Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

5 Disclosure of information

The entities prescribed for section 14(3)(a) of the Act are in schedule 1.

Part 2 Casino licences

6 Requirements generally

- (1) The Minister may make requirements under this section of any of the following persons, to assist in undertaking investigations to satisfy the Governor in Council that the person is a suitable person to be associated or connected with the management and operations of a hotel-casino complex or casino—

[s 6]

- (a) for section 20 of the Act—a casino licensee or associated person;
 - (b) for section 26 of the Act—a proposed lessee under a casino lease, proposed casino operator or associated person;
 - (c) for section 30 of the Act—a casino licensee, lessee under a casino lease, casino operator or associated person.
- (2) The Minister may require an investigated person to give to the Minister—
- (a) if the investigated person is an individual—the information and other items mentioned in section 7; and
 - (b) if the investigated person is an entity—the information and other items mentioned in section 10.
- (3) If the investigated person is a trustee of a trust estate, the Minister may make a requirement of the person under either or both of sections 7 and 10, and if the Minister does so—
- (a) any requirement under section 7 relates to the person as an individual; and
 - (b) any requirement under section 10 relates to the person as trustee, or to the trust estate, or both, as the Minister considers appropriate.
- (4) This section does not restrict the Minister in taking any other action the Minister considers appropriate to fulfil the Minister’s duty under section 20, 26 or 30 of the Act.
- (5) In this section—

associated person, for a casino principal, means a person associated or connected, or to be associated or connected, in the opinion of the Minister, with the ownership, administration or management of the operations or business of the casino principal.

casino principal means a casino licensee, a lessee under a casino lease, a proposed lessee under a casino lease, a casino operator or a proposed casino operator.

proposed casino operator means a person with whom a casino licensee, or a lessee under a casino lease, proposes to enter into a casino management agreement under section 25 of the Act.

proposed lessee means a person to whom a casino licensee proposes to lease the casino licensee's hotel-casino complex or casino under section 24 of the Act.

7 Requirements of individuals

- (1) The Minister may require an investigated person who is an individual to give to the Minister any or all of the following—
 - (a) information regarding some or all of the matters mentioned in schedule 2;
 - (b) an authority under section 12;
 - (c) a recent photograph of the individual;
 - (d) a nomination under section 8.
- (2) If the Minister does not require an individual to provide information regarding any of the matters mentioned in schedule 2, part B, the Minister may require the individual to give to the Minister a certificate under section 9.
- (3) A request made of an individual under this section to give to the Minister information about another person is a request to do so to the best of the individual's knowledge.

8 Character reference

The Minister may require an investigated person who is an individual to nominate persons who—

- (a) satisfy the criteria specified by the Minister in the requirement; and
- (b) are considered by the investigated person to be suitable to appraise his or her character and reputation.

[s 9]

9 Certificate of financial stability

- (1) The Minister may, under section 7(2), require an investigated person who is an individual to give to the Minister a certificate—
- (a) signed by an accountant; and
 - (b) containing the accountant's name and address; and
 - (c) stating that the accountant—
 - (i) has examined the individual's financial affairs; and
 - (ii) is of the opinion that the individual is of sound and stable financial background.

- (2) In this section—

accountant means—

- (a) a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia who holds a current certificate of public practice issued by the institute; or
- (b) a member of the Australian Society of Certified Practising Accountants who holds a current public practice certificate issued by the society; or
- (c) a member of the Institute of Public Accountants who holds a current public practice certificate issued by the institute; or
- (d) a person approved by the chief executive as having the necessary experience or qualifications to certify a certificate of financial stability.

10 Requirements of entities

- (1) The Minister may require an investigated person that is an entity to give to the Minister any or all of the following—
- (a) information regarding some or all of the matters set out in schedule 3;
 - (b) an authority under section 12;

- (c) copies of any documents that relate to the entity lodged in the offices of the National Companies and Securities Commission, the Australian Securities Commission or any other similar body in a country other than Australia;
 - (d) copies of any trust deed or partnership agreement that relates to the entity;
 - (e) copies of the entity's audited and published financial statements;
 - (f) copies of any related body corporate's audited and published financial statements.
- (2) In this section—
- related body corporate* has the meaning given by the Corporations Act, section 9.

