Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

Part 2 Jurisdiction

4 Jurisdiction of Magistrates Courts

Subject to this Act—

- (a) every personal action in which the amount claimed is not more than $50000, whether on a balance of account or after an admitted set off or otherwise; and

[s 4A]

- (b) every action brought to recover a sum of not more than $50000, which is the whole or part of the unliquidated balance of a partnership account, or the amount or part of the amount of the distributive share under an intestacy or of a legacy under a will; and
- (c) every action in which a person has an equitable claim or demand against another person in respect of which the only relief sought is the recovery of a sum of money or of damages, whether liquidated or unliquidated, and the amount claimed is not more than $50000;

may be commenced in a Magistrates Court, and all Magistrates Courts shall within their respective districts have power and authority to hear and determine in a summary way all such actions.

4A Consent jurisdiction

- (1) If the parties to a proceeding in relation to an amount for which the Supreme Court or District Court has jurisdiction agree that a Magistrates Court may have jurisdiction in relation to the amount, the Magistrates Court has jurisdiction for the proceeding.
- (2) The agreement must—
 - (a) be written; and
 - (b) be signed by each of the parties or their lawyers; and
 - (c) include a statement that the parties know that the proceeding is not otherwise within the jurisdiction of a Magistrates Court; and
 - (d) be filed in accordance with the rules.

5 Abandonment of excess etc.

A Magistrates Court shall have jurisdiction in a personal action if the original claim is reduced to $50000, or less, by payment, abandonment of excess, or otherwise, or by deducting any sum for which the plaintiff gives the defendant credit upon the plaint being entered.

5A Proceeding started in wrong court

- (1) This section applies if a Magistrates Court considers the court does not have jurisdiction to hear and decide a proceeding started in the court.
- (2) If the Magistrates Court considers the District Court has jurisdiction to hear the proceeding, the Magistrates Court may, by order, transfer the proceeding to the District Court.
- (3) If subsection (2) does not apply and the Magistrates Court considers the Supreme Court has jurisdiction to hear the proceeding, the Magistrates Court may, by order, transfer the proceeding to the Supreme Court.
- (4) If the Magistrates Court considers that the party who started the proceeding knew, or should have known, that the court did not have jurisdiction to hear the proceeding, the court may strike out the proceeding and order the party who started the proceeding to pay the costs of the other party to the proceeding.
- (5) If the Magistrates Court does not have jurisdiction and the matter may not be transferred under subsection (2) or (3) or struck out under subsection (4), the court—
 - (a) must strike out the proceeding; and
 - (b) may order the party who started the proceeding to pay the costs of the other party to the proceeding.
- (6) In this section—

proceeding includes appeal.

6 Splitting debt by giving bills etc.

If a defendant has given 2 or more bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, or other securities, for a debt or sum originally exceeding $50000, the plaintiff may sue separately upon each of the securities not exceeding $50000 as forming a distinct cause of action.

[s 7]

7 Title to land etc.

- (1) Except as by this Act provided, a Magistrates Court shall not have jurisdiction to try any case in which the title to land, or the validity of a devise, bequest, or limitation under a will or settlement, is in question.
- (2) If the title to land incidentally comes in question in an action, the court shall have power to decide the claim which it is the immediate object of the action to enforce, but the judgment of the court shall not be evidence of title between the parties or their privies in another action in that court or in any proceedings in any other court.

8 Infants

Any person under the age of 18 years to whom any wages or any other sum whatsoever, whether liquidated or unliquidated, not exceeding the amount in respect of which a Magistrates Court has jurisdiction, is due may sue for and recover such sum in the court in the same manner as if the person were of full age.

9 Executors etc.

- (1) Executors and administrators may sue and are liable to be sued in a Magistrates Court.
- (2) A judgment obtained by a plaintiff but not satisfied previous to the plaintiff's death and also all causes of action shall survive to the plaintiff's personal representative, who may sue out execution in his or her own name in the same way that the plaintiff, if living, might have done.

Corporations and joint stock companies which have an office or place of business at which they carry on business in Queensland shall be amenable to the jurisdiction of Magistrates Courts.

- (2) The entry of the judgment on the cause list of a Magistrates Court shall be deemed to be a record of such judgment.

15 In what Magistrates Courts actions to be brought

The districts and Magistrates Courts respectively in which proceedings may be brought and heard and determined shall be as prescribed by rules of court.

