CORPORATIONS (QUEENSLAND) ACT 1990

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 12 September 1997]

An Act to apply certain provisions of laws of the Commonwealth relating to corporations, the securities industries and the futures industry as laws of Queensland and for other purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title and purposes

1.(1) This Act may be cited as the Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990.

(2) The purposes of this Act are—

- (a) to apply certain provisions of the Corporations Act 1989 (Cwlth) and the Australian Securities Commission Act 1989 (Cwlth) and of regulations under those Acts as laws of Queensland; and
- (b) to apply certain other laws of the Commonwealth as laws of Queensland for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of the law relating to corporations, the securities industry, the futures industry and some other matters.

Definitions

3.(1) In this Act—

“applicable provision”, in relation to a jurisdiction, means a provision of—

- (a) the Corporations Law, or Corporations Regulations, of that jurisdiction; or
- (b) the ASC Law, or ASC Regulations, of that jurisdiction; or

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

- (c) in the case of the Capital Territory—a Commonwealth law as applying, of its own force or because of another Commonwealth law, in relation to—
- (i) an offence against; or
 - (ii) an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of;

a provision that, because of any other application or applications of this definition, is an applicable provision of the Capital Territory or any other jurisdiction; or
- (d) in the case of a jurisdiction other than the Capital Territory—a Commonwealth law as applying, because of a law of that jurisdiction, in relation to—
- (i) an offence against; or
 - (ii) an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of;

a provision that, because of any other application or applications of this definition, is an applicable provision of that or any other jurisdiction.

“ASC Act” means the Australian Securities Commission Act 1989 (Cwlth).

“ASC Law” has the meaning given by part 11.

“ASC Law of Queensland” means the provisions applying by reason of section 58.

“ASC Regulations” has the meaning given by part 11.

“ASC Regulations of Queensland” means the provisions applying by reason of section 59.

“authority”, in relation to the Commonwealth, has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act, part 8.

“Capital Territory” means the Australian Capital Territory and the Jervis Bay Territory.

“commission” means the Australian Securities Commission established by the ASC Act.

“Commonwealth administrative laws” means the following—

- (a) the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 (Cwlth);

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

- (b) the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth);
- (c) the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cwlth);
- (d) the Ombudsman Act 1976 (Cwlth);
- (e) the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth);

and the provisions of the regulations in force for the time being under those Acts.

“Commonwealth law” means any of the written or unwritten laws of the Commonwealth, including laws about the exercise of prerogative powers, rights and privileges, other than the Corporations Law of the Capital Territory, the ASC Law of the Capital Territory or provisions prescribed, for the purposes of the definition of “Commonwealth law” in the Corporations Act, section 4, by regulations under the Corporations Act, section 73.

“Commonwealth Minister” has the meaning given to “the Minister” by the Corporations Law, section 80A(2).

“cooperative scheme law” has the meaning given by section 84.

“Corporations Act” means the Corporations Act 1989 (Cwlth).

“Corporations Law” has the meaning given by part 3.

“Corporations Law of Queensland” means the provisions applying by reason of section 7.

“Corporations Regulations” has the meaning given by part 3.

“Corporations Regulations of Queensland” means the provisions applying by reason of section 8.

“corresponding law” means—

- (a) an Act of a jurisdiction (other than Queensland) that corresponds to this Act; or
- (b) regulations made under such an Act; or
- (c) the Corporations Law, Corporations Regulations, ASC Law, or ASC Regulations, or any other applicable provision, of such a jurisdiction; or
- (d) rules of court made because of such an Act.

“Family Court” means the Family Court of Australia.

“Federal Court” means the Federal Court of Australia.

“Full Court”, in relation to a Supreme Court of a State or Territory, includes any court of the State or Territory to which appeals lie from a single judge of that Supreme Court.

“jurisdiction” means a State or the Capital Territory.

“law”, in relation to the Capital Territory, means a law of or in force in the Capital Territory.

“Minister for this jurisdiction” means the Minister for the time being charged with the administration of this Act and includes a Minister who, for the time being, is performing the duties of the Minister.

“modifications” includes additions, omissions and substitutions.

“national scheme law” has the meaning given by section 60.

“national scheme law of this jurisdiction” means—

- (a) this Act; or
- (b) the Corporations Law of Queensland; or
- (c) the ASC Law of Queensland.

“NCSC” means the National Companies and Securities Commission.

“officer”, in relation to the Commonwealth, has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act, part 8.

“State” includes the Northern Territory.

“State Family Court”, in relation to a State, means a court of that State to which the Family Law Act 1975, section 41 (Cwlth) applies because of a proclamation made under section 41(2) of that Act.

“Territory” does not include the Northern Territory.

“this jurisdiction” means Queensland.

(2) In this Act, a reference to a Commonwealth Act includes a reference to—

- (a) that Commonwealth Act as amended and in force for the time being; and
- (b) an Act passed in substitution for that Act.

Australian Capital Territory

4. For the purposes of the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction, the Jervis Bay Territory is taken to be part of the Australian Capital Territory.

This Act and applicable provisions of Queensland not to be affected by later State laws

5.(1) An Act enacted, or an instrument made under an Act, after the commencement of this section is not to be interpreted as amending or repealing, or otherwise altering the effect or operation of, this Act or the applicable provisions of Queensland.

(2) Subsection (1) does not affect the interpretation of an Act, or of an instrument made under an Act, so far as that Act provides expressly for that Act or instrument, as the case may be, to have effect despite a specified provision, or despite any provision, of this Act or the applicable provisions of Queensland.

Operation of other Queensland Laws

6. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, nothing in this Act or the applicable provisions of Queensland affects the operation after the commencement of this section of an Act enacted before that commencement or of an instrument made under such an Act.

PART 2—THE CORPORATIONS LAW, AND THE CORPORATIONS REGULATIONS, OF QUEENSLAND

Application in Queensland of the Corporations Law

7. The Corporations Law set out in the Corporations Act, section 82 as in force for the time being—

- (a) applies as a law of Queensland; and
- (b) as so applying, may be referred to as the Corporations Law of Queensland.

Application of regulations

8.(1) The regulations in force for the time being under the Corporations Act, section 22—

- (a) apply as regulations in force for the purposes of the Corporations Law of Queensland; and
- (b) as so applying, may be referred to as the Corporations Regulations of Queensland.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) of this section, where regulations under the Corporations Act, section 22 take effect from a specified day that is earlier than the day when they are notified in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette under the Acts Interpretation Act 1901, section 48(1) (Cwlth), subsection (1) of this section has effect, and is taken always to have had effect, as if those regulations had taken effect under the Corporations Act from the specified day.

(3) To the extent that a provision of the Corporations Regulations of Queensland is taken because of a particular application of subsection (2) to have effect, or to have had effect, before the day of notification of the regulations referred to in that subsection, the provision does not operate so as to—

- (a) affect a private person's rights as at that day so as to disadvantage that person; or

- (b) impose a liability on a private person in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before that day.

(4) In subsection (3)—

“private person” means a person other than—

- (a) the Commonwealth, a State or the Capital Territory; or
(b) an authority of the Commonwealth, of a State or of the Capital Territory.

(5) Subsection (3) does not affect any other operation that the provision has because of subsection (2) or otherwise.

Interpretation of some expressions in the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland

9. In the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland—

“the Minister for this jurisdiction” means the Minister for the time being charged with the administration of this Act and includes a Minister who, for the time being, is performing the duties of the Minister.

“this jurisdiction” means Queensland.

Interpretation law

10.(1) Subject to the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 1.2, the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (Cwlth) as in force at the commencement of the Corporations Act, section 8, applies as a law of Queensland in relation to the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland and any instrument made, granted or issued under that Law or those regulations (other than application orders under section 111A of that Law) and so applies as if that Law were an Act of the Commonwealth and those regulations or instruments were regulations or instruments made under such an Act.

(2) The Acts Interpretation Act 1954 does not apply in relation to the Corporations Law, or the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland or an application order or any other instrument made, granted or issued under that Law or those regulations.

