CREDIT ACT 1987

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 8 August 1997]

An Act relating to the provision of credit and the regulation of contracts providing credit, and for related purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Credit Act 1987.

Commencement

2.(1) Section 1 and this section shall commence on the day on which this Act is assented to for and on behalf of Her Majesty.

(2) Except as provided by subsection (1), the several provisions of this Act shall commence on a day or on the respective days appointed by proclamation or successive proclamations.

Application of Act and transitional provisions

5.(1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in or under this Act, this Act applies (despite anything to the contrary in any other Act or law) to and in respect of a contract of sale, credit contract or mortgage—

- (a) if the contract of sale, credit contract or mortgage is in writing and is signed in Queensland by the buyer, debtor or mortgagor; or
- (b) where the contract of sale, credit contract or mortgage is not in writing or is in writing but is not signed by the buyer, debtor or mortgagor in Queensland or in a recognised State—

- (i) in the case of a contract of sale, if the goods or services are, or are to be, delivered or supplied in Queensland; or
- (ii) in the case of a credit contract, if the credit is, or is to be, provided to the debtor in Queensland or the debtor has, or is to have, the use or benefit of the credit in Queensland; or
- (iii) in the case of a mortgage, if property subject to the mortgage is at the date of creation of the mortgage situated in Queensland.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a provision of this Act that relates to a contract of sale, credit contract, mortgage or contract for the hiring of goods does not apply to or in relation to a contract of sale, credit contract, mortgage or contract for the hiring of goods, as the case may be, made before the commencement of the provision.

(3) This Act (except sections 59, 60 and 68(1)(c), Parts 2, 7 and 8 and Part 9, Division 3) applies to and in relation to a continuing credit contract made before the commencement of Part 3 that, if it had been made after that commencement, would have been a continuing credit contract to which that Part applies but nothing in this Act applies to or in relation to a billing cycle that commenced before the commencement of that Part.

(4) Where, because of subsection (3), this Act (except sections 59, 60 and 68(1)(c), Parts 2, 7 and 8 and Part 9, Division 3) applies to and in relation to a continuing credit contract, the credit provider shall, when the credit provider first gives a statement of account referred to in section 62 after the commencement of Part 3 give to the debtor a statement in accordance with section 59 and a notice stating the matters required to be stated in a notice under section 60.

Further transitional and other special provisions

5A. The further transitional and other special provisions set out in Schedule 8 have effect (including retrospective effect) as according to their tenor.

Act binds Crown

6.(1) Except where otherwise expressly provided by this Act, this Act binds the Crown not only in right of Queensland but also, so far as the legislative power of Parliament permits, the Crown in all its other capacities.

(2) This Act applies to and in respect of the Crown in any of its capacities to the same extent as if the Crown were, in that capacity, a body corporate.

Interpretation

7.(1) In this Act—

“acceptable rate of interest”, in relation to a loan contract or a continuing credit contract, means an annual percentage rate that the credit provider agrees to accept so long as the debtor duly observes and performs the terms of the contract.

“account charge”, in relation to a continuing credit contract, means—

- (a) in relation to the period of 12 months after the contract is made—the sum (not exceeding the amount prescribed for the time being or, if no amount is prescribed, $100) of—
 - (i) any amount that, under the contract, is payable by the debtor to the credit provider as the fixed fee or other charge for entering into the contract; and
 - (ii) any amount that, under the contract, is payable by the debtor to the credit provider as the fixed annual fee or other annual charge in respect of that period; or
- (b) in relation to any other period of 12 months—any amount (not exceeding the amount prescribed for the time being or, if no amount is prescribed, $50) that, under the contract, is payable by the debtor to the credit provider as the fixed annual fee or other annual charge in respect of that period.

“accrued credit charge”, in relation to a credit sale contract or a loan contract at a particular time, means—

- (a) the minimum credit charge; or
- (b) the amount of any credit charge which, under the contract, has accrued at that time calculated as provided in section 13;

whichever is the greater.

“actuarial method”, in relation to a calculation for the purposes of a credit

Credit Act 1987

sale contract or a loan contract, means the method under which—

- (a) it is assumed that all payments by the debtor under the contract will be made on the respective dates on which they fall due and that credit will be provided at the time or times determined under the contract; and
- (b) payments by the debtor under the contract are allocated between the amount of the credit charge and the amount financed so that each payment is applied first to the accrued credit charge at the date on which the payment is due and—
 - (i) if the amount of the payment is greater than the amount of the accrued credit charge on the date on which the payment is made—the remaining amount of the payment is applied to the unpaid balance of the amount financed; or
 - (ii) if the amount of the payment is less than the amount of the accrued credit charge on the date on which the payment is made—the amount of the difference between the payment and the accrued credit charge is added to the unpaid balance of the amount financed.

“amount financed” means—

- (a) in relation to a regulated credit sale contract—the sum of the balance of the cash price required to be stated in accordance with Schedule 2, section 1(c) and the total of the amounts required to be stated in accordance with section 1(d) to (i) of that Schedule;
- (b) in relation to any other credit sale contract—the sum of the cash price (less the deposit, if any) and amounts payable under the contract by the debtor to the credit provider that, if the contract were a regulated credit sale contract, would be required to be stated in accordance with Schedule 2, section 1(d) to (i);
- (c) in relation to a regulated loan contract—the sum of the amounts required to be stated in accordance with Schedule 4, section 1;
- (d) in relation to any other loan contract—the sum of the amount agreed under the contract to be lent and amounts payable under the contract by the debtor to the credit provider that, if the contract were a regulated loan contract, would be required to be stated in accordance with Schedule 4, section 1(b) to (f).

the linked credit provider, before becoming aware of the contract of sale or of proposals for the making of the contract of sale (whichever the linked credit provider first became aware of), did not suspect, and could not reasonably have been expected to suspect, that a person entering into such a contract with the supplier might be entitled to claim damages against, or recover a sum of money from, the supplier for misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration as referred to in subsection (1).

