Information about this reprint

This regulation is reprinted as at 1 October 2002. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes.

Minor editorial changes allowed under the provisions of the Reprints Act 1992 have also been made to use aspects of format and printing style consistent with current drafting practice (s 35).

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of earlier reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

- (b) monitoring systems;
- (c) random number generators.

“basic evaluation”, of gaming equipment, means evaluation of any of the following things relating to the equipment—

- (a) artwork;
- (b) cabinet design;
- (c) documentation, including for example, operational manuals.

“entity” means a body corporate, partnership, trustee, association, firm or business.

“intermediate evaluation”, of gaming equipment, means evaluation of any of the following things relating to the equipment—

- (a) hardware, other than hardware subject to basic evaluation;

Casino Control Regulation 1999

- (b) software, other than software subject to advanced evaluation;
- (c) the mathematical treatise of the derivation of the theoretical return to a player.

“investigated person” means a person of whom the Minister may make requirements under section 6.

“linked jackpot equipment” means any meter, payout display, linking equipment, computer equipment, programming or other device (other than a gaming machine) forming, or capable of forming, part of a progressive jackpot link arrangement.

“progressive jackpot link arrangement” means an arrangement under which 2 or more gaming machines are linked to a device recording a winning result or other event resulting in an amount, part of an amount, or something else, being won by a player.

“progressive jackpot meter” means a device for recording and displaying an amount that, if won by a player, would be—

- (a) payable to the player by a casino operator as a jackpot; or
- (b) credited to the credit meter of the player’s gaming machine.

“promoter’s representative” means a person performing, for the promoter, the duties of the promoter under a junket agreement.

“spouse” includes a defacto spouse.

4 Class or category of persons not required to be licensed—Act, s 4

For the definition “casino employee” in section 4 of the Act, the following are the classes or categories of persons—

- (a) persons serving, dispensing or mixing intoxicating liquor or looking after the contents of a cellar in which intoxicating liquor is stored;
- (b) persons waiting upon tables to serve food or drinks;
- (c) persons employed in cleaning work;
- (d) persons employed on building maintenance work, including carpenters, painters, plumbers, electrical workers, fitters, and other maintenance tradespersons, and their assistants;
- (e) persons employed as entertainers or as entertainment support staff including directors, producers, musicians, stage hands, maintenance workers and all others associated with the entertainment.

5 Disclosure of information

The entities prescribed for section 14(3)¹ of the Act are in schedule 1.

PART 2—CASINO LICENCES

6 Requirements generally

(1) The Minister may make requirements under this section of any of the following persons, to assist in undertaking investigations to satisfy the Governor in Council that the person is a suitable person to be associated or connected with the management and operations of a hotel-casino complex or casino—

- (a) for section 20 of the Act—a casino licensee or associated person;
- (b) for section 26 of the Act—a proposed lessee under a casino lease, proposed casino operator or associated person;
- (c) for section 30 of the Act—a casino licensee, lessee under a casino lease, casino operator or associated person.

(2) The Minister may require an investigated person to give to the Minister—

- (a) if the investigated person is an individual—the information and other items mentioned in section 7; and
- (b) if the investigated person is an entity—the information and other items mentioned in section 10.

(3) If the investigated person is a trustee of a trust estate, the Minister may make a requirement of the person under either or both of sections 7 and 10, and if the Minister does so—

- (a) any requirement under section 7 relates to the person as an individual; and

Casino Control Regulation 1999

- (b) any requirement under section 10 relates to the person as trustee, or to the trust estate, or both, as the Minister considers appropriate.

(4) This section does not restrict the Minister in taking any other action the Minister considers appropriate to fulfil the Minister's duty under section 20, 26 or 30 of the Act.

(5) In this section—

“associated person”, for a casino principal, means a person associated or connected, or to be associated or connected, in the opinion of the Minister, with the ownership, administration or management of the operations or business of the casino principal.

“casino principal” means a casino licensee, a lessee under a casino lease, a proposed lessee under a casino lease, a casino operator or a proposed casino operator.

