AMBULANCE SERVICE ACT 1991

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 23 November 2001]

An Act to establish the Queensland Ambulance Service and for other purposes

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Ambulance Service Act 1991.

2 Definitions

In this Act—

“ambulance officer” means an ambulance officer appointed under section 13 and an honorary ambulance officer appointed under section 14.

“ambulance service” means service relating to the work of rendering emergency treatment and prehospital patient care to, and the transport of, sick and injured persons.

“approved superannuation scheme” means—

- (a) the Queensland Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme; or
- (b) another superannuation scheme approved by the Governor in Council under section 17.

“conviction” includes a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court even though a conviction is not recorded.

“subscriber” means a person who—

- (a) is a current subscriber to the service under section 54 whether by annual payment or continuing instalments; or
- (b) is a current subscriber to an ambulance service conducted by an ambulance authority in another State or is entitled to the service of that authority without charge; or
- (c) is a person exempted from payment of charges for the use of ambulance services.

PART 2—QUEENSLAND AMBULANCE SERVICE

Division 1—Queensland Ambulance Service

3A Establishment of service

The Queensland Ambulance Service is established.

3B Membership of service

The service consists of—

- (a) the commissioner; and
- (b) ambulance officers, medical officers and other staff members employed under section 13.

3D Service’s functions

The functions of the service are—

- (a) to provide, operate and maintain ambulance services; and

- (b) for ambulance services provided during rescue and other related activities—to protect persons from injury or death, whether or not the persons are sick or injured; and
- (c) to provide transport for persons requiring attention at medical or health care facilities; and
- (d) to participate with other emergency services in counterdisaster planning; and
- (e) to coordinate all volunteer first aid groups for major emergencies or disasters; and
- (f) to adopt and put into effect all necessary measures (including systems of planning, management and quality control) to best ensure the efficient and economic operation and use of its resources in providing ambulance services; and
- (g) to provide casualty room services; and
- (h) to provide community and workplace education in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other related matters; and
- (j) to identify and market products and services incidental to its other functions; and
- (k) to perform other functions given to the service under this Act or another Act; and
- (l) to perform functions incidental to its other functions.

3E Chief executive's responsibility

(1) The chief executive is responsible for the way the service performs its functions.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the chief executive is responsible for—

- (a) defining the objectives, strategies and policies to be followed by the service; and
- (b) ensuring the service performs its functions in an appropriate, effective and efficient way.

Example—

The chief executive could establish performance measures for the service.

(3) This section does not affect the chief executive's responsibilities for the department under another Act.

Division 3—Staff of the service

4 Appointment of commissioner

(1) The Governor in Council, acting on the recommendation of the Minister, is to appoint a commissioner of the service.

(2) The commissioner is to be paid such salary and allowances and employed on such terms and conditions as the Governor in Council determines.

4A Acting commissioner

The Governor in Council may appoint a person to act in the office of commissioner during—

- (a) any vacancy, or all vacancies, in the office; or
- (b) any period, or all periods, when the commissioner is absent from duty, or can not, for another reason, perform the functions of the office.

5 Disqualification from appointment

A person who—

- (a) is an undischarged bankrupt or takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy; or
- (b) is or attains the age of 65 years; or
- (c) has been or is convicted in Queensland of an indictable offence or has been or is convicted elsewhere in respect of an act or omission that if done or made by that person in Queensland would have constituted an indictable offence; or
- (d) is or becomes a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1974; is not capable of being or continuing to be the commissioner.

6 Vacation of office

(1) The office of the commissioner becomes vacant if the commissioner—

- (a) dies; or
- (b) becomes incapable of continuing as the commissioner; or
- (c) furnishes his or her written resignation to the Minister; or
- (d) under section 5, ceases to be capable of continuing to be the commissioner; or
- (e) is removed from office; or
- (f) without the approval of the Minister, engages in any employment outside the duties of the commissioner under this Act; or
- (g) is absent from duty for a period of 14 days without lawful excuse.

(2) A resignation given under subsection (1)(c) is not effective until written acceptance of it is given by the Minister.