16 Constitution of Magistrates Courts

Every action within the jurisdiction of a Magistrates Court for hearing and determination shall be heard and determined by a magistrate sitting alone provided that, where the rules permit, an action may be heard and determined by a registrar, not being a police officer, who shall, subject to and in accordance with the rules, have the jurisdiction and powers a magistrate has for the purpose.

[s 17]

17 Officers of Magistrates Court

- (1) A Magistrates Court shall from time to time appoint a bailiff or bailiffs for the service and execution of the process, judgments, and orders authorised by this Act.
- (2) Such bailiff or bailiffs shall receive to their own use the prescribed fees.
- (3) A bailiff may appoint an appropriate person in writing to assist the bailiff.
- (4) The bailiff is responsible for the civil acts and defaults of the assistant in the discharge or purported discharge of the assistant's duties as assistant.

Part 4 Practice and procedure

18 Appearance to be in person or by lawyer, or other person allowed by the court

- (1) Subject to the rules and the orders of the court for the orderly transaction of business, a party to an action or a lawyer retained by or on behalf of any party, or any person allowed by special leave of the court, may appear to address a Magistrates Court and examine and cross-examine the witnesses.
- (2) But a person not being a lawyer is not entitled to receive or recover or receive, directly or indirectly, a sum of money or other remuneration for appearing or acting on behalf of another person in the court.

19 Laws of evidence

The laws of evidence that apply in the Supreme Court apply in the trial of all questions of fact in the court.

20 Evidence

- (1) In any legal proceedings whatsoever the books of a Magistrates Court and any entries therein, or copies of the said books or entries, under the seal of the court and purporting to be signed and certified by the registrar, shall, upon production and on proof of the identity of the parties concerned, be evidence of the contents of the books or of the judgments or other entries, and of the proceedings referred to in them, and of the regularity of the proceedings.
- (2) All process of a Magistrates Court purporting to be sealed shall be received in evidence without further proof thereof.

Part 5 ADR processes

Division 1 Preliminary

21 Objects of part

The objects of this part are—

- (a) to provide an opportunity for litigants to participate in ADR processes in order to achieve negotiated settlements and satisfactory resolutions of disputes; and
- (b) to introduce ADR processes into the court system to improve access to justice for litigants and to reduce cost and delay; and
- (c) to provide a legislative framework allowing ADR processes to be conducted as quickly, and with as little formality and technicality, as possible; and

[s 21A]

- (d) to safeguard ADR processes—
 - (i) by ensuring they remain confidential; and
 - (ii) by extending the same protection to participants in an ADR process they would have if the dispute were before a Magistrates Court.

21A Application of pt 5

This part does not apply to a dispute that is the subject of an employment claim.

Division 2 Important terms

22 ADR process

- (1) An ADR process is a process of mediation or case appraisal under which the parties are helped to achieve an early, inexpensive settlement or resolution of their dispute.
- (2) In division 6, an ADR process includes all the steps involved in an ADR process, including, for example—
 - (a) pre-mediation and post-mediation sessions; and
 - (b) a case appraisal session; and
 - (c) joint sessions; and
 - (d) private sessions; and
 - (e) another step prescribed under the rules.

23 Mediation

Mediation is a process under the rules under which the parties use a mediator to help them resolve their dispute by negotiated agreement without adjudication.

24 Case appraisal

- (1) Case appraisal is a process under the rules under which a case appraiser provisionally decides a dispute.
- (2) A case appraiser's decision is not binding on the parties until—
 - (a) the time prescribed by the rules for filing an election to go to trial has passed; and
 - (b) a Magistrates Court, by order, gives effect to the decision.

Division 3 Establishment of ADR processes

25 Approval of mediators

The Chief Magistrate may approve, or refuse to approve, a person as a mediator.

26 Approval of case appraisers

The Chief Magistrate may approve, or refuse to approve, a person as a case appraiser.

27 ADR register

- (1) The registrar of a Magistrates Court in Brisbane nominated by the Chief Magistrate for the purpose must keep a register of information about ADR processes.
- (2) The register may be kept in the form (whether or not in a documentary form) the registrar considers appropriate.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2), the registrar may change the form in which a register or a part of a register is kept.
- (4) The register must contain—
 - (a) the name and address of each mediator and each case appraiser (other than a magistrate); and

[s 28]

- (b) other information prescribed under the rules; and
 - (c) other information decided by the Chief Magistrate.
- (5) However, subsection (4) does not require the registrar to enter in the register the name and address of, and the other information about, a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990.

