Youth Justice Act 1992

An Act to provide comprehensively for the laws concerning children who commit, or who are alleged to have committed, offences and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Youth Justice Act 1992.

2 Objectives of Act

The principal objectives of this Act are—

- (a) to establish the basis for the administration of juvenile justice; and
- (b) to establish a code for dealing with children who have, or are alleged to have, committed offences; and
- (c) to provide for the jurisdiction and proceedings of courts dealing with children; and
- (d) to ensure that courts that deal with children who have committed offences deal with them according to principles established under this Act; and
- (e) to recognise the importance of families of children and communities, in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, in the provision of services designed to—
 - (i) rehabilitate children who commit offences; and
 - (ii) reintegrate children who commit offences into the community.

3 Youth justice principles

- (1) Schedule 1 sets out a charter of youth justice principles.
- (2) The principles underlie the operation of this Act.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 4 defines particular words used in this Act.

5 Note in text

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

6 Child's age regulation

- (1) The Governor in Council may, by regulation, fix a day after which a person will be a child for the purposes of this Act if the person has not turned 18 years.
- (2) A person of 17 years who commits an offence before the commencement of the regulation will not be taken, after the commencement, to have committed the offence as a child in a subsequent proceeding for the offence.
- (3) A court that sentences a person to whom subsection (2) applies for the offence mentioned in the subsection must have regard to the sentence that might have been imposed if the person were sentenced as a child.
- (4) The court can not order the person—
 - (a) to serve a term of imprisonment longer than the period of detention that the court could have imposed on the person if sentenced as a child; or
 - (b) to pay any amount by way of fine, restitution or compensation greater than that which the court could have ordered the person to pay if sentenced as a child.

- (5) Subsection (3) applies even though an adult would otherwise be liable to a heavier penalty which by operation of law could not be reduced.
 - (6) To avoid any doubt, it is declared subsections (2) to (5) only apply to a person mentioned in subsection (1) who is sentenced after the commencement of the regulation mentioned in the subsection.

7 Meaning of police officer *starting a proceeding

In this Act, mention of a police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence includes—

- (a) obtaining a warrant for the arrest of a child on a charge for an offence; and
- (b) arresting a child for an offence without a warrant.

8 Meaning of *serious offence

(1) Subject to subsection (2), in this Act serious offence means—

- (a) a life offence; or
- (b) an offence of a type that, if committed by an adult, would make the adult liable to imprisonment for 14 years or more.

(2) An offence is not a serious offence if—

- (a) it is a relevant offence under the Criminal Code, section 552BA; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552BA (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily)

- (b) it is an offence that is the subject of a charge to which the Criminal Code, section 552A or 552B applies; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552A (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily on prosecution election) or 552B (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily unless defendant elects for jury trial)

- (c) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily; or

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13 (Certain offences may be dealt with summarily)

- (d) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily.

Note—

Proceedings for a charge for an offence may not be taken summarily under section 14 if the prosecution allegations include an allegation as to a commercial purpose.

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14 (Other offences that may be dealt with summarily if no commercial purpose alleged)

- (2A) If it is necessary for the purposes of subsection (2) to have reference to the table of excluded offences included in the Criminal Code, section 552BB, a reference in that table to the circumstance that the offender does not plead guilty to an offence is taken to be a reference to a child not admitting to committing the offence.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, the type of an offence includes the circumstances in which it is committed.

9 Meaning of court that made order

- (1) In this Act, mention of the court that made a particular order on sentence includes, if the order was made by—
- (a) the Supreme Court—any sittings of the Supreme Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or
- (b) the District Court—any sittings of the District Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or

- (c) a Childrens Court judge—any sittings of a Childrens Court judge at any place in Queensland; or
 - (d) a Magistrates Court—any Magistrates Court sitting at any place in Queensland; or
 - (e) a Childrens Court magistrate—any Childrens Court magistrate sitting at any place in Queensland.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the court is not constituted by the same judicial officer who made the order originally.

Part 2 Special provisions about policing and children

Division 1 Police officer must consider appropriate way to proceed

10 Division does not apply to 2 general ways of proceeding

This division has no effect on—

- (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
- (b) a proceeding on an indictment.

11 Police officer to consider alternatives to proceeding against child

- (1) Unless otherwise provided under this division, a police officer, before starting a proceeding against a child for an offence other than a serious offence, must first consider whether in all the circumstances it would be more appropriate to do 1 of the following—
- (a) to take no action;
 - (b) to administer a caution to the child;

- (c) to refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process;
- (d) if the offence is a minor drugs offence within the meaning of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 and the child may be offered an opportunity to attend a drug diversion assessment program under section 379 of that Act—to offer the child that opportunity in accordance with that section;
- (e) if the offence is a graffiti offence and the child may be offered an opportunity to attend a graffiti removal program under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 379A—to offer the child that opportunity in accordance with that section.

