11AA Preliminary examinations

- (1) After a police officer reports a person’s death to a coroner under section 7(4), an examination for the deceased person's body (a preliminary examination) may be performed under this section.

[s 28]

- (2) The purpose of the preliminary examination is to assist a coroner in the performance of the coroner's functions under this Act relating to the person's death.

Example of a coroner's function—

deciding whether a death is a reportable death

- (3) The preliminary examination may include only the following procedures performed for the deceased person's body, alone or in combination—
- (a) a visual examination of the body, including a dental examination;
 - (b) the collection and review of relevant information, including personal and health information relating to the deceased person or the death of the person;
 - (c) the taking, including by making an incision in the body, of samples of bodily fluid from the body, including blood, urine, saliva, mucus and vitreous humour samples, and the testing of those samples;
 - (d) the imaging of the body, including the use of computed tomography (CT scan), magnetic resonance imaging (MRI scan), x-ray, ultrasound and photography;
 - (e) the taking of samples from the surface of the body, including swabs from wounds and inner cheek, hair samples and samples from under fingernails and from the skin, and the testing of those samples;
 - (f) the fingerprinting of the body.
- (4) A doctor who is listed in the guidelines as a doctor approved by the State Coroner to perform preliminary examinations (an examiner), or a suitably qualified person under the general supervision of an examiner, may perform the preliminary examination for the person's body.

Example of a suitably qualified person—

a coronial nurse

- (5) Before the examiner, or a person supervised by the examiner, performs the preliminary examination for the person's body, the examiner must, whenever practicable, consider at least the following—
 - (a) that in some cases the person's family may be distressed by the procedures to be performed in the examination, including, for example, because of cultural traditions or spiritual beliefs;
 - (b) any concerns raised by a family member, or another person with a sufficient interest, in relation to the procedures to be performed for the examination.
- (6) As soon as practicable after the preliminary examination is completed, the examiner must—
 - (a) prepare a preliminary examination report; and
 - (b) give the report to a coroner.
- (7) In this section—

preliminary examination report means a written report containing information about a preliminary examination performed for a deceased person, including, for example, information about the following—

- (a) the results of any procedures or tests that were performed as part of the preliminary examination;

[s 29]

(b) the cause of the person's death, if known.

99A Definitions for division

In this division—

former section 100 means section 100 as in force before the commencement of this section.

unfinished repealed Act inquest see section 99B.

99B Meaning of unfinished repealed Act inquest

An unfinished repealed Act inquest is an inquest within the meaning of the repealed Coroners Act 1958, section 5, that—

- (a) started under the repealed Act or the repealed Act as applied under former section 100; and
- (b) had not concluded before the commencement of this section.

40A Omission of s 100 (When repealed Act still applies)

Section 100—

omit.

41 Insertion of new ss 100A–100E

Part 6, division 1—

insert—

100A Application of repealed Act to unfinished repealed Act inquest

The repealed Coroners Act 1958 continues to apply to an unfinished repealed Act inquest unless the inquest is, under section 100B, stopped and reopened as an inquest under this Act.

100B Stopping and reopening an unfinished repealed Act inquest

- (1) A coroner who is holding an unfinished repealed Act inquest may, on his or her own initiative—
 - (a) stop the inquest, without a finding being given under the repealed Coroners Act 1958, section 43; and
 - (b) reopen the inquest as an inquest under this Act.
- (2) Also, the State Coroner may, on his or her own initiative, direct another coroner to stop and reopen an unfinished repealed Act inquest under subsection (1)(a) and (b).

100C Reopening finished repealed Act inquest

- (1) Sections 50 and 50A apply for reopening a finished repealed Act inquest as if the references in the sections to an inquest included references to a finished repealed Act inquest.
- (2) In this section—

finished repealed Act inquest means an inquest, within the meaning of the repealed Coroners Act 1958, section 5, that has concluded under the repealed Act or the repealed Act as applied under former section 100.

100D Effect on rights and privileges

- (1) Sections 100B and 100C have effect—
 - (a) despite any right or privilege acquired by, or accrued to, a person under the repealed Coroners Act 1958; and

[s 41]

- (b) despite the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 20.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), to remove any doubt, it is declared that this Act applies in relation to a person giving evidence at an inquest reopened under section 100B, or section 50 or 50A as applied under section 100C, even if the person has claimed the privilege against self-incrimination or incrimination of the person's spouse under the repealed Coroners Act 1958, section 33(2) or that section as applied under former section 100.

100E Application of s 24(7) to specimen tissue

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before 1 December 2003—
 - (i) during an autopsy of a body, tissue was removed from the body for testing; and
 - (ii) the tissue was turned into specimen tissue; or
 - (b) on or after 1 December 2003 and before the commencement of this section—
 - (i) during an autopsy of a body under the repealed Coroners Act 1958 as applied under former section 100, tissue was removed from the body for testing; and
 - (ii) the tissue was turned into specimen tissue.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that section 24(7) does not apply, and never has applied, in relation to the specimen tissue.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—

- (a) an inquest into the death of a person is reopened under section 100B or section 50 or 50A as applied under section 100C; and
 - (b) before the inquest is reopened, tissue has been removed from the person's body and turned into specimen tissue; and
 - (c) immediately before the inquest is reopened, the specimen tissue is still being kept.
- (4) Despite subsection (2), section 24(7) applies in relation to the specimen tissue.
- (5) In this section—
- autopsy* includes a post-mortem examination under the repealed Coroners Act 1958 or that Act as applied under former section 100.
- specimen tissue* see the Transplantation and Anatomy Act 1979, section 29(8).

