Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Part 2 Purpose and administration of Act

4 Purpose of Act

The purpose of this Act is to provide for the protection of children.

5 Principles for administration of Act

- (1) This Act is to be administered under the principle that the welfare and best interests of a child are paramount.

Example—

The chief executive is making a decision under this Act, concerning a child, in circumstances where there is a conflict between the child's welfare and best interests and the interests of an adult caring for the child. The conflict must be resolved in favour of the child's welfare and best interests.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), this Act is also to be administered under the following principles—

- (a) every child has a right to protection from harm;
- (b) families have the primary responsibility for the upbringing, protection and development of their children;
- (c) the preferred way of ensuring a child's wellbeing is through the support of the child's family;
- (d) powers conferred under this Act should be exercised in a way that is open, fair and respects the rights of people affected by their exercise, and, in particular, in a way that ensures—
 - (i) actions taken, while in the best interests of the child, maintain family relationships and are supportive of individual rights and ethnic, religious and cultural identity or values; and
 - (ii) the views of the child and the child's family are considered; and

Child Protection Act 1999

- (iii) the child and the child's parents have the opportunity to take part in making decisions affecting their lives;
- (e) if a child does not have a parent able and willing to protect the child, the State has a responsibility to protect the child, but in protecting the child the State must not take action that is unwarranted in the circumstances;
- (f) if a child is removed from the child's family—
 - (i) the aim of authorised officers' working with the child and the child's family is to safely return the child to the family if possible; and
 - (ii) the child's need to maintain family and social contacts, and ethnic and cultural identity, must be taken into account; and
 - (iii) in deciding in whose care the child should be placed, the chief executive must give proper consideration to placing the child, as a first option, with kin;
- (g) a child should be kept informed of matters affecting him or her in a way and to an extent that is appropriate, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand;
- (h) if a child is able to form and express views about his or her care, the views must be given consideration, taking into account the child's age or ability to understand;
- (i) if a child does not have a parent able and willing to give the child ongoing protection, the child has a right to long-term alternative care.

6 Provisions about Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children

- (1) When making a significant decision about an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, the chief executive or an authorised officer must give an opportunity to a recognised entity for the child to participate in the decision-making process.

Child Protection Act 1999

- (2) When making a decision, other than a significant decision, about an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, the chief executive or an authorised officer must consult with a recognised entity for the child before making the decision.
- (3) However, if compliance with subsection (1) or (2) is not practicable because a recognised entity for the child is not available or urgent action is required to protect the child, the chief executive or an authorised officer must consult with a recognised entity for the child as soon as practicable after making the decision.
- (4) If the Childrens Court exercises a power under this Act in relation to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, the court must have regard to—
 - (a) the views, about the child and about Aboriginal tradition and Island custom² relating to the child, of—
 - (i) a recognised entity for the child; or
 - (ii) if it is not practicable to obtain the views of a recognised entity for the child—members of the community to whom the child belongs; and
 - (b) the general principle that an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child should be cared for within an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community.
- (5) As far as is reasonably practicable, the chief executive or an authorised officer must try to conduct consultations, negotiations, family group meetings and other proceedings involving an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander (whether a child or not) in a way and in a place that is appropriate to Aboriginal tradition or Island custom.
- (6) In this section—

significant decision, about an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child, means a decision likely to have a significant impact on the child's life.

2 The Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36, contains definitions of Aboriginal tradition and Island custom.

Child Protection Act 1999

Examples of decisions relating to an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child that may be significant decisions—

- 1 a decision made in the course of investigating an allegation of harm to the child
- 2 a decision about placing the child in care

 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a), an authorised officer must produce the officer's identity card to the person for inspection.⁹

⁹ For a police officer, see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 637 (Supplying police officer's details).

- (4) However, the officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the officer reasonably believes that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective exercise of powers under the order is not frustrated.

 - (ii) that, because of the duration of the order, if the parent wishes to appeal against the order, an appeal should be started immediately;¹⁰ and
 - (iii) how to appeal; and
- (d) tell the child about the order.¹¹

33 Police officers to notify chief executive of certain orders

If a temporary assessment order is made on the application of a police officer, the officer must immediately give copies of the application and order to the chief executive.

10 Under section 29, the duration of a temporary assessment order must be not more than 3 days.

11 Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

34 Extension of temporary assessment orders

- (1) An authorised officer or police officer may apply to a magistrate for an order to extend the term of a temporary assessment order for a child.
- (2) This part applies, with all necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a temporary assessment order.
- (3) The magistrate may extend the temporary assessment order only if the magistrate is satisfied the order has not ended.
- (4) The temporary assessment order may be extended until the end of the next business day after it would have otherwise ended if the magistrate is satisfied the officer intends to apply for a court assessment order or child protection order for the child within the extended term.
- (5) Unless subsection (4) applies, the temporary assessment order may not be extended to a time ending more than 3 days after the day it was made.
- (6) A temporary assessment order may not be extended more than once under subsection (4).

35 Variation of temporary assessment orders

- (1) An authorised officer or police officer may apply to a magistrate for an order to vary a temporary assessment order for a child.
- (2) This part applies, with all necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a temporary assessment order.

36 Effect of temporary assessment order on existing child protection orders

If a temporary assessment order is made for a child for whom a child protection order is already in force, the temporary assessment order prevails to the extent of any inconsistency between the orders.

- (2) A court assessment order is made to authorise actions necessary as part of an investigation to assess whether a child is a child in need of protection if—
 - (a) the consent of a parent of the child to the actions has not been able to be obtained or it is not practicable to take steps to obtain the parent's consent; and

- (b) more than 3 days is necessary to complete the investigation and assessment.¹²

Division 2 Application for, and making and effect of, court assessment orders

 - (c) state the nature of the order sought; and
 - (d) comply with applicable rules of court; and
 - (e) be filed in the court.

