The reprint includes a reference to the law by which each amendment was made—see list of legislation and list of annotations in endnotes. Also see list of legislation for any uncommenced amendments.

This page is specific to this reprint. See previous reprints for information about earlier changes made under the Reprints Act 1992. A table of reprints is included in the endnotes.

Also see endnotes for information about—

- when provisions commenced
- editorial changes made in earlier reprints.

Spelling

The spelling of certain words or phrases may be inconsistent in this reprint or with other reprints because of changes made in various editions of the Macquarie Dictionary (for example, in the dictionary, ‘lodgement’ has replaced ‘lodgment’). Variations of spelling will be updated in the next authorised reprint.

Dates shown on reprints

Reprints dated at last amendment All reprints produced on or after 1 July 2002, authorised (that is, hard copy) and unauthorised (that is, electronic), are dated as at the last date of amendment. Previously reprints were dated as at the date of publication. If an authorised reprint is dated earlier than an unauthorised version published before 1 July 2002, it means the legislation was not further amended and the reprint date is the commencement of the last amendment.

If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown for an unauthorised version previously published, it merely means that the unauthorised version was published before the authorised version. Also, any revised edition of the previously published unauthorised version will have the same date as that version.

Replacement reprint date If the date of an authorised reprint is the same as the date shown on another authorised reprint it means that one is the replacement of the other.

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 1 April 2010]

An Act to provide for assistance to service providers providing community services, and the regulation of the community services, and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

Division 1 Introduction

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Community Services Act 2007.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

Division 2 Object and principles

3 Main object of Act

The main object of this Act is to help build sustainable communities by facilitating access by Queenslanders to community services.

4 How main object is mainly achieved

The main object is achieved mainly by—

[s 5]

- (a) the department giving financial and other assistance to service providers providing community services; and
- (b) regulating community services provided with the financial or other assistance to ensure the standard and accountability of the services; and
- (c) providing for compliance with this Act to be monitored and enforced.

5 Guiding principles

This Act is to be administered in a way that has sufficient regard to the following principles—

- (a) a community is sustainable if it is socially, culturally and economically diverse, cohesive, inclusive, active, resilient and adaptable and has access to appropriate services, infrastructure and amenities;
- (b) the availability of sustainable, quality, safe, responsive and accountable community services enhances the quality of life of people living in the community, and contributes to the wellbeing of the community, by enabling people to participate in its social and economic life;
- (c) the provision of community services by service providers delivers significant social and other benefits for individuals, families and communities by building on community strengths, providing flexibility, facilitating innovation and bringing local resources together;
- (d) the department and service providers should work together to meet common aims in a way that recognises each entity's autonomy, contributions and accountabilities;
- (e) the department's support for community services should—

- (i) build capacity and promote best practice in the governance and delivery of community services; and
 - (ii) be integrated, as far as is reasonably practicable, with the provision of other relevant services;
- (f) community services should be provided in a way that—
- (i) responds to the diverse and changing needs of individuals, families and communities; and
 - (ii) has appropriate regard to local and regional differences, cultural diversity, Aboriginal tradition and Island custom and the disadvantage historically experienced by indigenous communities; and
 - (iii) builds partnerships across all levels of government and with communities; and
 - (iv) facilitates choice, maximises participation, encourages self-help and promotes voluntary effort; and
 - (v) respects the rights and responsibilities of individuals, families and communities; and
 - (vi) fosters the dignity and independence of individuals, especially the most vulnerable; and
 - (vii) takes account of individuals, families and communities in greatest need;
- (g) the needs, views, interests and priorities of users of community services, community members, elected and other representatives of the community and service providers, should be taken into account—
- (i) by the department in developing policy and delivering programs and services for community services; and
 - (ii) by service providers in delivering community services.

Editor's note—

Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 36—

Division 1 Preliminary

13 Explanation

This part establishes a system under which the chief executive may approve service providers as being eligible to receive assistance from the department for providing community services.

- (1) An approved service provider may apply to the chief executive for cancellation of its approval as an approved service provider.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form.
- (3) The service provider must also provide any other relevant information reasonably required by the chief executive to decide the application.

19 Decision on application

- (1) The chief executive must decide the application within 45 days after receiving the application and any other required information, and give the service provider notice of the decision.
- (2) The chief executive must, and may only, grant the application if—

- (a) there is no service agreement in force with the approved service provider; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied it is unlikely the chief executive will want to take action to enforce compliance by the service provider with this Act.
- (3) The chief executive may require the service provider to take stated action before the chief executive grants the application including, for example, returning unspent funds to the chief executive.