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a buyer may in any proceedings set up the liability of a linked credit provider for damages or a sum of money under subsection (1) in diminution or extinction of the buyer's liability upon any claim for damages or a sum of money made by the linked credit provider against the buyer in the proceedings.

- (c) the buyer satisfies the court that the buyer has made reasonable efforts to locate the supplier but has been unable to do so and the court declares that subsections (4) and (8)(a) do not apply in that case.

(6) A reference in subsection (5) to the commencement of winding-up is a reference to commencement of winding-up as determined under the law relating to companies in the place where the body corporate is being wound-up.

(12) In determining whether good cause is shown against allowing or awarding interest under subsection (11) on the whole or part of the damages or sum of money, the court shall take into account any payment made into court by the supplier or linked credit provider, as the case may be.

(13) Where a judgment in respect of a liability arising under subsection (1) in relation to a contract of sale is enforced against a linked credit provider, the linked credit provider is subrogated to the extent of the judgment so enforced to any rights that the buyer would, but for the judgment, have had against any person in respect of the loss or damage suffered by the buyer because of the misrepresentation, breach of contract or failure of consideration in relation to the contract of sale from which the liability arose.

- (ii) where Schedule 6 applies to the credit sale contract or loan contract, the percentage rate per annum determined in accordance with the formula set out in that Schedule; or chargeable amount for the billing cycle in the manner applicable under the contract.

(3) In ascertaining the credit charge in relation to a continuing credit contract made between a credit provider and a debtor, regard shall not be had to any amount by which the amount payable by the credit provider to any supplier of goods or services or of cash to the debtor or to another person under the contract is less than the cash price of the goods or services or the amount of the cash.

Annual percentage rate

56.(1) For the purposes of this Act, a reference to the annual percentage rate in relation to a continuing credit contract is a reference to the percentage rate calculated—

(a) in accordance with the following formula—

$$\mathbf{n = a \times b}$$ where—

“n” is the annual percentage rate to be calculated;

“a” is the percentage rate that, under the contract, is to be applied to the chargeable amount for each billing cycle of the contract to yield the credit charge;

“b” is the number of those billing cycles that would occur during a period of 1 year if the contract were to continue in force for that period; or

(b) in accordance with the following formula—

(4) Subject to subsection (2), a continuing credit contract shall not include more than 1 annual percentage rate in respect of the contract.

(5) Where the annual percentage rate in respect of a continuing credit contract may, at the option of the credit provider, be any rate less than, or not exceeding, an annual percentage rate specified by the credit provider, that specified rate shall, for the purposes of section 50(1)(a) be deemed to be the annual percentage rate in respect of the contract, whether or not the annual percentage rate applied under the contract is a lower rate than that specified rate.

Application of annual percentage rate to billing cycle of less than 1 month

57. A credit provider does not fail to comply with the provisions of this Division relating to the stating of the annual percentage rate in relation to a continuing credit contract or of the credit charge in relation to a billing cycle merely because the credit provider applies a percentage rate under the contract to the whole or part of the chargeable amount to yield the credit charge or part of the credit charge in respect of a billing cycle, the period of which is not less than 24 days, as if the period of that billing cycle were 1 month.

Credit charge in respect of non-business days

58.(1) A credit provider does not fail to comply with the provisions of this Division relating to the application of a period as a billing cycle or the inclusion of a credit charge in a statement of account merely because the credit provider includes in the credit charge in a statement of account for a billing cycle the amount that would be the credit charge in respect of a day that is, or 2 or more days each of which is, a Saturday, a Sunday or a public or bank holiday throughout the State or throughout a recognised State, immediately following the last day of the billing cycle if no other amounts were entered on that day or on those days in the account of the debtor kept by the credit provider.

(2) It is sufficient compliance with subsection (1) if the continuing credit contract was made by the acceptance of an offer in writing by the debtor to the credit provider to enter into the contract (being an offer that includes the matters required to be stated in a notice under subsection (1)) and, before the debtor incurs a debt under the contract, a copy of that offer is given to the debtor for the debtor's own use.

(3) Nothing in this section requires the inclusion in a notice under subsection (1) of a statement that is not, or particulars that are not, applicable to the continuing credit contract.

61.(1) Where, in accordance with a provision in a continuing credit contract, the credit provider exercises a right under the contract to vary the operation of the contract (other than a right exercised at the request of the debtor), the variation does not have effect—

- (a) in the case of a variation that increases the credit charge under the contract, or increases the amount of, or abridges the time for payment of, the amount standing to the debit of the account—until a period that is not shorter than 2 billing cycles has elapsed after notice of the variation has been given to the debtor in writing; or

- (b) in the case of any other variation—until a period of—
 - (i) at least 7 clear days; or of account.

provider to identify the statement of account; and

- (c) the document is given or sent to the credit provider before payment under the contract is due in respect of the statement of account; and

(2) If the credit provider corrects, in a manner that satisfies the query, the amount or other matter in the statement of account relating to the next billing cycle given to the debtor or a subsequent billing cycle, the credit provider may not impose any charge for the provision of credit, or otherwise, in respect of that next billing cycle and any such subsequent billing cycles, relating to the queried amount or other matter, and the imposition of any such charge is void.