40 Registrar to fix time and place for hearing

When the application is filed, the registrar of the Childrens Court must immediately fix a time and place for hearing the application having regard to the principle that it is in the best interests of the child for the application to be heard as soon as possible.

41 Notice of application

- (1) As soon as practicable after the application is filed, the applicant must—
 - (a) personally serve a copy of it on each of the child's parents; and
 - (b) tell the child about the application.¹³

12 Under part 2, a temporary assessment order may be obtained for not more than 3 days.

13 Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

- (2) However, if it is not practicable to serve the copy personally, a copy of the application may be served on a parent by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the parent's residential address last known to the applicant.
- (3) Also, if the applicant is a police officer, the applicant must immediately give a copy of the application to the chief executive.
- (4) A copy of the application served under this section must state—
 - (a) when and where the application is to be heard; and
 - (b) for a copy served on a parent—that the application may be heard and decided even though the parent does not appear in court.

42 Respondents to application

The child's parents are respondents to the application.

43 Hearing of application in absence of parents

- (1) The Childrens Court may hear and decide the application in the absence of the child's parents only if—
 - (a) the parents have been given reasonable notice of the hearing and fail to attend or continue to attend the hearing; or

- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the jurisdiction of the court to exclude a person from a proceeding.

44 Making of court assessment order

The Childrens Court may make a court assessment order only if the court is satisfied an investigation is necessary to assess whether the child is a child in need of protection and the investigation can not be properly carried out unless the order is made.

45 Provisions of court assessment order

- (1) The order may provide for any 1 or more of the following the court considers to be appropriate in the circumstances—
 - (a) authorising an authorised officer or police officer to have contact with the child;

- (2) In addition, the order may also authorise an authorised officer or police officer to enter and search any place the officer reasonably believes the child is, to find the child, if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) entry to a place has been, or is likely to be, refused, or it is otherwise justified in particular circumstances, including, for example, because the child's whereabouts are not known; and
 - (b) the entry is necessary for the effective enforcement of the order.
- (3) On entering a place, an authorised officer or police officer may remain in the place for as long as the officer considers necessary for exercising the officer's powers under this section.

- (4) An authorised officer or police officer may exercise the officer's powers under the order with the help, and using the force, that is reasonable in the circumstances.

46 Order—procedure before entry

- (1) This section applies if an authorised officer or police officer is intending to enter a place under an authority under a court assessment order.

 - (c) tell the person the officer is permitted by the order to enter and search the place to find the child;
 - (d) give the person an opportunity to allow the officer immediate entry to the place without using force.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a), an authorised officer must produce the officer's identity card to the person for inspection.¹⁴
- (4) However, the officer need not comply with subsection (2) if the officer reasonably believes that immediate entry to the place is required to ensure the effective exercise of powers under the order is not frustrated.

47 Duration of court assessment orders

- (1) A court assessment order for a child must state the time when it ends.

¹⁴ For a police officer, see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 637 (Supplying police officer's details).

- (2) The stated time must not be more than 4 weeks after the day the hearing of the application for the order is first brought before the court.¹⁵
- (3) The order ends at the stated time unless it is extended or earlier revoked.
- (4) Regardless of subsections (1) to (3), the order ends when the child turns 18 years.

Division 3 Other provisions about court assessment orders

¹⁵ Under section 40, the registrar fixes the time and place for hearing the application.

- (3) The court may extend the term of the order only if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) the order has not ended; and
 - (b) the extension is in the child’s best interests.
- (4) A court assessment order may not be extended more than once.

50 Variation and revocation of court assessment orders

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to the Childrens Court for an order to vary or revoke a court assessment order.
- (2) This part applies, with all necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a court assessment order.
- (3) Without limiting the things to which the court may have regard in deciding the application, the court may have regard to a contravention of the court assessment order or this Act.

51 Effect of court assessment order on existing child protection orders

If a court assessment order is made for a child for whom a child protection order is already in force, the court assessment order prevails to the extent of any inconsistency between the orders.

Part 3A Case planning

Notes—

- 1 Ongoing help under this Act may be, for example—
 - giving support services to the child and his or her family
 - arranging for the child to be placed in care under a care agreement
 - seeking a child protection order for the child.
- 2 A case plan may not be required for a particular child because another entity is working to address the child's protection and care needs and, as part of the work, is undertaking case planning with the child and the child's family.

51D How case planning must be carried out

- (1) The chief executive must ensure case planning for a child is carried out in a way—
- (a) that enables timely decision-making; and

 - (i) the child; and
 - (ii) the child’s parents; and
 - (iii) other appropriate members of the child’s family group; and
 - (iv) for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child—Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander agencies and persons; and

Note—

Section 6(5) requires consultations, negotiations, family group meetings and other proceedings involving an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander to be conducted in a way and in a place that is appropriate to Aboriginal tradition or Island custom.

- (v) other appropriate persons; and
- (d) that facilitates input from other appropriate entities; and

Example of input from another entity—

Information given by a local health agency about services available to a family.

Examples for paragraph (f)—

- 1 The chief executive should explain the case planning process to a child using language appropriate to the child’s age, language skills and circumstances.

16 See section 5 (Principles for administration of Act).

- 2 The chief executive should tell a child's parents about child protection concerns, and explain steps in the case planning process to them, in a way that helps them to understand, ask questions and participate in any discussion. For a parent from a non-English speaking background, this may involve the use of an interpreter.
- (2) The chief executive must give participants in case planning the information they reasonably need to participate effectively.
- (3) The information must be given to the participants in a timely way to facilitate their effective participation.

