- incorporates all necessary consequential amendments, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(d)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprint for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Revised edition indicates further material has affected existing material. For example—

- a correction
- a retrospective provision
- other relevant information.

DUTIES ACT 2001

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 17 May 2002]

An Act about creating and imposing duties

CHAPTER 1—INTRODUCTION

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Duties Act 2001.

2 Commencement

(1) This Act, other than sections 306(2), 342(2) and 497, commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

(2) Sections 306(2), 342(2) and 497 commence on the later of the following—

- (a) a day to be fixed by proclamation;
- (b) when an arrangement is made under the Commonwealth Places (Mirror Taxes) Act 1998 (Cwlth), section 9, for Queensland.

PART 2—INTERPRETATION

3 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 6 defines particular words used in this Act.

4 Notes in text

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

5 Relationship of Act with Administration Act

(1) This Act does not contain all the provisions about duties.

(2) The Administration Act contains provisions dealing with, among other things, the following—

- (a) assessments of duty;
- (b) collection and refunds of duty;
- (c) imposition of interest and penalty tax;
- (d) objections and appeals against assessments of duty;
- (e) record keeping obligations of taxpayers;
- (f) investigative powers, offences, legal proceedings and evidentiary matters;
- (g) service of documents.

Note—

Under the Administration Act, section 3, that Act and this Act must be read together as if they together formed a single Act.

PART 3—APPLICATION OF ACT

6 Act binds all persons

(1) This Act binds all persons, including the State and, as far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Commonwealth and the other States.

Note—

However, under section 426, the State is exempt from duty unless this Act expressly provides otherwise.

(2) Nothing in this Act makes the State liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

7 Extra-territorial application

This Act applies to impose duty on instruments and transactions regardless of whether they are entered into or made in or outside Queensland.

Note—

This is because instruments and transactions on which duty is imposed have a nexus to Queensland.

CHAPTER 2—TRANSFER DUTY

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

8 Imposition of transfer duty

(1) This chapter imposes duty (“transfer duty”) on dutiable transactions.

Note—

Concessions and exemptions for transfer duty are dealt with in parts 9 to 13. Also, other exemptions are dealt with in chapter 10.

(2) Transfer duty is imposed on the dutiable value of a dutiable transaction.

PART 2—SOME BASIC CONCEPTS FOR TRANSFER DUTY

9 What is a “dutiable transaction”

(1) Each of the following is a “dutiable transaction”—

- (a) a transfer of dutiable property;
- (b) an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property, whether conditional or not;

- (c) a surrender of dutiable property that is land in Queensland or a transferable site area;
 - (d) a share buy-back for a Queensland marketable security;
 - (e) a vesting, under an Act, Commonwealth Act or court order, of dutiable property;
 - (f) a foreclosure of a mortgage over dutiable property;
 - (g) an acquisition of a new right on its creation, grant or issue;
 - (h) a partnership acquisition;¹
 - (i) the creation or termination of a trust of dutiable property;²
 - (j) a trust acquisition or trust surrender.³
- (2) It does not matter whether a dutiable transaction—
- (a) is effected by an instrument or another way; or
 - (b) involves 1 or more parties.
- (3) Subsection (1) has effect subject to sections 21, 29 and 37.⁴

Note—

Under section 21, the commissioner must decide the applicable dutiable transaction for imposition of duty if a transaction constitutes more than 1 type of dutiable transaction mentioned in subsection (1).

Also, for when transactions for particular dutiable property are not dutiable transactions, see sections 29 and 37.

10 What is “dutiable property”

- (1) Each of the following is “dutiable property”—
- (a) land in Queensland;
 - (b) a transferable site area;

1 See part 7 (Dutiable transactions relating to partnerships).

2 See part 8 (Dutiable transactions relating to trusts), division 3 (Creation and termination of trusts).

3 See part 8 (Dutiable transactions relating to trusts), division 4 (Some basic concepts about trust acquisitions and trust surrenders).

4 Sections 21 (No double duty—general), 29 (When transaction for chattel is not dutiable transaction), and 37 (When transaction for particular Queensland business assets not dutiable transaction)

- (c) a Queensland marketable security;
- (d) an existing right;
- (e) a Queensland business asset;
- (f) a chattel in Queensland.

(2) A reference to property in subsection (1) includes a reference to an interest⁵ in the property, other than the following—

- (a) a security interest;
- (b) a partner's interest in the partnership;
- (c) a trust interest;
- (d) the interest of a discretionary object of a trust that holds property mentioned in the subsection.

11 What is the “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction

(1) The “dutiable value” of a statutory dutiable transaction is the amount payable for the transaction.

(2) The “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction that is a partition is determined under section 31.

(3) The “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction that is the surrender of a lease of land in Queensland is the total of any premium, fine or other consideration payable for the surrender.

(4) The “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction that is the acquisition of a new right that is a lease of land in Queensland is the total of any amounts mentioned in section 233(2)(d) to (f) that are payable for the lease.

(5) The “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction that is a partnership acquisition is determined under part 7, division 3.

(6) The “dutiable value” of a dutiable transaction that is a trust acquisition or trust surrender is determined under part 8, division 5.

5 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36—

“interest”, in relation to land or other property, means—

- (a) a legal or equitable estate in the land or other property; or
- (b) a right, power or privilege over, or in relation to, the land or other property.

(7) Subject to section 48,⁶ the “dutiable value” of another dutiable transaction is—

- (a) the consideration for the dutiable transaction; or
- (b) the unencumbered value of the dutiable property or new right the subject of the transaction if—
 - (i) there is no consideration for the transaction; or
 - (ii) the consideration can not be ascertained when the liability for transfer duty arises; or
 - (iii) the unencumbered value is greater than the consideration for the transaction.

(8) However, the dutiable value of particular dutiable transactions is subject to apportionment under part 4.

12 Consideration for dutiable transactions—general

(1) The consideration for a dutiable transaction includes—

- (a) the amount of any liabilities assumed under the transaction, including an obligation, whether contingent or otherwise, to pay any unpaid purchase money payable under an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property; and
- (b) the amount or value of any debt to the extent it is released or extinguished under the transaction.

(2) If the consideration, or any part of the consideration, for a dutiable transaction on which duty is imposed consists of an amount payable periodically and the total amount, including any interest, to be paid can be ascertained, the consideration or part of the consideration is the total amount.

Note—

For other provisions relevant to consideration, see sections 501 to 503.

⁶ Section 48 (Dutiable value of a dutiable transaction reduced for transfer of dutiable property to partner on retirement or dissolution)

13 Consideration for dutiable transaction—transfer by way of security

The consideration for the transfer by way of security of dutiable property that is land is an amount equal to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property when the liability for transfer duty arises.

14 What is the “unencumbered value” of property

(1) The “unencumbered value” of property is the value of the property determined without regard to—

- (a) any encumbrance to which the property is subject, whether contingently or otherwise; or
- (b) any arrangement—
 - (i) the parties to which are not dealing with each other at arm’s length; and
 - (ii) that results in the reduction of the value of the property; or
- (c) any arrangement for which a significant purpose of any party to the arrangement was, in the commissioner’s opinion, the reduction of the value of the property.

Example for paragraph (c)—

A owns land that B wishes to purchase. The land is valued at $1M. Before the purchase, A grants B a 50 year lease of the land. B is not required to pay any rent under the lease. A and B then enter into an agreement to transfer the land for $50 000, being the value of A’s interest in the land taking into account that it is subject to the lease to B.

The unencumbered value of the land is determined without regard to the grant of the lease if the commissioner is of the opinion there is an arrangement under which A or B’s significant purpose in entering into it was to reduce the value of the land.

(2) Also, the “unencumbered value” of property held on trust or by a partnership must be determined without regard to the liabilities of the trust or partnership, including for a trust, the liability to indemnify the trustee.

(3) The “unencumbered value” of property that is the goodwill of a business includes the value of any restraint of trade arrangement entered into by the transferor or a related person of the transferor to protect the value of the goodwill acquired by the transferee.

(4) If, before a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of land, improvements are made to the land at the transferee’s expense, the unencumbered value of the land must be determined as if the improvements had not been made.

Note—

For provisions about the aggregate minimum value of the shares comprising all of the issued capital of a corporation or society and the unencumbered value of each of the shares, see section 504.

15 When unencumbered value of property is determined

The unencumbered value of dutiable property is determined—

- (a) for a dutiable transaction that is the surrender of the property—immediately before the surrender; or
- (b) for another dutiable transaction—when the liability for transfer duty arises.

PART 3—LIABILITY FOR TRANSFER DUTY

16 When liability for transfer duty arises

A liability for transfer duty imposed on a dutiable transaction in schedule 2, column 1, arises at the time stated opposite the transaction in schedule 2, column 2.

17 Who is liable to pay transfer duty

(1) Transfer duty imposed on a statutory dutiable transaction must be paid by the statutory entity under the transaction.

(2) Transfer duty imposed on another dutiable transaction must be paid by the parties to the transaction.

18 Need for instrument or statement

If a dutiable transaction is not effected or evidenced by an instrument, the parties liable to pay transfer duty on the transaction must make a statement in the approved form (a “transfer duty statement”) within the time stated in section 19 for lodging the statement.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

19 Lodging instrument or statement

(1) The statutory entity under a statutory dutiable transaction must lodge—

- (a) the instrument that effects or evidences the transaction; or
- (b) the transfer duty statement for the transaction.

(2) The statutory entity must comply with subsection (1)—

- (a) within 60 days after the liability arises to pay transfer duty on the transaction; or
- (b) if the amount payable for the transaction is to be decided by a court or tribunal—within 14 days after the amount is decided.

(3) The parties liable to pay transfer duty relating to another dutiable transaction must, within 30 days after the liability arises, lodge—

- (a) the instrument that effects or evidences the transaction or transfer duty statement for the transaction; and
- (b) an approved form for the transaction.

20 Effect of making or lodging instrument or statement by 1 party

The making of a transfer duty statement, or the lodging under section 19 of an instrument or transfer duty statement, by 1 of the parties to the dutiable transaction relieves the other parties to the transaction from complying with the requirement to make the statement under section 18 or lodge the instrument or transfer duty statement under section 19.

21 No double duty—general

(1) If a transaction for property constitutes more than 1 dutiable transaction for the property and imposition of transfer duty on all of the dutiable transactions for the property would result in transfer duty being imposed more than once on the transaction, the commissioner must decide the dutiable transaction on which transfer duty is imposed.

Note—

For objections and appeals against assessments of duty, see the Administration Act, part 6.

(2) For subsection (1), the commissioner must decide the dutiable transaction that is the most applicable dutiable transaction having regard to the provisions of this chapter and the primary purpose of the transaction.

22 No double duty—particular dutiable transactions

(1) If transfer duty is imposed on a dutiable transaction for periodical payments of consideration, no duty is imposed under this Act on any agreement securing the periodical payments.

(2) If transfer duty imposed on a dutiable transaction that is an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property is paid, no transfer duty is imposed on the transfer of the property to the transferee under the agreement.

(3) If the commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) a person (the “agent”) is appointed in writing as an agent for another person (the “principal”); and
- (b) under the appointment, the agent enters into a dutiable transaction that is an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property from a person (the “original transferor”) to the agent on behalf of the principal (the “agreement”); and
- (c) the principal provided all the consideration, including any deposit paid; and
- (d) transfer duty imposed on the agreement is paid; and
- (e) the dutiable property is later transferred to the principal by the original transferor or the agent (the “agency transfer”);

no transfer duty is imposed on the agency transfer or the trust acquisition or trust surrender by the principal because of the agreement or agency transfer.

(4) For subsection (3)(a), the commissioner must not be satisfied the person was properly appointed as agent unless the original instrument of appointment, or a copy of it, is lodged.

(5) If—

- (a) there is an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property (the “first agreement”); and
- (b) after the first agreement takes place, 1 or more agreements to transfer all or part of the dutiable property the subject of the first agreement takes place (the “intervening agreements”); and
- (c) to give effect to the first agreement and the intervening agreements, 1 or more transfers of dutiable property (the “transfers”) are effected by 1 or more parties to the first agreement and the intervening agreements; and
- (d) transfer duty imposed on the first agreement and the intervening agreements is paid; no transfer duty is imposed on the transfers.

Example for subsection (5)—

On 1 July, under an agreement for transfer, A agrees to sell land in Queensland to B for $100 000. Settlement is to take place on 31 July. On 7 July, under an agreement for transfer, B agrees to sell the land to C for $120 000. Again, settlement is to take place on 31 July. Before 31 July, B directs A, that at settlement, A transfer the land to C.

The agreement between A and B is the first agreement. The agreement between B and C is the intervening agreement. No transfer duty is imposed on the transfer from A to C if transfer duty on the first and intervening agreements has been paid.

23 When credit to be allowed for lease duty paid

If section 14(1)(c) is applied to determine the value of land because of a lease or occupancy right, in assessing the transfer duty payable for the dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of the land, a credit must be allowed for any lease duty paid for the lease or right.

24 Rates of transfer duty

(1) The rate of transfer duty imposed on each of the following dutiable transactions for dutiable property that is a Queensland marketable security is 60c for each $100, or part of $100, of the dutiable value of the transaction—

- (a) a transfer of the security;
- (b) an agreement for the transfer of the security;
- (c) a share buy-back of the security;

- (d) a vesting, under an Act, Commonwealth Act or court order, of the security;
- (e) a foreclosure of a mortgage over the security.

(2) The rate of transfer duty imposed on a dutiable transaction that is a partnership acquisition, the creation or termination of a trust or a trust acquisition or trust surrender is—

- (a) for a Queensland marketable security held by the partnership or the subject of the trust—the rate under subsection (1) for the part of the dutiable value of the dutiable transaction that is attributable to the Queensland marketable security; and
- (b) for other dutiable property held by the partnership or the subject of the trust—the rate under subsection (4) for the part of the dutiable value of the dutiable transaction that is attributable to the property.

(3) The rate of transfer duty imposed on a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or an agreement for the transfer, of an existing right of a holder of the following is $5—

- (a) a mortgage, including the debt secured by the mortgage, that is solely over land in Queensland;
- (b) a charge, bill of sale or other security, including the debt secured by the security, over dutiable property if—
 - (i) the security is incidental to, and transferred in connection with, a mortgage mentioned in paragraph (a); and
 - (ii) the mortgage is the principal security held by the transferor.

(4) The rate of transfer duty imposed on another dutiable transaction is stated in schedule 3, column 2, opposite the dutiable value of the transaction in schedule 3, column 1.

25 Payment of transfer duty for deeds of grant

The grantee under a deed of grant issued under the Land Act 1994 must, within 30 days after the liability to pay transfer duty arises, pay the transfer duty to the chief executive of the department in which that Act is administered.

PART 4—APPORTIONMENT OF CONSIDERATION OR UNENCUMBERED VALUE FOR PARTICULAR DUTIABLE TRANSACTIONS

26 Apportionment—head office or principal place of business in Queensland

(1) This section applies for determining the consideration for a dutiable transaction for or relating to, or the unencumbered value of, dutiable property that is a Queensland business asset, other than a debt or personal property, of a Queensland business that has its head office or principal place of business in Queensland if, at any time during the 3 financial years preceding the dutiable transaction concerned—

- (a) a supply or provision of services has been made by the business to customers outside Queensland; or
- (b) the asset has been used, exploited or exercised in, or relates to, a place outside Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to consideration for the transaction or the unencumbered value of the property is taken to be a reference to the amount (the “apportioned amount”) worked out using the following formula—

$$AA = CUV \times \frac{(TS - OS)}{TS}$$

where—

“AA” means the apportioned amount.

“CUV” means the consideration for the dutiable transaction or unencumbered value of the Queensland business asset mentioned in subsection (1).

“OS” means the gross amount of the supplies and provision of services made by the business to its customers in other States during the 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction.

“TS” means the gross amount of supplies and provision of services made by the business to all its customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction.

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the consideration for the dutiable transaction or the unencumbered value of the dutiable property on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

27 Apportionment—head office or principal place of business in another State

(1) This section applies for determining the consideration for a dutiable transaction for or relating to, or the unencumbered value of, dutiable property that is a Queensland business asset, other than a debt or personal property, of a Queensland business that does not have its head office or principal place of business in Queensland if, at any time during the 3 financial years preceding the dutiable transaction concerned—

- (a) a supply or provision of services has been made by the business to customers in Queensland; or
- (b) the asset has been used, exploited or exercised in, or relates to, Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to consideration for the transaction or the unencumbered value of the property is taken to be a reference to the amount (the “apportioned amount”) worked out using the following formula—

$$AA = CUV \times \frac{QS}{TS}$$

where—

“AA” means the apportioned amount.

“CUV” means the consideration for the dutiable transaction or unencumbered value of the Queensland business asset mentioned in subsection (1).

“QS” means the gross amount of the supplies and provision of services made by the business to its Queensland customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction.

“TS” means the gross amount of supplies and provision of services made by the business to all its customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the dutiable transaction.

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the consideration for the dutiable transaction or the unencumbered value of the dutiable property on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

28 Apportionment of particular dutiable transactions relating to existing and new rights

(1) This section applies for determining—

- (a) the consideration for a dutiable transaction for or relating to an existing right or acquisition of a new right on its creation, grant or issue if the right is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or activity outside Queensland; or
- (b) the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is an existing right if the right is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or activity outside Queensland; or
- (c) the unencumbered value of a new right on its creation, grant or issue if the right is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or activity outside Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to consideration for the transaction or the unencumbered value of the right is taken to be a reference to the amount that represents the same proportion of the consideration or unencumbered value that the unencumbered value of the right, to the extent it is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or activity in Queensland, bears to the total unencumbered value of the right.

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the consideration for the dutiable transaction or the unencumbered value of the right on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

PART 5—DUTIABLE TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO DUTIABLE PROPERTY

29 When transaction for chattel is not dutiable transaction

(1) If a chattel in Queensland is the subject of a transaction, the transaction is not a dutiable transaction unless—

- (a) another type of dutiable property is the subject of the same transaction; or
- (b) under section 30, it is aggregated with a dutiable transaction that is not for a chattel.

(2) For subsection (1)(b), section 30 applies as if the transaction were a dutiable transaction.

30 Aggregation of dutiable transactions

(1) This section applies to dutiable transactions that together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement.

(2) For assessing transfer duty on each of the dutiable transactions, the transactions must be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction.

Example for subsection (2)—

A conducts a business of manufacturing bullbars. A agrees to sell the business to B as a going concern for $500,000.00. The property included in the agreement comprises land, plant and equipment, goodwill and the business name.

The land is dutiable property being land in Queensland and each of the other assets are dutiable property being Queensland business assets.

The agreement, so far as it relates to the sale of the land, is a dutiable transaction being an agreement to transfer land in Queensland and, so far as it relates to the agreement to sell each of the business assets, is a dutiable transaction being an agreement to transfer dutiable property that is a Queensland business asset. Accordingly, there are 4 dutiable transactions under the agreement.

Because the dutiable transactions together form 1 arrangement, they must be aggregated under this section for imposing transfer duty.

(3) For subsection (1), all relevant circumstances relating to the dutiable transactions must be taken into account in deciding whether they together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement.

(4) For subsection (3), relevant circumstances include the following—

- (a) whether the transactions are contained in 1 instrument;
- (b) whether any of the transactions are conditional on entry into, or completion of, any of the other transactions;
- (c) whether the parties to any of the transactions are the same;
- (d) whether any party to a transaction is a related person of another party to any of the other transactions;
- (e) the time over which the transactions take place;
- (f) whether, before the transactions take place, the dutiable property the subject of the transactions was used together, or dependently with one another, by the transferor or transferors;
- (g) whether, after the transactions take place, the dutiable property the subject of the transactions will be used together, or dependently with one another, by the transferee or transferees.

(5) Transfer duty imposed on the dutiable transaction aggregated under this section must—

- (a) be assessed on the total of the dutiable values of the transactions when the liability for transfer duty for each of the transactions arose; and
- (b) be apportioned between the transactions as decided by the commissioner.

Example for subsection (5)—

Under 4 agreements between a builder and a developer, the builder agrees to purchase 4 lots of land from the developer for $100,000 each. The lots are dutiable property being land in Queensland and each of the agreements is a dutiable transaction being an agreement to transfer land in Queensland.

Even though the sale of the 4 lots was negotiated at the same time, the agreements were signed on different dates over a 10 month period, had different settlement dates and were not conditional on each other.

Under section 24 (Rates of transfer duty) and schedule 3 (Rates of duty on dutiable transaction and relevant acquisitions for land rich and corporate trustee duty), the agreements for lots 1 to 3 have been separately stamped for $2 350 transfer duty. When the agreement for lot 4 is lodged for stamping, the commissioner decides this section applies because the transactions together formed 1 arrangement.

Accordingly, the transactions must be aggregated under this section for imposing transfer duty and the duty apportioned between them.

Under subsection (5)(a), the total of the dutiable values of the dutiable transactions on which transfer duty is imposed is $400,000, being the value of each of the lots when the liability for transfer duty arose for each of the transactions, regardless of a variation in the values since the liability arose.

Under section 24 and schedule 3, transfer duty imposed on the aggregated transaction is $12 475.

If the commissioner decides to apportion the transfer duty equally between the dutiable transactions, the amount of transfer duty payable is $3118.75 for each transaction.

Under the Administration Act, part 3, the commissioner will make a reassessment for the transactions for lots 1 to 3. The assessment notice must state the matters mentioned in section 26(2) of that Act.

(6) Each party to each of the dutiable transactions must, when lodging the instrument or transfer duty statement relating to the transaction, give notice to the commissioner stating details known to the party about—

- (a) all of the dutiable property included or to be included in the arrangement mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (b) the dutiable value of each dutiable transaction.

Note—

Under the Administration Act, the requirement under this subsection is a lodgment requirement for which a failure to comply is an offence under section 121 of that Act.

(7) This section does not apply to a dutiable transaction to the extent that it relates to—

- (a) a Queensland marketable security; or
- (b) the partition of dutiable property under section 31; or
- (c) an exchange of dutiable property.

31 Partitions

(1) This section applies to dutiable transactions under which dutiable property held by persons jointly as joint tenants or tenants in common is transferred, or agreed to be transferred, to 1 or more of the persons (a “partition”).

(2) The dutiable value of each dutiable transaction comprising the partition is the greater of the following—

- (a) the amount by which the unencumbered value of the dutiable property transferred, or agreed to be transferred, is more than the unencumbered value of the interest held by the transferee in the property immediately before the transaction;

(b) the consideration paid by any party to the transaction.

