Information about this reprint

This Act is reprinted as at 1 July 2009. The reprint shows the law as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before that day (Reprints Act 1992 s 5(c)).

The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Public Sector Ethics Act 1994

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 July 2009]

An Act about public sector ethics and conduct, and to provide for an integrity commissioner

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Public Sector Ethics Act 1994.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in the schedule defines particular words used in this Act.

3 Act binds all persons

This Act binds all persons, including the State.

Part 2 Ethics principles for public officials

4 Declaration of ethics principles

- (1) The ethics principles mentioned in subsection (2) are declared to be fundamental to good public administration.
- (2) The ethics principles for public officials are—

[s 5]

- respect for the law and the system of government
- respect for persons
- integrity
- diligence
- economy and efficiency.

Part 3 Ethics obligations for public officials

Division 1 Nature, purpose and application of ethics obligations

5 Nature and purpose of obligations

- (1) In recognition of the ethics principles, ethics obligations are to apply to public officials.
- (2) The obligations mentioned in division 2 are the ethics obligations for public officials.
- (3) The ethics obligations are intended to provide the basis for codes of conduct for public officials and are not of themselves legally enforceable.

6 Application of obligations

The ethics obligations apply to all public officials.

Division 2 The obligations

7 Respect for the law and system of government

- (1) A public official should—

- (a) uphold the laws of the State and Commonwealth; and
 - (b) carry out official public sector decisions and policies faithfully and impartially.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) does not detract from a public official's duty to act independently of government if the official's independence is required by legislation or government policy, or is a customary feature of the official's work.

8 Respect for persons

- (1) A public official should treat members of the public and other public officials—
- (a) honestly and fairly; and
 - (b) with proper regard for their rights and obligations.
- (2) A public official should act responsively in performing official duties.

9 Integrity

- (1) In recognition that public office involves a public trust, a public official should seek—
- (a) to maintain and enhance public confidence in the integrity of public administration; and
 - (b) to advance the common good of the community the official serves.
- (2) Having regard to the obligation mentioned in subsection (1), a public official—
- (a) should not improperly use his or her official powers or position, or allow them to be improperly used; and
 - (b) should ensure that any conflict that may arise between the official's personal interests and official duties is resolved in favour of the public interest; and
 - (c) should disclose fraud, corruption and maladministration of which the official becomes aware.

[s 10]

10 Diligence

In performing his or her official duties, a public official should—

- (a) exercise proper diligence, care and attention; and
- (b) seek to achieve high standards of public administration.

11 Economy and efficiency

In performing his or her official duties, a public official should ensure that public resources are not wasted, abused, or used improperly or extravagantly.

Part 4 Codes of conduct for public officials

Division 1 Codes of conduct

12 Nature and purpose of codes

- (1) In recognition of the ethics obligations for public officials, codes of conduct are to apply to public officials in performing their official functions.
- (2) The purpose of a code of conduct is to provide standards of conduct for public officials consistent with the ethics obligations.

13 Application of codes

- (1) A code of conduct must relate to a particular public sector entity, and applies to all public officials of the entity.
- (2) However, a code of conduct may make different provision, consistent with the ethics obligations, for different types of public officials.

14 Contents of codes

- (1) A code of conduct for a public sector entity may contain anything the responsible authority for the entity considers necessary or useful for achieving the purpose of a code of conduct.
- (2) In particular, a code may provide obligations public officials must comply with.
- (3) A code also may contain—
 - (a) information explaining the purpose of—
 - (i) the ethics obligations generally or a particular ethics obligation; or
 - (ii) the conduct obligations generally or a particular conduct obligation; and
 - (b) information explaining the object intended to be achieved by the application of—
 - (i) the ethics obligations generally or a particular ethics obligation; or
 - (ii) the conduct obligations generally or a particular conduct obligation; and
 - (c) guidelines about the application of an ethics or conduct obligation; and
 - (d) examples of the operation of an ethics or conduct obligation; and
 - (e) explanatory notes about an ethics or conduct obligation; and
 - (f) references to Acts applying to public officials in performing their official functions.

[s 15]

Division 2 Preparation and approval of codes of conduct

15 Preparation of codes of conduct

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that a code of conduct is prepared for the entity.

16 Consultations in preparation of codes

- (1) This section applies to the preparation of a code of conduct for a public sector entity.
- (2) The public sector entity's chief executive officer must ensure that consultation about the code takes place, or reasonable steps are taken to consult about the code, with—
 - (a) the public officials to whom the code is to apply; and
 - (b) industrial organisations representing the interests of any of the officials; and
 - (c) other appropriate entities representing the interests of any of the officials.