51E Who is a child's family group

For this part, a child's family group includes—

- (a) members of the child's extended family; and
- (b) if the child belongs to a clan, tribe or similar group—members of that group; and

- (ii) anyone else who would be the child's parent under paragraph (b) or (c) if the child were not in the person's custody or guardianship under this Act.

Division 2 Family group meetings

51G Purposes

The purposes of family group meetings are—

- (a) to provide family-based responses to children's protection and care needs; and
- (b) to ensure an inclusive process for planning and making decisions relating to children's wellbeing and protection and care needs.

51H Convening a meeting

- (1) The chief executive must convene a family group meeting, or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting, to develop a case plan for a child.
- (2) A family group meeting convened to develop a case plan is a case planning meeting.
- (3) The chief executive may also convene a family group meeting or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting—
 - (a) to review a case plan under division 5 and prepare a revised case plan; or
 - (b) to consider, make recommendations about, or otherwise deal with, another matter relating to the child's wellbeing and protection and care needs.

- (1) A private convenor is a person, other than the chief executive or a delegate or other representative of the chief executive, who convenes a family group meeting under this part by arrangement with the chief executive.

- (2) The chief executive may have a person convene a family group meeting as a private convenor only if the chief executive is satisfied the person is appropriately qualified.

Examples—

- a youth worker
 - an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander elder
 - a representative within the child's cultural community
 - a legal representative
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a requirement to allow a person to attend or participate in the meeting under subsection (1) or (2) applies whether or not the child's parents agree to the person's attendance or participation.
- (4) The convenor is not required to allow a particular person to attend or participate in the meeting under subsection (1)(b) to (d) or (2) if the convenor is satisfied that person's attendance or participation would be contrary to the purposes of the meeting or not in the child's best interests.

51M Preparing for the meeting

- (d) a relevant service provider.

Example of a relevant service provider—

A member of the SCAN system involved in assessing and responding to the child's protection needs.

51O Recording the case plan developed at the meeting

If a case plan is developed at the meeting, the convenor must record the plan in the approved form and, if the convenor is a private convenor, give it to the chief executive.

51P Development of plan at more than 1 meeting

A case plan may be developed at more than 1 meeting under this division.

Division 4 Other steps in the case planning process

51Q Dealing with a case plan developed at a meeting

Within 7 days after a case plan is developed at a case planning meeting, the chief executive must endorse the plan unless section 51R applies.

51R Dealing with an inappropriate plan

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive is satisfied a case plan developed at a case planning meeting, or something in the plan, is clearly impracticable or not in the child's best interests.
- (2) The chief executive may—
 - (a) reconvene, or have a private convenor reconvene, the case planning meeting under division 3 to develop an amended case plan; or

 - (c) if the meeting was convened by a private convenor, only after consulting with the private convenor.
- (4) If the chief executive amends the case plan under subsection (2)(c), the chief executive must give written notice of the amendment, and the reasons for the amendment, to each person who was at the meeting at which the plan was developed.

51S Preparing the plan if not developed at a meeting

- (1) This section applies if a case plan is not developed at the case planning meeting or meetings held under division 3.
- (2) This section also applies if it has not been possible for the chief executive to convene a family group meeting, or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting, under section 51H(1).
- (3) The chief executive must—

 - (ii) another person mentioned in section 51L(1);
 - (iii) another member of the child's family group whose views, in the chief executive's opinion, should be obtained; best meets the child's protection and care needs and endorse the plan.

- (4) If the meeting mentioned in subsection (1) was convened under a court order under section 68(1)(d)(i), the chief executive must file the plan prepared under this section in the court.

51T Distributing and implementing the plan

After a case plan has been recorded in the approved form and endorsed, the chief executive must—

- (a) give a copy of the plan to the child, unless that would be inappropriate having regard to the child's age and ability to understand; and
- (b) explain the plan to the child in a way, and to an extent, that is reasonable, having regard to the child's age and ability to understand; and
- (c) give a copy of the plan to—

 - (ii) anyone else affected by the plan or who the chief executive considers should receive a copy; and

Examples of persons who may be given a copy—

- an approved carer
- an elder or other respected person of the child's community

- (d) support the implementation of the plan.

Example of supporting the implementation of the plan—

The chief executive may provide, or arrange for another entity to provide, a service to the child's family.

Division 5 Periodically reviewing the case plan

51U Application of div 5

This division applies to a child for whom a case plan has been developed, while—

- (a) a child protection order is in force for the child; or
- (b) the child otherwise remains a child mentioned in section 51C.

51V Plan must be reviewed

- (1) The chief executive must regularly review the case plan.

 - (c) other members of the child’s family group who the chief executive considers are likely to make a useful contribution;
 - (d) other persons with whom the child has a significant relationship;

 - (g) a relevant service provider;
 - (h) anyone else who the chief executive considers is likely to make a useful contribution to the review.
- (2) To enable the participation, the chief executive may convene a family group meeting or have a private convenor convene a family group meeting.
 - (3) If a family group meeting or other meeting is convened for the purpose of the review and the child or a parent of the child attends, the convenor must allow the child or parent to have someone attend and participate in the meeting to give help or support to the child or parent.
 - (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a requirement to allow a person to attend or participate in a meeting under this section, or otherwise participate in the review, applies whether or not the child's parents agree to the person's attendance or participation.
 - (5) The convenor of a meeting under this section is not required to allow a particular person to attend or participate in the meeting, under subsection (1)(b) to (d) or (3), if the convenor is satisfied that person's attendance or participation would be contrary to the purposes of the meeting or not in the child's best interests.

