- (3) The appointment of a magistrate must state and has effect to decide—
 - (a) the place where the magistrate is first to constitute a Magistrates Court appointed under the Justices Act 1886, section 22B(1)(c) and the period, not longer than 1 year, the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place; and

- (5) Despite subsection (3) and before a period mentioned in the subsection ends, the Chief Magistrate may, for good reason directly related to the magistrate, decide that the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place other than a place mentioned in the magistrate's appointment.

Examples of good reasons—

- the magistrate's incompatibility with the local community
 - the magistrate's incompatibility with another magistrate at the place is detrimental to the efficient functioning of the court.

 - (i) a vacancy in the office; or
 - (ii) any period when the Chief Magistrate is absent from duty or from the State or is, for any other reason, unable to perform the duties of the office.

Part 5 Court governance advisory committee

15 Establishment of court governance advisory committee

A court governance advisory committee (advisory committee) is established.

16 Functions of advisory committee

The advisory committee has the following functions—

- (a) to make, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, a transfer policy for magistrates;

- (b) to make transfer recommendations on matters referred to it by the Chief Magistrate under section 23⁴ having regard to the transfer policy;
- (c) to consider and make recommendations about other matters affecting Magistrates Courts referred to it by the Chief Magistrate.

17 Composition of advisory committee

- (1) The advisory committee has 2 permanent members and 3 temporary members.
- (2) The permanent members are—
 - (a) the Deputy Chief Magistrate, who is the chairperson of the advisory committee; and
 - (b) the State Coroner.
- (3) The temporary members are magistrates selected by the Chief Magistrate in consultation with the permanent members.
- (4) However, at least 1 of the temporary members must constitute a Magistrates Court at a place outside the south east Queensland Magistrates Courts districts.
- (5) Temporary members of the advisory committee hold appointment for 2 years.
- (6) A magistrate who was a temporary member of the advisory committee may not be reappointed as a temporary member for at least 4 years after the magistrate's last appointment as a temporary member ended.
- (7) A temporary member of the advisory committee may resign by signed notice given to the Chief Magistrate.
- (8) In this section—

south east Queensland Magistrates Courts districts means the Beenleigh, Brisbane, Caboolture, Cleveland, Dalby, Gold Coast, Gympie, Ipswich, Kingaroy, Maroochydore, Redcliffe, Toowoomba and Warwick Magistrates Courts districts.

19 Presiding at meetings

- (1) The Deputy Chief Magistrate presides at all meetings of the advisory committee at which the deputy is present.
- (2) If the Deputy Chief Magistrate is absent, the member chosen by the members present is to preside.

20 Conduct of meetings

- (1) A question at an advisory committee meeting is to be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
- (2) Each member present at the meeting has a vote on each question to be decided and, if the votes are equal, the presiding member has a casting vote.
- (3) If a member becomes aware that the member has a conflict of interest in relation to a matter before the advisory committee, the member must—
 - (a) disclose the issue giving rise to the conflict to the advisory committee; and
 - (b) take no further part in the consideration of the matter.
- (4) However, a failure to disclose a conflict of interest does not, of itself, affect the advisory committee's consideration of the matter or any transfer recommendation made in relation to the matter.
- (5) Subject to this part, the advisory committee may conduct its meetings in any way it considers appropriate, including, for example, by permitting its members to take part in its meetings by using any technology that reasonably allows members to hear and take part in discussions as they happen.

Example of use of technology—

Teleconferencing.

21 Transfer policy

- (1) The advisory committee, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, must make a policy (transfer policy) to guide decisions about which magistrates are to constitute Magistrates Courts at particular places.
- (2) The advisory committee, in conjunction with the Chief Magistrate, may amend the transfer policy to ensure its continuing effectiveness.
- (3) The transfer policy must set out the procedures to be used and the matters to be considered for the purposes of transfer recommendations and transfer decisions.
- (4) The transfer policy may include other matters relevant to transfer recommendations or transfer decisions that the advisory committee considers appropriate but the policy must reflect the following principles—
 - (a) magistrates are expected to serve in regional areas;
 - (b) generally, a magistrate, under a transfer recommendation or transfer decision, is to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place for a period of between 2 and 5 years;
 - (c) generally, before making a decision about which magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a particular place, expressions of interest are to be called for from magistrates willing to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place;
 - (d) subject to subsection (5), if no expressions of interest are received, magistrates without prescribed regional experience are to be considered for constituting a Magistrates Court at a place in regional Queensland before magistrates with prescribed regional experience;
 - (e) a magistrate is to be consulted before a decision is made about where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court;
 - (f) a magistrate's personal circumstances are to be taken into account before a decision is made about where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court.

