Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

 - (ii) it has access to appropriate services and amenities;
- (d) housing services should be provided in a way that responds to the diverse and changing needs of individuals, families and other households;
- (e) the State's provision of housing services should—
 - (i) provide leadership and promote best practice in housing provision and residential development; and
 - (ii) be integrated, as far as is reasonably practicable, with the provision of other government social services;
- (f) individuals being provided with housing under this Act should have access, as far as is reasonably practicable, to an appropriate choice of housing types and tenures;

12 General powers

- (1) The chief executive has, under the Minister and as agent of the State, all the powers of the State that are necessary or desirable for performing the chief executive's functions under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the chief executive may, for example, in performing the chief executive's functions—
- (a) enter into contracts; and
 - (b) acquire, hold, lease, sell and otherwise deal with land and other property; and

- (1) The chief executive may make loans and investments, and pay amounts out of a departmental financial-institution account of the department to make a loan or investment, to achieve the objects of this Act.

- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 87.
 - (3) Subject to other laws, the chief executive may set interest rates for the loans in the way the chief executive considers appropriate.

14 Waiver of amounts owed

- (1) This section applies if a person owes an amount to the chief executive arising out of, or relating to, the chief executive's provision of a housing service.

Examples of amounts that may be owed to the chief executive—

- a rental payment
 - an instalment due under a loan agreement
 - an amount of compensation for damage caused to a rental property
- (2) The chief executive may waive, entirely or partly, payment of the amount if the chief executive is satisfied the waiver is appropriate in all the circumstances.

Example—

The chief executive may waive payment of part of an amount owed by a person on the condition that the person enters into a written agreement about repayment of the rest of the amount.

- (4) In making a decision under this section about waiving payment of an amount owed by a person, the chief executive must have regard to all the relevant circumstances of which the chief executive is aware, including, for example—
 - (a) the size of the amount owed; and
 - (b) why the person owes the amount; and
 - (c) whether payment of the amount would cause the person financial hardship; and
 - (d) the person's likely ability to repay the amount in the future; and

[s 15]

- (e) any special circumstances relevant to whether it would be fair to enforce payment of the amount.

15 Powers not limited

This Act does not limit the chief executive's powers under another Act or law.

Example of a power under another Act—

a power of the State delegated to the chief executive under the Constitution of Queensland 2001, section 55

Part 3 Obligations relating to public housing and other government housing services

Division 1 Giving information to the chief executive

16 Housing service information

- (1) This division applies to information (housing service information) that a person gives to the chief executive for the purpose of a decision by the chief executive about—
 - (a) whether to provide a housing service to the person; or
 - (b) the type of housing service to provide to the person; or
 - (c) the terms on which to provide a housing service to the person.
- (2) Housing service information may include, for example, information given by a person—
 - (a) in an application for a housing service; or

- (b) in compliance with a lease agreement, loan agreement or other agreement with the chief executive about providing a housing service to the person; or
- (c) while a housing service is being provided to the person, in response to a query from the chief executive.

17 False or misleading information

- (1) A person must not give the chief executive housing service information that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Examples—

- 1 A person applies to the chief executive for a loan to buy a house. The application includes false information about the person's financial circumstances.
- 2 A person applies to the chief executive to be provided with rental accommodation. The application is accompanied by a declaration about the person's income, made by the person's employer, that the person knows to be false.
- 3 A person is renting a house from the chief executive. The rental agreement provides that only 4 persons may live in the house. In response to a query from the chief executive, the person gives false information about the number of persons living in the house.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who gives the chief executive a document containing housing service information if the person, when giving the document—
 - (a) tells the chief executive, to the best of the person's ability, how it is false or misleading; and
 - (b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information—gives the correct information.

18 Notice of changes in information

- (1) This section applies only to housing service information prescribed under a regulation.

[s 19]

- (2) Within 28 days after there is a change in housing service information that a person has given to the chief executive, the person must give the chief executive notice of the change, unless the person has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

Division 2 Other matters

19 Unauthorised use or subletting of rental accommodation

- (1) This section applies to a provision of a residential tenancy agreement between the chief executive and a person that—
- (a) the person must use the premises as the person's place of residence; or
 - (b) the person must not sublease the premises; or
 - (c) the person must not use the premises, or allow the premises to be used, for a purpose other than a place of residence; or
 - (d) the person must not allow the premises to be used as the place of residence of—
 - (i) anyone other than the person, the person's family or other stated persons; or
 - (ii) more than a stated number of persons.