PART 3—CITING THE CORPORATIONS LAW AND THE CORPORATIONS REGULATIONS

Simpler citation of Corporations Law, and Corporations Regulations, of Queensland

11.(1) The Corporations Law of Queensland may be referred to simply as the Corporations Law.

(2) The Corporations Regulations of Queensland may be referred to simply as the Corporations Regulations.

(3) This section has effect subject to section 13.

References to Corporations Law, and Corporations Regulations, of other jurisdictions

12.(1) This section has effect for the purposes of an Act, a law of Queensland or an instrument made under an Act or under such a law.

(2) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland that corresponds to section 7 of this Act provides that the Corporations Law set out in the Corporations Act, section 82 as in force for the time being applies as law of that jurisdiction, the Corporations Law of that jurisdiction is the Corporations Law so set out, applying as law of that jurisdiction.

(3) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland that corresponds to section 8 of this Act provides that the regulations in force for the time being under the Corporations Act, section 22 apply for the purposes of the Corporations Law of that jurisdiction, the Corporations Regulations of that jurisdiction are those regulations as so applying.

References to Corporations Law and Corporations Regulations

13.(1) The object of this section is to help ensure that the Corporations Law of Queensland operates, so far as possible, as if that Law, together with the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, constituted a single national Corporations Law applying of its own force throughout Australia.

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

(2) Subject to this section, a reference in an instrument to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, is to be taken, for the purposes of the laws of Queensland—

- (a) to be a reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland; and
- (b) to include a separate reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of each jurisdiction other than Queensland.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect except so far as the contrary intention appears in the instrument, or the context of the reference otherwise requires.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a reference expressed as a reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of a jurisdiction.

(5) In this section—

“instrument” means—

- (a) an Act or an instrument made under an Act; or
- (b) a law of Queensland or an instrument made under such a law; or
- (c) an award or other industrial determination or order, or an industrial agreement; or
- (d) any other order (whether executive, judicial or otherwise); or
- (e) a notice, certificate or licence; or
- (f) an agreement; or
- (g) an application made, information laid, affidavit sworn, or warrant issued, for any purpose; or
- (h) an indictment, presentment, summons or writ; or
- (i) any other pleading in, or process issued in connection with, a legal or other proceeding; or
- (j) any other document whatever.

PART 4—APPLICATION OF THE CORPORATIONS LAW TO THE CROWN

Interpretation

14. To avoid doubt, a reference in this part to the Crown in a particular right includes a reference to an instrumentality or agency (whether a body corporate or not) of the Crown in that right.

Corporations Law of Queensland

15.(1) Chapter 5 (except part 5.8) of the Corporations Law of Queensland binds the Crown not only in right of the State of Queensland but also, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the other States, of the Capital Territory, of the Northern Territory and of Norfolk Island.

(2) To avoid doubt, the Corporations Law of Queensland, chapter 7 does not bind the Crown in right of the State of Queensland, of the Commonwealth, of any other State, of the Capital Territory, of the Northern Territory or of Norfolk Island.

Corporations Law of other jurisdictions

16. Chapter 5 (except part 5.8) of the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland binds the Crown in right of the State of Queensland.

Crown not liable to prosecution

17. Nothing in this part, or in the Corporations Law, renders the Crown in any right liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

This part overrides the prerogative

18. Where, because of this part, a provision of a law of another jurisdiction binds the Crown in right of the State of Queensland, the Crown in that right is subject to that provision despite any prerogative right or privilege.

PART 5—APPLICATION ORDERSCommonwealth Minister to obtain consent of State Minister

19. Despite part 1.3 of the Corporations Law of Queensland and section 20 of this Act, the Commonwealth Minister may only make an order under section 111A of that Law, or that section as applying because of section 20 of this Act, with the consent of the Minister for this jurisdiction.

Application orders for ASC Law

20. Part 1.3 of the Corporations Law of Queensland applies for the purposes of the ASC Law of Queensland as if the provisions of the ASC Law of Queensland were provisions of the Corporations Law of Queensland.

PART 6—ACCOUNTING STANDARDSAccounting standards

21. Subject to the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland, the instruments in force for the time being under the Corporations Act, section 32 also have effect for the purposes of parts 3.6 and 3.7 of that Law.

PART 7—IMPOSITION OF FEES AND TAXES

Fees (including taxes) for chargeable matters

22. This section imposes the fees (including fees that are taxes) that the Corporations Regulations of Queensland prescribe.

Contributions and levies for fidelity funds of securities exchanges

23.(1) This section imposes—

- (a) the contribution payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 902(1) by a person who wishes to be admitted to membership of a securities exchange, or to a partnership in a member firm recognised by a securities exchange; and
- (b) the annual contribution payable under section 902(2) of that Law by a member of a securities exchange; and
- (c) any levy payable under section 904 of that Law by a member of a securities exchange.

(2) An expression has in subsection (1) the meaning it would have if this section were in the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 7.9.

Levies for national guarantee fund

24. This section imposes any levy that is payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 938, 940 or 941.

Contributions and levies for fidelity funds of futures organisations

25.(1) This section imposes—

- (a) the contribution payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 1234(1) by a person who wishes to be admitted to membership of a futures organisation; and
- (b) the annual contribution payable under section 1234(2) of that Law by a contributing member of a futures organisation; and

- (c) any levy payable under section 1235 of that Law by a contributing member of a futures organisation.

(2) An expression has in subsection (1) the meaning it would have if this section were in the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 8.6.

PART 8—NATIONAL ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE CORPORATIONS LAW

Division 1—Preliminary

Object

26. The object of this part is to help ensure that—

- (a) the Corporations Law of Queensland, and the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, are administered and enforced on a national basis, in the same way as if those Laws constituted a single law of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the ASC Law of Queensland, and the ASC Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, are administered and enforced on a national basis, in the same way as if those Laws constituted a single law of the Commonwealth.

Effect of part

27.(1) This part has effect subject to this Act (in particular part 9), the Corporations Law of Queensland and the ASC Law of Queensland.

- (2) Nothing in this part limits the generality of anything else in it.

Division 2—Offences against applicable provisionsObject

28.(1) The object of this division is to further the object of this part by providing—

- (a) for an offence against an applicable provision of Queensland to be treated as if it were an offence against a law of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) for an offence against an applicable provision of another jurisdiction to be treated in Queensland as if it were an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.

(2) The purposes for which an offence is to be treated as mentioned in subsection (1) include, for example (but without limitation)—

- (a) the investigation and prosecution of offences; and
- (b) the arrest, custody, bail, trial and conviction of offenders or persons charged with offences; and
- (c) proceedings relating to a matter referred to in paragraph (a) or (b); and
- (d) appeals and review relating to criminal proceedings and to proceedings of the kind referred to in paragraph (c); and
- (e) the sentencing, punishment and release of persons convicted of offences; and
- (f) fines, penalties and forfeitures; and
- (g) liability to make reparation in connection with offences; and
- (h) proceeds of crime; and
- (i) spent convictions.

Application of Commonwealth laws in relation to offences against applicable provisions

29.(1) The Commonwealth laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of Queensland as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of Queensland.

(2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an offence against the applicable provisions of Queensland—

- (a) is taken to be an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) is taken not to be an offence against the laws of Queensland.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

Application of Commonwealth laws in relation to offences against applicable provisions of other jurisdictions

30.(1) The Commonwealth laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of that other jurisdiction.

(2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an offence against the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction—

- (a) is taken to be an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) is taken not to be an offence against the laws of that jurisdiction.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

(4) This section does not require, prohibit, empower, authorise or otherwise provide for, the doing of an act outside Queensland.

Functions and powers conferred on Commonwealth authorities

31.(1) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 29 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of Queensland.

(2) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 30 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an offence against an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of another jurisdiction.

(3) The function or power referred to in subsection (2) may only be performed or exercised in Queensland.

(4) In performing a function or exercising a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2), an officer or authority of the Commonwealth must act as nearly as practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of the Capital Territory.