9 Role of commissioner

(1) The commissioner must, in accordance with the objectives, strategies and policies defined by the chief executive—

- (a) manage the service's operations; and
- (b) perform the commissioner's functions and exercise the commissioner's powers under this Act.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), the commissioner is to prepare an annual strategic plan incorporating performance targets approved by the Minister.

13 Employees

(1) The chief executive may appoint and employ on salary or wages or engage and employ under contracts such persons—

- (a) as ambulance officers; and
- (b) as medical officers; and
- (c) as other staff members;

as are necessary for the effectual administration of this Act.

(2) Subject to any applicable decision within the meaning of the Industrial Relations Act 1999, persons employed under subsection (1) (other than on contract) are to be paid salaries, wages and allowances at such rates and are to be employed under such conditions of employment (including conditions as to occupational superannuation and leave entitlements) as the chief executive determines.

14 Honorary ambulance officers

(1) The commissioner may appoint such persons as the commissioner considers appropriate to be honorary ambulance officers.

(2) Honorary ambulance officers—

- (a) may carry out, without remuneration, such of the functions of the service as the commissioner may direct; and
- (b) are subject to the control and supervision of the commissioner.

15 Officers employed under this Act

Service officers are to be employed under this Act, and not under the Public Service Act 1996.

16 No additional remuneration

A service officer is not to seek or accept on account of anything done in the course of duty in the service any fee or reward not authorised by the chief executive.

17 Superannuation scheme

(1) The Governor in Council may approve a superannuation scheme (other than the Queensland Ambulance Service Superannuation Scheme) for service officers or classes of service officers.

(2) Every service officer (other than an honorary ambulance officer) must become a contributor to an approved superannuation scheme (if the officer is otherwise eligible under the terms of the scheme) and, while a service officer, must continue to contribute to the scheme in accordance with its terms.

(3) A service officer who becomes a public service officer must, by written notice given to the chief executive within 2 months after starting employment with the public service, elect—

- (a) to continue to contribute to an approved superannuation scheme; or
- (b) to contribute to the superannuation scheme to which persons who become public service officers after the commencement of this section would usually contribute.

18 Retrenchment and redundancy

If the chief executive is satisfied that—

- (a) the duties and functions of a position in the service are no longer required; or
- (b) the duties of the position are to be incorporated with those of another position;

the chief executive may terminate the services of the officer in accordance with the retrenchment or redundancy arrangements approved by the Governor in Council.

Division 4—Other matters about the service

19 Fund

(1) The Queensland Ambulance Service Fund is established.

(2) The Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 applies to the fund.

(3) Accounts for the fund must be kept as part of the departmental accounts of the department.

(4) Amounts received for the fund must be deposited in a departmental financial-institution account of the department but may be deposited in an account used for depositing other amounts of the department.

(5) Amounts received for the fund include the following received by the service—

- (a) amounts received as charges for the use of ambulance services, or as subscriptions paid to the service;

- (b) amounts received by the department from other sources for the fund or amounts that must be paid into the fund;
- (c) amounts received for the disposal of an asset that the chief executive considers was purchased substantially with amounts paid from the fund or the previous fund;
- (d) interest from investment of the fund.

(6) An amount is payable from the fund for the purposes of this Act.

(7) In this section—

“departmental accounts”, of the department, means the accounts of the department under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, section 12.

“departmental financial-institution account”, of the department, means an account of the department kept under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, section 18.

“other amounts”, of the department, means amounts received by the department other than amounts received for the fund.

“previous fund” means the Ambulance Service Fund mentioned in the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977, schedule 2, immediately before the commencement of this section.

22 Delegations

(1) The chief executive may delegate the chief executive’s powers under this Act to the commissioner or an appropriately qualified service officer.

(2) The commissioner may delegate the commissioner’s powers under this Act to an appropriately qualified service officer.

(3) In subsections (1) and (2)—

“appropriately qualified” includes having the qualifications, experience or standing appropriate to exercise the power.

Example of ‘standing’—

A person’s classification level in the service.