“proposed casino operator” means a person with whom a casino licensee, or a lessee under a casino lease, proposes to enter into a casino management agreement under section 25 of the Act.

“proposed lessee” means a person to whom a casino licensee proposes to lease the casino licensee's hotel-casino complex or casino under section 24 of the Act.

7 Requirements of individuals

(1) The Minister may require an investigated person who is an individual to give to the Minister any or all of the following—

- (a) information regarding some or all of the matters mentioned in schedule 2;
- (b) an authority under section 12;
- (c) a recent photograph of the individual;
- (d) a nomination under section 8.

(2) If the Minister does not require an individual to provide information regarding any of the matters mentioned in schedule 2, part B, the Minister may require the individual to give to the Minister a certificate under section 9.

(3) A request made of an individual under this section to give to the Minister information about another person is a request to do so to the best of the individual's knowledge.

8 Character reference

The Minister may require an investigated person who is an individual to nominate persons who—

- (a) satisfy the criteria specified by the Minister in the requirement; and
- (b) are considered by the investigated person to be suitable to appraise his or her character and reputation.

9 Certificate of financial stability

(1) The Minister may, under section 7(2), require an investigated person who is an individual to give to the Minister a certificate—

- (a) signed by an accountant; and
- (b) containing the accountant's name and address; and
- (c) stating that the accountant—
 - (i) has examined the individual's financial affairs; and
 - (ii) is of the opinion that the individual is of sound and stable financial background.

(2) In this section—

“accountant” means—

- (a) a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia who holds a current certificate of public practice issued by the institute; or
- (b) a member of the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants who holds a current public practice certificate issued by the society; or
- (c) a member of the National Institute of Accountants who holds a current public practice certificate issued by the institute; or

- (d) a person approved by the chief executive as having the necessary experience or qualifications to certify a certificate of financial stability.

10 Requirements of entities

(1) The Minister may require an investigated person that is an entity to give to the Minister any or all of the following—

- (a) information regarding some or all of the matters set out in schedule 3;
- (b) an authority under section 12;
- (c) copies of any documents that relate to the entity lodged in the offices of the National Companies and Securities Commission, the Australian Securities Commission or any other similar body in a country other than Australia;
- (d) copies of any trust deed or partnership agreement that relates to the entity;
- (e) copies of the entity's audited and published financial statements;
- (f) copies of any related body corporate's audited and published financial statements.

(2) In this section—

“related body corporate” has the meaning given by the Corporations Law.

11 Criteria for requiring information etc.

In deciding the requirements to make of an investigated person under section 7 or 10, the Minister is to consider, but is not limited to, the nature and level of involvement proposed for the person in the management and operations of the hotel-casino complex or casino.

12 Authority to release information

(1) The Minister may require an investigated person to give the Minister an authority that authorises the addressee of the authority to release documents to—

- (a) an inspector; or

(b) a member of the Police Service.

(2) In subsection (1)—

“documents” means all, or specified, records, correspondence and other documents, in the possession of or under the control of the addressee, that relate to the investigated person.

13 Failure to provide information etc. not an offence

Subject to section 14, a person who fails to comply with a requirement made under this part does not commit an offence.

14 Providing false or misleading information an offence

A person who is required to provide information under this part commits an offence if the person—

For the definition “designated departmental account” in section 71A(5) of the Act, the Treasurer’s unclaimed moneys fund kept under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 is designated as the account at the department to which the payments mentioned in the definition are to be made.

25 Casino patron claims

(1) If a casino operator, or an employee or agent of a casino operator, receives a claim for payment, related to a gaming transaction, from a casino patron, the casino operator must immediately attempt to resolve the claim.

(2) If the operator can not resolve the claim, the operator must immediately advise an inspector.

(3) The inspector must, as soon as practicable, investigate the claim, record all relevant information about the claim and tell the operator and the patron the results of the investigation.

(4) If, after receiving the inspector’s report, the operator can not resolve the claim, the operator must immediately tell the patron that the patron may, within 10 days, ask the chief executive to review the operator’s decision about the claim.