(5) The transfer policy must also provide that regard is to be had to a magistrate's transfer history.

(6) In this section—

magistrate's transfer history means the number of places at which a magistrate has constituted a Magistrates Court, and the number of times a magistrate has been required to change residence in order to constitute Magistrates Courts at places, since the magistrate's appointment as a magistrate.

magistrates without prescribed regional experience means magistrates who have not constituted a Magistrates Court at a place or places in regional Queensland at all or for at least 2 years within the last 10 years.

magistrates with prescribed regional experience means magistrates who have constituted a Magistrates Court at a place or places in regional Queensland for at least 2 years within the last 10 years.

regional Queensland means that part of Queensland outside the Beenleigh, Brisbane, Caboolture, Cleveland, Gold Coast, Gympie, Ipswich, Maroochydore, Redcliffe and Toowoomba Magistrates Courts districts.

22 Magistrates may express interest in where they are willing to constitute Magistrates Courts

- (1) A magistrate may, at any time, advise the Chief Magistrate of a place or places where the magistrate is willing to constitute a Magistrates Court.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate must advise the advisory committee of the magistrate's willingness to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place or places and the advisory committee may take that into account when considering making transfer recommendations.

Part 6 Transfer recommendations and transfer decisions

Division 1 Referral

23 Decisions about constituting Magistrates Courts

- (1) The Chief Magistrate must refer the following matters to the advisory committee for consideration and a transfer recommendation—
 - (a) for the purposes of section 5(5), whether a magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place other than a place mentioned in the magistrate's appointment under section 5(3);
 - (b) for the purposes of section 12(2)(a), whether a magistrate is to continue to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place where the magistrate currently constitutes a Magistrates Court and, if not, where a magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate is not required to act under subsection (1)(b) only because of the ending of the period for which a magistrate is required to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place if the magistrate does not ask for a transfer decision.
- (3) When the period to which subsection (2) applies ends, the magistrate is to continue to constitute the court at the place until a transfer decision is made requiring the magistrate to constitute a Magistrates Court at another place.
- (4) Subsection (1) applies whether the matter is initiated by the Chief Magistrate or a particular magistrate.
- (5) The Chief Magistrate may refer to the advisory committee, for consideration and a transfer recommendation, the question of which magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place where the person who was the magistrate has ceased to be a magistrate under section 42.⁵

⁵ Section 42 (Tenure of office)

Division 2 Role of advisory committee

24 Magistrate's right to be heard

- (1) If the advisory committee is proposing to make a transfer recommendation, the advisory committee must—
 - (a) give the magistrate who is the subject of the proposed transfer recommendation written notice—
 - (i) that the advisory committee proposes to make the transfer recommendation; and
 - (ii) of what the proposed transfer recommendation is; and
 - (b) allow the magistrate at least 14 days after receiving the notice to make representations to the advisory committee about the proposed transfer recommendation.
- (2) The magistrate may make representations to the advisory committee within the time allowed by written submission or verbally.
- (3) If the magistrate wishes to make representations verbally, allowing the magistrate to make the representations to the advisory committee using teleconferencing technology is enough to satisfy the magistrate's right to be heard.
- (4) In this section—

teleconferencing technology means teleconferencing or other technology that reasonably allows the members and the magistrate to hear, and take part in discussions about, the representations while the representations are being made.

25 Advisory committee to consider representations

The advisory committee must consider any representations made by the magistrate having regard to the transfer policy.

26 Advisory committee to make transfer recommendation

When making a transfer recommendation, the advisory committee must have regard to the transfer policy and give concise reasons for the transfer recommendation to the Chief Magistrate.

Division 3 Role of Chief Magistrate

27 Chief Magistrate to consider transfer recommendation

The Chief Magistrate must consider the advisory committee's transfer recommendation and the transfer policy when making a transfer decision.