51X Report about the review

- (1) The report about the review must include the following matters—

- (3) For subsection (2), if the child is placed in the care of someone other than a parent of the child under a child protection order granting custody or short-term guardianship of the child, the report must state—
- (a) the risks and benefits of returning the child to the care of a parent; and
 - (b) whether there is a real risk that the child's need for long-term stable care will not be able to be met by returning the child to the care of a parent within a timeframe appropriate to the child's age and circumstances; and
 - (c) if there is a real risk mentioned in paragraph (b), the progress made in planning for alternative long-term arrangements for the child, for example—
 - (i) arrangements for the child to live with a member of the child's family under a child protection order granting long-term guardianship of the child; or

 - (c) give a copy to the child's parents and anyone else affected by the plan or who the chief executive considers should receive a copy; and
 - (d) support the implementation of the plan.

Part 3B Intervention with parents' agreement

Division 1 Preliminary

51Z Application of pt 3B

This part applies to a child if—

- (a) there is no assessment order in force granting custody of the child to the chief executive and the chief executive—

- arranging for the child to be placed in care under a care agreement

Division 2 Preference for intervention with parents' agreement

51ZB Considering intervention with agreement

The chief executive must give proper consideration to intervening with the parents' agreement if—

- (a) the child's views and wishes, if able to be ascertained, have been considered; and
- (b) for a child to whom section 51Z(a) applies, the chief executive is satisfied the child's parents are able and willing to work with the chief executive to meet the child's interim protection needs while the investigation is carried out; and
- (c) for a child to whom section 51Z(b) applies, the chief executive is satisfied—
 - (i) the child's parents are able and willing to work with the chief executive to meet the child's protection and care needs; and
 - (ii) it is likely that, by the end of the proposed intervention, the child's parents will be able to meet the child's protection and care needs.

51ZC Working with the child and parents

If the chief executive decides to intervene with the parents' agreement, the chief executive must—

- (a) encourage and facilitate the participation of the child and child's parents in—
 - (i) decisions about the most appropriate intervention for the child; and
 - (ii) the carrying out of the intervention; and
- (b) encourage and facilitate the parents' continuing involvement, during the intervention, with the child's life and care.

Division 3 Care agreements51ZD What is a *care agreement

- (1) A care agreement is an agreement between the chief executive and the child's parents for the short-term placement of the child in the care of someone other than the parents.

Note—

Section 82 deals with the persons in whose care the child may be placed under a care agreement.

- (2) A care agreement entered into for a child to whom section 51Z(a) applies is an assessment care agreement.
- (3) A care agreement entered into for a child to whom section 51Z(b) applies is a child protection care agreement.

51ZE Entering an agreement

- (1) The chief executive may enter a care agreement for the child if satisfied—
 - (a) it would be in the child's best interests to be temporarily placed in the care of someone other than the child's parents; and
 - (b) it is not likely that, if the parents end the agreement, the child will be at immediate risk of harm.

- (2) The chief executive must obtain and have regard to the child's views before entering the care agreement, unless the child is unable to form and express views, taking into account the child's age and ability to understand.
- (3) The child may also be a party to the care agreement.

51ZF Requirements of an agreement

- (1) A care agreement must be in the approved form, signed by the parties.
- (2) A care agreement must state the following—
 - (a) the name of the person in whose care the child is to be placed;
 - (b) the period of the agreement;
 - (c) where the child will be living;
 - (d) arrangements for contact between the child and his or her parents;
 - (e) the type of decisions relating to the child for which the parents must be consulted.

51ZG Effect of particular agreement

While a child protection care agreement is in force for the child, the chief executive has custody of the child.

51ZH Period of an agreement

- (1) Subject to this division, a care agreement has effect for the period stated in it.
- (2) The period of an assessment care agreement must not be more than 30 days.
- (3) An assessment care agreement may not be extended.
- (4) When a child protection care agreement is entered into, the initial period of operation stated in it must not be more than 30 days.
- (5) A child protection care agreement must not be made if the total of the following periods would be more than 6 months—

Child Protection Act 1999

- (a) the initial period of the proposed agreement:
 - (b) the period for which any other child protection care agreement was in force for the child within the previous 12 months.
- (6) Before a child protection care agreement ends, it may be extended by agreement of the parties.
- (7) A child protection care agreement may be extended more than once.

- (a) the period for which the agreement has been in force;
 - (b) the period of the proposed extension;
 - (c) the period for which any other child protection care agreement was in force for the child within the 12 months before the extension.
- (9) The chief executive must not agree to an extension unless—
- (a) a case plan is in force for the child; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied the extension would be in the child's best interests, having regard to the progress made under the case plan and the child's developmental needs.

51ZI Ending an agreement

- (1) A party to a care agreement may end the agreement at any time by giving at least 2 days notice to the other parties.
- (2) A care agreement ends automatically if—
- (a) a child protection order is made granting custody or guardianship of the child to the chief executive or someone else; or
 - (b) the chief executive otherwise gains custody or guardianship of the child under this Act.

- (2) A child protection order is made to ensure the protection of a child the Childrens Court decides is a child in need of protection.¹⁸

18 See section 10 (Who is a child in need of protection).

Division 2 Applications for, and making and effect of, child protection orders

54 Application for child protection order

- (1) An authorised officer may apply to the Childrens Court for a child protection order for a child.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) state the grounds on which it is made; and
 - (b) state the nature of the order sought; and
 - (c) comply with applicable rules of court; and
 - (d) be filed in the court.

55 Registrar to fix time and place for hearing

When the application is filed, the registrar of the Childrens Court must immediately fix the time and place for hearing the application having regard to the principle that it is in the best interests of the child for the application to be heard as early as possible.

56 Notice of application

- (1) As soon as practicable after the application is filed, the applicant must—
 - (a) personally serve a copy of it on each of the child's parents; and
 - (b) tell the child about the application.¹⁹
- (2) However, if it is not practicable to serve the copy personally, a copy of the application may be served on a parent by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the parent's residential address last known to the applicant.
- (3) The copy of the application served under this section must state—

¹⁹ Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

- (a) when and where the application is to be heard; and
- (b) the application may be heard and decided even though the parent does not appear in court.