PART 4—LOCAL AMBULANCE COMMITTEES

26 Establishment of committees

(1) The Minister may authorise the establishment of local ambulance committees.

(2) A local ambulance committee is to be called ‘(name of area) local ambulance committee’.

(3) A claim or proceeding by or against a committee may be made and enforced by a proceeding by or against a committee in the name of the committee.

27 Functions of committees

The functions of a committee are—

- (a) to liaise between the community it represents and the service; and
- (b) to promote community participation in and awareness of ambulance services; and
- (c) to provide advice to the commissioner in respect of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (d) to undertake fundraising activities for the benefit of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (e) to manage money held on trust for the benefit of ambulance services in the community it represents; and
- (f) such other functions as the Minister agrees to.

28 Constitution

(1) Each committee is to adopt a constitution in respect of the conduct of its affairs.

(2) A committee is not to adopt a constitution unless it has been approved by the Minister.

(3) A committee is not to alter its constitution unless the alteration has been approved by the Minister.

(4) Any matter not conducted by a committee in accordance with its constitution or the Minister's directions is invalid.

29 Members of committees

(1) The subscribers who—

- (a) permanently reside in the administrative area served by a committee; and
- (b) have attained the age of 18 years;

at a general meeting of the subscribers, are to elect the members of a committee.

(2) A person who—

- (a) does not permanently reside in the administrative area served by a committee; or
- (b) has not attained the age of 18 years; or
- (c) is not a subscriber; or
- (d) is a service officer; or
- (e) is an undischarged bankrupt or takes advantage of the laws in force for the time being relating to bankruptcy; or
- (f) has been or is convicted in Queensland of an indictable offence or has been or is convicted elsewhere in respect of an act or omission that if done or made by that person in Queensland would have constituted an indictable offence; or
- (g) is or becomes a patient within the meaning of the Mental Health Act 1974; is not to be elected as or to continue to be a member of a committee.

(3) Each committee is to consist of—

- (a) a president; and
- (b) a vice-president; and
- (c) a secretary; and
- (d) a treasurer;

and not less than 1 and not more than 5 other members.

(4) Nominations for election to a committee are to be sought, in the manner specified in the committee's constitution, from community organisations—

- (a) operating within the administrative area served by the committee; and
- (b) approved by the Minister.

(5) The election of members is to be conducted in accordance with the committee's constitution.

(6) Members of a committee elected under this section hold office in accordance with the committee's constitution or for such longer period as the Minister may, in a particular case, specify.

(7) A member of a committee must at all times act honestly in the exercise of the powers and the performance of duties that he or she has as a member of a committee.

(8) A member of a committee must not make improper use of their office or position to gain, directly or indirectly, an advantage for himself, herself or any other person, or to cause detriment to the committee.

(9) The Minister may dismiss a person from any office of a committee, if the Minister is satisfied it would be in the public interest to do so.

30 Liability of members

(1) A member of a committee is liable to repay to the committee any money that member—

- (a) improperly used; or
- (b) spent without the authorisation of or ratification by the committee.

(2) The committee may recover any money referred to in subsection (1) by action in any court of competent jurisdiction, from the member who improperly used it or spent it without authorisation or ratification.

31 Protection of members

(1) The members of a committee are not personally liable to contribute toward the payment of debts and liabilities of, or any judgment against, the committee.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of a personal guarantee given by a member of a committee in respect of arrangements by a committee.

32 Committees are statutory bodies

(1) Under the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, a committee is a statutory body.

(2) The Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982, part 2B sets out the way in which a committee's powers under this Act are affected by the Statutory Bodies Financial Arrangements Act 1982.

33 Application of laws

The Collections Act 1966 does not apply to the fundraising activities of or the collecting of donations by a committee.

34 Investigations

(1) The Minister may at any time cause an investigation to be made into any committee, including the exercise by that committee of its functions and the application of its funds.

(2) The Minister may appoint a person to make the investigation on his or her behalf.

(3) Officers of the committee are to produce to the person conducting the investigation all documents of the committee requested by the person conducting the investigation.

