State Buildings Protective Security Act 1983

State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 2008

Current as at 18 October 2013

Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 2008

[as amended by all amendments that commenced on or before 18 October 2013]

1 Short title

This regulation may be cited as the State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 2008.

2 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 2 defines particular words used in this regulation.

3 Declaration of the Queensland Cultural Centre as state buildings—Act, s 4(4)

- (1) For section 4(4) of the Act, the buildings and their precincts located on the land described in schedule 1 are state buildings.
- (2) This section expires on 30 June 2014.

4 Security officers to serve in state buildings as directed

A security officer must serve in any state building in which the manager directs the officer to serve.

5 Standards of physique and physical fitness for security officers—Act, s 9(2)

- (1) The standard of physique and state of physical fitness for protective security officers is a physique suitable, and level of physical fitness appropriate, for performing the functions of a protective security officer.
- (2) The standard of physique and state of physical fitness for senior protective security officers is a physique suitable, and level of physical fitness appropriate, for performing the functions of a senior protective security officer.

6 Uniforms

The uniform for a security officer is the uniform decided for the officer by the administrator.

7 Surrender of uniforms—Act, s 30(1)(c)

For section 30(1)(c) of the Act, a security officer's uniform is a prescribed thing.

8 Hand over of duties

- (1) A security officer (the duty officer) performing the duty officer's functions in a state building must remain on duty in the building until—
 - (a) relieved of duty by another security officer; or
 - (b) authorised by the manager to leave the building.
- (2) However, the duty officer may leave the building if it is necessary for performing the duty officer's functions.

9 Emergency duties

A security officer must take up duty promptly in an emergency, if directed by the manager, unless the security officer has a reasonable excuse.

10 Security officers on duty not to be under the influence of liquor or a drug

- (1) This section applies to a security officer who is on duty.
- (2) The security officer must not be under the influence of liquor or a drug to the extent the security officer is not fit to perform the security officer's functions.

11 Security officers in uniform not to obtain liquor

- (1) A security officer in uniform must not obtain liquor from licensed premises.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the security officer obtains the liquor in a motor vehicle; and
 - (b) the motor vehicle is not a State Government Protective Security Service motor vehicle; and
 - (c) the liquor is in a sealed container; and
 - (d) the security officer leaves the licensed premises immediately after obtaining the liquor.

12 Security officers in uniform not to enter or remain on licensed premises

- (1) A security officer in uniform must not enter licensed premises or remain on licensed premises.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the security officer enters or remains on licensed premises to perform the security officer's functions; or
 - (b) the security officer enters or remains on licensed premises under section 11(2).

13 Repeal

The State Buildings Protective Security Regulation 1998, SL No. 98 is repealed.

4 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3237 0466 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