Statement of account to be given before proceedings instituted

64. A credit provider shall not institute proceedings for the recovery of an amount owed to the credit provider under a continuing credit contract unless, when giving the required notice under section 108, the credit provider gives the debtor a statement of account under section 62 that includes a request for payment of that amount.

(2) Where a credit provider gives to debtors statements of account that are posted by bulk postage and proceedings are brought against the credit provider for an offence under subsection (1) in respect of a continuing credit contract, proceedings for a like offence under subsection (1) may not be instituted against the credit provider in respect of another continuing credit contract in respect of which a statement of account was posted by the same bulk postage.

- (v) the amount of stamp duty and legal fees payable to a duly qualified legal practitioner (not being the credit provider or an employee of the credit provider) for preparation of the agreement; and
- (vi) the additional amount payable under the contract because of the variation; and
- (vii) such other matters as may be prescribed.

(2) The regulations may prescribe the manner in which matters required by subsection (1)(d) to be specified in an agreement are to be so specified, whether by the use of a prescribed form or otherwise.

(3) The following are the amounts by which the outstanding balance of the amount financed under a credit sale contract or a loan contract may be increased by a variation under subsection (1)—

- (a) where, under the credit sale contract or loan contract, the premium under a contract of insurance or compulsory insurance entered into in relation to the credit sale contract or loan contract or a regulated mortgage relating to the contract was included in the amount financed under the credit sale contract or loan contract—a premium payable under that contract of insurance or compulsory insurance in relation to a subsequent period not exceeding 12 months;
- (b) where, under the credit sale contract or loan contract, registration fees relating to goods and in respect of a particular period were included in the amount financed under the credit sale contract or loan contract—registration fees relating to those goods in respect of a subsequent period;
- (c) such other amounts as may be prescribed.

(4) Where a credit provider enters into an agreement referred to in subsection (1) the credit provider shall, not later than 21 days after the agreement is entered into, give the debtor a copy of the agreement.

(5) Despite any other provisions of this Act, an agreement to vary a contract in accordance with this section is not a loan contract.

(6) Where a variation to which this section applies is made to the terms of a credit sale contract or a loan contract, a guarantor under a contract of guarantee in respect of the obligations of the debtor under the contract is not liable in respect of the contract for an amount exceeding the amount for which, but for the variation, the guarantor would have been liable unless the credit provider, not later than 21 days after the variation was made, gave the guarantor a notice in writing of the variation.

(7) This section does not apply to or in respect of a variation—

- (a) if section 39, 70, 72 or 73 applies to or in respect of the variation; or
- (b) merely because, as a result of a variation, the amount due to a credit provider is satisfied or reduced.

Variation of interest rates of credit sale contracts and loan contracts

72.(1) A credit provider under a credit sale contract or a loan contract shall not vary the annual percentage rate applicable to the contract unless—

- (a) prior to the contract having been entered into, the prescribed notice in writing had been given to the debtor and the guarantor (if any); and
- (b) the contract provides for variation of the annual percentage rate; and
- (c) the prescribed notice in writing is given to the debtor and the guarantor (if any) varying the annual percentage rate applicable to the contract as from the date specified in the notice being not earlier than 14 days after the date of service of the notice upon the debtor and the guarantor (if any).

(2) Notice referred to in subsection (1) shall be given to the debtor and the guarantor (if any) personally or in such other manner as the registrar approves.

Deferral charge payable under credit sale contract or loan contract

73.(1) Where a credit provider and a debtor agree to vary a credit sale contract or a loan contract by the deferral of the payment of an amount payable by the debtor under the contract, the credit provider shall not make a charge in respect of the deferral unless—

- (a) the payment is deferred—
 - (i) in accordance with a term in the contract to the effect that such a payment may be deferred; or
 - (ii) in accordance with the agreement of the credit provider and the debtor; and
- (b) the charge in respect of the deferral does not exceed the amount determined in accordance with subsection (2); and
- (c) a default charge is not made in respect of the deferral; and
- (d) the deferral is made in accordance with subsection (4).

(2) The amount of a charge in respect of the deferral of the payment of an amount payable under a credit sale contract or a loan contract determined in accordance with this subsection is—

- (a) the amount that is the sum of the amount determined by applying to the amount, payment of which is deferred, in respect of the number of days for which it is deferred—
 - (i) where a credit charge is payable under the contract—a rate not exceeding the daily percentage rate that applies to the contract; or
 - (ii) where a credit charge is not payable under the contract—the rate prescribed for the purposes of this section;and the amounts (if any) payable in respect of charges mentioned in subsection (3) in relation to the deferral of the payment; or
- (b) the amount agreed by the credit provider and the debtor as the charge;

whichever is the less.

(3) The charges in relation to the deferral of a payment referred to in subsections (2)(a) and (4)(b) are charges in respect of—

- (a) stamp duty payable in respect of the deferral; and
- (b) fees payable to a duly qualified legal practitioner (not being the credit provider or an employee of the credit provider) authorised to prepare documents for the deferral.

(4) Where a credit provider defers payment of an amount payable under a credit sale contract or a loan contract the deferral is in accordance with this subsection if, not later than 14 days after the credit provider agrees to defer or, where the deferral is made under a term of the contract, the credit provider defers the payment, the credit provider gives notice in writing to the debtor stating—

- (a) the amount of the payment deferred; and
- (b) the amounts (if any) payable in respect of charges mentioned in subsection (3) in relation to the deferral of the payment; and
- (c) the date on which the period for which the payment is deferred expires; and
- (d) the amount of the charge, in dollars and cents; and
- (e) if applicable, the rate applied to the amount, payment of which is deferred in accordance with subsection (2)(a), to determine the amount of the charge.