Reference in Commonwealth law to a provision of another law

32. A reference in a Commonwealth law to a provision of that or another Commonwealth law is taken, for the purposes of section 29 or 30, to be a reference to that provision as applying because of that section.

Restriction of functions and powers of State authorities and officers

33. Where, by reason of this division, a function or power is conferred on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth, that function or power may not be performed or exercised by an officer or authority of the State.

Division 3—Administrative lawObject

34. The object of this division is to further the object of this part by providing that the Commonwealth administrative laws—

- (a) apply to the applicable provisions of Queensland; and
- (b) apply, in Queensland, to the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction;

as if the applicable provisions were those of the Capital Territory.

Application of Commonwealth administrative laws in relation to applicable provisions

35.(1) The Commonwealth administrative laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to any act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of Queensland as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of Queensland.

(2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of Queensland—

- (a) is taken to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) is taken not to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of Queensland.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

Application of Commonwealth administrative laws in relation to applicable provisions of other jurisdictions

36.(1) The Commonwealth administrative laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to any act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of that jurisdiction.

(2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction—

- (a) is taken to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) is taken not to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of that jurisdiction.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

(4) This section does not require, prohibit, empower, authorise or otherwise provide for the doing of an act outside Queensland.

Functions and powers conferred on Commonwealth authorities

37.(1) A Commonwealth administrative law applying because of section 35 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of Queensland.

(2) A Commonwealth administrative law applying because of section 36 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of another jurisdiction.

(3) The function or power referred to in subsection (2) may only be performed or exercised in Queensland.

(4) In performing a function or exercising a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2), an officer or authority of the Commonwealth must act as nearly as practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of the Capital Territory.

Reference in Commonwealth administrative law to a provision of another law

38. A reference in a Commonwealth administrative law to a provision of that or another Commonwealth administrative law is taken for the purposes of section 35 or 36, to be a reference to that provision as applying because of that section.

Restriction of functions and powers of State authorities and officers

39. Where, by reason of this division, a function or power is conferred on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth, that function or power may not be performed or exercised by an officer or authority of the State.

PART 9—JURISDICTION AND PROCEDURE OF COURTS

Division 1—Vesting and cross-vesting of civil jurisdiction

Operation of division

40.(1) This division provides in relation to—

- (a) the jurisdiction of courts in respect of civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland; and
- (b) the jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland in respect of civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory; and so provides to the exclusion of the Jurisdiction of Courts (Cross-vesting) Act 1987.

(2) Nothing in this division affects any other jurisdiction of any court.

Interpretation

41.(1) In this division—

“civil matter” means a matter other than a criminal matter.

“Corporations Law” has the extended meaning given by subsection (2).

“judgment” means a judgment, decree or order, whether final or interlocutory.

“lower court” means a court of a State or Territory that is not a superior court.

“superior court” means the Federal Court of Australia, the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, the Family Court or a State Family Court.

“superior court matter” means a civil matter the Corporations Law clearly intends (for example, by use of “the Court”) to be dealt with only by a superior court.

(2) In this division—

- (a) a reference to the Corporations Law of Queensland includes a reference to—
 - (i) the Corporations Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (ii) the ASC Law of Queensland; and
 - (iii) the ASC Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (iv) any other applicable provisions (as defined in section 3) of Queensland; and
 - (v) this Act; and
 - (vi) regulations made under this Act; and
 - (vii) rules of court made by the Supreme Court of Queensland because of a provision of this Act; and

- (viii) rules of court applied by the Federal Court, or the Family Court, because of a provision of this Act; and
 - (ix) rules of court applied by the Supreme Court of another State, or of the Capital Territory, or a State Family Court of another State, when exercising jurisdiction conferred by this division (including jurisdiction conferred by virtue of any previous application or applications of this subparagraph); and
- (b) a reference to the Corporations Law of another State or of the Capital Territory is a reference to the Corporations Law of that other State or of the Capital Territory within the meaning of the law of that other State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division.

Jurisdiction of Federal Court and State and Territory Supreme Courts

42.(1) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, section 9 (Cwlth), as it applies as a law of Queensland, jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court of Queensland and of each other State and the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred on a Supreme Court by subsection (1) is not limited by any limits to which any other jurisdiction of that Supreme Court may be subject.

(3) Jurisdiction is conferred on the Federal Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

Jurisdiction of Family Court and State Family Courts

42A.(1) Jurisdiction is conferred on the Family Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

(2) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, section 9 (Cwlth), as it applies as a law of Queensland, jurisdiction is conferred on each State Family Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

(3) The jurisdiction conferred on a State Family Court by subsection (2) is not limited by any limits to which any other jurisdiction of the State Family Court may be subject.

Jurisdiction of lower courts

42B.(1) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977, section 9 (Cwlth) as it applies as a law of Queensland, jurisdiction is conferred on the lower courts of Queensland and of each other State and the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters, other than superior court matters, arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

(2) The jurisdiction conferred on a lower court by subsection (1)—

- (a) is subject to the court's general jurisdictional limits, so far as they relate to the amounts, or the value of property, with which the court may deal; but
- (b) is not subject to the court's other jurisdictional limits.

Appeals

43.(1) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court of Queensland to a court of another State or of the Capital Territory or to the Federal Court or to the Family Court.

(2) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of the Federal Court to a court of a State or of the Capital Territory or to the Family Court.

(3) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of the Family Court to a court of a State or of the Capital Territory or to the Federal Court.

(4) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court (not being a State Family Court) of another State to the Federal Court, to the Family Court, to a State Family Court of that State or to a court of a different State or of the Capital Territory.

(5) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court of the Capital Territory to a court of a State or to the Family Court.

(6) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a State Family Court of a State to the Federal Court, to a court of the Capital Territory or of another State, or (except in accordance with the law of the State under which the State Family Court is constituted) to the Supreme Court of that State.

Transfer of proceedings by the Federal Court and State and Territory Supreme Courts

44.(1) This section applies to a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland in a court having jurisdiction under section 42.

(2) Where it appears to the court that, having regard to the interests of justice, it is more appropriate for the proceeding, or an application in the proceeding, to be determined by another court having jurisdiction in the matters for determination in the proceeding or application, the firstmentioned court may transfer the proceeding or application to that other court.

Transfer of proceedings by Family Court and State Family Courts

44A.(1) This section applies to a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland in a court (the “first court”) having jurisdiction under section 42A.

(2) If it appears to the first court that—

- (a) the proceeding arises out of, or is related to, another proceeding pending in the Federal Court, or in another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, and that the court in which the other proceeding is pending is the most appropriate court to determine the firstmentioned proceeding; or
- (b) having regard to—
 - (i) whether, in the first court’s opinion, apart from this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division, the proceeding, or a substantial part of it, would have been incapable of being instituted in the first court; and

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

(ii) the extent to which, in the first court's opinion, the matters for determination in the proceeding are matters not within the first court's jurisdiction apart from this division or such a law; and

(iii) the interests of justice;

the Federal Court, or another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, is the most appropriate court to determine the proceeding; or

(c) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the Federal Court, or another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, determine the proceeding;

the first court must transfer the proceeding to the Federal Court, or to the other court, as the case may be.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), if it appears to the first court that—

(a) the proceeding arises out of, or is related to, another proceeding pending in another court having jurisdiction under section 42A in the matters for determination in the firstmentioned proceeding, and that the other court is the most appropriate court to determine the firstmentioned proceeding; or

(b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the proceeding be determined by another court having jurisdiction under section 42A in the matters for determination in the proceeding;

the first court must transfer the proceeding to the other court.

(4) If—

(a) the first court transfers the proceeding to another court; and

(b) it appears to the first court that—

(i) there is another proceeding pending in the first court that arises out of, or is related to, the firstmentioned proceeding; and

(ii) it is in the interests of justice that the other court also determine the other proceeding;

the first court must also transfer the other proceeding to the other court.