(5) The following provisions apply to the chief executive’s review of an operator’s decision—

- (a) a request for review must be made on the approved form;

- (b) the chief executive must not review the operator's decision if the request to review is received after the 10 days mentioned in subsection (4);
- (c) the chief executive must advise the operator and the patron as soon as practicable after receiving the request whether the chief executive intends to review the operator's decision;
- (d) if the chief executive intends to review the operator's decision, the chief executive must—
 - (i) give the operator a copy of the approved form completed by the patron; and
 - (ii) notify the operator and the patron that each of them may, within 1 month after the date of the notice, give a written submission to the chief executive about the claim;
- (e) after the time for making submissions has ended, the chief executive may cause the investigations the chief executive considers appropriate to be made and the results of the investigations to be reported to the chief executive;
- (f) the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, consider the submissions and reports, and notify the operator and the patron in writing of the chief executive's decision, stating the reasons for the decision.

26 Training courses for employees

A casino operator must, for each casino key employee or casino employee, keep a record of—

- (a) each training course, relating to the playing of games, the conduct of games and associated activities in connection with casino operations, completed by the employee; and
- (b) the dates and times the employee attended each course; and
- (c) the date the employee completed each course.³

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

³ See section 72 (Training courses for employees) of the Act.

27 Times for submission of reports—Act, s 81

For section 81(1) of the Act, the following times are prescribed—

- (a) for a casino daily report—not later than 72 hours after the end of the daily gaming period reported on;
- (b) for a casino monthly report—not later than 10 days after the end of the month reported on;
- (c) for a casino quarterly report—not later than 1 month after the end of the quarter reported on;
- (d) for a casino annual report—not later than 4 months after the end of the financial year reported on.

PART 6—JUNKETS*Division 1—Junket agreements30 Amounts prescribed for special junket agreements—Act, s 85D

- (1) For section 85D(1)(b) of the Act, the amount prescribed is $50 000.
- (2) For section 85D(2)(b) of the Act, the amount prescribed is $250 000.

31 Agreement to be in writing

A casino operator must not enter into a junket agreement unless the agreement is in writing and contains the following information—

- (a) the name of the promoter;
- (b) a sequential junket number given by the casino operator to the group of participants;
- (c) the name of each participant;
- (d) the period when participants are expected to visit the casino;
- (e) the amount agreed to be committed under the agreement by the participants;

- (f) the complimentary services proposed to be supplied to the participants by the casino operator;
- (g) the commission proposed to be paid to the promoter by the casino operator.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

32 Junket agreement to provide for 1 group only

A casino operator must not enter into a junket agreement if the agreement provides for more than 1 group of participants.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

33 Copy of agreement to be given to chief executive

A casino operator who enters into a junket agreement must give a signed copy of the agreement to the chief executive before any participant under the agreement starts play as a participant.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

34 Copy of certain passports to be given to chief executive

(1) This section applies to a casino operator if—

- (a) the casino operator enters into a junket agreement; and
- (b) a participant who is neither an Australian resident nor an Australian citizen visits the casino under the agreement; and
- (c) the casino operator has not already complied with this section on a previous visit of the participant to the casino.

(2) The casino operator must, within 8 hours after the participant's arrival at the casino, give a photocopy of the relevant parts of the participant's passport to the chief executive, unless the operator has a reasonable excuse for not giving the copy.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(3) The relevant parts of the passport are the parts showing—

- (a) the country of issue of the passport; and
- (b) the number of the passport; and

- (c) the participant's date of birth; and
- (d) a photograph of the participant.

Division 2—Notices and reports

35 Application of division

This division applies to a casino operator who has entered into a junket agreement.

36 Notices and reports

A notice or report required to be given by the casino operator under this division must be given, in writing, to the chief executive.

37 Notice about promoter

(1) The casino operator must give a notice under this section about a promoter with whom the casino operator has entered into a junket agreement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to the casino operator only if—

- (a) notice about the promoter has not previously been given—
 - (i) under this section; or
 - (ii) under section 38, when the promoter was a promoter's representative; and
- (b) the junket agreement is not a sole participant agreement; and
- (c) the promoter is not a casino key employee.

