PART 4—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS AND GUARANTEES

Carrying out of financial arrangements and other arrangements

23.(1) The Corporation may charge any persons under financial arrangements or other arrangements undertaken for their benefit or on their behalf and may, on its own account or for their benefit or on their behalf pay for the purchase of any output or other product resulting as a consequence of or in connection with the entering into of any such arrangements.

(2) The Corporation may empower an affiliate to enter, as principal, into any transaction or arrangement related to financial arrangements or other arrangements in the same way as the Corporation itself may have done.

Queensland Treasury Corporation Act 1988

(3) For the purpose of performing financial arrangements or other arrangements entered into by it the Corporation may, for the purpose to which the financial arrangements or other arrangements are directed, take land within the meaning of the Acquisition of Land Act 1967 or an easement in respect of land within the meaning of that Act.

(4) Any such taking shall be under and subject to the Acquisition of Land Act 1967 and the purpose of such taking shall be deemed to be a purpose specified in Schedule 2 of that Act which the Corporation, as a constructing authority within the meaning of that Act, may lawfully carry out.

(5) For the purpose for which the Corporation is authorised by subsection (3) to take land the Corporation may—

- (a) as a constructing authority within the meaning of the Acquisition of Land Act 1967, request the Governor in Council to exercise the powers conferred on the Governor in Council by section 5(3) of that Act;
- (b) request the Governor in Council to resume on its behalf land held from the Crown for an estate or interest less than fee simple, not being a lease, licence or permit within the meaning of the Land Act 1994, or an easement in respect of such land under and subject to the Act under which such land is held from the Crown.

(6) If the Act referred to in subsection (5)(b) does not provide for resumption of land held under it or of an easement in respect of such land, the Land Act 1994, chapter 5, part 3 applies as if the land were a lease, licence or permit within the meaning of that Act and, if those provisions are considered by the Governor in Council to be inadequate for the purpose, additional or other provisions may be prescribed by regulation for such resumption and matters connected therewith and the provisions so prescribed shall apply according to their tenor.

(7) Where the Governor in Council resumes land under a request referred to in subsection (5) the Governor in Council may grant the land to the Corporation for an estate in fee simple under the Land Act 1994 subject to such reservations, trusts, terms and conditions as the Governor in Council thinks fit.

(8) The Corporation, an affiliate and each other party to financial arrangements or other arrangements may do all things authorised or required by the financial arrangements or other arrangements to be done by them respectively and all things incidental thereto and may also do such things as are necessary or convenient to be done for the purposes of carrying into effect and implementing the terms of any financial arrangement or other arrangement.

Provisions of financial arrangements and other arrangements

24.(1) Financial arrangements and other arrangements may contain absolute and unconditional covenants, undertakings, promises, guarantees or indemnities, which may include but are not limited to—

- (a) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the Corporation or an affiliate to pay for, or to make payments calculated by reference to output or other product, or the prospect of obtaining output or other product, whether or not that output or other product is at any relevant time, produced or delivered or capable of being produced or delivered; and
- (b) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the Corporation or an affiliate to purchase, and pay for, any property in the events or circumstances specified in the financial arrangements or other arrangements; and
- (c) absolute and unconditional covenants or promises by the Corporation or an affiliate to make or procure loans (at interest or otherwise) in the events or circumstances specified in the financial arrangements or other arrangements and failing this to make payments not less than the amount that would have been lent; and
- (d) guarantees and indemnities to secure payment of moneys to a person; or any of them.

(2) A covenant or promise referred to in subsection (1)(a) may contain an obligation to make payment in advance.

(3) Where the Corporation, in any financial arrangement or other arrangement, makes a covenant or promise or gives an undertaking, guarantee or indemnity to make any payment irrespective of any event or circumstance which otherwise would or might at law terminate, or permit termination of, the arrangements or excuse compliance with, or performance of, or provide a defence to, any proceedings to enforce the covenant, promise, undertaking, guarantee or indemnity, the covenant, promise, undertaking, guarantee or indemnity shall operate and be enforceable in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(4) Financial arrangements or other arrangements may contain a provision that the arrangements shall not be terminated on account of any matter or thing referred to in the financial arrangements or other arrangements and shall be enforceable notwithstanding any such matter or thing, being or including (without limiting the generality of the foregoing) any default, event of force majeure or other event which would or might at law otherwise terminate, or permit termination of the arrangements or excuse compliance with, or performance of, or provide a defence to, any proceedings to enforce the arrangements, and where any financial arrangements or other arrangements so provide the provision—

