INTERACTIVE GAMBLING (PLAYER PROTECTION) ACT 1998

[reprinted as in force on 6 November 1998]

An Act to regulate interactive gambling and for other purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Division 1—Formal provisions

Short title

1. This Act may be cited as the Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act 1998.

Commencement

2. This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Division 2—Objects

Objects

3. The objects of this Act are—

- (a) to regulate and control gambling (“interactive gambling”) accessible from the home involving interactive games in which the players participate by means of the internet or through some other telecommunication medium; and
- (b) to provide protection for players of interactive games; and

1998*

- (c) to provide a basis for implementing an inter-jurisdictional regulatory scheme for—
 - (i) the reciprocal recognition between participating jurisdictions of licences, authorisations and other administrative acts; and
 - (ii) the regulation and control of interactive gambling in the participating jurisdictions on a cooperative basis; and
 - (iii) the sharing of tax derived from interactive gambling on an equitable basis.

Division 3—Basic concepts and definitions

Meaning of “game”

4. A “game” includes a scheme or arrangement.

Meaning of “player”

5. A “player” is a person who participates in an interactive game.

Meaning of “interactive game”

- 6.(1) An “interactive game” is a game in which—
- (a) a prize consisting of money or something else of value is offered or can be won under the rules of the game; and
 - (b) a player—
 - (i) enters the game or takes any step in the game by means of a telecommunication device; and
 - (ii) gives, or undertakes to give, a monetary payment or other valuable consideration to enter, in the course of, or for, the game; and
 - (c) the winner of a prize is decided—
 - (i) wholly or partly by chance; or
 - (ii) by a competition or other activity in which the outcome is

Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act 1998

wholly or partly dependent on the player's skill.

(2) However, the following are not interactive games—

- (a) wagering being conducted under the Racing and Betting Act 1980 or the Wagering Act 1998 at the commencement of this section if a person for placing a wager for the wagering places it by means of the telecommunication device used in conducting the wagering;
- (b) a game authorised, or eligible to be authorised, as an art union under the Art Unions Act 1992, or a game that is an exempt art union as defined in that Act, unless the game is declared by a regulation made under subsection (3) to be an interactive game despite this exclusion;
- (c) a game authorised under a gaming Act in which the players may participate by means of telecommunication devices but only from designated commercial sites connected to a telecommunication network.

(3) A game that would, but for the exclusion in subsection (2)(b), be an interactive game is taken to be an interactive game despite the exclusion if—

- (a) having regard to the nature, value, or frequency of prizes offered in the game and other matters the Minister considers relevant, the Minister considers the game should be brought within the ambit of this Act; and
- (b) a regulation is made, on the Minister's recommendation, declaring the game to be an interactive game despite the exclusion.

Dictionary

7. The dictionary in schedule 3 defines particular words used in this Act.

Division 4—Territorial application

Territorial application of this Act

8.(1) This Act applies both within and outside Queensland.

*Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act
1998*

(2) This Act applies outside Queensland to the full extent of the extraterritorial legislative power of the Parliament.

PART 2—INTERACTIVE GAMBLING

Division 1—The cooperative scheme

General features of the regulatory scheme

9.(1) This Act contemplates a cooperative scheme between Queensland and other jurisdictions for the regulation and control of interactive gambling.

(2) However, this Act is not dependent on participation by any other jurisdiction in the regulatory scheme.

(3) The regulation and control of interactive gambling is to be achieved through a statutory scheme consisting of this Act and the corresponding laws of participating jurisdictions for the licensing and control of persons who conduct, or exercise an important role in the conduct of, interactive games.

Declaration of participating jurisdictions and corresponding law

10.(1) If the Minister is satisfied the law of another jurisdiction is compatible with this Act, the Governor in Council may, on the Minister's recommendation, declare—

- (a) the other jurisdiction is to be regarded under this Act as a participating jurisdiction; and
- (b) the relevant law of the other jurisdiction (including the law as amended or substituted from time to time) is to be regarded as a corresponding law.

