Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 9 May 2003. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Revised edition indicates further material has affected existing material. For example—

- a correction
- a retrospective provision
- other relevant information.

CHAPTER 2—GENERAL EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS

PART 1—GENERAL

Division 1A—Minimum wage

8A Minimum wage

(1) An employee is entitled to a wage that is not less than the Queensland minimum wage declared by the full bench’s general ruling under section 287.³

(2) This section does not apply to an employee who is excluded from the operation of the general ruling under section 287(5).

Division 1—Working time

9 Working time

(1) This section applies to an employee under an industrial instrument.

3 Section 287 (General rulings)

(2) The periods for which an employee is required to work must not exceed—

- (a) 6 days in any 7 consecutive days; or
- (b) 40 hours in any 6 consecutive days; or
- (c) 8 hours in any day.

(3) An employee must be paid overtime at the rate of at least—

- (a) for a calling in which more than 1 shift is worked in a day—double time; and
- (b) for another calling—time and a half.

(4) If an employee is paid at a higher rate than the minimum rate prescribed in the industrial instrument, the overtime rate must be worked out on the higher rate.

(5) If practicable, an employee is entitled to a rest pause of at least 10 minutes in each 4 hours of working time on a day.

(6) The rest pause—

- (a) is part of the employee's working time; and
- (b) if continuity of work is necessary—must be taken when it does not interfere with continuity.

(7) This section does not apply if an industrial instrument provides otherwise.

(8) In this section—

“overtime” means time worked—

- (a) outside any of the periods mentioned in subsection (2); or
- (b) before or after the fixed or recognised times of starting or finishing work on a day in a calling.

Division 2—Sick leave

10 Entitlement

(1) This section does not apply to—

- (a) casual employees; or
- (b) pieceworkers; or

Industrial Relations Act 1999

- (c) school-based apprentices or trainees.
- (2) An employee is entitled to—
- (a) at least 8 days sick leave on full pay for each completed year of employment with an employer; and
 - (b) for each completed period of employment of less than a year—at least 1 day’s sick leave on full pay for each completed 6 weeks of employment with an employer.
- (3) However, the employee’s entitlement is conditional on—
- (a) the employee promptly notifying the employer of—
 - (i) any illness that will cause the employee to be absent from work; and
 - (ii) the approximate period for which the employee will be absent; and
 - (b) if the employee is absent for more than 2 days—
 - (i) the employee giving the employer a doctor’s certificate about the nature of the illness and the approximate period for which the employee will be absent; or
 - (ii) the employee giving the employer other evidence of the illness to the employer’s satisfaction.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not apply if—
- (a) an industrial instrument provides otherwise; or
 - (b) the employee and employer agree otherwise.
- (5) Sick leave may be taken for part of a day.

Examples—

1. An employee is ordinarily required to work for 8 hours on a particular day and on that day becomes sick after working 3 hours. The employee may take sick leave for the remaining 5 hours that the employee is unable to work because of the sickness.
2. An employee is ordinarily required to perform work for 40 hours a week over 5 days, but has come to an arrangement with the employer to work 10 hours a day for 4 days a week. If the employee is unable to work because of sickness on a day, the employee may take 10 hours sick leave, which equates to $1\frac{1}{4}$ days sick leave.

(6) Sick leave accumulates, unless an industrial instrument provides otherwise.

(7) This section does not operate to confer an entitlement or an additional entitlement in relation to employment before the commencement of this section.

(8) In subsections (2) and (5)—

“day”, for an employee who is paid on the basis of the number of hours worked, means—

- (a) for an employee for whom an industrial instrument provides sick leave—a day within the meaning of the industrial instrument so far as it relates to sick leave; or
- (b) otherwise—one-fifth of the number of ordinary hours that the employee would ordinarily have been required to work in a week, averaged over each completed 6 weeks of employment with the employer.

Division 3—Annual leave

11 Entitlement

(1) This section does not apply to—

- (a) casual employees; or
- (b) pieceworkers; or
- (c) school-based apprentices or trainees.

(2) For each completed year of employment with an employer, an employee is entitled to—

- (a) if the employee is not a shift worker—at least 4 weeks annual leave; or
- (b) if the employee is a shift worker—at least 5 weeks annual leave.

(3) Annual leave is exclusive of a public holiday that falls during the leave.

(4) However, if an employee is entitled to additional annual leave as compensation for working on a particular public holiday, annual leave is inclusive of the particular public holiday.

(5) In working out a completed year of employment, the following periods when an employee is absent without pay are not to be taken into account—

- (a) a period of more than 3 months when an employee is absent with the employer's approval;
- (b) a period when an employee is absent without the employer's approval, unless the employee is absent for not more than 3 months because of illness or injury certified to by a doctor.

(6) This section does not operate to confer an entitlement or an additional entitlement in relation to employment before the commencement of this section.

(7) Annual leave accumulates, unless an industrial instrument provides otherwise.

(8) In this section—

“shift worker” means an employee who—

- (a) is employed in a calling in which shifts are worked 24 hours a day, 7 days a week; and
- (b) works a rotating roster that includes each of the shifts.

12 Taking annual leave

(1) An employee and employer may agree when the employee is to take annual leave.

(2) If the employee and employer can not agree, the employer—

- (a) may decide when the employee is to take leave; and
- (b) must give the employee at least 14 days written notice of the starting date of the leave.

(3) An employee and employer may agree that the employee take all or any part of the employee's annual leave before becoming entitled to it.

(4) If the employee takes leave before becoming entitled to it, the employee is only entitled, at the end of the completed year of employment, to the balance of the leave that would be due at the end of the year.

13 Payment for annual leave

(1) Unless an employee and employer otherwise agree, the employer must pay the employee for annual leave in advance.

(2) The employer must pay for the leave—

- (a) at the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the leave is taken; or
- (b) if, immediately before taking the leave, the employee is being paid at a higher rate than the ordinary rate—at the higher rate.

14 Payment for annual leave on termination of employment

(1) This section applies if an employee's employment is terminated by the employee or employer.

(2) If the employee has not taken all the annual leave the employee is entitled to, the employee is presumed to have taken the leave from the day the termination takes effect (the "termination day").

(3) The employer must immediately pay the employee for the annual leave not taken, including any public holiday that falls in the period the employee is presumed to have taken the leave.

(4) If the employee has been employed for any period of less than 1 year, the employer must pay the employee proportionate annual leave for the period.

(5) The employer must pay the employee at least the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the termination day, unless an industrial instrument states otherwise.

Division 4—Public holidays

15 Public holidays

(1) An employee who would ordinarily be required to work on a day on which a public holiday falls is entitled to full pay for the time the employee would ordinarily have been required to perform work on that day.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to an employee whether the employee—

- (a) works on the public holiday; or
- (b) does not work on that day because of the public holiday.

(2A) Despite subsection (2), subsection (1) applies to a school-based apprentice or trainee only if the apprentice or trainee works on the public holiday.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply—

Industrial Relations Act 1999

- (a) to a casual employee or pieceworker; or
- (b) if the employee is rostered off on the public holiday.

(4) If an employee who is bound by an industrial instrument does work on a public holiday, the employer must pay the employee—

- (a) for the greater of the hours worked or 4 hours—
 - (i) if the employee would ordinarily be required to work on a day on which a public holiday falls—at the rate of 1.5 times the hourly rate, in addition to the amount payable under subsection (1); or
 - (ii) if the employee would not ordinarily be required to work on a day on which a public holiday falls—at the rate of double time and a half; or
 - (iii) if the employee is a casual employee—at the rate of double time and a half; and

- (b) if the employee works outside the employee's ordinary working hours—at double the rate stated in the instrument for that work.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) do not apply if an industrial instrument provides otherwise.

(6) Subject to another Act that restricts work or trading hours on particular days of the year, the employee and employer may agree that the employee work on a public holiday at ordinary rates in exchange for another day off on full pay.

(7) The commission may confer on an employee an entitlement to extra annual leave on full pay, instead of extra pay, for work on a public holiday.

(8) In a district in which a holiday is not appointed for an annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show, the employee and employer must agree on an ordinary working day that is to be treated as a show holiday for all purposes.

(9) An employee, while employed by the 1 employer, is only entitled to leave on full pay for a show holiday once each calendar year.

(10) In this section—

“double time and a half” means 2.5 times the hourly rate.

“ordinary working day” means a day on which the employee would ordinarily be required to perform work.

“ordinary working hours”, for an employee, means the hours between the employee’s ordinary starting time and ordinary finishing time under a relevant industrial instrument.

“show holiday” means—

- (a) a public holiday appointed for an annual agricultural, horticultural or industrial show under the Holidays Act 1983, section 4;⁴ or

 - (ii) is transferred to a safe job under section 36; or
- (b) a person replacing an employee who is temporarily promoted or transferred to replace the parent.

36 Transfer to a safe job

(2) The assessment of the risk is to be made on the basis of—

- (a) a doctor's certificate given by the employee to the employer; and
- (b) the employer's obligations under the Workplace Health and Safety Act 1995.

(3) The employer must temporarily adjust the employee's working conditions or hours of work to avoid exposure to the risk.

(4) If an adjustment is not feasible or can not reasonably be required to be made, the employer must transfer the employee to other appropriate work that—

- (a) will not expose her to the risk; and
- (b) is, as nearly as possible, comparable in status and remuneration to that of her present work.

(5) If a transfer is not feasible or can not reasonably be required to be made, the employer must grant the employee maternity leave, or any available paid sick leave, for as long as a doctor certifies it is necessary to avoid exposure to the risk.

37 Special maternity leave and sick leave

(1) This section applies if, before an employee starts maternity leave—

- (a) the employee's pregnancy terminates before the expected date of birth, other than by the birth of a living child; or

(3) The employee must, if required by the employer, produce a doctor's certificate or statutory declaration evidencing that the member is ill with an illness that requires care by another.

(4) An employee can not take carer's leave if another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

(5) Carer's leave may be taken for part of a day.

(6) The employee must, if practicable, give the employer—

- (a) notice of the intention to take carer's leave before taking the leave; and
- (b) the name of the person requiring care and the person's relationship to the employee; and
- (c) the reason for taking the leave; and
- (d) the period that the employee estimates he or she will be absent.

(7) If it is not practicable for the employee to notify the employer of the intention to take carer's leave before taking the leave, the employee must notify the employer at the first reasonable opportunity.

(8) An employee who may use sick leave as carer's leave may take unpaid carer's leave if the employer agrees.

(9) A long term casual employee may take additional unpaid carer's leave if the employer agrees.