11 Criteria for requiring information etc.

In deciding the requirements to make of an investigated person under section 7 or 10, the Minister is to consider, but is not limited to, the nature and level of involvement proposed for the person in the management and operations of the hotel-casino complex or casino.

12 Authority to release information

- (1) The Minister may require an investigated person to give the Minister an authority that authorises the addressee of the authority to release documents to—
 - (a) an inspector; or
 - (b) a member of the police service.
 - (2) In subsection (1)—
- documents* means all, or specified, records, correspondence and other documents, in the possession of or under the control of the addressee, that relate to the investigated person.

[s 13]

13 Failure to provide information etc. not an offence

Subject to section 14, a person who fails to comply with a requirement made under this part does not commit an offence.

14 Providing false or misleading information an offence

A person who is required to provide information under this part commits an offence if the person—

- (l) the charges incurred or costs involved in respect of the debt;
- (m) details of whether the casino operator or the casino operator's agent or employee adhered to relevant accounting procedures;
- (n) the amount of debt proposed to be released or discharged;
- (o) detailed reasons for the release or discharge of the whole or part of the debt;
- (p) the date and content of the casino operator's resolution or other authorisation to release or discharge the whole or part of the debt.

22 Deposit advance accounts—Act, s 67

For section 67(2A)(d) of the Act, the following cheques are prescribed—

- (a) a bank cheque drawn in favour of the casino operator;
- (b) a cheque drawn by 1 of the following in favour of the person and endorsed to the casino operator—

- (i) a wagering licensee under the Wagering Act 1998;
 - (ii) a keno licensee under the Keno Act 1996;
 - (iii) a person who holds a licence to operate a casino in a place outside Australia.

23 Depositing of cheques—Act, s 70

For section 70 of the Act, the prescribed time is—

- (a) if the cheque is drawn on an account held with a bank in Australia—5 working days; and
- (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply—30 working days.

24 Unclaimed winnings and prizes—Act, s 71A

For the definition designated departmental account in section 71A(5) of the Act, the Treasurer's unclaimed moneys fund kept under the Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977 is designated as the account at the department to which the payments mentioned in the definition are to be made.

Editor's note—

Financial Administration and Audit Act 1977—see the Financial Accountability Act 2009, section 93.

25 Casino patron claims

- (1) If a casino operator, or an employee or agent of a casino operator, receives a claim for payment, related to a gaming transaction, from a casino patron, the casino operator must immediately attempt to resolve the claim.
- (2) If the operator can not resolve the claim, the operator must immediately advise an inspector.
- (3) The inspector must, as soon as practicable, investigate the claim, record all relevant information about the claim and tell the operator and the patron the results of the investigation.
- (4) If, after receiving the inspector's report, the operator can not resolve the claim, the operator must immediately tell the patron that the patron may, within 10 days, ask the chief executive to review the operator's decision about the claim.

[s 26]

- (5) The following provisions apply to the chief executive's review of an operator's decision—
- (a) a request for review must be made on the approved form;
 - (b) the chief executive must not review the operator's decision if the request to review is received after the 10 days mentioned in subsection (4);
 - (c) the chief executive must advise the operator and the patron as soon as practicable after receiving the request whether the chief executive intends to review the operator's decision;
 - (d) if the chief executive intends to review the operator's decision, the chief executive must—
 - (i) give the operator a copy of the approved form completed by the patron; and
 - (ii) notify the operator and the patron that each of them may, within 1 month after the date of the notice, give a written submission to the chief executive about the claim;
 - (e) after the time for making submissions has ended, the chief executive may cause the investigations the chief executive considers appropriate to be made and the results of the investigations to be reported to the chief executive;
 - (f) the chief executive must, as soon as practicable, consider the submissions and reports, and notify the operator and the patron in writing of the chief executive's decision, stating the reasons for the decision.

