EDUCATION (GENERAL PROVISIONS) REGULATION 2000

[reprinted as in force on 5 July 2000]

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

Short title

1. This regulation may be cited as the Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2000.

Commencement

2. This regulation commences on 1 July 2000.

Definitions

3. The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this regulation.

Chief executive may give directions and guidelines

4.(1) The chief executive may give directions or guidelines to a principal, teacher or other person about a function or power given to the principal, teacher or other person under this regulation.

(2) The principal, teacher or other person must comply with the directions or guidelines.

PART 2—SCHOOL MANAGEMENT

Management of school

- 5.(1) The principal of a State school is the person in charge of the school.
- (2) The principal must manage the school in a way that—
- (a) ensures effective, efficient and appropriate management of public resources; and
 - (b) promotes a safe, supportive and productive learning environment; and
 - (c) supports and monitors the academic progress of all students at the school.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (1), the principal must—
- (a) promote educational practices at the school that lead to the improvement of student learning outcomes; and
 - (b) provide for the effective administration of matters about the students at the school; and
 - (c) promote organisational and staffing structures at the school that encourage staff members to become, and continue to be, skilled, confident and responsible; and
 - (d) promote continuous evaluation and improvement of the school's operations and delivery of services.

Management of staff

- 6. The principal of a State school must—
- (a) allocate and supervise the work of each staff member; and
 - (b) promptly report to the chief executive, in writing, about insubordination or suspected misconduct by a staff member; and
 - (c) encourage teachers to use appropriate teaching techniques.

Work of staff outside period allocated for instruction

7.(1) The principal of a State school may require a staff member to work outside the period allocated for instruction on a school day if the principal considers it necessary and reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the principal may require the staff member—

- (a) to attend a staff meeting outside the period allocated for instruction on a school day; and
- (b) if the member is a teacher or a teacher aide—to supervise the activities of students.

Teachers to perform allocated duties etc.

8. A teacher in a State school must—

- (a) perform the duties allocated to the teacher by the principal; and
- (b) take an active interest in extracurricular activities of the school; and
- (c) engage in professional development activities.

Charge of school in temporary absence of principal

9. If the principal of a State school is absent from the school, one of the following persons must assume the duties and responsibilities of the principal during the principal's absence until otherwise directed by the chief executive—

- (a) a deputy principal;
- (b) if the principal or the principal's supervisor nominates another staff member—the other staff member.

PART 3—PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

Permission to use State educational institutions

10.(1) A person may apply in writing to either of the following for permission to use a State educational institution—

- (a) the Minister;
- (b) an authorised officer.

(2) Also, if the applicant wants to use the State educational institution for a social function at which liquor is to be consumed, the application must include a request for approval to take liquor onto the premises.

(3) If the Minister or authorised officer decides to approve the application, the Minister or authorised officer must promptly give the applicant written notice of the approval.

(4) Approval under subsection (3) may be subject to reasonable conditions.

Agreement of parents and citizens association

11.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an application to take liquor onto premises relates to premises that are a State school; and
- (b) the school has a parents and citizens association.

(2) The Minister or authorised officer may approve the application only if the parents and citizens association has agreed to—

- (a) the social function being held on the premises; and
- (b) liquor being taken onto the premises; and
- (c) any proposed conditions of approval.

Premises in dry area under council by-law

12.(1) The Minister or authorised officer must not approve an application to take liquor onto premises if—

Education (General Provisions) Regulation
2000

- (a) a council has declared its community area or a part of its community area as a dry area; and
- (b) the premises are in the area or part declared as a dry area.

(2) In this section—

“community area” has the meaning given by the Liquor Act 1992.

“council” has the meaning given by the Liquor Act 1992.

Controlled place or dry place under law council declaration

13.(1) The Minister or authorised officer must not approve an application to take liquor onto premises if—

- (a) under the Local Government (Aboriginal Lands) Act 1978, section 58,¹ the law council has declared a public place to be a dry place; and
- (b) the premises are part of the public place.

(2) If the law council has declared a public place to be a controlled place, the Minister or authorised officer may only approve an application to take liquor onto premises that are part of the public place if the approval (including the conditions of the approval) is consistent with—

- (a) the directions about the possession or consumption of alcohol included in the declaration of the public place as a controlled place; and
- (b) any permit under which the possession or consumption of alcohol on the controlled place is authorised.