28 Parties may agree to ADR process

- (1) The parties to a dispute may agree to refer their dispute to an ADR process.
- (2) If the parties agree to the referral, they must file a consent order in the form prescribed under the rules with the registrar.
- (3) A consent order filed under this section is taken to be a referring order.

29 Court may consider and order reference to ADR process

- (1) A Magistrates Court may require the parties or their representatives to attend before it to enable the court to decide whether the parties' dispute should be referred to an ADR process.
- (2) This section also applies if—
 - (a) a party applies to a Magistrates Court for an order referring a dispute to an ADR process; or
 - (b) the parties are otherwise before a Magistrates Court.
- (3) The court may, by order (referring order), refer the dispute for mediation or case appraisal.
- (4) Without limiting the court's discretion, the court may take the following matters into account when deciding whether to refer a dispute to case appraisal—
 - (a) whether the costs of litigating the dispute to the end are likely to be disproportionate to the benefit gained;

- (b) the likelihood of an appraisal producing a compromise or an abandonment of a claim or defence;
 - (c) other circumstances justify an appraisal.
- (5) If the court decides to refer the dispute to a mediator under the Dispute Resolution Centres Act 1990, it is sufficient if the order appoints the director of a specified dispute resolution centre as mediator.

30 Parties must attend at ADR process if Magistrates Court orders

- (1) If a referring order is made, the parties—
 - (a) must attend before the ADR convenor appointed to conduct the ADR process; and
 - (b) must not impede the ADR convenor in conducting and finishing the ADR process within the time allowed under the referring order.
- (2) If a party impedes the ADR process, a Magistrates Court may impose sanctions against the party, including, for example—
 - (a) by ordering that any claim for relief by the defaulting party is stayed until further order; and
 - (b) by taking the party's action into account when awarding costs in the proceeding or in another related proceeding between the parties.

31 Procedure at case appraisal

- (1) At a case appraisal, the case appraiser—
 - (a) must decide the procedure to be used at the case appraisal; and
 - (b) may adopt any procedure that will, in the case appraiser's opinion, enable a sound opinion of the likely outcome of the dispute to be reached; and
 - (c) must finish the case appraisal as quickly as possible.

[s 32]

- (2) However, the case appraiser may, in special circumstances—
 - (a) receive evidence; and
 - (b) examine witnesses, and administer oaths to witnesses, who have been lawfully called before the case appraiser.
- (3) A Magistrates Court may, at any time, give directions about procedure to be used at the case appraisal.
- (4) This section is subject to section 32.

32 Subpoenas

- (1) A person may be subpoenaed to appear at a case appraisal only by order of a Magistrates Court.
- (2) A person may not be subpoenaed to appear at a mediation.
- (3) A person subpoenaed to appear at a case appraisal must not be compelled to answer a question, or produce a document, the person could not be compelled to answer or produce before a Magistrates Court.

Division 4 Party unable to pay share of costs

33 Party unable to pay share of costs

- (1) If, at any time, a Magistrates Court is of the opinion a party to an ADR process is unable, because of the party's financial circumstances, to pay the party's percentage of the ADR costs, the court may make an order appropriate in the circumstances.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the order may provide—
 - (a) the reference to the ADR process be cancelled; or
 - (b) the referring order be revoked and another referring order made.

Division 5 What to do when ADR process is finished

34 Mediated resolution agreement

- (1) If, at a mediation, the parties agree on a resolution of their dispute or part of it, the agreement must be written down and signed by or for each party and by the mediator.
- (2) The agreement has the same effect as any other compromise.

35 Mediator to file certificate

As soon as practicable after a mediation has finished, the mediator must file with the registrar of the referring court a certificate about the mediation in the form prescribed under the rules.

36 Case appraiser to file certificate and decision

As soon as practicable after a case appraisal has finished, the case appraiser must file with the registrar of the referring court—

- (a) a certificate about the case appraisal in the form prescribed under the rules; and
- (b) the case appraiser's decision (if any).