17 Approval of codes

- (1) The responsible authority for a public sector entity may approve a code of conduct prepared by the entity's chief executive officer.
- (2) The responsible authority may approve the code of conduct only if it is accompanied by a written statement by the chief executive officer outlining—
 - (a) the nature and extent of the consultations that took place during the preparation of the code; and
 - (b) the outcome of the consultations.
- (3) In deciding whether to approve the code of conduct, the responsible authority must have regard to the statement.

Division 3 Public officials to comply with codes

18 Compliance with codes

A public official of a public sector entity must comply with the conduct obligations stated in the entity's code of conduct that apply to the official.

Part 5 Additional responsibilities of chief executive officers

19 Access to ethics principles and obligations and codes of conduct

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that each public official of the entity has reasonable access to a copy of the ethics principles and obligations for public officials and the conduct obligations stated in the entity's code of conduct that apply to the official.

20 Inspection of codes of conduct

- (1) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must keep available for inspection by any person an appropriate number of copies of the entity's approved code of conduct.
- (2) In particular, the chief executive officer must permit any person—
 - (a) to inspect the code of conduct without fee; and
 - (b) to take extracts from the code without fee; and
 - (c) to obtain a copy of the code, or any part of the code, on payment of the fee prescribed by regulation.

[s 21]

- (3) The chief executive officer also must keep available copies of the code for purchase by any person, at a price prescribed by regulation.
- (4) The copies must be available during office hours on business days at—
 - (a) the entity's head office; and
 - (b) each regional office (if any) of the entity; and
 - (c) any other places the chief executive officer considers appropriate.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a reference in this section to a person includes a reference to a member of the public.

21 Education and training

- (1) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that public officials of the entity are given appropriate education and training about public sector ethics.
- (2) In particular, the education and training must relate to—
 - (a) the operation of this Act; and
 - (b) the application of ethics principles and obligations to the public officials; and
 - (c) the contents of the entity's approved code of conduct; and
 - (d) the rights and obligations of the officials in relation to contraventions of the approved code of conduct.

22 Procedures and practices of public sector entities

The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure that the administrative procedures and management practices of the entity have proper regard to—

[s 25]

Editor's note—

Public Service Act 1996—now see the Public Service Act 2008, section 249.

- (b) if the official is a local government employee—the local government legislation applying to the local government; or
- (c) if the official is not a public service officer or a local government employee but there are disciplinary processes applying to the official—the disciplinary processes; or
- (d) if there are no disciplinary processes applying to the official—the regulations.

Part 7 Integrity commissioner

Division 1 Purpose of part

25 Purpose of pt 7

The purpose of this part is to help Ministers and others to avoid conflicts of interest and in so doing to encourage confidence in public institutions.

Division 2 Integrity commissioner

26 Integrity commissioner

There is to be a Queensland Integrity Commissioner.

Division 3 Designated persons

27 Who are designated persons

- (1) Each of the following persons is a designated person—
- (a) the Premier;
 - (b) a Minister;
 - (c) a Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (d) a government member;
 - (e) a statutory office holder;
 - (f) a chief executive officer of a department of government or a public service office;
 - (g) a senior executive officer or senior officer employed in a department of government or public service office;
 - (h) a chief executive officer of a government entity or a senior executive equivalent employed in a government entity who is nominated by the Minister responsible for administering the entity;
 - (i) a person employed in the office of a Minister, or engaged, to give advice to the Minister;
 - (j) a person employed in the office of a Parliamentary Secretary, or engaged, to give advice to the Parliamentary Secretary;
 - (k) without limiting paragraph (i) or (j), a person, or a person within a class of person, nominated by a Minister or Parliamentary Secretary.
- (2) A nomination under subsection (1)(h) or (k) must be by signed notice given to the integrity commissioner.

[s 28]

Division 4 Functions of integrity commissioner

28 Functions of integrity commissioner

- (1) The integrity commissioner has the following functions—
 - (a) to give advice to designated persons about conflict of interest issues as provided under division 5;
 - (b) to give advice to the Premier, if the Premier asks, on issues concerning ethics and integrity, including standard-setting for issues concerning ethics and integrity;
 - (c) to contribute to public understanding of public integrity standards by contributing to public discussion of policy and practice relevant to the integrity commissioner's functions.
- (2) For subsection (1)(b), advice on an issue about a person may only be given if the person is or has been a designated person.

Division 5 Advice

29 Request for advice by designated persons

- (1) The integrity commissioner may give advice about a conflict of interest issue only if—
 - (a) the person seeking the advice is a designated person; and
 - (b) the person makes a written request for the advice and, if the person is a senior officer, the request is accompanied by a signed authority to seek the advice from the chief executive officer of the department, public service office or government entity in which the person is employed.
- (2) In this section—

senior officer includes a senior executive officer and senior executive equivalent.