*Division 4—Bereavement leave40 Entitlement

(1) This section does not apply to—

Division 5—Part overrides less favourable conditions

41 This part overrides less favourable conditions

This part has effect despite—

- (a) another law of the State; or
- (b) an industrial instrument or order;

to the extent that the law, instrument or order provides an employee with a benefit that is less favourable to the employee.

PART 3—LONG SERVICE LEAVE

Division 1—Definitions for pt 3

42 Definitions for pt 3

In this part—

“continuous service” of an employee means—

- (a) in section 50⁷—the period of continuous service the employee is taken to have had with an employer under section 50(4); and
- (b) elsewhere—the employee’s continuous service with the same employer (whether wholly in the State, or partly in and partly outside the State).

“owner” of a meat works includes a person who carries on the business of the works.

“period between seasons” includes the period between—

- (a) the end of 1 season and the start of the next season; and
- (b) for a particular employee—the day the employee stops employment in 1 season and the day the employee starts employment in the next season.

“season” means a period (whether falling completely in 1 calendar year or partly in 1 calendar year and partly in the next calendar year) when—

- (a) for the sugar industry—
 - (i) sugar cane is delivered to, and crushed at, a sugar mill; or
 - (ii) sugar cane is harvested, or farm work is performed, in the sugar industry; or
- (b) for a meat works—stock are delivered to, and slaughtered at, the works.

Division 2—Employees generally

43 Entitlement

(1) This section applies to all employees, other than seasonal employees.

(2) An employee is entitled to long service leave on full pay of—

- (a) for the first 10 years continuous service—8.6667 weeks; and
- (b) if the employee has completed at least a further 5 years continuous service—another period that bears to 8.6667 weeks the proportion that the employee’s further period of continuous service bears to 10 years.

7 Section 50 (Entitlement—employees in sugar industry and meat works)

Industrial Relations Act 1999

(3) An employee who has completed at least 7 years continuous service is entitled to a proportionate payment for long service leave on the termination of the employee's service.

(4) However, if the employee's service is terminated before the employee has completed 10 years continuous service, the employee is entitled to a proportionate payment only if—

- (a) the employee's service is terminated because of the employee's death; or
- (b) the employee terminates the service because of—
 - (i) the employee's illness or incapacity; or
 - (ii) a domestic or other pressing necessity; or
- (c) the termination is because the employer—
 - (i) dismisses the employee for a reason other than the employee's conduct, capacity or performance; or
 - (ii) unfairly dismisses the employee.

(5) Long service leave is exclusive of a public holiday that falls during the period of the leave.

(6) An employee who is entitled to long service leave elsewhere than under this Act, is entitled to leave that is at least as favourable as the entitlement under this section.

(7) For the purposes of working out when an employee may take long service leave, only two-thirds of the employee's continuous service completed before the commencement of this subsection counts as continuous service.

(8) Subsection (7) does not reduce an entitlement to long service leave that an employee has accrued before subsection (7) commences.

Examples of subsections (7) and (8)—

An employee has completed 15 years continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 15 years counts as 10 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave immediately. The employee's entitlement then is 13 weeks (15 x 0.86667 weeks).

An employee has completed 10 years continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 10 years counts as 6.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave after completing another 3.3333 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 11.5556 weeks ([10 + 3.3333] x 0.86667 weeks).

An employee has completed 1 year continuous service immediately before the commencement. The 1 year counts as 0.6667 years continuous service for working out when the employee may take long service leave. The employee may take the leave after completing another 9.3333 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 8.9556 weeks $([1 + 9.3333] \times 0.86667 \text{ weeks})$.

An employee starts employment after the commencement. The employee may take long service leave after completing 10 years continuous service. The employee's entitlement then will be 8.6667 weeks $(10 \times 0.86667 \text{ weeks})$.

(9) In this section—

“proportionate payment” means a payment equal to the employee's full pay for a period that bears to 8.6667 weeks the proportion that the employee's period of continuous service (stated in years, and a fraction of a year if necessary) bears to 10 years.

44 Working out continuity of service for service before 23 June 1990

(1) This section applies to service of all employees who are not casual employees before 23 June 1990.⁸

(2) The repealed Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961, sections 17, 18, 19 and 20, applies to—

- (a) the determination of the employee's continuous service before 23 June 1990; and
- (b) the calculation of the employee's entitlement to long service leave in relation to continuous service before 23 June 1990.

45 Taking long service leave

(1) The commission may insert in an industrial instrument provisions—

- (a) about the time when, the way in which, and the conditions on which, long service leave may be taken; or
- (b) to the effect that leave in the nature of long service leave taken, before the provisions take effect, by an employee bound by the instrument must be deducted from the long service leave that the employee becomes entitled to under the provisions.

(2) An employee and employer may agree when the employee is to take long service leave.

⁸ In all other circumstances, see part 6 (Continuity of service and employment).

(3) If the employee and employer can not agree, the employer may decide when the employee is to take leave by giving the employee at least 3 months written notice of the date on which the employee must take at least 4 weeks long service leave.

(4) Subsection (3) applies subject to an industrial instrument.

46 Payment for long service leave

(1) The employer must pay the employee for long service leave at the ordinary rate being paid to the employee immediately before the leave is taken.

(2) However, if the employee is, immediately before taking the leave, being paid at a higher rate than the ordinary rate, the employer must pay the employee at the higher rate.

(3) An employer must not reduce an employee's usual rate, before an employee starts long service leave, with intent to avoid the employer's obligation under subsection (2).

(4) If satisfied an employer has done so, the commission may order the employer to pay the employee at the usual rate even though the employee was not being paid the usual rate immediately before starting leave.

(5) If, during the employee's leave—

- (a) the ordinary rate is increased above the higher rate—the employer must pay the employee at the increased rate for the part of the leave period that the increased rate applies to; or
- (b) the ordinary rate is reduced—the employer may pay the employee at the reduced rate for the part of the leave period that the reduced rate applies to.

(6) In this section—

“usual rate” the rate at which the employee is being paid for ordinary time, being a rate that is higher than the ordinary rate.

Division 3—Casual or regular part-time employees47 Continuity of service—additional considerations for casual employees

(1) The service of an employee (a “casual employee”) who is employed more than once by the same employer over a period is continuous service with the employer even though—

- (a) the employment is broken; or
- (b) any of the employment is not full-time employment; or
- (c) the employee is employed by the employer under 2 or more employment contracts; or
- (d) the employee would, apart from this section, be taken to be engaged in casual employment; or
- (e) the employee has engaged in other employment during the period.

(2) However, the continuous service ends if the employment is broken by more than 3 months between the end of 1 employment contract and the start of the next employment contract.

(3) In working out the length of an employee’s continuous service—

- (a) the following service must not be taken into account—
 - (i) service by the employee before 23 June 1990;
 - (ii) if the employee only obtained the entitlement because of the enactment of the repealed Industrial Relations Reform Act 1994, section 17⁹—the employee’s service between 23 June 1990 and 30 March 1994; and
- (b) subject to subsection (2), a period when the employee was not employed by the employer must be taken into account.

(4) Subsection (3)(a)(i) does not affect an employee’s entitlement to long service leave under—

- (a) an award made before 23 June 1990; or
- (b) the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961.

9 Industrial Relations Reform Act 1994, section 17 (Replacement of s 164 (Continuous service of casual employees))

(5) This section does not limit any other entitlement to long service leave that an employee may have.

48 Taking long service leave—alternative provision for casual or regular part-time employees

(1) An employer may agree with a casual or regular part-time¹⁰ employee that the entitlement to long service leave may be taken in the form of its full-time equivalent.

Example—

If an employee—

- (a) is entitled to be paid for 260 hours long service leave; and
- (b) works under an award that provides for a full-time working week of 40 ordinary working hours;

the employee and the employer may agree that the employee take 6½ weeks leave (260 ÷ 40 = 6½).

(2) This section applies subject to a provision in an industrial instrument about the employee's long service leave.

49 Payment for long service leave

(1) This section applies if an employee who is entitled to long service leave was a casual or regular part-time employee at any time during the employee's continuous service to which the long service leave relates.

(2) The minimum amount payable to the employee for long service leave is worked out using the formula—

$$\frac{\text{actual service}}{52} \times \frac{8.6667}{10} \times \text{hourly rate}$$

Example—

An employee who worked 15 600 ordinary working hours over a 10 year period and is being paid an hourly rate of $12 is entitled to be paid—

$$\frac{15\,600}{52} \times \frac{8.6667}{10} \times $12 = $3\,120.01$$

¹⁰ See the dictionary for the definition “regular part-time employee”.

(3) If a dispute arises between an employee who is paid at piecework rates and the employer about the rate the employee should be paid for long service leave, the commission may decide the rate payable.

(4) An employee and employer may agree on the times when, and the way in which, the employee will be paid for long service leave.

(5) The commission may decide any matter relating to payment for long service leave that the employee and employer can not agree on.

(6) An amount payable for long service leave becomes payable at a time agreed between the employee and employer or, if they can not agree, at a time decided by the commission.

(7) In this section—

“actual service” means the total ordinary working hours actually worked by an employee during the employee’s period of continuous service.

“casual employee” means an employee mentioned in section 47(1).¹¹

“hourly rate” means the hourly rate for ordinary time payable to the employee—

- (a) if the employee takes the long service leave—on the day that the employee starts the leave; or
- (b) if the employee’s employment is terminated—on the date that the termination takes effect.

Division 4—Seasonal employees

50 Entitlement—employees in sugar industry and meat works

(1) This section applies to the following seasonal employees—

- (a) an employee employed in seasonal employment in the sugar industry; or
- (b) an employee employed in or about meat works in seasonal employment by the meat works owner.

¹¹ Section 47 (Continuity of service—additional considerations for casual employees)

(2) The employee is entitled to long service leave on full pay of at least the number of weeks worked out using the following formula—

$$\text{section 43 entitlement} \times \frac{\text{actual service}}{10}$$

Example—

An employee who worked half of each year, over a 10 year period, is entitled to half the section 43 entitlement, that is, half of 8.6667 weeks leave ($8.6667 \times \frac{5}{10} = 4.3334$).

(3) Service with the employer of an employee engaged in harvesting sugar cane or farm work in the sugar industry before 23 June 1990 must not be taken into account in working out the length of the employee's continuous service.

(4) A period between seasons when the employee is not employed by the employer must be taken into account in working out the length of an employee's continuous service if—

- (a) in 1 season—the employee's service with the employer continued until the end of the season or until an earlier day when the employee's employment was terminated by the employer; and
- (b) in the next season—the employee's service with the same employer started on the season's opening or on a later day in the season when the employer required the employee to start employment.