(2) However, a declaration is not to be made under this section unless the Minister has entered into an agreement (an “intergovernmental agreement”) with the prospective participating regulator that makes, in the

1998*

Minister's opinion, adequate provision for the following matters—

- (a) the taxation of authorised games on a uniform or consistent basis;
- (b) collaboration between gaming officials and officers of the other jurisdiction engaged in the administration of the relevant law of the other jurisdiction;
- (c) mutual recognition of licences and administrative acts between jurisdictions;
- (d) sharing of tax revenue derived from interactive gambling on an equitable basis.

(3) If the Minister considers the law of a participating jurisdiction is no longer compatible with this Act, or the intergovernmental agreement with the participating jurisdiction is not operating satisfactorily, the Governor in Council may, on the Minister's recommendation, declare—

- (a) the other jurisdiction is, as from a specified date, no longer to be regarded as a participating jurisdiction; and
- (b) the relevant law of the other jurisdiction is, as from a specified date, no longer to be regarded as a corresponding law.

(4) A declaration under this section is to be made by regulation.

Division 2—Authorised providers and authorised games

Meaning of “licensed provider”, “external provider” and “authorised provider”

11.(1) A “licensed provider” means a person who is licensed under this Act to conduct interactive games.

(2) An “external provider” is a person who is licensed under the corresponding law of a participating jurisdiction to conduct interactive games.

(3) An “authorised provider” is a person who is licensed under this Act, or under the corresponding law of a participating jurisdiction, to conduct interactive games.

Meaning of “authorised game”

12.(1) An “authorised game” is an interactive game that—

- (a) a licensed provider is authorised to conduct under this division; or
- (b) an external provider is authorised to conduct under the corresponding law of the participating jurisdiction in which the provider is licensed.

(2) However, a game that an external provider is authorised to conduct under a corresponding law (an “externally authorised game”) is not to be regarded as an authorised game if the external provider is prohibited from conducting the game in Queensland by order under subsection (3).

(3) If the Minister believes the conduct of an externally authorised game in Queensland is contrary to the public interest, the Minister may, by written notice given to the external provider authorised under the corresponding law to conduct the game, prohibit conduct of the game in Queensland.

(4) The Minister may only impose a prohibition under subsection (3) after giving the external provider and the relevant participating regulator written notice of the proposed prohibition and the reasons for it and allowing each of them a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

(5) If the Minister imposes a prohibition under subsection (3) the Minister must promptly give the relevant participating regulator a copy of the notice imposing the prohibition.

Authorisation to conduct interactive games

13.(1) The Minister may, on application by a licensed provider, authorise the provider to conduct a particular interactive game on conditions stated in the instrument of approval.

(2) The conditions of authorisation apply to the conduct of the game both within and outside Queensland.

(3) The Minister has an absolute discretion to refuse to authorise an interactive game for which the Minister’s authorisation is sought.

(4) If the Minister decides to refuse an application, the Minister must promptly give the applicant written notice of the decision and the reasons for it.

Change to conditions of authorisation

14.(1) The Minister may, by written notice given to a licensed provider, change the conditions on which a particular interactive game is authorised if the Minister is of the opinion—

- (a) the conditions are not stringent enough to prevent cheating or other contravention of this Act; or
- (b) compliance with the conditions cannot be effectively monitored or enforced; or
- (c) there is some other good reason to change the conditions.

(2) However, the Minister may only change the conditions of an authorisation under this section after giving the licensed provider written notice of the proposed change of conditions and the reasons for it and allowing the licensed provider a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

Revocation of authorisation

15.(1) The Minister may, by written notice given to a licensed provider, revoke the authorisation for a particular interactive game if the Minister is of the opinion—

- (a) the licensed provider has contravened a condition of the authorisation; or
- (b) compliance with the conditions of the authorisation cannot be effectively monitored or enforced; or
- (c) there is some other good reason to revoke the authorisation.

