Information about this reprint

This reprint shows the legislation current as at the date on the cover and is authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel.

A new reprint of the legislation will be prepared by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel when any change to the legislation takes effect. This change may be because a provision of the original legislation, or an amendment to it, commences or because a particular provision of the legislation expires or is repealed.

When a new reprint is prepared, this reprint will become a historical reprint. Also, if it is necessary to replace this reprint before a new reprint is prepared, for example, to include amendments with a retrospective commencement, an appropriate note would be included on the cover of the replacement reprint and on the copy of this reprint at www.legislation.qld.gov.au.

The endnotes to this reprint contain detailed information about the legislation and reprint. For example—

- The table of reprints endnote lists any previous reprints and, for this reprint, gives details of any discretionary editorial powers under the Reprints Act 1992 used by the Office of the Queensland Parliamentary Counsel in preparing it.
- The list of legislation endnote gives historical information about the original legislation and the legislation which amended it. It also gives details of uncommenced amendments to this legislation. For information about possible amendments to the legislation by Bills introduced in Parliament, see the Queensland Legislation Current Annotations at www.legislation.qld.gov.au/Leg\_Info/information.htm.
- The list of annotations endnote gives historical information at section level.

All Queensland reprints are dated and authorised by the Parliamentary Counsel. The previous numbering system and distinctions between printed and electronic reprints are not continued.

Division 2                      Use of surveillance devices under warrant of Supreme Court judge

121      Surveillance warrant applications

- (1) This section applies if the chairperson reasonably believes a person has been, is, or is likely to be, involved in misconduct being investigated by the commission.
- (2) An authorised commission officer may, with the chairperson's approval, apply to a Supreme Court judge for a warrant (surveillance warrant) authorising the use of a surveillance device.
- (3) For subsection (2), an authorised commission officer who is a police officer must be of at least the rank of inspector.
- (4) The application must—
  - (a) be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought; and
  - (b) fully disclose all matters, of which the authorised commission officer is aware, both favourable and adverse to the issuing of the warrant sought; and
  - (c) include information stated under a regulation about any warrants issued within the previous year in relation to the person or the place specified in the application.
- (5) The place specified in the application (the relevant place) may be a public place and may be described by reference to a class of place.
- (6) Subsection (4)(c) only applies to—
  - (a) information kept in a register that the officer may inspect; and
  - (b) information the officer otherwise actually knows.
- (7) The applicant must advise the public interest monitor of the application under arrangements decided by the monitor.

- (8) The judge may refuse to consider the application until the applicant gives the judge all the information the judge requires about the application in the way the judge requires.

Example—

The judge may require additional information supporting the application to be given by statutory declaration.

122 Who may be present at consideration of application for surveillance warrant

- (1) The judge must hear an application for a surveillance warrant in the absence of anyone other than the following—
- (a) the applicant;
  - (b) a monitor;
  - (c) someone the judge permits to be present;
  - (d) a lawyer representing anyone mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c).
- (2) Also, the judge must hear the application—
- (a) in the absence of the person proposed to be placed under surveillance (the relevant person) or anyone likely to inform the relevant person of the application; and
  - (b) without the relevant person having been informed of the application.

123 Consideration of application for surveillance warrant

Before deciding an application for a surveillance warrant, the judge must, in particular, and being mindful of the highly intrusive nature of using a surveillance device, consider the following—

- (a) the nature and seriousness of the misconduct;
- (b) the likely extent of interference with the privacy of—
  - (i) the relevant person; or

- (ii) any other occupant of the relevant place;
if the warrant is issued;
- (c) the extent to which issuing the warrant would help prevent, detect, or provide evidence of the commission of, the misconduct;
- (d) the benefits derived from the issue of any previous surveillance warrants in relation to the relevant person or the relevant place;
- (e) the extent to which officers investigating the misconduct have used or can use conventional ways of investigation;
- (f) how much the use of conventional ways of investigation would be likely to help in the investigation of the misconduct;
- (g) how much the use of conventional ways of investigation would prejudice the investigation of the misconduct because of delay or for another reason;
- (h) any submissions made by a monitor.

124 Issue of surveillance warrant

- (1) After considering the application, the judge may issue a surveillance warrant for a period of not more than 30 days if satisfied there are reasonable grounds for believing—
  - (a) the relevant person has been, is, or is likely to be, involved in the misconduct and is likely to be at the relevant place; or
  - (b) evidence of the misconduct is likely to be obtained using a surveillance device at the relevant place.
- (2) The judge may issue a surveillance warrant authorising the use of a surveillance device in the office of a practising lawyer only if the application for the warrant relates to the lawyer's involvement in misconduct.