28 Chief Magistrate not bound by transfer recommendation

- (1) The Chief Magistrate is not bound by the advisory committee's transfer recommendation.
- (2) If, having considered the advisory committee's transfer recommendation, the Chief Magistrate proposes to make a transfer decision that differs from the transfer recommendation, the Chief Magistrate must—
 - (a) give the magistrate who is the subject of the proposed transfer decision written notice—
 - (i) that the Chief Magistrate proposes to make the transfer decision; and
 - (ii) of what the proposed transfer decision is; and
 - (b) allow the magistrate at least 14 days after receiving the notice to make representations to the Chief Magistrate about the proposed transfer decision.
- (3) The magistrate may make representations to the Chief Magistrate within the time allowed by written submission or verbally.
- (4) If the magistrate wishes to make representations verbally, allowing the magistrate to make the representations to the Chief Magistrate using teleconferencing technology is enough to satisfy the magistrate's right to be heard.
- (5) If the Chief Magistrate makes a transfer decision that does not differ from the transfer recommendation, it is not necessary that the Chief Magistrate allow the magistrate who is the subject of the transfer decision an opportunity to make further representations about the transfer decision to satisfy procedural fairness requirements.

(6) In this section—

teleconferencing technology means teleconferencing or other technology that reasonably allows the Chief Magistrate and the magistrate to hear, and take part in discussions about, the representations while the representations are being made.

29 Chief Magistrate to advise magistrate of transfer decision

- (1) The Chief Magistrate must give the magistrate who is the subject of a transfer decision and the advisory committee written notice of the Chief Magistrate's transfer decision stating—
 - (a) the place where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court; and
 - (b) the period the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place; and
 - (c) whether or not the transfer decision differs from the advisory committee's transfer recommendation.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate must also give the magistrate and the advisory committee concise reasons for the transfer decision.
- (3) The requirement to give reasons does not require the Chief Magistrate to give reasons why the magistrate who is the subject of the transfer decision was chosen instead of another magistrate.

Division 4 Temporary transfer decisions

30 Temporary transfer decisions about constituting Magistrates Courts

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the Chief Magistrate makes a transfer decision under section 12(2)(a); and

- (b) under the decision, the magistrate who is the subject of the decision is to constitute a Magistrates Court at a place for a period less than 3 months.
- (2) The Chief Magistrate is not required to have regard to the transfer policy when making the decision and sections 23, 29 and 33⁶ do not apply to the decision.
- (3) The Chief Magistrate must give the magistrate written notice of the Chief Magistrate's decision stating—
 - (a) the place where the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court; and
 - (b) the period, less than 3 months, the magistrate is to constitute a Magistrates Court at the place.

Part 7 Review of transfer decisions

The Supreme Court judge may hear and decide the application for review at a directions hearing if the parties agree.

40 Power of Supreme Court judge on review

- (1) A Supreme Court judge may, by order, affirm the transfer decision or declare the transfer decision to be of no effect.
- (2) The judge may declare the transfer decision to be of no effect only if the judge is satisfied—
 - (a) the transfer decision was so unreasonable that no person having the functions of the Chief Magistrate could properly consider the transfer decision to be a reasonable exercise of the Chief Magistrate's discretion; or

- (b) the applicant was not afforded procedural fairness by the Chief Magistrate.
- (3) Each party to the review must bear the party's own costs.
- (4) However, the judge may award costs to the applicant if, in exceptional circumstances, the judge considers that an award of costs is appropriate.
- (5) A declaration that the transfer decision is of no effect is not, of itself, exceptional circumstances for subsection (4).
- (6) No appeal lies from the judge's decision on the transfer decision and costs.

 - (b) the Governor in Council approves that the magistrate hold the office or perform the duties.
- (4) A magistrate appointed on a part-time basis may hold another office, perform other duties or engage in other employment if—

- (a) the holding of the other office, the performance of the other duties or the engagement in the other employment is compatible with the office of magistrate; and

- (3) A copy of an application under subsection (2) must be given to the magistrate at least 14 days before the application is heard.