(5) If an employee is employed by the employer between seasons, the part of the period between seasons when the employee is employed must be taken into account in working out the length of the employee's actual service.

(6) An employee who is entitled to long service leave elsewhere than under this Act, is entitled to leave that is at least as favourable as the entitlement under this section.

(7) In this section—

“actual service” means the total ordinary time actually worked by an employee during the employee's period of continuous service.

“section 43 entitlement” means the entitlement to long service leave of an employee under section 43.

51 Taking long service leave—employees in sugar industry and meat works

(1) This section applies to the following seasonal employees—

- (a) an employee employed in seasonal employment in the sugar industry;
- (b) an employee employed in or about meat works in seasonal employment by the meat works owner.

(2) An employee may take long service leave between seasons.

(3) If an employee takes leave between seasons, the leave is taken to have started when the employee last ceased employment with the employer.

52 Other seasonal employees

The commission may decide the entitlement to long service leave of an employee—

- (a) who is employed in seasonal employment, but who is not employed—
 - (i) in the sugar industry, or
 - (ii) in or about meat works; or
- (b) who is employed in other periodic employment that is not defined as casual employment by the relevant industrial instrument.

Division 5—Miscellaneous53 Payment instead of long service leave

(1) An employee may be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave if subsection (2) or (3) applies.

(2) If the relevant industrial instrument provides for the employee to be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave, payment may be made, in accordance with the industrial instrument, if the employee and employer agree by a signed agreement.

(3) If no industrial instrument provides for the employee to be paid for all or part of an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave or part of the leave, payment may be made only if the payment is ordered by the commission on application by the employee.

(4) The commission may order the payment only if satisfied the payment should be made—

- (a) on compassionate grounds; or
- (b) on the ground of financial hardship.

(5) Despite section 58(2), the full bench must not make a general ruling that allows an employee to be paid for an entitlement to long service leave instead of taking the leave.

(6) In subsection (3)—

“employee” includes a registered worker under the Building and Construction Industry (Portable Long Service Leave) Act 1991.

“entitlement to long service leave” includes an entitlement to long service leave under the Building and Construction Industry (Portable Long Service Leave) Act 1991, section 57(1).¹²

- (a) before taking the leave; or
- (b) after starting, but before finishing, the leave.

(2) The employer must pay the employee’s legal personal representative any amount payable for the employee’s entitlement to long service leave that has not been already been paid.

¹² Building and Construction Industry (Portable Long Service Leave) Act 1991, section 57 (Entitlement to long service leave)

(3) If the employer does not do so, the employee's legal personal representative or an inspector may recover the amount as unpaid wages.¹³

55 Continuity not broken by service in Reserve Forces

(1) An employee's service in the reserve forces is taken to be continuous service with the employer who employed the employee immediately before the employee starting service with the Forces.

(2) In this section—

“reserve forces” means the Australian Naval Reserve, Australian Army Reserve or Australian Air Force Reserve.

56 Recognition of certain exemptions

(1) This part does not apply to an employer if—

- (a) the commission has exempted the employer, under the repealed Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act 1961, from the application of long service leave provisions in that Act or an award; and
- (b) the exemption is in force.

(2) On application, the commission may revoke an exemption.

57 Person may be “employer” and “employee”

If in performing duties in a calling a person is an employee, the person is entitled to long service leave as prescribed under this part despite the person being, by definition for this Act, an employer because of—

- (a) the person's engagement in the calling; or
- (b) the position the person holds in the calling.

13 See section 399 (Recovery of unpaid wages etc.).

PART 4—REVIEW

58 Review of general employment conditions

(1) On application by the Minister, an organisation or a State peak council, the full bench may review a condition under this chapter.

(2) The full bench may, by a general ruling under section 287,¹⁴ substitute the condition with another condition that is no less favourable.

63 Immediate or progressive introduction of equal remuneration

The order may introduce equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value—

- (a) immediately; or
- (b) progressively, in specified stages.

64 Employer not to reduce remuneration

(2) If an employer purports to do so, the reduction is of no effect.

65 Part does not limit other rights

(1) This part does not limit any right a person or organisation may otherwise have to secure equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value.

(2) Subsection (1) is subject to section 66.

66 Applications under this part

(1) An application can not be made under this part for an order to secure equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value for an employee if proceedings for an alternative remedy—

- (a) to secure the remuneration for the employee; or
- (b) against unequal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value for the employee;

have started under another provision of this Act or under another Act.

(2) Subsection (1) does not prevent an application under this part if the proceedings for the alternative remedy have—

- (a) been discontinued by the party who started the proceedings; or
- (b) failed for want of jurisdiction.

(3) If an application under this part has been made for an order to secure equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value for an employee, a person is not entitled to start proceedings for an alternative remedy under a provision or Act mentioned in subsection (1)—

- (a) to secure the remuneration for the employee; or

- (a) the person is employed by the new employer after the transfer; and
- (b) the employee—
 - (i) was dismissed by the former employer within 1 month immediately before the transfer; and
 - (ii) is re-employed by the new employer within 3 months after the dismissal.

(3) The transfer of the calling is taken not to break the transferred employee’s continuity of service.

71 Continuity of service—generally

(1) Service with a partnership and an employer who was, or becomes, a member of the partnership is taken to be continuous service with the same employer.

(2) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken if the employee's service is temporarily lent or let on hire by the employer to another employer.

(3) An employee's continuity of service with an employer is not broken by an absence, including through illness or injury—

- (a) on paid leave approved by the employer; or

 - (ii) no period of probation; or
 - (b) an employee serving a period of probation that is longer than the probationary period, if—

(6) The vice president may delegate the functions of the commission under this section to the registrar or a deputy registrar.

77 Matters to be considered in deciding an application

In deciding whether a dismissal was harsh, unjust or unreasonable, the commission must consider—

(1) This section applies if the commission is satisfied an employee was unfairly dismissed.

(2) The commission may order the employer to reinstate the employee to the employee's former position on conditions at least as favourable as the conditions on which the employee was employed immediately before dismissal.

(3) If the commission considers reinstatement would be impracticable, the commission may order the employer to re-employ the employee in another position that the employer has available and that the commission considers suitable.

(4) The commission may also—

- (a) make an order it considers necessary to maintain the continuity of the employee's employment or service; and
- (c) order the employee to repay any amount paid to the employee by, or for, the employer on the dismissal; and
- (b) order the employer to pay the employee the remuneration lost, or likely to have been lost, by the employee because of the dismissal, after taking into account any employment benefits or wages received by the employee since the dismissal.

(5) This section does not limit the commission's power to make an interim or interlocutory order.

79 Remedies—compensation

(1) If, and only if, the commission considers reinstatement or re-employment would be impracticable, the commission may order the employer to pay the employee an amount of compensation decided by the commission.

(2) The commission must not award an amount of compensation that is more than—

- (a) if the employee was employed under an industrial instrument—the wages the employer would have been liable to pay the employee for the 6 months immediately after the dismissal, paid at the rate the employee received immediately before the dismissal; or
- (b) if the employee was not employed under an industrial instrument—the lesser of the wages under paragraph (a) and an amount equal to half the amount prescribed under section 72(1)(e)(iii).

(2) The commission may make the order in addition to an order for reinstatement, re-employment or compensation.

81 Further orders if employer fails to reinstate

(1) If an employer wilfully contravenes an order to reinstate or re-employ an employee, the commission may—

- (a) further order the employer to pay the employee—
 - (i) an amount of not more than the monetary value of 50 penalty units; and
 - (ii) an amount for lost wages; and
- (b) make further orders until the employer complies with an order under section 78 or this section.

(2) This section does not affect another provision of this Act allowing proceedings to be taken against the employer.

82 Effect of order on leave

If the commission makes an order under section 78, the interruption to the employee's continuity of employment or service caused by the dismissal must be disregarded when working out the employee's entitlement—

- (a) to annual, sick, family or long service leave; or

- (b) to ensure the parties are fully informed of the orders that may be made at the hearing.

119 Right to be heard

(1) The commission must, before making an order under this part against an entity, give the entity an opportunity to be heard.

(2) This section does not apply to the making of an interim order or interim injunction.

120 Remedies

PART 2—COMMISSION'S POWERS

125 Making, amending and repealing awards

(1) The commission may make, amend or repeal an award to provide, among other things, fair and just employment conditions.

(2) The commission may act under subsection (1)—

- (a) of its own initiative; or
- (b) on application by—
 - (i) the Minister; or
 - (ii) an organisation; or
 - (iii) an employer; or
 - (iv) a person who satisfies the commission that the person is not an officer of, or acting for, an eligible association.

(3) The commission may make an award that—

- (a) revokes or amends a decision; or
- (b) declares void or amends labour contracts made before or after the commencement of this Act, subject to the conditions and exemptions the commission considers appropriate; or
- (c) gives the retrospective effect the commission considers appropriate, or that is consented to by the parties, to the whole or part of an award, but so that, except with the parties' consent, the retrospective effect is not made to operate before the day when the commission first took cognisance of the matter; or
- (d) directs a copy of an award be exhibited by the employer in a conspicuous and convenient place on the premises of an employer bound by the award.

126 Content of awards

The commission must ensure an award—

- (a) does not contain discriminatory provisions; and
- (b) is stated in plain English and is easy to understand in structure and content; and

- (c) does not contain provisions that are obsolete or need updating; and
- (d) provides for secure, relevant and consistent wages and employment conditions; and
- (e) provides for equal remuneration for men and women employees for work of equal or comparable value; and
- (f) provides fair standards for employees in the context of living standards generally prevailing in the community; and
- (g) is suited to the efficient performance of work according to the needs of particular enterprises, industries or workplaces; and

 - (ii) contains provisions enabling the employment of regular part-time employees; and
 - (iii) provides support for training arrangements.

127 Dispute resolution procedures in each award

(1) The commission must ensure an award contains a dispute resolution procedure.

(2) The form of the procedure is to be agreed on by the parties to the award.

(3) However, if the parties can not agree, the commission must insert an appropriate procedure in the award.

(4) Without limiting subsection (1), the procedure must include—

- (a) procedures for consultation at the workplace; and
- (b) procedures for the involvement of relevant organisations; and
- (c) any other procedure prescribed under a regulation.

128 Awards that fix wage rates

(1) In fixing wage rates payable to employees in a calling, the commission must fix the rates on the basis that a man and a woman employed by the same employer must receive equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value without discrimination on the ground of sex.

(2) Despite any other provision of this Act, wage rates fixed by the commission for persons under 21 years may be fixed on a progressive scale based on the wage rates payable to employees 21 years or over in the same calling.