Transfer of proceedings in lower courts

44AA.(1) This section applies to a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland in a lower court (the “first court”) having jurisdiction under section 42B.

(2) If it appears to the first court that, having regard to the interests of justice, it is more appropriate for the proceeding, or an application in the proceeding, to be determined by another court (the “second court”) having jurisdiction in the matters for determination in the proceeding or application, the first court may take action under whichever of subsections (3) and (4) applies.

(3) If the second court is also a lower court, the first court may transfer the proceeding or application to the second court.

(4) If the second court is a superior court, the first court may transfer the proceeding or application to the relevant Supreme Court and recommend that the proceeding or application be transferred by the Supreme Court to the second court.

(5) The relevant Supreme Court is not bound to comply with a recommendation under subsection (4) and it may instead decide—

- (a) to deal with the proceeding or application itself; or
- (b) to transfer the proceeding or application to another court (which could be the first court).

(6) Nothing in this section allows the relevant Supreme Court to transfer the proceeding or application to another court otherwise than under section 44 and the other requirements of this division.

(7) In this section—

“relevant Supreme Court” means the Supreme Court of the State or Territory of which the first court is a court.

Further matters for a court to consider when deciding whether to transfer a proceeding

44B. In deciding whether to transfer under section 44, 44A or 44AA a proceeding or application, a court must have regard to—

- (a) the principal place of business of any body corporate concerned in the proceeding or application; and
- (b) the place or places where the events that are the subject of the proceeding or application took place; or
- (c) the other courts that have jurisdiction to deal with the proceeding or application.

Transfer may be made at any stage

44C. A court may transfer under section 44, 44A or 44AA a proceeding or application—

- (a) on the application of a party made at any stage; or
- (b) of the court's own motion.

Transfer of documents

44D. Where, under section 44, 44A or 44AA, a court transfers a proceeding, or an application in a proceeding, to another court—

- (a) the registrar or other proper officer of the firstmentioned court must transmit to the registrar or other proper officer of the other court all documents filed in the firstmentioned court in respect of the proceeding or application, as the case may be; and
- (b) the other court must proceed as if—
 - (i) the proceeding had been originally instituted in the other court; and
 - (ii) the same proceedings had been taken in the other court as were taken in the firstmentioned court; and
 - (iii) in a case where an application is transferred—the application had been made in the other court.

Conduct of proceedings

45.(1) Subject to sections 51 to 52A, where it appears to a court that, in determining a matter for determination in a proceeding, the court will, or will be likely to, be exercising relevant jurisdiction the rules of evidence and procedure to be applied in dealing with the matter are to be such as the court considers appropriate in the circumstances, being rules that are applied in a superior court in Australia or in an external Territory.

(2) Where a proceeding is transferred or removed to a court (the “transferee court”) from another court (the “transferor court”), the transferee court must deal with the proceeding as if, subject to any order of the transferee court, the steps that had been taken for the purposes of the proceeding in the transferor court (including the making of an order), or similar steps, had been taken in the transferee court.

(3) In this section—

“relevant jurisdiction” means—

- (a) jurisdiction conferred on the Federal Court or the Family Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland; or
- (b) jurisdiction conferred on the Federal Court or the Family Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory, being jurisdiction that is being exercised by the Federal Court or the Family Court, as the case may be, sitting in Queensland; or
- (c) jurisdiction conferred on a court of Queensland with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory; or
- (d) jurisdiction conferred on a court of another State or the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

Courts to act in aid of each other

46. All courts having jurisdiction in civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland and the officers of, or under the control of, those courts must severally act in aid of, and be auxiliary to, each other in all such matters.

Exercise of jurisdiction pursuant to cross-vesting provisions

47. A court of Queensland may—

- (a) exercise jurisdiction (whether original or appellate) conferred on it by a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of that State or Territory; and
- (b) hear and determine a proceeding transferred to it under such a provision.

Rights of appearance

48. A person who is entitled to practise as a barrister or a solicitor, or as both a barrister and a solicitor, in a court has, if a proceeding (the “transferred proceeding”) in that court is transferred to another court under this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory that corresponds to this division, the same entitlements to practise in relation to—

- (a) the transferred proceeding; and
- (b) any other proceeding out of which the transferred proceeding arises or to which the transferred proceeding is related, being another proceeding that is to be determined together with the transferred proceeding;

in the other court that the person would have if the other court were a federal court exercising federal jurisdiction.

Limitation on appeals

49. An appeal does not lie from a decision of a court—

- (a) in relation to the transfer of a proceeding under this division; or
- (b) as to which rules of evidence and procedure are to be applied pursuant to section 45(1).

Enforcement of judgments etc.

50.(1) A judgment of the Federal Court, the Family Court or a court of Queensland that is given, in whole or in part, in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this division, or by a law of another State or the Capital Territory that corresponds to this division, is enforceable in Queensland as if the judgment had been given by that court entirely in the exercise of the jurisdiction of that court apart from this division or any such law.

(2) Where—

- (a) a provision of a law of Queensland (not being a law in relation to the enforcement of judgments) refers to a thing done by the Federal Court, the Family Court, the Supreme Court of Queensland or of another State or of the Capital Territory, a State Family Court or a particular lower court of Queensland or of another State or of the Capital Territory; and
- (b) that thing is done by another court in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division;

the reference in that provision to the Federal Court, the Family Court, the Supreme Court of Queensland or of the other State or Territory, that State Family Court or that lower court, as the case may be, is taken as a reference to that other court.

Rules of court

51.(1) When a lower court of Queensland is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court, with all necessary changes.

(2) When a court of Queensland is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory, and the jurisdiction is conferred by a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court, with all necessary changes.

(3) When a court of another State or the Capital Territory is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, and the jurisdiction is conferred by this division, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court of the State or Territory, with all necessary changes.

(4) In this section—

“Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory” does not include rules of court.

“Corporations Law of Queensland” does not include rules of court.

Rules of the Federal Court

52.(1) When the Federal Court is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, being jurisdiction conferred by this division, that court must apply the rules of court made because of the Corporations Act, section 60, with such alterations as are necessary.

(2) In this section—

“Corporations Law of Queensland” does not include rules of court.

Rules of the Family Court or State Family Court

52A.(1) When the Family Court is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, being jurisdiction conferred by this division, that court must apply the rules of court made because of the Corporations Act, section 61A, with such alterations as are necessary.

(2) When a State Family Court of another State is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, being jurisdiction conferred by this division, that court must apply the rules of court made under the Law of the State corresponding to the Corporations Act, section 61A(1), with such alterations as are necessary.

(3) In this section—

“Corporations Law of Queensland” does not include rules of court.

Division 2—Vesting and cross-vesting of criminal jurisdictionOperation of division

53. This division provides in relation to—

- (a) the jurisdiction of courts in respect of criminal matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland; and
- (b) the jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland in respect of criminal matters arising under the Corporations Law of any jurisdiction.

Interpretation

54.(1) In this division—

“magistrate” means a magistrate who is remunerated by salary or otherwise.

(2) In this division—

- (a) a reference to the Corporations Law of Queensland includes a reference to—
 - (i) the Corporations Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (ii) the ASC Law of Queensland; and
 - (iii) the ASC Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (iv) any other applicable provisions (as defined in section 3) of Queensland; and
 - (v) this Act; and
 - (vi) regulations made under this Act; and
 - (vii) rules of court applied by the Supreme Court of Queensland, and rules of court applied by the Federal Court because of a provision of this Act, and rules of court applied by the Supreme Court of another State, or of the Capital Territory, when exercising jurisdiction conferred by this division (including jurisdiction conferred by virtue of any previous application or applications of this subparagraph); and

- (b) a reference to the Corporations Law of another State or of the Capital Territory is a reference to the Corporations Law of that other State or of the Capital Territory within the meaning of the law of that other State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division.