(3) For assessing transfer duty on each of the dutiable transactions, the transactions must be aggregated and treated as a single dutiable transaction.

(4) The transfer duty imposed on the dutiable transactions under this section must be apportioned between the transactions as decided by the commissioner.

(5) This section does not apply to a transaction if section 48⁷ applies to the transaction.

32 Transfer by way of security—land

(1) This section applies if the commissioner is satisfied—

(a) there has been a dutiable transaction that is a transfer of dutiable property by way of security (the “original transfer”); and

(b) the property is land; and

(c) transfer duty has been paid on the transaction; and

(d) the property has been retransferred to the person who transferred it by way of security (the “retransfer”) or has been transferred to a person to whom the property has been transmitted by death or bankruptcy (also the “retransfer”).

(2) The commissioner must make a reassessment of transfer duty paid on the original transfer to reduce the duty to the amount that would have been payable if the amount secured by the transfer had been secured by a mortgage for which mortgage duty were imposed.

(3) Transfer duty is not imposed on the dutiable transaction that is the retransfer.

(4) Subsection (2) applies to the reassessment despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments.⁸

⁷ Section 48 (Dutiable value of dutiable transaction reduced for transfer of dutiable property to partner on retirement or dissolution)

⁸ See the Administration Act, part 3, (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).

33 Transfer by way of security—other dutiable property

(1) Transfer duty is not imposed on a dutiable transaction if—

- (a) the transaction is a transfer of dutiable property by way of security; and
- (b) the property is not land.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if—

- (a) after the transfer by way of security, the transferee, or the transferee's assignee, acquires ownership of the dutiable property free from any interest of the transferor, or transferor's assignee; and
- (b) the transferee, or the transferee's assignee, were to newly acquire the dutiable property at the time of the acquisition mentioned in paragraph (a), the acquisition would be a dutiable transaction.

(3) The acquisition of the ownership of the dutiable property by the transferee is taken to be a dutiable transaction and transfer duty imposed on the transaction must be reduced by the amount of mortgage duty, if any, paid on the transfer.

PART 6—SPECIAL PROVISIONS ABOUT DUTIABLE TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO QUEENSLAND BUSINESS ASSETS

Division 1—Some basic concepts about Queensland businesses and their assets

34 What is a “Queensland business asset”

A “Queensland business asset” is a business asset of a Queensland business.

35 What is a “business asset”

(1) Each of the following is a “business asset”—

- (a) goodwill;

- (b) a statutory business licence used for carrying on a business;
 - (c) a right to use a statutory business licence used for carrying on a business;
 - (d) the business name used for carrying on a business;
 - (e) a right under a franchise arrangement used for carrying on a business;
 - (f) a debt of a business if the debtor resides in Queensland;
 - (g) a supply right of a business;
 - (h) intellectual property used for carrying on a business;
 - (i) personal property in Queensland of a business.
- (2) For subsection (1)—
- (a) a business asset mentioned in subsection (1)(b) that is issued or given under—
 - (i) a Queensland Act is used for carrying on a business; or
 - (ii) a Commonwealth Act is used for carrying on a business if it is used, exploited or exercised in Queensland; and
 - (b) another business asset is used for carrying on a business if it is used, exploited or exercised in Queensland.

36 What is a “Queensland business”

A “Queensland business” is a business—

- (a) that is conducted on or from a place in Queensland; or
- (b) the conduct of which consists wholly or partly of supplying land, money, credit or goods or any interest in them, or providing any service, to Queensland customers; or
- (c) that has ceased but satisfied paragraph (a) or (b) at any time in the 1 year before a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of an asset of the business.

Example for paragraph (c)—

A business conducted from a place in Queensland goes into liquidation. Three months after the business stops trading, the liquidator transfers business assets of the business. For determining whether the transfer of the business assets is a dutiable transaction, the business is a Queensland business because paragraph (a) was satisfied in the 1 year before the transfer.

Division 2—Transactions for particular assets of Queensland businesses

37 When transaction for particular Queensland business assets not dutiable transaction

(1) If a debt of a business that is evidenced by a negotiable instrument is the subject of a transaction, the transaction is not a dutiable transaction unless—

- (a) another type of dutiable property is the subject of the same transaction or, under section 30, it is aggregated with a dutiable transaction; or
- (b) under the transaction, the negotiable instrument is or is to be transferred with all, or substantially all, of the negotiable instruments of the business.

(2) If a supply right of a business is the subject of a transaction, the transaction is not a dutiable transaction unless—

- (a) another type of dutiable property is the subject of the same transaction or, under section 30, it is aggregated with a dutiable transaction; or
- (b) under the transaction, the supply right is or is to be transferred with all, or substantially all, of the supply rights of the business.

(3) If intellectual or personal property of a business is the subject of a transaction, the transaction is not a dutiable transaction unless, under section 30, it is aggregated with a dutiable transaction for a Queensland business asset, other than intellectual or personal property.

(4) For subsections (1)(a), (2)(a) and (3), section 30 applies as if the transaction were a dutiable transaction.

38 When consignment of trading stock of Queensland business is a dutiable transaction

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the owner of a Queensland business transfers or agrees to transfer a Queensland business asset, other than trading stock of the business, to a person (the “new owner”); and
- (b) the owner places all or most of the trading stock on consignment for sale by a person, whether or not the new owner, (the “consignee”) in the conduct of the business by the new owner; and
- (c) having regard to the terms of the consignment it is reasonable to conclude that the consignment is, or is part of, an arrangement to avoid transfer duty.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1)(c), the terms of the consignment include the following—

- (a) the amount payable to the owner by the consignee and the terms of payment;
- (b) the price ultimately payable to the owner for the trading stock and the way in which it is worked out;
- (c) the basis of working out the consignee’s commission;
- (d) the right of the consignee to mix the trading stock with other property not owned by the owner;
- (e) the right of the consignee to deal with the trading stock as if it were the consignee’s or other than as agent of the owner.

(3) The placing of the trading stock on consignment is taken to be a transfer of the stock.

Note—

Accordingly, the transfer is a dutiable transaction being the transfer of a Queensland business asset because trading stock is a business asset being personal property.

39 Surrender of Queensland business asset so replacement asset may be granted

(1) This section applies if a Queensland business asset is surrendered by a person (the “owner”) so that a similar business asset may be granted, issued, given to or obtained by another person.

(2) For imposing transfer duty—

- (a) the surrender is taken to be a transfer of the business asset by the owner to the other person when the similar business asset is granted, issued, given or obtained; and
- (b) the owner and other person are the parties to the dutiable transaction that is the transfer of the business asset.

PART 7—DUTIABLE TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO PARTNERSHIPS

Division 1—Preliminary

40 Interpretation for property held by partnership or trust

A reference to a partnership or trust holding property is a reference to the holding of the property by the partners for the partnership or trustees on trust.

Division 2—Some basic concepts about partnership acquisitions

41 What is a “partnership acquisition”

A person makes a “partnership acquisition” if the person acquires a partnership interest in a partnership that—

- (a) holds dutiable property; or
- (b) has an indirect interest in dutiable property.

42 What is a partner’s “partnership interest”

(1) A partner’s “partnership interest” is—

- (a) if the partner has a variable partnership entitlement under subsection (2)—the proportion that the value of the partner’s entitlements as a partner bears to the value of the entitlements of all partners in the partnership expressed as a percentage; or

- (b) if the partner is entitled only to share in the profits of the partnership and has given or is required to give consideration, or has made or is required to make a contribution to the capital of the partnership, for the acquisition of the profit-sharing right—the partner’s profit-sharing percentage; or
- (c) if paragraph (a) or (b) does not apply—the greater of the following—
 - (i) the percentage of the capital of the partnership the partner has contributed or is obliged to contribute;
 - (ii) the percentage of the losses of the partnership the partner is required to bear.

(2) For subsection (1)(a), a partner has a variable partnership entitlement in a partnership if, in the ordinary course of determining the partner’s entitlement to share in the profits or obligation to contribute to the capital or losses of the partnership, the entitlement or obligation varies or may vary from time to time.

43 What is a partnership’s “indirect interest” in dutiable property

A partnership has an “indirect interest” in dutiable property if—

- (a) through a partnership interest or trust interest there is a connection between the partnership and dutiable property of the other partnership or trust; or
- (b) through a series of partnership interests or trust interests, or a combination of any of them, there is a connection between the partnership and dutiable property of a partnership or trust in the series.

44 Acquiring a partnership interest

(1) A person acquires a partnership interest if a partnership is formed or the person’s partnership interest increases.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1)—

- (a) a partnership may be formed on—
 - (i) a change in the membership of a partnership; or
 - (ii) the merger of 2 or more partnerships; or

- (b) a person's partnership interest may increase—
 - (i) under the terms of a partnership agreement; or
 - (ii) on the retirement of a partner from a partnership; or
 - (iii) on a change in the terms of a partnership agreement effecting a change in the interests of the partners.

(3) However, a partner's variable partnership entitlement under section 42 does not increase if—

- (a) the partner's entitlement to share in the profits or obligation to contribute to the capital or losses of the partnership increases merely because of the partner's performance as a partner; and
- (b) there is no arrangement stating—
 - (i) the extent of the future variation to the partner's entitlement or obligation; or
 - (ii) the consideration for the variation.

Division 3—Dutiable value of partnership acquisitions

45 What is the dutiable value of a partnership acquisition

The dutiable value of a partnership acquisition is the greater of the following—

- (a) the consideration for the acquisition so far as the consideration relates to dutiable property, or an indirect interest in dutiable property, held by the partnership;
- (b) the value of the acquisition worked out under section 46 or 47.

46 What is the value of a partnership acquisition—general

(1) Subject to subsections (5) and (6), the value of a partnership acquisition is the total of the amounts worked out by applying the partner's partnership interest to the unencumbered value, when the liability for transfer duty arises, of—

- (a) the dutiable property held by the partnership (the “relevant partnership”); and

- (b) any indirect interest in dutiable property held by the relevant partnership.

(2) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest under section 43(a) of the relevant partnership is the amount worked out by applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the entity in which the relevant partnership has a partnership or trust interest, the partnership or trust interest of the relevant partnership in that entity.

(3) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest under section 43(b) of the relevant partnership is the amount worked out by—

- (a) first applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the ultimate entity, the partnership or trust interest of the partnership or trust (the “last partner or beneficiary”) that is a partner or beneficiary of the ultimate entity; and
- (b) applying to the amount worked out under paragraph (a), and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the last partner or beneficiary, the partnership or trust interest of the next partnership or trust in the series of partnerships or trusts that is a partner or beneficiary of the last partner or beneficiary; and
- (c) applying the calculation in paragraph (b) for each of the other partnerships or trusts in the series until the first entity’s partnership interest or trust interest is used in the calculation; and
- (d) applying to the amount last worked out under paragraph (c) and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the first entity, the partnership or trust interest of the relevant partnership.

(4) Schedule 4 contains an example of how the value of a partnership acquisition is worked out.

(5) For determining the value of a partner’s partnership acquisition, the value of any dutiable property the partner contributed to the partnership on its formation must be disregarded.

(6) For determining the value of a partner’s partnership acquisition that is an increase in the partner’s partnership interest, the acquisition is taken to be the increase in the partner’s partnership interest.

47 What is the value of a partnership acquisition—merger of 2 or more partnerships

- (1) This section applies if—

Duties Act 2001

- (a) a person (the “partner”) first makes a partnership acquisition (the “new partnership acquisition”) on the merger of 2 or more partnerships; and
- (b) the person had a partnership interest (the “old partnership interest”) in 1 of the merging partnerships; and
- (c) the partner were to make a partnership acquisition for the old partnership interest immediately before the merger, the value of the partnership acquisition would include all or part of the unencumbered value of dutiable property (the “continuing property”) that becomes dutiable property of the merged partnership.

(2) The value of the new partnership acquisition must be reduced by the lesser of—

- (a) the amount that would be the value of the new partnership acquisition if the dutiable property of the merged partnership comprised only the continuing property; or
- (b) the amount that represents the value of the partner’s partnership acquisition for the old partnership interest mentioned in subsection (1)(c) immediately before the merger worked out as if the dutiable property of the former partnership comprised only the continuing property.

Example for working out dutiable value under this section—

X is a 30% partner in the XYZ partnership that has dutiable property of $10M. The XYZ partnership merges with another partnership, to form a new partnership (the merged partnership). X has a 40% partnership interest in the merged partnership. The merged partnership has dutiable property with an unencumbered value of $12M, including $2M of the dutiable property of the XYZ partnership (the continuing property).

The value of X’s new partnership acquisition is worked out as follows—

Example—

1. The value of X’s interest in the merged partnership is $4.8M, being 40% (X’s partnership interest in the merged partnership) of $12M (the unencumbered value of the merged partnership’s dutiable property).
2. The reduction under subsection (2)(a) is $800 000, being 40% (X’s partnership interest in the merged partnership) of $2M (the continuing property).
3. The reduction under subsection (2)(b) is $600 000, being 30% (X’s partnership interest in the XYZ partnership) of $2M (the continuing property).

The value of X’s partnership acquisition is $4.2M, being $4.8M less $600 000 which is the lesser of the amounts worked out under subsection (2).

Division 4—Dutiable value of other dutiable transactions for dutiable property of partnership

48 Dutiable value of dutiable transaction reduced for transfer of dutiable property to partner on retirement or dissolution

(1) This section applies if, on a person (the “retiring partner”) ceasing to be a partner in a partnership because of the retiring partner’s retirement from the partnership or its dissolution, dutiable property of the partnership is transferred or agreed to be transferred to the retiring partner.

(2) The dutiable value of the dutiable transaction for the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of the dutiable property to the retiring partner must be reduced by an amount worked out by applying the retiring partner’s partnership interest in the partnership to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property immediately before the retirement or dissolution.

Example for subsection (2)—

A, B and C are in partnership in equal shares. B had a one-third partnership interest immediately before retiring. On B ceasing to be a partner, A and C transfer land to B. The dutiable value of the land acquired by B will be reduced by one-third.

PART 8—DUTIABLE TRANSACTIONS RELATING TO TRUSTS

Division 1—Preliminary

49 Application of pt 8

(1) This part applies to all expressly or intentionally created trusts, regardless of how they are created.

(2) However, this part does not apply to a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a public unit trust other than a majority trust acquisition in a land holding trust.⁹

⁹ See division 7 (Public unit trusts), subdivisions 7 (Majority trust acquisitions in land holding trusts) and 8 (Indirect trust interests).

50 Joint trustees

If a trust has 2 or more trustees, the trustees are taken to be a single person for this chapter.

Note—

Under section 65, trustees are jointly and severally liable for transfer duty payable.

Division 2—Some basic concepts about property51 Interpretation for property held by trust or partnership

A reference to a trust or partnership holding property is a reference to the holding of the property by the trustees on trust or the partners for the partnership.

52 Contracted property

(1) For a trust, contracted property is taken to be dutiable property held by the trust.

(2) For determining the dutiable value of a trust creation, trust termination, trust acquisition or trust surrender—

- (a) a sale agreement made by the trustee is taken not to have been made; and
- (b) a purchase agreement made by the trustee is taken to have been completed.

(3) If contracted property is included in determining the dutiable value of a trust creation, trust termination, trust acquisition or trust surrender and the sale agreement for the property is later completed or the purchase agreement for the property is later rescinded, the commissioner must make a reassessment as if the contracted property were never held by the trust.

(4) For the reassessment, the parties liable to pay transfer duty on the trust creation, trust termination, trust acquisition or trust surrender must lodge the instruments required for the original assessment.

Division 3—Creation and termination of trusts53 Creating trust of dutiable property

(1) A trust of dutiable property is created if a person, who has acquired property other than as trustee, starts to hold the property as trustee.

(2) Also, a trust of dutiable property is created if all the following apply—

- (a) a person holds dutiable property on trust (“trust 1”);
- (b) the person is also trustee of another trust (“trust 2”);
- (c) the person ceases to hold the dutiable property as trustee of trust 1 and starts to hold the dutiable property as trustee for trust 2;
- (d) when the person starts to hold the dutiable property as trustee for trust 2—
 - (i) a person who has a trust interest for the dutiable property under trust 2 did not have a trust interest for that property when it was held for trust 1; or
 - (ii) a person who has a trust interest for the dutiable property under trust 2 had a trust interest for that property when it was held for trust 1 and that person’s trust interest increases.

54 Terminating trust of dutiable property

A trust of dutiable property is terminated if a person, having held the property as trustee, starts to hold the property other than as trustee.

Division 4—Some basic concepts about trust acquisitions and trust surrenders55 What is a “trust acquisition”

A person makes a “trust acquisition” if the person acquires a trust interest in a trust that—

- (a) holds dutiable property; or
- (b) has an indirect interest in dutiable property.

Note—

Under section 81, an indirect trust acquisition in a land holding trust is taken to be a trust acquisition. An indirect trust acquisition is the acquisition of an interest in a land holding trust through 1 or more corporations, partnerships or trusts, or a combination of any of them. See definitions “indirect trust acquisition” and “indirect trust interest” in the dictionary.

56 What is a “trust surrender”

A person makes a “trust surrender” if the person surrenders a trust interest in a trust that holds dutiable property or has an indirect interest in dutiable property.

57 What is a “trust interest”

(1) A “trust interest” is a person’s interest as a beneficiary of a trust, other than a life interest.

(2) For a trust that is a discretionary trust, only a taker in default of an appointment by the trustee can have a trust interest.

(3) Also, for a trust that is a superannuation fund, a member of the fund has a trust interest in the fund.

Note—

For exemption from transfer duty for a trust acquisition or surrender of a member’s interest in a superannuation fund, see section 119.

58 What is a trust’s “indirect interest” in dutiable property

A trust has an “indirect interest” in dutiable property if—

- (a) through a trust interest or partnership interest, there is a connection between the trust and dutiable property of the other trust or partnership; or
- (b) through a series of trust interests or partnership interests, or a combination of any of them, there is a connection between the trust and dutiable property of a trust or partnership in the series.

59 Acquiring a trust interest

(1) A person acquires a trust interest if—

- (a) the person becomes a beneficiary of a trust, whether on creation of the trust or otherwise; or
- (b) being a beneficiary of a trust, the person's trust interest increases, other than because of the surrender of another person's trust interest in the trust for which transfer duty has been paid.

(2) If a beneficiary's trust interest is subject to a prior life interest, the interest does not increase merely because the life tenant dies or, over time, the extent of the life interest reduces.

60 Beneficiary's trust interest is percentage of or proportionate to property held on trust

(1) A beneficiary's trust interest is—

- (a) for a beneficiary who is a taker in default under a discretionary trust—
 - (i) the percentage of the trust income or trust property the beneficiary would receive in default of appointment by the trustee; or
 - (ii) if the beneficiary would receive both trust income and trust property in default of appointment by the trustee, the greater percentage of the trust income or trust property the beneficiary would receive; or
- (b) for a beneficiary of a trust, other than a discretionary trust, whose entitlement is solely to income of the property held on trust—the proportion of the value of the beneficiary's entitlement that bears to the value of the entitlements of all beneficiaries expressed as a percentage; or
- (c) for another beneficiary—the proportion that the beneficiary's entitlement under the trust bears to the unencumbered value of the property held on trust expressed as a percentage.

(2) For subsection (1)(c), the beneficiary's entitlement under the trust is—

- (a) the amount of the unencumbered value of the property held on trust that the beneficiary could receive as a result of the acquisition of the beneficiary's trust interest determined at the time of acquisition of the interest; or
- (b) the entitlement stated in subsection (3) if—

- (i) the beneficiary's entitlement under the trust is not subject to a prior life interest; and
- (ii) the beneficiary's entitlement under the trust may increase, including from nothing, on the fulfilment of any condition, contingency or the exercise or non-exercise of any power or discretion; and
- (iii) the condition, contingency, power or discretion is part of an arrangement a significant purpose of which is to lessen the amount of the beneficiary's entitlement at a particular time.

(3) For subsection (2)(b), the beneficiary's entitlement under the trust is the maximum interest in the property held on trust that the beneficiary would have on the fulfilment of the condition or contingency or the exercise or non-exercise of the power or discretion.

(4) For a majority trust acquisition, a reference in this section to a beneficiary's entitlement under the trust includes the entitlement under the trust of related persons of the beneficiary.

61 Who is a "related person"

- (1) A person is a "related person" of another person if—
- (a) for individuals—they are members of the same family; or
 - (b) for an individual and a corporation—the person or a member of the person's family is a majority shareholder, director or secretary of the corporation or a related body corporate of the corporation, or has a majority interest in it; or
 - (c) for an individual and a trustee—the person or a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the trust; or
 - (d) for corporations—they are related bodies corporate; or
 - (e) for a corporation and a trustee—the corporation or a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the trust; or
 - (f) for trustees—
 - (i) there is a person who is a beneficiary of both trusts; or

- (ii) a person is beneficiary of 1 trust and a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the other trust.

(2) Also, a person is a “related person” of another person if the persons acquire trust interests in a land holding trust and the acquisitions form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is substantially 1 arrangement.

(3) However, a person is not a “related person” of another person under subsection (1) if the commissioner is satisfied the interests of the persons—

- (a) were acquired independently; and
- (b) were not acquired for a common purpose.

Division 5—Dutiable value of trust acquisitions and trust surrenders

62 What is the dutiable value of a trust acquisition or trust surrender

The dutiable value of a trust acquisition or trust surrender is the greater of the following—

- (a) the consideration for the acquisition or surrender so far as the consideration relates to dutiable property, or an indirect interest in dutiable property, held by the trust;
- (b) the value of the acquisition or surrender worked out under section 63.

63 What is the value of a trust acquisition or trust surrender

(1) Subject to subsections (6) to (8), the value of a trust acquisition or trust surrender is the total of the amounts worked out by applying the beneficiary’s trust interest to the unencumbered value, when the liability for transfer duty arises, of—

- (a) the dutiable property held by the trust (the “relevant trust”); and
- (b) any indirect interest in dutiable property held by the relevant trust.

Note—

Under section 52(1), dutiable property includes contracted property.

(2) For subsection (1), the beneficiary's trust interest for a trust surrender is the beneficiary's trust interest immediately before the surrender.

(3) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest under section 58(a) of the relevant trust is the amount worked out by applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the entity in which the relevant trust has a trust or partnership interest, the trust or partnership interest of the relevant trust in that entity.