(3) In making an award that fixes the wage rates, the commission must consider the age and experience of the persons under 21 years.

129 Flow-on of certified agreements

The commission may include in an award provisions that are based on a certified agreement only if satisfied the provisions—

- (a) are consistent with principles established by the full bench that apply for deciding wages and employment conditions; and
- (b) are not contrary to the public interest.

130 Review of awards

(1) The commission may review an award—

- (a) of its own initiative; or
- (b) on the application of a party to the award.

(2) Without limiting subsection (1), a party may apply to the commission to amend a provision of an award about wages or employment conditions.

(3) The commission must review an award within 3 years after—

- (a) it was made; or
- (b) if it was made before the commencement of this section—the commencement; or
- (c) it was last reviewed under this section.

(4) In reviewing an award, the commission must do what is required by sections 126, 127 and 128.

131 Review of industrial instruments referred by the Anti-Discrimination Commission

(1) The commission must review an industrial instrument referred to it by the Anti-Discrimination Commission on the grounds that it is discriminatory.

(2) The anti-discrimination commissioner is a party to the proceedings.

PART 3—EXEMPTIONS132 Exemptions

(1) The commission may, of its own initiative or on application by an organisation or employer, by the order by which it makes an award, or by its later order, exempt from the application of the award—

- (a) an employer or class of employer, or employee or class of employee, in a locality or in the calling to which the award applies; and
- (b) a person who is engaged, whether as employer or employee, in the locality or calling, while the award remains in force.

(2) The commission may give the exemption only if satisfied the exemption—

- (a) is in the best interests of the employees and employers concerned; and
- (b) is not contrary to the public interest.

(3) While an exemption exists, the award does not bind the employer, employee, class, or person, according to the exemption.

PART 4—GENERAL

133 Enforceability of awards

Action can not be commenced to enforce an award until 21 days after the date it is published in the industrial gazette.

134 Effect of appeals on awards

The commission must immediately amend an award to give effect to—

- (a) a decision of the Court of Appeal, court or full bench affecting the award on appeal from a decision of the commission; or
- (b) a decision of the court affecting the award on a case stated by the commission.

135 Inconsistency between awards and contracts

(1) To the extent of any inconsistency, an award prevails over a contract of service that is—

- (a) in force when the award becomes enforceable; or
- (b) made while the award continues in force.

(2) The contract is to be interpreted, and takes effect, as if it were amended to the extent necessary to make the area of inconsistency conform to the award.

(3) However, no inconsistency arises only because the contract provides for employment conditions more favourable to the employee than the award.

PART 5—WAGES AND EMPLOYMENT CONDITIONS FOR APPRENTICES AND TRAINEES

136 Apprentice's and trainee's employment conditions

(1) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to the same employment conditions as those fixed by the industrial instrument applicable to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed.

(2) An apprentice or trainee is entitled to wages at—

- (a) if an industrial instrument applying to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed states a rate payable to apprentices or trainees—the rate stated in the instrument; or
- (b) otherwise—the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable for the relevant calling to employees in the workplace where the apprentice or trainee is employed or placed.

Examples—

1. An apprentice plumber is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a federal award applies. The apprentice is entitled to the rate of wages stated in the federal award rather than a State award.
2. An apprentice carpenter is placed by a group training organisation in the workplace of a host employer where a certified agreement applies. The certified agreement does not state the rate of wages payable to an apprentice. The apprentice is entitled to wages at the rate fixed by the commission, being a proportion of the wages payable to a qualified carpenter under the certified agreement.

(3) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance in addition to wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid—

- (a) if, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages; or
- (b) if, under the instrument, the allowance is not taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages—the full allowance.

(4) If an industrial instrument provides for a tradesperson in a calling to be paid an allowance that is assessed as a percentage of the tradesperson's wages, an apprentice in the calling is entitled to be paid the percentage of the allowance that the apprentice's wages bear to the tradesperson's wages.

(5) Subsection (4) applies whether or not, under the instrument, the allowance is taken to be part of the tradesperson's wages.

(6) In this section—

“industrial instrument” includes an award or agreement under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cwlth).

“workplace”, for an apprentice or trainee employed by a group training organisation, includes the workplace of the host employer with whom the apprentice or trainee is placed.

137 Order setting minimum wages and conditions

(1) The commission may make an order fixing minimum wages and employment conditions for the following employees, whether or not they are employed under an industrial instrument—

- (a) apprentices or trainees; or
- (b) different classes of apprentices or trainees.

(2) In making an order, the commission may consider any matter it considers relevant, including—

- (a) the age, competency, or method of progression through training of the apprentices or trainees; and
- (b) an industrial instrument.

(3) Despite section 136, if there is an inconsistency between an order and an industrial instrument (other than a certified agreement or QWA), the order prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.

(4) The commission may make an order—

- (a) of its own initiative; or
- (b) on application by—
 - (i) the Training Recognition Council; or
 - (ii) an organisation; or

(2) The order may state—

- (a) the particular tools to be provided and the circumstances in which they are to be provided; or
- (b) the circumstances in which a tool allowance must be provided.

(3) The commission may make an order—

- (a) of its own initiative; or
- (b) on application by—
 - (i) the Training Recognition Council; or
 - (ii) an organisation; or
 - (iii) a State peak council; or
 - (iv) the Minister; or
 - (v) another entity with an interest in apprentices.

(4) An employer must not contravene an order.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

(5) An offence against subsection (4) may consist of—

- (a) a single failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for a level of the apprenticeship; or
- (b) a failure to provide the apprentice with the relevant tools, or tool allowance, for the term of the apprenticeship.

(6) The offence starts on the day of the failure and continues until the apprentice has been provided with the relevant tools or tool allowance.

(7) A complaint, or a series of complaints, may be made for any period over which the offence continues.

(8) However, a complaint may only relate to offences started within 6 years before the complaint is made.

(9) If a magistrate finds an employer guilty of an offence against subsection (4), the magistrate must, in addition to a penalty the magistrate may impose, order the employer to—

- (a) provide the apprentice with the tools required to be provided under the commission's order; or
- (b) pay to the Magistrates Court the amount—
 - (i) stated in the commission's order; or
 - (ii) equivalent to the cost of the tools required to be provided under the commission's order.

(10) The magistrate may express the order in the alternative so the employer may decide how to comply with it.

(11) The court must pay an amount paid under subsection (9)(b) to the apprentice.

138A Termination of employment during probationary period

(1) The employment of an apprentice or trainee may be terminated during the probationary period by 1 week's notice given by—

- (a) the employer to the apprentice or trainee; or
- (b) the apprentice or trainee to the employer.

(2) An employer who terminates the employment without giving 1 week's notice must pay the apprentice or trainee an amount equal to 1 week's wages.

(3) An apprentice or trainee who terminates the employment without giving 1 week's notice loses an amount equal to 1 week's wages.

(4) However, subsection (1) does not apply if the person who was the apprentice or trainee is re-employed by the employer under the Training and Employment Act 2000, section 60.²⁹

(5) In this section—

“1 week's wages” means the amount that is at least equal to the total of the amounts the employer would have been liable to pay the apprentice or “probationary period” means the probationary period decided by the Training Recognition Council under the Training and Employment Act 2000.

138B Wages payable to former apprentices or trainees

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an employee was engaged as an apprentice or trainee; and

- (c) either—
 - (i) the employer dismisses the employee; or
 - (ii) the employer does not sign a training contract.

(2) The employee is entitled to the higher of the following for the period after the end of the probationary period—

- (a) the wages that would have been payable under the relevant industrial instrument had the employee continued to be employed as an apprentice or trainee;
- (b) the wages payable under the relevant industrial instrument applicable to the type of work the employee performed.

(3) This section does not apply to an employee if a training contract between the employee and employer has been sent to the Training Recognition Council for registration.

139 Termination of employment before apprenticeship or traineeship cancelled or completed

(1) This section applies despite any other provision of this Act if an employer is training—

- (a) an apprentice under an apprenticeship; or
- (b) a trainee under a traineeship.

(2) The apprentice's or trainee's employment with the employer can not be terminated unless the apprenticeship or traineeship is completed or is cancelled under the Training and Employment Act 2000.

Maximum penalty—40 penalty units.

PART 6—LABOUR MARKET PROGRAMS140 Orders for wages and employment conditions

(1) The commission may make an order fixing wages and employment conditions for employees who participate in a labour market program.

(2) In making an order, the commission may consider any matter it considers relevant, including—

- (a) the objectives of the program; and
- (b) any attribute of the participants that affects their ability to get employment, including, for example—
 - (i) the age and competency of the participants; and
 - (ii) any disability or incapacity of the participants; and

(5) In this section—

“vocational placement scheme” has the meaning given by the Training and Employment Act 2000.

CHAPTER 6—AGREEMENTS

PART 1—CERTIFIED AGREEMENTS

Division 1—Making agreements

141 Certified agreements

(1) A certified agreement may be made about the relationship between an employer and a group of employees (whether all employees, or a category of employees) of the employer.

(2) The certified agreement covers all employees in the group, even if they were employed after the agreement was made.

(3) In this section—

“group of employees” includes—

- (a) employees of a single employer; and
- (b) employees of a multi-employer; and
- (c) employees of an employer who are engaged in a project, including a proposed project; and
- (d) employees proposed to be employed in a new business by an employer, other than a multi-employer; and³⁰
- (e) employees of—
 - (i) the State; or

³⁰ See section 167 (Successor employers bound) for what happens on the transfer of a business to a new employer.

- (ii) an entity established for a public purpose under a law of the State or Commonwealth; or
- (iii) another entity in which the State has a controlling interest.

142 Who may make certified agreements

A certified agreement may be made between—

- (a) on the one hand, the employer; and
- (b) on the other hand—
 - (i) 1 or more employee organisations who represent, or are entitled to represent, any employees who are, or are eligible to be, members of the organisation; or
 - (ii) the employees at the time the agreement is made.

143 Proposed parties to be advised when agreement is proposed

(1) This section applies when a person (the “proposer”) proposes to make a certified agreement.

(2) The proposer must advise the following persons, in writing, of the proposer’s intention to begin negotiations for the agreement—

- (a) the other proposed parties to the agreement; and
- (b) for a project agreement—all relevant employee organisations and the commission.

(3) The proposer must advise the persons at least 14 days before the negotiations are proposed to begin.

(4) If the agreement proposed is a project agreement, an organisation that receives advice under subsection (2) and wants to be party to the agreement must give written notice of that fact to—

- (a) the proposer; and
- (b) the commission.