20 Cancellation of approval without application

- (1) The chief executive may cancel the approval of an approved service provider, even though no application has been made under section 18, if—
- (a) there is no service agreement in force with the service provider; and
 - (b) the chief executive is satisfied it is unlikely either of the following will happen—
 - (i) action will be taken to enforce compliance by the service provider with this Act;
 - (ii) assistance, or further assistance, will be given to the service provider under this Act.
- (2) Before cancelling the approval, the chief executive must give the service provider a notice stating the following—

- (3) The chief executive must consider any written response received from the service provider within the stated time before deciding whether to cancel the approval.

[s 21]

- (4) Immediately after deciding whether or not to cancel the approval, the chief executive must give the service provider notice of the decision.
- (5) The chief executive may cancel the approval of an approved service provider, without complying with subsections (2) to (4), if the service provider agrees.

The chief executive must cancel the approval of an approved service provider if it no longer exists.

Division 4 Notice of changes by approved service provider

22 Approved service provider must give notice of change

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Note—

Under section 129 the chief executive may give notice to an approved service provider requiring it to give information or a document to the chief executive.

Part 4 Assistance to service providers

23 Purpose of giving assistance

The purpose of giving assistance to service providers is to enable them to provide community services in ways that best achieve the object of this Act.

24 When assistance may be given

To achieve the object of this Act the Minister may approve assistance to a service provider for community services in a way the Minister considers appropriate, including, for example the following—

- (a) giving, on appropriate conditions, funding to the service provider;
- (b) leasing or licensing land or improvements to the service provider;

[s 25]

- (c) giving or leasing other property to the service provider;
- (d) making available goods or services through the department;
- (e) making available financial or other incentives to the service provider.

25 Assistance to service providers

- (1) The Minister may approve assistance to a service provider only if the service provider is an approved service provider.
- (2) However, the Minister may approve assistance to a service provider that is not an approved service provider if the Minister is satisfied—
 - (a) there is an urgent need for the assistance; and
 - (b) it is not practicable for the service provider to become an approved service provider before assistance is approved.
- (3) If assistance is approved for a service provider under subsection (2)—
 - (a) the service provider must take action to become an approved service provider as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the assistance; and
 - (b) the assistance must stop 6 months after it is first given if the service provider has not become an approved service provider within that time.
- (4) This section applies subject to section 26.

26 Who may receive approval for one-off funding

Despite section 25, the Minister may approve assistance that is one-off funding for a service provider that is not an approved service provider.

27 No assistance without agreement

- (1) If the Minister approves assistance to a service provider, the chief executive must enter into a written agreement with the service provider (a service agreement) for giving the assistance.
- (2) The chief executive may give the assistance to the service provider only under a service agreement.
- (3) However, the chief executive may give assistance before a service agreement is entered into if the Minister is satisfied—
 - (a) there is an urgent need for the assistance; and
 - (b) it is not practicable to enter into an agreement before assistance is given.
- (4) If subsection (3) applies, the service provider must—
 - (a) before receiving the assistance, agree in writing to enter into a service agreement after receiving the assistance, within a stated time decided by the chief executive; and
 - (b) enter into the service agreement within that time.
- (5) Ongoing assistance must stop if the service provider has not entered into a service agreement within the stated time.

28 What service agreement must contain

- (1) A service agreement must state each of the following the chief executive considers relevant to the assistance—
 - (a) the type of assistance;
 - (b) if the assistance is funding, the amount of the assistance;
 - (c) if the assistance is not funding, details of the assistance given;
 - (d) the period of the agreement and when the assistance is to be given;
 - (e) the type of community services to be provided;
 - (f) the service delivery outcomes to be achieved;

[s 29]

- (g) the performance measures to be used in measuring the service delivery outcomes;
- (h) the policies and procedures to guide service delivery;
- (i) the way the service provider is to report to the chief executive;
- (j) the circumstances in which the service provider is in breach of the agreement;
- (k) the action that may be taken by the chief executive to monitor compliance with the agreement;
- (l) the action that may be taken by the chief executive for a breach, or suspected breach, of the agreement, including a show cause process for suspending or stopping the assistance;

Note—

Part 6, division 2, sets out the show cause process that must be undertaken by the chief executive if a service agreement provides for a show cause process for a breach of the agreement that may lead to the chief executive suspending or stopping assistance under the agreement.

- (m) the department's obligations under the agreement.
- (2) The agreement may also include other matters the chief executive considers necessary for the agreement.

