Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/information.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Division 3                      How disclosure may be made

17            How disclosure to be made

  - (c) the conduct of another person that could, if proved, be a reprisal that relates to a previous disclosure made by the employee to the corporate entity or the Crime and Misconduct Commission.
- (2) The employee may make a disclosure in relation to the information to the corporate entity.
  - (3) Also, if the information is about conduct mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (c), the employee may make a disclosure of the information to the Crime and Misconduct Commission.
  - (4) For subsection (1), an employee has information about the conduct of a person if—
    - (a) the employee honestly believes on reasonable grounds that the information tends to show the conduct; or
    - (b) the information tends to show the conduct, regardless of whether the employee honestly believes the information tends to show the conduct.
  - (5) The employee may make a disclosure under this section in any way, including anonymously.
  - (6) However, for a disclosure to a corporate entity, if the corporate entity has a reasonable procedure for making a public interest disclosure to the corporate entity, the employee must use the procedure.
  - (7) This Act does not affect a procedure required under another Act for disclosing the type of information being disclosed.
  - (8) If a public interest disclosure is properly made to a corporate entity, the corporate entity is taken to have received the disclosure for the purposes of this Act.
  - (9) This section does not affect—

- (a) the making of a public interest disclosure by any person under section 12; or
  - (b) the making of a complaint to the Crime and Misconduct Commission under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001.
- (10) This section does not affect a referral under section 31—
- (a) from a corporate entity to a public sector entity of a public interest disclosure made to the corporate entity under this section; or
  - (b) from a public sector entity to a corporate entity of a public interest disclosure made to the public sector entity under section 15.

19 Disclosure concerning GOC or rail government entity

- (1) This section applies if an employee of a GOC or rail government entity has information about—
- (a) the conduct of another employee of the GOC or rail government entity, that could, if proved, be official misconduct; or
  - (b) the conduct of another person that could, if proved, be a reprisal that relates to a previous disclosure made by the employee to the GOC, rail government entity or the Crime and Misconduct Commission.
- (2) The employee may make a disclosure in relation to the information to the GOC, rail government entity or the Crime and Misconduct Commission.
- (3) For subsection (1), an employee has information about the conduct of a person if—
- (a) the employee honestly believes on reasonable grounds that the information tends to show the conduct; or
  - (b) the information tends to show the conduct, regardless of whether the employee honestly believes the information tends to show the conduct.

- (4) The employee may make a disclosure under this section in any way, including anonymously.
- (5) However, for a disclosure to a GOC or rail government entity, if the GOC or rail government entity has a reasonable procedure for making a public interest disclosure to the GOC or rail government entity, the employee must use the procedure.
- (6) This Act does not affect a procedure required under another Act for disclosing the type of information being disclosed.
- (7) If a public interest disclosure is properly made to a GOC or rail government entity, the GOC or rail government entity is taken to have received the disclosure for the purposes of this Act.
- (8) This section does not affect—
  - (a) the making of a public interest disclosure by any person under section 12; or
  - (b) the making of a complaint to the Crime and Misconduct Commission under the Crime and Misconduct Act 2001.
- (9) This section does not affect a referral under section 31—
  - (a) from a GOC or rail government entity to a public sector entity of a public interest disclosure made to the GOC or rail government entity under this section; or
  - (b) from a public sector entity to a GOC or rail government entity of a public interest disclosure made to the public sector entity under section 15.

- (5) The fact that a court or tribunal is treated as a public sector entity under this Act, and therefore can be a proper authority under section 15(1)(a)(ii) to receive a public interest disclosure, does not give a person a right to take a proceeding before the court or tribunal that the person does not have apart from this Act.

24 Past, present or future event

A person may make a public interest disclosure about—

- (a) events that happened or may have happened, whether before or after the commencement of this Act; or
- (b) events that are or may be happening; or
- (c) events that will or may happen.

25 Number of disclosures not limited

The fact that a person may make a public interest disclosure under a particular provision of this Act does not prevent the person from making the disclosure under another provision of this Act to the same or another proper authority.