(a) shall operate in accordance with its terms so that the financial arrangements or other arrangements shall not be capable of being terminated except by express agreement between the parties or in the events or circumstances expressly provided for in the financial arrangements or other arrangements; and

(b) shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms;

notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(5) Financial arrangements or other arrangements may include an express waiver by the Corporation of its immunity (if any) under any Act or rule of law from proceedings, either in whole or in part, and any such waiver shall operate in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(6) Financial arrangements or other arrangements may provide that the ownership of specified buildings, structures or fixtures, product or output of the land shall not vest in the owner of the land on which they are situated, that those buildings, structures, or fixtures, product or output are not realty and shall be transferable in accordance with the provisions of that or any other financial arrangements or other arrangements to another person and that any such provision shall operate in accordance with its terms notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

Powers to execute charges etc. relating to financial arrangements and other arrangements

25.(1) For the purpose of performing financial arrangements and other arrangements to be entered into by or on behalf of the Corporation the Corporation may—

- (a) execute such mortgages, bills of sale, charges, liens and other encumbrances over any of the property of the Corporation or provide such other security as the Corporation thinks fit;
- (b) execute such other agreements including sale agreements, purchase agreements, building contracts, call and put options, leases and management and operating agreements as the Corporation thinks fit;
- (c) charge any of its income and revenue from whatever source arising.

(2) No mortgage, bill of sale, charge, lien, other encumbrance, security or agreement referred to in subsection (1) and sections 6(3) and (4) shall operate to prevent the Corporation from dealing with its income and revenue or other property, as the case may be, in the ordinary course of performance of its powers, authorities, duties or functions under this or any other Act or in such manner as may be expressly permitted under the mortgage, bill of sale, charge, lien, other encumbrance, security or agreement.

Partnerships etc.

26.(1) Where the Treasurer is satisfied that a partnership, joint venture or other association has been formed principally for purposes connected with the purposes of financial arrangements or other arrangements entered into by the Corporation, the Governor in Council may declare that this subsection applies to the partnership, joint venture or association, and thenceforth the following provisions have effect—

- (a) the partnership, joint venture or association shall not, throughout the period from the date of its formation until the date that is 6 months after the date of its formation or, where some other date is prescribed, the prescribed date, be dissolved by reason of any person becoming a member of the partnership, joint venture or association;

- (b) the partnership, joint venture or association shall, as from the expiration of that period, be deemed to have consisted, throughout that period, of those persons who, at the expiration of that period, are members of the partnership, joint venture or association, in accordance with the interest of each of those members at the expiration of that period, but not so as to affect the liability of any person who ceased to be a member of the partnership during that period.

(2) Where the Treasurer recommends to the Governor in Council that a partnership, joint venture or association consisting of more than 20 persons has been formed principally for purposes connected with the purposes of financial arrangements or other arrangements entered into by the Corporation, the Governor in Council may declare that this subsection applies to the partnership, joint venture or association, and thenceforth the following provisions have effect—

- (a) without limiting any other Act applicable to the partnership, joint venture or association, the partnership, joint venture or association shall be deemed to be and always to have been formed under this Act;
- (b) the partnership, joint venture or association is, accordingly, not prohibited by the Corporations Law, section 112(1).

Notice of trusts not to be received

27. Unless the Corporation otherwise expressly agrees in writing in a particular case, the Corporation and persons acting on its behalf—

- (a) shall not receive and shall be deemed to have not received notice of any trust (express, implied or constructive) in relation to any financial arrangements entered into by the Corporation; and
- (b) shall not be bound to see to the execution of any trust that may affect such financial arrangements.

Investment with Corporation to be authorised investment

28. Unless expressly forbidden by the instrument (if any) creating the trust, an investment by a trustee of trust funds in the provision of money or other financial accommodation to the Corporation under financial arrangements is taken to be a way in which the trustee may invest trust funds under the Trusts Act 1973, section 21(1).