(5) If the agreement proposed is a multi-employer agreement, a person who receives advice under subsection (2) and wants to be party to the agreement must give written notice of that fact to the proposer.

(6) A notice under subsection (4) or (5) must be given within 21 days of the person receiving the advice.

(7) An agreement may only be made within that 21 days if the other proposed parties to the agreement, and all relevant employee organisations, have given a notice under subsection (4) or (5).

(8) In this section—

“multi-employer agreement” means an agreement made with a multi-employer.

“relevant employee organisation” means an employee organisation that—

- (a) is bound by an award or industrial agreement that binds the employer, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act; or
- (b) if there is no award or agreement that binds, or would bind, the employer—is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the relevant employees.

144 What is to be done when an agreement is proposed

(1) This section does not apply to—

- (a) a certified agreement to be made with an employee organisation for employees proposed to be employed in a new business; or
- (b) a project agreement if the agreement is to be made before the project commences.

(2) When a certified agreement is proposed to be made with an employee organisation or employees, the employer must take reasonable steps to ensure—

- (a) at least 14 days before the relevant employees are asked to approve the agreement, each relevant employee has, or has ready access to, the proposed written agreement; and
- (b) the terms of the agreement (including the procedures for preventing and settling disputes), and the effect of the terms, are explained to each relevant employee before approval is given; and
- (c) for an agreement with employees—each relevant employee is informed that he or she may ask a relevant employee organisation to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about the agreement.

(3) If a relevant employee does ask a relevant employee organisation to represent the employee, the employer must give the organisation a reasonable opportunity to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about the agreement before it is made.

(4) Subsection (3) stops applying if, after the request is made—

- (a) the relevant employee withdraws the request; or
- (b) the employee stops being a relevant employee.

(5) In this section—

“relevant employee organisation” means an employee organisation—

- (a) of which a relevant employee is a member; and
- (b) that—
 - (i) is bound by an award or industrial agreement that binds the employer, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act; or
 - (ii) if there is no award or agreement that binds, or would bind, the employer—is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the relevant employees.

145 Negotiations for project agreements

(1) This section applies if more than 1 employee organisation has given notice, under section 143(4), that it wants to be party to a proposed project agreement.

(2) The employer must negotiate with the single bargaining unit, through a person nominated by the single bargaining unit to represent it.

(3) An organisation may withdraw as a party to a proposed project agreement by written notice to—

- (a) the other organisations that comprise the single bargaining unit; and
- (b) the proposer; and
- (c) the commission.

(4) In this section—

“single bargaining unit” means all the employee organisations that have given notice, under section 143(4), that they want to be party to a proposed project agreement.

146 Negotiations must be in good faith

When negotiating the terms of a proposed agreement, the proposed parties to the agreement must negotiate in good faith.

Examples of good faith in negotiating—

- agreeing to meet at reasonable times proposed by another party
- attending meetings that the party had agreed to attend
- complying with negotiation procedures agreed to by the parties
- not capriciously adding or withdrawing items for negotiation
- disclosing relevant information as appropriate for the negotiations
- negotiating with all of the parties.

147 Peace obligation period to assist negotiations

(1) To enable the proposed parties to reach agreement about the terms of the proposed agreement, the proposed parties can not during the peace obligation period—

- (a) take industrial action for the purpose of—
 - (i) supporting or advancing claims made in relation to the proposed agreement; or
 - (ii) responding to industrial action by the employer or the relevant employees; or
- (b) ask the commission to help the parties to make the agreement under section 148.

(2) In this section—

“peace obligation period” means the period of 21 days after the giving of the advice mentioned in section 143(2), ending no earlier than 7 days after the nominal expiry date of any existing certified agreement.

148 Assistance in negotiating by conciliation

(1) This section applies if, after the peace obligation period has ended—

- (a) a party who has attempted to negotiate a certified agreement (a “negotiating party”), by a declaration of a breakdown in negotiations, has asked the commission to help the parties to make a certified agreement; or
- (b) the commission becomes aware that a negotiating party is engaging in industrial action that—
 - (i) is threatening, or has caused, significant damage to the economy, community or local community, or part of the economy; or
 - (ii) is threatening to endanger, or has endangered, the personal health, safety or welfare of the community or part of it.

(2) To help the parties to reach agreement, the commission has the conciliation powers it would have under section 230 if that section applied to certified agreement negotiations instead of to industrial disputes.

Example—

The commission might help the parties to—

- develop and consider options and processes
- negotiate in good faith.

(3) Also, the commission may make orders to—

- (a) promote the efficient conduct of negotiations; or
- (b) ensure the parties negotiate in good faith; or
- (c) otherwise help the parties to negotiate the agreement.

(4) In particular, the commission may order a party to take, or not to take, specified action.

(5) In deciding what orders to make, the commission must consider the conduct of each of the parties.

(6) If 2 or more employee organisations are involved in the negotiations or proposed negotiations, the commission may order that the organisations be represented, for conciliating the matter, by a single person or group of persons authorised by the organisations to represent them (whether generally or for the particular negotiations).

(7) Subsection (6) does not limit subsection (2).

149 Arbitration if conciliation unsuccessful

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the commission considers conciliation has not been successful because industrial action—
 - (i) has been protracted; or
 - (ii) is threatening, or has caused, significant damage to—
 - (A) the economy or local community, or part of the economy; or
 - (B) a single enterprise; or
 - (C) employees; or
 - (iii) is threatening to endanger, or has endangered, the personal health, safety or welfare of the community or part of it; or
- (b) the commission considers it is not likely that further conciliation will result in the matter being settled within a reasonable time, considering, among other things, the history of industrial relations in the enterprise or industry to which the proposed agreement is to relate; or
- (c) all the negotiating parties consider conciliation has been unsuccessful and ask the commission to determine the matter by arbitration.

(2) To determine the matter by arbitration—

- (a) the commission has the arbitration powers that it would have under section 230³¹ if that section applied to certified agreement negotiations instead of industrial disputes; and
- (b) the commission may give directions or make orders of an interlocutory nature.

(3) Industrial action organised, or engaged in, while the commission determines the matter by arbitration is not protected industrial action for section 174.

(4) In exercising the arbitration powers, the commission must limit its consideration to the matters at issue during negotiations for the proposed agreement.

31 Section 230 (Action on industrial dispute)

(5) In considering the matters at issue, the commission must consider at least the following—

- (a) the merits of the case;
- (b) the likely effects of the commission's proposed determination, and any matters agreed before arbitration, on employees and employers who will be bound by the proposed determination;
- (c) the public interest, and to that end the commission must consider—
 - (i) the objects of this Act; and
 - (ii) the likely effects of the commission's determination on the community, economy, industry generally and on the particular enterprise or industry concerned;
- (d) the extent to which the negotiating parties have negotiated in good faith.

(6) The commission must publish its reasons when determining a matter under this section.

(7) The reasons must address each of the things the commission considered under subsection (5).

(8) The full bench may establish principles about the arbitration of certified agreements.

(9) After the principles have been established, the commission must exercise its power to arbitrate in a way that is consistent with the principles.

(10) Unless all the negotiating parties agree, the commission as constituted for the conciliation can not exercise the arbitration powers mentioned in this section.

150 Determinations made under s 149

(1) A determination under section 149 must specify a date, of no later than 3 years after the date on which the determination is made, as its nominal expiry date.

(2) Subject to this section, the determination operates at all times after it commences and can not be amended.

(3) The determination has effect subject to any conditions specified in it.

(4) Before the determination's nominal expiry date has passed, the commission must not revoke the determination unless satisfied—

- (a) the employer and the 1 or more organisations, or a majority of the employees, who are bound by the determination have agreed to the revocation (for example, because they propose to make an agreement under division 1³²); and
- (b) the revocation would not be against the public interest.

(5) After the determination's nominal expiry date—

- (a) the employer, or an organisation, bound by the determination; or
- (b) a majority of the employees to whom the determination applies;

may give notice to all of the employees, or other employees, to whom the determination applies and persons, or other persons, who are bound by the determination and to the commission, stating that the determination is revoked with effect from a specified day.

(6) The specified day must be at least 28 days after—

- (a) the day on which the notice is given; or
- (b) if it is given to different persons on different days—the day on which it is last given.

151 Steps to be repeated if proposed agreement is amended

(1) If a proposed agreement is amended for any reason, the steps in section 144(2) and (3)³³ must be taken again for the agreement as amended.

(2) If the agreement is being amended only by adding an employer (a “new employer”) as a party to the agreement, the steps need only be taken in relation to the new employer's employees.

(3) However, the steps need not be taken if the commission is satisfied the proposed agreement was amended only—

- (a) for a formal or clerical reason; or
- (b) in another way that does not adversely affect a relevant employee's interests.

32 Division 1 (Making agreements)

33 Section 144 (What is to be done when an agreement proposed)

152 Certificate as to requested representation

(1) An employee organisation may apply to the registrar for a certificate stating that an employee has requested the organisation, under section 144, to represent the employee in negotiating with the employer about a proposed agreement.

(2) An employer may apply to the registrar for a certificate stating that the employer need not negotiate with an employee organisation about a proposed agreement because of a circumstance mentioned in section 144(4).

(3) A certificate must identify the organisation, the employer and the proposed agreement.

(4) A certificate must not identify any of the employees concerned.

(5) The certificate is, for all purposes of this Act, evidence of the matters stated in it.

Division 2—Certifying agreements153 Time for applying for certification

An application for the commission to certify an agreement must be made within 21 days after the day on which the agreement is signed by or for all the parties.

154 Notice of hearing

The registrar must, at least 7 days before an application for certification of an agreement is to be heard, place a notice in the registry detailing—

- (a) the names of the parties to the agreement; and
- (b) the relevant or designated award; and
- (c) the hearing date.

155 Right of employee organisation to be heard

(1) All relevant employee organisations are entitled to be heard on an application for the certification of an agreement.

(2) As soon as practicable after the application is made, the commission must notify all relevant employee organisations that—

- (a) the application has been made; and
- (b) the organisation is entitled to be heard on the application.

(3) This section does not affect another right of an employee organisation, or anyone else, to be heard on or intervene in an application.

(4) In this section—

“relevant employee organisation” means an employee organisation that—

- (a) is bound by an award or industrial agreement that binds the employer, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act; or
- (b) if there is no award or agreement that binds, or would bind, the employer—is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the relevant employees.