(5) A credit provider shall not make a charge—

- (a) in respect of the deferral of the payment of an amount payable by the debtor under a credit sale contract or a loan contract, unless the whole or part of the credit charge under the contract is a predetermined credit charge; or
- (b) in respect of the deferral of the payment of an amount payable by the debtor under a regulated continuing credit contract.

(6) Despite anything to the contrary in this Act, the deferral of the payment of an amount payable by a debtor under a credit sale contract or a loan contract in accordance with this section is not a loan contract.

Default charges

74.(1) Where under a credit sale contract or a loan contract the debtor does not pay an amount payable under the contract when it is due, the credit provider shall not make a charge in respect of the failure to pay unless there is a term in the contract to the effect that such a charge may be made and the charge does not exceed—

- (a) the amount determined by applying to the daily balance of the amount due and unpaid—
 - (i) where a credit charge is payable under a contract—the daily percentage rate under the contract; or
 - (ii) where a credit charge is not payable under the contract—the rate prescribed for the purposes of this section; or
- (b) the amount determined by applying to the amount unpaid the rate specified in the contract for the purposes of such a charge;

whichever is the less.

(2) A credit provider shall not make a charge—

- (a) in respect of the failure to pay an amount payable under a credit sale contract or a loan contract when it is due unless the whole or part of the credit charge under the contract is a predetermined credit charge; or
- (b) in respect of the failure to pay an amount payable under a regulated continuing credit contract; or
- (c) in respect of a charge under subsection (1) that is unpaid.

(3) Nothing in this section affects the right of a credit provider to make or require payment of an accrued credit charge, a deferral charge or an enforcement expense.

Variation of credit contracts generally

75. Where the terms of a regulated contract are varied or a regulated contract is discharged in consideration of the debtor entering into another credit contract, whether in a manner referred to in section 39, 70, 71, 72 or 73 or in accordance with a provision in the contract or by agreement between the credit provider and the debtor, the contract as varied shall be deemed to continue to be, or the other contract shall be deemed to be, a regulated contract even though, but for this section, it would not continue to be, or be, a regulated contract.

Division 4—GeneralUnauthorised fees

76.(1) An agreement entered into by a credit provider under which a debtor agrees to pay to, or on behalf of, the credit provider any costs, fees or charges incidental to, or relating to—

- (c) negotiations for the provision of any such credit or for guaranteeing or securing repayment of any such credit;

(2) Any amount that, despite subsection (1), is paid by a debtor to a credit provider in accordance with an agreement referred to in subsection (1) is recoverable by the debtor from the credit provider as a debt.

(3) A credit provider shall not enter into an agreement that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Enforcement expenses

77.(1) A provision in a regulated contract to the effect that where the debtor makes default under the contract and the credit provider exercises a right in relation to the contract arising from the default, the debtor is, if the credit provider so determines, liable to pay to the credit provider an amount incurred or expended in the exercise of that right is void unless the provision limits the amount so payable to the reasonable amount reasonably incurred or expended by the credit provider in the exercise of that right.

(2) A credit provider shall not enter into a contract containing a provision that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Right to revoke offer is paramount

78.(1) A provision in an agreement to the effect that a person does not have a right to revoke an offer to enter into a regulated contract—

- (a) before the offer is accepted; or
- (b) in a case where, at the time of the acceptance, the person could not reasonably be expected to know that the offer had been accepted, before notice is given of the acceptance; or that such a right is restricted or modified, is void.

(2) A credit provider shall not enter into an agreement that includes a provision that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Sufficient statement of annual percentage rate

79. It is sufficient compliance with the provisions of this Part that require the annual percentage rate to be stated in or in relation to a regulated contract under which the whole or any part of the credit charge is a predetermined credit charge if the annual percentage rate is—

- (a) stated as a rate greater than that required to be stated; or
- (b) stated as a rate less than that required to be stated by not more than 1 part in 50 of the rate required to be stated.

Sufficient statement of estimated credit charge

80. It is sufficient compliance with the provisions of this Part that require the estimated credit charge to be stated in or in relation to a regulated contract under which the whole or any part of the credit charge is an estimated credit charge, if the estimated credit charge is—

- (a) stated as a charge less than that required to be stated; or
- (b) stated as a charge greater than that required to be stated by not more than 1 part in 100 of the charge required to be stated.

Liability where discrepancy between credit charge and annual percentage rate

81. Where, under a credit sale contract or a loan contract, the whole of the credit charge is a predetermined credit charge or an estimated credit charge and the amount of the credit charge stated in the contract differs from the amount determined by applying, according to the actuarial method, the annual percentage rate stated in the contract to the amount financed by an amount that exceeds 1% of the amount so stated in the contract, the liability of the debtor under the contract in respect of the credit charge is a liability—

- (a) where the amount so determined is less than the amount so stated—to pay the amount determined by applying the annual percentage rate to the unpaid balance of the amount financed; or
- (b) where the amount so determined exceeds the amount so stated—to pay the amount determined in accordance with the contract as if the annual percentage rate were the rate which, when applied to the unpaid balance of the amount financed, yields an amount equal to the amount so stated.

Assignment of rights by credit provider

82.(1) A credit provider or a mortgagee under a regulated contract or a regulated mortgage shall not assign the person's rights as a credit provider or mortgagee unless the assignment—

- (a) is an assignment made bona fide by way of security in respect of a liability incurred by the assignor; or
- (b) is made with the consent of the registrar or a court.

(2) An application to a court for consent referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall not be made unless the registrar refuses to give consent.

(2A) For the purposes of this section, if the registrar fails to give consent within 30 days of the receipt by the registrar of an application for consent the registrar shall be taken to have refused to give consent.