Inscribed stock issued by Corporation

29.(1) All inscribed stock of the Corporation in respect of a borrowing or raising of money by it—

- (a) shall be issued in such series, at such times and places in or outside Queensland and in such manner as the Corporation thinks fit;
- (b) shall bear interest at such rate or rates (if any) and be redeemable at such date or dates and at such place or places in or outside Queensland as advised by the Corporation;
- (c) may, with the consent of the registered owner, be paid off at any time prior to the due date thereof at not more than the amount of the principal remaining unpaid at the time or, at the discretion of the Corporation, at a premium with interest thereon to the date of payment only;
- (d) shall, other than inscribed stock to which section 6(4) applies, rank pari passu one with the other unless the Corporation otherwise expressly determines in respect of particular inscribed stock.

(2) Unless the Corporation otherwise expressly provides in respect of particular inscribed stock, no inscribed stock of the Corporation in respect of a borrowing or raising of money by it other than inscribed stock to which section 6(4) applies shall entitle the registered owner to any charge or other security in respect of any of the income, revenue or any other assets of the Corporation.

(3) In the case of an application to purchase inscribed stock—

- (a) the Corporation may require the applicant to lodge with the applicant's application, as security, all or part of the purchase consideration; and

- (b) where an application is accepted—the inscribed stock issued pursuant thereto shall bear interest at the rate or rates advised in accordance with this section on the amount lodged as security from the date of lodgment; and
- (c) where an application is not accepted—the Corporation shall forthwith refund any amount lodged as security, together with such amount of interest as the Corporation considers appropriate, to the payer thereof or as the payer directs.

Priority of charges

30.(1) Where the Corporation has created a charge over its income and revenue as security for an obligation or liability entered into by it, that charge shall rank pari passu one with the other with all other charges created by it over its income and revenue except to the extent that the first mentioned charge expressly provides that it shall rank with such other charges in some other manner, in which event the charges shall rank as so provided.

(2) Where the Corporation has executed a mortgage, bill of sale, charge, lien or other encumbrance over any of its property (other than its income and revenue) such mortgage, bill of sale, charge, lien and other encumbrance shall rank in relation to the property over which it is secured in accordance with its terms and as provided by law and, in a case to which the provisions of subsection (1) is relevant, notwithstanding those provisions.

Substitution and consolidation of securities

31.(1) In this section—

“security” means a debenture, bond, stock or other security.

“statutory body” means a statutory body other than the Corporation.

(2) Without limiting the generality of its powers, the Corporation may—

- (a) hold, deal with, cancel, consolidate, re-issue or dispose of securities of the Corporation; and

- (b) hold, deal with or dispose of securities of a statutory body; and
- (c) issue securities of the Corporation in substitution for a security or consolidation of securities of a statutory body.

(3) Where as a consequence of the exercise of its powers under this section the Corporation holds or acquires a security in respect of which the Treasurer has guaranteed under any Act the due performance of any obligation in respect of that security, the Treasurer's guarantee shall cease to be of any effect for such time and only for such time as such security is held by the Corporation.

(4) If the holder of a security requests and the Corporation agrees to substitute for that security a security issued by the Corporation, the holder shall transfer to the Corporation such security and shall be entitled to be issued by the Corporation with a security evidencing, according to its terms, a financial arrangement between the Corporation and the holder.

(5) A security issued by the Corporation under subsection (4) shall provide for such rate or rates of interest (if any), such maturity date or dates and such other terms and conditions as are determined by the Corporation and in the absence of such a determination by the Corporation—

- (a) shall provide for the same terms and conditions as the security transferred to the Corporation;
- (b) shall be taken to express the terms of a financial arrangement made between the Corporation and the holder or holders thereof and shall be enforceable against the Corporation.

(6) On the issue of a security under subsection (4) a financial arrangement shall thereby be created between the Corporation and the statutory body whose security has been replaced by the security given by the Corporation on the same terms and conditions as existed between the statutory body and the holder of a security transferred to the Corporation and the financial arrangement shall take such form as is nominated by the Corporation.

(7) The Corporation and the statutory body referred to in subsection (6) are hereby empowered to enter into the financial arrangement referred to in subsection (6) and such financial arrangement shall be enforceable against the statutory body.

Statutory guarantee

32. The due repayment of principal on inscribed stock issued in accordance with this Act and, where payable, the due payment of interest relating to the inscribed stock are guaranteed by the Treasurer, on behalf of the Government.