Note—

Because of section 134, a police officer must consider offering the same opportunities for diversion from the court system as apply to a child to a person who committed an offence as a child but is now an adult.

- (2) The circumstances to which the police officer must have regard include—
 - (a) the circumstances of the alleged offence; and
 - (b) the child’s criminal history, any previous cautions administered to the child for an offence and, if the child has been in any other way dealt with for an offence under any Act, the other dealings.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must delay starting the proceeding in order to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), then the police officer must do so.
- (5) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would not be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), the police officer may start a proceeding against the child for the offence.

- (6) The police officer may take the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) or (e) even though—
- (a) action of that kind has been taken in relation to the child on a previous occasion; or
 - (b) a proceeding against the child for another offence has already been started or has ended.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not prevent a police officer from taking the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) for a serious offence.

12 Preferred way for police officer to start proceedings

A police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence, must start the proceeding by way of complaint and summons or notice to appear, unless otherwise provided under this Act.

13 Police officer's power of arrest preserved in particular general circumstances

- (1) A police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), without a warrant, to arrest a child for an offence without regard to sections 11 and 12 only if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds—
- (a) the arrest is necessary—
 - (i) to prevent a continuation or a repetition of the offence or the commission of another offence; or
 - (ii) to obtain or preserve, or prevent concealment, loss or destruction of, evidence relating to the offence; or
 - (iii) to prevent the fabrication of evidence; or
 - (iv) to ensure the child's appearance before a court; or

Note—

Under the youth justice principles in schedule 1, it is a principle of this Act that a child should be detained in custody for an offence, whether on arrest or sentence, only as a last resort and for the least time that is justified in the circumstances.

- (b) the child is an adult; or
 - (c) the child is contravening section 278 or is unlawfully at large.
- (2) In deciding for subsection (1)(b) whether the police officer had reasonable grounds, a court may have regard to the child's apparent age and the circumstances of the arrest.
 - (3) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(2), without a warrant, to arrest a child without regard to sections 11 and 12.
 - (4) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under a warrant issued under the Bail Act 1980 without regard to sections 11 and 12.
 - (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section does not affect a police officer's power under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), to arrest a child without warrant for a serious offence.

Division 2 Cautioning

14 Purpose of caution

The purpose of this division is to set up a way of diverting a child who commits an offence from the courts' criminal justice system by allowing a police officer to administer a caution to the child instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence.

15 Police officer may administer a caution

- (1) A police officer instead of bringing a child before a court for an offence may administer a caution to the child.
- (2) The child is then not liable to be prosecuted for the offence.
- (3) The caution is not part of the child's criminal history.

16 Conditions for administration of police caution

- (1) A police officer may administer a caution to a child for an offence only if the child—
 - (a) admits committing the offence to the police officer; and
 - (b) consents to being cautioned.
- (2) A police officer who administers a caution, or who requests the administration of a caution under section 17, must, if practicable, arrange to be present at the administration of the caution—
 - (a) an adult chosen by the child; or
 - (b) a parent of the child or a person chosen by a parent of the child.
- (3) The commissioner of the police service may authorise a police officer who the commissioner considers has sufficient training or experience (authorised officer) to administer cautions.
- (4) If a police officer administering a caution is not an authorised officer, the caution must be administered in the presence of an authorised officer.

17 Caution administered by respected person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community

- (1) If a caution is to be administered to a child who is a member of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, an authorised officer mentioned in section 16—

[s 18]

- (a) must consider whether there is a respected person of the community who is available and willing to administer the caution; and
 - (b) if a respected person of the community is available and willing to administer the caution—must request the person to administer the caution.
- (2) In a proceeding, evidence that a person purported to administer a caution under subsection (1) as a respected person mentioned in the subsection is evidence that the person was a respected person.

18 Caution procedure must involve explanation

- (1) A police officer who administers, or requests the administration of, a caution to a child must take steps to ensure that the child and the person present under section 16(2) understand the purpose, nature and effect of the caution.
- (2) The steps that can be taken include, for example—
- (a) personally explaining these matters to the child; and
 - (b) having some person with training or experience in the cautioning of children give the explanation; and
 - (c) having an interpreter or other person able to communicate effectively with the child give the explanation; and
 - (d) supplying an explanatory note in English or another language.

19 Caution procedure may involve apology to victim

- (1) This section applies only after a police officer decides that a caution should be administered to a child for an offence.
- (2) The procedure of administering a caution to a child for an offence may involve the child apologising to a victim of the offence if—

- (a) the police officer administering, or requesting the administration of, the caution considers that an apology is an appropriate course of action in the particular circumstances of the case; and
- (b) the child is willing to apologise; and
- (c) the victim is willing to participate in the procedure.