(3) In this section—

“controlled place” see Local Government (Aboriginal Lands) Act 1978, section 42.²

“dry place” see Local Government (Aboriginal Lands) Act 1978, section 42.

² Section 42 (Definitions for pt 6)

“law council” see Local Government (Aboriginal Lands) Act 1978, section 42.

“public place” see Local Government (Aboriginal Lands) Act 1978, section 42.

Care of property

14.(1) A principal, deputy principal, teacher or other person who is in control of, or responsible for managing, any property of a State educational institution must take reasonable steps to care for the property.

(2) In this section—

“property” means any real or personal property that is, or forms part of, the premises or equipment of the institution.

PART 4—STUDENT ADMINISTRATION

Age for enrolment at a State preschool centre

15.(1) The principal of a State preschool centre may enrol a child at the centre if the child will reach 4 years or more on or before 31 December in the year before enrolment.

(2) Also, the principal may enrol a child who is less than 4 years if the child has been enrolled in a formal education program in another State or country and the principal’s supervisor is satisfied the child would be disadvantaged educationally by not being enrolled in a State preschool centre.

Age for enrolment at a State primary school

16.(1) The principal of a State primary school may enrol at the school a child who is under 6 years at the beginning of a school year if the child will reach 5 years on or before 31 December in the year before enrolment.

(2) Also, the principal may enrol a child who is less than 5 years on 31 December in the year prior to enrolment if the principal's supervisor is satisfied the child would be disadvantaged educationally by not being enrolled in a State primary school.

Evidence of date of birth to be produced

17. A parent of a child must produce documentary evidence of the date of birth of the child if asked to do so by the principal of a State school at which the child is enrolled or to be enrolled.

Leave of absence

18.(1) This section applies if a parent advises the principal of a State school that the parent wants the student to receive medical or dental treatment or specialised instruction during a school day.

(2) The principal may give the student leave of absence.

(3) The principal may require the advice to be in writing.

(4) In this section—

“specialised instruction” means instruction or training in a subject or activity that is not one of the student's normal school subjects or activities.

Unauthorised absences

19.(1) This section applies if a student enrolled at a school is absent from the school on a regular or continued basis and the principal of the school has not given the student leave of absence (an “unauthorised absence”).

(2) The principal must record the unauthorised absence in a way approved by the chief executive.

(3) The principal must tell the student's parent, if practicable, in writing, about the unauthorised absence and ask the parent the reason for the unauthorised absence.

(4) After telling the student's parent about the unauthorised absence, the principal may report the unauthorised absence to a relevant authority if the principal considers it is appropriate to do so.

(5) In this section—

“relevant authority” means an entity of the State to whom it is appropriate to report an unauthorised absence, including a police officer and the department in which the Child Protection Act 1999 is administered.

Hours during which child of age of compulsory attendance not to be employed—Act, s 119

20. For section 119(1)³ of the Act, the hours prescribed for attendance at school of a child of the age of compulsory attendance are from 8.00 a.m. to 4.00 p.m. on a school day for the school at which the child is enrolled.

Good behaviour of students

21.(1) The principal of a State school must take reasonable steps to ensure the standard of behaviour of all students is clearly defined and monitored while the student is under the principal’s care and control.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the principal must ensure students are effectively supervised by teachers.

Detention of students

22.(1) The principal or a teacher at a State school may detain a student as punishment for disobedience, misconduct, wilful neglect to prepare homework or for other breaches of school discipline.

(2) A period of detention must not be more than—

- (a) 20 minutes during the lunch recess; or
- (b) one half hour after the school program for the day is finished.

Homework

23.(1) A teacher at a State school may require a student to undertake homework.

³ Section 119 (Employment of children of school age)

(2) The principal of the school may decide what is a reasonable amount to be required as homework.

Transfer of student

24.(1) A parent who wishes to transfer his or her child's enrolment from one State school to another must apply in writing to the principal of the school at which the child is enrolled stating the name of the school to which the transfer of enrolment is sought.

(2) A principal who receives an application under subsection (1) must—

- (a) issue a transfer in the approved form; and
- (b) give a copy of the transfer to the student for presentation to the principal of the State school to which the student is transferred; and
- (c) keep a record of the information stated in the transfer.

(3) This section does not apply to the following transfers—

- (a) from a State preschool centre to another State preschool centre;
- (b) from a State preschool centre to a State primary school;
- (c) from a State primary school to a State secondary school.