(2B) An applicant to a court for consent shall immediately give a copy of the application to the registrar who shall be a party at any hearing and entitled to be represented by a duly qualified legal practitioner or a person nominated by the registrar as the registrar's agent.

(2C) A determination by a court under this section is final and without appeal.

(3) Where a mortgage secures payment of a debt or other pecuniary obligation or the performance of any other obligation under a regulated contract and secures other moneys or the performance of any other obligation, subsection (1) does not apply to or in respect of an assignment of rights under the mortgage that do not relate to a regulated contract.

(4) Subject to this section, where a credit provider or a mortgagee assigns the person's rights as a credit provider under a regulated contract or as a mortgagee under a regulated mortgage—

- (a) the debtor or mortgagor and, where there is a guarantee in relation to the contract or mortgage, the guarantor, have under the contract, mortgage or guarantee the same obligations to the assignee as they would have had to the credit provider or mortgagee if the assignment had not been made; and
- (b) subject to subsection (5), the debtor or mortgagor and any such guarantor have and may exercise the same rights in respect of the contract, mortgage or guarantee against the assignee as they have and may exercise against the credit provider or mortgagee.

(5) An assignee under an assignment to which subsection (1) applies of the rights of a credit provider under a regulated contract or of a mortgagee under a mortgage relating to a regulated contract is not liable to the debtor or mortgagor under the contract or mortgage in respect of an amount exceeding the amount due to the assignee under the regulated contract at the date of the assignment.

(6) The rights of a debtor, mortgagor or guarantor referred to in subsection (4)(b) in respect of a regulated contract or a regulated mortgage may not be exercised otherwise than by way of a defence or set off in respect of a claim by the assignee under the regulated contract.

(7) Subject to sections 86 and 87, where a credit provider assigns the whole or any part of the credit provider's rights under a credit sale contract or a loan contract, otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1), the debtor is not liable to pay the amount of the credit charge under the contract.

(8) Subject to sections 86 and 87, where a credit provider assigns the whole or any part of the credit provider's rights under a regulated continuing credit contract otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1), the debtor is not liable to pay the amount of the credit charge for the billing cycle during which the assignment occurred.

(9) Subject to sections 86 and 87, where a credit provider assigns the whole or any part of the credit provider's rights as mortgagee under a regulated mortgage otherwise than in accordance with subsection (1)—

- (a) where the mortgage relates to a credit sale contract or a loan contract—the debtor is not liable to pay the amount of the credit charge under the contract; and
- (b) where the mortgage relates to a regulated continuing credit contract—the debtor is not liable to pay the amount of the credit charge for the billing cycle during which the assignment is made.

(10) This section does not apply to or in respect of an assignment that occurs by operation of law.

Loans to be in money or equivalent

83. Subject to this Act, a credit provider shall not under a regulated loan contract make a payment of an amount to or in accordance with the instructions of the debtor unless the payment—

- (a) is in cash or money's worth; and
- (b) is made in full without deduction of an amount included in the credit charge in respect of the contract.

Application of payments

84. A credit provider shall, unless the credit provider and debtor otherwise agree, apply payments received under a regulated contract—

- (a) in the case of a regulated credit sale contract or a regulated loan contract—
 - (i) firstly in payment of default charges (if any); and
 - (ii) secondly in payment of the accrued credit charge; and
 - (iii) thirdly in payment of deferral charges (if any); and
 - (iv) fourthly in payment of the outstanding balance of the

- amount financed; and
- (v) fifthly in payment of enforcement expenses; and
- (b) in the case of a regulated continuing credit contract—
- (i) firstly in payment of the credit charge; and
 - (ii) secondly in payment of any other amount owed under the contract by the debtor to the credit provider.

Appropriation of payments where more than 1 credit contract

85. A debtor who is liable to make payments in respect of 2 or more regulated contracts to the same credit provider shall, despite any agreement to the contrary, be entitled, on making a payment in respect of the contracts which is not sufficient to discharge the total amount then due under all the contracts, to require the credit provider to appropriate the amount so paid in or towards the satisfaction of the amount due under any 1 or more of the contracts, or in or towards the satisfaction of the amount due under any 2 or more of the contracts in such proportions as the debtor specifies and, if the debtor fails to make such an appropriation, the payment shall, unless the debtor and the credit provider otherwise agree, be appropriated in or towards the satisfaction of the amounts due under the respective contracts in the order in which the contracts were entered into.

Credit provider may apply to court for reduction of loss for contravention of Act

86.(1) Where, because of a contravention of or a failure to comply with this Act by a credit provider, a debtor is not liable to pay to the credit provider under a regulated contract an amount that, but for the contravention or failure the debtor would have been liable to pay under the contract, the credit provider may apply to a court for an order increasing the liability of the debtor to the credit provider.

(2) Where an application is made to a court under this section in relation to a regulated contract, the court, after consideration of the relevant circumstances, including the conduct of the credit provider and the debtor and the loss or damage (if any) suffered by the debtor may, where it is satisfied that the contravention or failure has occurred, determine not to increase the liability of the debtor or determine that the debtor is liable to pay the whole or such part of the credit charge under the contract as it determines.

(3) Where, under this section, a court determines the amount that a debtor is liable to pay after a contravention of or a failure to comply with this Act by a credit provider, the court shall ensure that, in determining that amount, the amount that the debtor would have been liable to pay but for the contravention or failure is reduced by an amount that is not less than the amount of loss or damage (if any) suffered by the debtor because of the contravention or failure.

(3A) Subsection (3) does not apply if the court acts under section 87B(2).