(4) At the conclusion of an investigation the person conducting the investigation is to make a written report to the Minister.

35 Dissolution of committees

The Minister may dissolve a committee if—

- (a) the committee has voted that it should be dissolved and has requested the Minister to dissolve it; or
- (b) in the opinion of the Minister, it has exhibited gross neglect of its functions, finances or administration; or

- (c) the Minister is satisfied it would be desirable in the public interest to do so.

36 Effect of dissolution

If a committee is dissolved under section 35, the funds of the committee vest in the State on trust for the community represented by the committee.

PART 5—ADMINISTRATION AND POWERS

37 Authorised officers

The commissioner may authorise a service officer, or service officers of a class of service officers, to exercise—

- (a) all the powers conferred by this Act on an authorised officer; or
- (b) any power or class of power conferred by this Act on an authorised officer.

38 Powers of authorised officers

(1) An authorised officer, in providing ambulance services, may take any reasonable measures—

- (a) to protect persons from any danger or potential danger associated with an emergency situation; and
- (b) to protect persons trapped in a vehicle, receptacle, vessel or otherwise endangered; and
- (c) to protect themselves or other officers or persons from danger, potential danger or assault from other persons.

(2) Without limiting the measures that may be taken for a purpose specified in subsection (1)(a) or (b), an authorised officer may, for that purpose—

- (a) enter any premises, vehicle or vessel; and
- (b) open any receptacle, using such force as is reasonably necessary; and

- (c) bring any apparatus or equipment onto premises; and
- (d) remove from or otherwise deal with, any article or material in the area; and
- (e) destroy (wholly or partially) or damage any premises, vehicle, vessel or receptacle; and
- (f) cause the gas or electricity supply or motor or any other source of energy to any premises, vehicle, vessel or receptacle to be shut off or disconnected; and
- (g) request any person to take all reasonable measures to assist the authorised officer; and
- (h) administer such basic life support and advanced life support procedures as are consistent with the training and qualifications of the authorised officer.

(3) Without limiting the measures that may be taken for a purpose specified in subsection (1)(c), an authorised officer may, for that purpose, require any person not to enter into or remain within a specified area around the site of the danger to a patient.

39 Protection from certain liability

(1) The State is to indemnify every service officer against all actions, proceedings and claims in relation to—

- (a) acts done, or omitted to be done, by the officer under section 38; or
- (b) acts done, or omitted to be done, by the officer in good faith for the purposes of section 38.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a service officer includes a person required under section 38(2)(g) to assist an authorised officer.

40 Power to accept gifts etc.

(1) The State and each committee may acquire, for any purpose connected with—

- (a) the provision of ambulance services; or
- (b) any of its functions;

any property by gift, devise or bequest and may agree to carry out the conditions of the gift, devise or bequest.

(2) If the gift, devise or bequest is of property other than money and is given or made to a committee, the property vests in the State on trust for the committee.

41 Codes of practice

(1) The commissioner may issue codes of practice, not inconsistent with this Act, relating to—

- (a) the functions, powers, conduct, discipline and appearance of service officers; and
- (b) the performance of duties and the training of service officers; and
- (c) any functions imposed or powers conferred by this Act.

(2) The commissioner may amend or revoke a code of practice.

(3) Wilful failure to comply with a code of practice is grounds for disciplinary action.

PART 6—OFFENCES

42 Right of way to ambulances

(1) Despite the provisions of the Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995, a driver of a vehicle (other than a train), to the extent practicable, is to give clear and uninterrupted passage to—

- (a) any ambulance with warning devices sounding or warning lights activated; and
- (b) any service officer or any person acting under the direction of a service officer who appears to be doing any act for the purposes of assisting at an accident or other emergency.

(2) A person is not to fail to comply with subsection (1).

Maximum penalty for subsection (2)—50 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

43 Unauthorised ambulance transport

(1) A person, other than the chief executive or the commissioner, is not to directly or indirectly imply that the person provides or participates in providing ambulance transport without the approval of the Minister and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the Minister may impose.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) The Minister may revoke any approval given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section does not apply to—

- (a) the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (b) an ambulance service conducted under the Health Services Act 1991.