57 Respondents to hearing

The child's parents are respondents to the application.

58 Hearing of application in absence of parents

- (1) The Childrens Court may hear and decide the application in the absence of the child's parents only if—
 - (a) the parents have been given reasonable notice of the hearing and fail to attend or continue to attend the hearing; or

- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit the jurisdiction of the court to exclude a person from a proceeding.

 - (i) that has been developed or revised under part 3A; and

 - (c) if the making of the order has been contested, a conference between the parties has been held or reasonable attempts to hold a conference have been made; and
 - (d) the child's wishes or views, if able to be ascertained, have been made known to the court; and

Child Protection Act 1999

- (e) the protection sought to be achieved by the order is unlikely to be achieved by an order under this part on less intrusive terms.
- (2) The court must not make a child protection order unless a copy of the child's case plan and, if it is a revised case plan, a copy of the report about the last revision under section 51X have been filed in the court.
- (3) Also, before making a child protection order granting custody or guardianship of a child to a person other than the chief executive, the court must have regard to any report given, or recommendation made, to the court by the chief executive about the person, including a report about the person's criminal history, domestic violence history and traffic history.²⁰
- (4) In addition, before making a child protection order granting long-term guardianship of a child, the court must be satisfied—
 - (a) there is no parent able and willing to protect the child within the foreseeable future; or
 - (b) the child's need for emotional security will be best met in the long-term by making the order.
- (5) Further, the court must not grant long-term guardianship of a child to—
 - (a) a person who is not a member of the child's family unless the child is already in custody or guardianship under a child protection order; or
 - (b) the chief executive if the court can properly grant guardianship to another suitable person.
- (6) This section does not apply to the making of an interim order under section 67.²¹

20 Section 95 deals with reports about the person's criminal history, domestic violence history and traffic history.

21 Section 67 (Court's powers to make interim orders on adjournment)

60 Extraterritoriality

To remove doubt, it is declared the Childrens Court may make a child protection order even if the events causing the child to be a child in need of protection happened outside Queensland, or partly in Queensland and partly outside Queensland.

61 Types of child protection orders

The Childrens Court may make any of the following child protection orders it considers to be appropriate in the circumstances—

- (a) an order directing a parent of the child to do or refrain from doing something directly related to the child's protection;

62 Duration of child protection orders

- (1) A child protection order for a child must state the time when it ends.
- (2) The stated time for the order—

 - (b) if it grants custody or short-term guardianship of the child—must not be more than 2 years after the day it is made; or
 - (c) if it grants long-term guardianship of the child—must be the end of the day before the child turns 18 years.

- (2) However, a child's parent can not—
 - (a) apply for an order to revoke a child protection order for the child and make another child protection order in its place that grants guardianship of the child; or
 - (b) without the leave of the court, apply for an order to vary or revoke a child protection order for the child if another application for an order by a parent of the child to vary or revoke the child protection order has been decided by the court.
- (3) For subsection (2)(b), the court may grant leave only if it is satisfied the child's parent has new evidence to give to the court.
- (4) This part applies, with the changes prescribed in subsection (5) and all other necessary changes, to the application as if it were an application for a child protection order for the child.
- (5) If the application is made by the child or a parent of the child—

Chapter 5A Service delivery coordination and information exchange

Part 1 Preliminary

159A Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to provide for service providers to appropriately and effectively meet the protection and care needs of children by—

- (a) coordinating the delivery of services to children and families; and
- (b) exchanging relevant information, while protecting the confidentiality of the information.

159B Principles for coordinating service delivery and exchanging information

The principles underlying this chapter are as follows—

- (a) the State is responsible for ensuring that children in need of protection receive protection and care services that ensure their safety and promote their wellbeing;
- (b) the chief executive has the primary responsibility for investigating, assessing and responding to allegations of harm to children, including by making plans for their protection and care;
- (c) each service provider should contribute, within the provider's own sphere of responsibility, to assessing and meeting the protection and care needs of children and supporting their families;

- (d) children in need of protection and their families should receive coordinated services that meet their needs in a timely and effective way;
- (e) service providers should work collaboratively and in a way that respects the functions and expertise of other service providers;
- (f) because a child's welfare and best interests are paramount,⁴⁶ their protection and care needs take precedence over the protection of an individual's privacy.

159C What is relevant information relevant information means—

- (a) in relation to giving information to the chief executive or an authorised officer—information that the holder of the information reasonably believes may—

 - (ii) assess or respond to the health, educational or care needs of a child in need of protection; or
 - (iii) otherwise make plans or decisions relating to, or provide services to, a child in need of protection or the child's family.

- (5) Also, so far as compliance relates to telling the child about a matter, the chief executive or officer need only comply with the provision to the extent that the chief executive or officer reasonably considers is appropriate in the circumstances having regard to the child's age or ability to understand the matter.

- (6) However, if under the provision an authorised officer is required to give the child's parents a copy of a document or information in writing, the officer must also give the child the information in writing the officer considers is appropriate in the circumstances having regard to the child's age or ability to understand the information.