Discretionary guarantees

33.(1) The Treasurer, on behalf of the Government, may guarantee, subject to and in accordance with the approval of the Governor in Council, the due payment of all or part of the moneys from time to time payable and the due performance of any other obligations undertaken in accordance with financial arrangements or other arrangements entered into by the Corporation.

(2) A guarantee under subsection (1) may be given—

- (a) by way of an instrument of guarantee; or
- (b) by way of an order in council; or
- (c) in such other form or manner as the Treasurer thinks fit.

(3) Where a guarantee is given by way of an order in council, the order shall specify the terms and conditions to which the guarantee shall be subject, the guarantee shall become effective upon the publication of the order in the Gazette or on such later date as is specified in the order as the date on which the guarantee is to become effective and the Treasurer shall be deemed to thereby guarantee the due payment of the moneys or the due performance of any other obligations to which the order relates.

(4) Notwithstanding that a guarantee has been given by way of an order in council the Treasurer may in addition give the Treasurer's guarantee by way of an instrument of guarantee or in such other form or manner as the Treasurer thinks fit and a guarantee so given shall take effect according to its terms.

(5) The Treasurer may, in giving a guarantee under this section, do all things necessary or incidental to the granting of that guarantee.

(6) A guarantee may contain provisions that the guarantee shall continue to be enforceable notwithstanding any event which would or might at law otherwise terminate, or permit termination of the guarantee or excuse compliance with, or performance of, or provide a defence to any enforcement of the guarantee and where any guarantee so provides the provision shall operate in accordance with its terms so that the guarantee shall not be capable of being terminated except by express agreement between the parties or in the events or circumstances expressly provided for in the guarantee.

(7) A guarantee given under this section may include an express waiver by the Treasurer of the Treasurer's immunity (if any) under any Act or rule of law from proceedings, either in whole or in part, and any such waiver shall operate in accordance with its terms, notwithstanding any Act or rule of law to the contrary.

(8) The Treasurer may, by writing, delegate to any person the authority to execute an instrument of guarantee on the Treasurer's behalf.

(9) For the purposes of this Part—

“guarantee” when used as a noun includes indemnity and when used as a verb includes indemnify.

Appropriation

34. All moneys payable by the Treasurer under a guarantee given under either section 32 or 33 shall be a charge upon and be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, which is to the extent necessary appropriated accordingly.

Requirement for security

35.(1) Without limiting the power of the Treasurer with respect to the terms and conditions to which the Treasurer's guarantee may be subject, the Treasurer may require a person with whom the Corporation has entered into or desires to enter into any financial arrangements or other arrangements to take security of a description specified in the guarantee.

(2) If a person required to take security under subsection (1)—

- (a) fails to take security of the description specified;
- (b) having taken such security, releases in whole or in part that security without the Treasurer's consent in writing first had and obtained;

- (c) having taken such security, waives any right or remedy thereby secured to the person without the Treasurer's consent in writing first had and obtained;

the guarantee in connection with which the security was required shall be void and shall be deemed to have been void ab initio.

Protection of investors

36.(1) A person who enters into financial arrangements with the Corporation shall not be bound to inquire into the application of money, credit or other financial accommodation provided by the person and the person shall not be held responsible in any way for the non-application or misapplication thereof.

(2) When a person enters into any financial arrangement or other arrangement of any kind with the Corporation and there is issued any document, writing, contract, security, deed, or other instrument which appears on its face to be duly issued and executed by a person authorised by this Act, the first mentioned person shall not be bound to inquire whether the financial arrangement or other arrangement was in fact duly authorised or within the power of the Corporation and the issue of such document, writing, security, instrument or deed shall be conclusive evidence in favour of all persons that the Corporation was empowered to enter into the financial arrangement or other arrangement and that approval was duly given to the financial arrangement or other arrangement and that the financial arrangement or other arrangement complies with this Act.

Fees and commissions

37.(1) The Corporation may charge any statutory body or any person any commissions, fees or charges in respect of the entering into of financial arrangements or otherwise carrying out its functions under this Act.

(2) The Corporation may pay moneys by way of commission or fees in respect of the entering into of financial arrangements or otherwise carrying out its functions, notwithstanding any Act to the contrary.