- (2) The person must not contravene the provision.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (3) The person does not contravene the provision only by a non-use, sublease or use of the premises under written authority from the chief executive.
- (4) Subsection (2) does not limit another consequence of a contravention of the provision.

Example for subsection (4)—

A person's contravention of a residential tenancy agreement with the chief executive may be an offence against subsection (2) and may also allow the chief executive to take action, as lessor, under the Residential Tenancies and Rooming Accommodation Act 2008.

Part 4 Registered providers

Division 1 Preliminary

20 Explanation

This part establishes a system under which the chief executive may register certain entities, give them assistance with which to provide housing services, and regulate some aspects of their operations.

21 Entities that may be registered

The following entities may be registered under this part—

- (a) nonprofit corporations;
- (b) local governments;
- (c) an entity, or an entity of a type, prescribed under a regulation.

22 Meaning of funded service

- (1) A funded service is a housing service provided by a registered provider using assistance from the chief executive under this part.

Examples of funded services—

- a housing service provided using land transferred or leased to a registered provider under this part
- a housing service provided during the term of an assistance agreement, under which the chief executive makes periodic payments to the registered provider for the stated purpose of enabling the provider to provide the service

[s 23]

- (2) For subsection (1), it does not matter—
- (a) if other resources are also used to provide the service; or
 - (b) for a service that is still being provided using assistance from the chief executive under this part, that the agreement under which the assistance was provided has ended.

Division 2 Assistance

23 Ways of giving assistance

The chief executive may give assistance to a registered provider in a way the chief executive considers appropriate, including, for example—

- (a) making, on appropriate conditions, a monetary grant or series of monetary grants to the provider; or
- (b) making a secured loan to the provider; or
- (c) transferring to the provider land subject to an appropriate security or covenant relating to the use of the land; or
- (d) leasing land to the provider.

24 Purpose of giving assistance

The purpose of giving assistance to a registered provider is to enable it to provide housing services in ways that best achieve the objects of this Act.

25 Assistance agreement

- (1) The chief executive may enter into an agreement with a registered provider (an assistance agreement) for providing assistance to the provider under this part.
- (2) An assistance agreement may include the terms the chief executive considers appropriate.

Example for subsection (2)—

A term of an assistance agreement may provide that, if the registered provider deals with a stated amount in a way that contravenes a stated prescribed requirement, the amount is repayable to the chief executive.

26 Demand for repayment of unexpended amounts

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) an assistance agreement with a registered provider ends; and
 - (b) an amount that the chief executive paid to the registered provider under the agreement has not been expended.
- (2) The chief executive may give the registered provider a notice (a show cause notice) stating—
 - (a) that the chief executive proposes to demand repayment of the unexpended amount; and
 - (b) that the registered provider may, within a stated time of at least 7 days, give the chief executive a written response about the proposed demand.
- (3) After considering any written response received from the registered provider within the stated time, the chief executive may demand repayment of all or some of the amount stated in the show cause notice.
- (4) If the chief executive decides not to demand repayment of any of the amount, the chief executive must give the registered provider notice of the decision.
- (5) The chief executive may recover the demanded amount as a debt owed to the State.
- (6) This section does not limit the ways the chief executive may demand payment of, or recover, an amount owed to the chief executive.

[s 27]

27 No entitlement to assistance

The chief executive is not required to give assistance to an entity, or to enter into an assistance agreement with an entity, merely because the entity is a registered provider.

Division 3 Registration

28 Application for registration

- (1) An entity mentioned in section 21 may apply to the chief executive for registration.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form.
- (3) Within 28 days after receiving the application, the chief executive must decide the application and give the entity notice of the decision.
- (4) In deciding the application, the chief executive must have regard to the following matters—
 - (a) the housing services provided, or proposed to be provided, by the entity;
 - (b) the need for the services;
 - (c) the entity's record of financial management;
 - (d) how the entity conducts, or proposes to conduct, its operations;
 - (e) another matter prescribed under a regulation.

29 Registration remains in force unless cancelled

The registration of an entity remains in force unless it is cancelled under this division.

30 Application for cancellation of registration

- (1) A registered provider may apply to the chief executive for cancellation of the registration.

- (2) The application must be in the approved form.