Chapter 3 Obligations of entities to whom disclosures may be made

Part 1 Preliminary

26 Definition for ch 3

In this chapter—

[s 27]

- (b) a member of the Legislative Assembly to whom a public interest disclosure may be made.

Part 2 Public sector entities

28 Reasonable procedures to deal with public interest disclosures

- (1) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must establish reasonable procedures to ensure that—
  - (a) public officers of the entity who make public interest disclosures are given appropriate support; and
  - (b) public interest disclosures made to the entity are properly assessed and, when appropriate, properly investigated and dealt with; and
  - (c) appropriate action is taken in relation to any wrongdoing that is the subject of a public interest disclosure made to the entity;
  - (d) a management program for public interest disclosures made to the entity, consistent with any standard made under section 60, is developed and implemented;

- (e) public officers of the entity are offered protection from reprisals by the entity or other public officers of the entity.
  - (2) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity must ensure the procedures are published, as soon as practicable after the procedures are made, on a website that is maintained by the public sector entity and readily accessible to the public.

29 Record of disclosure

- (1) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is made must keep a proper record of the disclosure, including—
  - (a) the name of the person making the disclosure, if known; and
  - (b) the information disclosed; and
  - (c) any action taken on the disclosure; and
  - (d) any other information required under a standard made under section 60.
- (2) The chief executive officer of a public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is referred under section 31 or 34 must keep a proper record of the disclosure, including—
  - (a) the name of the person making the disclosure, if known; and
  - (b) the information disclosed; and
  - (c) the name of the public sector entity, or member of the Legislative Assembly, that referred the disclosure; and
  - (d) any action taken on the disclosure; and
  - (e) any other information required under a standard made under section 60.
- (3) In this section—

public interest disclosure includes a purported public interest disclosure.

[s 30]

public sector entity does not include—

- (a) a court or tribunal; or
- (b) the Executive Council.

30 When no action required

- (1) A public sector entity may decide not to investigate or deal with a public interest disclosure if—
  - (a) the substance of the disclosure has already been investigated or dealt with by another appropriate process; or
  - (b) the entity reasonably considers that the disclosure should be dealt with by another appropriate process; or
  - (c) the age of the information the subject of the disclosure makes it impracticable to investigate; or
  - (d) the entity reasonably considers that the disclosure is too trivial to warrant investigation and that dealing with the disclosure would substantially and unreasonably divert the resources of the entity from their use by the entity in the performance of its functions; or
  - (e) another entity that has jurisdiction to investigate the disclosure has notified the entity that investigation of the disclosure is not warranted.
- (2) If an entity decides not to investigate or deal with a public interest disclosure under subsection (1), the entity must give written reasons for its decision to the person making the disclosure.
- (3) A person who receives written reasons for a decision of an entity under subsection (2) may apply to the chief executive of the entity for a review of the decision within 28 days after receiving the written reasons.

31 Referral of disclosure

- (1) A public sector entity to which a public interest disclosure is made under section 15, or referred under section 34, may refer the disclosure to another public sector entity (the referral entity) if the disclosure is about—
  - (a) the conduct of the referral entity or a public officer of the referral entity; or
  - (b) the conduct of an entity (including itself), or another matter, that the referral entity has the power to investigate or remedy.
- (2) The power of a public sector entity to investigate or remedy conduct that is the subject of a public interest disclosure is not limited by a referral of the disclosure under subsection (1).
- (3) The public sector entity must not refer a public interest disclosure to another public sector entity if it considers there is an unacceptable risk that a reprisal would happen because of the referral.

- (5) A failure to consult under subsection (3) does not affect the validity of the standard.
- (6) A standard is binding on a public sector entity.
- (7) However, if the public sector entity is a GOC, the standard is binding on the GOC only if the GOC’s shareholding Ministers—

- (a) notified the GOC's board, under the Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 114(1), that the standard was to apply to the GOC; and
  - (b) before giving the notification mentioned in paragraph (a), complied with the Government Owned Corporations Act 1993, section 114(3).

- (9) A standard may be amended or replaced by a later standard made under this section.
- (10) A standard may be made only by gazette notice.