Dealing with student records for students transferring from primary school to secondary school

25.(1) Before the end of a school year, the principal of a State primary school must give all records for students who will transfer to a State secondary school in the following school year to the relevant State secondary school.

(2) The principal of a State primary school must keep the records for students of the school transferring to a non-State secondary school.

Requests for student records

26.(1) This section applies if a principal of a State school (a “State principal”) receives a request from a principal of a non-State school (a “non-State principal”) for the records for a student who was enrolled at the State school and is enrolled or intends to enrol at the non-State school.

(2) The State principal must forward a copy of the records for the student to the non-State principal.

(3) However, this section does not apply to the principal of a State school that is a special school.

(4) Also, if a non-State principal receives a copy of records relating to a student who is not, or is not likely to be, enrolled at the non-State school, the non-State principal must promptly return the copy to the State principal.

PART 5—RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

Application for approval of representative

27. An application under section 26(1)⁴ of the Act for approval as an accredited representative must be in writing.

Approval to be produced

28. If asked by the principal of a State school, an accredited representative at the State school must produce an approval given to the representative under section 26(1) of the Act.

Authorised religious instruction

29. A minister of religion or an accredited representative may give only religious instruction approved by the religious denomination or religious society the minister or accredited representative represents.

⁴ Section 26 (Religious instruction in school hours)

Time for religious instruction

30. The principal of a State school must fix the day on which religious instruction is given each week.

Students to attend religious instruction

31.(1) The principal of a State school must not allow a student to attend religious instruction given by a minister of religion or an accredited representative other than the denomination or society of which the student is a member, unless the student's parent has given written consent.

(2) However, students may attend classes arranged for students of more than 1 denomination or society by agreement of the ministers of the denominations or societies concerned.

Bringing and leaving sectarian publications on State school premises

32.(1) A person other than a minister of religion or an accredited representative must not bring onto, or use on, State school premises any denominational or society publication.

(2) A minister of religion or an accredited representative must not leave on State school premises any denominational or society publication used by the minister or accredited representative for religious instruction.

Students withdrawn from religious instruction

33. The principal of a State school must arrange for a student who has been withdrawn from all religious instruction by the student's parent to receive other instruction in a separate location during the period arranged for religious instruction.

Register of ministers and accredited representatives

34. The principal of a State school must keep a register of the ministers of religion or accredited representatives who attend the school and the dates and times of the ministers' or representatives' attendance.

Selected Bible lessons

35. The principal of a State primary or State special school may arrange a period of one half hour a week for religious instruction in selected Bible lessons.

PART 6—PARENTS AND CITIZENS ASSOCIATIONS

Formation of an association

36.(1) The principal of a State school may call a meeting of parents and citizens to consider the formation of a parents and citizens association for the school.

(2) If the persons present at the meeting decide an association should be formed, it must be formed by the election from among the persons of the following officers—

- (a) a president;
- (b) at least 1 vice-president;
- (c) a secretary;
- (d) a treasurer;
- (e) any other officers decided by the persons present at the meeting.

(3) However, subsections (1) and (2) do not apply if an interim association has been formed.

(4) If an interim association is formed, it must be formed in the same way as an association, except that the meeting to consider the formation of the interim association may be called by the principal's supervisor.

(5) An interim association is subject to this part unless a contrary intention appears.

Name of an association

37. An association must be known by the name the (name of school) Parents and Citizens Association or the (name of proposed school) Interim Parents and Citizens Association.

Constitution

38.(1) The members of an association must frame a constitution as soon as is practicable after the association is formed.

(2) In framing the constitution, the association must consider the model constitution approved by the chief executive.

(3) The constitution must include provisions about the following—

- (a) the conduct of annual general, general and special meetings;
- (b) the functions of the officers;
- (c) the procedures about the accounts of the association.

Amendment of constitution

39. An association may resolve to amend its constitution by a resolution passed by a majority of the members present at an annual general meeting or a special meeting of the association.

Membership of association

40.(1) A person who applies for membership of an association is taken to be a member if membership is not refused by the association within 2 months after the person applies for membership.

(2) A person is refused membership of an association if the association gives the person written notice of the refusal and the reasons for the refusal within 2 months after the person applies for membership.

(3) However, membership is not refused if the person receives notice of the association's refusal of the application, but does not receive written notice of the reasons for the refusal, within 2 months after the application is made.