Chapter 7 Interstate transfers of child protection orders and proceedings

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Explanation, purpose and guiding principles

198 Explanation and purpose

- (1) Chapter 2 provides for the making of child protection orders and the conduct of child protection proceedings in the Childrens Court.
- (2) Laws of other States and New Zealand provide for similar orders and proceedings.
- (3) The purpose of this chapter is to provide for the transfer of the orders and proceedings between Queensland and other States, and between Queensland and New Zealand—
 - (a) so that children in need of protection may be protected if they move from one jurisdiction to another; and
 - (b) so that proceedings relating to the protection of a child may be decided, in a timely and expeditious way, in a court in the most appropriate jurisdiction.
- (4) The transfer of an order from one jurisdiction to another enables the law of the receiving jurisdiction to provide for the administration and enforcement of the order as if it were made in the receiving jurisdiction.
- (5) Similarly, the transfer of a proceeding from one jurisdiction to another enables the law of the receiving jurisdiction to provide for the proceeding to be heard and decided as if it had been started there.

199 Further guiding principle

- (1) This chapter must be administered under the principle that it is desirable for an order relating to the protection of a child to have effect, and to be enforced, in the State in which the child resides.
- (2) In exercising its jurisdiction or powers under this chapter, the Childrens Court must observe the principle mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) This section does not limit section 5 or 104.⁶⁰

Division 2 Interpretation provisions about child protection orders200 References to Queensland orders

If a child protection order is in force under this Act—

- (a) the order as in force in Queensland is referred to in this chapter as the home order; and
- (b) the order in the form in which it is proposed to be transferred to another State under this chapter is referred to in this chapter as the proposed interstate order.

201 Reference to child protection order includes certain orders of other States

- (1) This chapter uses the term ‘child protection order’ to refer not only to orders made under this Act, but also to certain orders made under the laws of other States.
- (2) Specifically, an order made under a child welfare law, or interstate law, of a participating State is a child protection order for this chapter if—
 - (a) the order provides—
 - (i) for the guardianship, custody or supervision of a child; or

⁶⁰ Section 5 (Principles for administration of Act) or 104 (Court’s paramount consideration)

- (ii) for contact with a child; or
 - (iii) that a parent of the child must do or refrain from doing something directly related to the child's protection; and
 - (b) the order is made in favour of, or gives responsibility to, any of the following entities of the participating State—
 - (i) a government department or statutory authority;
 - (ii) a person who is head of, is employed in, or otherwise holds an office or other position in, a government department or statutory authority;
 - (iii) an organisation or the chief executive of an organisation, whether or not the person's position is given the name of chief executive;
 - (iv) a Minister; and
 - (c) the order is not made on an interim basis or for the purpose of assessing a child's protective needs.
- (3) A reference in this chapter to a child protection order, if the order is made under a law of another State—
- (a) is a reference to the order in the form in which it is transferred, or proposed to be transferred, to Queensland; and
 - (b) includes a reference to a document, prepared under the law of the other State, stating the conditions applying to the order on its transfer to Queensland.

Division 3 Corresponding laws of other States

202 Meaning of law for div 3

- (1) In this division—

203 Child welfare laws

A regulation may declare a law of another State about the protection of children to be a child welfare law of that State.

204 Interstate laws

- (1) If the Minister is satisfied a law of another State substantially corresponds to this chapter, the Minister may recommend that the Governor in Council—
- (a) declare the law to be an interstate law of that State; and
 - (b) declare that State to be a participating State; and
 - (c) declare the holder (from time to time) of a stated office to be the interstate officer for that State.
- (2) The Governor in Council may make the declaration by regulation.

⁶² Section 242 (Definitions for pt 7)

⁶³ Section 67 (Court's powers to make interim orders on adjournment)

Division 2 Administrative transfers

207 Chief executive may transfer order

- (1) The chief executive may transfer a child protection order to a participating State if—
 - (a) the chief executive is satisfied an order to the same or a similar effect as the home order could be made under a child welfare law of that State; and
 - (b) the home order is not the subject of an appeal under chapter 3, part 4⁶⁴ and, if no appeal has been started, the time for starting an appeal has expired; and
 - (c) the home order is not the subject of an application under section 65;⁶⁵ and
 - (d) the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order; and
 - (e) each person whose consent to the transfer is required under section 209 has consented; and
 - (f) the chief executive has given the notices required under section 210.
- (2) For subsection (1)(a), in deciding whether an order to the same or a similar effect as the home order could be made under a child welfare law of the participating State, the chief executive must not take into account the period for which an order of that type could have been made in that State.

208 Provisions of proposed interstate order

- (1) The provisions of the proposed interstate order are the provisions decided by the chief executive under this section.
- (2) Before transferring the child protection order, the chief executive may vary the home order in a way that the chief

64 Chapter 3 (Court proceedings), part 4 (Court appeals)

65 Section 65 (Variation and revocation of child protection orders)

executive is satisfied is reasonably necessary because of the transfer.

Example—

A child protection order is made under chapter 2, part 4, granting short-term guardianship of a child to the chief executive.

The child moves to Victoria. The chief executive decides to transfer the order to Victoria. In deciding the provisions of the proposed interstate order, the chief executive varies the home order so that it grants short-term guardianship of the child to the interstate officer for Victoria.

- (3) The proposed interstate order—
 - (a) must be of the same or a similar effect as the home order; and
 - (b) may only include provisions that could be included in an order of that type under a child welfare law of the participating State.
- (4) The chief executive must state in the proposed interstate order the time for which it is to have effect in the participating State.
- (5) The stated time must be the lesser of—
 - (a) the time for which the home order would have effect if it were not transferred to that State; and
 - (b) the maximum time for which an order of that type, made under a child welfare law of that State, could be given effect.

209 Persons whose consent is required

- (1) The order may not be transferred unless all the following persons give written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order—
 - (a) the child's parents;
 - (b) if the child is at least 12 years, the child;
 - (c) if the child is in the care of a carer who has moved, or is moving, with the child to the participating State, the carer.

- (a) tell the person why the chief executive considers it is appropriate to transfer the order; and
- (b) explain to the person the terms and effect of the proposed interstate order.