(4) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest under section 58(b) of the relevant trust is the amount worked out by—

- (a) first applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the ultimate entity, the trust or partnership interest of the trust or partnership (the “last beneficiary or partner”) that is a beneficiary or partner of the ultimate entity; and
- (b) applying to the amount worked out under paragraph (a), and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the last beneficiary or partner, the trust or partnership interest of the next trust or partnership in the series of trusts or partnerships that is a beneficiary or partner of the last beneficiary or partner; and
- (c) applying the calculation in paragraph (b) for each of the other trusts or partnerships in the series until the first entity's trust interest or partnership interest is used in the calculation; and
- (d) applying to the amount last worked out under paragraph (c) and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the first entity, the trust or partnership interest of the relevant trust.

(5) Schedule 4 contains an example of how the value of a trust acquisition is worked out.

(6) For determining the value of a beneficiary's trust acquisition that is an increase in the beneficiary's trust interest, other than a majority trust acquisition, the beneficiary's trust interest is taken to be the increase in the beneficiary's trust interest.

(7) Subsection (8) applies to a majority trust acquisition that is an increase in a beneficiary's trust interest (the “relevant trust acquisition”) that has happened in the following circumstances—

- (a) the trust interest of the beneficiary and related persons of the beneficiary was more than 50% immediately before the relevant trust acquisition;

- (b) transfer duty was previously paid for a majority trust acquisition in the trust made by the beneficiary or related persons;
- (c) since the majority trust acquisition mentioned in paragraph (b), no other related person of the beneficiary has made a trust acquisition in the trust.

(8) For determining the value of the beneficiary's trust acquisition that is the relevant trust acquisition, the beneficiary's trust interest is taken to be the increase in the beneficiary's trust interest.

Division 6—Liability to transfer duty

64 Liability to pay transfer duty on creation or termination of trust

(1) If a trust of dutiable property is created or terminated, the trustee of the trust is the party to the dutiable transaction that is the creation or termination of the trust.

(2) If the trustee of the trust does not pay the transfer duty, the beneficiaries of the trust are jointly and severally liable for the duty.

65 Liability of joint trustees

If a trust has 2 or more trustees, the trustees are jointly and severally liable for any transfer duty imposed.

66 When no transfer duty on trust acquisition or trust surrender

(1) If, because of the creation of a trust of dutiable property, a person acquires a trust interest in the property, transfer duty is not imposed on the acquisition if—

- (a) transfer duty has been paid for the dutiable transaction that is the creation of the trust of the property; or
- (b) the dutiable transaction that is the creation of the trust of the property is exempt from transfer duty.

(2) If, because of the acquisition of dutiable property by a trust, a person acquires a trust interest in the property, transfer duty is not imposed on the acquisition of the trust interest if—

- (a) the trustee has paid transfer duty for the acquisition of the property; or
- (b) the dutiable transaction that is the acquisition of the property is exempt from transfer duty; or
- (c) duty is not imposed on the acquisition of the property by the trustee.

(3) If, because of the termination of a trust of dutiable property, a person surrenders a trust interest in the property, transfer duty is not imposed on the surrender if—

- (a) transfer duty has been paid for the dutiable transaction that is the termination of the trust of the property; or
- (b) the dutiable transaction that is the termination of the trust of the property is exempt from transfer duty.

67 Parties to trust acquisition and trust surrender

(1) For a trust acquisition, the beneficiary acquiring the trust interest is the party to the dutiable transaction.

(2) For a trust surrender, the trustee and the beneficiary whose trust interest is surrendered are the parties to the dutiable transaction.

Note—

Under section 17, the parties to a dutiable transaction are liable to pay transfer duty imposed on the transaction.

Division 7—Public unit trusts

Subdivision 1—Preliminary

68 What is a “public unit trust”

A “public unit trust” is—

- (a) a listed unit trust; or
- (b) a widely held unit trust; or
- (c) a wholesale unit trust; or

- (d) a pooled public investment unit trust; or
- (e) a declared public unit trust.

Subdivision 2—Basic concepts about listed unit trusts

69 What is a “listed unit trust”

A “listed unit trust” is a unit trust the units in which are quoted on the market operated by a recognised stock exchange.

Subdivision 3—Basic concepts about widely held unit trusts

70 What is a “widely held unit trust”

(1) A “widely held unit trust” is a unit trust, other than a listed unit trust, that is a registered managed investment scheme for which—

- (a) units in the trust have been issued to the public; and
- (b) 50 or more persons are beneficially entitled to the units in the trust; and
- (c) more than 20 persons are beneficially entitled to at least 75% of the total units in the trust.

Note—

Also, under section 71, the commissioner may treat a unit trust as a widely held unit trust.

(2) However, for a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a trust, a unit trust is not a widely held unit trust if subsection (1)(b) and (c) is not satisfied before and after the trust acquisition or trust surrender.

(3) For subsection (2), a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a unit trust includes a series of trust acquisitions or trust surrenders under an arrangement.

(4) If subsection (2) applies to a unit trust, the trust is not a widely held unit trust from immediately before the trust acquisition or trust surrender or the first acquisition or surrender under the arrangement.

(5) For subsection (1), a person is taken to be beneficially entitled to all units held by the person and related persons of the person.

71 When unit trust may be treated as widely held unit trust

(1) This section applies if the commissioner is satisfied—

- (a) units in a unit trust (the “start up units”) will be issued to the public to an extent and with the entitlements mentioned in section 70(1) within 1 year after the first issue of units to the public; and
- (b) the start up units are the only units in the unit trust to be issued from and including the first issue to the public until the unit trust becomes a widely held unit trust (the “start-up period”).

(2) The commissioner may treat the unit trust as a widely held unit trust for the start-up period.

(3) However, if the start-up units are not issued in the way mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or are not the only units issued in the unit trust in the start-up period (the “disqualifying circumstances”)—

- (a) the trustee must, within 28 days after the disqualifying circumstances happen, give the commissioner notice about the disqualifying circumstances; and
- (b) the unit trust is taken not to have been a widely held unit trust in the start-up period; and
- (c) the commissioner must make an assessment for transfer duty for each trust acquisition or trust surrender in the start-up period as if the trust were not a widely held unit trust in the period; and
- (d) the start date for the Administration Act, section 54(4), is 61 days after the relevant trust acquisition or trust surrender.

Subdivision 4—Basic concepts about wholesale unit trusts

72 What is a “wholesale unit trust”

(1) A “wholesale unit trust” is a unit trust, other than a listed unit trust—

- (a) that is established and managed by a funds manager; and
- (b) the units in which are predominantly acquired by, for or on account of, wholesale investors.

(2) A “wholesale unit trust” includes a unit trust that holds land in Queensland, or has an indirect interest in land in Queensland, only if the trust was established, and continues, solely for the investment of funds placed with it by wholesale investors using the funds manager’s funds management and investment services.

(3) However, for a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a trust, a unit trust is not a wholesale unit trust if—

- (a) the trust is established or managed for a particular person; or
- (b) subsection (1)(b) or if applicable subsection (2) is not satisfied before and after the trust acquisition or trust surrender.

(4) For subsection (3), a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a unit trust includes a series of trust acquisitions or trust surrenders under an arrangement.

(5) If subsection (3) applies to a unit trust, the trust is not a wholesale unit trust from immediately before the trust acquisition or trust surrender or the first acquisition or surrender under the arrangement.

73 What is a “funds manager”

(1) A “funds manager” is—

- (a) a body corporate that provides funds management and investment services to wholesale investors as its principal business if—
 - (i) the body corporate manages funds of more than $500 000 000 invested with it; and
 - (ii) the business is not conducted to provide the services only to particular wholesale investors; and
 - (iii) the body corporate is recognised by other funds managers as a competitor with them for the services; or
- (b) a body corporate that is a member of a corporate group of a financial institution or an insurer whose principal business is providing funds management and investment services to wholesale investors if—
 - (i) the body corporate or the corporate group manages funds of more than $500 000 000 invested with it by wholesale investors; and

- (ii) the business is not conducted to provide the services only to particular wholesale investors; and
- (iii) the body corporate is recognised by other funds managers as a competitor with them for the services.

(2) Subsection (3) applies if the commissioner is satisfied a body corporate or corporate group will provide funds management and investment services to wholesale investors to the extent mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) within the start-up period.

(3) The commissioner may treat the body corporate as a funds manager for the start-up period.

(4) However, if the body corporate or corporate group does not provide funds management and investment services as mentioned in subsection (1) in the start-up period—

- (a) the body corporate must, within 28 days after the end of the start-up period, give the commissioner notice of that fact; and
- (b) the body corporate is taken not to have been a funds manager in the start-up period; and
- (c) the commissioner must make an assessment for transfer duty for each trust acquisition or trust surrender in the start-up period as if the body corporate were not a funds manager in the period; and
- (d) the start date for the Administration Act, section 54(4), is 61 days after the relevant trust acquisition or trust surrender.

(5) In this section—

“start-up period”, for a body corporate, means 1 year after the first acquisition by a wholesale investor of a trust interest in a unit trust established and managed by the body corporate.

74 Who is a “wholesale investor”

A “wholesale investor” in a wholesale unit trust is—

- (a) a funds manager, other than the funds manager that established and manages the trust, investing funds of another wholesale unit trust managed by the funds manager; or
- (b) the trustee of another wholesale unit trust investing funds of another wholesale unit trust managed by the trustee; or

- (c) the trustee of a superannuation fund under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cwlth) having more than $10 000 000 in assets; or
- (d) a person who has more than $10 000 000 invested in wholesale unit trusts.

Subdivision 5—Basic concepts about pooled public investment unit trusts

75 What is a “pooled public investment unit trust”

(1) A “pooled public investment unit trust” is a unit trust, other than a listed unit trust, widely held unit trust, wholesale unit trust or declared public unit trust, that is a registered managed investment scheme or exempt managed investment scheme for which—

- (a) either of the following apply—
 - (i) units in the trust have been issued to the public;
 - (ii) at least 75% of the total units in the trust are held by 2 or more large qualified holders; and
- (b) at least 50 persons are entitled to units in the trust; and
- (c) more than 20 persons are entitled to at least 75% of the total units in the trust.¹⁰

(2) However, for a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a trust, a unit trust is not a pooled public investment unit trust unless—

- (a) if subsection (1)(a)(i) applies—subsection (1)(b) and (c) is satisfied before and after the trust acquisition or trust surrender; or
- (b) if subsection (1)(a)(ii) applies—subsection (1)(a)(ii), (b) and (c) is satisfied before and after the trust acquisition or trust surrender.

(3) For subsection (2), a trust acquisition or trust surrender of a trust interest in a unit trust includes a series of trust acquisitions or trust surrenders under an arrangement.

(4) If subsection (2) applies to a unit trust, the trust is not a pooled public investment unit trust from immediately before the trust acquisition or trust surrender or the first acquisition or surrender under the arrangement.

76 Who is a “qualified holder” and a “large qualified holder”

(1) A “qualified holder” of units in a unit trust is—

- (a) the trustee of a listed unit trust, widely held unit trust, wholesale unit trust or declared public unit trust; or
- (b) the trustee of a complying superannuation fund; or
- (c) the trustee of a complying approved deposit fund; or
- (d) a life company if the units held represent an investment of its statutory funds maintained by it under the Life Insurance Act 1995 (Cwlth).

(2) A “large qualified holder” of units in a unit trust is a qualified holder with more than 50 members.

77 Who is holder of units in pooled public investment unit trust

(1) For section 75, a qualified holder is taken to hold the units in a unit trust held for the holder by a custodian.

(2) For section 75(1)(b) and (c)—

- (a) a trustee of a complying superannuation fund that has invested in a pooled superannuation trust is taken to hold the number of units in a unit trust held by the trustee of the pooled superannuation trust that is worked out by applying the fund’s interest in the pooled superannuation trust to the units held by the trustee; and
- (b) a member of a pooled public investment unit trust is taken to hold the number of units in a unit trust held by the trustee of the pooled public investment unit trust that is worked out by applying the member’s interest in the pooled public investment unit trust to the units held by the trustee.

(3) For subsection (2)(a), a complying superannuation fund’s interest in a pooled superannuation trust is the proportion that the fund’s investment bears to the total of all investments in the trust expressed as a percentage.

(4) For subsection (2)(b), a member’s interest in a pooled public investment unit trust is the proportion that the value of the member’s entitlement as a member bears to the value of the entitlements of all members in the trust expressed as a percentage.

78 Who is entitled to units in pooled public investment unit trust

(1) For section 75(1)(b) and (c)—

- (b) another holder of units in the trust is entitled to the units held.

(2) For subsection (1)(a), a member's interest in a large qualified holder is the proportion that the value of the member's entitlement as a member bears to the value of the entitlements of all members in the holder expressed as a percentage.

(3) For section 75, a person who is entitled to units in the unit trust is taken to be entitled to all units that, under subsection (1)(a) and (b), the person and related persons of the person are entitled.

Subdivision 6—Basic concepts about declared public unit trusts

79 What is a “declared public unit trust”

A “declared public unit trust” is a unit trust declared under a regulation to be a public unit trust for this division.

Subdivision 7—Majority trust acquisitions in land holding trusts

80 What is a “majority trust acquisition”

A person who makes a trust acquisition in a land holding trust makes a “majority trust acquisition” if—

- (a) the person, or the person and related persons of the person (whether alone or jointly), acquire a trust interest in the trust of more than 50%; or
- (b) the person, or related persons of the person (whether alone or jointly), acquire a trust interest in the trust that, when aggregated with trust interests already held by the person and related persons of the person (whether alone or jointly), is more than 50%.

81 Interpretation for majority trust acquisitions

(1) This section applies for imposing transfer duty on majority trust acquisitions.

(2) An indirect trust interest in a land holding trust being acquired by a person is taken to be a trust interest in the trust.

(3) Also, an indirect trust interest in a land holding trust already held by an acquirer or related person of the acquirer is taken to be a trust interest in the trust.

(4) For an indirect trust interest in a land holding trust taken to be a trust interest under subsection (2) or (3), the acquirer and any related persons of the acquirer are taken to be beneficiaries.

(5) An indirect trust acquisition is taken to be a trust acquisition in the land holding trust in which the indirect trust interest is acquired.

82 Deduction—transfer duty for majority trust acquisition

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty has been paid or is payable on a dutiable transaction that is a majority trust acquisition; and
- (b) transfer duty or land rich duty is imposed or has been paid on indirect trust acquisitions and trust acquisitions relating to the majority trust acquisition.

(2) The duty mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must be reduced by the amount of the transfer duty paid or payable under subsection (1)(a) to the extent that the indirect trust interests and trust interests were included in working out the dutiable value of the majority trust acquisition.

*Subdivision 8—Indirect trust interests83 Person’s indirect trust interest is proportionate to land holding trust’s dutiable property

A person’s indirect trust interest in a land holding trust is the proportion that the unencumbered value of the person’s entitlement in the land holding trust bears to the unencumbered value of dutiable property held by the land holding trust expressed as a percentage.

84 What is the value of person’s entitlement in land holding trust

(1) The unencumbered value of a person’s entitlement in a land holding trust is the amount worked out by—

- (a) if the person has a subordinate interest in an entity (the “first beneficiary”) that is a beneficiary of the land holding trust—
 - (i) first applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the land holding trust, the first beneficiary’s trust interest in the land holding trust; and
 - (ii) applying to the amount worked out under subparagraph (i), the person’s subordinate interest in the first beneficiary; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—
 - (i) first applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the land holding trust, the subordinate interest of the entity (also the “first beneficiary”) that is a beneficiary of the land holding trust; and
 - (ii) applying to the amount worked out under subparagraph (i), the subordinate interest of the next entity in the series of entities that is a shareholder, partner or beneficiary of the first beneficiary connecting the land holding trust to the person; and
 - (iii) applying the calculation in subparagraph (ii) for each of the other entities in the series until the person’s subordinate interest is applied to the amount worked out under the application of subparagraph (ii) for the entity in which the person’s subordinate interest is held.

(2) For subsection (1)(b)(iii)—

- (a) the reference in subsection (1)(b)(ii) to the amount worked out under subsection (1)(b)(i) is a reference to the amount worked out under the previous application of subsection (1)(b)(ii); and
- (b) the reference to the first beneficiary is a reference to the next shareholder, partner or beneficiary in the series for which subsection (1)(b)(ii) is being applied.

(1) A residence is a person’s “home” if the person’s occupation date for the residence is within 1 year after the person’s transfer date for the residential land.

Note—

For transfer duty to be imposed for residential land, it must be in Queensland, see section 10(1)(a).¹¹

(2) A person’s home is the person’s “first home” if, before acquiring the home, the person did not hold and never before held, an interest in other residential land in Queensland or elsewhere other than—

90 What is the “dutiable value” of residential land

(2) The transfer duty imposed on the dutiable transaction is the amount worked out under subsection (3) or (5).

- (a) transfer duty on a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of residential land is assessed on the basis of a concession under section 91, 92 or 93; and
- (b) a transferee, within the year after the transferee’s occupation date for the residence, disposes of the land by—
- (i) transferring part or all of it; or
 - (ii) leasing or otherwise granting exclusive possession of part or all of it to another person.

(2) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose further transfer duty on the dutiable transaction worked out using the following formula—

where—

“C” means the difference between the transfer duty that would have been imposed on the dutiable transaction if the concession had not applied to the transferee and transfer duty assessed on the dutiable transaction.

“OD” means the number of days between the transferee’s occupation date for the residence and the date of disposal of the residential land, both days inclusive.

“TD” means the further transfer duty payable on the reassessment.

154 Reassessment—other noncompliance with occupancy requirements

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty on a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of residential land is assessed on the basis of a concession under section 91, 92 or 93; and
- (b) before the occupation date, a transferee disposes of the land or, other than because of an intervening event, a transferee's occupation date for the residence on the land is not within the year after the transfer date for the land.

(2) For subsection (1)(b), a transferee disposes of land if the transferee transfers, leases or otherwise grants exclusive possession of, part or all of the land, to another person, other than if—

- (a) another person (the “occupier”) has exclusive possession of the land before the occupation date; and
- (b) the occupier—
 - (i) is the transferor of the land; or
 - (ii) has exclusive possession of the land under a lease granted by the transferor of the land before the transfer date; and
- (c) the occupier—
 - (i) if paragraph (b)(i) applies—vacates the land as soon as reasonably practicable or within 6 months after the transfer date, whichever is the earlier; or
 - (ii) if paragraph (b)(ii) applies—vacates the land on the termination of the current term of the lease, or within 6 months after the transfer date, whichever is the earlier.

(3) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose transfer duty on the dutiable transaction as if the concession had never applied to the transferee.

155 When transferees must give notice for reassessment

(1) This section applies if a notifiable event happens after an assessment, on the basis of a concession under section 91, 92 or 93, of transfer duty on a dutiable transaction that is the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of residential land.

(2) Within 28 days after the notifiable event happens, each transferee to the transfer or agreement must—

- (a) give notice in the approved form to the commissioner; and
- (b) ensure the instruments required for the assessment of duty for the transaction are lodged for a reassessment of transfer duty on the transaction.

Note—

Failure to give the notice is an offence under the Administration Act, section 120.

(3) In this section—

“notifiable event”, for residential land, means—

- (a) the transfer, lease or otherwise granting of exclusive possession of all or part of the land within 1 year after the transferee’s occupation date for the residence on the land; or
- (b) failure to comply with the occupancy requirement for the residence on the land.

Division 2—Reassessments for concessions for superannuation

156 Reassessment—noncomplying superannuation fund

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty has been assessed on a dutiable transaction on the basis of a concession under section 109; and
- (b) at the first anniversary of the transaction the superannuation funds created by the split, merger, variation or reconstitution are not complying superannuation funds.

(2) Within 28 days after the first anniversary, the trustees of the funds mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must—

- (a) give notice in the approved form to the commissioner; and
- (b) ensure the instruments required for the assessment of duty for the transaction are lodged for a reassessment of transfer duty on the transaction.

Note—

Failure to give the notice is an offence under the Administration Act, section 120.

(3) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose transfer duty on the transaction as if the concession had never applied.

CHAPTER 3—LAND RICH DUTY AND CORPORATE TRUSTEE DUTY

PART 1—LAND RICH DUTY

Division 1—Preliminary

157 Imposition of land rich duty

(1) This part imposes duty (“land rich duty”) on relevant acquisitions.

Note—

Exemptions for land rich duty are dealt with in division 5. Also, particular acquisitions relating to corporate reconstructions are exempt from land rich duty under chapter 10, part 1.

(2) Land rich duty is imposed on the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition.

Division 2—Some basic concepts for land rich duty

Subdivision 1—Some basic concepts about acquiring interests in corporations

158 What is a “relevant acquisition”

(1) A person makes a “relevant acquisition” if—

- (a) the person acquires a majority interest in a land rich corporation; or
- (b) the person acquires an interest in a corporation and, when the following are aggregated, the aggregation results in a majority interest in a land rich corporation—

- (i) interests acquired by the person in the land rich corporation in the preceding 3 years;
 - (ii) interests acquired by related persons of the person in the land rich corporation if the interests were acquired in the preceding 3 years;
 - (iii) interests held by related persons of the person in the land rich corporation if the person and the related persons became related persons in the preceding 3 years; or
- (c) having acquired a majority interest in a land rich corporation under paragraph (a) or (b) for which land rich duty was imposed, the person's interest in the corporation increases.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
- (a) a person acquires an interest in a land rich corporation (the “preliminary acquisition”); and
 - (b) within 3 years before or after the preliminary acquisition the person or a related person of the person, either alone or together, became entitled to a right to acquire an interest in the corporation (an “option”); and
 - (c) the option is exercised.

(3) For subsection (1)(b), a person is taken to acquire the interest acquired because of the exercise of the option within 3 years after the preliminary acquisition.

159 What are “interests” and “majority interests” in a corporation

(1) A person has an “interest” in a corporation if the person has an entitlement as a shareholder to a distribution of the corporation's property on its winding up.

(2) A person has a “majority interest” in a corporation if the person has an interest in the corporation of more than 50%.

160 Interest in corporation is percentage of distributable property on winding up

A person's interest in a corporation is the person's entitlement expressed as a percentage of the value of all of the corporation's property that would be distributed if the corporation were to be wound up immediately after the person acquires the interest.