(2) However, the Minister may only revoke an authorisation under this section after giving the licensed provider written notice of the proposed revocation and the reasons for it and allowing the licensed provider a reasonable opportunity to make representations.

Penalty for conduct of, or participation in, unauthorised interactive gambling

16.(1) A person must not conduct an interactive game wholly or partly in

Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act 1998

- (b) the person is authorised under this Act or a corresponding law to conduct the game.

(2) A person in Queensland must not participate in, or encourage or facilitate participation by another in, an interactive game knowing that the game is not an authorised game.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Procedure for registration

18.(1) An authorised provider (or agent) may only register a person as a player on receipt of an application for registration in an approved form.

(2) A person is not eligible for registration as a player unless the person produces evidence of a kind required by the chief executive—

- (a) of the person's—
 - (i) identity; and

Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act 1998

- (ii) place of residence; and
- (b) that the person is at least 18 years of age.

(3) Before registering a person as a player, an authorised provider or agent must verify the place of residence of the applicant under procedures approved by the chief executive.

*Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act

Approval of exemption scheme

25.(1) The Minister may approve an exemption scheme if the Minister is satisfied, on application by a licensed provider or an applicant for an interactive gambling licence—

- (a) the exemption scheme complies with the criteria for approval of exemption schemes; and
- (b) the approval of the exemption scheme is warranted in the circumstances of the particular case.

Examples—

1. The Minister may consider an exemption scheme warranted if the interactive games are to be conducted by or for the benefit of a charity and the proceeds are to be devoted to charitable purposes.

2. The Minister may consider an exemption scheme warranted if a game authorised under another Act involves interactive elements (and therefore falls within the definition of an interactive game) but is to be substantially conducted under the other Act.

(2) An exemption scheme complies with the criteria for approval of exemption schemes if (and only if) the Minister is satisfied—

- (a) the standards of probity required under this Act for providers of interactive games and those involved in the conduct of interactive games will not be compromised by the approval of the scheme; and
- (b) adequate and appropriate safeguards will exist to ensure the fairness of the interactive games to be conducted under the scheme and to protect the interests of players; and
- (c) adequate and appropriate safeguards will exist to prevent participation in the interactive games to be conducted under the scheme by minors; and
- (d) the scheme provides for other adequate and appropriate safeguards to ensure that the public interest is not affected in an adverse and material way by the conduct of interactive games under the scheme.

(3) For this Act, a game authorised under an approved exemption scheme is an authorised game.

Cancellation of approval

26.(1) The Minister may, by written notice to an exempted provider, cancel the approval of an exemption scheme if the Minister is of the opinion the scheme no longer complies with the criteria for approval of exemption schemes.

(2) However, if a condition of an interactive gambling licence is designated in the licence as a condition that may be changed only by agreement between the Minister and the licensed provider, the condition may be changed only by agreement between those persons.

(3) If the Minister decides to change conditions of an interactive gambling licence under this section, the Minister must promptly give the licensed provider written notice of the change (a “condition notice”) and the reasons for the change.

(4) The power of the Minister under subsection (1) includes the power to add conditions to an unconditional licence.

*Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act

Interactive gambling licence not to be transferable

41.(1) An interactive gambling licence cannot be transferred.

Mortgage and assignment of interactive gambling licence

42.(1) A licensed provider must not mortgage, charge or otherwise encumber the licence except with the written approval of the Minister.

(2) If a person has a right to sell and transfer an interactive gambling licence under or because of a mortgage, charge or encumbrance, the licence may only be sold and transferred to a person approved by the Minister.

(3) Before the Minister approves the transfer of an interactive gambling licence under this section, the Minister must be satisfied that—

- (a) the proposed transferee is a suitable person to hold an interactive gambling licence; and
- (b) each business and executive associate of the proposed transferee is a suitable person to be associated with a licensed provider's operations.