(3) The casino operator must give the notice to the chief executive before the promoter starts to perform obligations under the junket agreement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(4) The purpose of the notice is to allow the chief executive to assess the suitability of the promoter for involvement in future junket agreements.

(5) The notice must be in the form approved by the chief executive, and be accompanied by the fee prescribed, for the assessment.

(6) The notice must be given even if the promoter is acting through a promoter's representative.

(7) The chief executive must comply with a reasonable request from the casino operator for information about whether, for subsection (2)(a), notice about the promoter has previously been given.

38 Notice about promoter's representative

(1) The casino operator must give a notice under this section about a promoter's representative.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to the casino operator only if—

- (a) notice about the promoter's representative has not previously been given—
 - (i) under section 37, when the promoter's representative was a promoter; or
 - (ii) under this section; and
- (b) the junket agreement is not a sole participant agreement; and
- (c) the promoter's representative is not a casino key employee.

(3) The casino operator must give the notice to the chief executive before the promoter's representative starts to perform obligations under the junket agreement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(4) The purpose of the notice is to allow the chief executive to assess the suitability of the promoter's representative for involvement in future junket agreements.

(5) The notice must be in the form approved by the chief executive, and be accompanied by the fee prescribed, for the assessment.

(6) The chief executive must comply with a reasonable request from the casino operator for information about whether, for subsection (2)(a), notice about the promoter's representative has previously been given.

39 Monthly report

(1) The casino operator must, for each month, give a report under this section about visits to the casino during the month by participants under junket agreements.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2) The report must be given to the chief executive within 14 days after the end of the month.

(3) The report must contain the particulars decided by the chief executive.

(4) The chief executive may decide only particulars relevant to allowing the chief executive to find out whether junket agreements are being complied with, including, for example, particulars of—

- (a) the amount deposited with the casino operator by each group of participants; and
- (b) the total amount wagered by each group of participants; and
- (c) the total amount won or lost by each group of participants; and
- (d) the amount of commission paid to the promoter; and
- (e) the complimentary services provided to each group of participants.

PART 7—GAMING MACHINES AND MACHINE GAMES40 Arrangement for progressive jackpot link

(1) A casino operator may link 2 or more gaming machines together to form a progressive jackpot link arrangement.

(2) However, the operator must not link gaming machines together to form a progressive jackpot link arrangement unless the arrangement includes a progressive jackpot meter.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(3) The operator must not link gaming machines together to form a progressive jackpot link arrangement without the chief executive's approval.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(4) The chief executive's approval may include any matter that the chief executive considers appropriate including the following—

- (a) the number of gaming machines;
- (b) the machine games played on the machines;
- (c) the minimum and maximum amounts of the jackpot.

(5) The chief executive may approve an arrangement that consists of more than 1 type of jackpot.

41 Sharing jackpots

(1) This section applies to players of gaming machines linked in a progressive jackpot link arrangement.

(2) If 2 or more players are eligible for payment of the amount displayed on the progressive jackpot meter for the arrangement, the amount of the progressive jackpot is to be shared equally among the winning players.

(3) Two or more players are eligible for the amount of the progressive jackpot if—

- (a) the players obtain the winning combination at the same time; or
- (b) a player obtained the winning combination but—
 - (i) the progressive jackpot link arrangement allows other players playing gaming machines in the arrangement to complete a wager made before, or at the same time as, the winning combination was or is obtained; and
 - (ii) in completing the wager before further play is prevented, another player obtains, or other players obtain, the winning combination as a result of the wager.

(4) Subject to subsection (2), a player of a gaming machine may not claim payment of an amount, or a share of an amount, that was displayed on the progressive jackpot meter if the amount of the progressive jackpot has transferred from the progressive jackpot meter to a gaming machine played by another player.

42 Meaning of terms used on artwork for draw card machine game

The terms used in the artwork on a gaming machine that has been programmed to play a machine game based on a deck of 52 cards and known as 'draw card' have the following meanings—

“flush” means any 5 cards of the same suit, but not running consecutively in face value.