161 Entitlement on distribution of corporation's property

(1) The entitlement of a person on a distribution of a corporation's property is the greater of the entitlement of the person as a shareholder, based on a distribution carried out—

- (a) under the corporation's constitution and the Corporations Act; or
- (b) after the person or the person's representative, has, to maximise the person's entitlement, exercised all powers and discretions to—
 - (i) effect or compel a change of the corporation's constitution; or
 - (ii) vary the rights conferred by the shares in the corporation; or
 - (iii) pay up any uncalled amount owing to the corporation for the shares; or
 - (iv) satisfy conditions in the corporation's constitution relating to the shares; or
 - (v) effect or compel the substitution or replacement of shares in the corporation with other shares in the corporation.

(2) However, the commissioner may decide the entitlement be based on a distribution carried out under subsection (1)(a) if the commissioner considers the application of subsection (1)(b) would be inequitable.

(3) Also, if a person makes a relevant acquisition because interests are aggregated under section 158(1)(b)(ii) or (iii), the entitlements under subsection (1)(b) of the person and the related persons of the person must not be more than 100%.

(4) In this section—

“representative”, of another person, means someone who is accustomed, or under an obligation, or reasonably expected to act under the directions, instructions or wishes of the other person.

162 Acquiring an interest in a corporation

(1) A person acquires an interest in a corporation if the person obtains an interest, or the person's interest increases, in the corporation regardless of how it is obtained or increased.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a person may acquire an interest in a corporation in the following ways—

- (a) the purchase, gift, allotment or issue of a share;
- (b) the cancellation, redemption or surrender of a share;
- (c) the abrogation or alteration of a right for a share;
- (d) the payment of an amount owing for a share.

(3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that an acquisition of shares is not necessary to acquire an interest in a corporation.

163 When is an interest in a corporation acquired

(1) A person acquires an interest in a corporation—

- (a) if there is an agreement to acquire the interest, whether conditional or not, and paragraph (b) does not apply—when the agreement is made; or
- (b) if there is an agreement to acquire the interest, whether conditional or not, and the corporation is not a land rich corporation when the agreement is made but is a land rich corporation when the agreement is completed—when the agreement is completed; or
- (c) otherwise—when the interest is acquired.

(2) Also, if a person holds a security interest in a corporation, the acquisition of which was an exempt acquisition under section 190 and the person later acquires the interest free from any interest or equity of the previous holder of the interest (the “later acquisition”), the person acquires an interest in the corporation at the time of the later acquisition.

164 Who is a “related person”

(1) A person is a “related person” of another person if—

- (a) for individuals—they are members of the same family; or

- (b) for an individual and a corporation—the person or a member of the person’s family is a majority shareholder, director or secretary of the corporation or a related body corporate of the corporation, or has a majority interest in it; or
- (c) for an individual and a trustee—the person or a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the trust; or
- (d) for corporations—they are related bodies corporate; or
- (e) for a corporation and a trustee—the corporation or a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the trust; or
- (f) for trustees—
 - (i) there is a person who is a beneficiary of both trusts; or
 - (ii) a person is beneficiary of 1 trust and a related person under another provision of this section is a beneficiary of the other trust.

(2) Also, a person is a “related person” of another person if the persons acquire interests in a corporation and the acquisitions form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is substantially 1 arrangement.

(3) However, a person is not a “related person” of another person under subsection (1) if the commissioner is satisfied —

- (a) for an acquisition that is a relevant acquisition because of the aggregation of an interest mentioned in section 158(1)(b)(iii)—the interests of the persons will be used independently and will not be used for a common purpose; or
- (b) for another acquisition—the interests of the persons were acquired independently and were not acquired for a common purpose.

Subdivision 2—Some basic concepts about land rich corporations, subsidiaries and their land-holdings and property

165 What is a “land rich corporation”

(1) A “land rich corporation” is an unlisted corporation that—

- (a) has land-holdings in Queensland, the unencumbered value of which are $1 000 000 or more; and
- (b) has land-holdings, whether within or outside of Australia, comprising 80% or more of the unencumbered value of all of its property.

(2) Also, an unlisted corporation is a “land rich corporation” if it would satisfy the criteria in subsection (1) if the land-holdings and property of its subsidiaries were disregarded.

166 What is a “subsidiary” of a corporation

(1) An unlisted corporation is a “subsidiary” of another corporation if, under the Corporations Act, it is a subsidiary of the other corporation.

(2) Also, each of the following is a “subsidiary” of the other corporation—

- (a) a trustee of a trust if the other corporation or a subsidiary of it, whether under this or another subsection, is a beneficiary of the trust (a “relevant trust”);
- (b) an unlisted corporation in which—
 - (i) the trustee of a relevant trust has a majority interest; or
 - (ii) a majority interest is held on trust and the trustee of a relevant trust is a beneficiary of that trust.

Example for subsections (1) and (2)—

A Pty Ltd has a 51% shareholding in B Pty Ltd. B Pty Ltd has a trust interest in the C Trust of which C Pty Ltd acts as trustee. C Pty Ltd as trustee of the C trust has a 51% shareholding in D Pty Ltd.

Under subsection (1), B Pty Ltd is the subsidiary of A Pty Ltd because, under the Corporations Act, it is a subsidiary of A Pty Ltd.

Under subsection (2)(a), C Pty Ltd is the subsidiary of A Pty Ltd because B, a subsidiary of A Pty Ltd, is a beneficiary of the trust.

Under subsection (1), D Pty Ltd is the subsidiary of C Pty Ltd because, under the Corporations Act, it is a subsidiary of C Pty Ltd.

Under subsection (2)(b)(i), D Pty Ltd is the subsidiary of A Pty Ltd because C Pty Ltd, a relevant trust, has a majority interest in D Pty Ltd.

(3) In addition, an unlisted corporation or trustee is a “subsidiary” of the other corporation if, under subsection (1) or (2), it is a subsidiary of a subsidiary of the other corporation.

167 What are a corporation's "land-holdings"

(1) A corporation's "land-holdings" means the following—

- (a) the corporation's interest¹⁷ in land and anything fixed to the land that may be separately owned from the land, other than—
 - (i) a security interest; or
 - (ii) an interest in a trust;
- (b) rights held by the corporation that—
 - (i) relate to, or affect, the use of the corporation's land and other land; and
 - (ii) enhance the value of the corporation's land;
- (c) an interest in land, and anything fixed to the land, that is the subject of a purchase agreement or sale agreement made by the corporation.

(2) Also, a corporation's "land-holdings" includes the land-holdings, under subsection (1), of a subsidiary of the corporation as if a reference in the subsection to a corporation were a reference to the subsidiary.

(3) However, a corporation's land-holdings do not include land-holdings held on trust by the corporation or a subsidiary of it unless the corporation or any subsidiary of it is a beneficiary of the trust.

168 What is a corporation's "property"

(1) A corporation's "property" means the corporation's interest in any property other than a security interest or interest in a trust.

(2) Also, a corporation's "property" includes any property under subsection (1) of a subsidiary of the corporation as if a reference in the subsection to a corporation were a reference to the subsidiary.

(3) However, the corporation's property does not include property held on trust by the corporation or a subsidiary of it unless the corporation or any subsidiary of it is a beneficiary of the trust.

17 Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36—

"interest", in relation to land or other property, means—

- (a) a legal or equitable estate in the land or other property; or
- (b) a right, power or privilege over, or in relation to, the land or other property.

Subdivision 3—Some basic concepts about unencumbered values of land-holdings and property

169 Application of sdiv 3

This subdivision applies for determining whether a corporation is a land rich corporation.

170 Value of co-owned land-holdings

(1) If a corporation's land-holdings include land-holdings in which it has an interest as co-owner, the unencumbered value of the interests of all co-owners in the land-holdings must be included in working out the unencumbered value of the corporation's land-holdings.

Note—

Even though the unencumbered value of the interests of all co-owners of the land-holdings is included for determining whether a corporation is a land rich corporation, only the unencumbered value of the corporation's interest in the land-holdings is used under division 4 for working out land rich duty imposed on the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition, see section 184.

(2) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the commissioner is satisfied that the co-ownership is not intended to avoid the imposition of land rich duty.

171 Value of land-holdings in uncompleted agreement for transfer included

To remove any doubt, it is declared that the unencumbered value of the land the subject of a purchase agreement or sale agreement made by the corporation or a subsidiary of the corporation must be included in working out the unencumbered value of a corporation's land-holdings.

172 Value of particular property disregarded

(1) For working out the unencumbered value of a corporation's property, the following kinds of property must be disregarded—

- (a) cash;
- (b) money on deposit with any person;
- (c) negotiable instruments;

- (d) loans to associated persons of the corporation;
- (e) loans that are to be repaid on demand or within 1 year after the money is lent;
- (f) amounts paid or payable to the corporation or a subsidiary of the corporation under a sale agreement for land made by the corporation or subsidiary;
- (g) amounts owing to the corporation or a subsidiary of the corporation for shares issued by the corporation or subsidiary;
- (h) the corporation's shareholding in a subsidiary of the corporation;
- (i) the shareholding of a subsidiary of the corporation in another subsidiary of the corporation.

(2) Also, property must be disregarded, if the commissioner is satisfied the reason for the corporation's ownership of the property is to avoid the imposition of land rich duty.

173 Value of land-holdings and property—business property disregarded

For an acquisition of an interest in a corporation that is a dutiable transaction to which chapter 2, part 10, applies, business property taken to have no value under the part must be disregarded in working out the unencumbered value of the land-holdings or property of the corporation.

Division 3—Liability for land rich duty

174 When liability for land rich duty arises

A liability for land rich duty imposed on a relevant acquisition arises when the acquisition is made.

175 Who is liable to pay land rich duty

(1) Land rich duty imposed on a relevant acquisition must be paid by the acquirer.

(2) However, if a person makes a relevant acquisition because interests are aggregated under section 158(1)(b)(ii) or (iii), the person and the related persons of the person are jointly and severally liable for the payment of the land rich duty.

176 Rate of land rich duty

The rate of land rich duty imposed on the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition stated in schedule 3, column 1, is stated opposite the value in schedule 3, column 2.

177 Land rich duty statement

The acquirer under a relevant acquisition, or for a relevant acquisition mentioned in section 175(2), the acquirer or the related persons of the acquirer must within 30 days after the acquisition is made, lodge a statement in the approved form (a “land rich duty statement”).

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

178 Effect of lodging land rich duty statement by acquirer or related person

The lodging, under section 177, of a land rich duty statement by the acquirer or a related person of the acquirer relieves the other person from complying with the section.

Division 4—Dutiable value of relevant acquisitions

179 Working out dutiable value of relevant acquisition

(1) The dutiable value of a relevant acquisition is the unencumbered value of all Queensland land-holdings of the land rich corporation at the time of the relevant acquisition multiplied by the interest in, or total of interests in, the corporation constituting the relevant acquisition.¹⁸

(2) Subsection (3) applies to the following relevant acquisitions—

- (a) a relevant acquisition mentioned in section 158(1)(c);
- (b) a relevant acquisition made by a person in the following circumstances—

¹⁸ See section 14 (What is the “unencumbered value” of property).

- (i) the person together with related persons of the person had a majority interest in the land rich corporation immediately before the relevant acquisition;
- (ii) the interests of the person and related persons were previously aggregated so that duty under subsection (1) was paid for a relevant acquisition in the land rich corporation;
- (iii) since the relevant acquisition mentioned in subparagraph (ii), no other related person of the person has acquired an interest in the corporation.

(3) For applying subsection (1) to a relevant acquisition mentioned in subsection (2), the interest is the increased interest in the land rich corporation that is acquired by the person by the relevant acquisition.

Examples for subsections (2) and (3)—

1. A and B are related persons. A holds a 30% interest in a land rich corporation. B acquires a 25% interest and, when aggregated with A's interest, a majority interest. If A acquires another 5% bringing its interest to 35%, for working out the dutiable value, the interest constituting the relevant acquisition is 5%.
2. A and B are related persons. A holds a 30% interest in a land rich corporation. B acquires a 25% interest and, when aggregated with A's interest, a majority interest. If A acquires B's 25% interest, for working out the dutiable value, the interest constituting the relevant acquisition is 25%.

(4) For applying subsection (1) to a relevant acquisition, the interest mentioned in section 409(2) must be disregarded.

Note—

Under section 409(2), land rich duty is not imposed on particular interests acquired under a corporate reconstruction.

(5) This section has effect subject to a deduction allowed under sections 185 to 188.

180 Aggregation of particular relevant acquisitions

(1) This section applies for aggregating relevant acquisitions that together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement if a person makes a relevant acquisition mentioned in section 179(2).

(2) For assessing land rich duty on each of the relevant acquisitions, the acquisitions must be aggregated and treated as a single relevant acquisition.

(3) For subsection (1), all relevant circumstances relating to the relevant acquisitions must be taken into account in deciding whether they together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement.

(4) For subsection (3), relevant circumstances include the following—

- (a) whether any of the acquisitions are conditional on entry into, or completion of, any of the other acquisitions;
- (b) whether the parties to any of the acquisitions are the same;
- (c) whether any party to an acquisition is a related person of another party to any of the other acquisitions;
- (d) the time over which the acquisitions take place;
- (e) whether, after the acquisitions take place, the acquirers' interests will be used together or dependently with one another;
- (f) whether, before the acquisitions take place, the interests were used together or dependently with one another.

(5) Land rich duty imposed on the relevant acquisition aggregated under this section must—

- (a) be assessed on the total of the dutiable values of the acquisitions when the liability for land rich duty for each of the acquisitions arose; and
- (b) be apportioned between the acquisitions as decided by the commissioner.

(6) The acquirer must, when lodging the land rich duty statement relating to the acquisition, give notice to the commissioner stating details known to the acquirer about—

- (a) all of the interests of the acquirer and related persons of the acquirer included or to be included in the arrangement mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (b) the dutiable value of each relevant acquisition.

Note—

Under the Administration Act, the requirement under this subsection is a lodgment requirement for which a failure to comply is an offence under section 121 of that Act.

181 Unencumbered value of Queensland land-holdings of land rich corporation

(1) For section 179, the unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings of a land rich corporation at the date of a relevant acquisition is—

- (a) for a corporation that is a land rich corporation under section 165(1)—the unencumbered value of the corporation's land-holdings in Queensland at the date of the relevant acquisition; or
- (b) for a corporation that is a land rich corporation under section 165(2)—the unencumbered value of the corporation's land-holdings in Queensland other than the land-holdings mentioned in section 165(2), at the date of the relevant acquisition.

(2) This section has effect subject to sections 182 to 184.

182 Unencumbered value of land-holdings of subsidiary of land rich corporation

(1) Subsection (2) applies for working out the unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings of a land rich corporation mentioned in section 181(1)(a) to the extent that the land-holdings comprise land-holdings of a subsidiary of the corporation.

(2) The unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings of the corporation is the proportion of the unencumbered value of the land-holdings in Queensland of all the subsidiaries to which the corporation would be entitled if they were wound up at the same time without regard to their liabilities.

(3) For subsection (2), if the subsidiary is a trustee of a trust, the unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings of the corporation on the winding up of all the subsidiaries is the greatest proportion of the unencumbered value of the land-holdings in Queensland of the trust that the corporation could derive at any time from the trust without regard to the liabilities of any of the subsidiaries.

(4) Without limiting subsection (3), land-holdings may be derived by—

- (a) the fulfilment of a condition; or

- (b) the outcome of a contingency; or
- (c) the exercise or non-exercise of a power or discretion.

(5) To remove any doubt it is declared that land-holdings may be derived by the corporation even if a subsidiary of the corporation is a beneficiary of a trust.

(6) If there is more than 1 subsidiary of the corporation that is a beneficiary of a trust, for subsection (2), the proportion of the unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings that may be derived from the trust must not be more than the whole.

183 Land transferred for shares to be disregarded

(1) This section applies if the relevant acquisition is the issue of shares to a person in the following circumstances—

- (a) the shares are issued to the person in consideration of a transfer of land to the corporation by the person;
- (b) transfer duty is paid for the transfer;
- (c) the land is not the only land of the corporation;
- (d) the person is not the only shareholder of the corporation.

(2) In working out the unencumbered value of the Queensland land-holdings of a land rich corporation, the value of the land must be disregarded.

184 Value of co-owned land-holdings

The value of land-holdings in which a corporation has an interest as co-owner, is the unencumbered value of the corporation's interest in the land-holdings.

185 Deduction—corporate trustee duty

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) corporate trustee duty has been paid or is payable on a relevant acquisition under part 2; and
- (b) land in which the corporate trustee, or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee, has an interest at the time of the relevant acquisition under part 2, has been included in working out the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition under this part; and

(c) the relevant acquisitions are part of the 1 arrangement.

(2) Land rich duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by the amount of corporate trustee duty paid or payable for the land to the extent that the land was included in working out the dutiable value of the relevant acquisition under this part.

186 Deduction—transfer duty for particular trusts

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty has been paid or is payable on a dutiable transaction that is a trust acquisition for a trust, other than a discretionary trust; and
- (b) land held by the trustee as trustee of the trust at the time of the transaction has been included in working out the dutiable value of the relevant acquisition under this part; and
- (c) the acquisitions are part of the 1 arrangement.

(2) Land rich duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by the amount of transfer duty paid or payable for the land to the extent that the land was included in working out the dutiable value of the relevant acquisition under this part.

187 Deduction—transfer duty for marketable securities

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty is paid or payable for marketable securities the subject of a dutiable transaction or an equivalent duty in another State is paid or payable for the marketable securities; and
- (b) the dutiable transaction is a relevant acquisition.

(2) Land rich duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by an amount worked out using the following formula—

$$R = \frac{LV \times TD}{PV}$$

where—

“LV” means the unencumbered value of all Queensland land-holdings of the land rich corporation at the time of the relevant acquisition under section 181.

“PV” means the unencumbered value of all the property of the land rich corporation at the time of the relevant acquisition.

“R” means the amount of the reduction.

188 Deduction—mortgage duty

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) mortgage duty has been paid on a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares by way of security; and
- (b) afterwards, the transferee acquires ownership of the shares free from any interest or equity of the previous holder of the shares; and
- (c) the transferee and related persons of the transferee were to newly acquire all of the shares they hold in the corporation at the time of the acquisition mentioned in paragraph (b), the acquisition would be a relevant acquisition.

(2) Also, this section applies if—

- (a) mortgage duty has been paid on a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares by way of security; and
- (b) the commissioner is not satisfied of the matter mentioned in section 190; and
- (c) the acquisition mentioned in paragraph (a) is a relevant acquisition.

(3) For subsection (1), the transferee is taken to have made a relevant acquisition of the shares owned by the transferee and related persons of the transferee.

(4) Land rich duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by the mortgage duty paid.

Division 5—Exempt acquisitions189 Exemption—particular share issues

(1) Land rich duty is not imposed on an acquisition by a person of an interest on the initial allotment of shares on the registration of a corporation.

(2) Also, land rich duty is not imposed on an acquisition by a person if—

- (a) the interest was acquired on the issue of shares to a person in consideration of a transfer of land to the corporation by the person; and
- (b) transfer duty is paid or payable for the acquisition of the land by the corporation; and
- (c) the land is the only land of the corporation; and
- (d) the person is the only shareholder of the corporation.

(3) In addition, land rich duty is not imposed on an acquisition by a person if—

- (a) the interest is acquired on a dealing in shares for all of the shareholders of the corporation; and
- (b) the interests of the shareholders after the dealing are, as near as practicable, the same as the proportions in which they held the shares before the dealing; and
- (c) the rights among the shareholders have not changed significantly because of the dealing in the shares.

(4) In this section—

“dealing”, for shares, means the issue, cancellation, redemption or buy-back of the shares.

190 Exemption—security interests

Land rich duty is not imposed on an acquisition of a security interest if the commissioner is satisfied the interest was not acquired with the intention of avoiding the imposition of land rich duty.

191 Exemption—change of trustee

Land rich duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition for the sole purpose of giving effect to a change of a trustee if—

- (a) the acquisition is not part of an arrangement—
 - (i) involving a change in the rights or interest of a beneficiary of the trust; or
 - (ii) terminating the trust; and
- (b) the acquisition is not part of an arrangement to avoid the imposition of duty; and
- (c) transfer duty has been paid on all trust acquisitions for which transfer duty is imposed for the trust before the acquisition.

192 Exemption—acquisition by liquidator

Land rich duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition by a person if the interest was acquired solely in the person's capacity as a liquidator.

193 Exemption—compromise or arrangements

Land rich duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition by a person if—

- (a) the interest was acquired solely because of the making of a compromise or arrangement with creditors approved under the Corporations Act, part 5.1; and
- (b) the commissioner is satisfied the compromise or arrangement was not made with the intention of avoiding the imposition of land rich duty.

194 Exemption—if transfer duty not imposed

Land rich duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition that is a dutiable transaction on which transfer duty is not imposed because of an exemption under any of the following provisions—

- sections 123 to 126
- sections 129 and 130
- sections 134 and 135
- section 141
- section 143
- section 148(1)(c).¹⁹

195 Exemption—no liability for transfer duty on acquisition in other way

Land rich duty is not imposed on an acquisition by a person if—

- (a) the land-holdings of a corporation could have been acquired by the person without incurring a liability to pay transfer duty for the acquisition of land other than under chapter 10, part 1;²⁰ and
- (b) the commissioner is satisfied the acquisition would not have been part of an arrangement to avoid the imposition of land rich duty.

196 Interests acquired under exempt acquisitions disregarded for particular purposes

An interest acquired under an exempt acquisition, other than an exempt acquisition under section 195, must be disregarded as an interest in a land rich corporation when—

19 Sections 123 (Exemption—particular distribution of dutiable property to a beneficiary), 124 (Exemption—deceased person's estate), 125 (Exemption—particular vestings of dutiable property), 126 (Exemption—transactions for trust created for person under legal disability), 129 (Exemption—transfer by direction to primary custodian for responsible entity of registered managed investment scheme), 130 (Exemption—other transfers of scheme property of registered managed investment scheme), 134 (Exemption—forfeiture orders), 135 (Exemption—industrial organisations), 141 (Exemption—particular statutory bodies), 143 (Exemption—change of tenure) and 148(1)(c) (Exemption—marketable securities etc.)

20 Chapter 10 (General exemptions), part 1 (Exemptions for particular duties for corporate reconstruction)

- (a) deciding whether a person has, under section 158(1)(b)(i) or (ii), acquired an interest in the corporation; or
- (b) aggregating interests under section 158(1)(b)(i) or (ii).