37 Orders giving effect to mediation agreement

- (1) A party may apply to a Magistrates Court for an order giving effect to an agreement reached after mediation.
- (2) However, a party may apply for the order only after the mediator's certificate is filed with the registrar of the referring court.
- (3) The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

[s 38]

38 Orders giving effect to case appraiser's decision

- (1) A party may apply to a Magistrates Court for an order giving effect to a case appraiser's decision after the time prescribed under the rules for electing to go to trial has passed.
- (2) However, a party may apply for the order before the time mentioned in subsection (1) if all parties agree.
- (3) The court may make any order it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

Division 6 Confidentiality, protection and immunity

39 ADR convenors to maintain secrecy

- (1) An ADR convenor must not, without reasonable excuse, disclose information coming to the convenor's knowledge during an ADR process.

Maximum penalty—50 penalty units.

- (2) It is a reasonable excuse to disclose information if the disclosure is made—
 - (a) with the agreement of all the parties to the ADR process; or
 - (b) for this part; or
 - (c) for statistical purposes without revealing, or being likely to reveal, the identity of a person about whom the information relates; or
 - (d) for an inquiry or proceeding about an offence happening during the ADR process; or
 - (e) for a proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process; or
 - (f) under a requirement imposed under an Act.

40 Ordinary protection and immunity allowed

- (1) In performing the functions of mediator or case appraiser, an ADR convenor has the same protection and immunity as a magistrate performing the functions of a magistrate.
- (2) A party appearing in an ADR dispute has the same protection and immunity the party would have if the dispute were being heard before a Magistrates Court.
- (3) A witness attending in an ADR dispute has the same protection and immunity as a witness attending before a Magistrates Court.
- (4) A document produced at, or used for, an ADR dispute has the same protection during the ADR dispute it would have if produced before a Magistrates Court.
- (5) In subsection (2)—
party includes a party's lawyer or agent.

41 Admissions made to ADR convenors

- (1) Evidence of anything done or said, or an admission made, at an ADR process about the dispute is admissible at the trial of the dispute or before another civil proceeding in a Magistrates Court or elsewhere only if all the parties to the dispute agree.
- (2) In subsection (1)—
civil proceeding does not include a civil proceeding founded on fraud alleged to be connected with, or to have happened during, the ADR process.

Division 7 Miscellaneous

42 Revocation of approval as mediator or case appraiser

- (1) The Chief Magistrate may revoke the approval of a person as a mediator or case appraiser.

[s 42A]

- (2) The Chief Magistrate must give the person a statement of reasons for the revocation.

Part 5A Processes for employment claims

Division 1 Preliminary

42A Object of pt 5A

- (1) The object of this part is to reduce the cost of proceedings brought in a Magistrates Court by low income employees against employers for breaches of contracts of employment.
- (2) The object is achieved by—
 - (a) prescribing, under section 54, lower court fees for the proceedings; and
 - (b) providing for awards of costs in limited circumstances; and
 - (c) allowing parties to be represented, without leave, by relevant organisations; and
 - (d) providing for compulsory conciliation before the hearing of the proceedings.

42B Application of pt 5A

- (1) This part applies to a claim (an employment claim)—
 - (a) made in a proceeding started under this part by a person—
 - (i) who is or was an employee of an employer; and

- (ii) whose annual wages at the time the breach of contract mentioned in paragraph (b) happened are not more than—
 - (A) if a regulation states an amount, or provides a way for working out an amount, for this subparagraph—that amount; or
 - (B) otherwise—$98200; and
 - (b) arising out of a breach of a contract of employment between the employee and employer.
 - (2) However, a claim is not an employment claim if the cause of action to which the claim relates is within the jurisdiction of the industrial relations commission.
 - (3) Subsection (4) applies if a person making an employment claim also makes a claim for relief or the imposition of a penalty under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cwlth) in relation to the same employer.
 - (4) This part applies to the person's claim under the Workplace Relations Act 1996 (Cwlth) as if it were an employment claim.

42C Decision of Magistrates Court about whether claim is an employment claim

- (1) In a proceeding started under this part in a Magistrates Court, the court may, on the application of a party to the proceeding, decide whether the claim made in the proceeding is or is not an employment claim.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if—
 - (a) a Magistrates Court decides a claim is not an employment claim because of section 42B(2); and
 - (b) the plaintiff discontinues or withdraws the proceeding in the Magistrates Court; and
 - (c) the plaintiff later starts a proceeding based on the claim in the industrial relations commission.
