particular biosecurity zone maps

- (1) This section applies if a biosecurity zone is identified, under biosecurity zone regulatory provisions (the relevant provisions), by reference to a biosecurity zone map as in force from time to time.
- (2) The chief executive may amend the biosecurity zone map if the chief executive—
 - (a) becomes aware that the regulated biosecurity matter to which the relevant provisions relate is present or absent in a particular area; or
 - (b) is otherwise satisfied there has been a change in the distribution of the regulated biosecurity matter to which the relevant provisions relate.
- (3) The chief executive may amend the biosecurity zone map as often as the chief executive considers necessary to more accurately show the distribution of the regulated biosecurity matter.

130C Requirements in relation to identification of particular biosecurity zones

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a biosecurity zone is identified, under biosecurity zone regulatory provisions, by reference to a biosecurity zone map as in force from time to time; and
 - (b) a new biosecurity zone map changing the area for the biosecurity zone is published on the department's website.
- (2) The chief executive must ensure the new biosecurity zone map—

- (a) states the biosecurity zone to which the map relates; and
 - (b) states the date and time the map was published on the department's website.
- (3) As soon as practicable after the new biosecurity zone map is published on the department's website, the chief executive must take all reasonable steps to ensure that persons likely to be directly affected by the change of the area for the biosecurity zone are made aware of the making of the map, including, for example, by some or all of the following—
- (a) advertising in newspapers, on radio or on television;
 - (b) electronically using emails, text messages or social media.

Example—

SMS messaging in the area for the biosecurity zone

32 Amendment of s 172 (Publication of information held in biosecurity register)

insert—

or, if the record is kept in electronic form, the serial number for the electronic record,

(2) Section 197(3), ‘copy or record’—

omit, insert—

copy, record or, if the record is kept in electronic form, serial number for the electronic record

36 Amendment of s 198 (Movement record for receiving designated animal)

(1) Section 198(1)(c) and (2), after ‘record’, last mention—

insert—

or, if the record is kept in electronic form, the
serial number for the electronic record

(2) Section 198(3), from ‘as’ to ‘copy’—

omit, insert—

or the serial number for a record as required under subsection (2) must keep the copy or the serial number

(3) Section 198(4)(c), after ‘record’, last mention—

insert—

or, if the record is kept in electronic form, the serial number for the electronic record

- (4) Section 198(7), from ‘movement record’ to ‘record’, last mention—

omit, insert—

movement record or serial number for a record for a period under subsection (3), or a record or serial number for a record for a period under subsection (5), must, at any time in the period, produce the copy, record or serial number for the record

37 Insertion of new ch 10, pt 6

Part 13 Biosecurity management plan regulatory provisions

94F Definitions for part

In this part—

biosecurity management plan see section 94G(1) and (2).

management area, for a biosecurity management plan, means an area to which measures stated in the plan apply.

94G Biosecurity management plan

- (1) A registered biosecurity entity for a designated place may make a plan (a biosecurity management plan) stating reasonable measures to prevent, control or stop the spread of biosecurity matter into, at or from the place.
- (2) The holder of an exhibited animal authority may make a plan (also a biosecurity management plan) stating reasonable measures to prevent, control or stop the spread of biosecurity matter into, at or from a place where an exhibited animal is kept under the authority.

- (3) The measures stated in a biosecurity management plan for a place may apply to all or part of the place.
- (4) If an entity mentioned in subsection (1) or (2) makes a biosecurity management plan for a place, the entity must—
 - (a) keep the plan as a separate document at the place; and
 - (b) make the plan available for inspection at the place, on request, during ordinary business hours; and
 - (c) ensure a sign is conspicuously displayed at each management area for the plan stating that—
 - (i) a biosecurity management plan applies to the place; and
 - (ii) it is an offence for a person entering, present at, or leaving the management area to fail to comply with the measures stated in the plan unless the person has a reasonable excuse.
- (5) In this section—

exhibited animal see the Exhibited Animals Act 2015, section 14.

exhibited animal authority see the Exhibited Animals Act 2015, section 29.