Jurisdiction of courts

55.(1) Subject to this section, the several courts of each State and the Capital Territory exercising jurisdiction—

- (a) with respect to—
- (i) the summary conviction; or
 - (ii) the examination and commitment for trial on indictment; or
 - (iii) the trial and conviction on indictment; of offenders or persons charged with offences against the laws of the State or Capital Territory, and with respect to—
 - (iv) their sentencing, punishment and release; or
 - (v) their liability to make reparation in connection with their offences; or
 - (vi) the forfeiture of property in connection with their offences;
or
 - (vii) the proceeds of their crimes; and
- (b) with respect to the hearing and determination of—
- (i) proceedings connected with; or
 - (ii) appeals arising out of; or
 - (iii) appeals arising out of proceedings connected with;
any such trial or conviction or any matter of a kind referred to in paragraph (a)(iv), (v), (vi) or (vii);

have the equivalent jurisdiction with respect to offenders or persons charged with offences against the Corporations Law of Queensland.

(2) Where a provision of a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to subsection (1) is expressed to confer jurisdiction with respect to offenders or persons who are charged with offences against the Corporations Law of that State or the Capital Territory upon a court of Queensland, the court may exercise that jurisdiction.

(3) The jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) is not to be exercised with respect to the summary conviction, or examination and commitment for trial, of any person except by a magistrate.

(4) The jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) includes jurisdiction in accordance with provisions of a relevant law of another State or the Capital Territory, and—

- (a) the reference in subsection (1)(b) to “any such trial or conviction” includes a reference to any conviction or sentencing in accordance with the provisions of a relevant law; and
- (b) unless the contrary intention appears, a reference to jurisdiction conferred by subsection (1) includes a reference to such included jurisdiction.

(5) A person may be dealt with in accordance with a relevant law even if, apart from this section, the offence concerned—

- (a) would be required to be prosecuted on indictment; or
- (b) would be required to be prosecuted either summarily or on indictment.

(6) For the purposes of the application of a relevant law as provided by subsection (4)—

- (a) a reference in that law to an indictable offence is taken to include a reference to an offence that may be prosecuted on indictment; and
- (b) in order to determine the sentence that may be imposed on a person by a court pursuant to the relevant law, the person is taken to have been prosecuted and convicted on indictment in that court.

(7) Subject to subsections (9) and (10), the jurisdiction conferred on a court of a State or the Capital Territory by subsection (1) is conferred despite any limits as to locality of the jurisdiction of that court under the law of that State or of the Capital Territory.

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

(8) Subject to subsection (9), the jurisdiction conferred on a court of Queensland by a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to subsection (1) may be exercised despite any limits as to locality of the jurisdiction of that court under the law of Queensland.

(9) Where—

- (a) jurisdiction is conferred on a court of Queensland in relation to the summary conviction of persons charged with offences against the Corporations Law of this or another jurisdiction by subsection (1) or a corresponding provision of a law of another State or of the Capital Territory; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so, having regard to all the circumstances including the public interest;

the court may decline to exercise that jurisdiction in relation to an offence committed in another State or the Capital Territory.

(10) The jurisdiction conferred on a court of another State or the Capital Territory by subsection (1) in relation to—

- (a) the examination and commitment for trial on indictment; and
- (b) the trial and conviction on indictment;

of offenders or persons charged with offences against the Corporations Law of Queensland is conferred only in relation to—

- (c) offences committed outside Australia; and
- (d) offences committed, begun or completed within the State or Territory concerned.

(11) In this section—

“Australia” does not include the coastal sea.

“relevant law” means a law providing that where, in proceedings before a court, a person pleads guilty to a charge for which he or she could be prosecuted on indictment, the person may be committed, to a court having jurisdiction to try offences on indictment, to be sentenced or otherwise dealt with without being tried in that lastmentioned court.

Laws to be applied

56.(1) Subject to this division, the laws of Queensland respecting—

- (a) the arrest and custody in Queensland of offenders or persons charged with offences; and
- (b) criminal procedure in Queensland in relation to such persons;

apply in Queensland, so far as they are applicable, to persons who are charged with offences against the Corporations Law of Queensland or of another State or the Capital Territory in respect of whom jurisdiction is conferred on a court of Queensland by this division or a corresponding law of another State or the Capital Territory.

(2) Subject to this division, the laws of each other State and the Capital Territory respecting—

- (a) the arrest and custody in that State or Territory of offenders or persons charged with offences; and
- (b) criminal procedure in that State or Territory in relation to such persons;

apply in that State or Territory, so far as they are applicable, to persons who are charged with offences against the Corporations Law of Queensland in respect of whom jurisdiction is conferred on a court of that State or Territory by this division.

(3) The application of laws by subsections (1) and (2) is in addition to, and not in derogation from, the application of laws effected by part 8 or the corresponding law of another State or the Capital Territory.

(4) In this section—

“criminal procedure” means the procedure for—

- (a) the summary conviction; and
- (b) the examination and commitment for trial and indictment; and
- (c) the trial and conviction on indictment; and
- (d) the hearing and determination of appeals arising out of any such trial or conviction or out of any related proceedings; of offenders or persons charged with offences, and includes the procedure for holding accused persons to bail.

“laws of each other State and the Capital Territory” means the laws that apply in relation to offenders, or persons charged with offences, against the Corporations Law of the State or Territory concerned.

PART 10—COMPANIES LIQUIDATION ACCOUNT

Companies liquidation account

57.(1) In this section—

“relevant money” means—

- (a) money that, immediately before the commencement of this section, stood to the credit of the companies liquidation account established by the Companies (Queensland) Code, section 428; and
- (b) money that, after the commencement of this section, is paid into the companies liquidation account under provisions of the Companies (Queensland) Code that are taken to continue in force after the commencement of the Corporations Law, chapter 5 for the purposes of windings up started before the commencement of that chapter.

(2) Relevant money is to be dealt with in accordance with the Companies (Queensland) Code, section 427.

PART 11—THE ASC LAW, AND THE ASC REGULATIONS, OF QUEENSLAND

Division 1—Application of ASC Act and ASC Regulations

Application in Queensland of the ASC Act

58.(1) The ASC Act, other than the excluded provisions—

- (a) applies as a law of Queensland; and
- (b) as so applying, may be referred to as the ASC Law of Queensland.

(2) The excluded provisions of the ASC Act are—

- part 1, except section 6A
- part 2
- section 88
- divisions 1 and 4 of part 4
- part 5
- part 6
- division 1 of part 7
- part 8
- part 9
- division 1 of part 10
- division 1 of part 11
- part 12
- part 14
- sections 251 and 252.

Application of regulations

59. The regulations in force for the time being under the ASC Act, section 251—

- (a) apply as regulations in force for the purposes of the ASC Law of Queensland; and
- (b) as so applying, may be referred to as the ASC Regulations of Queensland.

Interpretation of some expressions in the ASC Law, and the ASC Regulations, of Queensland

60.(1) In this part, and in the ASC Law, and the ASC Regulations, of Queensland—

“advisory committee” means the Companies and Securities Advisory Committee established by the ASC Act, section 145.

“affairs”, in relation to a body corporate, has the same meaning as in the Corporations Law, section 260.

“assist”, in relation to a commission delegate, means—

(2) The Acts Interpretation Act 1954 does not apply in relation to the ASC Law, or the ASC Regulations, of Queensland or an application order or any other instrument made, granted or issued under that Law or those regulations.

Division 2—Citing the ASC Law and the ASC Regulations

Alternative citations of the ASC Law, and the ASC Regulations, of Queensland

63.(1) The ASC Law of Queensland may be referred to simply as the ASC Law.

(2) The ASC Regulations of Queensland may be referred to simply as the ASC Regulations.

(3) This section has effect subject to section 65.

References to ASC Law, and ASC Regulations, of another jurisdiction

64.(1) This section has effect for the purposes of an Act, a law of Queensland or an instrument made under an Act or under such a law.

(2) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland contains provisions corresponding of the Corporations Act, sections 5 and 6 and also provides for provisions of the ASC Act to apply as law of that jurisdiction, those provisions of the ASC Act, as so applying, are the ASC Law of that jurisdiction.