156 Certifying an agreement

(1) The commission must certify the agreement if, and must not certify the agreement unless, it is satisfied—

- (a) the things required by sections 143, 144 and 145³⁴ were done, and in particular, the terms of the agreement were explained in a way that was appropriate, having regard to the persons’ particular circumstances and needs; and

Examples of persons with particular circumstances and needs—

1. Women
 2. Persons from a non-English speaking background
 3. Young persons
 4. Persons with limited literacy or numeracy skills.
- (b) the employer did not coerce, or attempt to coerce, an employee—
 - (i) not to make a request mentioned in section 144(2)(c); or

34 Sections 143 (Proposed parties to be advised when agreement is proposed), 144 (What is to be done when an agreement is proposed) and 145 (Negotiations for project agreements)

- (ii) to withdraw the request; and
- (c) the agreement is in writing and signed by or for all the parties; and
- (d) the agreement includes procedures for preventing and settling disputes; and
- (e) the agreement specifies a nominal expiry date that is—
 - (i) for a project agreement—the date no later than the date on which the project ends; and
 - (ii) for another agreement—a date no later than 3 years after the date on which the agreement will come into operation; and
- (f) the agreement contains, or is accompanied by, information prescribed under a regulation; and
- (g) a valid majority of the relevant employees employed at the time approved the agreement; and
- (h) the agreement passes the no-disadvantage test; and
- (i) for a project agreement—each employee organisation that has given notice of wanting to be party to the agreement under section 143(4), and that has not withdrawn as a party under section 145(3), is a party to the agreement; and
- (j) for an agreement to be made with an employee organisation, other than an agreement for a new business—
 - (i) each employee organisation that is bound by the award or industrial agreement that binds the employer, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act, is a party to the agreement; or
 - (ii) if no award or industrial agreement binds, or would bind, the employer—each employee organisation that is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the relevant employees is a party to the agreement; and
- (k) for an agreement for a new business—
 - (i) the agreement was made before the employment of any of the persons in the new business at the new workplace whose employment will be subject to the agreement; and

- (ii) the agreement has been made with 1 or more employee organisations that are entitled to represent the industrial interests of the persons; and
 - (l) for an agreement other than a multi-employer agreement or project agreement, the employer—
 - (i) remunerates all men and women employees of the employer equally for work of equal or comparable value; or
 - (ii) will, because of the agreement if it is certified, remunerate all men and women employees of the employer equally for work of equal or comparable value; or
 - (iii) is implementing equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value for all men and women employees of the employer; and
 - (m) for a multi-employer agreement or project agreement—the agreement provides for equal remuneration for all men and women employees covered by the agreement for work of equal or comparable value.
- (2) Subsection (1)(j) does not apply if the commission is satisfied an employee organisation mentioned in subsection (1)(j)—
- (a) has been given the opportunity to be a party to the agreement, but does not want to be a party; or
 - (b) has no members who are to be bound by the agreement.
- (3) For subsection (1)(l), the commission may consider, but must not review, any relevant industrial instrument to decide whether the instrument provides for equal remuneration for all men and women employees covered by the instrument for work of equal or comparable value.

157 When commission to refuse to certify an agreement

- (1) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if it considers that a provision of the agreement is inconsistent with—
- (a) a provision of—
 - (i) chapter 2, part 5; or
 - (ii) chapter 3; or

- (iii) chapter 4;³⁵ or
 - (b) an order by the commission under any of those provisions; or
 - (c) an injunction granted by the commission under any of those provisions.
- (2) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if satisfied—
- (a) the employer has, in connection with negotiating the agreement, contravened—
 - (i) section 170; or
 - (ii) chapter 4;³⁶ or
 - (b) the employer has caused an entity to engage, in connection with negotiations for an agreement, in conduct that, had the employer engaged in the conduct, would be a contravention by the employer of—
 - (i) section 170; or
 - (ii) chapter 4; or
 - (c) an entity has, for the employer—
 - (i) engaged in conduct mentioned in paragraph (b); or
 - (ii) caused another entity to engage in the conduct.
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply if the commission is satisfied the contravention or conduct, and its effects, have been fully remedied.
- (4) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if it considers a provision of the agreement is a discriminatory provision.
- (5) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if a provision of the agreement seeks to prohibit or restrict an application being made under chapter 2, part 5.³⁷
- (6) The commission must refuse to certify an agreement if—

35 Chapter 2 (General employment conditions), part 5 (Equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value), chapter 3 (Dismissals) or 4 (Freedom of association)

36 Section 170 (Amendment if discrimination between unionists and non-unionists) or chapter 4 (Freedom of association)

37 Chapter 2 (General employment conditions), part 5 (Equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value)

- (a) the agreement applies only to a group or category of employees; and
- (b) the commission considers the agreement defines the group or category in a way that results in other employees not being subject to the agreement, if it would be reasonable for the other employees to be subject to the agreement, having regard to—
 - (i) the nature of the work performed by the other employees; and
 - (ii) the organisational and operational relationships between the group or category and the other employees; and
- (c) the commission considers it unfair that the other employees are not subject to the agreement.

158 Other options open to commission instead of refusing to certify agreement

(1) If, under section 156 or 157, the commission has grounds to refuse to certify an agreement—

- (a) the commission may accept an undertaking from 1 or more of the persons who made the agreement in relation to the operation of the agreement and, if satisfied the undertaking meets the commission's concerns, certify the agreement; and
- (b) before refusing to certify the agreement, the commission must give the persons who made the agreement an opportunity to take action that may be necessary to enable the commission to certify the agreement.

(2) If an undertaking is not complied with, the commission, after giving the persons who made the agreement an opportunity to be heard, may—

- (a) order the 1 or more persons who gave the undertaking to comply with it; or
- (b) terminate the agreement.

(3) If—

- (a) after doing the things required or allowed by subsection (1), the commission is still required to refuse to certify the agreement; and

- (b) it is so required only because of an inconsistency mentioned in section 157(1);

the commission may conciliate the industrial matter concerned with a view to helping the persons concerned to take the action necessary to enable the commission to certify the agreement.

159 Procedures for preventing and settling disputes

The procedures for preventing and settling disputes contained in a certified agreement may, with the commission's approval, authorise the commission to settle a dispute.³⁸

Division 3—No-disadvantage test

160 When an agreement passes the no-disadvantage test

(1) An agreement passes the no-disadvantage test if it does not disadvantage employees in relation to their employment conditions.

(2) An agreement disadvantages employees only if the commission considers it would result in a reduction in the employees' entitlements or protections.

(3) Subsection (2) applies subject to section 161 and 162.

(4) Subsection (2) does not apply if the commission considers that, in the context of the employment conditions considered as a whole, the reduction is not against the public interest.

Example of subsection (4)—

The making of the agreement is part of a reasonable strategy to deal with a short-term crisis in, and to help in the revival of, a business.

(5) If the president considers exceptional circumstances exist, the president may require the registrar to give the commission a report comparing the agreement with the employee's entitlements or protections.

(6) In this section—

“entitlements or protections” means the entitlements or protections under—

³⁸ See also section 230 (Action on industrial dispute) for commission's powers to prevent or settle industrial disputes.

- (a) a relevant award, designated award, industrial agreement or order under chapter 5, part 5; or
- (b) chapter 2, including as reviewed by a general ruling of the full bench.

161 Special case—employee eligible for supported wage system

(1) This section applies if a certified agreement provides for the payment of wages to an employee who is eligible for the supported wage system at a rate not less than the rate set in accordance with that system for the employee.

(2) The agreement does not disadvantage the employee in relation to the employee's employment conditions only because of the reduction of the employee's wages.

162 Special case—employee undertaking approved apprenticeship or traineeship

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a certified agreement provides for the payment of wages to an employee undertaking approved training (a “training employee”) in a particular trade, occupation or work, or a trade, occupation or work similar to the particular trade, occupation or work (the “work”); and
- (b) there is a relevant award, designated award or order providing for the payment of wages to employees undertaking benchmark training for the work.

(2) The agreement is taken to disadvantage the training employee in the employee's employment conditions if the agreement provides for the payment of wages to the employee at a rate less than the rate payable to an employee undertaking benchmark training (the “benchmark employee”) under the relevant award, designated award or order, as adjusted under subsection (3).

(3) For subsection (2), the rate payable to a benchmark employee is to be adjusted to take into account the proportionate difference, as decided by the approving authority, between the productive time of a training employee and the productive time of a benchmark employee.

(4) If the agreement adopts, as the qualification for a wage level, a criterion decided by the approving authority (the “decided criterion”) instead of a specified criterion applying under the relevant award, designated award or order (the “award criterion”), the award is taken, for this section, to have effect as if the decided criterion were substituted for the award criterion.

(5) This section does not apply to a trainee bound by—

- (a) the Training Wage Award—State;
- (b) the National Training Wage Award 1994.

(6) In this section—

“benchmark training” means training for an apprentice or trainee in a particular trade, occupation or work if the trade, occupation or work is recognised under an award or under an order made under section 137.³⁹

163 Deciding designated awards

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an employer or organisation of employees proposes to make a certified agreement; and
- (b) there is no relevant award for some or all of the persons to whom the agreement will apply.

(2) The employer or organisation must apply to the commission for a decision under subsection (3).

(3) On application, the commission must decide that an award (regulating employment conditions of employees engaged in a similar kind of work as the person under the proposed agreement) is appropriate for deciding whether the agreement passes the no-disadvantage test.

(4) The commission must inform the employer or organisation in writing of its decision.

³⁹ Section 137 (Order setting minimum wages and conditions)

Division 4—Effect of certified agreements164 When a certified agreement is in operation

- (1) A certified agreement starts operating when it is certified.
- (2) The agreement continues to operate until—
 - (a) after its nominal expiry date, it is replaced by another certified agreement; or
 - (b) it is terminated under section 158, 171, 172 or 173.⁴⁰

165 Certified agreement's effect on awards, agreements or orders

(1) While a certified agreement operates, it prevails, to the extent of any inconsistency, over an award or industrial agreement or an order made under section 137.

(2) While a project agreement operates, it operates to the exclusion of any other certified agreement or QWA.

166 Persons bound

- (1) A certified agreement binds—
 - (a) the employer—
 - (i) for an agreement made by an organisation of employers for a project—for whom the agreement was made; or
 - (ii) who made the agreement; and
 - (b) all persons who are, while the agreement operates, relevant employees; and
 - (c) if the agreement is made with 1 or more employee organisations—the 1 or more organisations.