94H Requirement to comply with biosecurity management plan

- (1) A person entering, present at or leaving a management area for a biosecurity management plan must comply with the measures stated in the plan.

[s 50]

- (2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if—
- (a) the person does not know, and could not reasonably have known, a biosecurity management plan applied to the management area; or
 - (b) the entity that made the biosecurity management plan is not complying with section 94G(4); or
 - (c) the person is required or permitted, under an Act, to enter the management area.

Part 6 Amendment of Chemical Usage
(Agricultural and Veterinary) Control Act 1988

67 Act amended

This part amends the Chemical Usage (Agricultural and Veterinary) Control Act 1988.

68 Insertion of new s 13F

Part 2, division 4—

insert—

13F Definition for division

In this division—

relevant thing means any of the following—

- (a) agricultural produce;
- (b) manufactured stock food;
- (c) the tissue of a trade species animal;

- (d) a product derived from a trade species animal.

69 Replacement of ss 15 and 15A

Sections 15 and 15A—

omit, insert—

15 Duty to report chemical residues in or on relevant thing

- (1) This section applies to a person if the person becomes aware that the residue of a chemical in or on a relevant thing is more than the maximum residue limit prescribed for the thing.

Examples of persons to whom this section may apply—

- a person conducting an analysis of a relevant thing
- a veterinary surgeon who treats a trade species animal
- a person who monitors the residue of chemicals on agricultural produce for a supermarket or grocery store
- a farmer who receives a report of an analysis of agricultural produce from a laboratory based outside Queensland

- (2) As soon as practicable but within 24 hours after becoming aware, the person must—
- (a) advise the standards officer that the residue of a chemical in or on the relevant thing exceeds the maximum residue limit prescribed for the thing; and
- (b) give the standards officer the required information for the relevant thing.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

- (3) However, the person is not required to comply with subsection (2) if the person becomes aware, before the person would otherwise be required to advise the standards officer under the subsection, that another person has advised the standards officer as required under subsection (2).

[s 69]

Example—

A person would not be required to advise the standards officer that the residue of a chemical in or on a relevant thing exceeds the maximum residue limit prescribed for the thing if a person who conducted an analysis of the thing had already advised the standards officer about it as soon as the results of the analysis were known.

- (4) A person complies with subsection (2)(b) if the person gives the standards officer a laboratory report about the residue of a chemical in or on a sample of the relevant thing that contains all of the required information for the relevant thing.
- (5) However, if the laboratory report does not contain all of the required information for the relevant thing, the person only complies with subsection (2)(b) if the person also gives the standards officer—
 - (a) the required information that is not contained in the laboratory report for the relevant thing; and
 - (b) sufficient information for the standards officer to identify the laboratory report to which the required information mentioned in paragraph (a) relates.

Example—

the sample number for the relevant thing the subject of the laboratory report

- (6) In this section—

distinguishing number, for a relevant thing, includes a number with 1 or more letters or symbols.

laboratory number, for a relevant thing, means the distinguishing number given to a sample of the thing by a laboratory that analysed the thing.

required information, for a relevant thing, means the following information about the thing—

- (a) a description of the relevant thing;
- (b) if the relevant thing has a sample number—the sample number;
- (c) if the relevant thing has a laboratory number—the laboratory number;
- (d) the name of the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;
- (e) the concentration of the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;
- (f) the maximum residue limit prescribed for the residue of the chemical in or on the relevant thing;
- (g) the name and address of the person who manufactured or produced the relevant thing;
- (h) if the information mentioned in paragraph (g) is not reasonably available—the name and address of the person from whom the relevant thing was obtained.

sample number, for a relevant thing, means a distinguishing number given to the sample of the thing by a person who made the sample of the thing.

