- (b) every action brought to recover a sum of not more than $50 000, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of the distributive share under an intestacy or of a legacy under a will; and may be commenced in a Magistrates Court, and all Magistrates Courts shall within their respective districts have power and authority to hear and determine in a summary way all such actions.

Consent jurisdiction

4A.(1) If the parties to a proceeding in relation to an amount for which the Supreme Court or District Court has jurisdiction agree that a Magistrates Court may have jurisdiction in relation to the amount, the Magistrates Court has jurisdiction for the proceeding.

Any person under the age of 18 years to whom any wages or any other sum whatsoever, whether liquidated or unliquidated, not exceeding the amount in respect of which a Magistrates Court has jurisdiction, is due may sue for and recover such sum in the court in the same manner as if the person were of full age.

- (c) to provide a legislative framework allowing ADR processes to be conducted as quickly, and with as little formality and technicality, as possible; and
- (d) to safeguard ADR processes—
 - (i) by ensuring they remain confidential; and
 - (ii) by extending the same protection to participants in an ADR process they would have if the dispute were before a Magistrates Court.

Division 2—Important terms

ADR process

22.(1) An “ADR process” is a process of mediation or case appraisal under which the parties are helped to achieve an early, inexpensive settlement or resolution of their dispute.

(2) In division 6,³ an “ADR process” includes all the steps involved in an ADR process, including, for example—

³ Division 6 (Confidentiality, protection and immunity)

- (b) a case appraisal session; and
- (c) joint sessions; and
- (d) private sessions; and
- (e) another step prescribed under the rules.

Mediation

23. “Mediation” is a process under the rules under which the parties use a mediator to help them resolve their dispute by negotiated agreement without adjudication.

Case appraisal

24.(1) “Case appraisal” is a process under the rules under which a case appraiser provisionally decides a dispute.

- (2) A case appraiser’s decision is not binding on the parties until—
- (a) the time prescribed by the rules for filing an election to go to trial has passed; and
 - (b) a Magistrates Court, by order, gives effect to the decision.

Division 3—Establishment of ADR processes

Approval of mediators

25. The Chief Stipendiary Magistrate may approve, or refuse to approve, a person as a mediator.

- (b) other information prescribed under the rules; and

Parties may agree to ADR process

28.(1) The parties to a dispute may agree to refer their dispute to an ADR process.

(2) If the parties agree to the referral, they must file a consent order in the form prescribed under the rules with the registrar.

(3) A consent order filed under this section is taken to be a referring order.

Court may consider and order reference to ADR process

(2) This section also applies if—

- (a) a party applies to a Magistrates Court for an order referring a dispute to an ADR process; or
- (b) the parties are otherwise before a Magistrates Court.

(3) The court may, by order (“referring order”), refer the dispute for mediation or case appraisal.

(4) Without limiting the court’s discretion, the court may take the following matters into account when deciding whether to refer a dispute to case appraisal—

- (a) whether the costs of litigating the dispute to the end are likely to be disproportionate to the benefit gained;
- (b) the likelihood of an appraisal producing a compromise or an abandonment of a claim or defence;
- (c) other circumstances justify an appraisal.

(5) If the court decides to refer the dispute to a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990, it is sufficient if the order appoints the director of a specified dispute resolution centre as mediator.

Parties must attend at ADR process if Magistrates Court orders

30.(1) If a referring order is made, the parties—

- (a) must attend before the ADR convenor appointed to conduct the ADR process; and
- (b) must not impede the ADR convenor in conducting and finishing the ADR process within the time allowed under the referring order.

(2) If a party impedes the ADR process, a Magistrates Court may impose sanctions against the party, including, for example—

- (b) by taking the party’s action into account when awarding costs in the proceeding or in another related proceeding between the parties.

Procedure at case appraisal

31.(1) At a case appraisal, the case appraiser—

- (a) must decide the procedure to be used at the case appraisal; and

 - (c) must finish the case appraisal as quickly as possible.
- (2) However, the case appraiser may, in special circumstances—
- (a) receive evidence; and
 - (b) examine witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses, who have been lawfully called before the case appraiser.