(3) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland provides for the regulations in force for the time being of the ASC Act, section 251 to apply for the purposes of the ASC Law of that jurisdiction, those regulations as so applying are the ASC Regulations of that jurisdiction.

References to ASC Law and ASC Regulations

65.(1) The object of this section is to help ensure that, so far as possible—

- (a) the bodies established by the ASC Act and the staff of those bodies, can perform functions and exercise powers; and
- (b) persons can have dealings with those bodies;

as if the ASC Act, the ASC Law of Queensland and the ASC Law of each other State, constituted a single national ASC Law applying of its own force throughout Australia.

(2) Subject to this section, a reference in an instrument to the ASC Law, or to the ASC Regulations, is to be taken, for the purposes of the laws of Queensland—

- (a) to be a reference to the ASC Law, or to the ASC Regulations, of Queensland; and
- (b) to include a separate reference to the ASC Law, or to the ASC Regulations, of each jurisdiction other than Queensland.

(3) Subsection (2) has effect except so far as the contrary intention appears in the instrument, or the context of the reference otherwise requires.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a reference expressed as a reference to the ASC Law, or to the ASC Regulations, of a jurisdiction.

(5) In this section—

“instrument” means—

- (a) an Act or an instrument made under an Act; or
- (b) a law of Queensland or an instrument made under such a law; or
- (c) an award or other industrial determination or order, or an industrial agreement; or
- (d) any other order (whether executive, judicial or otherwise); or
- (e) a notice, certificate or licence; or
- (f) an agreement; or
- (g) an application made, information laid, affidavit sworn, or warrant issued, for any purpose; or
- (h) an indictment, presentment, summons or writ; or
- (i) any other pleading in, or process issued in connection with, a legal or other proceeding; or
- (j) any other document whatever.

Division 3—The commission

Conferral of functions and powers on commission

66.(1) The commission has the functions and powers conferred or expressed to be conferred on it under a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(2) The commission also has the functions and powers conferred or expressed to be conferred upon the NCSC by or under a Code that is a relevant Code for the purposes of the Companies and Securities (Interpretation and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Queensland) Code.

Agreements and arrangements

67.(1) The Minister for this jurisdiction, or a person authorised in writing by that Minister, may enter into an agreement or arrangement with the commission for the performance of functions or the exercise of powers by the commission as an agent of the State.

(2) The commission has such functions and powers as are referred to in such an agreement or arrangement.

Conferral of other functions and powers for purposes of law in Queensland

68. The commission has power to do acts in Queensland in the performance or exercise of any function or power—

- (a) expressed to be conferred on the commission by a national scheme law of another jurisdiction; or
- (b) referred to in an agreement or arrangement made under a provision of an Act of another jurisdiction corresponding to section 67.

Directions by Commonwealth Minister

69.(1) If the Commonwealth Minister—

- (a) has notified the commission in writing that he or she is considering giving a direction under this section; and
- (b) has given the chairperson of the commission an adequate opportunity to discuss with the Commonwealth Minister the need for the proposed direction;

the Commonwealth Minister may give the commission a written direction (not being a direction about a particular case) about policies it should pursue, or priorities it should follow in performing or exercising any of the functions or powers conferred or expressed to be conferred on it under a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(2) The commission must comply with a direction under subsection (1).

(3) A copy of an instrument under subsection (1) must be published in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette within 21 days after the instrument is made but, if a copy is not so published, the instrument's validity is not affected.

Division 4—The panel

Conferral of functions and powers on the panel

70.(1) The panel has the functions and powers conferred on it by or under a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(2) The panel has power to do acts in Queensland in the performance or exercise of any function or power expressed to be conferred on the panel by a national scheme law of another jurisdiction.

Division 5—The disciplinary board

Conferral of functions and powers on the disciplinary board

71.(1) The disciplinary board has the functions and powers conferred on it by or under a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(2) The disciplinary board has power to do acts in Queensland in the performance or exercise of any function or power expressed to be conferred on it by a national scheme law of another jurisdiction.

Division 6—Miscellaneous

Acting appointments

72. Where a person is appointed under the ASC Act to act in a particular office, the law of this jurisdiction applies in relation to that person while acting in that office as if the person were the holder of the office.

Alteration of names and constitutions

73.(1) Where—

- (a) the name of a body established by the ASC Act is changed by law (whether or not the body is incorporated); or
- (b) the name of an office established by that Act is changed by law;

then, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference in—

- (c) any Act of this jurisdiction; or
- (d) any instrument under such an Act; or
- (e) any award or other industrial determination or order or any industrial agreement; or
- (f) any other order (whether executive, judicial or otherwise); or
- (g) any contract; or
- (h) any pleading in, or process issued in connection with, any legal or other proceeding; or
- (i) any other instrument;

to the body or the office under the former name, except in relation to matters that occurred before that change took place, is taken as a reference to the body or the office under the new name.

(2) Where the constitution of a body established by the ASC Act is changed by law (whether or not the body is incorporated), then, unless the contrary intention appears, the alteration does not affect any functions or powers conferred or expressed to be conferred on that body by a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

Application of Commonwealth Crimes Act

74.(1) For the purposes of the ASC Law of Queensland, part 3, the Crimes Act 1914, part 3 (Cwlth) applies as a law of Queensland.

(2) For the purposes of the Crimes Act 1914, part 3 (Cwlth) as applying because of subsection (1), an examination or a hearing is a judicial proceeding.

(3) For the purposes of a national scheme law of Queensland—

- (a) an office under the Crimes Act 1914, part 3 (Cwlth) as applying because of subsection (1) in relation to an examination or hearing, is taken to be an offence against the ASC Law of Queensland, part 3; and
- (b) an offence under the Crimes Act 1914, part 3 (Cwlth) as applying, in relation to an examination or hearing held under the ASC Law of another jurisdiction, as a law of that jurisdiction is taken to be an offence against the ASC Law, part 3 of that jurisdiction.

Application of Commonwealth Evidence Act

75.(1) For the purposes of the ASC Law of Queensland, part 3 the following provisions of the Evidence Act 1995 (Cwlth) apply as a law of Queensland—

- part 2.2 (Documents)
- section 69 (Exception: business records)
- section 70 (Exception: contents of tags, labels and writing)
- section 71 (Exception: telecommunications)
- section 147 (Documents produced by processes, machines and other devices in the course of business)
- part 4.6, division 2.¹

(2) Those provisions of the Evidence Act 1995 (Cwlth) apply to an examination in the same way as they apply to a proceeding to which that Act applies under section 4 of that Act.

¹ Part 4.6, division 2 (Proof of certain matters by affidavits or written statements)

PART 12—GENERAL

Division 1—Arrangements

Definition

76. In this division—

“relevant State law” means—

- (a) a law of the State concerning the management or affairs of a body corporate; or
 - (b) a law of the State concerning fraud or dishonesty; or
 - (c) any other law of the State;
- other than a cooperative scheme law.

Arrangements relating to applicable provisions

77.(1) Where an arrangement between the Minister for this jurisdiction and the Commonwealth Minister provides—

- (a) that an authority or officer of the Commonwealth has certain functions or powers under a relevant State law; or
- (b) that, despite section 33 or 39, an authority or officer of the State has certain functions or powers under an applicable provision of this jurisdiction;

those functions or powers are conferred on that authority or officer.

(2) Functions and powers conferred under an arrangement under subsection (1) are to be performed and exercised in accordance with the arrangement but are to be taken to have been validly performed or exercised despite any failure to comply with any condition or restriction under the arrangement.

Notice of arrangement

78. Notice of each arrangement under section 77 must be published in the government gazette and in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette within 21 days after it is made.

*Division 2—Penalties and finesApplication of penalties and fines

79. All fines, penalties and other money (other than fees and taxes) which, under and by virtue of the applicable provisions of Queensland, are authorised or directed to be imposed on any person must be paid to the Commonwealth.