Division 6—Reassessments for land rich duty

197 When commissioner must make reassessment

(1) The commissioner must make a reassessment of land rich duty imposed for a relevant acquisition if—

- (a) at the time of the relevant acquisition, the corporation's land-holdings included land the subject of—
 - (i) a sale agreement that was later completed; or
 - (ii) a purchase agreement that was not completed; and
- (b) the commissioner is satisfied the agreement was not made or was not part of an arrangement made for the purpose of avoiding the imposition of land rich duty.

(2) Also, the commissioner must make a reassessment of land rich duty imposed for a relevant acquisition if at the time of the relevant acquisition a person is taken to have acquired an interest in a corporation under an agreement to acquire the interest but the agreement is not completed.

(3) When reassessing land rich duty under subsection (1), the commissioner must disregard the land mentioned in the subsection in—

- (a) deciding whether the corporation is a land rich corporation; and
- (b) working out the dutiable value of the relevant acquisition.

(4) When reassessing the land rich duty under subsection (2), the commissioner must disregard the interest mentioned in the subsection.

(5) For a reassessment under subsection (1) or (2), the acquirer under the relevant acquisition must lodge the land rich duty statement for the acquisition.

(6) Subsection (1) or (2) applies to the reassessment despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments.²¹

²¹ See the Administration Act, part 3, (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).

Division 7—EnforcementSubdivision 1—Charges198 Registration of charge over land for unpaid land rich duty

(1) This section applies if land rich duty is not paid by the date by which the duty must be paid.²²

(2) The liability to pay the outstanding amount of land rich duty is a charge on land owned by the land rich corporation concerned in the relevant acquisition for which the land rich duty is payable and any subsidiary of the corporation.

(3) The commissioner may lodge a request with the registrar that the charge be registered over stated land owned by the corporation or its subsidiary.

(4) The request must be in the appropriate form.

(5) The registrar must register the charge over the land on lodgment of—

- (a) the request; and
- (b) a certificate of the commissioner stating there is a charge over the land under this section for the outstanding amount of land rich duty.

199 Release of charge

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the outstanding amount of land rich duty is paid; or
- (b) under a reassessment, no land rich duty is payable.

(2) The commissioner must, as soon as practicable after payment of the outstanding amount of land rich duty or the reassessment, lodge with the registrar a request to release the charge in the appropriate form.

(3) The registrar must register the release of the charge over the land.

(4) This section does not prevent the commissioner requesting the release of the charge in other circumstances.

²² See the Administration Act, section 32 (Time for payment of other amounts).

Subdivision 2—Power of sale200 Commissioner may apply to Supreme Court for order to sell

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) under subdivision 1, a charge has been registered over land; and
- (b) the outstanding amount of land rich duty has not been paid within 18 months after registration.

(2) The commissioner may apply to the Supreme Court for an order to sell the land stated in the application.

(3) At least 6 months before making the application, the commissioner must give notice to the person liable to pay the land rich duty and the owner of the land of the commissioner's intention to apply to the Supreme Court for an order to sell the land unless the outstanding amount of land rich duty is paid within 6 months after the date of the notice.

201 When court must order sale of land

(1) The court must order the sale of the land if it is satisfied—

- (a) proper notice of the application for the order was given under section 200; and
- (b) there is an outstanding amount of land rich duty payable to the State.

(2) However, the court may make an order only for the land the court considers is sufficient to realise proceeds to pay the amounts mentioned in section 202(a) to (d).

202 Application of proceeds of sale

The proceeds of the sale of land sold under the order must be applied as follows—

- (a) first, in payment of the commissioner's expenses on the application to the court for the order;
- (b) second, in payment of expenses properly incurred by the commissioner on the sale or any attempted sale;

- (c) third, in payment of amounts secured by a security interest or charge on the land recorded before the charge, unless the land is sold subject to the security interest or charge;
- (d) fourth, in payment of the outstanding amount of land rich duty under the Administration Act, section 42;²³
- (e) fifth, any balance must be applied as the court orders.

203 Registration of transfer

(1) If land is sold under the order to sell, the person stated in the order for this section must—

- (a) sign a transfer in the appropriate form in favour of the purchaser; and
- (b) lodge the transfer with the registrar.

(2) The registrar must register the transfer as if it had been signed by the registered owner of the land.

(3) Subsection (2) applies despite non-production of the relevant instrument of title.

204 Corporation or subsidiary may recover proceeds of sale as debt

(1) The amount equal to the proceeds of the sale of land under the order less an amount paid under section 202(c) is a debt payable to the corporation or subsidiary that previously owned the land by the persons liable to pay the land rich duty for which the order was made.

(2) The corporation or subsidiary may recover the debt in a court of competent jurisdiction.

²³ Administration Act, section 42 (Application of payments to assessment liability)

PART 2—CORPORATE TRUSTEE DUTY

Division 1—Preliminary

205 Imposition of corporate trustee duty

(1) This part imposes duty (“corporate trustee duty”) on relevant acquisitions.

Note—

Exemptions for corporate trustee duty are dealt with in division 6.

(2) Corporate trustee duty is imposed on the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition.

206 Interpretation for property held by partnership or trust

A reference to a partnership or trust holding property is a reference to the holding of the property by the partners for the partnership or trustees for the trust.

Division 2—Some basic concepts for corporate trustee duty

207 What is a “relevant acquisition”

A person makes a “relevant acquisition” if—

- (a) the person acquires a share interest in a corporate trustee or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee; and
- (b) the acquisition is part of an arrangement under which any person obtains, directly or indirectly, a benefit relating to the property held by the corporate trustee on trust.

208 What is a “share interest”

A “share interest” is a person’s interest as a shareholder in a corporate trustee or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee.

209 What is a “corporate trustee”

A “corporate trustee” is an unlisted corporation, other than an authorised trustee corporation, that is the trustee of a discretionary trust that—

- (a) holds dutiable property on trust for the discretionary trust; or
- (b) has an indirect interest in dutiable property and that interest is held on trust for the discretionary trust.

210 What is a corporate trustee’s “indirect interest” in dutiable property

A corporate trustee has an “indirect interest” in dutiable property if it—

- (a) has a partnership interest or trust interest in an ultimate entity; or
- (b) through a series of partnership interests or trust interests, or a combination of any of them, there is a connection between the corporate trustee and dutiable property of a partnership or trust in the series.

211 What is a “relevant corporation” for a corporate trustee

(1) A corporation is a “relevant corporation” for a corporate trustee if the corporation is an unlisted corporation that has an interest in the corporate trustee.

(2) For subsection (1), a corporation has an interest in a corporate trustee if—

- (a) it has a share interest in the corporate trustee; or
- (b) it has a share interest in a corporation that has a share interest in the corporate trustee.

212 Acquiring share interest in corporation

(1) A person acquires a share interest in a corporate trustee or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee if—

- (a) the person becomes a shareholder of the corporate trustee or relevant corporation; or
- (b) being a shareholder, the person’s share interest increases.

(2) However, the acquisition of a share interest by a beneficiary from the personal representative in the administration of the estate of a deceased person is not an acquisition for this part.

213 Contracted property

(1) For a corporate trustee or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee, contracted property is taken to be dutiable property held by the corporate trustee or relevant corporation.

(2) For determining the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition—

- (a) a sale agreement made by the corporate trustee or relevant corporation is taken not to have been made; and
- (b) a purchase agreement made by the corporate trustee or relevant corporation is taken to have been completed.

(3) If contracted property is included in determining the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition and the sale agreement for the property is later completed or the purchase agreement for the property is later rescinded, the commissioner must make a reassessment as if the contracted property were never held by the corporate trustee or relevant corporation.

(4) For the reassessment, the acquirer under the relevant acquisition must lodge the corporate trustee duty statement for the acquisition.

Division 3—Liability for corporate trustee duty

214 When liability for corporate trustee duty arises

A liability for corporate trustee duty imposed on a relevant acquisition arises when the acquisition is made.

215 Who is liable to pay corporate trustee duty

Corporate trustee duty imposed on a relevant acquisition must be paid by the acquirer.

216 Rate of corporate trustee duty

The rate of corporate trustee duty imposed on the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition is—

- (a) for dutiable property that is a Queensland marketable security—60c for each $100, or part of $100, of the dutiable value relating to the security; and
- (b) for other dutiable property—stated in schedule 3, column 2, opposite the dutiable value relating to the property in schedule 3, column 1.

217 Corporate trustee duty statement

The acquirer under a relevant acquisition, must within 30 days after the acquisition is made, lodge a statement in the approved form (a “corporate trustee duty statement”).

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

Division 4—Apportionment of unencumbered value for particular relevant acquisitions

218 Apportionment—head office or principal place of business in Queensland

(1) This section applies for determining the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is a Queensland business asset, other than a debt or personal property, of a Queensland business that has its head office or principal place of business in Queensland if, at any time during the 3 financial years preceding the relevant acquisition concerned—

- (a) a supply or provision of services has been made by the business to customers outside Queensland; or
- (b) the asset has been used, exploited or exercised in, or relates to, a place outside Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to the unencumbered value of the property is taken to be a reference to the amount (the “apportioned amount”) worked out using the following formula—

$$AA = UV \times \frac{(TS - OS)}{TS}$$

where—

“AA” means the apportioned amount.

“OS” means the gross amount of the supplies and provision of services made by the business to its customers in other States during the 3 completed financial years preceding the relevant acquisition.

“TS” means the gross amount of supplies and provision of services made by the business to all its customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the relevant acquisition.

“UV” means the unencumbered value of the Queensland business asset mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the unencumbered value of the dutiable property on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

219 Apportionment—head office or principal place of business in another State

(1) This section applies for determining the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is a Queensland business asset, other than a debt or personal property, of a Queensland business that does not have its head office or principal place of business in Queensland if, at any time during the 3 financial years preceding the relevant acquisition concerned—

- (a) a supply or provision of services has been made by the business to customers in Queensland; or
- (b) the asset has been used, exploited or exercised in, or relates to, Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to the unencumbered value of the property is taken to be a reference to the amount (the “apportioned amount”) worked out using the following formula—

$$AA = UV \times \frac{QS}{TS}$$

where—

“AA” means the apportioned amount.

“QS” means the gross amount of the supplies and provision of services made by the business to its Queensland customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the relevant acquisition.

“TS” means the gross amount of supplies and provision of services made by the business to all its customers during the 3 completed financial years preceding the relevant acquisition.

“UV” means the unencumbered value of the Queensland business asset mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the unencumbered value of the dutiable property on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

220 Apportionment of particular acquisitions relating to existing rights

(1) This section applies for determining the unencumbered value of dutiable property that is an existing right if the right is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or an activity outside Queensland.

(2) A reference in this chapter to the unencumbered value of the right is taken to be a reference to the amount that represents the same proportion of the unencumbered value that the unencumbered value of the right to the extent it is exercisable or relates to the conduct of a business or activity in Queensland bears to the total unencumbered value of the right.

(3) However, the commissioner may decide the unencumbered value of the right on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the other basis would be more appropriate in particular circumstances.

Division 5—Dutiable value of relevant acquisitions

221 Acquirer’s share interest is proportionate to shares in corporate trustee or relevant corporation

(1) For a relevant acquisition that is an acquisition of a share interest in a corporate trustee, the acquirer’s share interest is the proportion that the number of shares the acquirer has bears to the total issued shares in the corporate trustee expressed as a percentage.

(2) For a relevant acquisition that is an acquisition of a share interest in a relevant corporation for a corporate trustee if the relevant corporation has an interest in the corporate trustee as mentioned in section 211(2)(a), the acquirer’s share interest is worked out by applying the acquirer’s share interest in the relevant corporation to the relevant corporation's share interest in the corporate trustee.

(3) For a relevant acquisition that is an acquisition of a share interest in a relevant corporation for a corporate trustee if the relevant corporation has an interest in the corporate trustee as mentioned in section 211(2)(b), the acquirer's share interest is worked out by applying—

- (a) the acquirer's share interest in the relevant corporation to the relevant corporation's share interest in the other relevant corporation; and
- (b) the result worked out under paragraph (a) to the other relevant corporation's share interest in the corporate trustee.

(4) For subsections (2) and (3)—

- (a) the acquirer's share interest in the relevant corporation is the proportion that the number of shares the acquirer acquires bears to the total issued shares in the relevant corporation expressed as a percentage; and
- (b) the relevant corporation's share interest in the corporate trustee is the proportion that the number of shares the relevant corporation holds bears to the total issued shares in the corporate trustee expressed as a percentage.

(5) Also, for subsection (3), the relevant corporation's share interest in the other relevant corporation is the proportion that the number of shares the relevant corporation holds bears to the total issued shares in the other relevant corporation expressed as a percentage.

(6) However, if the commissioner is satisfied the acquirer's share interest worked out under subsection (1), (2) or (3) does not accurately represent the acquirer's rights and obligations as a shareholder when compared with the rights and obligations of the other shareholders, the commissioner may decide the acquirer's share interest.

(7) For applying subsection (1), (2) or (3) to a relevant acquisition that is an increase in the acquirer's share interest, the acquirer's share interest is taken to be the increase in the acquirer's share interest.

222 What is the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition

(1) The dutiable value of the relevant acquisition is the total of the amounts worked out by applying the acquirer's share interest to the unencumbered value, when the liability for corporate trustee duty arises, of—

- (a) the dutiable property held on trust by the corporate trustee;²⁴ and
- (b) any indirect interest in dutiable property held on trust by the corporate trustee.

Note—

Under section 213(1), dutiable property includes contracted property.

(2) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest of a corporate trustee under section 210(a) is the amount worked out by applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the entity in which the corporate trustee has a trust interest or partnership interest the corporate trustee's trust interest or partnership interest in the entity.

(3) For subsection (1)(b), the unencumbered value of an indirect interest of a corporate trustee under section 210(b) is the amount worked out by—

- (a) first applying to the unencumbered value of the dutiable property held by the ultimate entity, the trust interest or partnership interest of the trust or partnership (the “last beneficiary or partner”) that is a beneficiary or partner of the ultimate entity; and
- (b) applying to the amount worked out under paragraph (a), and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the last beneficiary or partner, the trust interest or partnership interest of the next trust or partnership in the series of trusts or partnerships that is a beneficiary or partner of the last beneficiary or partner; and
- (c) applying the calculation in paragraph (b) for each of the other trusts or partnerships in the series until the first entity's trust interest or partnership interest is used in the calculation; and
- (d) applying to the amount last worked out under paragraph (c) and the unencumbered value of any dutiable property held by the first entity, the trust interest or partnership interest of the corporate trustee.

(4) Schedule 4 contains an example of how the dutiable value of a relevant acquisition is worked out.

24 See section 14 (What is the “unencumbered value” of property).

(5) If the corporate trustee is trustee of more than 1 discretionary trust, the unencumbered value of the dutiable property of each trust and each indirect interest held on trust by the corporate trustee must be aggregated in working out the dutiable value of the relevant acquisition.

223 Aggregation of particular relevant acquisitions

(1) This section applies for aggregating relevant acquisitions that together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement.

(2) For assessing corporate trustee duty on each of the relevant acquisitions, the acquisitions must be aggregated and treated as a single relevant acquisition.

(3) For subsection (1), all relevant circumstances relating to the relevant acquisitions must be taken into account in deciding whether they together form, evidence, give effect to or arise from what is, substantially 1 arrangement.

(4) For subsection (3), relevant circumstances include the following—

- (a) whether any of the acquisitions are conditional on entry into, or completion of, any of the other acquisitions;
- (b) whether the parties to any of the acquisitions are the same;
- (c) whether any party to an acquisition is a related person of another party to any of the other acquisitions;
- (d) the time over which the acquisitions take place;
- (e) whether, after the acquisitions take place, the acquirers' interests will be used together or dependently with one another;
- (f) whether, before the acquisitions take place, the interests were used together or dependently with one another.

(5) Corporate trustee duty imposed on the relevant acquisition aggregated under this section must—

- (a) be assessed on the total of the dutiable values of the acquisitions when the liability for corporate trustee duty for each of the acquisitions arose; and
- (b) be apportioned between the acquisitions as decided by the commissioner.

(6) The acquirer must, when lodging the corporate trustee duty statement relating to the acquisition, give notice to the commissioner stating details known to the acquirer about—

- (a) all of the interests of the acquirer and related persons of the acquirer included or to be included in the arrangement mentioned in subsection (1); and
- (b) the dutiable value of each relevant acquisition.

Note—

Under the Administration Act, the requirement under this subsection is a lodgment requirement for which a failure to comply is an offence under section 121 of that Act.

Division 6—Exempt acquisitions

224 Exemption—change of trustee

Corporate trustee duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition for the sole purpose of giving effect to a change of a trustee if—

- (a) the acquisition is not part of an arrangement—
 - (i) involving a change in the rights or interest of a beneficiary of the trust; or
 - (ii) terminating the trust; and
- (b) the acquisition is not part of an arrangement to avoid the imposition of duty; and
- (c) transfer duty has been paid on all trust acquisitions for which transfer duty is imposed for the trust before the acquisition.

225 Exemption—relevant acquisition in family trust

(1) Corporate trustee duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition if—

- (a) the commissioner is satisfied the trust of which the corporate trustee is trustee is established primarily for the benefit of the members of a particular family or family company; and
- (b) the acquirer under the relevant acquisition is a member of the family who, or is a family company that, does not hold the shares acquired as trustee.

(2) The commissioner may be satisfied of the matter mentioned in subsection (1)(a), even if an exempt institution is the last taker in default of an appointment by the trustee of the trust.

(3) In this section—

“family company”, for a trust, means a corporation in which all directors and shareholders are members of the particular family for which the trust is established.

226 Exemption—if transfer duty not imposed

Corporate trustee duty is not imposed on a relevant acquisition that is a dutiable transaction on which transfer duty is not imposed because of an exemption under sections 123 to 126.²⁵

Division 7—Deductions and reassessments

227 Deduction—transfer duty for marketable securities

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) transfer duty is paid or payable for a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares of a corporate trustee or relevant corporation for a corporate trustee or an equivalent duty in another State is paid or payable for the transfer or agreement; and
- (b) the transfer or agreement is a relevant acquisition.

(2) Corporate trustee duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by the amount of transfer or equivalent duty paid or payable.

228 Deduction—transfer duty for trust acquisition

(1) This section applies if—

²⁵ Sections 123 (Exemption—particular distribution of dutiable property to a beneficiary), 124 (Exemption—deceased person’s estate), 125 (Exemption—particular vestings of dutiable property) and 126 (Exemption—transactions for trust created for person under legal disability)

- (a) a person makes a trust acquisition for which transfer duty is paid or payable; and
- (b) the acquisition is a relevant acquisition.

(2) Corporate trustee duty imposed on the relevant acquisition must be reduced by the amount of transfer duty paid or payable.

229 When commissioner must make reassessment

(1) The commissioner must make a reassessment of corporate trustee duty imposed for a relevant acquisition if at the time of the relevant acquisition a person is taken to have acquired a share interest in a corporation under an agreement to acquire the interest but the agreement is not completed.

(2) When reassessing the corporate trustee duty under subsection (1), the commissioner must disregard the interest mentioned in the subsection.

(3) For the reassessment, the acquirer under the relevant acquisition must lodge the corporate trustee duty statement for the acquisition.

CHAPTER 4—LEASE DUTY

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

230 Imposition of duty

- (1) This chapter imposes duty (“lease duty”) on instruments that are—
- (a) leases; or
 - (b) occupancy rights.

Note—

Exemptions for lease duty are dealt with in part 4. Also, other exemptions are dealt with in chapter 10.

- (2) Lease duty is imposed on the cost of a lease or occupancy right.

PART 2—SOME BASIC CONCEPTS ABOUT LEASES AND OCCUPANCY RIGHTS

231 What is a “lease”

A “lease” is—

- (a) a lease, or agreement for lease, of land in Queensland; or
- (b) an offer for the grant of exclusive possession of land in Queensland.

232 What is an “occupancy right”

(1) An “occupancy right”, is an agreement granting, or an offer for the grant of, a right to occupy premises in Queensland for a term of more than 1 month if—

- (a) the occupier intends to use the premises for conducting a business; and
- (b) the occupier does not obtain a right to exclusive possession but the occupier’s use and enjoyment of the premises as a place of business is not adversely affected by the absence of the right to exclusive possession.

(2) In deciding whether the occupier’s use and enjoyment of the premises is adversely affected, the following must be taken into account—

- (a) the periods the occupier’s right to occupation is not exclusive;
- (b) the times when the occupier’s right to occupy may be interrupted or denied.

233 What is the “cost” of a lease

(1) The “cost” of a lease is the rent payable for the lease.

(2) However, the rent payable for the lease does not include the following—

- (a) amounts paid for reasonable outgoings for the lease;
- (b) penal rent, or increased rent in the nature of penal rent, payable for the lease;

- (c) amounts paid in consideration of the termination or surrender of an existing lease or agreement relating to the leased premises;
- (d) premiums, fines or other consideration payable for the grant of the lease;
- (e) consideration paid for, or the value of, any moveable chattels taken over by the lessee from the lessor or outgoing lessee;
- (f) if, on the leased premises, a business is to be carried on and an amount in excess of what would be the rent if a business was not carried on is charged for the lease—the excess amount.

234 What is the “cost” of an occupancy right

(1) The “cost” of an occupancy right is the consideration payable for the right.

(2) However, the term does not include an amount payable for reasonable outgoings.

235 Cost of lease or occupancy right variable

If the cost of a lease or occupancy right may vary up to a maximum amount, the maximum amount is the cost of the lease or right.

236 Cost of lease or occupancy right paid in goods or services

(1) If the cost of a lease or occupancy right includes the provision of goods or services, the value of the goods or services is included in the cost.

(2) If the lease or occupancy right provides that the value of the goods or services must be at least, or must not be more than, a stated amount, or provides a conversion rate, the amount, or the amount worked out using the conversion rate, is the value of the goods or services for subsection (1).

PART 3—LIABILITY FOR, PAYMENT AND REASSESSMENTS OF LEASE DUTY

237 When liability for lease duty arises

(1) A liability for lease duty arises for a lease or occupancy right when the lessee or grantee takes possession of the leased premises in accordance with the lease or right.

(2) Also, if the lessee or grantee continues in possession of the leased premises after the lease or right ends, a liability for lease duty arises when the continued possession starts.

238 Who is liable to pay lease duty

Lease duty imposed on a lease or occupancy right must be paid by the lessor and lessee of the lease or the grantor and grantee of the right.

239 Rate of lease duty

The rate of lease duty imposed on a lease or occupancy right is 35c for each $100, or part of $100, of the cost of the lease or right.