70 Amendment of s 16 (Agricultural produce etc. containing chemical residues not to be used etc.)

Section 16(7), definition relevant thing—

20A Use of body-worn cameras

- (1) It is lawful for an inspector to use a body-worn camera to record images or sounds while the inspector is exercising a power under this Act.
- (2) Use of a body-worn camera by an inspector under subsection (1) includes use that is—
 - (a) inadvertent or unexpected; or
 - (b) incidental to use while exercising the inspector's power.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect an ability the inspector has at common law or under another Act to record images or sounds.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) is a provision authorising the use by an inspector of a listening device, for the purposes of the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971, section 43(2)(d).
- (5) In this section—

body-worn camera means a device—

 - (a) worn on clothing or otherwise secured on a person; and
 - (b) designed to be used to—
 - (i) record images; or
 - (ii) record images and sounds.

72 Insertion of new ss 35 and 36

After section 34—

insert—

35 Confidentiality of information

- (1) This section applies to a person who—

- (a) is, or has been, any of the following—
 - (i) the chief executive;
 - (ii) an inspector;
 - (iii) an analyst;
 - (iv) a standards officer;
 - (v) a deputy standards officer;
 - (vi) another person involved in administering this Act, including, for example, a public service employee; and
 - (b) obtains confidential information about another person in administering, or performing functions or exercising powers under, this Act.
- (2) The person must not use or disclose the confidential information unless the use or disclosure is—
- (a) in the performance of a function or exercise of a power under this Act; or
 - (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (c) otherwise required or permitted by law.
- Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.
- (3) In this section—
- confidential information—
- (a) means any information that—
 - (i) could identify an individual; or
 - (ii) is about a person’s current financial position or financial background; or

[s 72]

- (iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but
- (b) does not include—
 - (i) information that is publicly available; or
 - (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.

36 Exchange of information with prescribed government entity

- (1) The chief executive may enter into an arrangement (an information-sharing arrangement) with a prescribed government entity for the purpose of sharing or exchanging information—
 - (a) held by the chief executive or the prescribed government entity; or
 - (b) to which the chief executive or the prescribed government entity has access.
- (2) An information-sharing arrangement may relate only to information that helps—
 - (a) the chief executive or an inspector perform functions under this Act; or
 - (b) the prescribed government entity, or a person employed or engaged by the entity, perform functions under a law of the State, another State or the Commonwealth.
- (3) Under an information-sharing arrangement, the chief executive and the prescribed government entity are, despite another Act or law, authorised to—

- (a) ask for and receive information held by the other party to the arrangement or to which the other party has access; and
 - (b) disclose information to the other party.
- (4) However, the information may be used by the chief executive or the prescribed government entity only for the purpose for which it was given under the arrangement.
- (5) In this section—
- prescribed government entity means—
- (a) the chief executive of a department; or
 - (b) an entity of, or representing, the Commonwealth or another State.

- (1) This section applies to a person who—

- (a) is, or has been, any of the following—
 - (i) the chief executive;
 - (ii) an inspector;
 - (iii) another person involved in administering this Act, including, for example, a public service employee; and
 - (b) obtains confidential information about another person in administering, or performing functions or exercising powers under, this part.
- (2) The person must not use or disclose the confidential information unless the use or disclosure is—
- (a) in the performance of a function or exercise of a power under this Act; or
 - (b) with the consent of the person to whom the information relates; or
 - (c) otherwise required or permitted by law.
- Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (3) In this section—
- confidential information—
- (a) means any information that—
 - (i) could identify an individual; or
 - (ii) is about a person’s current financial position or financial background; or
 - (iii) would be likely to damage the commercial activities of a person to whom the information relates; but
 - (b) does not include—
 - (i) information that is publicly available; or

[s 77]

- (ii) statistical or other information that could not reasonably be expected to result in the identification of the individual to whom it relates.

Division 3A Power to give direction to move

188A Application of division

This division applies if an inspector reasonably believes, or is aware, that a person is contravening section 22A on private land or at a public place.

188B Power to direct person to move

- (1) The inspector may, to stop the contravention, direct the person—
 - (a) if the person is on private land—to leave the land immediately; or
 - (b) if the person is at a public place—to move immediately away from the place where the contravention of section 22A is happening to a place within a reasonable distance.
- (2) When giving the direction under subsection (1), the inspector must—
 - (a) tell the person the reasons for giving the direction; and
 - (b) give the person an offence warning for the direction.