Part 5 Prescribed requirements

29 Prescribed requirements

- (1) A regulation may prescribe requirements about how a funded service provider conducts its operations or provides community services.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), a regulation about how a funded service provider conducts its operations may include matters relating to—

- (a) financial management and accountability; and
 - (b) corporate governance; and
 - (c) organisational and resource management.
- (3) Also, without limiting subsection (1), a regulation about how a funded service provider provides community services may include matters relating to—
- (a) protecting the safety of users of the services; and
 - (b) resolving complaints and disputes.
- (4) A prescribed requirement may include provision about—
- (a) preparing, maintaining, publishing or implementing a policy or procedure; or
 - (b) reporting to the chief executive.

30 Funded service provider must not contravene prescribed requirements

A funded service provider must not contravene a prescribed requirement.

Notes—

- 1 A funded service provider may be given a compliance notice requiring the provider to remedy a contravention of a prescribed requirement. See section 32.
- 2 The extent of a funded service provider's contravention of a prescribed requirement is a matter the Minister may consider when deciding the further assistance, if any, to give to the provider under this Act.
- 3 Contravention of a prescribed requirement may lead to the appointment of an interim manager for a funded service provider. See section 69.
- 4 A funded service provider's contravention of a prescribed requirement is a matter the chief executive may consider when deciding whether to cancel the approval of an approved service provider.

Part 6 Compliance notices and suspending or stopping assistance

Division 1 Compliance notices

31 Cooperative approach

Nothing in this division limits the way in which the department may cooperate with a funded service provider in dealing with a matter in relation to which a power under this division could be exercised.

32 Compliance notice

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive reasonably believes—
 - (a) a funded service provider—
 - (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated; and
 - (b) a matter relating to the contravention is reasonably capable of being remedied; and
 - (c) it is appropriate to give the person an opportunity to remedy the matter.
- (2) This section applies to a funded service provider even if the service provider's assistance has been suspended under the relevant service agreement.
- (3) The chief executive may give the service provider a notice (a compliance notice) requiring the service provider to remedy the matter.
- (4) The compliance notice must state the following—

- (a) that the chief executive reasonably believes the service provider—
- (i) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
 - (ii) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated;
- (b) the provision the chief executive believes is being, or has been, contravened (the relevant provision);
- (c) briefly, how it is believed the relevant provision is being, or has been, contravened;
- (d) the matter relating to the contravention that the chief executive believes is reasonably capable of being remedied;
- (e) that the service provider must remedy the matter within a stated reasonable time;
- (f) that it is an offence to fail to comply with the compliance notice unless the service provider has a reasonable excuse.
- (5) The compliance notice may also state—
- (a) the reasonable steps that the chief executive is satisfied are necessary to remedy the matter, or avoid further contravention, of the relevant provision; and
 - (b) that the service provider must report to the chief executive after taking a step or steps.
- (6) The service provider must comply with the compliance notice unless the service provider has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—

- (a) if it is an offence to contravene the relevant provision—the maximum penalty for contravening that provision; or
- (b) otherwise—
 - (i) for an individual guilty under chapter 2 of the Criminal Code of an offence or for section

123—20 penalty units; or

(ii) for a funded service provider—100 penalty units.

- (7) If it is an offence to contravene the relevant provision and a compliance notice is given, the service provider can not be prosecuted for that offence unless it contravenes subsection (6) in relation to the compliance notice.
- (8) If the service provider contravenes subsection (6), the chief executive may, by notice given to the service provider, suspend or stop assistance to the service provider despite anything in a service agreement with the service provider.
- (9) This section does not limit—
- (a) a remedy available to the chief executive under a service agreement; or
 - (b) the chief executive's powers apart from this section.

33 Report by authorised officer

Before deciding whether to give a funded service provider a compliance notice the chief executive may obtain a written report from an authorised officer about whether the service provider—

- (a) is contravening a provision of this Act; or
- (b) has contravened a provision of this Act in circumstances that make it likely the contravention will continue or be repeated.

Division 2 Suspending or stopping assistance for breach of agreement

34 Show cause notice

- (1) This section applies if—

- (a) a service agreement with a funded service provider provides for a show cause process for a breach of the agreement; and
 - (b) the chief executive reasonably suspects that the service provider has breached the agreement; and
 - (c) the chief executive proposes to take action under the service agreement to suspend or stop assistance.
- (2) The chief executive must give the service provider a notice (a show cause notice) stating the following—
- (a) the action (the proposed action) the chief executive proposes taking under the agreement;
 - (b) the grounds for the proposed action;
 - (c) an outline of the facts and circumstances forming the basis for the grounds;
 - (d) an invitation to the service provider to show within a stated period (the show cause period) why the proposed action should not be taken.