- (3) The judge may impose any conditions on the warrant that the judge considers are necessary in the public interest including, but not limited to—
- (a) a condition requiring regular reporting to a judge on activities under the warrant; and
  - (b) a condition requiring that, if a listening device is to be used in a public place or class of place, the officer, before installing or using the device, must have a reasonable belief that the relevant person is or will be in the place where the device is to be used.

Example for subsection (3)(b)—

The warrant may be issued for any motel in a stated area because the officer may have a reasonable belief that the relevant person may be in a motel in the area but not know in advance which one. The condition may be that the device may only be installed if the officer reasonably believes the person is likely to be in the place.

125 What surveillance warrant must state

A surveillance warrant must state the following—

- (a) that a commission officer or any commission officer may exercise surveillance powers under the warrant;
- (b) the name of the relevant person, if known;
- (c) the place or class of place where the surveillance device authorised under the warrant may be used;
- (d) any conditions the judge imposes under section 124(3);
- (e) the day and time the warrant starts and when the warrant ends.

126 Report on use of surveillance devices

- (1) This section applies if, because of a condition of a surveillance warrant, a commission officer gives to a judge a report on activities under the warrant.

- (2) The judge may, after considering the report, require the destruction of any recording made that is not related to the misconduct mentioned in the warrant, unless the recording relates to the investigation by the commission of other misconduct.

127 Duration and extension of surveillance warrants

- (1) A surveillance warrant is in force until the earlier of the following—
  - (a) the day stated in the warrant;
  - (b) the day the investigation under the warrant ends.
- (2) However, despite the investigation ending, the warrant continues in force until the day stated in the warrant if, as a result of using the surveillance device, evidence is gained of other misconduct.
- (3) The warrant may be extended from time to time on application and the provisions of this division for an application for a warrant apply to an application for an extension, with necessary changes.
- (4) Despite the ending of the warrant under subsection (1) or (2), the commission officer may continue to exercise powers under the warrant, but only to the extent necessary to remove the surveillance device to which the warrant relates.

128 Power under surveillance warrants

A commission officer to whom a surveillance warrant is directed may, subject to the warrant, lawfully exercise any of the following powers under the warrant (surveillance powers)—

- (a) power to enter a stated place or class of place, covertly or through subterfuge, to install a surveillance device;
- (b) power to install and use a surveillance device to intercept and record private conversations;

- (c) power to remove a thing to another place to install a surveillance device in the thing;
- (d) power to use an assistant to translate or interpret conversations intercepted under the warrant;
- (e) power to take electricity for using a surveillance device;
- (f) power to use reasonable force—
  - (i) to enter a place to install a surveillance device; or
  - (ii) to install a surveillance device;
- (g) power to use 1 or more surveillance devices in the same place;
- (h) power to pass through, over, under or along a place to get to the place where the surveillance device is to be used.

    - (ii) the extension of a surveillance warrant;
  - (b) an order made under an application mentioned in paragraph (a).
- (2) Despite the Recording of Evidence Act 1962, a transcript of a relevant proceeding must not be made.
- (3) Also, no record of the application or of any order made in a relevant proceeding is to be available for search by any person, except by direction of a Supreme Court judge.

- (4) A person must not publish a report of a relevant proceeding.
Maximum penalty—85 penalty units or 1 year's imprisonment.
  - (5) A person is not entitled to search information in the custody of a court in relation to a relevant proceeding, unless a Supreme Court judge otherwise orders in the interests of justice.
  - (6) Nothing in this section prevents a person who was present at a relevant proceeding from giving oral evidence to a court about things that happened at the proceeding.

130 Disclosure of information obtained using surveillance warrant

- (1) This section applies to information that has not been disclosed in a proceeding in open court and was obtained by using a surveillance warrant (the relevant information).

- (2) The commission must ensure any recording made or photograph taken under the surveillance warrant or a transcript or copy made from information obtained under the warrant is destroyed as soon as practicable after it is no longer required.

- (3) Subsection (2) does not prevent information or other matter being preserved for any period or indefinitely if, in the chairperson's opinion, it is relevant to—
- (a) any offence of which someone has been convicted if there is a possibility that an issue about the conviction may arise; or
  - (b) an ongoing investigation.