⁴⁰ Section 158 (Other options open to commission instead of refusing to certify agreement), 171 (Other options open to commission instead of refusing to approve amendment of agreement), 172 (Terminating certified agreement on or before its nominal expiry date) or 173 (Terminating agreement after its nominal expiry date)

(2) For a certified agreement made between the employees and employer, the commission must decide that the agreement also binds an employee organisation if—

- (a) before the agreement is certified, the organisation gives the commission and employer notice that it wants to be bound by the agreement; and
- (b) the organisation satisfies the commission that—
 - (i) the organisation has at least 1 member—
 - (A) whose employment will be subject to the agreement; and
 - (B) who asked the organisation to give the notice; and
 - (ii) the organisation—
 - (A) is bound by an award or industrial agreement that binds the employer, or would bind the employer apart from an award under the Commonwealth Act; or
 - (B) if there is no award or agreement that binds, or would bind, the employer—is entitled to represent the industrial interests of the relevant employees.

167 Successor employers bound

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an employer is bound by a certified agreement; and
- (b) at a later time a new employer becomes the successor (whether or not immediate) of the whole or a part of the business of the employer bound by the agreement.

(2) From the later time—

- (a) the new employer is bound by the certified agreement, to the extent it relates to the whole or part of the business; and
- (b) the previous employer stops being bound by the certified agreement, to the extent it relates to the whole or part of the business; and
- (c) a reference in this part to the employer includes a reference to the new employer, and ceases to refer to the previous employer, to the extent the context relates to the whole or part of the business.

*Division 5—Extending, amending or terminating certified agreements168 Extending a certified agreement

(1) On or before the nominal expiry date of a certified agreement, the following persons may apply to the commission to extend a certified agreement's nominal expiry date—

- (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
- (b) otherwise—the employer.

(2) However, the nominal expiry date can not be extended beyond—

- (a) for a project agreement—the date on which the project ends; or
- (b) for another agreement—3 years after the date on which the agreement came into operation.

(3) The extension has no effect unless the commission approves it.

(4) The commission must approve the extension if, and must not approve the extension unless, satisfied a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time approved the extension.

(5) The extension takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.

(6) This section does not apply to—

- (a) an agreement made with an employee organisation for employees proposed to be employed in a new business; or
- (b) an agreement to which section 160(4)⁴¹ applies.

169 Amending a certified agreement

(1) This section does not apply to an amendment of the parties to the agreement, other than in a multi-employer agreement (a “multi-employer amendment”).

(2) The following persons may apply to the commission to amend a certified agreement—

41 Section 160 (When an agreement passes the no-disadvantage test)

Industrial Relations Act 1999

- (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
 - (b) for a multi-employer amendment—the person who wants to become a party to the agreement (the “new employer”);
 - (c) otherwise—the employer.
- (3) The commission must approve the amendment if, and only if, satisfied—
- (a) the amendment has been approved by—
 - (i) for a multi-employer amendment—
 - (A) a valid majority of the new employer’s employees whose employment will be subject to the amended agreement; and
 - (B) the other parties to the agreement, or their representative; or
 - (ii) for any other amendment—a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time; and
 - (b) the commission would be required to certify the agreement as amended if it were an agreement whose certification was applied for under this part.
- (4) In applying subsection (3)(b)—
- (a) a requirement about a majority of persons making or approving the agreement is taken to be satisfied; and
 - (b) section 158⁴² is to be disregarded.
- (5) The amendment takes effect when the commission’s approval takes effect.
- (6) The commission may, on application by a person bound by a certified agreement, amend a certified agreement—
- (a) to remove ambiguity; or
 - (b) to include, omit or amend a term, however specified, that allows an employer to stand-down an employee; or
 - (c) in another way, if—

42 Section 158 (Other options open to commission instead of refusing to certify agreement)

- (i) the following persons have agreed to the amendment—
 - (A) for an agreement between the employer and an employee organisation—the employer and organisation;
 - (B) for an agreement between the employer and employees—the employer and a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time; and
 - (ii) the commission is satisfied the amendment does not disadvantage the relevant employees; and
 - (iii) the commission is satisfied exceptional circumstances have arisen in the workplace that necessitate the amendment.
- (7) A certified agreement may be amended only under—
- (a) this section (including as it applies under section 170); or
 - (b) section 168; or
 - (c) section 171.

170 Amendment if discrimination between unionists and non-unionists

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) 1 or more employees whose employment is not subject to the agreement ask the employer to—
 - (i) amend the agreement so that their employment is subject to the agreement; and
 - (ii) seek the approval of the commission for the amendment under section 169; and
 - (b) their employment would be subject to the agreement if—
 - (i) they were members of an employee organisation or of a particular employee organisation; or
 - (ii) they were not members of an employee organisation or of a particular employee organisation.
- (2) The employer must seek the commission's approval to amend the agreement in accordance with the request.

(3) The commission must disregard section 169(3)(a) in deciding whether to approve the amendment.

171 Other options open to commission instead of refusing to approve amendment of agreement

(1) If, for section 170, the commission is not satisfied as required under section 169(3)—

- (a) before refusing to approve the amendment, it must give the persons who amended the agreement an opportunity to take action necessary to enable the commission to approve the amendment; or
- (b) it may accept an undertaking from 1 or more of the persons who amended the agreement in relation to the operation of the agreement as amended and, if satisfied the undertaking meets the commission's concerns, approve the amendment.

(2) If an undertaking is not complied with, the commission, after giving the persons who amended the agreement an opportunity to be heard, may—

- (a) order the 1 or more persons who gave the undertaking to comply with the undertaking; or
- (b) undo any effect of the amendment; or
- (c) terminate the amendment.

172 Terminating certified agreement on or before its nominal expiry date

(1) On or before a certified agreement's nominal expiry date, the following persons may terminate the agreement by notice—

- (a) if 1 or more organisations are bound by the agreement—the employer and the 1 or more organisations;
- (b) otherwise—the employer.

(2) The commission must approve the termination if, and only if, satisfied a valid majority of the relevant employees at the time approve its termination.

(3) The termination takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.

173 Terminating agreement after its nominal expiry date

(1) After a certified agreement's nominal expiry date, the following persons may apply to the commission to terminate a certified agreement—

- (a) the employer;
- (b) a valid majority of the relevant employees;
- (c) an employee organisation that is bound by the agreement and that has at least 1 member who is a relevant employee.

(2) If the agreement does not provide for the way it may be terminated after the agreement's nominal expiry date has passed, the person who intends to apply to terminate it must give all other persons bound by the agreement notice of the intention.

(3) The commission must approve the termination if, and only if, satisfied—

- (a) for an agreement that provides that it may be terminated if certain conditions are met—the conditions have been met; or
- (b) for an agreement that does not provide for the way it may be terminated—it is in the public interest to terminate the agreement.

(4) The termination takes effect when the commission's approval takes effect.

Division 6—Industrial action174 Protected industrial action

(1) This section applies to industrial action that is organised, or engaged in, by a protected person or the employer for the purpose of—

- (a) supporting or advancing claims made in relation to a proposed agreement; or
- (b) responding to industrial action by the employer or the relevant employees.

(2) An action for the industrial action taken after the peace obligation period does not lie under any law, unless the industrial action has involved or is likely to involve—

- (a) personal injury; or

- (b) wilful or reckless destruction of, or damage to, property; or
- (c) the unlawful taking, keeping or use of property.

(3) However, subsection (2) applies to—

- (a) a strike by a protected person, only if the protected person has genuinely tried to reach agreement before the strike starts; and
- (b) a lockout by an employer, only if the employer has genuinely tried to reach agreement before the lockout starts.

(4) Despite subsection (2), an action for defamation may be brought in relation to anything that happened during the industrial action.

(5) If the employer lawfully locks out an employee, the employer may refuse to pay the employee remuneration for the period of the lockout.

(6) The employer can not lock out an employee unless the continuity of the employee's employment, for the purposes prescribed under a regulation, is not affected by the lockout.

(7) In this section—

“protected person” means—

- (a) an employee organisation that is a negotiating party; or
- (b) an officer or employee of the employee organisation acting in that capacity; or
- (c) an employee who is a negotiating party or a member of the employee organisation.

- (a) if the action is in response to, and is taken after the start of, industrial action by another negotiating party in relation to a proposed agreement—written notice of the intended action; or
- (b) otherwise—at least 3 working days written notice of the intended action.

(2) However, an employer who is negotiating an agreement with employees may take other reasonable steps to notify the employees of the intended action, instead of giving a written notice.

(3) A notice must state the nature of the intended action and the day when it will begin.

(4) A notice may be given before the end of the peace obligation period if the intended action does not start before the end of the period.

(1) This section applies if the commission considers—

- (a) industrial action is being taken, or industrial action is threatened or probable, in relation to a proposed certified agreement; and
- (b) finding out the relevant employees' attitudes about the matters giving rise to the industrial action might help—
 - (i) to stop or prevent the industrial action; or
 - (ii) to settle the matters.

(2) The commission may order that a vote of employees be taken by secret ballot⁴³ (with or without a provision for absent voting), in accordance with the commission's directions, to find out their attitudes about the matters.

(3) After an order is made, the organising of, or engaging in, industrial action by the employee organisation or employees is not protected industrial action unless—

- (a) the ballot has been taken; and
- (b) the industrial action has been approved by a majority of the valid votes cast in the ballot.

(4) The commission must revoke the order if after an order is made, but before the vote is taken, the commission forms the view that the ballot should not proceed because it has satisfied itself that—

- (a) the matters have been, or are about to be, settled; or
- (b) the industrial action has stopped or been prevented, or is about to stop or be prevented.

(5) In subsection (3)—

“organisation” includes—

- (b) if the organisation's rules state the way industrial action is to be authorised—the industrial action is properly authorised under the rules; and
- (c) notice of the giving of the authorisation is given to the registrar.

(2) Industrial action is taken to be properly authorised under an employee organisation's rules even though a technical breach has happened in authorising the industrial action, if the person who committed the breach acted in good faith.

(3) Examples of a technical breach in authorising industrial action include—

- (a) a contravention of the organisation's rules; and
- (b) an error or omission in complying with this Act; and

- (a) the commission declares in proceedings that the industrial action was not properly authorised under the rules; and
- (b) the proceedings were brought in the commission within 6 months after the notice was given to the registrar under subsection (1)(c).

(5) So far as an employee organisation's rules specify the way in which industrial action under this division is to be authorised, the rules do not contravene section 435⁴⁴ unless the way specified contravenes that section.

178 No protection if certification application not timely

Industrial action is not protected by section 174 unless an application to the commission to certify an agreement is made within 21 days after the day when the agreement is signed by or for all the parties.

- (a) standing-down the employee;
- (b) refusing to pay the employee if, under common law, the employer is permitted to do so because the employee has not performed work as directed;
- (c) action of the employer that is itself protected industrial action.