(4) The Minister may require the proposed transferee of an interactive gambling licence to submit an application for the licence and may deal with the application, and investigate the suitability of the proposed transferee and the proposed transferee's business and executive associates, in the same way as if the application were an application for a new interactive gambling licence.

(5) If a person has under, or because of, a mortgage, charge or encumbrance a power to appoint a receiver or manager of the business conducted under an interactive gambling licence, the power may only be exercised if the Minister first approves the proposed receiver or manager in writing.

(3) For forming the belief that the ground mentioned in subsection (1)(b) exists, the Minister may have regard to the same matters to which the Minister may have regard in deciding whether a business or executive associate of an applicant is a suitable person to be associated with a licensed provider's operations.

(5) If the occupier signs a consent acknowledgment, the inspector must promptly give a copy to the occupier.

Evidence of consent

199.(1) Subsection (2) applies if—

- (a) an issue arises in a court proceeding whether the occupier of a place consented to an inspector entering the place under this part; and
- (b) a consent acknowledgment is not produced in evidence for the entry; and

*Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act

Application for warrant

200.(1) An inspector may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for a place.

(2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the inspector gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

Example—

The magistrate may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration.

Issue of warrant

201.(1) The magistrate may issue a warrant only if the magistrate is satisfied there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—

- (a) there is a particular thing or activity (the “evidence”) that may provide evidence of an offence against this Act or a corresponding law; and
- (b) the evidence is at the place, or may be at the place, within the next 7 days.

(2) The warrant must state—

- (a) that a stated inspector may, with necessary and reasonable help and force, enter the place and exercise the inspector’s powers under this part; and
- (b) the offence for which the warrant is sought; and
- (c) the evidence that may be seized under the warrant; and
- (d) the hours of the day or night when the place may be entered; and
- (e) the date, within 14 days after the warrant’s issue, the warrant ends.

(2) Before applying for the warrant, the inspector must prepare an application stating the grounds on which the warrant is sought.

(3) The inspector may apply for the warrant before the application is sworn.

(4) After issuing the warrant, the magistrate must promptly fax a copy to the inspector if it is reasonably practicable to fax the copy.

(5) If it is not reasonably practicable to fax a copy to the inspector—

- (a) the magistrate must tell the inspector—
 - (i) what the terms of the warrant are; and
 - (ii) the date and time the warrant was issued; and
- (b) the inspector must complete a form of warrant (a “warrant form”) and write on it—
 - (i) the magistrate’s name; and
 - (ii) the date and time the magistrate issued the warrant; and
 - (iii) the terms of the warrant.

(6) The facsimile warrant, or the warrant form properly completed by the inspector, authorises the entry and the exercise of the other powers stated in the warrant issued by the magistrate.

(7) The inspector must, at the first reasonable opportunity, send to the magistrate—

- (a) the sworn application; and
- (b) if the inspector completed a warrant form—the completed warrant form.

1998*

(8) On receiving the documents, the magistrate must attach them to the warrant.

- (a) an issue arises in a court proceeding whether a power exercised by an inspector was not authorised by a special warrant; and
- (b) the warrant is not produced in evidence.

(2) The court must presume the exercise of the power was not authorised by a special warrant, unless the contrary is proved.

Subdivision 4—General powers

General powers after entering places

(2) However, if an inspector enters a place to get the occupier's consent to enter premises, this section applies to the inspector only if the consent is given or the entry is otherwise authorised.

(3) For monitoring or enforcing compliance with this Act or a corresponding law, the inspector may—

- (a) search any part of the place; or

206.(1) A person of whom a requirement is made under section 204(3)(h) must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Subdivision 5—Power to seize evidence

Seizing evidence at place that may be entered without consent or warrant

207. An inspector who enters a place that may be entered under this part without the consent of the occupier and without a warrant, may seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act or a corresponding law.

Seizing evidence at places that may only be entered with consent or warrant

208.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the inspector is only authorised to enter the place under this part with the consent of the occupier or a warrant; and
- (b) the inspector enters the place after obtaining the necessary consent or warrant.