Magistrates Act 1991

- (a) is incompetent or guilty of serious neglect of the duties of office; or
 - (b) is mentally or physically incapable of carrying out satisfactorily the duties of office; or
 - (c) is guilty of proved misbehaviour, misconduct or conduct unbecoming a magistrate; or
 - (d) fails, without reasonable excuse, to constitute a Magistrates Court at a particular place in accordance with a transfer decision as required by the Chief Magistrate.
- (5) A suspension under subsection (1) lapses if any of the following happens—
- (a) the Supreme Court decides under section 46 that there is no proper cause to remove the magistrate;
 - (b) the Governor in Council lifts the suspension.
- (6) The Minister must give the following notices to the magistrate and publish them in the gazette—
- (a) if the magistrate is suspended under subsection (1)—notice of the suspension;
 - (b) if the magistrate's suspension lapses under subsection (5)—notice of the lapsing of the suspension.
- (7) However, a failure to comply with subsection (6)(a) does not affect the suspension or the removal of the magistrate following suspension.
- (8) A magistrate who is suspended from office under subsection (1) may appeal to the Supreme Court against the suspension.
- (9) The appeal may be heard with any application made under section 46.
- (10) In this section—
- duties*, of office, includes administrative duties of office.

⁷ For removal of a magistrate from office, see section 46.

- (d) the magistrate is committed for trial or sentence by a court on a charge of an indictable offence;
 - (e) an indictment is presented to a court by a person authorised to present the indictment by the State, another State or the Commonwealth charging the magistrate with an indictable offence.

- (3) A suspension under subsection (1) lapses if the Governor in Council lifts the suspension or either of the following happens in proceedings arising from the charging of the offence—
- (a) the magistrate is not convicted of any indictable offence;
 - (b) no charge of an indictable offence is proceeded with.
- (4) A suspension under subsection (2) lapses if the Governor in Council lifts the suspension or either of the following happens in proceedings arising from the order for a new trial—

Magistrates Act 1991

- (a) the magistrate is not convicted of any indictable offence;
 - (b) no charge of an indictable offence is proceeded with.
- (5) A suspension also lapses if the Supreme Court decides under section 46 that there is no proper cause to remove the magistrate.
- (6) The Minister must give the following notices to the magistrate and publish them in the gazette—
- (a) if the magistrate is suspended under subsection (1)—notice of the suspension;
 - (b) if the magistrate's suspension lapses under subsection (3), (4) or (5)—notice of the lapsing of the suspension.
- (7) However, a failure to comply with subsection (6)(a) does not affect the suspension or the removal of the magistrate following suspension.
- (8) For this section, proceedings arise from the charging of an indictable offence or from an order for a new trial if the proceedings relate to the same, or the same set of, circumstances as those giving rise to the charging of the indictable offence.

is the same as, or substantially the same as, an indictment under a law of the State.⁸

45 Remuneration during suspension and after conviction

- (1) A magistrate is entitled to remuneration during a period of suspension under section 43(1) or section 44(1) or (2).
- (2) However, but subject to subsection (3), if a magistrate is convicted of an indictable offence, the magistrate is not entitled to remuneration on and from the day of the conviction.
- (3) A magistrate who is convicted of an indictable offence is entitled to remuneration during the period the magistrate is subject to the conviction if—
 - (a) the magistrate's conviction is quashed on appeal and proceedings for the offence are at an end; or
 - (b) the magistrate's conviction is quashed on appeal but a new trial is ordered; or
 - (c) the Supreme Court decides under section 46 that there is no proper cause to remove the magistrate.
- (4) Subsection (2) has effect despite section 47 and the Judges (Salaries and Allowances) Act 1967.

46 Removal of magistrate from office

- (1) A magistrate must not be removed from office unless the Supreme Court decides that proper cause exists to remove the magistrate—
 - (a) on an application under subsection (2) or (3); or
 - (b) under subsection (5).
- (2) If a magistrate is suspended from office under section 43(1), the Attorney-General must, as soon as practicable, apply to the Supreme Court for a decision whether proper cause exists to remove the magistrate.

⁸ For indictments under a law of the State, see the Criminal Code, section 1 and the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36.

Magistrates Act 1991

- (3) If—
- (a) a magistrate is suspended from office under section 44(1) or (2); and
 - (b) all proceedings arising from the charging of, or the conviction of, the indictable offence, including proceedings arising from an order for a new trial mentioned in section 44(2), have ended without the suspension having lapsed;

the Attorney-General must, as soon as practicable after proceedings have ended, apply to the Supreme Court to decide whether proper cause exists to remove the magistrate.