210 Notice of decision

- (1) If the chief executive decides to transfer the order, the chief executive must give a written notice of the decision and a copy of the proposed interstate order to each of the following persons—
 - (a) the child;
 - (b) each person whose consent to the transfer is required;
 - (c) anyone else who the chief executive considers ought to be notified of the decision.
- (2) The notice must be given within 3 days after the day the decision is made (the decision day).
- (3) The notice must—
 - (a) state the decision day; and
 - (b) state that anyone who wishes to make a judicial review application in relation to the decision must make the application, and give notice of the application to the chief executive, within 28 days after the decision day.

211 Limited time for applying for judicial review

- (1) Despite the Judicial Review Act 1991, sections 26 and 46,⁶⁶ a person may only make a judicial review application in relation to the decision to transfer the order within 28 days after the decision day.
- (2) The Supreme Court may not extend the time stated in this section for making the application.

⁶⁶ Judicial Review Act 1991, sections 26 (Period within which application must be made) and 46 (Time of making application)

- (3) The application is taken not to have been made until notice of the application is given to the chief executive.
- (4) The application stays the operation of the chief executive's decision.

Division 3 Judicial transfers

212 Application for transfer

The chief executive may apply to the Childrens Court for an order transferring a child protection order to a participating State.

213 Procedural matters

The following provisions apply to the application as if any reference in the provisions to a child protection order were a reference to an order transferring a child protection order to a participating State—

- section 54(2)
- sections 55 to 58
- chapter 2, part 5
- chapter 3, parts 1 to 3.

214 Court may transfer order

On receiving the application, the Childrens Court may order the transfer of the child protection order to the participating State if—

- (a) the home order is not the subject of an appeal under chapter 3, part 4⁶⁷ and, if no appeal has been started, the time for starting an appeal has expired; and
- (b) the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the proposed interstate order; and

67 Chapter 3 (Court proceedings), part 4 (Court appeals)

- (ba) an appropriate case plan has been prepared under chapter 2, part 3A; and

- (d) if the application is contested, a conference between the parties has been held or reasonable attempts to hold a conference have been made; and
- (e) the child's wishes or views, if able to be ascertained, have been made known to the court.

215 Provisions of proposed interstate order

- (1) If the Childrens Court decides to order the transfer of the child protection order to the participating State, it must decide the provisions of the proposed interstate order.
- (2) The court must be satisfied—
 - (a) the proposed interstate order is an order that could be made under a child welfare law of that State; and
 - (b) the protection sought to be achieved by the proposed interstate order is unlikely to be achieved by an order on less intrusive terms; and
 - (c) the proposed interstate order—
 - (i) is of the same or a similar effect as the home order; or
 - (ii) is otherwise in the child's best interests.
- (3) In deciding the provisions of the proposed interstate order, the court must—

- (4) The stated time must not be more than the maximum time for which an order of that type, made under a child welfare law of that State, could be given effect in that State.

- (5) In deciding whether the proposed interstate order is of the same or a similar effect as the home order, the court must not take into account the time for which the proposed interstate order is to have effect in the participating State.

216 Notice of decision

- (1) This section applies if the court decides the application by ordering the transfer of the child protection order.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the court makes the decision, the chief executive must give to each party to the proceeding for the application—
- (a) a copy of the court's order; and
 - (b) a written notice—
 - (i) explaining the terms and effect of the court's order; and

This division applies if a child protection order is transferred to a participating State under this part and registered under an interstate law of that State.

218 Order ceases to have effect under this Act

The order ceases to have effect under this Act.

219 Order may be revived under this Act

- (1) If the registration of the order is revoked under an interstate law of the participating State before its original expiry day,

- (b) the transfer or the provisions of the order would not be in the child's best interests.

222 Filing and registration of order

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) the chief executive gives written consent to the transfer and to the provisions of the order; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied that, under the interstate law—
 - (i) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the interstate transfer decision relating to the transfer has expired; and
 - (ii) the decision is not the subject of an appeal or application for review; and
 - (iii) the decision is not stayed.
- (2) As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the order, the chief executive must file the copy in the Childrens Court.
- (3) On the filing of the copy, the registrar of the court must register the order.
- (4) Immediately after registering the order, the registrar must notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State.

223 Effect of registration

- (1) The order is taken to be a child protection order of the Childrens Court in Queensland made on the day of its registration, except for the purposes of an appeal against the order.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the order may be enforced, varied, revoked, or extended in operation, as if it had been made under chapter 2, part 4.⁶⁹

⁶⁹ Chapter 2 (Protection of children), part 4 (Child protection orders)

224 Revocation of registration

- (1) Any of the following persons may apply to the Childrens Court to revoke the registration of the order—
 - (a) the chief executive;
 - (b) the child the subject of the order;
 - (c) a parent of the child;

 - (b) each person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The court may grant the application and revoke the registration only if it is satisfied that, when the order was registered—
 - (a) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the interstate transfer decision had not expired; or
 - (b) the decision was the subject of an appeal or application for review; or
 - (c) the decision was stayed.
- (4) Immediately after the registration of the order is revoked, the registrar must—
 - (a) notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State; and
 - (b) return the copy of the order that was filed in the court under section 222.
- (5) Revocation of the registration of the order does not prevent a re-registration of the order.

Part 4 Transfer of proceedings to another State

225 Application for transfer

- (1) If there is a child protection proceeding pending in the Childrens Court, an authorised officer may apply to the court for an order transferring the proceeding to the Childrens Court in a participating State.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) state the grounds on which it is made; and
 - (b) state the nature of the order sought; and
 - (c) comply with applicable rules of court; and
 - (d) be filed in the court.

226 Registrar to fix time and place for hearing

When the application is filed, the registrar of the Childrens Court must immediately fix the time and place for hearing the application having regard to the principle that it is in the best interests of the child for the application to be heard as early as possible.