240 Lodging instrument

The lessor of a lease or grantor of an occupancy right must, within 30 days after the liability for lease duty arises, lodge the lease or right.

241 Lodging statements and payment of lease duty

(1) If, when the liability for lease duty arises, the cost of the lease or occupancy right, or part of the cost, is ascertainable (the “ascertainable amount”), the lessor or grantor must, within 30 days after the liability arises, lodge a statement in the approved form stating the ascertainable amount.

(2) If, when the liability for lease duty arises, other than a liability mentioned in section 237(2), the cost of the lease or occupancy right, or part of the cost, is not ascertainable (the “unascertainable amount”), the lessor or grantor must, within the time stated in subsection (3)—

- (a) lodge the lease or right and a statement in the approved form stating the unascertainable amount; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner the amount of lease duty to the extent it relates to the unascertainable amount and any assessed interest and penalty tax.

(3) For subsection (2), the stated time is 30 days after—

- (a) if possession or occupation of the leased premises is terminated within the term of the lease or right—the end of possession; or
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—the final rent review carried out under the lease or right or, if no rent review is carried out, the end of the lease.

(4) If, when the liability for lease duty mentioned in section 237(2) arises, the cost of the lease or occupancy right, or part of the cost, is not ascertainable (also the “unascertainable amount”), the lessor or grantor must, within the time stated in subsection (5)—

- (a) lodge the lease or right and a statement in the approved form stating the unascertainable amount; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner the amount of lease duty to the extent it relates to the unascertainable amount and any assessed interest and penalty tax.

(5) For subsection (4), the stated time is 30 days after—

- (a) the first anniversary of the liability arising and each later anniversary; and
- (b) the continued possession ceases.

(6) However, the lessor or grantor does not have to comply with subsection (2) or (4) if the unascertainable amount is not more than $10 000.

(7) If a lease or occupancy right contains an option for a further period—

- (a) lease duty is only assessed under subsections (1) and (2) on the cost of the term of the lease or right; and
- (b) if the option is exercised, liability to lease duty under subsections (1) and (2) for the further period arises when the option is exercised.

(8) If during the term of a lease or occupancy right the cost of the lease is increased by agreement, other than under the terms of the lease, liability for the increased cost arises when the agreement is made.

(9) For this section, the cost of a lease or occupancy right, or part of the cost, is ascertainable if the lease or right states the amount or provides how it is to be worked out and all factors necessary to work out the amount are known when the liability for lease duty arises.

(10) For the Administration Act,²⁶ a statement under subsection (2) or (4) is taken to be a return for a self assessment for the cost of the lease or occupancy right.

242 Reassessment of lease duty for particular earlier termination of lease or occupancy right

(1) This section applies if the commissioner is satisfied a lease or occupancy right is terminated because—

- (a) the leased premises are destroyed during its term; or
- (b) the lessee or grantee dies.

(2) The commissioner must make a reassessment of lease duty on application made by—

- (a) the lessor or grantor and lessee or grantee; or
- (b) the lessor or grantor and personal representative of the lessee or grantee.

(3) In making the reassessment, the cost of the lease or right relating to the unexpired term of the lease or right must be disregarded.

(4) The application must be made within 6 months after the termination of the lease or right.

(5) The applicant must lodge the lease or right with the application.

(6) Subsection (2) applies to the reassessment despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments.²⁷

²⁶ See the Administration Act, section 32 (Time for payment of other amounts).

²⁷ See the Administration Act, part 3, (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).

243 Credit for lease duty paid

(1) Subsection (2) applies if a lease or occupancy right is terminated and a replacement lease or occupancy right is entered into or granted in either of the following circumstances—

- (a) the real property description of the leased premises changes because of a strata title or group title plan being registered over the land comprising the leased premises;
- (b) the lessee takes a new lease or the grantee is granted a new occupancy right over premises in the same building because of the refurbishment of the leased premises.

(2) In assessing the lease duty on the replacement instrument, a credit must be allowed for the amount of lease duty paid to the extent that it relates to the unexpired term of the original lease or occupancy right.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if—

- (a) a liability for lease duty arises because of the exercise of an option for a further period contained in a lease or occupancy right (the “option period”);²⁸ and
- (b) a new lease or occupancy right in substantial conformity with the option is entered into or granted, the term of which includes the option period.

(4) In assessing the lease duty on the new lease or occupancy right, a credit must be allowed for the amount of lease duty paid for the option.

PART 4—EXEMPTIONS FOR LEASE DUTY244 Exemption—particular residences

Lease duty is not imposed on the following instruments if the leased premises are not used for carrying on a business or commercial venture—

- (a) a lease of a dwelling house;
- (b) a relevant agreement as defined in the Mobile Homes Act 1989, section 3.

28 See section 241(7) (Lodging statements and payment of lease duty)

245 Exemption—leases under Land Act

Lease duty is not imposed on a lease issued under the Land Act 1994.

246 Exemption—National Trust leases and occupancy rights

Lease duty is not imposed on a lease, or grant of an occupancy right, to The National Trust of Queensland constituted under the National Trust of Queensland Act 1963.

CHAPTER 5—MORTGAGE DUTY

PART 1—PRELIMINARY

247 Imposition of mortgage duty

(1) This chapter imposes duty (“mortgage duty”) on instruments that are mortgages, particular caveats claiming an interest under mortgages and particular releases of mortgages.

Note—

Concessions and exemptions for mortgage duty are dealt with in parts 6 and 7. Also, other exemptions are dealt with in chapter 10.

(2) Mortgage duty is imposed on the amount secured by a mortgage.²⁹

PART 2—SOME BASIC CONCEPTS FOR MORTGAGE DUTY

248 What is a “mortgage”

(1) An instrument is a “mortgage” if it is—

²⁹ See part 4 (Amount secured by a mortgage).

- (a) a security by way of mortgage or charge over property wholly or partly in Queensland; or
- (b) a security by way of a transfer of property wholly or partly in Queensland to a trustee, to be sold or otherwise converted into money, redeemable before the sale or conversion, other than if the transfer is made for the benefit of creditors who accept the transfer in full satisfaction of debts owed to them; or
- (c) any transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of property wholly or partly in Queensland that is apparently absolute but is intended only as security;³⁰ or
- (d) an instrument that, on the deposit of instruments of title to property wholly or partly in Queensland, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage.

(2) However, for this chapter, an instrument mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is a mortgage only if it is a security by way of mortgage or charge over property wholly or partly in Queensland at the liability date.

(3) For sections 262, 268, 269, 276 and 281,³¹ a reference to a mortgage or previous mortgage includes a reference to a mortgage first signed before the repeal of the repealed Act.

249 What is an “advance”

(1) An “advance” is the provision or obtaining of funds by way of financial accommodation by—

- (a) a loan; or
- (b) a bill facility that is 1 or more agreements, understandings or arrangements as a consequence of which a bill of exchange or promissory note—
 - (i) is drawn, accepted, endorsed or made; or
 - (ii) is held, negotiated or discounted.

(2) Subsection (1)(b) applies whether or not the funds are obtained from—

30 See section 32 (Transfer by way of security— land).

31 Sections 262 (Collateral mortgage), 268 (Caveats), 269 (Releases of mortgages), 276 (What is a “home refinance mortgage”) and 281 (Further concession for particular home refinance mortgages)

- (a) the person who draws, accepts, endorses or makes the bill of exchange or promissory note; or
- (b) a person who is a party to any of the agreements, understandings or arrangements.

(3) An “advance” includes a contingent liability under section 259.

(4) However, the term does not include an amount provided or obtained on the security of a mortgage for—

- (a) insurance of the secured property against fire; or
- (b) keeping or effecting a policy of life insurance; or
- (c) payment of duty for the security or any loan other than a current account secured by the mortgage.

250 What is a “loan”

Each of the following is a “loan”—

- (a) an advance of money;
- (b) the payment of money for or on account of, or at the request of, any person;
- (c) a forbearance to require the payment of money owing on any account;
- (d) any transaction, whatever its terms or form, that in substance effects a loan of money.

251 Location of property

For this chapter, the following property is taken to be located in the place stated—

- (a) marketable securities of a company—in the State the company is taken to be registered under the Corporations Act;
- (b) units in a unit trust—in the place where the register on which the units are registered is kept or, if the register is not kept in Australia, in the place of residence of the manager or responsible entity of the unit trust;
- (c) debt securities of a government of a State—in that State.

PART 3—LIABILITY FOR MORTGAGE DUTY

252 When liability for mortgage duty arises

(1) A mortgage is liable to mortgage duty when it is first signed.

(2) A mortgage is liable to mortgage duty on the making of an advance or further advance that results in the total amount secured by the mortgage exceeding the amount secured by it for which it has been properly stamped, or is exempt from duty, under this or a corresponding Act.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if an instrument of security that does not affect property in Queensland when it is first signed—

(a) affects any property that is specifically identified, whether or not in the instrument, when it is first signed and, under an arrangement, the property is intended to be secured by the security; or

(b) affects land, other than a security interest, in Queensland within 1 year after it is first signed.

(4) The instrument of security is liable for mortgage duty when it first affects the property or land unless it is stamped with, or is exempt from, similar duty under a corresponding Act.

(5) An instrument that, on the deposit of instruments of title to property in Queensland, becomes a mortgage or evidences the terms of a mortgage is liable to mortgage duty on the deposit of the instruments.

253 Who is liable to pay mortgage duty

Mortgage duty imposed on a mortgage must be paid by the mortgagor.

254 Rate of mortgage duty

The rate of mortgage duty imposed on a mortgage is 40c for each $100, or part of $100, of the amount secured by the mortgage as determined under part 4.

255 Lodging mortgage

The mortgagor or mortgagee under a mortgage must, within 30 days after the liability for mortgage duty arises, lodge the mortgage.

256 Effect of lodging mortgage by mortgagor or mortgagee

The lodging, under section 255, of a mortgage by the mortgagor or mortgagee relieves the other person from complying with the section.

257 Stamping before advance

(1) A mortgage may be stamped before an advance whether or not an earlier advance has been made.

(2) A mortgage mentioned in section 260 or 261 may be stamped to secure any amount exceeding that to which it is already stamped based on the dutiable proportion for the mortgage when it is stamped.

PART 4—AMOUNT SECURED BY A MORTGAGE258 What is the amount secured by a mortgage

(1) The amount secured by a mortgage is the amount of advances actually secured by it and recoverable under it.

(2) However, if—

- (a) a mortgage has been properly stamped, or is exempt from duty, under this or a corresponding Act for an amount of advances secured by the mortgage; and
- (b) a further advance secured by the mortgage is made; and
- (c) the total amount secured by the mortgage exceeds the amount for which the mortgage has been properly stamped;

the amount secured by the mortgage is, for section 247(2), the excess amount mentioned in paragraph (c).

259 Contingent liabilities

(1) This section applies to a mortgage securing or capable of securing, whether directly or indirectly, an amount contingently payable (the “secured amount”) in connection with an advance (the “primary advance”)—

- (a) by a guarantor or indemnifying party under a guarantee or indemnity; or
- (b) by another party under another type of instrument.

(2) Mortgage duty must be assessed on the secured amount as if it were a separate advance secured by the mortgage.

(3) For subsection (2), the contingent liability is limited to the amount of the primary advance.

(4) This section—

- (a) does not apply if the commissioner is satisfied there is no connection between the mortgage and the primary advance; and
- (b) does not require mortgage duty to be paid more than once for an advance.

260 Mortgage over property not wholly in Queensland

(1) Mortgage duty must be assessed for a mortgage over property that is partly in and partly outside Queensland as if the amount secured by it were only the dutiable proportion.

(2) For subsection (1), the dutiable proportion is the proportion of the amount secured by the mortgage on which mortgage duty is imposed that, at the liability date, the value of property in Queensland affected by the mortgage bears to the value of all property affected by it, other than property located outside Australia or in a Territory.

(3) The dutiable proportion must be worked out by reference to the property values according to a referable point.

(4) For subsection (3), a referable point is any of the following prepared in the year before the liability date for the mortgage—

- (a) an independent valuation of the secured property;
- (b) a statement of the mortgagee based on information obtained by the mortgagee in deciding to make the advance to the mortgagor;
- (c) property valuations used by the mortgagor in preparing an annual return to be lodged under the Corporations Act;
- (d) a financial report of the mortgagor, certified by an independent auditor as presenting a true and fair view of a corporation's financial position;

- (e) agreed property valuations that form the basis of the mortgagor's insurance policies;
- (f) another document the commissioner considers to be appropriate for working out the dutiable proportion.

(5) However, if there is more than 1 referable point for a mortgage, the referable point is the later or latest of the referable points.

(6) Also, the acceptable referable point must be the same acceptable referable point used to determine liability to duty under a corresponding Act.

261 Advances secured by mortgage package

(1) If—

- (a) at a liability date, 2 or more security instruments secure or partly secure the same amount; and
- (b) at least 1 of the instruments is a security affecting property wholly or partly outside Queensland; and
- (c) at least 1 of the instruments is a mortgage;

the instruments are a “mortgage package”.

(2) Also, a “mortgage package” includes—

- (a) a mortgage signed after the liability date if the commissioner is satisfied the mortgage was intended to be part of the package; and
- (b) a mortgage previously collateral to an earlier advance under 1 or more of the other mortgages in the package.

(3) Mortgage duty must be assessed under this part on the mortgage package as if the instruments comprising the mortgage package were 1 mortgage, first signed on the day the last of the signed instruments was signed.

(4) One of the mortgages in the mortgage package must be stamped with the mortgage duty paid in Queensland for the mortgage package and all other mortgages in the mortgage package must be stamped as a collateral mortgage.

262 Collateral mortgage

(1) Mortgage duty is not imposed on the part of the amount secured by a collateral mortgage that is secured by—

- (a) a mortgage or security instrument that is properly stamped under this Act or a corresponding Act; or
- (b) a mortgage package that has been properly stamped under section 261 or a corresponding Act.

(2) A collateral mortgage that no longer secures an amount secured by a mortgage, instrument or mortgage package mentioned in subsection (1) is not security for another advance unless mortgage duty for the amount of the other advance is paid.

263 Extent mortgage is enforceable

(1) A mortgage or mortgage package for which mortgage duty is imposed or a similar duty is chargeable under a corresponding Act is enforceable only to the extent of the amount secured by the mortgage or mortgage package for which duty has been paid, or the mortgage or mortgage package is exempt from duty, under this Act or the corresponding Act.

(2) For subsection (1), mortgage duty has been paid on a mortgage or mortgage package affecting property that is partly in and partly outside Queensland if—

- (a) duty has been paid on the total advances under the mortgage or mortgage package when the mortgage duty paid is taken with the duty paid under a corresponding Act; and
- (b) the dutiable proportion of the mortgage or mortgage package is not incorrect by more than 5%.

Note—

Under section 260(3), the dutiable proportion must be worked out by reference to property values according to a referable point.

264 Limit on security provided by stamped and collateral mortgages

(1) A stamped or collateral mortgage that was, but is no longer, part of the same mortgage package and no longer secures the same amount secured by the package is not security for another advance unless mortgage duty for the amount of the other advance is paid.

Example for subsection (1)—

A has property in 5 States, each valued at $150 000. A borrows $100 000 secured by a mortgage package comprising 5 mortgages. The mortgages secure the full $100 000 and are stamped under this Act and the corresponding Acts of the other States on the basis that the dutiable proportion for each mortgage is $20 000.

Under a restructure of the loans, the Queensland mortgage no longer secures the $100 000 which remains secured by the other mortgages on which duty has been paid in the other States.

Under this subsection, if A takes out a new loan, the Queensland mortgage is not security for the new loan unless mortgage duty imposed on it is paid.

(2) The fact that the stamped or collateral mortgage is no longer part of the mortgage package does not affect the amounts for which the remaining mortgages in the mortgage package provide security.

265 Multi-jurisdictional statement

(1) If mortgage duty is imposed on the dutiable proportion of a mortgage, (whether for a mortgage over property not wholly in Queensland, a mortgage package or on original or subsequent advances), the mortgagor or mortgagee must make a statement in the approved form about the location and value of the secured property.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(2) The making of a statement under subsection (1) by the mortgagor or mortgagee relieves the other person from complying with the subsection.

(3) The statement may be taken to be the mortgage, or mortgages comprising the mortgage package.

PART 5—MORTGAGE DUTY ON PARTICULAR DEBENTURE ISSUES, CAVEATS AND RELEASES OF MORTGAGES

266 Mortgage duty associated with particular debenture issues

(1) This section applies if—

(a) a corporation offers debentures to the public for subscription; and

- (b) the corporation is a party to an instrument of trust relating to the debentures; and
- (c) a mortgage secures the repayment of debentures issued by the corporation.

(2) Mortgage duty must be assessed on the mortgage for the offer of debentures as if it were a mortgage securing the payment of an amount equal to the total amount of debentures, other than exempt short-term debentures, subscribed for by the public in Queensland from time to time.

(3) On or before 31 July in each year, the trustee under the instrument of trust must—

- (a) lodge a statutory declaration stating the total amount subscribed for in Queensland for the corporation's debentures and exempt short-term debentures in the year ending on the previous 30 June; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner mortgage duty on the amount subscribed for in the year for the debentures, other than exempt short-term debentures.

(4) If mortgage duty is paid under subsection (3), the instrument of trust and debentures are not liable to duty under this Act.

(5) In this section, a reference to an amount subscribed for relating to debentures does not include an amount represented by debentures issued on the conversion or renewal of an existing holding of debentures or other marketable securities.

267 What is an “exempt short-term debenture”

(1) A debenture issued by a public company is an “exempt short-term debenture” if—

- (a) the amount repayable under the debenture is repayable within 6 months after it is issued or is not repayable within a fixed or certain period but the amount is later paid or repaid within 6 months after it is issued; and
- (b) the debenture is not part of an arrangement, the effect of which is to extend the period for repayment of an amount to more than 6 months after it is issued.

(2) If a debenture is reissued or renewed, the combined terms of debentures is taken into account when deciding when the amount under the debenture is repayable for subsection (1).

(3) Also, for subsection (1), debentures subscribed for by a corporation include debentures subscribed for by a related body corporate unless the commissioner decides otherwise.

268 Caveats

(1) Mortgage duty is imposed on a caveat claiming an interest in land, or a water allocation, under a mortgage if mortgage duty is imposed, but not paid, on the mortgage.

(2) The amount of mortgage duty imposed on the caveat is the amount of mortgage duty that would be imposed on the mortgage.

(3) The mortgagor must pay the duty as if it were assessed on the mortgage.

(4) To the extent that mortgage duty is paid on the caveat, mortgage duty is not imposed on the mortgage.

269 Releases of mortgages

(1) Mortgage duty is imposed on a release of mortgage to the extent that mortgage duty is imposed, but not paid, on the mortgage.

(2) Immediately after the release, the mortgagor must—

- (a) lodge a statement in the approved form; and
- (b) pay the duty as if it were assessed on the mortgage.

PART 6—CONCESSIONS FOR HOME MORTGAGES AND FIRST HOME MORTGAGES

Division 1—Preliminary

270 Purpose of pt 6

The purpose of this part is to provide for concessions for mortgage duty on home mortgages and home refinance mortgages.

Division 2—Concessions for mortgage duty for home mortgages

Subdivision 1—Some basic concepts about concessions for mortgage duty for home mortgages

271 What is a “home mortgage”

(1) A “home mortgage” is a mortgage given by a person to the extent that the mortgage secures an advance to the person to finance the purchase or construction of the person’s home or a further interest in the person’s home.

(2) A home mortgage or, if there is more than 1 home mortgage, at least 1 of them, must be over the residential land.

272 What is a “home” and “first home” for div 2

(1) For this division, a residence that is to be constructed is the person’s “home” or “first home” if, when constructed, it will be the person’s home or first home under section 86.

(2) For subsection (1), section 86 applies as if the person’s transfer date for the residential land were the date the mortgage was first signed.

273 Who is a “home borrower” and a “first home borrower”

(1) A person is a “home borrower” if the person is the mortgagor under a home mortgage.

(2) A home borrower is a “first home borrower” if the borrower’s home mortgage secures an advance to the borrower to finance the purchase or construction of the borrower’s first home.

Subdivision 2—Concessions for home mortgages

274 Concession for mortgage duty—home mortgage

(1) If all owners of a home are home borrowers, mortgage duty is not imposed on the part of the amount secured by the home mortgage that is the lesser of the following—

- (a) the qualifying amount;
- (b) if—
 - (i) all the owners are first home borrowers—$100 000; or
 - (ii) all the owners are not first home borrowers—$70 000.

(2) For owners who are home borrowers to which subsection (1) does not apply, mortgage duty is not imposed on the part of the amount secured by the home mortgage that is the lesser of the following—

- (a) the total of—
 - (i) for each home borrower—the borrower’s interest multiplied by $70 000; and
 - (ii) for each first home borrower—the borrower’s interest multiplied by $100 000;
- (b) the qualifying amount.

(3) The total amount of concessions for mortgage duty on all home mortgages must not be more than the maximum amount of concessions applicable to the borrowers under subsection (1)(b) or (2)(a).

(4) For subsection (2), a home borrower or first home borrower’s interest is the proportion that the value of the borrower’s interest in the residential land bears to the value of the land.

(5) Also, for subsections (1) and (2), the qualifying amount is the proportion of—

- (a) for a home mortgage to which section 260 applies or a mortgage package—the dutiable proportion; or

- (b) for another home mortgage—the amount secured by the mortgage;

that corresponds to the part of the advances secured by the mortgage that are used or to be used to finance the purchase or construction of the home by the borrowers to whom the concession relates.

(6) For subsection (4), advances used to refinance an existing home mortgage for the home must be disregarded in working out the advances that are used or to be used to finance the purchase or construction of the home.

275 Concession for mortgage duty—particular trusts

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the trustee of a trust, other than a discretionary or unit trust, gives a mortgage to secure an advance to the trustee to finance the purchase or construction of a home or a further interest in a home; and
- (b) the beneficiaries are individuals all of whom are under a legal disability; and
- (c) the residence is the home of all or some of the beneficiaries.

(2) This division applies as if—

- (a) the mortgage were a home mortgage; and
- (b) the beneficiaries were the home borrowers or first home borrowers under it; and
- (c) the beneficiaries were the owners of the home.