(4) Where, under this section, a court determines the liability of the debtor under a regulated contract in consequence of a contravention of or a failure to comply with this Act by the credit provider, the liability of the debtor to the credit provider under the contract is the liability determined by the court instead of the liability that, but for the determination, the debtor would have had to the credit provider under the contract.

(4A) A court may, when making a determination under this section of the amount that a debtor is liable to pay, give the parties to the proceedings such directions as the court considers appropriate relating to the payment of the amount owed by the debtor or by the credit provider because of the determination.

(4B) A determination made by a court under this section of the liability of a debtor has effect only in respect of the contravention or failure to which the determination relates.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the liability of a person to be convicted of an offence under this Act.

(6) This section is subject to section 87B (Court may direct payment to the Fund).

Stay of civil penalty pending court's decision

86A.(1) When an application is made for a determination under section 86, the civil penalty to which the application relates is stayed pending the disposal of the application by the court.

(2) For the purposes of staying any such civil penalty, the application operates as an interim determination of the court in the terms sought by the applicant pending its disposal by the court.

(3) When the application is disposed of by the court, the interim determination under this section ceases to have effect and (unless a determination in the same terms is made by the court) is taken never to have had effect.

(4) The court may, before disposing of the application give the applicant such directions as it considers appropriate to protect the interests of the debtor concerned, including directions relating to the enforcement of the debtor's obligations under the contract or to the payment of all or any of the amounts concerned into a trust account.

(5) This section does not apply to an application for a determination if—

- (a) the determination cannot be made by the court under section 86; or
- (b) the court excludes the application from the operation of this section because a direction under subsection (4) has not been complied with or for any other reason.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a reference to the disposal of an application includes a reference to the withdrawal of the application by the applicant.

(7) In this section—

“civil penalty” means a penalty which is imposed on a credit provider by the operation of this Act and under which the debtor is not liable to pay to the credit provider an amount otherwise payable under a regulated contract.

General order varying civil penalty

87.(1) Where a credit provider has contravened or failed to comply with this Act in respect of 2 or more regulated contracts, the credit provider may apply to a court for a determination under section 86 and the court, without affecting the liability of a person to be convicted of an offence under this Act—

- (a) may make a determination under section 86 in relation to 1 or more specified regulated contracts; and

- (b) may make a determination under section 86 in relation to all regulated contracts entered into by the credit provider during a specified period; and
- (c) may make a determination under section 86 in relation to all regulated contracts of a specified class entered into by the credit provider during a specified period (for example, all regulated contracts entered into during a specified period which are affected by a specified contravention or failure).

(2) The debtors affected by an application under this section need not be identified in the application.

(2A) However, the court may (if it considers that it is appropriate to do so) decline to deal with the application unless the application is amended to identify the debtors.

(3) The court may authorise notice of an application under this section to be given by the publication of the notice in a newspaper circulating within the State or Australia if the court considers that (because of the number of debtors and other circumstances of the case) it is appropriate to do so.

(4) If the debtors affected by any such application are not identified in the notice, the following information must be included in the notice—

- (a) the name of the credit provider;
- (b) a general description of the regulated contracts concerned;
- (c) the period during which the contracts were entered into;
- (d) the nature of the contraventions or failures to which the application relates.

(5) Each debtor who may be affected by any such application is taken to have been personally served with a notice so published and (despite anything to the contrary in the rules of the court) is not entitled to any other notice of the application.

General order varying civil penalty for minor errors

87A.(1) In this section—

“minor error” means a contravention or failure to comply with this Act which is unlikely to disadvantage the debtors concerned in any significant respect.

(2) If a credit provider makes an application to a court under section 87 and requests the court to deal with the application under this section, the following provisions have effect—

- (a) notice of the application must be served on the registrar but (unless the court otherwise directs) is not required to be served on any other person;
- (b) if the court is satisfied that all the contraventions or failures to which the application relates are minor errors and ought reasonably to be excused—the court may make a determination under section 86 that debtors under all regulated contracts entered into during the period concerned which are affected by those minor errors are liable to pay the whole of the credit charges under those contracts;
- (c) if the court is not so satisfied—the court must direct that notice of the application be given to the debtors concerned, either personally or in accordance with section 87.

Court may direct payment to the Fund

87B.(1) If a court makes a determination mentioned in section 87(1)(a), (b) or (c) because of a contravention of, or failure to comply with, this Act, it may direct that the credit provider must pay into the Fund an amount decided by the court.

(2) However, the direction may be given only if the court is satisfied that—

- (a) the contravention or failure, and the relevant circumstances mentioned in section 86(2), are serious enough to justify the credit provider being penalised; and
- (b) it would be unreasonable (whether because of the number of contracts concerned, the small amount owing to each debtor, or for another reason), to require the credit provider to adjust the debtors' accounts, or to refund amounts to the debtors, to give effect to a reduction in liability that would happen if the credit charges were reduced.

(3) The direction may be given about all or only some of the regulated contracts to which the determination relates.

(4) The court must decide the amount having regard to the number (or estimated number) of the regulated contracts about which the direction is given.

(5) The direction must be included in the court's order under section 86.

Effect of reduction of liability

88. Where under this Act the liability of a debtor to a credit provider is reduced—

- (a) the amount of the reduction shall be set off against amounts that, but for the reduction, would become payable by the debtor to the credit provider; and
- (b) where the amount of the reduction exceeds the amount that the debtor, but for the reduction, would have become liable to pay to the credit provider the amount of the excess is a debt payable by the credit provider to the debtor.