227 Notice of application

- (1) As soon as practicable after the application is filed, the applicant must—
 - (a) personally serve a copy of it on each of the child's parents; and
 - (b) tell the child about the application.⁷⁰
- (2) However, if it is not practicable to serve the copy personally, a copy of the application may be served on a parent by leaving it at, or by sending it by post to, the parent's residential address last known to the applicant.

70 Section 195 deals with compliance with provisions about giving information.

- (3) The copy of the application served under this section must state—
 - (a) when and where the application is to be heard; and
 - (b) that the application may be heard and decided even though the parent does not appear in court.

228 Court may transfer proceeding

On receiving the application, the court may order the transfer of the proceeding to the participating State if the interstate officer for that State has given written consent to the transfer.

229 Considerations for Childrens Court

- (1) In deciding whether to order the transfer, the court must have regard to the following matters—
 - (a) whether there are any child protection orders for the child in force in the participating State;
 - (b) whether any other proceedings relating to the child are pending, or have been heard and decided, under a child welfare law in the participating State;
 - (c) where the matters giving rise to the proceedings happened;
 - (d) the place of residence, and likely future place of residence, of the child, the child's parents and other persons significant to the child.
- (2) This section does not limit sections 104 and 199.⁷¹

230 Court may make interim order

- (1) If the Childrens Court orders the transfer of the proceeding to the participating State, it may also make an interim order—
 - (a) granting custody of the child to any person; or
 - (b) giving responsibility for the child's supervision to the interstate officer for that State or another person in that

71 Sections 104 (Court's paramount consideration) and 199 (Further guiding principle)

State to whom the responsibility may be given under a child welfare law of that State.

- (2) The interim order must state the time, not more than 30 days, for which it has effect.

231 Notice of decision to transfer

- (1) This section applies if the court decides the application by ordering the transfer of the proceeding.
- (2) As soon as practicable after the court makes the decision, the chief executive must give to each party to the proceeding for the application—
 - (a) a copy of the court's order; and
 - (b) a written notice—
 - (i) explaining the terms and effect of the court's order; and
 - (ii) stating that the party may appeal against the decision within 10 business days after the party receives the notice; and
 - (iii) stating how to appeal.

232 Effect of registration of order

If the court's order transferring the proceeding to the participating State is registered in that State's Childrens Court under its interstate law—

- (a) the proceeding is discontinued in the Childrens Court in Queensland; and
- (b) any interim order made by the Childrens Court in Queensland on ordering the transfer ceases to have effect under this Act.

- (b) file in the Childrens Court a notice stating the name of the nominated officer.
- (4) If there is an associated interim order in force, the chief executive must also file a copy of the associated interim order in the Childrens Court as soon as practicable after receiving the copy.
- (5) On the filing of a copy of an interstate transfer decision or associated interim order under this section, the registrar of the court must register the decision or order.
- (6) Immediately after registering the decision or order, the registrar must notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State.
- (7) In this section—
interstate government officer, of a participating State, means the interstate officer for that State or another officer of a department of government of that State.

236 Effect of registration of interstate transfer decision

- (1) The transferred proceeding is taken to be a proceeding started in the Childrens Court in Queensland on the day of registration of the interstate transfer decision and may be continued in the court.
- (2) The authorised officer nominated under section 235(3) is a party to the proceeding in place of the interstate government officer for the participating State.
- (3) The court—
 - (a) is not bound by any finding of fact made by the Childrens Court in the participating State; and
 - (b) may inform itself on a matter using a transcript of the proceeding in that court or evidence tendered in the proceeding.

237 Effect of registration of associated interim order

- (1) An associated interim order filed in the Childrens Court in Queensland is taken to be an order of the court made on the day of its registration, except for the purposes of an appeal against the order.

- (2) The order may be enforced as if it had been made by the court under section 67,⁷² even if it includes provisions that could not otherwise be included in an order under that section.
- (3) However, the court may not extend the operation of the order or vary the order in any other way.
- (4) This section does not limit the court's powers to revoke the order or make another order under section 67.

238 Revocation of registration

- (1) Any of the following persons may apply to the Childrens Court to revoke the registration of an interstate transfer decision or associated interim order under this part—
 - (a) the chief executive;
 - (b) the child the subject of the proceeding;
 - (c) a parent of the child;
 - (d) a party to the proceeding;
 - (e) a person entitled under the interstate law of the participating State to receive notice of the proceeding.
- (2) The registrar must immediately give a copy of the application to—
 - (a) the interstate officer for the participating State; and
 - (b) each person mentioned in subsection (1).
- (3) The court may grant the application and revoke the registration only if it is satisfied that, when the interstate transfer decision or associated interim order was registered—
 - (a) the period for appealing, or applying for review of, the decision or order had not expired; or
 - (b) the decision or order was the subject of an appeal or application for review; or

72 Section 67 (Court's powers to make interim orders on adjournment)

- (c) the decision or order was stayed.
- (4) Immediately after the registration of the decision or order is revoked, the registrar must—
 - (a) notify the interstate officer for the participating State and the registrar of the Childrens Court in that State; and
 - (b) return the documents relating to the decision or order that were filed in the court under section 235.
- (5) To remove doubt, it is declared that revocation of the registration of the interstate transfer decision or associated interim order does not prevent a re-registration of the decision or order.

Part 6 Miscellaneous

Division 1 Appeals

239 Appeal against decision of Childrens Court

- (1) This section applies to a decision of the Childrens Court (the original decision) on an application for an order transferring a child protection order or child protection proceeding to a participating State.
- (2) A party to the proceeding for the application may appeal to the appellate court against the decision.
- (3) The appeal is started by filing a written notice of appeal with the registrar of the appellate court.