[s 80]

188C Failure to comply with direction

- (1) The person to whom a direction is given under section 188B must comply with the direction unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—100 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse for the person not to comply with a direction if to comply immediately would endanger the person or someone else or cause loss or damage to property, and the person complies as soon as it is practicable to do so.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not limit what may be a reasonable excuse for subsection (1).
- (4) A person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) if the person is not given an offence warning for the direction.

80 Insertion of new s 222A

Chapter 6, part 4, division 4—

insert—

222A Use of body-worn cameras

- (1) It is lawful for an inspector to use a body-worn camera to record images or sounds while the inspector is exercising a power under this chapter.
- (2) Use of a body-worn camera by an inspector under subsection (1) includes use that is—
 - (a) inadvertent or unexpected; or
 - (b) incidental to use while exercising the inspector's power.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not affect an ability the inspector has at common law or under another Act to record images or sounds.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (1) is a provision authorising the use by an inspector of a listening device, for the purposes of the Invasion of Privacy Act 1971, section 43(2)(d).

(5) In this section—

Colleges Act 2005

Subdivision 1 Repeal

57 Repeal

The Queensland Agricultural Training Colleges
Act 2005, No. 20 is repealed.

Subdivision 2 Savings and transitional provisions

58 Definitions for subdivision

In this subdivision—

QATC means the Queensland Agricultural
Training Colleges in existence under the repealed Act before the commencement.

repealed Act means the repealed Queensland

Agricultural Training Colleges Act 2005.

59 Words have meanings given by repealed Act

Words defined under the repealed Act immediately before its repeal and used in this subdivision have the same meanings as they had under the repealed Act.

60 QATC and other entities

- (1) On the commencement—
 - (a) QATC and its board are dissolved; and
 - (b) QATC's principal executive officer and each member of its board go out of office; and
 - (c) each board committee, if any, is dissolved and each member of the board committee goes out of office; and
 - (d) each college board, if any, is dissolved and each member of the college board goes out of office; and
 - (e) a college director goes out of office.
- (2) No compensation is payable to a person because of subsection (1).
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (2) does not limit or otherwise affect a person's right to a benefit or entitlement that had accrued before the commencement.

61 State is successor in law of QATC

- (1) The State is the successor in law of QATC.
- (2) Subsection (1) is not limited by another provision of this subdivision.

62 Assets and liabilities

On the commencement, the assets and liabilities of QATC immediately before the commencement become assets and liabilities of the State held in the department.

63 Records and other documents

On the commencement, QATC's records and other documents held by QATC immediately before the commencement become records and other documents of the State held in the department.

64 Current instruments

- (1) This section applies to a contract or other instrument to which QATC was a party, or that otherwise applied to QATC, immediately before the commencement (a current instrument).
- (2) The State is a party to the current instrument, or the current instrument otherwise applies to the State, in place of QATC.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)—
 - (a) any right, title, interest or liability of QATC arising under or relating to a current instrument is a right, title, interest or liability of the State; and
 - (b) a current instrument, including a benefit or right provided by a current instrument, given to, by or in favour of QATC before the commencement is taken to have been given to, by or in favour of the State; and
 - (c) an application relating to a current instrument made in the name of QATC before the commencement is taken to have been made in the name of the State; and

[s 128B]

- (d) a current instrument under which an amount is, or may become, payable to or by QATC is taken to be an instrument under which the amount is, or may become, payable to or by the State in the way the amount was, or might have become, payable to or by QATC; and
 - (e) a current instrument under which property, other than money, is or may become liable to be transferred, conveyed or assigned to or by QATC is taken to be an instrument under which property is, or may become liable to be, transferred, conveyed or assigned to or by the State in the way the property was, or might have become, liable to be transferred, conveyed or assigned to or by QATC.
- (4) This section applies subject to section 69.