26 Training courses for employees

A casino operator must, for each casino key employee or casino employee, keep a record of—

- (a) each training course, relating to the playing of games, the conduct of games and associated activities in connection with casino operations, completed by the employee; and
 - (b) the dates and times the employee attended each course; and
 - (c) the date the employee completed each course.

Editor's note—

See section 72 (Training courses for employees) of the Act.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

27 Times for submission of reports—Act, s 81

For section 81(1) of the Act, the following times are prescribed—

- (a) for a casino daily report—not later than 72 hours after the end of the daily gaming period reported on;
- (b) for a casino monthly report—not later than 10 days after the end of the month reported on;
- (c) for a casino quarterly report—not later than 1 month after the end of the quarter reported on;
- (d) for a casino annual report—not later than 4 months after the end of the financial year reported on.

28 Conducting tournaments

- (1) The rules for conducting and playing a game in a tournament are the rules for the game in the rule, as varied by the Minister in a written notice given to the casino operator proposing to conduct the tournament.
- (2) However, the provisions of the rule about conducting and playing a game may be varied only to the extent reasonably necessary to conduct the tournament.
- (3) The chief executive must approve conditions for conducting the tournament, including, for example—

[s 29]

- (a) the entry form to be used; and
 - (b) the entry fee to be paid.
- (4) The casino operator must ensure—
- (a) a game in the tournament is conducted and played under the rules applying to the game; and
 - (b) the conditions for conducting the tournament are complied with.

29 Entry fees for tournament

- (1) All entry fees received by the casino operator must be included in a prize pool for distribution to the winning players.
- (2) An entry fee or part of a fee must not be refunded unless permitted under the conditions for conducting the tournament.

29A Names of table games and wagers

A casino operator may, with the chief executive's approval, use any name the casino operator considers appropriate for—

- (a) a game played at a table mentioned in the rule for the game; or
- (b) a wager under the rule.

29B Permissible wagers

- (1) If a wager for an amount that is not within the permissible minimum and maximum wagers for a game is inadvertently made and accepted by a casino operator or a casino operator's employee or agent, the wager—
 - (a) if it is less than the permissible minimum—is valid; and
 - (b) if it is more than the permissible maximum—is void only to the extent of the amount more than the permissible maximum.

Note—

A casino patron may make arrangements with a casino operator about permissible minimum and maximum wages—see the Act, section 64A.

- (2) The casino operator may require wagers to be made in increments of a stated amount that is not more than the permissible minimum wager for the table for the game.
- (3) The amount of the increment must be displayed at the table on the same sign on which the minimum permissible wager is displayed.
- (4) The letters and numbers on the sign showing the permissible minimum and maximum wagers for a table must be at least 8mm high.
- (5) In this section—
void, for a wager, means the wager neither wins nor loses but is a stand off.

Part 6 Junkets

Division 1 Junket agreements

30 Amounts prescribed for special junket agreements—Act, s 85D

- (1) For section 85D(1)(b) of the Act, the amount prescribed is $10000.
- (2) For section 85D(2)(b) of the Act, the amount prescribed is $250000.

31 Agreement to be in writing

A casino operator must not enter into a junket agreement unless the agreement is in writing and contains the following information—

- (a) the name of the promoter;

[s 32]

- (b) a sequential junket number given by the casino operator to the group of participants;
- (c) the name of each participant;
- (d) the period when participants are expected to visit the casino;
- (e) the amount agreed to be committed under the agreement by the participants;
- (f) the complimentary services proposed to be supplied to the participants by the casino operator;
- (g) the commission proposed to be paid to the promoter by the casino operator.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

32 Junket agreement to provide for 1 group only

A casino operator must not enter into a junket agreement if the agreement provides for more than 1 group of participants.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