Register of members

41.(1) The register of members of an association must contain the following information about each member—

- (a) the member's name and address;
- (b) the date the member became a member;
- (c) if the member is not a parent of a student attending the school for which the association is formed—
 - (i) the member's date of birth; or
 - (ii) a record that the member has stated the member is 18 years or more; or
 - (iii) a record by the secretary or another person responsible for making entries in the register of members that the member appears to be 18 years or more;
- (d) for a member who ceases to be a member, the date the member ceases to be a member;
- (e) any other particulars mentioned in the constitution.

(2) Also, the register of members of an association, other than an interim association, must contain the following information about an honorary life member of the association—

- (a) the date the person was awarded honorary life membership;
- (b) the basis for the award.

Election of officers of an association—Act, s 87

42.(1) At each annual general meeting, members of an association must elect officers of the association.

(2) An officer may only be elected as follows—

- (a) any 2 members (the “nominating members”) may nominate another member (the “candidate”) to be an officer;
- (b) the nomination may be made—
 - (i) at the annual general meeting; or

Education (General Provisions) Regulation
2000

- (ii) if the candidate can not be at the annual general meeting, by giving the secretary, before the meeting, a nomination in writing signed by the nominating members and the candidate;
 - (c) if there is only 1 nomination for an office, the candidate will be elected to the office if the candidate receives the votes of a majority of the members at the meeting;
 - (d) if there is more than one nomination for an office, the candidate who receives the most votes will be elected to the office.
- (3) A retiring officer is eligible for re-election.
- (4) An election to fill a casual vacancy may be held at a general meeting of the association.

Advice of officers of the association

43. The secretary of an association must give the chief executive written notice of the names and addresses of the officers elected when an association is formed and at each annual general meeting.

Annual general meeting

44.(1) The annual general meeting of an association for a year must be held within 3 months after the end of the preceding financial year as decided by the association under section 94⁵ of the Act.

(2) Ten members of an association are required to constitute a quorum at an annual general meeting unless the constitution of the association prescribes a number less than 10.

(3) An association must follow the order of business prescribed in the constitution for the conduct of an annual general meeting.

⁵ Section 94 (Financial year)

Other meetings

45.(1) General meetings of an association must be held once a month at the times the association decides.

(2) Seven members of an association are required to constitute a quorum at a general or special meeting unless the constitution of the association prescribes a number less than 7.

Notice of meetings

46.(1) Written notice of an annual general meeting or a special meeting of an association must be given personally or by post to each member of the association—

- (a) for an annual general meeting—at least 14 days before the day for the meeting; and
- (b) for a special meeting—at least 7 days before the day for the meeting.

(2) A resolution passed at an association meeting is not invalid merely because a member did not receive notice of the meeting.

Audit of association accounts

47.(1) An association's accounts must be audited annually.

(2) The auditor must examine records of collections and payments, cashbooks, minutes of meetings and the other records of the association the auditor considers appropriate.

(3) Also, the auditor must verify with financial institutions with which the association has accounts the financial balance held or, as the case requires, owing, so as to be able to certify whether or not in the auditor's opinion—

- (a) the association's financial statements are in agreement with the accounts and are in the required form; and
- (b) the requirements for the keeping of accounts by the association have been complied with in all material respects; and

- (c) the statements have been drawn to present a true and fair view of the transactions for the financial year and the financial position at the close of the year on a basis consistent with that applied in the preceding year.

Establishment of subcommittees

48.(1) An association may establish the subcommittees it considers appropriate for purposes consistent with the objectives and functions of the association under sections 83 and 84⁶ of the Act.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the association may establish subcommittees—

- (a) for special purposes, including, for example, a swimming club subcommittee or a tuckshop subcommittee; and
- (b) for promoting the interests of, and benefiting generally, a State preschool centre.

(3) If the association establishes a subcommittee, the association must appoint particular members to be the chairperson, secretary and if funds are to be raised or expended, treasurer of the subcommittee.

(4) However, the chairperson or secretary of a subcommittee may not be the treasurer of the subcommittee.

(5) The association may impose on a subcommittee the conditions the association considers appropriate.

Dissolution of an association

49.(1) For section 86(c)⁷ of the Act, an association must be dissolved if the question of dissolution is put and resolved in the affirmative on a three-fourths majority vote of the members present and entitled to vote at a special meeting called to consider the question.