Relief for minor errors

89. In a prosecution for a contravention of section 5(4), 45, 60, 62 or 65 the court may, without proceeding to conviction, dismiss the charge if it is satisfied—

- (a) that the contravention was unlikely to deceive or operate to the disadvantage of a party to the relevant contract; and
- (b) in the case of a contravention of section 5(4), 60 or 65—that the required notice was given within a reasonable time after it should have been given in order to comply with this Act.

PART 4—REGULATED MORTGAGES

Division 1—General

Application of Part

90. In this Part, a reference to a mortgage is a reference to a mortgage given by a person, other than a body corporate, to the extent that it secures the payment of a debt or other pecuniary obligation, or the performance of any other obligation, under a regulated contract.

Obligations under mortgage not to exceed obligations under regulated contract

91.(1) A provision in a mortgage relating to a regulated contract that requires or purports to require or secures or purports to secure payment or performance under the contract by the debtor or by a guarantor of the debtor of a debt or other pecuniary obligation or any other obligation of an amount or to an extent that exceeds the payment or performance—

- (a) the mortgage was entered into by the acceptance of an offer in writing signed by the mortgagor to the mortgagee to enter into the mortgage; or

- (b) the mortgage arose under an agreement in writing or an agreement made by the acceptance of an offer in writing signed by the mortgagor to the mortgagee; or
- (c) the mortgagee lawfully had possession of the goods that are subject to the mortgage before the mortgage was entered into otherwise than merely because of being the supplier of the goods.

Debtor entitled to copy of mortgage

93. Where a mortgage is entered into in relation to a regulated contract, the credit provider shall, if the debtor has not already received a copy of the mortgage, within 21 days after the mortgage is entered into, give to the debtor a copy of the mortgage.

Enforcement expense

94.(1) A provision in a mortgage to the effect that where the mortgagor makes default under the mortgage and the mortgagee exercises a right in relation to the mortgage arising from the default, the mortgagor is, if the mortgagee so determines, liable to pay to the mortgagee an amount incurred or expended in the exercise of that right is void unless the provision limits the amount so payable to the reasonable amount reasonably incurred or expended by the mortgagee in the exercise of that right.

(2) A mortgagee shall not enter into a mortgage containing a provision that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Provision for entry of premises void in certain circumstances

(2) A mortgagee shall not enter into a mortgage that includes a provision that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Order of court required before entry for repossession

96.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a mortgagee shall not enter or authorise a person on the mortgagee's behalf to enter, and a person so authorised shall not enter, upon premises for the purpose of taking possession of goods subject to a mortgage otherwise than in accordance with an order of a court.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply where the mortgagor was aware of the provisions of this section and, before the entry was made, gave the mortgagor's consent to the entry upon the premises for the purpose of taking possession of the goods.

(3) The onus of proving that, because of subsection (2), subsection (1) does not apply is on the person who makes the entry or gives the authority.

(4) A document that is signed by a mortgagor and is to the effect that the mortgagor was aware of the provisions of this section and gave the mortgagor's consent to an entry referred to in subsection (1) is not of itself evidence of that awareness and consent.

Mortgagor may be required to state where goods are

97.(1) A mortgagee may at any time by notice in writing served on the mortgagor require the mortgagor to state in writing where the goods subject to the mortgage are or, if the goods are not in the possession of the mortgagor, the name and address of the person to whom the mortgagor delivered the goods or the circumstances under which the mortgagor lost possession of them.

(2) A mortgagor shall not—

- (a) fail to give to the mortgagee within 14 days after receiving a notice under subsection (1) a statement that complies with the requirement in the notice; or

Court may determine time and place for return of goods

98. A court may, on the application of the mortgagee or mortgagor, determine a time and place at which goods subject to a mortgage may be delivered by the mortgagor to the mortgagee.

Blanket securities over property or assets prohibited

99.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a provision in a mortgage securing an interest relating to the provision of credit to the effect that the mortgagor charges all the mortgagor's property or assets or all the mortgagor's property and assets and that does not specify the property or assets is void.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a provision in a mortgage to the effect that the mortgagor charges only property or assets of a business carried on by the mortgagor.

(3) A mortgagee shall not enter into a mortgage that includes a provision that, because of subsection (1), is void.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Restriction on mortgage of after-acquired property

100.(1) Subject to subsection (2), a provision in a mortgage to the effect that the mortgagor creates or agrees to create a mortgage over or in respect of property that is to be, or may be, acquired by the mortgagor after the mortgage is entered into is void.

(3) Where application is made for an order under this subsection and the court is satisfied that the mortgagor will have a reasonable prospect of being able to remedy the default specified in the notice under section 108 within 12 months after service of notice of the application on the mortgagee, the court may—

- (a) where, at the time the mortgagee was served with notice of the application, the mortgagee had not taken possession of the goods to which the application relates—make an order suspending the power of the mortgagee to take possession of the goods (except under section 107) for such period, expiring not later than 12 months after service on the mortgagee of notice of the application, as is specified in the order; or
- (b) where, at the time the mortgagee was served with notice of the application, the mortgagee had taken possession of the goods but had not sold the goods or otherwise parted with possession of the goods—make an order that the mortgagee restore the goods to the applicant and also make an order referred to in paragraph (a).