“four of a kind” means any 4 cards with the same face value.

“full house” means 3 cards with the same face value and another 2 cards with the same face value.

“jacks or better” means a pair of jacks, queens, kings or aces.

“odd card”, in relation to another card or cards, means a card with a different face value to the other card or cards.

“royal flush” means ten, jack, queen, king and ace of the same suit.

“straight” means 5 cards of more than 1 suit running consecutively in face value.

“straight flush” means any 5 cards of the same suit running consecutively in face value other than a royal flush.

“three of a kind” means any 3 cards with the same face value.

“two pairs” means 2 cards with the same face value, another 2 cards with the same face value (other than the face value of the first 2 cards) and 1 odd card.

43 Malfunctioning of gaming machines etc.

(1) A casino operator may refuse to pay a player for a wager made by the player on a gaming machine if the operator believes, on reasonable grounds, that—

- (a) the gaming machine has malfunctioned; or
- (b) the machine game installed on the gaming machine has malfunctioned; or
- (c) the electronic monitoring system for the gaming machine or its associated equipment has malfunctioned.

(2) If the casino operator refuses to pay a player under subsection (1), the operator must not allow any person to use or deal with the gaming machine until an inspector has examined the machine and investigated the reason for the malfunction.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

(2A) Also, if the casino operator refuses to pay a player under subsection (1), section 25⁴ applies to the operator for the player's claim for payment.

(3) This section applies regardless of the reason for the malfunction.

(4) A gaming machine, machine game or the electronic monitoring system for a gaming machine or its associated equipment malfunctions if it does not function in the way it was designed and programmed to function.

(5) In this section—

“associated equipment”, for a gaming machine, means—

- (a) any linked jackpot equipment; or
- (b) any centralised credit system; or
- (c) any part of, or replacement part for, any such equipment or system.

“centralised credit system” means any electronic or computer system or device designed to be used for, or adapted to enable, the transfer of credits of gaming tokens to or from a gaming machine.

“electronic monitoring system”, for a gaming machine or its associated equipment, means any electronic or computer system or device designed to be used, or adapted, to send or receive data from the machine or equipment in relation to the security, accounting or operation of the machine or equipment.

4 Section 25 (Casino patron claims)

PART 8—GENERAL

44 List of names of excluded persons—Act, s 97

A casino operator must include the following information and particulars about each person on the list maintained by the casino operator under section 97 of the Act—

- (a) the person's full name and all aliases the person is believed to have used;
- (b) a description of the person's physical appearance, including height, weight, type of build, colour of hair and eyes, and any other physical characteristics which may assist in identifying the person;
- (c) the person's date of birth or approximate age;
- (d) if the casino operator has a photograph of the person—the photograph and the date it was taken.

45 Register of licences

(1) The chief executive must keep a register of all licences granted under the Act.

(2) The register must include any information of which the chief executive is aware about matters affecting or that may affect the licence.

46 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are in schedule 4.

47 Approval of gaming equipment—Act, s 62

(1) For deciding whether to approve gaming equipment under section 62(3)(a) of the Act, the chief executive may—

- (a) carry out an evaluation of the equipment; or
- (b) inform the person asking for the approval (the “applicant”) that the applicant may—
 - (i) have the equipment evaluated by an approved evaluator; and

Casino Control Regulation 1999

(ii) give the chief executive the evaluator's written report about the evaluation.

(2) An evaluation carried out by the chief executive may include 1 or more of the following types of evaluation—

- (a) basic evaluation;
- (b) intermediate evaluation;
- (c) advanced evaluation.

(3) In deciding whether to approve gaming equipment, the chief executive must have regard to—

- (a) if the chief executive carries out an evaluation of the equipment —the evaluation; or
- (b) if an approved evaluator evaluates the equipment—the evaluator's report about the evaluation.

(4) If the chief executive carries out an evaluation, the person asking for approval of gaming equipment must pay the fee stated in schedule 4 for the evaluation.