Division 3—Concessions for mortgage duty for home refinance mortgages

Subdivision 1—Some basic concepts about concessions for mortgage duty for home refinance mortgages

276 What is a “home refinance mortgage”

(1) A “home refinance mortgage” is a mortgage securing advances to the person, all or part of which are used or to be used to repay the balance outstanding under a previous mortgage over the person’s home.

(2) A home refinance mortgage, or if there is more than 1 home refinance mortgage, at least 1 of them must be over the person’s home.

277 What is a “home” for div 3

For this division, a person’s “home” is a residence the person has occupied as the person’s principal place of residence for whichever is the shorter of the following—

- (a) 6 months before signing the home refinance mortgage;
- (b) since the borrower has owned the residence.

278 Who is a “home refinance borrower”

A person is a “home refinance borrower” if the person is the mortgagor under a home refinance mortgage.

Subdivision 2—Concessions for home refinance mortgages

279 Concession for mortgage duty—home refinance mortgage

(1) If all of the owners of a home are home refinance borrowers, mortgage duty is not imposed on the part of the amount secured by the home refinance mortgage that is the lesser of the following—

- (a) the refinance qualifying amount;
- (b) $100 000.

(2) If all of the owners of a home are not home refinance borrowers, mortgage duty is not imposed on the part of the amount secured by the home refinance mortgage up to the amount that is the lesser of the following—

- (a) home refinance borrowers' interests multiplied by $100 000;
- (b) the refinance qualifying amount.

(3) The total amount of concessions for mortgage duty on all home refinance mortgages must not be more than the maximum amount of concessions applicable to the borrowers under subsection (1)(b) or (2)(a).

(4) For subsection (2), a home refinance borrower's interest is the proportion that the value of the home refinance borrower's interest in the residential land bears to the value of the land.

(5) Also, for subsections (1) and (2), the refinance qualifying amount is the proportion of—

- (a) for a home refinance mortgage to which section 260 applies or a mortgage package—the amount of the dutiable proportion; or
- (b) for another home refinance mortgage—the amount secured or to be secured by the home refinance mortgage;

that corresponds to the part of the advances secured by the mortgage that are used or to be used to repay the balance outstanding on the previous mortgage by the borrowers to whom the concession relates.

(6) For subsection (5), advances used to finance the acquisition of a home or first home must be disregarded in working out the advances that are used or to be used to repay the balance outstanding under the previous mortgage.

280 Concession for mortgage duty—particular trusts

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the trustee of a trust, other than a discretionary or unit trust, gives a mortgage to secure an advance to the trustee, all or part of which is used, or to be used, to repay the balance outstanding under a previous mortgage over a home; and
- (b) the beneficiaries are individuals all of whom are under a legal disability; and
- (c) the residence is the home of all or some of the beneficiaries.

(2) This division applies as if—

- (a) the mortgage were a home refinance mortgage; and
- (b) the beneficiaries were the home refinance borrowers under it; and
- (c) the beneficiaries were the owners of the home.

Division 4—Miscellaneous provisions

281 Further concession for particular home refinance mortgages

(1) This section applies if the amount secured by a home refinance mortgage, or the dutiable proportion of a home refinance mortgage, is more than—

- (a) the amount determined under section 279(1) or (2); or
- (b) if there is also a home borrower for the mortgage—the total of the amount determined under section 279(2) and any amount determined under section 274(2) for the borrower.

(2) The non-concessional balance for the home refinance mortgage is reduced by the amount by which the amount secured for which duty has been paid in Queensland under the previous mortgage is more than—

- (a) for a mortgage or mortgage package to which section 260 or 261 applies—the balance outstanding under the previous mortgage multiplied by the dutiable proportion; or
- (b) for another mortgage—the balance outstanding under the previous mortgage.

(3) For subsection (2), the non-concessional balance for the home refinance mortgage is—

- (a) the part of the amount secured by the mortgage for which a concession for mortgage duty is not given under section 279; or
- (b) if there is also a home borrower for the mortgage—the total of the amount mentioned in paragraph (a) and the part of the amount secured by the mortgage for which a concession for mortgage duty is not given under section 274.

282 Application for concession for mortgage duty

An application for a concession for mortgage duty on a home mortgage or home refinance mortgage must be made in the approved form.

PART 7—EXEMPTIONS FOR MORTGAGE DUTYDivision 1—Particular debentures and instruments of trust, transfer of land by security and mortgages under particular Acts283 Exemption—particular debentures and instruments of trust

(1) Mortgage duty is not imposed on an exempt short-term debenture.

(2) Mortgage duty is not imposed on a mortgage that is—

- (a) a debenture issued by a financial corporation or related corporation of a financial corporation under an instrument of trust—
 - (i) to which the financial corporation or related corporation is a party; and
 - (ii) that protects the interests of the holders of the debentures; or
- (b) a debenture issued by a financial corporation or related corporation of a financial corporation, the repayment for which is secured by a mortgage given by the financial corporation or related corporation; or
- (c) an instrument of trust—

 - (ii) that protects the interests of the holders of debentures issued under the instrument of trust.

(3) Mortgage duty is not imposed on a mortgage given by a financial corporation or a related corporation of a financial corporation to secure the repayment of debentures issued by the financial corporation or related corporation.

(4) This section applies to debentures issued, a mortgage given or an instrument of trust signed, by a related corporation of a financial corporation only so far as the debentures are issued, the mortgage is given or the instrument of trust is signed, for raising funds to be used by the financial corporation.

(5) In this section—

“financial corporation” means a corporation whose sole or principal business is providing finance to the public.

“related corporation”, of a financial corporation, means a corporation that is a related body corporate of the financial corporation.

- (a) before the occupation date for the residence, the home borrower disposes of the residential land under section 154(2);
- (b) other than because of an intervening event, the home borrower's occupation date for the residence is not within 1 year after the later of the transfer date for the land or when the mortgage was first signed;

 - (i) transferring part or all of it; or

- (ii) leasing or otherwise granting exclusive possession of part or all of it to another person.

(2) Within 28 days after the event happens, each home borrower under the mortgage must—

Note—

Failure to give the notice is an offence under the Administration Act, section 120.

(3) If subsection (1)(a) or (b) applies, the commissioner must make a reassessment to impose mortgage duty on the mortgage as if the concession for mortgage duty had never applied.

(4) If subsection (1)(c) applies, the commissioner must make a reassessment to impose further mortgage duty on the mortgage worked out using the following formula—

$$\mathbf{MD} = \frac{\mathbf{C} \times (\mathbf{365} - \mathbf{OD})}{\mathbf{365}}$$

where—

“C” means the concession received by the home borrower, being the difference between the mortgage duty that would have been imposed on the home mortgage if the concession had not applied and the mortgage duty assessed on the mortgage.

“MD” means the further mortgage duty payable on the reassessment.

“OD” means the number of days between the home borrower’s occupation date for the residence and the date of disposal of the residential land, both days inclusive.

(b) ensure the mortgage is lodged for a reassessment of mortgage duty on the mortgage.

Note—

Failure to give the notice is an offence under the Administration Act, section 120.

(3) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose mortgage duty on the mortgage as if the exemption from duty had never applied.

Note—

Unpaid tax interest and penalty tax may be payable under the Administration Act, part 5.

(4) Subsection (3) applies to the reassessment despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments.³²

CHAPTER 6—CREDIT BUSINESS DUTY AND CREDIT CARD DUTY

(1) This part imposes duty (“credit business duty”) on credit transactions.

Note—

Exemptions for credit business duty are dealt with in division 5. Also, other exemptions are dealt with in chapter 10, part 4.

(2) Credit business duty is imposed on the credit amount for a credit transaction.

294 Credit transactions to which pt 1 applies—jurisdictional link

(1) This part applies to a credit transaction only if—

- (a) for a loan—the loan is to a Queensland resident or any negotiations for the loan take place in Queensland; or

(2) For subsection (1)(a), a person is a Queensland resident if the person’s address last known to the credit provider entering into the loan, or at the person’s direction, is in Queensland.

(3) Despite subsection (1), this part does not apply to a credit transaction if none of the negotiations for the transaction take place in Queensland, and the amount or goods obtained were obtained for the purpose of being spent or used exclusively outside Queensland.

(1) For this part, a “loan”³³ does not include the following—

- (a) a forbearance through an extension of time for payment of an existing loan for which credit business duty has already been paid if the extension does not result in an increase in the value or amount of the loan payable on maturity;

(3) However, the term does not include an agreement by which the property in the goods comprised in the agreement passes when the agreement is made or on or at any time before delivery of the goods.

332 What are “hiring charges”

(1) “Hiring charges” are payments made to the person who hires out goods by or for the hirer, for (or that arise as an incident of) the hire of the goods.

(2) Also, “hiring charges” include the following—

- (a) payments for the delivery, erection and installation of the goods;
- (b) payments for the maintenance, cleaning and repair of the goods;
- (c) payments for insurance of the goods;
- (d) fees payable for the late return of the goods.

(3) In addition, “hiring charges” include the following—

- (a) any payments under an arrangement that are not hiring charges, including exempt payments, that have been increased for minimising hire duty;

- (b) any payments that would be hiring charges except for the fact that they are paid to a person other than the person who hires out the goods.

(4) Further, “hiring charges” include a charge, made by a person who hires out goods or a related person of the person, for giving the hirer of the goods any information about, or any right relating to, the use of the goods for the purpose for which they are hired out.

(5) Subject to subsection (3)(a), exempt payments are not “hiring charges”.

333 What is an “exempt payment”

(1) For all kinds of hires of goods, each of the following is an “exempt payment”—

- (a) a refundable cash deposit or bond, unless appropriated as hiring charges;
- (b) duty paid or payable under this Act or a corresponding Act;
- (c) GST paid on the supplies constituted by the hire of the goods;
- (d) a payment for the sale of goods, including, for example, fuel, replacement parts or theft replacement;
- (e) a payment by the hirer of goods if title to the goods passes to the hirer because of the payment.

(2) Also, for a hire of goods that is a credit purchase agreement or hire-purchase agreement, each of the following is an “exempt payment”—

- (a) the deposit or other consideration paid or given to the person who hires out the goods at or before making the agreement;
- (b) an interest payment;
- (c) a payment for maintenance, freight, vehicle registration or insurance for the goods.

334 Who is a “commercial hirer”

(1) A person who hires out goods as a business is a “commercial hirer”.

(2) For subsection (1), it is immaterial whether the hiring out of the goods is the person's principal business or is ancillary to some other business and whether or not the principal or ancillary business is carried on wholly or partly outside Queensland.

PART 3—LIABILITY FOR HIRE DUTY

335 Who is liable to pay hire duty

Hire duty imposed on a hire of goods must be paid by the person who hires out the goods.

Note—

For circumstances in which a commercial hirer is not liable for hire duty, see section 342.

336 Rate of hire duty

The rate of hire duty imposed on a hire of goods is 0.43% of the total amount of the hiring charges for the goods.

337 Credit for duty paid in another State

Hire duty imposed on a hire of goods must be reduced by the amount of duty paid on the hire under a corresponding Act.

PART 4—OBLIGATIONS OF PARTIES TO HIRE OF GOODS

338 Hirer to advise of place of registration of motor vehicle or sole or predominant use of other goods

(1) A hirer of a motor vehicle under an equipment financing arrangement must advise the person who hires out the vehicle—

- (a) for a registered motor vehicle—where it is registered; or

- (b) for an unregistered motor vehicle—where it will be, or is intended to be, registered during the course of the hire.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(2) A hirer of goods, other than a motor vehicle, under a hire of goods must advise the person who hires out the goods where the goods will be, or are intended to be, solely or predominantly used in the course of the hire.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(3) A hirer of goods under a hire of goods must advise the person who hires out the goods of any change in the State in which the goods are solely or predominantly used or, for a motor vehicle, in the place of registration, within 30 days after the change.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(4) A hirer of goods under a hire of goods must not state anything to the person who hires out the goods that the hirer knows is false or misleading.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(5) It is enough for a complaint for an offence against subsection (4), to state the statement made was ‘false or misleading’ to the person’s knowledge, without specifying which.

339 Ascertainment and disclosure of place of use of goods

(1) A person who hires out goods may, in determining the person’s liability to hire duty, rely on a statement by the hirer in compliance with section 338(1) or (2) unless the person knows the statement is false or misleading.

(2) A person who hires out goods is not bound to inquire about any change in the place of use of the goods, or for a motor vehicle, the place of registration.

(3) However, if the person becomes aware that the goods are or will be solely or predominantly used or, for a motor vehicle, are or will be registered, in a place other than the place advised in a statement by the hirer, the person can not continue to rely on the statement of the hirer.

(4) If the goods are solely or predominantly used or, for a motor vehicle, registered, in a place other than the place advised in a statement by the hirer, the commissioner may make an assessment or reassessment of the hire duty payable according to the actual place of sole or predominant use of the goods or, for a motor vehicle, the place of registration.

(5) Subsection (4) applies to the reassessment despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments.³⁶

PART 5—ARRANGEMENTS APPLYING TO COMMERCIAL HIRERS

340 Commercial hirer to be registered

(1) A commercial hirer must not carry on business in Queensland unless the hirer is registered under chapter 12, part 1, to carry on the business.

Maximum penalty—200 penalty units.

(2) For subsection (1), a commercial hirer is carrying on business in Queensland if the hirer undertakes negotiations in Queensland with the object of hiring out goods.

341 Hire duty base

(1) Hire duty must be assessed on the total amount of the hiring charges received in a month by a commercial hirer.

(2) However, the commissioner may, by notice given to the commercial hirer, approve a different basis of working out hiring charges if the commissioner is satisfied hire duty payable on the basis will, over a period of time, be approximately the same as the hire duty payable under subsection (1).

(3) In addition, if the commissioner is satisfied it is not reasonably practicable for the commercial hirer to work out the hiring charges received by the hirer, the commissioner may decide the way the hiring charges are to be worked out.

(4) In deciding the way the hiring charges are to be worked out, the commissioner must take into account the representations made to the commissioner by the hirer.

36 See the Administration Act, part 3, (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).

(5) Subsection (4) does not limit the matters the commissioner may take into account in making the decision.

(6) An amount worked out under a method approved or decided under subsection (2) or (3) is, for hire duty purposes, taken to be the amount of hiring charges received while the approval or decision is in force.

(7) The commissioner may, at any time, revoke the approval or decision by notice given to the hirer.

342 When commercial hirer not liable for hire duty

(1) A commercial hirer is not liable to hire duty for a month if—

- (a) the total hiring charges received by the hirer in the preceding 12 months did not exceed $100 000; and
- (b) the hirer does not have to lodge a return as a registered credit provider for the month.

(2) If a commercial hirer is carrying on business in Queensland other than in a Commonwealth place, and is also carrying on business in a Commonwealth place in Queensland, the total amount of hiring charges received by the hirer is, for subsection (1)(a), the total of—

- (a) the total hiring charges received by the hirer for the business carried on in Queensland, other than in the Commonwealth place; and
- (b) the total hiring charges received by the hirer for the business carried on in the Commonwealth place.

343 Lodging returns and payment of hire duty—registered commercial hirer

If a registered commercial hirer has a liability to hire duty for a month in a return period, the hirer must on or before the return date—

- (a) lodge a return in the approved form; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner—
 - (i) for a hiring arrangement that is a credit purchase agreement entered into in the return period—the amount of hire duty on the total hiring charges payable under the agreement; and

- (ii) for another hiring arrangement—the amount of hire duty on the hiring charges that relate to the return period; and
- (iii) for all hiring arrangements—any assessed interest and penalty tax.

344 Lodging statement and payment of hire duty—unregistered commercial hirer

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a commercial hirer who is required under section 340 to be registered is not registered; and
- (b) the hirer has a liability to hire duty for a month.

(2) The hirer must, within 14 days after the end of the month—

- (a) lodge a statement in the approved form; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner—
 - (i) for a hiring arrangement that is a credit purchase agreement entered into in the month—the amount of hire duty on the total hiring charges payable under the agreement; and
 - (ii) for another hiring arrangement—the amount of hire duty on the hiring charges that relate to the month; and
 - (iii) for all hiring arrangements—any assessed interest and penalty tax.

(3) For the Administration Act,³⁷ the statement is taken to be a return for a self assessment for the hire of the goods.

PART 6—ARRANGEMENTS APPLYING TO OTHER PERSONS

345 Application of pt 6

This part applies if a person, other than a commercial hirer—

³⁷ See the Administration Act, section 32 (Time for payment of other amounts).

- (a) hires out goods under a hire of goods; and
- (b) the total hiring charges paid or payable under the hire of goods is at least $1 000.

346 Lodging instrument

The person hiring out the goods must, within 30 days after the hiring of the goods lodge the instrument for the hire of the goods.

347 Hire of goods for indefinite period

(1) For imposing hire duty, if the hire of goods is for an indefinite period, it is taken to be a hire of goods for 3 years.

(2) However, if the hire of the goods ends within 6 months after entering into it, the commissioner must, on application made by the person, make a reassessment of hire duty on the basis of the actual period the goods were hired out.

(3) The applicant must lodge the instrument for the hire of the goods with the application.

PART 7—EXEMPTIONS FOR HIRE DUTY

348 Exemption—particular credit purchase agreements

Hire duty is not imposed on a credit purchase agreement for the purchase of goods together with—

- (a) freehold land or land leased under the Land Act 1994; or

365 Purpose of div 1

The purpose of this division is—

- (a) to provide a way for apportioning premiums or parts of premiums paid for insurance; and
- (b) to avoid multiple duty between the States; and
- (c) to give the States their appropriate share of duty by way of the apportionment.

366 Apportionment of premiums

(1) A regulation may state how premiums for insurance are to be apportioned.

(2) A premium or part of a premium must be apportioned under the regulation.

(3) However, the commissioner may, on the written application of an insurer or an insured person, apportion a premium or part of a premium on another basis if the commissioner is satisfied the apportionment on that basis would result in less insurance duty being paid.

Division 2—Other apportionments367 Apportionment between different types or classes of insurance

If the commissioner is not satisfied a premium paid for a contract of insurance effecting different types or classes of insurance has been properly apportioned for assessing insurance duty, the commissioner may decide the basis of the apportionment.

- (c) 1 or more of the premiums under the primary contracts attract insurance duty at a different rate to 1 or more of the premiums under the secondary contracts; and

- (d) the commissioner is not satisfied a premium for 1 of the contracts reflects the relative risk of the contract.

(2) The commissioner may apportion part of the total premiums payable to each of the contracts of insurance as the commissioner considers appropriate.

Note—

For objections and appeals against assessments, see the Administration Act, part 6.

PART 5—ARRANGEMENTS APPLYING TO GENERAL INSURERS, LIFE INSURERS AND WORKCOVER QUEENSLAND

(1) If a registered general insurer has a liability to insurance duty for a return period, the general insurer must on or before the return date—

- (a) lodge a return in the approved form; and
- (b) pay to the commissioner the amount of insurance duty based on the total amount of the premiums received in the return period by the general insurer and any assessed interest and penalty tax.

(2) If a registered life insurer has a liability to insurance duty for a return period, the life insurer must, on or before the return date—

- (a) lodge a return in the approved form; and

Note—

For provisions about reassessments and refunds, see the Administration Act, part 3 (Assessments of tax), division 2 (Self assessments) and part 4 (Payments and refunds of tax and other amounts), division 2 (Refunds of tax and other amounts).

- (b) pay to the commissioner the amount of insurance duty based on the total amount of the net premiums charged in the month and any assessed interest and penalty tax.

(5) WorkCover Queensland must comply with subsection (4) within 14 days after the end of the month or the longer period the commissioner allows.

(6) For the Administration Act,³⁸ the statement is taken to be a return for a self assessment for the accident insurance.

CHAPTER 9—VEHICLE REGISTRATION DUTYPART 1—PRELIMINARY*377 Imposition of vehicle registration duty

(1) This chapter imposes duty (“vehicle registration duty”) on—

- (a) an application to register a vehicle; and
- (b) an application to transfer a vehicle if the person in whose name the vehicle is to be registered differs from the person in whose name the vehicle is registered.

Note—

Exemptions for vehicle registration duty are dealt with in part 4. Also, other exemptions are dealt with in chapter 10.

(2) Vehicle registration duty is imposed on the dutiable value of the vehicle.

PART 2—SOME BASIC CONCEPTS FOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION DUTY

378 What is the “dutiable value” of a vehicle

(1) The “dutiable value” of a vehicle that has not previously been registered, whether in Queensland or another State, and for which there is a list price is the total of the following—

- (a) the vehicle’s list price;
- (b) the price of all items of optional equipment not included in the list price.

(2) The “dutiable value” of a vehicle that has previously been registered, whether in Queensland or another State, or for which there is no list price is the greater of the following—

- (a) the total consideration, in monetary terms, payable by the purchaser including any deposit, trade-in allowance and the price of all items of optional equipment;
- (b) the market value of the vehicle.

379 What is the “market value” of a vehicle

The “market value” of a vehicle is the amount for which the vehicle might reasonably be sold, free of encumbrances, on the open market when the transaction to which an application to register or transfer the vehicle is made.

PART 3—LIABILITY FOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION DUTY

380 Who is liable to pay vehicle registration duty

(1) For an application to register a vehicle, the applicant is liable to pay the vehicle registration duty.

(2) For an application to transfer a vehicle, the transferee and the transferor are liable to pay the vehicle registration duty.

381 When vehicle registration duty must be paid

(1) For an application to register a vehicle, the applicant must pay the vehicle registration duty on the application when making it.

(2) For an application to transfer a vehicle, the transferee and the transferor must pay the vehicle registration duty on the application when making it.

382 Assessment of vehicle registration duty

(1) On the making of an application to register or transfer a vehicle—

- (a) the commissioner is taken to have made an assessment of vehicle registration duty on the application; and
- (b) the application is taken to be an assessment notice for the duty; and
- (c) the commissioner is taken to have given the assessment notice to the persons liable to pay the duty.

(2) The liability for the vehicle registration duty on the application is the amount worked out by applying the rate of vehicle registration duty to the dutiable value of the vehicle stated in the application.

383 Rate of vehicle registration duty

The rate of vehicle registration duty imposed on an application to register or transfer a vehicle is $2 for each $100, and each part of $100, of the dutiable value of the vehicle at the dutiable day.

384 Reduction in vehicle registration duty payable

(1) Vehicle registration duty worked out under section 383 must be reduced if—

- (a) the application to register or transfer the vehicle is made in relation to a dutiable transaction; and
- (b) the dutiable value of the dutiable transaction relating to the dutiable property includes an amount representing the market value or part of the market value of the vehicle; and
- (c) transfer duty in schedule 3 has been paid or is payable on the dutiable transaction.