65 References to QATC

In an Act or document, a reference to QATC is, if the context permits, taken to be a reference to the State.

66 Current proceedings

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding that, immediately before the commencement, had not ended and to which QATC was a party.
- (2) On the commencement, the State becomes a party to the proceeding in place of QATC.

67 Proceedings not yet started

- (1) This section applies if, immediately before the commencement, a proceeding could have been started by or against QATC within a particular period.

- (2) The proceeding may be started by or against the State within the period.

68 Registering authority to note transfer or other dealing

- (1) A registering authority must, on written application by the chief executive and without charge, register or record in the appropriate way a transfer of, or other dealing affecting, an asset, liability or instrument under this subdivision.
- (2) The chief executive must comply with any relevant procedures required by the registering authority for the purpose of registering or recording the transfer or other dealing.
- (3) In this section—

registering authority means the registrar of titles or another entity required or authorised by law to register or record transactions affecting assets, liabilities or instruments.

69 Matters relating to employment

- (1) On the commencement—
 - (a) a person who, immediately before the commencement, is employed by QATC on a permanent full-time or permanent part-time basis, other than the principal executive officer or a college director, becomes a public service employee of the department; and
 - (b) a work performance arrangement, under section 15 of the repealed Act, between QATC and another government entity ends; and

[s 128B]

- (c) despite the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act 2016, the following instruments stop having effect—
 - (i) the instrument called the ‘Queensland Agricultural Training Colleges Certified Agreement 2016’;
 - (ii) the instrument called the ‘Queensland Agricultural Colleges Award—State 2015’.
- (2) The change of employer under subsection (1)(a) does not—
 - (a) interrupt a person’s continuity of service; or
 - (b) prejudice an employee’s existing or accruing right to long service leave; or
 - (c) constitute a termination of employment by QATC, retrenchment or redundancy; or
 - (d) entitle a person to a payment or other benefit merely because the person is no longer employed by QATC.

70 Effect on legal relationships

- (1) A thing done under this subdivision—
 - (a) does not make the State liable for a civil wrong or a contravention of a law or for a breach of a contract or confidence; and
 - (b) does not make the State in breach of any instrument, including an instrument prohibiting, restricting or regulating the assignment, novation or transfer of a right or liability or the disclosure of information; and
 - (c) does not fulfil a condition that—

- (i) terminates, or allows a person to terminate, an instrument or obligation; or
 - (ii) modifies, or allows a person to modify, the operation or effect of an instrument or obligation; or
 - (iii) allows a person to avoid or enforce an obligation or liability contained in an instrument or requires a person to perform an obligation contained in an instrument; or
 - (iv) requires any money to be paid before its stated maturity; and
- (d) does not release a surety or other obligee, wholly or partly, from an obligation.
- (2) If, apart from this subsection, the advice, consent or approval of a person would be necessary to do something under this subdivision, the advice is taken to have been obtained or the consent or approval is taken to have been given unconditionally.
- (3) If giving notice to a person would be necessary to do something under this subdivision, the notice is taken to have been given.
- (4) A reference in this section to the State includes an employee or agent of the State.

Part 5 Particular works for Paradise Dam

[s 135B]

399D Application of part

This part applies if—

- (a) the chief executive, under section 356(2), changes the safety conditions applying to the Paradise Dam; and
- (b) the changed safety conditions are in relation to the carrying out of spillway works.

399E Definitions for part

In this part—

associated works means works associated with spillway works, including, for example—

- (a) works necessary to ensure water can continue to be released from the Paradise Dam following the carrying out of spillway works; or
- (b) works necessary to ensure fish can continue to move through the Paradise Dam following the carrying out of spillway works; or
- (c) works to remediate land affected by spillway works.

spillway works means works to lower a spillway for the Paradise Dam in order to reduce the risk of the dam failing.

399F Application of other Acts to spillway works and associated works

- (1) The following Acts do not apply in relation to the carrying out of spillway works or associated works—
 - (a) the Biosecurity Act 2014;