(3) In proceedings under section 183⁴⁵ for an alleged contravention of subsection (1), it is to be presumed, unless the employer proves otherwise, that the alleged conduct of the employer was carried out wholly or partly because the employee was proposing to engage, was engaging, or had engaged, in protected industrial action.

(2) If the commission has concerns about whether the QWA, as amended, passes the no-disadvantage test, but the concerns are resolved by—

- (a) a written undertaking given by the employer and accepted by the commission; or
- (b) other action by the parties;

the QWA, as amended, is taken to pass the no-disadvantage test.

(3) If the commission—

- (a) is still not satisfied the QWA passes the no-disadvantage test; but
- (b) is satisfied that approving the QWA is not contrary to the public interest;

the QWA, as amended, is taken to pass the no-disadvantage test.

(4) If the commission is not satisfied the amendment agreement meets the additional approval requirements, the commission must refuse to approve the amendment agreement.

(5) In considering the public interest, the commission may consider—

- (a) the relative bargaining power of the parties; and
- (b) the particular circumstances and needs of low-paid employees and any likely changes in award wages during the period of the agreement; and ⁵⁵ For the requirement for a QWA to include provision for equal remuneration for work of equal or comparable value, see section 193 (Matters to be included in QWA).

- (c) the particular circumstances and needs of employees including women, persons from a non-English speaking background, young persons, apprentices, trainees and outworkers; and

(1) If the commission approves a QWA or ancillary document, the commission must issue an approval notice to the employer.

(2) If the commission refuses to approve a QWA or ancillary document, the commission must issue a refusal notice to the employer.

(3) If the commission is not satisfied the QWA passes or is taken to pass the no-disadvantage test, the commission must issue a notice to that effect to the employee.

(4) In each approval or refusal notice, the commission must identify the relevant or designated award that applies to the QWA.

207 Undertakings taken to be included in QWAs

An undertaking accepted by the commission under this division is taken to be included in the QWA.

208 Commission to issue copies of approved QWAs and ancillary documents

After a QWA or ancillary document is approved, the commission must issue to the employer a copy of the QWA or ancillary document, as approved.

*Division 6—No-disadvantage test209 When does a QWA pass the no-disadvantage test

(1) A QWA passes the no-disadvantage test if it does not disadvantage the employee in relation to his or her employment conditions.

(2) A QWA disadvantages the employee in relation to his or her employment conditions only if the commission considers its approval would result in a reduction in the employee's entitlements or protections.

(3) Subsection (2) applies subject to sections 210 and 211.

(4) If the president considers exceptional circumstances exist, the president may require the registrar to give the commission a report comparing the QWA with the employee's entitlements or protections.

(5) In this section—

“certified agreement” means a certified agreement that, immediately before the initial day of the QWA, binds the employer.

“entitlements or protections” means the entitlements or protections under—

- (a) if there is a certified agreement—the certified agreement; or
- (b) if there is no certified agreement—a relevant award, a designated award, industrial agreement or an order under chapter 5, part 5;⁵⁶ or
- (c) chapter 2,⁵⁷ including as reviewed by a general ruling of the full bench.

56 Chapter 5 (Awards), part 5 (Wages and employment conditions for apprentices and trainees)

57 Chapter 2 (General employment conditions)

210 Special case—employee eligible for supported wage system

(1) This section applies if a QWA provides for the payment of wages to an employee who is eligible for the supported wage system at a rate not less than the rate set in accordance with that system for the employee.

(2) The agreement does not disadvantage the employee in relation to the employee's employment conditions only because of the reduction of the employee's wages.

211 Special case—employee undertaking approved apprenticeship or traineeship

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) a QWA provides for the payment of wages to an employee undertaking approved training (a “training employee”) in a particular trade, occupation or work, or a trade, occupation or work similar to the particular trade, occupation or work (the “work”); and
- (b) there is a relevant award, designated award or order providing for the payment of wages to employees undertaking benchmark training for the work.

(2) The agreement is taken to disadvantage the training employee in the employee's employment conditions if the QWA provides for the payment of wages to the employee at a rate less than the rate payable to an employee undertaking the benchmark training (the “benchmark employee”) under the relevant award, designated award or order, as adjusted under subsection (3).

(3) For subsection (2), the rate payable to a benchmark employee is to be adjusted to take into account the proportionate difference, as decided by the approving authority, between the productive time of a training employee and the productive time of a benchmark employee.

(4) If the QWA adopts, as the qualification for a wage level, a criterion decided by the approving authority (the “decided criterion”) instead of a specified criterion applying under the relevant award, designated award or order (the “award criterion”), the award is taken, for this section, to have effect as if the decided criterion were substituted for the award criterion.

(5) This section does not apply to a trainee bound by—

- (a) the Training Wage Award—State;

(b) the National Training Wage Award 1994.

(6) In this section—

“benchmark training” means training for an apprentice or trainee in a particular trade, occupation or work if the trade, occupation or work is recognised under an award or under an order made under chapter 5, part 5.⁵⁸

212 Deciding designated awards

(1) This section applies if—

- (a) an employer proposes to make a QWA with a person; and
- (b) there is no relevant award for the person.

(2) The employer must apply to the commission for a decision under subsection (3).

(3) On application, the commission must decide that an award (regulating employment conditions of employees engaged in a similar kind of work as the person under the QWA) is appropriate for deciding whether the QWA passes the no-disadvantage test.

(4) The commission must inform the employer in writing of the commission’s decision.

Division 7—Effect of QWAs

213 QWA’s effect on awards, certified agreements or orders

(1) A QWA, during its period of operation, operates to the exclusion of an award, or an order made under chapter 5, part 5, that would otherwise apply to the employee’s employment.

(2) A certified agreement or a determination under section 149,⁵⁹ during its period of operation, prevails over a QWA to the extent of any inconsistency.

58 Chapter 5 (Awards), part 5 (Wages and employment conditions for apprentices and trainees)

59 Section 149 (Arbitration if conciliation unsuccessful)

(3) However, subsection (2) does not apply to a certified agreement if the agreement contains a QWA provision.

- (a) the new employer replaces the employer as a party to the QWA; and
- (b) the previous employer stops being a party to the QWA, to the extent it relates to the whole or part of the business; and

A party to a QWA must not contravene the QWA.

216 Conciliation for agreements

The commission has the conciliation powers for a matter arising under this part that it would have under section 230⁶⁰ if that section applied to the matter instead of to industrial disputes.

60 Section 230 (Action on industrial dispute)

217 Industrial action by party to QWA

During the period of operation of a QWA before its nominal expiry date, a party to the QWA must not engage in industrial action in relation to the employment to which the QWA relates.

220 Compensation to new employee for shortfall in entitlements

(1) Subsection (3) applies if a QWA for a new employee stops operating because a refusal notice was issued and the amount worked out under paragraph (a) is less than the amount worked out under paragraph (b)—

- (a) the total value of the entitlements to which the employee became entitled under the QWA for the period while it was in operation;
- (b) the total value of the entitlements to which the employee would have been entitled for that period under an award or agreement, if the QWA had not been made, in relation to the employment to which the QWA relates.

- (b) because the organisation has failed to comply with a demarcation dispute undertaking and amendment of its eligibility rules is inappropriate.

(4) The registrar may also apply for a deregistration order on the ground that the organisation is defunct.

Subdivision 2—Deciding deregistration proceedings

640 Hearing on ground other than industrial conduct

If a ground on which the proceedings are based includes a ground other than an industrial conduct ground, the full bench may make a deregistration order if satisfied the ground has been made out.

641 Hearing on industrial conduct ground

(1) This section applies if at the hearing of the application a ground on which the proceedings are based is an industrial conduct ground.

(2) The full bench must make a deregistration order if it—

- (a) finds the ground has been made out; and
- (b) does not consider the deregistration unjust, after considering—
 - (i) the significance of the circumstances forming the ground; and
 - (ii) the action taken by or against the organisation about the ground.

(3) However, if the full bench finds the industrial conduct ground is made out wholly or mainly because of conduct by a section or class of the organisation's membership, it may instead of making a deregistration order—

- (a) order amendments the organisation's eligibility rules to exclude persons from the section or class from membership eligibility; or
- (b) exclude a stated person from the organisation's membership.

(4) A deregistration order may also prohibit the deregistered organisation from applying for registration before a stated day.

642 Deferral of deregistration for industrial conduct

(1) This section applies if the full bench may make a deregistration order under section 641.

(2) The full bench may defer its decision on making the deregistration order and make an order (a “deferral order”)—

- (a) suspending to a stated extent, the rights, privileges or capacities of the organisation or all or any of its members as members, under—
 - (i) this Act; or

- (b) directing how a suspended right, privilege or capacity may be exercised; or
- (c) restricting the organisation or its branches in using their funds or property and controlling the funds or property to enforce the restriction.

(3) If a deferral order is made, the full bench must defer its decision on making the deregistration order until—

- (a) if a party to the proceedings applies—the court considers it is just to make the decision considering—
 - (i) evidence given about compliance with the order; and
 - (ii) other relevant circumstances; or
- (b) the order ends.

(4) A deferral order has effect despite the rules of the organisation or its branches.

643 When deferral order ends

(1) A deferral order ends—

- (a) 6 months after it takes effect, if the full bench has not extended the order before that time; or
- (b) if the full bench has extended the order—at the end of the extension; or
- (c) if it is discharged by the full bench.

(2) The full bench may discharge or extend a deferral order only on the application of a party to the deregistration proceedings.

- (b) an order under section 652(2),¹⁷⁴ whether or not anyone has applied for the order.

Division 3—Small organisations

645 Commission may review

The commission may review an organisation to inquire whether the organisation is or may be a small organisation.

646 Deregistration proceedings by commission

(2) However, the commission must not bring proceedings under this division more than once a year against the same organisation.

647 Deciding proceedings

(1) The commission must make a deregistration order if satisfied the organisation is a small organisation.

(2) However, the commission may decide not to make the order if satisfied there are special circumstances and the organisation's continued registration is in the public interest.

Example of 'special circumstances'—

The organisation is an employee organisation and the commission is satisfied the organisation will in the near future, if its registration is continued, have more than 20 members who are employees.

(3) In this section—

“rules” of the deregistered organisation means its rules in force immediately before its deregistration.

653 Effect on certain instruments

(1) If an award, EFA, commission order, certified agreement or industrial agreement (the “instrument”) bound the deregistered organisation and its members before the deregistration—

- (a) from the deregistration, the deregistered organisation and its members do not have the right to a benefit under the instrument; and
- (b) the instrument ceases to have any effect for the deregistered organisation 21 days after the deregistration.