33 Copy of agreement to be given to chief executive

A casino operator who enters into a junket agreement must give a signed copy of the agreement to the chief executive before any participant under the agreement starts play as a participant.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

34 Copy of certain passports to be given to chief executive

- (1) This section applies to a casino operator if—
 - (a) the casino operator enters into a junket agreement; and
 - (b) a participant who is neither an Australian resident nor an Australian citizen visits the casino under the agreement; and

- (c) the casino operator has not already complied with this section on a previous visit of the participant to the casino.
- (2) The casino operator must, within 8 hours after the participant's arrival at the casino, give a photocopy of the relevant parts of the participant's passport to the chief executive, unless the operator has a reasonable excuse for not giving the copy.
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
- (3) The relevant parts of the passport are the parts showing—
 - (a) the country of issue of the passport; and
 - (b) the number of the passport; and
 - (c) the participant's date of birth; and
 - (d) a photograph of the participant.

Division 2 Notices and reports

35 Application of division

This division applies to a casino operator who has entered into a junket agreement.

36 Notices and reports

A notice or report required to be given by the casino operator under this division must be given, in writing, to the chief executive.

37 Notice about promoter

- (1) The casino operator must give a notice under this section about a promoter with whom the casino operator has entered into a junket agreement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

[s 38]

- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the casino operator only if—
 - (a) notice about the promoter has not previously been given—
 - (i) under this section; or
 - (ii) under section 38, when the promoter was a promoter's representative; and
 - (b) the junket agreement is not a sole participant agreement; and
 - (c) the promoter is not a casino key employee.
- (3) The casino operator must give the notice to the chief executive before the promoter starts to perform obligations under the junket agreement.
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
- (4) The purpose of the notice is to allow the chief executive to assess the suitability of the promoter for involvement in future junket agreements.
- (5) The notice must be in the form approved by the chief executive, and be accompanied by the fee prescribed, for the assessment.
- (6) The notice must be given even if the promoter is acting through a promoter's representative.
- (7) The chief executive must comply with a reasonable request from the casino operator for information about whether, for subsection (2)(a), notice about the promoter has previously been given.

38 Notice about promoter's representative

- (1) The casino operator must give a notice under this section about a promoter's representative.
Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the casino operator only if—

- (a) notice about the promoter's representative has not previously been given—
 - (i) under section 37, when the promoter's representative was a promoter; or
 - (ii) under this section; and
 - (b) the junket agreement is not a sole participant agreement; and
 - (c) the promoter's representative is not a casino key employee.
- (3) The casino operator must give the notice to the chief executive before the promoter's representative starts to perform obligations under the junket agreement.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (4) The purpose of the notice is to allow the chief executive to assess the suitability of the promoter's representative for involvement in future junket agreements.
- (5) The notice must be in the form approved by the chief executive, and be accompanied by the fee prescribed, for the assessment.
- (6) The chief executive must comply with a reasonable request from the casino operator for information about whether, for subsection (2)(a), notice about the promoter's representative has previously been given.

39 Monthly report

- (1) The casino operator must, for each month, give a report under this section about visits to the casino during the month by participants under junket agreements.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2) The report must be given to the chief executive within 14 days after the end of the month.
- (3) The report must contain the particulars decided by the chief executive.

- (a) the number of gaming machines;
 - (b) the machine games played on the machines;
 - (c) the minimum and maximum amounts of the jackpot.
- (5) The chief executive may approve an arrangement that consists of more than 1 type of jackpot.