- (1) An authorised commission officer may apply to the approving officer for approval to conduct an operation under this part (controlled operation).

140 Application must be referred to committee

141 Particular controlled operations

- (1) This section applies to an application made to the chairperson under section 139(3) for approval to conduct a controlled operation.

  - (b) serious damage to property;
  - (c) a serious loss of property;

- (d) someone could be encouraged or induced by a covert operative to engage in criminal activity of a kind the person could not reasonably be expected to have engaged in if not encouraged or induced by the covert operative to engage in it.
- (3) Also, the approving officer must not approve the application unless satisfied—
  - (a) the purpose of the proposed controlled operation is to gather evidence of a misconduct offence; and
  - (b) a controlled operation represents an effective use of public resources for investigating the misconduct offence; and
  - (c) any proposed covert operative for the operation has received appropriate training for the purpose; and
  - (d) if a proposed covert operative for the operation is not a commission officer, it is wholly impractical in the circumstances for a commission officer to perform the role the proposed covert operative is to perform in the operation; and

146 Application to vary approval

- (1) An authorised commission officer may apply to the approving officer for a variation of an approval for a controlled operation.

- (2) However, if, the chairperson was the approving officer for the controlled operation because the operation relates to a person who is or may be a police officer, the application must be made to the chairperson.
- (3) The application must be written and include enough information to enable the approving officer to properly consider whether the approval should be varied and if so how it should be varied.
- (4) In particular, the application must state the following for the controlled operation—
  - (a) the identifying name or number for the operation;

- (5) The approving officer must consider the committee's recommendations on the application but is not bound by the recommendations.

146E How approval may be varied

- (1) The approving officer may vary the approval but only by—
  - (a) extending the period of the approval from time to time by not more than 6 months at a time; or apprehension of a person (arrest warrant) who has been given an attendance notice.

- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the officer gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

168 Issue of arrest warrant

- (1) The magistrate may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person if the magistrate is satisfied—
  - (a) on sworn evidence before the magistrate—
    - (i) the person—
      - (A) has been given the attendance notice; and
      - (B) has, without reasonable excuse, failed to attend at the commission hearing as required by the notice; or
    - (ii) the person has made a representation that the person intends not to attend at a commission hearing as required by the attendance notice; and
  - (b) it is in the public interest that the person be compelled to attend at the hearing to avoid prejudice to the conduct of an investigation.

- (3) In this section—

representation includes—

  - (b) a representation inferred from conduct; and

- (c) a representation not intended by its maker to be communicated to or seen by another person.

- (2) The person apprehended—
  - (a) must be brought immediately before a commission hearing; and
  - (b) may be detained in custody until excused from attendance at the hearing by the presiding officer at the hearing.
- (3) The Bail Act 1980 applies to a person taken into custody under an arrest warrant in the same way it applies to a person in custody charged with an offence.
- (4) The arrest warrant may be executed by any authorised officer to whom it is addressed.
- (5) An authorised officer executing the arrest warrant may use the force that is reasonably necessary, including force to enter premises, to execute the warrant.
- (6) However, before the authorised officer uses force that may cause damage to a place to gain entry to the place, the authorised officer must, if reasonably practicable—
  - (a) ask the occupier of the place to allow the authorised officer to enter the place; and
  - (b) give the occupier a reasonable opportunity to allow the entry.

170 Provision for overnight detention

Unless the arrest warrant otherwise provides, if the person is required to be detained overnight, the commission must arrange for the person to be provided with accommodation and meals to a standard comparable to that generally provided to jurors kept together overnight.

171 Person's liability for noncompliance with attendance notice unaffected by issue of arrest warrant

The issue of an arrest warrant for the apprehension of a person, or the apprehension of a person under the arrest warrant, does not relieve the person from any liability incurred by the person for noncompliance with an attendance notice.

Part 11 General

172 Commission officer may use assistance in exercising particular powers

- (1) It is lawful for a commission officer exercising a power under this Act—
- (a) to seek the assistance of another person (an assistant) the officer reasonably requires for performing a function of the commission; or

- (5) Subsection (1) applies, in relation to animals, despite any other Act or law.

173 Protection for assistants from liability

- (1) An assistant does not incur civil liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence, while acting as an assistant.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a liability attaching to an assistant, liability attaches instead to the State.

174 Commission’s powers generally

- (1) Without limiting the commission’s specific powers under this or another Act, the commission has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with, or reasonably incidental to, the performance of its functions.