⁶ Section 83 (Objectives of an association) and section 84 (Functions of an association)

⁷ Section 86 (Dissolution of association)

(2) On dissolution of an association, the following must be dealt with by a State school principal's supervisor as directed by the corporation—

- (a) any property in the name of the association and acquired by the association for the use of the school;
- (b) an association's funds after payment of all expenditure lawfully incurred by the association.

Activities of an association

50. If the object of an activity of an association is, or includes, 1 or more of the following matters, the consent of the chief executive of a department that deals with a matter must be obtained before the activity is carried out—

- (a) the construction of improvements to State school premises;
- (b) the addition of a fixture to State school premises;
- (c) the purchase of furniture for the school.

Conduct of school tuckshops and other amenities by an association

51.(1) An association may conduct, at a State school, a tuckshop or other amenity not being conducted by the principal of the school if the association reasonably believes the tuckshop or amenity is likely to help staff members in their professional duties or help students of the school in their studies.

(2) The chief executive may, by written notice to the association, order the closure of any amenity conducted under subsection (1) if the chief executive reasonably believes the tuckshop or amenity is—

- (a) not helping, or is hindering, staff members in their professional duties; or
- (b) not helping, or is hindering, students of the school in their studies.

(3) The association must comply with an order to close an amenity within the reasonable time stated by the chief executive.

(4) This section is subject to section 75.⁸

⁸ Section 75 (Tuckshops—prohibited items)

PART 7—DISSOLUTION OF SCHOOL COUNCILS

Circumstances in which school councils to be dissolved—Act, s 75

52. Sections 53 and 54 prescribe circumstances in which a school council is dissolved under section 75(1)(b)⁹ of the Act.

Noncompliance with direction

53. A school council is dissolved if the school council does not comply with a direction given to it under section 79¹⁰ of the Act.

Dissolution by chief executive

54. A school council is dissolved if—

- (a) the chief executive reasonably considers—
 - (i) the school council is not satisfactorily fulfilling its functions; or
 - (ii) the school community generally supports the dissolution of the school council; and
- (b) the chief executive publishes a notice in the Education Office gazette dissolving the council.

Chief executive to consult

55.(1) Before the chief executive may dissolve a school council under section 54, the chief executive must comply with this section.

(2) The chief executive must consult with the following about the proposed dissolution—

- (a) the school council;
- (b) the school's principal;

⁹ Section 75 (Dissolution of school council)

¹⁰ Section 79 (Minister's power to give directions in the public interest)

Education (General Provisions) Regulation

- (c) the school's staff members;
- (d) if there is a parents and citizens association for the school—the association;
- (e) if the school has secondary education students—the secondary education students;
- (f) any other entities the chief executive considers have an interest in the school council or its dissolution.

(3) The chief executive must publish, in a newsletter given to the school community, a notice stating—

- (a) the chief executive is considering dissolving the school council; and
- (b) the reasons for the proposed dissolution; and
- (c) how submissions about the proposed dissolution may be made to the chief executive, including joint submissions; and
- (d) the day, at least 28 days after the notice is published, by which submissions about the proposal may be given to the chief executive.

(4) Before making a decision about dissolving a school council, the chief executive must have regard to the consultations and the submissions the chief executive receives.

(5) For subsection (2), the chief executive may consult in any way the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example, by holding a formal meeting.

Minister to review decision to dissolve school council

56.(1) This section applies to a person (an “aggrieved person”) who made a submission about a proposal to dissolve a school council in accordance with a notice under section 55(3).

(2) If the chief executive decides to dissolve the council, the aggrieved person may ask the Minister to review the chief executive's decision.

(3) The aggrieved person must give the Minister a written notice stating the grounds for the review within 28 days after notice of the school council's dissolution is published in the Education Office gazette.

Education (General Provisions) Regulation
2000

(4) The Minister must, as soon as practicable—

- (a) review the chief executive's decision and consider the grounds for the review; and
- (b) decide to affirm or set aside the chief executive's decision; and
- (c) give written notice to the aggrieved person about the Minister's decision and the reasons for it.

(5) If the Minister sets aside the chief executive's decision—

- (a) the Minister must, as soon as practicable, publish a notice in the Education Office gazette stating that the decision to dissolve the council had been set aside; and
- (b) the council is taken not to have been dissolved.