(2) Where the court reopens a transaction under subsection (1), the court may, despite any settlement of accounts or any agreement purporting to close previous dealings and create a new obligation, do any 1 or more of the following—

- (a) reopen an account already taken between the parties;
- (b) relieve the debtor or mortgagor and the guarantor (if any) from payment of any amount in excess of such amount as the court, having regard to the risk involved and all other circumstances, considers to be reasonably payable, in the case of a credit sale contract or a loan contract, in respect of the amount financed and the credit charge or, in the case of a continuing credit contract, in respect of the amount owed by the debtor to the credit provider under the contract;

- (c) set aside either wholly or in part or revise or alter an agreement made or mortgage given in connection with the transaction;
- (d) give judgment for or make an order in favour of a party of such amount as, having regard to the relief (if any), which the court thinks fit to grant, is justly due to that party under the contract or mortgage;
- (e) give judgment or make an order against a person for delivery of goods to which the contract or mortgage relates and which are in the possession of that person.

Matters to be considered by court

150.(1) In determining whether a regulated contract or a regulated mortgage is unjust in the circumstances relating to the contract or mortgage at the time it was entered into, the court shall have regard to the public interest and to all the circumstances of the case, including such consequences as those arising in the event of—

- (a) compliance with all or any of the provisions of the contract or mortgage; or
- (b) noncompliance with, or contravention of, all or any of the provisions of the contract or mortgage.

(2) Without affecting the generality of subsection (1), the matters to which the court shall have regard include, to the extent that they are relevant in the circumstances—

- (a) whether or not there was any material inequality in the bargaining powers of the parties to the contract or mortgage; and
- (b) whether or not, at the time the contract or mortgage was entered into, its provisions were the subject of negotiation; and
- (c) whether or not it was reasonably practicable for the applicant to negotiate for the alteration of, or to reject, any of the provisions of the contract or mortgage; and
- (d) whether or not any of the provisions of the contract or mortgage impose conditions that are unreasonably difficult to comply with, or not reasonably necessary for the protection of the legitimate interests of a party to the contract or mortgage; and

- (e) whether or not—
 - (i) the debtor or mortgagor was reasonably able to protect the debtor's or mortgagor's interests; or
 - (ii) a person who represented the debtor or mortgagor was reasonably able to protect the interests of the debtor or mortgagor;

because of the debtor's or mortgagor's age or the state of the debtor's or mortgagor's physical or mental capacity; and

- (f) the form of the contract or mortgage and the intelligibility of the language in which it is expressed; and
- (g) whether or not, and when, independent legal or other expert advice was obtained by the applicant; and
- (h) the extent to which the provisions of the contract or mortgage and their legal and practical effect were accurately explained to the applicant and whether or not the applicant understood those provisions and their effect; and
- (i) whether undue influence, unfair pressure or unfair tactics were exerted on or used against the applicant—
 - (i) by any other party to the contract; or
 - (ii) by any person acting, or appearing or purporting to act, for any other party to the contract or mortgage; or
 - (iii) by any person to the knowledge (at the time the contract was made) of any other party to the contract or mortgage, or of any person acting, or appearing or purporting to act, for any other party to the contract; and
- (j) the conduct of the parties to the proceedings in relation to similar contracts or mortgages, or courses of dealing, to which any of them has been a party; and
- (k) the commercial or other setting, purpose and effect of the contract or mortgage.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a person shall be deemed to have represented a debtor or mortgagor if the person represented the debtor or mortgagor, or assisted the debtor or mortgagor to a significant degree, in negotiations prior to, or at, the time the contract or mortgage was entered into.

(4) In determining whether a contract or mortgage is unjust, the court shall not have regard to any injustice arising from circumstances that were not reasonably foreseeable at the time the contract or mortgage was entered into.

(5) In determining whether to grant relief in respect of a contract or mortgage that it finds to be unjust, the court may have regard to the conduct of the parties to the proceedings in relation to the contract or mortgage since it was entered into.

Joinder of parties

151. Where it appears to the court that a person other than a credit provider or mortgagee has shared in the profits of, or has a beneficial interest prospectively or otherwise in, a regulated contract or regulated mortgage that the court holds to be unjust, the court may join that person as a party to the proceedings and may make such other order in respect of that person as it thinks fit.

Limitation on reopening of transaction

152.(1) Except as provided by subsection (2), a debtor, mortgagor or guarantor may not make an application under section 149 in respect of a regulated contract or regulated mortgage—

(2) If a statement about an insurance commission charge payable in respect of a credit sale contract or a loan contract was included in written information given or shown to the debtor before or at the time that the debtor entered into the contract, section 44 of this Act does not operate (and is taken never to have operated) to relieve the debtor from liability to pay to the credit provider any credit charge under the contract merely because the contract does not include that statement or contains an inaccurate statement about the insurance commission charge.

(3) If—

- (a) an insurance commission charge was payable to the credit provider in respect of a credit sale contract or a loan contract; and
- (b) an insurance commission charge was also payable to a body with a name that is similar to (or a derivative of) the name of the credit provider and a statement about the insurance commission charge payable to that body was included in the contract or in written information referred to in subsection (2);

charge under the contract merely because the contract does not include a statement about the insurance commission charge payable to the credit provider or contains an inaccurate statement about the insurance commission charge.

(4) If the name of an insurer under a contract of insurance entered into in relation to a credit sale contract or loan contract is disclosed in written information given or shown to the debtor before or at the time that the debtor entered into the credit sale contract or loan contract, section 44 of this Act does not operate (and is taken never to have operated) to relieve the debtor from liability to pay to the credit provider any credit charge under the contract merely because the contract does not disclose the name of the insurer or contains an inaccurate statement of the name of the insurer.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the liability of a person to be convicted of an offence under this Act.

(6) This section does not apply to any liability to pay any credit charge which has been determined by a court before the commencement of this section.

(7) In this section, a reference to a statement about any insurance commission charge that is payable in respect of a credit sale contract or loan contract is a reference to a statement—

- (a) which relates to a commission charge for a contract of insurance entered into in connection with the credit sale contract or loan contract; and
