AGENT–GENERAL FOR QUEENSLAND ACT 1975

[reprinted as in force on 6 March 1995]

An Act to provide for the office of Agent-General for Queensland

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Agent-General for Queensland Act 1975.

Application of Act

2. This Act applies in respect of—
 - (a) the person holding the appointment of Agent-General for Queensland at the passing of this Act, who shall be deemed to have been appointed pursuant to and to hold his or her office under this Act; and
 - (b) every person appointed as Agent-General for Queensland at any time after the passing of this Act.

Appointment of Agent-General

3.(1) The Governor in Council may from time to time appoint some person to be Agent-General for Queensland in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(2) In the absence of an Agent-General or in case of the temporary incapacity or absence of the person who is, at the material time, Agent-General, the Governor in Council may appoint some person as Acting Agent-General who, while the person acts in such appointment, shall have the duties and functions of the Agent-General.

Term of service

4. The person appointed to be Agent-General for Queensland or as Acting Agent-General shall, subject to this Act, hold office for a term determined by the Governor in Council in respect of each appointment, and shall be eligible for reappointment.

Termination of service

5. The Governor in Council may at any time, on the ground that the Agent-General for Queensland or Acting Agent-General—

- (a) has been guilty of misbehaviour;
- (b) is incapable of properly discharging his or her duties or functions;
- (c) refuses or neglects to carry out any direction of the Governor in Council given pursuant to this Act;

remove or suspend from office the person who holds the appointment of Agent-General or Acting Agent-General.

Duties and functions

6.(1) The Agent-General for Queensland shall act as representative and resident agent of Queensland in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

(2) The functions of the Agent-General include—

- (a) promotion of the sale of primary products of Queensland;
- (b) promotion of the sale of the products of secondary industries of Queensland and stimulation of interest in the extension of existing industries and the establishment of new secondary industries in Queensland;
- (c) fostering of commercial relations between Queensland and the United Kingdom, Europe and the European Economic Community;
- (d) dissemination of knowledge of and the encouragement of interest in Queensland;
- (e) promotion within the United Kingdom of migration to