(2) If the inspector enters the place with the occupier's consent, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if—

- (a) the inspector reasonably believes the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act or a corresponding law; and
- (b) seizure of the thing is consistent with the purpose of entry as told to the occupier when asking for the occupier's consent.

(3) If the inspector enters the place with a warrant, the inspector may seize the evidence for which the warrant was issued.

(4) The inspector may also seize anything else at the place if the inspector reasonably believes—

- (a) the thing is evidence of an offence against this Act or a corresponding law; and
- (b) the seizure is necessary to prevent the thing being—
 - (i) hidden, lost or destroyed; or
 - (ii) used to continue, or repeat, the offence.

(5) Also, the inspector may seize a thing at the place if the inspector reasonably believes it is being, has been, or is about to be, used in committing an offence against this Act or a corresponding law.

Securing things after seizure

209. Having seized a thing, an inspector may—

- (a) move the thing from the place where it was seized (the “place of seizure”); or
- (b) leave the thing at the place of seizure but take reasonable action to restrict access to it.

Examples of restricting access to a thing—

1. Sealing a thing and marking it to show access to it is restricted.
2. Sealing the entrance to a room where the thing is situated and marking it to show access to it is restricted.

Tampering with things subject to seizure

210. If an inspector restricts access to a thing subject to seizure, a person must not tamper, or attempt to tamper, with the thing, or something restricting access to the thing, without an inspector’s approval.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Powers to support seizure

211.(1) To enable a thing to be seized, an inspector may require the person in control of it—

- (a) to take it to a stated reasonable place by a stated reasonable time; and
- (b) if necessary, to remain in control of it at the stated place for a reasonable time.

(2) The requirement—

- (a) must be made by notice in the approved form; or

Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act 1998

- (b) if for any reason it is not practicable to give the notice, may be made orally and confirmed by notice in the approved form as soon as practicable.

(3) A person of whom a requirement is made must comply with the requirement, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(4) A further requirement may be made under this section about the same thing if it is necessary and reasonable to make the further requirement.

Receipts to be given on seizure

212.(1) As soon as practicable after an inspector seizes a thing, the inspector must give a receipt for it to the person from whom it was seized.

(2) However, if for any reason it is not practicable to comply with subsection (1), the inspector must leave the receipt at the place of seizure in a conspicuous position and in a reasonably secure way.

(3) The receipt must describe generally each thing seized and its condition.

(4) This section does not apply to a thing if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the receipt (given the thing's nature, condition and value).

Forfeiture

213.(1) A thing that has been seized under this part is forfeited to the State if the inspector who seized the thing—

- (a) cannot find its owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or

*Interactive Gambling (Player Protection) Act

(3) If the inspector decides to forfeit a thing under subsection (1)(c), the inspector must tell the owner of the decision by written notice.

(4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—

- (a) the inspector cannot find the owner, after making reasonable inquiries; or
- (b) it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to give the notice.

(5) The notice must state—

 - (i) whether it is reasonable to make inquiries or efforts; and
 - (ii) if making inquiries or efforts—what inquiries or efforts are reasonable; or
- (b) in deciding whether it would be unreasonable to give notice about a thing.

Return of things that have been seized

214.(1) If a thing has been seized but not forfeited, the inspector must return it to its owner—

- (a) at the end of 6 months; or

1998*

- (b) if a proceeding for an offence involving the thing is started within 6 months—at the end of the proceeding and any appeal from the proceeding.

(2) Despite subsection (1), unless the thing has been forfeited, the inspector must promptly return a thing seized as evidence to its owner if the inspector stops being satisfied its continued retention as evidence is necessary.

Access to things that have been seized

215.(1) Until a thing that has been seized is forfeited or returned, an inspector must allow its owner to inspect it and, if it is a document, to copy it.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if it is impracticable or would be unreasonable to allow the inspection or copying.