*Division 3—RegulationsRegulation-making power

80. The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

PART 13—TRANSITIONAL*Division 1—StaffInformation previously acquired

81. A staff member who, before the commencement of this section, was an officer or employee of the public service of Queensland engaged in the administration of a cooperative scheme law may disclose to the commission information acquired while so engaged.

Superannuation

83.(1) This section applies in respect of a member of the commission's staff who—

- (a) is appointed as such under the Public Service Act 1922, section 81B (Cwlth); and
- (b) immediately before the commencement of this section and before that appointment was a State superannuation officer employed in the office of the commissioner for corporate affairs;

whilst that member continues to be a member of the commission's staff.

(1A) This section also applies in respect of a member of the commission's staff who—

- (a) is employed on the commencement of this section by the commission under the ASC Act, section 120(3) as regional commissioner of the commission for Queensland; and
- (b) immediately before the commencement of the employment referred to in paragraph (a), was a State superannuation officer employed in the Department of Justice and Corrective Services.

(2) A commission officer continues to be an officer within the meaning of the State Superannuation Act but ceases to be such an officer if he or she before 1 January 1992 becomes a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme or elects to be a member of the State (public sector) scheme.

(2A) A commission officer who at any time before 1 January 1992 becomes a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme is taken, for the purpose of the application of the State Superannuation Act, to have made an election at that time under section 35(2) of that Act.

(2B) A commission officer referred to in subsection (2A) may by notice in writing to the board within 3 months of becoming a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme but in any case before 1 January 1992 elect to transfer the entitlements in the fund to the administrators of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme, whereupon the amount that would have been credited to the fund had the State Superannuation Act, section 35 applied is to be paid in lieu by the board from the fund to the administrators of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme and the commission officer has no further entitlements under the State Superannuation Act.

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

(3) At any time after officers of the public service of Queensland become eligible to transfer membership from the State Service Superannuation scheme to the State (public sector) scheme, a commission officer who is not a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme may elect, at any time before 1 January 1992, to be a member of the State (public sector) scheme.

(3A) For the purposes of the State (public sector) scheme—

- (a) the commission officer referred to in subsection (3) is taken to be an employee of a unit of the State public sector; and
- (b) contributions payable by the employer in respect of that employee and paid by the commission are to be taken to be paid by the unit of the public sector employing that commission officer.

(3B) Subject to subsection (5), for so long as a person who is a commission officer is a member of the State (public sector) scheme and makes the contributions prescribed under that scheme—

- (a) the commission officer has the same rights as the person would have if he or she had been an employee of a unit of the State public sector during the whole of the period during which the person so contributes; and
- (b) for the purpose of the application of the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990, employment by the commission is to be taken to be employment by a unit of the public sector but the Crown in right of the State is not liable to make any contribution in respect of that employment.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), for so long as a person who is a commission officer continues to be a State superannuation officer and to make the contributions to the fund as prescribed under the State Superannuation Act—

- (a) the commission officer has the same rights as the person would have if he or she had been a State superannuation officer during the whole of the period during which the person so contributes; and

- (b) for the purpose of the application of the State Superannuation Act, employment by the commission is to be taken to be employment by the Crown but the Crown in right of the State is not liable to make any contributions for the period the person is a commission officer.

(5) If the commission fails to pay in full—

- (a) in respect of a commission officer who is a State superannuation officer, the contributions prescribed under the State Superannuation Act to be paid by the Crown in respect of such an officer; or
- (b) in respect of a commission officer who is a member of the State (public sector) scheme, the contributions prescribed under the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990 to be paid by a unit of the State public sector in respect of such an officer;

the method of calculation of the benefits of that commission officer may be varied by order in council made on the recommendation of an actuary appointed for the purposes of the State Superannuation Act or, as the case may be, the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990 to reflect the reduction in the amount of the contributions by the commission but not so as to reduce the benefits accrued by the commission officer prior to the failure to pay.

(6) In this section—

“board” means the State Service Superannuation Board.

“commission officer” means a member of the commission’s staff referred to in subsection (1) or (1A).

“Commonwealth superannuation scheme” means the superannuation scheme established under the Superannuation Act 1990 (Cwlth).

“fund” means the State service superannuation fund.

“State (public sector) scheme” means a scheme within the meaning of the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990.

“State Superannuation Act” means the State Service Superannuation Act 1972.

“State superannuation officer” means an officer within the meaning of the State Superannuation Act.

Division 2—Cooperative scheme lawsCooperative scheme laws

84. For the purposes of this Act, the following are the cooperative scheme laws—

- Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Companies (Queensland) Code
- Companies (Acquisition of Shares) (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Companies (Acquisition of Shares) (Queensland) Code
- Companies and Securities (Interpretation and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Companies and Securities (Interpretation and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Queensland) Code
- Securities Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Securities Industry (Queensland) Code
- Futures Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1986
- Futures Industry (Queensland) Code.

National scheme laws prevail over cooperative scheme laws

85.(1) This section provides for the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction to supersede the cooperative scheme laws, which are to continue to operate of their own force only in relation to—

- (a) matters arising before the commencement of this section; and
- (b) matters arising, directly or indirectly, out of such matters;

in so far as the national scheme laws do not deal with those matters.

(2) Where a cooperative scheme law is inconsistent with a national scheme law of this jurisdiction, the national scheme law prevails and, to the extent of the inconsistency, the cooperative scheme law does not operate.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a cooperative scheme law is inconsistent with a national scheme law if it would be inconsistent within the meaning of section 109 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia if the national scheme law were an Act of the Commonwealth.

Regulations may exclude residual operation of cooperative scheme laws

86.(1) Regulations under section 80 may provide that prescribed provisions of cooperative scheme laws do not operate, either generally or as otherwise prescribed by the regulations.

(2) Regulations in force because of subsection (1) have effect accordingly.

Effect of ss 85–86

87.(1) To the extent that a cooperative scheme law ceases to operate because of section 85 or 86, the law is taken for the purposes of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 to have been repealed by this Act.

(2) Nothing in this Act revives, or otherwise affects the exclusion of, the provisions referred to in the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 18(1) or the Securities Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 16(1).

Regulations may modify cooperative scheme laws

88.(1) Regulations under section 80 may provide that a specified cooperative scheme law, or specified provisions of a cooperative scheme law, has or have effect with such modifications as the regulations prescribe.

(2) Regulations in force because of subsection (1) have effect accordingly, even if, because of section 85 or 86, the specified law does not operate of its own force, or the specified provisions do not operate of their own force, as the case requires.

(3) However, a reference in section 85(2) to a cooperative scheme law includes a reference to such a law as it has effect, or to provisions of such a law as they have effect, because of this section.

Cooperative scheme laws not affected by certain Commonwealth regulations

89. The operation or effect of a cooperative scheme law is not modified or otherwise affected because regulations of a kind referred to in the Corporations Act, section 77 or 79 modify or otherwise affect the operation of a Cooperative Scheme Act within the meaning of the Corporations Act, part 12.

References to cooperative scheme laws and regulations

90.(1) In this section—

“Code regulations” means provisions applying as regulations made under a Code by reason of a provision of an Act that is a cooperative scheme law.

“instrument” has the same meaning as in section 13, but does not include—

- (a) a cooperative scheme law; or
- (b) regulations under an Act that is such a law, or under this Act; or
- (c) Code regulations; or
- (d) a national scheme law of this jurisdiction, or the Corporations Regulations, or ASC Regulations, of Queensland.

(2) Subject to subsection (4) and to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to a cooperative scheme law is to be taken to include a reference to such provisions of the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction as correspond to provisions of the cooperative scheme law.

(3) Subject to subsection (4) and to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to Code regulations is to be taken to include a reference to such provisions of the Corporations Regulations, or ASC Regulations, of Queensland as correspond to provisions of the Code regulations.

(4) Subject to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to a provision of a cooperative scheme law or of Code regulations is to be taken to include a reference to the corresponding provision of a national scheme law of this jurisdiction or of the Corporations Regulations, or ASC Regulations, of Queensland, as the case may be.

(5) Subject to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to the NCSC is to be taken to include a reference to the commission.