44 Unauthorised teaching of first aid

(1) A person, other than a service officer, is not to teach first aid without the approval of the commissioner and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the commissioner may impose.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) The commissioner may revoke any approval given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section does not apply to—

- (a) St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland; and
- (c) Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (d) Australian Red Cross Society, Queensland division; and
- (e) Surf Life Saving Association of Australia, Queensland State Centre Inc.; and

- (f) a person registered as a medical practitioner (within the meaning of the Medical Act 1939, or a corresponding Act of any other State); and
- (g) an employee of the department in which the Health Services Act 1991 is administered, authorised by the chief executive of that department.

45 Unauthorised collections

(1) A person, other than—

- (a) a member of, or person authorised by, a committee; or
- (b) a service officer;

is not to organise, conduct or take part in the collection or soliciting of money or property from the public for, towards or in return for the provision of ambulance services without the approval of the commissioner and except in accordance with such conditions (if any) as the commissioner may impose.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) The commissioner may revoke any consent given, or revoke or vary any condition imposed, under this section.

(3) This section—

- (a) does not apply to the Royal Flying Doctor Service of Australia; and
- (b) in respect of that part of ambulance services that comprises first aid services—does not apply to St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland.

46 Obstruction

A person must not wilfully obstruct or hinder any person acting under the authority of this Act.

Maximum penalty—16 penalty units.

47 False calls

(1) A person must not—

- (a) by conduct; or
- (b) by statements (oral or written); or
- (c) by conduct and statements (oral or written);

falsely and with knowledge of the falsity represent that circumstances exist that result in the utilisation of any resources of the service.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) A court—

- (a) by which a person is found guilty; or
- (b) before which a person pleads guilty;

of an offence defined in subsection (1), whether or not it imposes a penalty in respect of the offence, may order the person to pay to the chief executive, a reasonable sum for the expenses of or incidental to any utilisation of its resources as a result of the false representation.

48 Restricted use of words ‘Ambulance Service’

(1) A person must not—

- (a) without the written authority of the commissioner—use the words ‘Ambulance Service’ or any similar name, title or description; or
- (b) represent that the person is associated with the service unless such an association exists; or
- (c) without the written authority of the commissioner—use the word ‘Ambulance’ on any vehicle that is not operated by the service; or
- (d) impersonate a service officer; or
- (e) without the written authority of the commissioner—use any insignia of the service in any manner contrary to the manner approved by the commissioner.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) in the case of an individual—16 penalty units; or
- (b) in the case of a corporation—50 penalty units.

(2) This section does not apply to—

- (a) an ambulance service conducted under the Health Services Act 1991; and
- (b) the use of the word ‘Ambulance’ by St John Ambulance Australia-Queensland as part of its name; and
- (c) the use of the words ‘animal ambulance’ on a vehicle owned or operated by an animal welfare organisation for the transport of sick or injured animals.

49 Confidentiality

(1) A service officer or agent of the service must not give, directly or indirectly, to any other person any information acquired as such an officer or agent in respect of a person who could be identified from the information as a person who has received prehospital care or ambulance services.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply—

- (a) to information that an officer or agent is expressly authorised or permitted to give under this or any other Act or that is required by operation of law; or
- (b) to information given with the prior consent of the person to whom it relates or, if the person has died, with the consent of the senior available next of kin of the person; or
- (c) to information concerning the condition of a person who has received ambulance services if the information is communicated by an ambulance officer to—
 - (i) a member of the medical staff of a hospital; or
 - (ii) a medical practitioner; or
 - (iii) another ambulance officer or a member of an ambulance service (or similar body providing ambulance services) from outside Queensland; or
 - (iv) the next of kin or a near relative of the patient;

in accordance with the recognised standards of medical practice; or

- (d) to information given to the Australian Red Cross Society for the purpose of tracing blood, or blood products derived from blood, infected with any disease or the donor or recipient of any such blood; or