42 Amendment of sch 2 (Dictionary)

- (1) Schedule 2—
- insert—*

Section 47—

omit, insert—

47 Preservation of rights

- (1) This section applies to a person appointed as a judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar if, immediately before the appointment, the person was an employee of a prescribed authority (the relevant prescribed authority).
- (2) The person keeps the rights the person has accrued because of employment by a prescribed authority, or that would accrue in the future to the person because of that employment, as if service as a judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar were a continuation of the person's service as an employee of the relevant prescribed authority.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the person stops being a judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar, other than because the person is removed from office under section 28(3).
- (4) The person is entitled to be appointed to a position in the relevant prescribed authority at the classification level of the substantive position in which the person was employed at the relevant prescribed authority immediately before the person's appointment as judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar.
- (5) Subsection (6) applies if the person stops being a judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar because the person is appointed to a position in a prescribed authority.

(6) The person's service as judicial registrar or acting judicial registrar is taken to be service of a like nature with the prescribed authority for working out the person's rights as an employee of the prescribed authority.

(7) In this section—

classification level, at a prescribed authority, includes another level, however described, reflecting seniority at the prescribed authority.

employee, of a prescribed authority, means—

- (a) a public service officer employed by the prescribed authority; or
- (b) a police officer employed by the prescribed authority; or

52C Costs in relation to performing functions and exercising powers under recommendatory provisions

- (1) This section applies if the Land Court is performing a function conferred on the court under a recommendatory provision.
- (2) Each party to the performance of the function must bear the party's own costs in relation to the performance of the function.
- (3) However, the Land Court may make an order for costs as it considers appropriate if a party has incurred costs in 1 or more of the following circumstances—
 - (a) for the performance of a function in relation to a relevant objection made by a party—the Land Court considers that all or part of the objection—
 - (i) is outside the Land Court's jurisdiction; or
 - (ii) is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (iii) is an abuse of the Land Court's process;
 - (b) a party has not been given reasonable notice of an intention to apply for an adjournment of the performance of the function;
 - (c) a party is required to apply for an adjournment of the performance of the function because of the conduct of another party;

[s 105]

- (d) without limiting paragraph (c), a party has introduced, or sought to introduce, new material;
 - (e) a party has defaulted in the Land Court's procedural requirements;
 - (f) for a hearing under the Mineral Resources Act 1989, section 78 or 268 in relation to an application for the grant of a mining claim or mining lease under that Act—
 - (i) the applicant abandons the application or does not pursue the application at the hearing; or
 - (ii) a party who made an objection to the application under section 71 or 260 of that Act withdraws the objection or does not pursue the objection at the hearing.
- (4) In deciding the amount of costs, the Land Court may have regard to—
- (a) the scale of costs applying to another court; and
 - (b) any other matter the Land Court considers relevant.
- (5) Section 7B applies in relation to an order made under subsection (3).
- (6) In this section—
- perform, a function, includes exercise a power.
- relevant objection means an objection made under—
- (a) the Aboriginal Cultural Heritage Act 2003, section 76 or 111; or

 - (a) for property in relation to which section 133(3) of that Act applies—the trustee has given notice of the disclaimer under section 133(3) of that Act; and
 - (b) an application to a court for an order under section 133(9) of that Act in relation to the property—
 - (i) has not been made; or
 - (ii) has been finally dealt with by the court or withdrawn; and
 - (c) a court has not made an order in relation to the property under section 133(9) of that Act, other than an order vesting the property in the mortgagee.
- (2) Also, this section applies in relation to the mortgaged freehold property of a company that has been disclaimed by a liquidator of the company under the Corporations Act, section 568(1) if—
 - (a) the liquidator has complied with section 568A of that Act in relation to the disclaimer; and
 - (b) the disclaimer is in effect under that Act; and
 - (c) an application to a court under section 568E or 568F of that Act in relation to the property—
 - (i) has not been made; or

- (ii) has been finally dealt with by the court or withdrawn; and
 - (d) a court has not made an order in relation to the property under section 568F(1) of that Act, other than an order vesting the property in the mortgagee.
- (3) The disclaimer does not affect the right of the mortgagee to exercise the mortgagee's power of sale conferred by this Act or otherwise in relation to the property.
- (4) Despite section 84(1), the mortgagee may exercise the mortgagee's power of sale conferred by this Act or otherwise in relation to the property if the mortgagee has given notice, in the approved form, of the mortgagee's intention to exercise the power of sale to—
 - (a) each person who has an interest in the property; and
 - (b) the registrar for recording in the land registry.
- (5) The mortgagee must not exercise the power of sale until 30 days after the last of the notices mentioned in subsection (4) has been given.
- (6) This section does not apply in relation to the exercise of a power of sale conferred on the mortgagee under the Land Act 1994.

insert—

11A Calculating whether amount, value, damage or sum is more than particular monetary limits

- (1) In determining whether the tribunal has original jurisdiction for a matter, the following amounts must not be considered in calculating whether an amount, value, damage or sum claimed, or sought to be recovered, in the matter is more than the monetary limit for the matter—
 - (a) an amount of interest that is payable as of right whether because of a law, agreement or otherwise;
 - (b) an amount of interest that may be awarded by the tribunal, including, for example, an amount of interest that may be awarded under section 14.
- (2) However, this section does not apply in relation to a matter the tribunal may decide under an enabling Act in the first instance if the enabling Act provides that an amount mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) must or may be considered in making the calculation mentioned in subsection (1).

[s 185]

(3) In this section—

monetary limit means—

- (a) for a minor civil dispute—the prescribed amount; or
- (b) for a matter the tribunal may decide under an enabling Act other than a minor civil dispute—an amount that, under the enabling Act, the amount, value, damage or sum claimed, or sought to be recovered, in the matter must not exceed.
