Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, hard copy and electronic, are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If a hard copy reprint is dated earlier than an electronic version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown for an electronic version previously published, it merely means that the electronic version was published before the hard copy version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published electronic version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of a hard copy reprint is the same as the date shown on another hard copy reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

 - (b) for funds other than money—the component fund is taken to have added to the investment common fund an amount equivalent to the value attributed by the university to the added funds at the time the funds were added.
- (2) If a component fund stops forming part of an investment common fund, the amount to be withdrawn from the investment common fund is an amount equivalent to the value attributed by the university to the equity in the investment common fund of the component fund at the time of the withdrawal.

11 Trust funds

- (1) The inclusion of trust funds in an investment common fund does not affect a trust to which the trust funds, or amounts attributed to the trust funds, are subject.