PART 8—ALLOWANCES

Textbook and resource allowance

57.(1) The Minister, on written application by the principal of the school at which an approved student is enrolled, may pay to the school for the approved student the textbook and resource allowance mentioned in schedule 1, part 1—

- (a) for sending to a parent of the student; or
- (b) for the benefit of the student, as directed by a parent of the student.

(2) In this section—

“approved student” means a person—

- (a) who is enrolled full-time and regularly attends, or for a person enrolled in a course at the School of Distance Education or any other State educational institution offering distance education, regularly participates in—

Education (General Provisions) Regulation
2000

- (i) the course for year 8, 9, 10, 11 or 12 (whether the person is repeating the year or not) in—
 - (A) a State secondary school other than a centre for continuing secondary education; or
 - (B) a non-State secondary school that is a school in receipt of subsidy; or
 - (ii) a course at an agricultural college that takes 2 years to complete full-time; and
- (b) who—
- (i) has not attained the age of 19 years; or
 - (ii) is progressing directly from full-time study in year 10; and
- (c) who is not in receipt of assistance from the Commonwealth which the Minister reasonably considers is designed to provide assistance of a similar nature so as to make payment of the textbook and resource allowance for the person inappropriate.

School uniform allowance

58. A parent of a student, other than a preschool student, who attends a school in receipt of subsidy may be paid a school uniform allowance of $50 each year for the student.

Allowances to non-State schools in receipt of subsidy

59. The Minister may pay each non-State school in receipt of subsidy an allowance based on the students at the school calculated using the amounts mentioned in schedule 1, part 2, column 3.

Allowances to certain student hostels

60.(1) A person in charge of a student hostel for the accommodation of students attending a school in receipt of subsidy, may apply in writing to the Minister to be paid an allowance for each student boarding at the hostel.

(2) The Minister may pay either or both of the allowances mentioned in—

- (a) if GST is not payable—schedule 1, part 3, division 1 to a maximum of $7 520 a year for each hostel; or
- (b) if GST is payable—schedule 1, part 3, division 2 to a maximum of $8 272 a year for each hostel.

Measurement of distances for certain allowances

61. For calculating the allowances mentioned in sections 62 to 65, the distance from a student's home to the nearest applicable school is measured—

- (a) if there is no school transport service approved by the chief executive (transport) or public transport service to the school—by the shortest trafficable route; or
- (b) if there is a school transport service approved by the chief executive (transport) or public transport service to the school—by the total of the distance from the student's home to the school transport access point and the distance travelled by the transport service from the access point to the school.

Remote area tuition allowance

62.(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a student of a non-State school in receipt of subsidy, other than a preschool student—
 - (i) lives in a remote area; and
 - (ii) boards away from home at a residential facility; and
- (b) the school charges for tuition.

(2) The Minister may each year, on written application by the student's parent, pay the school a remote area tuition allowance mentioned in schedule 1, part 4.

Remote area travel allowance

63. The Minister may each year, on written application by a student's parent, pay the parent a remote area travel allowance mentioned in schedule 1, part 5, if the student—

- (a) lives in a remote area; and
- (b) boards away from home to attend a school in receipt of subsidy, other than for only preschool education; and
- (c) must travel 50 km or more from the student's home to the place where the student boards.

Remote area agricultural college allowance

64. The Minister may each year, on written application by a student's parent, pay the parent a remote area agricultural college allowance of $1 292 if the student—

- (a) lives in a remote area; and
- (b) boards away from home to attend an agricultural college to study agriculture at a level equivalent to year 11 or 12.

Remote area disability allowance

65.(1) The Minister may each year, on written application by a student's parent, pay the parent a remote area disability allowance of not more than $5 000 if the student—

- (a) lives in a remote area; and
- (b) boards away from home to attend the nearest school in receipt of subsidy with special education appropriate to the student.

(2) To be eligible to receive a remote area disability supplement, a parent must give the Minister written evidence that—

- (a) travel and accommodation costs of educating the student are significantly higher than they would be if the student did not require special education; and
- (b) the extra costs incurred are not being met by the total assistance

otherwise available from both the State and the Commonwealth because of the student's disability.

Students not meeting all requirements for an allowance

66.(1) If a student or class of students does not meet all the requirements for an allowance mentioned in sections 62 to 65, the Minister may pay the allowance for the student or class of students if the Minister considers there are special circumstances warranting payment of the allowance.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), special circumstances warranting payment of an allowance include—

- (a) where the student or class of students lives; or
- (b) whether the student or class of students has access to schools or transport services; or
- (c) the health of the student or class of students.