41 Sharing jackpots

- (1) This section applies to players of gaming machines linked in a progressive jackpot link arrangement.
- (2) If 2 or more players are eligible for payment of the amount displayed on the progressive jackpot meter for the arrangement, the amount of the progressive jackpot is to be shared equally among the winning players.
- (3) Two or more players are eligible for the amount of the progressive jackpot if—
 - (a) the players obtain the winning combination at the same time; or
 - (b) a player obtained the winning combination but—
 - (i) the progressive jackpot link arrangement allows other players playing gaming machines in the arrangement to complete a wager made before, or at the same time as, the winning combination was or is obtained; and
 - (ii) in completing the wager before further play is prevented, another player obtains, or other players obtain, the winning combination as a result of the wager.
- (4) Subject to subsection (2), a player of a gaming machine may not claim payment of an amount, or a share of an amount, that was displayed on the progressive jackpot meter if the amount of the progressive jackpot has transferred from the progressive jackpot meter to a gaming machine played by another player.

[s 42]

42 Meaning of terms used on artwork for draw card machine game

The terms used in the artwork on a gaming machine that has been programmed to play a machine game based on a deck of 52 cards and known as 'draw card' have the following meanings—flush means any 5 cards of the same suit, but not running consecutively in face value.

four of a kind means any 4 cards with the same face value.

full house means 3 cards with the same face value and another 2 cards with the same face value.

jacks or better means a pair of jacks, queens, kings or aces.

odd card, in relation to another card or cards, means a card with a different face value to the other card or cards.

royal flush means ten, jack, queen, king and ace of the same suit.

straight means 5 cards of more than 1 suit running consecutively in face value.

straight flush means any 5 cards of the same suit running consecutively in face value other than a royal flush.

three of a kind means any 3 cards with the same face value.

two pairs means 2 cards with the same face value, another 2 cards with the same face value (other than the face value of the first 2 cards) and 1 odd card.

43 Malfunctioning of gaming machines etc.

- (1) A casino operator may refuse to pay a player for a wager made by the player on a gaming machine if the operator believes, on reasonable grounds, that—
 - (a) the gaming machine has malfunctioned; or
 - (b) the machine game installed on the gaming machine has malfunctioned; or

(c) the electronic monitoring system for the gaming machine or its associated equipment has malfunctioned.

- (2) If the casino operator refuses to pay a player under subsection (1), the operator must not allow any person to use or deal with the gaming machine until an inspector has examined the machine and investigated the reason for the malfunction.

Maximum penalty—10 penalty units.

- (2A) Also, if the casino operator refuses to pay a player under subsection (1), section 25 applies to the operator for the player's claim for payment.

- (3) This section applies regardless of the reason for the malfunction.

- (4) A gaming machine, machine game or the electronic monitoring system for a gaming machine or its associated equipment malfunctions if it does not function in the way it was designed and programmed to function.

- (5) In this section—

associated equipment, for a gaming machine, means—

- (a) any linked jackpot equipment; or
- (b) any centralised credit system; or
- (c) any part of, or replacement part for, any such equipment or system.

centralised credit system means any electronic or computer system or device designed to be used for, or adapted to enable, the transfer of credits of gaming tokens to or from a gaming machine.

electronic monitoring system, for a gaming machine or its associated equipment, means any electronic or computer system or device designed to be used, or adapted, to send or receive data from the machine or equipment in relation to the security, accounting or operation of the machine or equipment.

46 Fees

The fees payable under the Act are stated in section 46A and schedule 4.

46A Fee for particular investigations

- (1) This section applies to the following persons for whom the Minister may undertake an investigation under the Act, section 26(1)—
 - (a) a proposed lessee for a casino lease;
 - (b) a proposed casino operator for a casino management agreement.
- (2) This section also applies to a person for whom the Minister may undertake an investigation under the Act, section 30(1), other than—
 - (a) a casino licensee; or
 - (b) a lessee under a casino lease; or
 - (c) a casino operator under a casino management agreement.
- (3) The person must pay to the chief executive the reasonable costs of conducting the investigation.

Examples of costs of conducting the investigation—

- costs of outsourcing professional services, for example, legal or accounting services
- internal costs, including staff costs
- travel and accommodation costs incurred inside or outside the State or overseas

46B How fee for investigation must be paid

- (1) This section applies in relation to a fee payable by a person (the relevant person) under section 46A for an investigation.
- (2) The chief executive may require, in writing, the relevant person to pay all or part of the fee in advance.