Examples of proceedings ending—

- 1 The appeal period has ended and an appeal has not started.
 - 2 If an appeal has started, the appeal has been finally decided or the appeal has been abandoned.
- (4) For subsection (3), proper cause to remove the magistrate may include the conviction of the magistrate of an indictable offence.
- (5) On appeal by a magistrate under section 43(8), the Supreme Court must decide whether proper cause exists to remove the magistrate whether or not the Attorney-General has made an application under subsection (2) or (3).
- (6) If a magistrate is removed from office, the Minister must publish notice of the magistrate's removal in the gazette and give a copy of the notice to the magistrate.
- (7) For this section, proceedings arise from the charging of an indictable offence or from an order for a new trial if the proceedings relate to the same, or the same set of, circumstances as those giving rise to the charging of the indictable offence.

Part 9 General

47 Terms and conditions of employment

- (1) A Magistrate is to be paid—
 - (a) salary determined under the Judges (Salaries and Allowances) Act 1967; and
 - (b) such allowances as are determined by the Governor in Council.
- (2) However, if the magistrate is appointed on a part-time basis—
 - (a) the magistrate's salary is the appropriate proportion of the salary determined under subsection (1)(a); and

- (3) A Magistrate may be promoted only in accordance with a decision of the Governor in Council.
- (4) A Magistrate holds office on such terms and conditions not provided for by this Act as are decided by the Governor in Council.
- (5) Employment as a Magistrate is not subject to any industrial award or industrial agreement or any decision or rule of an industrial tribunal.

48 Preservation of rights

- (1) This section applies if an officer of the public service is appointed as a Magistrate.
- (2) The person retains all rights that have accrued to the person because of employment as such an officer, or that would accrue in the future to the person because of that employment, as if service as a Magistrate were a continuation of service as an officer of the public service.
- (3) If the person ceases to be a Magistrate on being appointed to an office of the public service, the person's service as Magistrate is to be regarded as service of a like nature in the public service for the purpose of deciding the person's rights as an officer of the public service.

49 Continuation of jurisdiction on retirement

A person who ceases to be a Magistrate for any reason (other than death or removal from office) is taken to continue to be a Magistrate so far as it is necessary to give a decision in a matter that is partly heard or standing for the decision of the Magistrate.

50 Judicial notice of office

All courts and persons acting judicially must take judicial notice of the signature in relation to a magisterial act of a person followed by—

- (a) Chief Magistrate; or
- (b) Deputy Chief Magistrate; or
- (c) Magistrate; or
- (d) Acting Magistrate;

and that the person held the relevant office.

51 Protection for administrative acts

52 Regulations

The Governor in Council may make regulations for the purposes of this Act.

- (2) The salary of a person referred to in subsection (1) immediately before the commencement of this section continues to be the salary of the person under this Act until the salary is determined under the Judges (Salaries and Allowances) Act 1967.

55 References to stipendiary magistrate

- (c) a reference a Stipendiary Magistrate is taken to be a reference to a magistrate.

56 Change of name of office not to affect office holders

To remove any doubt, it is declared that the change in the name of the office of Chief Stipendiary Magistrate, Senior Stipendiary Magistrate or Stipendiary Magistrate to Chief Magistrate, Deputy Chief Magistrate or magistrate does not affect the appointment to, or the continuation in, the office of a person holding the office immediately before the commencement of this section.

57 Existing appointments

A person who, immediately before the commencement of this section, holds an appointment as a magistrate under section 5, including a stipendiary magistrate mentioned in section 54, is taken from the commencement to be appointed as a magistrate under section 5.

 - (b) the person's appointment was not for a specified period or for a specified matter.
- (2) It is declared that—
 - (a) the appointment has, and has always had, effect according to its terms; and
 - (b) section 6(3) applies, and has always applied, to the person.

Division 4 Transitional provisions for Magistrates Amendment Act 2003

59 Application of Act to Chief Magistrate

On the commencement of this section—

- (a) the person holding office as Chief Magistrate at the commencement continues to hold office as Chief Magistrate in accordance with this Act after the commencement; and
- (b) section 11 applies to the person.

60 Existing exemptions continue

- (1) This section applies to a magistrate appointed before the commencement of this section whose appointment excluded the operation of section 41(2) as in force immediately before the commencement.
- (2) The exclusion continues to have effect after the commencement despite the repeal of section 41(3) as in force immediately before the commencement.

61 Act as amended applies to all transfer decisions

This Act, as in force after the commencement of this section, applies to all transfer decisions without regard to anything, other than the places at which a magistrate constituted a Magistrates Court and the length of time the magistrate constituted a Magistrates Court at the place, that happened before the commencement.