(6) Regulations under section 80 may declare that, for the purposes of this section—

- (a) prescribed provisions of national scheme laws of this jurisdiction correspond to prescribed provisions of cooperative scheme laws; and
- (b) prescribed provisions of the Corporations Regulations, or ASC Regulations, correspond to prescribed provisions of Code regulations.

(7) Regulations under section 80—

- (a) may declare that subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) of this section does not apply in relation to prescribed references in prescribed instruments; or
- (b) may declare that subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) of this section has effect in relation to prescribed references in prescribed instruments as if, in the subsection, the words ‘be taken to be’ were substituted for the words ‘be taken to include’.

(8) Regulations in force because of subsection (6) or (7) have effect accordingly.

Conferral of functions and powers in relation to cooperative scheme laws

91.(1) The Commonwealth director of public prosecutions—

- (a) has the same enforcement powers in relation to the cooperative scheme laws as has the director of prosecutions of Queensland; and

Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

- (b) may, in relation to an offence against a cooperative scheme law, perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on the director of public prosecutions by the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1983 (Cwlth) in relation to offences against the laws of the Commonwealth as if the offence against the cooperative scheme law were an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(2) The Australian Federal Police—

- (a) have the same enforcement powers in relation to the cooperative scheme laws as has the Police Service of Queensland; and
- (b) may, in relation to an offence against a cooperative scheme law, perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on the Australian Federal Police in relation to offences against the laws of the Commonwealth as if the offence against the cooperative scheme law were an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(3) The Commonwealth Minister has, in respect of the prosecution of offences against the cooperative scheme laws, the same functions and powers as he or she has in respect of the prosecution of offences against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(4) For the purposes of the exercise of enforcement powers, and other functions and powers conferred by this section, including the obtaining of warrants to arrest, an offence against a cooperative scheme law is taken to be an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(5) In this section—

“enforcement power” means a function or power relating to—

- (a) the investigation of an offence; or
- (b) the arrest and custody of persons charged with an offence; or
- (c) the institution and carrying on of a prosecution of an offence; or
- (d) matters relating to such an investigation, arrest, custody or prosecution.

Arrangements affecting exercise of investigation powers by State authorities and officers

92.(1) Where an arrangement between the Minister for this jurisdiction and the Commonwealth Minister makes provision in relation to the exercise by a State authority or officer of enforcement powers within the meaning of section 91 in relation to the cooperative scheme laws—

- (a) the State authority or officer is authorised to act in accordance with that arrangement; and
- (b) the State authority or officer must not exercise an enforcement power except in accordance with that arrangement; and
- (c) the exercise of, or failure to exercise, an enforcement power by a State authority or officer is to be taken to have been validly performed or withheld, despite any failure to comply with any conditions in the arrangement.

(2) Notice of each arrangement under subsection (1) must be published in the government gazette and in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette within 21 days after it is made.

Division 3—ExemptionsExempt bodies

93. Each of the following is an exempt body in relation to Queensland for the purposes of the Corporations Law of Queensland—

- (a) a cooperative within the meaning of the Cooperatives Act 1997, schedule 8, dictionary, definition “cooperative”;
- (b) a building society or foreign building society within the meaning of the Building Societies Act 1985;
- (c) a society within the meaning of the Cooperative Housing Societies Act 1958;
- (e) an association, society, institution or body incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981;

- (f) a credit society, a foreign credit society, an association of credit societies or a union of associations of credit societies registered under the Credit Societies Act 1986;
- (g) a friendly society or foreign friendly society within the meaning of the Friendly Societies Act 1991.

Exemptions from pt 7.12

94.(1) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, a company was, because of the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 16(1), exempt from complying with provisions of the Companies (Queensland) Code, part 4, division 6, the company is taken to be exempt from complying with the corresponding provisions of the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 7.12, divisions 2 and 5.

(2) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, a right or interest was, because of the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 16(3), an exempt right or interest for the purposes of the Companies (Queensland) Code, part 4, division 6, that right or interest is taken to be exempt from complying with the corresponding provisions of the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 7.12, divisions 2 and 5.

(3) A company, right or interest to which subsection (1) or (2) applies ceases to be an exempt company, right or interest if the Governor in Council makes regulations under this Act declaring that it so ceases.

Division 4—Australian Stock Exchange Limited

Saving of provisions about Australian Stock Exchange Limited

95.(1) Section 85 does not apply in relation to the Securities Industry (Queensland) Code, part 2A.

(2) Part 2A has effect, as provided in this section, despite the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction.

(3) A reference in part 2A to a relevant Code, except in relation to a time before the commencement of this section, is taken to be a reference to a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a reference in part 2A to a particular cooperative scheme law, except in relation to a time before that commencement, is taken to be a reference to such provisions of the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction as correspond to provisions of that law.

(5) A reference in part 2A to a provision of a cooperative scheme law (other than a provision of part 2A itself), except in relation to a time before that commencement, is taken to be a reference to the corresponding provision of a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

(6) Regulations in force because of section 90(6) also have effect for the purposes of this section.

Division 5—Companies Auditors and Liquidators Disciplinary Board

Board to continue in existence for certain purposes

96. The Companies Auditors and Liquidators Disciplinary Board established under the Companies (Administration) Act 1981, part 3 may perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on it under the Companies (Queensland) Code, part 2, division 2 in respect of applications made to it under subdivision B of that division before the commencement of this section.

Division 6—Application and saving provisions relating to amendments to this Act

Interpretation

96A. In this division—

“Court” means the Federal Court or the Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

“jurisdiction amendments” means the amendments made by the Corporations (Queensland) Amendment Act 1995, sections 4 to 17.

“jurisdiction commencement” means the commencement of the jurisdiction amendments.

Application of jurisdiction amendments—general

96B. The jurisdiction amendments apply to proceedings commenced, or recommenced, after the jurisdiction commencement, whether the cause of action arose before or after that commencement.

Effect of decision that court did not have jurisdiction

96C.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) before the jurisdiction commencement, proceedings in respect of a civil matter under the Corporations Law of Queensland were commenced in a court (the “first court”) other than the Court; and
- (b) the first court, or another court on appeal from a decision of the first court, decided before the jurisdiction commencement that the first court did not have jurisdiction in respect of the matter; and
- (c) the decision that the first court did not have jurisdiction still stands at the jurisdiction commencement; and
- (d) the first court would have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter if the jurisdiction amendments had commenced before the cause of action arose.

(2) The validity of the decision that the first court did not have jurisdiction is not affected by the jurisdiction amendments.

(3) The decision does not affect a recommencement of the proceedings after the jurisdiction commencement.

Effect of absence of decision that court did not have jurisdiction

96D.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) before the jurisdiction commencement, proceedings in respect of a civil matter under the Corporations Law of Queensland were commenced in a court (the “first court”) other than the Court; and

(b) either—

- (i) no court expressly decided, before the jurisdiction commencement, whether the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter; or
- (ii) a decision of the first court, or of another court on appeal from a decision of the first court, that the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter still stands at the jurisdiction commencement.

(2) For the purposes of consideration by a court, after the jurisdiction commencement, of whether the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter, the first court is taken to have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter if it would have had that jurisdiction if the jurisdiction amendments had commenced before the cause of action arose.

PART 14—PROVISIONS AFFECTING CORPORATIONS LAW

Certain transfers by companies not to constitute reduction of share capital

97. Where land under the provisions of the Real Property Act 1861 is comprised in—

- (a) a building units plan registered under the Building Units Titles Act 1965; or
- (b) a group titles plan registered under the Group Titles Act 1973; or
- (c) a building units plan or a group titles plan registered under the Building Units and Group Titles Act 1980; and at the time of registration of the plan the registered proprietor of that land was a company, the transfer by the company of any lot in the building units plan or group titles plan in exchange for or in satisfaction of a right of a kind referred to in the Corporations Law, section 195(13) does not of itself constitute, and is to be taken never to have constituted, a reduction of the share capital of the company.