[s 46B]

- (3) The chief executive may make the requirement before the investigation starts, and at any time during the investigation.
- (4) If the requirement is made before the investigation starts, the chief executive may decide not to start the investigation until the fee or part of the fee is paid.
- (5) If the requirement is made during the investigation, the fee or part of the fee must be paid within 28 days after the requirement is made.
- (6) The fee or part of the fee payable in advance must be—
 - (a) an amount not more than the chief executive's estimate or latest estimate of the fee payable under section 46A; and
 - (b) reduced by the amount, if any, already paid by the relevant person to the chief executive under this section in relation to the investigation.
- (7) As soon as reasonably practicable after the investigation is finished the chief executive must—
 - (a) give the relevant person a written itemised account of the costs comprising the fee; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) refund any overpayment to the relevant person; or
 - (ii) require, in writing, the relevant person to pay to the chief executive, within 28 days after the requirement is made, the amount of any shortfall between the amount already paid by the relevant person under this section and the amount of the fee.
- (8) For subsection (7), an investigation is finished in relation to a relevant person if—
 - (a) both of the following apply—
 - (i) the relevant person fails to comply with a written request by the chief executive to give the chief executive information or documents that are

- reasonably necessary for the purposes of the investigation;
- (ii) the chief executive considers the investigation is finished; or
 - (b) the chief executive considers the investigation has been completed for the Minister's purposes under the Act, section 26(1) or 30(1).
- (9) A relevant person given a requirement under subsection (2) or (7)(b)(ii) must comply with the requirement.
 - (10) A failure by the chief executive to comply with subsection (7)(a) or (b) as soon as reasonably practicable after the investigation does not affect the recovery of the amount of any shortfall mentioned in subsection (7)(b)(ii).
 - (11) In a proceeding to recover the amount of a shortfall mentioned in subsection (7)(b)(ii), a written itemised account of the costs given to the relevant person for the investigation under subsection (7)(a) is evidence of the costs.

47 Approval of gaming equipment—Act, s 62

- (1) For deciding whether to approve gaming equipment under section 62(3)(a) of the Act, the chief executive may—
 - (a) carry out an evaluation of the equipment; or
 - (b) inform the person asking for the approval (the applicant) that the applicant may—
 - (i) have the equipment evaluated by an approved evaluator; and
 - (ii) give the chief executive the evaluator's written report about the evaluation.
- (2) An evaluation carried out by the chief executive may include 1 or more of the following types of evaluation—
 - (a) basic evaluation;
 - (b) intermediate evaluation;
 - (c) advanced evaluation.

[s 47]

- (3) In deciding whether to approve gaming equipment, the chief executive must have regard to—
 - (a) if the chief executive carries out an evaluation of the equipment—the evaluation; or
 - (b) if an approved evaluator evaluates the equipment—the evaluator’s report about the evaluation.
- (4) If the chief executive carries out an evaluation, the person asking for approval of gaming equipment must pay the fee stated in schedule 4 for the evaluation.
- (5) A fee stated in schedule 4, item 6 may consist of, or include, an amount for part of an hour that is the equivalent of the relevant proportion of the hourly rate, stated in the schedule, worked out using 15-minute periods (wholly or partly completed).

4 Table of reprints

A new reprint of the legislation is prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel each time a change to the legislation takes effect.

The notes column for this reprint gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it. Section 5(c) and (d) of the Act are not mentioned as they contain mandatory requirements that all amendments be included and all necessary consequential amendments be incorporated, whether of punctuation, numbering or another kind. Further details of the use of any discretionary editorial power noted in the table can be obtained by contacting the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel by telephone on 3237 0466 or email legislation.queries@oqpc.qld.gov.au.

From 29 January 2013, all Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints is not continued with the relevant details for historical reprints included in this table.