30 Designated persons about whom advice may be sought

- (1) A designated person may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving the person.
- (2) The Premier may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving any designated person.
- (3) A Minister may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving a designated person who is—
 - (a) a statutory office holder whose office is established under an Act administered by the Minister; or
 - (b) the chief executive of a department administered by the Minister or a senior executive officer or senior officer employed in the department; or
 - (c) a chief executive officer of a government entity or a senior executive equivalent employed in the entity nominated by the Minister under section 27(1)(h); or
 - (d) mentioned in section 27(1)(i); or
 - (e) nominated by the Minister under section 27(1)(k).
- (4) A Parliamentary Secretary may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving a designated person who is—
 - (a) mentioned in section 27(1)(j); or
 - (b) nominated by the Parliamentary Secretary under section 27(1)(k).
- (5) The chief executive officer of a department or public service office may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving a designated person employed in the department or office.
- (6) The chief executive officer of a government entity who is nominated by the Minister under section 27(1)(h) may seek advice about a conflict of interest issue involving a senior executive equivalent who is—

[s 31]

- (a) nominated by the Minister under section 27(1)(h); and
 - (b) employed in the entity managed by the chief executive officer.
- (7) To remove any doubt, it is declared that advice must not be sought by or about a person who has been, but is not presently, a designated person.

31 Process for seeking advice

- (1) A request for advice under section 30 must disclose all relevant information about the conflict of interest issue for which the advice is sought.
- (2) The integrity commissioner may ask the designated person for further information for the purpose of giving the advice.
- (3) The integrity commissioner may refuse to give the advice if the integrity commissioner reasonably believes that—
 - (a) he or she does not have enough information about the conflict of interest issue to give the advice; or
 - (b) the advice is asked for in circumstances where the giving of the advice would not be in keeping with the purpose of this part.
- (4) Advice given under this division must be in writing.
- (5) If the integrity commissioner refuses to give advice under subsection (3), the integrity commissioner must record in writing the integrity commissioner's reasons for refusing to give the advice.

32 Issues to which integrity commissioner must or may have regard when giving advice

The integrity commissioner when giving advice about a conflict of interest issue to a designated person—

- (a) must have regard to the following—
 - (i) approved codes of conduct;

- (ii) ethical standards or codes of conduct adopted by the Legislative Assembly by resolution;
 - (iii) ethical standards or codes of conduct approved by the Premier for Ministers; and
- (b) may have regard to other ethical standards the integrity commissioner considers appropriate.

Division 6 Confidentiality and protection

33 Secrecy

- (1) A person must not record, use or disclose information about a relevant issue about another person that came to the person's knowledge because of the person's involvement in the administration of this part.

Maximum penalty—85 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person's recording, use or disclosure of information if the recording, use or disclosure is—
- (a) in the performance of his or her functions under this part; or
 - (b) authorised under this or another Act.
- (3) A person who is or has been involved in the administration of this part is not, in any proceeding, compellable to disclose information about a relevant issue about another person that came to the person's knowledge because of the person's involvement in the administration of this part.
- (4) In this section—
- relevant issue* means—
- (a) an ethics or integrity issue; or
 - (b) a conflict of interest issue.

[s 33B]

33B Authorisation of particular disclosures—ethics or integrity issue

- (1) A relevant document about an ethics or integrity issue may be disclosed under subsections (2) and (3).
- (2) A person who is or has been a designated person to whom a relevant document relates may disclose the document.
- (3) The integrity commissioner may disclose a relevant document to the person who is or has been the designated person to whom the relevant document relates.
- (4) In this section—

designated person to whom a relevant document relates means the designated person involved in an ethics or integrity issue and to whom the relevant document relates.

relevant document, for an ethics or integrity issue, means a document received or brought into existence by the integrity commissioner in relation to advice sought under section 28(1)(b).

34 Authorisation of particular disclosures—conflict of interest issue

- (1) A relevant document about a conflict of interest issue may be disclosed under subsections (2) to (7).
- (2) A person who is or has been a designated person to whom a relevant document relates may disclose the document.
- (3) The integrity commissioner may disclose a relevant document to the person who is or has been the designated person to whom the relevant document relates.
- (4) The integrity commissioner must give a copy of a relevant document relating to a particular designated person, other than a senior executive officer, senior officer or senior executive equivalent—
 - (a) to the Premier, if—
 - (i) the Premier asks for a copy of the document; or