Allowances not payable for certain students

67. The Minister must not pay the allowances mentioned in sections 62 to 65 for a student who receives a grant from the Commonwealth under the ABSTUDY Scheme.

Applications in approved form

68. An application for an allowance mentioned in sections 62 to 65 must be in the approved form.

False or misleading statements an offence

69. A person must not, in an application for an allowance or scholarship under the Act—

- (a) state anything the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular; or

- (b) omit from an application anything without which the statement is, to the person's knowledge, misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—5 penalty units.

PART 9—MISCELLANEOUS

Reports on students in State schools

70.(1) The chief executive may prepare and give to a person a report about a student for the following purposes—

- (a) for the purpose of litigation;
- (b) for the purpose of supporting the student as a candidate in a competition;
- (c) for the purpose of providing background on the student for media purposes;
- (d) for another purpose.

(2) However, the chief executive may give the report to the person only if—

- (a) a court or tribunal with the necessary jurisdiction has ordered that the report be given to the person; or
- (b) the student, or the student's parent, has given consent to the report being given to the person; or
- (c) the chief executive is satisfied the report is not detrimental to the student and the person is an eligible applicant.

(3) If the chief executive gives a person a report under subsection (2)(b) or (c), the person must pay the fee prescribed in schedule 2 for the preparation of the report.

(4) In this section—

“eligible applicant” means a person who satisfies the chief executive that—

- (a) the person has or, if the applicant is a professional person making application for a fee-paying client, the client has, a sufficient interest in the subject matter of the proposed report; and
- (b) it is appropriate in all the circumstances that the proposed report should be prepared and given to the person.

Reports about student's results and progress not to be given

71. Section 70 does not apply to a report made periodically and in the normal course of school administration about a student's results and progress.

Courses for overseas students

72.(1) An overseas student or intending overseas student may apply to the chief executive to enrol in an approved course in a State school.

(2) A person who does not live in Australia may apply to the chief executive to enrol in an approved course in a State educational institution offering distance education.

(3) An application under subsection (1) or (2) must be made in the approved form.

(4) Also, the application must be accompanied by the fee for the course that—

- (a) the chief executive considers reasonable; and
- (b) is not more than the reasonable cost of the course.

(5) The chief executive may approve the application if the chief executive is reasonably satisfied the person—

- (a) is fully financially supported; and
- (b) is academically qualified to be enrolled; and
- (c) has an adequate standard of English; and
- (d) is of good health; and
- (e) has adequate arrangements for accommodation, welfare and supervision.

(6) In this section—

“approved course” means—

- (a) a registered course within the meaning of the Education (Overseas Students) Act 1996; or
- (b) a course of primary or secondary education approved by the Minister for this section.

“intending overseas student” means a person who intends to become an overseas student.

“overseas student” means a person who holds a student visa issued under the Migration Act 1958 (Cwlth).

Student vacations

73.(1) The Minister must approve the days for student vacations for State schools.

(2) The days approved by the Minister must be published in the Education Office gazette.

Additional holidays

74.(1) The following additional holidays must be observed in a State school—

- (a) the holiday appointed annually for 1 local show or carnival;
- (b) a holiday granted to the school by the Governor-General, the Governor, the Premier, the Minister for Education, and other Ministers;
- (c) public holidays notified under the Holidays Act 1983.

(2) A holiday granted to a State school under paragraph (b) applies only to the students of the school.

Tuckshops—prohibited items

75.(1) The chief executive may, by notice in the Education Office gazette,

*Education (General Provisions) Regulation

prohibit an item, or class of item, from being sold in a school's tuckshop.

(2) The chief executive may prohibit the sale of the item or class of item if the chief executive reasonably believes the safety and wellbeing of the school's students is, or would be, adversely affected by the sale of the item or class of item.

(3) The school's principal or association must not sell a prohibited item, or an item of a prohibited class, in the school's tuckshop.

(4) In this section—

“sell” includes offer for sale.

Distribution of written material in State educational institutions

76. A person must not distribute written material in a State educational institution unless the person has been given permission to do so by the principal or other person in charge of the institution or an authorised officer.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

PART 10—REPEAL

Repeal

77. The Education (General Provisions) Regulation 1989 is repealed.