(2) The reduction must be worked out using the following formula—

$$R = \frac{DP \times MVV}{DVDP}$$

where—

“DP” means the duty paid or payable on the dutiable transaction that was worked out by applying the rate of transfer duty under schedule 3.

“DVDP” means the dutiable value of the dutiable transaction relating to the dutiable property on which transfer duty in schedule 3 was worked out.

“R” means the amount of the reduction.

Example for subsection (2)—

A dutiable transaction comprises the transfer of the following dutiable property for the consideration stated—

- Queensland marketable securities ($2 000)
- a statutory business licence ($5 000)
- personal property ($15 000) including a vehicle ($10 000).

Assuming the consideration for the transaction is the dutiable value, transfer duty is imposed on the transaction under chapter 2 as follows—

- for the marketable securities—$12, being the amount worked out at the rate stated in section 24(1)
- for the licence and personal property—$300, being the amount worked out at the applicable rate of duty stated in schedule 3.

In working out the reduction—

- factor DP is $300, being transfer duty on the transaction so far as it relates to the licence and personal property (transfer duty on the marketable securities is disregarded)
- factor MVV is $10 000, being the market value of the vehicle
- factor DVDP is $20 000, being the dutiable value of the transaction relating to the licence and personal property on which transfer duty is imposed at the applicable rate of duty stated in schedule 3.

Applying the formula, the reduction is $150.

(3) However, the reduction must not be more than the amount of vehicle registration duty that is otherwise payable under section 383.

PART 4—EXEMPTIONS FOR VEHICLE REGISTRATION DUTY

385 Exemption—registration of previously registered vehicle

Vehicle registration duty is not imposed on an application to register a vehicle if—

- (a) the vehicle was registered under the Vehicle Registration Act; and
- (b) the registration expired or was cancelled under that Act; and
- (c) the application is made by the same person in whose name the vehicle was registered immediately before the expiry or cancellation.

386 Exemption—registration of interstate registered vehicle

- (a) the vehicle is registered under an Act of another State that corresponds to the Vehicle Registration Act; and
- (b) duty under a corresponding Act was paid in that State for the registration of the vehicle; and
- (c) the application is made by a person or persons mentioned in subsection (2).

(2) For subsection (1)(c), the applicant or applicants must be—

- (a) if there is only 1 registered operator—
 - (i) the registered operator; or
 - (ii) the registered operator and a relative of the registered operator; or
 - (iii) a relative of the registered operator; or
- (b) if there is more than 1 registered operator—
 - (i) the registered operators; or
 - (ii) 1 of the registered operators if the other registered operators are the applicant's relatives; or

- (iii) 1 of 2 registered operators and a relative of the other registered operator; or
- (iv) a relative of the registered operators; or
- (iv) a relative of each of 2 registered operators.

(3) Subsection (1) applies only if the registration of the vehicle, or an interest in the vehicle, in the name of a relative of a registered operator constitutes a gift of the vehicle or interest by the operator to the relative.

(4) For subsections (2) and (3), a person is a relative of another person if the person is a relative of the other person under section 390(2).

387 Exemption—registration of heavy vehicle

- (b) vehicle registration duty or duty under a corresponding Act was paid for the registration of the vehicle; and
- (c) the application is made by or for the owners of the business to register or transfer the vehicle—
 - (i) in the sole names of the owners; or
 - (ii) in the name of another business owned solely by the owners; or

- (iii) for an application to register a vehicle registered under a corresponding Act in a business name—in the name of the business owned solely by the owners.

CHAPTER 10—GENERAL EXEMPTIONS

PART 1—EXEMPTIONS FOR PARTICULAR DUTIES FOR CORPORATE RECONSTRUCTION

Division 1—Preliminary

397 Purpose of pt 1

This part provides for exemptions for particular duties on particular transactions carried out for a corporate reconstruction.

Division 2—Some basic concepts about exemptions for duty for corporate reconstructions

Subdivision 1—Basic concepts about corporate reconstructions

398 What is a “corporate reconstruction”

(1) A “corporate reconstruction” happens if—

- (a) through a transaction or series of transactions, property is transferred, or agreed to be transferred, for the purpose of changing a corporate structure to make internal adjustments to corporate arrangements; and
- (b) the transaction or each transaction is necessary to give effect to the purpose and is not undertaken for any other purpose; and
- (c) the transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of the property is not part of an arrangement under which any company involved with any of the transactions ceases to belong to the same corporate group other than in the circumstances mentioned in section 412(4).

(2) For subsection (1)(b), a transaction that is 1 in a series of transactions is taken to be necessary to give effect to the purpose if it is necessary for an exemption to apply to the transaction.

Subdivision 2—Basic concepts about companies, group companies, parent companies and subsidiaries

399 What is a “company”

400 What are “group companies”, a “group company” and a “corporate group”

(1) If a company is the subsidiary of another company, the companies are “group companies”.

(2) Also, if 2 or more companies are the subsidiary of another company, all the companies are “group companies”.

(3) Each of the group companies is a “group company”.

(4) All companies that are group companies form a “corporate group”.

401 What is a “parent company”

A company is the “parent company” of another company if—

- (a) it directly owns, other than as trustee, at least 90% of the issued shares in the other company; and
- (b) has voting control over the other company.

402 What is a “subsidiary”

A company (the “first company”) is a “subsidiary” of another company if at least 90% of the issued shares in the first company are owned, other than as trustee, and voting control of the first company is held, by 1 or more of the following companies—

- (a) the other company;
- (b) 1 or more other subsidiaries of the other company;
- (c) the other company and 1 or more other subsidiaries of the other company.

403 Example of corporate group structure

(1) Schedule 5 contains an example of a corporate group structure.

(2) The example shows the group companies, the parent companies and subsidiaries in the group.

404 How part applies to particular transactions

For this part—

- (a) an application to transfer a vehicle is treated as an agreement for the transfer of dutiable property to the applicant transferee from the applicant transferor; and
- (b) a vesting, under a court order, of dutiable property is treated as a transfer of the property to the person in whom it is vested from its owner immediately before the order is made; and
- (c) a surrender of dutiable property is treated as a transfer of the property to the person to whom it is surrendered from the person who surrenders it; and
- (d) a share buy-back for a Queensland marketable security is treated as a transfer of the security to the corporation from the former holder; and
- (e) a partnership acquisition is treated as a transfer of dutiable property to the partner from the former owner; and
- (f) a trust acquisition, under which a person becomes a beneficiary or the person's trust interest increases because of a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of a trust interest, is treated as a transfer of dutiable property to the acquiring beneficiary from the transferor.

Division 3—Exemptions for corporate reconstructions405 Exemption—interposing new company between existing companies and their shareholders

(1) Subsection (2) applies to a corporate reconstruction constituted by a parent company (the “new parent company”) being interposed between a company (the “existing company”) and the shareholders of the existing company.

(2) Transfer duty is not imposed on a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares from a shareholder of the existing company to the new parent company carried out solely for the corporate reconstruction if the conditions in subsections (3) and (4) are complied with.

(3) For subsection (2), the conditions are as follows—

- (a) the new parent company is a company with limited liability;
- (b) the new parent company has been dormant from its registration until the resolution to become the new parent company of the existing company;
- (c) under the dutiable transaction, the new parent company acquires at least 90% of the issued shares, and voting control of, the existing company;
- (d) at least 90% of the consideration for the acquisition is the issue of shares in the new parent company to the shareholders of the existing company;
- (e) each shareholder of the existing company whose shares are acquired by the new parent company receives consideration equal in value to the value of the shareholder's shares in the existing company;
- (f) immediately after the transfer of shares in the existing company, at least 90% of the issued shares in the new parent company consists of the shares it issued as consideration for the acquisition of the shares in the existing company.

(4) Also, if the new parent company is interposed between more than 1 existing company and their shareholders, it is a condition for subsection (2) that the same shareholders owned at least 90% of the issued shares in the existing companies, and had voting control of the existing companies, before the acquisition by the new parent company.

406 Exemption—intra-group transfers of property

(1) Transfer duty or vehicle registration duty is not imposed on a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of dutiable property carried out for a corporate reconstruction if the conditions in subsection (2) are complied with.⁴⁰

⁴⁰ See section 404 (How part applies to particular transactions).

(2) For subsection (1), the conditions are as follows—

- (a) the transferor did not hold, and the transferee will not hold, the property as trustee;
- (b) the transferor and transferee of the property are group companies;
- (c) the dutiable transaction has not been made under an arrangement under which—
 - (i) part or all of the consideration for the dutiable transaction has or is to be provided or received, directly or indirectly by a person other than a group company; or
 - (ii) a group company is to—
 - (A) be enabled to provide any of the consideration by a person other than as mentioned in subsection (3); or
 - (B) dispose of any of the consideration through a payment or other disposition by a person other than a group company by way of loan on ordinary commercial terms;
- (d) the property transferred is, at the time of the transfer, group property under section 407.

(3) For subsection (2)(c)(ii)(A), consideration may be provided—

- (a) by a financial institution by way of loan on ordinary commercial terms; or
- (b) by a group company; or
- (c) under an offer and sale of shares to the public in the circumstances mentioned in section 412(4)(b).

407 Group property for intra-group transfer of property

(1) For section 406(2)(d), property is group property if—

- (a) the transferor and transferee—
 - (i) were group companies before the property, or an interest of at least 90% in the property, was first owned by the transferor or another group company; and
 - (ii) have been group companies at all times subsequent during which the property, or an interest of at least 90% in the property, has been continuously owned by the transferor or another group company; or

- (b) the transferor and transferee—
 - (i) were group companies before the property, or an interest of at least 90% in the property, came into the ownership of the transferor or another group company by way of a transaction for which transfer duty, or an equivalent duty under a corresponding Act, has been paid; and
 - (ii) have been group companies at all times subsequent during which the property, or an interest of at least 90% in the property, has been continuously owned by the transferor or the other group company; or
 - (c) the transferor or transferee is the new parent company of the other party to the transfer and the transferor and the transferee became group companies in the circumstances mentioned in section 405; or
 - (d) the transferee is the parent company of the transferor and land rich duty was imposed and paid for the transferee acquiring its shares in the transferor; or
 - (e) the transferee is the parent company of the transferor, and the transferee acquired at least 70% of the shares of the transferor because of a takeover bid, under the Corporations Act, chapter 6, for the shares if they were quoted securities under that Act; or
 - (f) the transferor and transferee have been group companies for 3 years.
- (2) For section 406(2)(d), property is also group property if—
- (a) the transfer is between a parent company and a subsidiary of it; and
 - (b) either of the following apply—
 - (i) the parent company became the parent company of the subsidiary on its registration;
 - (ii) the parent company became the parent company of the subsidiary after its registration and the subsidiary has been dormant since its registration; and

- (c) the parent company remained the parent company of the subsidiary from its registration or from when it became the subsidiary's parent company until the property is transferred.

408 Exemption—trustees

(1) Transfer duty or vehicle registration duty is not imposed on a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of dutiable property carried out for a corporate reconstruction if the following conditions are complied with—

- (a) the transferor of the property holds the property as trustee for the beneficiaries of a fixed trust, including a unit trust;
- (b) the transferor of the property holds at least 90% of the issued shares of the transferee as trustee for the beneficiaries or, for a unit trust, the unitholders;
- (c) the transferee and the unitholders or beneficiaries are group companies;
- (d) the conditions mentioned in section 406(2) are complied with.⁴¹

(2) For subsection (1), section 406(2) and division 5 apply as if a reference to the transferor of property were a reference to the unitholders or the beneficiaries.

409 Exemption—land rich duty

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) under section 405, a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares is exempt from transfer duty and the acquisition of shares in the existing company by the new parent company or the issue of the shares in the new parent company to the shareholders of the existing company is a relevant acquisition; or
- (b) under section 406 or 408, a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares is exempt from transfer duty and the acquisition of the shares by the transferee is a relevant acquisition.

⁴¹ See section 404 (How part applies to particular transactions).

(2) Land rich duty is not imposed on the acquisition to the extent of the interest acquired by the new parent company or transferee under the dutiable transaction.⁴²

(3) Subsection (1) applies to a transfer, or agreement for the transfer, of shares that are not Queensland marketable securities as if the transfer or agreement were a dutiable transaction.

Division 4—Applications for rulings and exemptions

410 Application for ruling for proposed dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition

(1) A company that proposes being party to a dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition, may apply to the commissioner for a ruling whether the proposed transaction or acquisition will be exempt from duty under this part.

(2) The application must—

- (b) be accompanied by enough information to enable the commissioner to make a ruling.

(3) The commissioner must give the applicant notice of the commissioner's ruling on the application.

411 Application for exemption for dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition

(1) The parties to a dutiable transaction or acquirer under a relevant acquisition may apply to the commissioner for an exemption from duty under division 3.

(2) The application must—

- (b) be supported by enough information to enable the commissioner to make an assessment.

42 See section 179(4) (Working out dutiable value of relevant acquisition).

(3) On the application, the commissioner must make an assessment of nil duty for the dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition if—

- (a) the commissioner is satisfied the transaction or acquisition is exempt from duty under division 3; or
- (b) the commissioner has, on an application for a ruling, decided the transaction or acquisition would be exempt from duty under division 3.

(4) However, subsection (3)(b) does not apply if—

- (a) the instruments submitted with the application for exemption differ in a material particular to drafts of instruments lodged with the application for the ruling; or
- (b) the circumstances relating to the transactions in the application for exemption are materially different from those that were lodged with the application for the ruling, or
- (c) the information given with the application for the ruling was false or misleading in a material particular.

Division 5—Reassessments for corporate reconstructions

412 Reassessment—exemption for intra-group transfers of property, trustees and land rich duty

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) duty is assessed on a dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition on the basis of an exemption under section 406, 408 or 409; and
- (b) within 3 years after the transaction or acquisition—
 - (i) the transferor or transferee has ceased to belong to the same corporate group; or
 - (ii) part or all of the consideration for the transaction or acquisition is provided or received other than as permitted by section 406(2)(c)(ii).

(2) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose duty on the dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition as if the exemption from duty had never applied.

Note—

Unpaid tax interest and penalty tax may be payable under the Administration Act, part 5.

(3) Subsection (2) applies to the reassessment despite the following—

- (a) the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments;⁴³
- (b) the commissioner's ruling under section 410 for the dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition.

(4) However, subsection (2) does not apply—

- (a) if the transferor or transferee has been deregistered under the Corporations Act, other than under an arrangement, a significant purpose of which was to avoid the requirement that the transferor and transferee belong to the same corporate group for the 3 years mentioned in subsection (1); or
- (b) if—
 - (i) the transferor or transferee ceases to be a group company in the corporate group because its shares, or the shares of a new parent company interposed between the transferor and transferee, are offered and sold to the public; and
 - (ii) the shares are quoted on the market operated by a recognised stock exchange within 1 year after the offer to the public; or
- (c) if less than 5% of the value of the property of the company that ceases to be a group company is dutiable property.

413 When parties must give notice for reassessment

(1) This section applies if an event mentioned in section 412(1)(b) happens within 3 years after a dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition to which an exemption under this part was applied.

(2) Within 28 days after the event happens, a party to the dutiable transaction or person making the relevant acquisition must—

- (a) give notice in the approved form to the commissioner; and

43 See the Administration Act, part 3 (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).

- (b) ensure the instruments required for the assessment for the dutiable transaction or relevant acquisition are lodged for a reassessment of duty on the transaction or acquisition.

Note—

(2) For subsection (1)(a) to (h), the property acquired, leased, hired, insured or held is not used, or the advance is not made, solely or almost solely for a qualifying exempt purpose if the property is used or the advance is made for a salary package of an officer or employee of the institution.

416 Start of use requirement

(1) For property held on trust for an exempt institution, the commissioner must be satisfied—

- (a) the property will start to be used for the exempt institution for a qualifying exempt purpose on or before the date that is 6 months after the liability for transfer duty on the transaction would, apart from the exemption under division 1, arise (the “start date”); and
- (b) the property will be used solely or almost solely for the institution for a qualifying exempt purpose for the period starting on the date the property is used for the exempt institution for a qualifying exempt purpose and ends 1 year after that date or the later date fixed by the commissioner by notice given to the institution (the “duration period”).

(2) For other property or an advance, the commissioner must be satisfied—

- (a) has not been used solely or almost solely for a qualifying exempt purpose; but
- (b) will be used solely or almost solely for a qualifying exempt purpose by a later date (the “new start date”), and for the period, fixed by the commissioner (the “new duration period”) by notice given to the institution.

(2) The commissioner must not make a reassessment merely because the property or advance has not been used solely or almost solely for a qualifying exempt purpose if the property or advance starts to be so used by the new start date.

Division 3—Reassessments for exempt institutions

418 Reassessment on application of exempt institution

(1) This section applies if, under an assessment, duty is imposed on an instrument or transaction because the use requirements under division 2 will not be complied with.

(2) If, on application by the exempt institution concerned, the commissioner is satisfied the property acquired, leased, hired, insured or held or the advance, has been used solely, or almost solely, for a qualifying exempt purpose from the start date for the duration period, the commissioner must make a reassessment on the basis of compliance with division 2.

(3) For the reassessment, the exempt institution must lodge the instruments required for the original assessment.

419 Reassessment—noncompliance with use requirements

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) duty is assessed on an instrument or transaction on the basis of an exemption under division 1; and
- (b) after the assessment, the property acquired, leased, hired, insured or held or the advance—
 - (i) is used for a purpose other than a qualifying exempt purpose; or
 - (ii) is not used for a qualifying exempt purpose by the start date or new start date; or
 - (iii) is not used for a qualifying exempt purpose for the duration period or new duration period.

(2) Within 28 days after the event mentioned in paragraph (b) happens, the exempt institution must—

- (a) give notice in the approved form to the commissioner; and
- (b) ensure the instruments required for the assessment of duty are lodged for a reassessment of duty on the instrument or transaction.

Note—

Failure to give the notice is an offence under the Administration Act, section 120.

(3) The commissioner must make a reassessment to impose duty on the instrument or transaction as if the exemption had never applied.

Note—

Exemptions for duty for particular maintenance agreements are provided in the Family Law Act 1975 (Cwlth), sections 90 and 90L.

425 Reassessment on application

 - (i) matrimonial property from 1 party to a marriage to the other party; or
 - (ii) de facto relationship property from 1 de facto spouse to the other; and
- (b) duty was paid on the basis that the instrument was not a matrimonial instrument or de facto relationship instrument; and

CHAPTER 11—AVOIDANCE SCHEMES

432 Purpose and operation of ch 11

(1) The purpose of this chapter is to deter artificial, blatant or contrived schemes to reduce liability to duty.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), nothing in this Act limits the operation of this chapter.

433 Application of ch 11

(1) This chapter applies if—

- (a) an entity (the “avoider”) has obtained, or would apart from this chapter obtain, a duty benefit from a scheme started to be carried out after the commencement of this chapter; and
- (b) the duty benefit is not attributable to an exemption or concession under this Act for duty; and
- (c) taking into account the matters mentioned in section 435, it is reasonable to conclude that an entity, whether alone or with others, that entered into or carried out the scheme, or part of the scheme, did so for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling the entity or another entity to obtain a duty benefit from the scheme.

(2) It does not matter—

- (a) whether the scheme, or any part of the scheme is entered into or carried out inside or outside Queensland; or
- (b) whether or not the duty benefit the entity obtained is the same kind of duty benefit mentioned in subsection (1)(a).

434 When is a “duty benefit” obtained

(1) An entity obtains a “duty benefit” if an amount of duty payable by the entity under this Act apart from this chapter is, or could reasonably be expected to be, less than it would have been apart from the scheme or a part of the scheme.

(2) The amount of the duty benefit is the difference between the amount of duty payable and the amount of duty that would have been payable apart from the scheme or part of the scheme.

435 Matters to be considered in deciding purpose for scheme

(1) For section 433, the following matters must be taken into account in deciding an entity's purpose in entering into or carrying out the scheme from which the avoider obtained, or would obtain, a duty benefit—

- (a) the way in which the scheme was entered into or carried out;
- (b) the form and substance of the scheme, including—
 - (i) the legal rights and obligations involved in the scheme; and
 - (ii) the economic and commercial substance of the scheme;
- (c) when the scheme was entered into and the length of the period during which the scheme was carried out;
- (d) the purpose of this Act or a provision of this Act, whether or not the purpose is expressly stated;
- (e) the effect that this Act would have in relation to the scheme apart from this chapter;
- (f) any change in the avoider's financial position that has resulted, will result, or may reasonably be expected to result from the scheme;
- (g) any change in the financial position of any person who has, or has had, any connection, whether of a business, family or other nature, with the avoider, being a change that has resulted, will result, or may reasonably be expected to result from the scheme;
- (h) any other consequence for the avoider or a person mentioned in paragraph (g) of the scheme having been entered into or carried out;
- (i) the nature of the connection, whether of a business, family or other nature, between the avoider and any person mentioned in paragraph (g);
- (j) the circumstances surrounding the scheme.

(2) Subsection (1) applies for considering an entity's purpose in entering into or carrying out part of a scheme from which the avoider obtains, or would obtain, a duty benefit, as if the part were itself the scheme from which the avoider obtains, or would obtain, the benefit.

436 Assessments because of duty benefit from scheme

(1) If a duty benefit has been obtained, or would apart from this chapter be obtained, by the avoider from a scheme, the commissioner may decide that the amount of the duty benefit is payable as duty as decided by the commissioner.

(2) The commissioner must—

- (a) give notice of the decision, and the reasons for the decision, to the avoider; and
- (b) make an assessment of duty on the basis of the decision.

Note—

For objections and appeals against assessments, see the Administration Act, part 6.

(3) Subsection (4) applies if the commissioner—

- (a) has made an assessment under subsection (2); and
- (b) is satisfied—
 - (i) a person, other than the avoider is liable to duty that would not have been assessed if the scheme had not been entered into or carried out; and
 - (ii) it would be fair and reasonable that the amount or part of the amount of duty should not have been assessed.

(4) Despite the limitation period under the Administration Act for reassessments,⁴⁶ the commissioner must, for the other person, make a reassessment on the basis that the amount or part of the amount of duty is not payable.

(5) For the reassessment, the other person must lodge the instruments required for the original assessment.

⁴⁶ See the Administration Act, part 3, (Assessments of tax), division 3 (Reassessments).