- (ii) the integrity commissioner reasonably believes that the person has an actual and significant conflict of interest; or
 - (b) to a Minister, if the Minister asks for a copy of the document and the person is a person about whom the Minister may seek advice under section 30(3); or
 - (c) to a Parliamentary Secretary, if the Parliamentary Secretary asks for a copy of the document and the person is a person about whom the Parliamentary Secretary may seek advice under section 30(4).
- (5) The integrity commissioner may give a copy of a relevant document to the Premier under subsection (4)(a)(ii) only if—
- (a) the integrity commissioner advises the designated person in writing that the commissioner has the belief mentioned in the provision and is therefore required under subsection (4)(a) to give a copy of the document to the Premier; and
 - (b) the designated person fails to resolve the conflict to the integrity commissioner's satisfaction within 7 days after being given the advice mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (6) The integrity commissioner must give a copy of a relevant document relating to a particular designated person to the chief executive officer of a department or public service office if—
- (a) the chief executive officer asks for a copy of the document; and
 - (b) the person is a person about whom the chief executive officer may seek advice under section 30(5).
- (7) The integrity commissioner must give a copy of a relevant document relating to a particular designated person to the chief executive officer of a government entity who is nominated by the Minister under section 27(1)(h) if—
- (a) the chief executive officer asks for a copy of the document; and

[s 35]

- (b) the person is a person about whom the chief executive officer may seek advice under section 30(6).
- (8) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the integrity commissioner must not disclose a relevant document relating to a person who has been, but is not presently, a designated person, other than under subsection (3).

- (9) In this section—

designated person to whom a relevant document relates means the designated person involved in a conflict of interest issue and to whom the relevant document relates.

relevant document, for a conflict of interest issue, means each of the following documents—

- (a) the request for advice;
- (b) any further information requested by the integrity commissioner under section 31(2) and given to the integrity commissioner;
- (c) the advice given by the integrity commissioner about the issue;
- (d) the record, under section 31(5), of the integrity commissioner's refusal to give the advice.

35 Limited protection to designated persons

- (1) This section applies if a designated person—
 - (a) asks under this part for the integrity commissioner's advice about a conflict of interest issue involving the designated person; and
 - (b) discloses all relevant information about the issue to the integrity commissioner when seeking the advice; and
 - (c) does an act to resolve the conflict substantially in accordance with the integrity commissioner's advice on the issue.

- (2) The designated person is not liable in a civil proceeding or under an administrative process for the act taken by the person to resolve the conflict.
 - (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that subsection (2) does not affect the designated person's liability for an act or omission done or made in connection with the conflict of interest issue before the person receives the integrity commissioner's advice.

36 Protection for integrity commissioner

- (1) The integrity commissioner is not liable in a civil proceeding or under an administrative process for an act or omission done or made by the integrity commissioner acting in good faith, and without negligence, for the purposes of this part.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a civil liability attaching to the integrity commissioner, the liability attaches instead to the State.

Division 7 General

37 General provisions about integrity commissioner's appointment

- (1) The integrity commissioner is to be appointed by the Governor in Council.
- (2) A person is qualified for appointment as the integrity commissioner if the person has knowledge, experience, personal qualities and standing within the community suitable to the office.
- (3) Subject to sections 40 and 41, the integrity commissioner holds office for the term, not longer than 5 years, stated in the instrument of appointment.
- (4) The integrity commissioner is to be appointed under this Act, and not under the Public Service Act 1996.

[s 38]

Editor's note—

Public Service Act 1996—now see the Public Service Act 2008, section 249.

38 Terms of appointment

- (1) The integrity commissioner is to be paid the remuneration and allowances decided by the Governor in Council.
- (2) The integrity commissioner holds office on the terms decided by the Governor in Council, to the extent the terms are not otherwise provided for by this Act.

39 Leave of absence

The Minister may grant leave of absence to the integrity commissioner on the terms the Minister considers appropriate.

40 Resignation

The integrity commissioner may resign by signed notice given to the Minister.

41 Termination of appointment

The Governor in Council may terminate the appointment of the integrity commissioner if the integrity commissioner—

- (a) can not satisfactorily perform the integrity commissioner's duties; or
- (b) is convicted of an indictable offence; or
- (c) is guilty of misconduct of a kind that could warrant dismissal from the public service if the integrity commissioner were a public service officer; or
- (d) is absent, without the Minister's leave and without reasonable excuse, for 14 consecutive days or 28 days in any year.

42 Acting integrity commissioner

The Governor in Council may appoint a person to act as integrity commissioner—

- (a) during a vacancy in the office; or
- (b) during any period, or during all periods, when the integrity commissioner is absent from duty or from the State or, for another reason, can not perform the duties of the office.

43 Report to Premier

- (1) The integrity commissioner must, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, give the Premier a written report about the performance of the commissioner's functions for the financial year.
- (2) The report must be in general terms and must not contain information likely to identify individuals who sought the commissioner's advice about a conflict of interest issue.

Part 8 Miscellaneous

44 Regulation-making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