20 Child must be given a notice of caution

- (1) If a caution is administered to a child for an offence, the police officer who—
 - (a) administered the caution; or
 - (b) under section 17, requested the administration of the caution;must give the child a notice in a form approved by the commissioner of the police service.
- (2) The notice must state—
 - (a) that a caution was administered to the child; and
 - (b) the time and date the caution was administered; and
 - (c) the child's name; and
 - (d) the substance of the offence; and
 - (e) the police officer's name and rank; and
 - (f) the place where the caution was issued; and
 - (g) the names of all persons present when the caution was issued; and
 - (h) the nature and effect of a caution.
- (3) In a proceeding, a document purporting to be a notice or copy of a notice is evidence that the child was administered a caution for the offence in the circumstances stated in the notice.
- (4) A document mentioned in subsection (3) is not evidence that the child committed the offence.

21 Childrens Court may dismiss charge if caution should have been administered or no action taken

- (1) If a child pleads guilty before a Childrens Court to a charge made against the child by a police officer, the court may dismiss the charge instead of accepting the plea of guilty if—
 - (a) application is made for the dismissal by or on behalf of the child; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the child should have been cautioned instead of being charged or no action should have been taken against the child.
- (2) In deciding the application, the Childrens Court may have regard to—
 - (a) any other cautions administered to the child for any offence; and
 - (b) whether any previous conference agreements have been made by the child.
- (3) If the court dismisses a charge under subsection (1) because the child should have been cautioned, the court may—
 - (a) administer a caution to the child; or
 - (b) direct a police officer to administer a caution to the child as directed by the court.
- (4) The caution is not part of the child’s criminal history.

Division 3 Referral for restorative justice process

22 When police officer may refer offence for restorative justice process

- (1) This section applies if a child admits committing an offence to a police officer.
- (2) Instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence, the police officer may, by written notice given to the chief executive, refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.

- (3) However, the police officer may make the referral only if—
 - (a) the child indicates willingness to comply with the referral; and
 - (b) having regard to the deciding factors, the officer considers—
 - (i) a caution is inappropriate; and
 - (ii) a proceeding for the offence would be appropriate if the referral were not made; and
 - (iii) the referral is a more appropriate way of dealing with the offence than starting a proceeding.
- (4) The deciding factors for referring an offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process are—
 - (a) the nature of the offence; and
 - (b) the harm suffered by anyone because of the offence; and
 - (c) whether the interests of the community and the child would be served by having the offence dealt with under a restorative justice process.
- (5) The police officer must inform the child generally of the restorative justice process and potential consequences for the child if he or she fails to properly participate in the process.
- (6) If the referral is accepted by the chief executive, the chief executive must give written notice of the acceptance to the police officer and the child.

23 If restorative justice agreement is made as a consequence of referral for restorative justice process

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a police officer refers an offence committed by a child to the chief executive for a restorative justice process; and

- (b) a restorative justice agreement is made as a consequence of the referral.
- (2) The child is not liable to be prosecuted for the offence unless otherwise provided under this Act.

24 Powers of police officer if referral is unsuccessful or if child contravenes restorative justice agreement

- (1) This section applies if a police officer refers an offence committed by a child to the chief executive for a restorative justice process and—
 - (a) the chief executive returns the referral to the officer under section 32(1); or
 - (b) the child fails to comply with a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.
- (2) In considering what further action is appropriate, the police officer must consider—
 - (a) the matters mentioned in section 11(2); and
 - (b) any participation by the child in the restorative justice process; and
 - (c) if a restorative justice agreement was made as a consequence of the referral—anything done by the child under the agreement.
- (3) The police officer may—
 - (a) take no action; or
 - (b) administer a caution to the child; or
 - (c) refer the offence to the chief executive for another restorative justice process; or
 - (d) start a proceeding against the child for the offence.

24A Childrens Court may dismiss charge if offence should have been referred to restorative justice process

- (1) If a child pleads guilty before a Childrens Court to a charge made against the child by a police officer, the court may dismiss the charge instead of accepting the plea of guilty if—
 - (a) application is made for the dismissal by or on behalf of the child; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied the offence should have been referred to the chief executive for a restorative justice process under section 22, regardless of whether or not the child admitted committing the offence to the police officer.
- (1A) In deciding the application, the Childrens Court may have regard to—
 - (a) any cautions administered to the child for any offence; and
 - (b) whether any previous restorative justice agreements have been made by the child.
- (2) If the court dismisses the charge, the court may refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.
- (3) However, the dismissal of the charge does not prevent a police officer restarting a proceeding against the child for the offence or a court sentencing the child for the offence if—
 - (a) the chief executive returns the referral under section 32(1); or
 - (b) the child fails to comply with a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.
- (4) For part 3, the police officer is taken to be the referring authority for a referral made under subsection (2).
- (5) If the court decides to—
 - (a) make an order of dismissal under the Justices Act 1886, section 149 and give the child a certificate of the dismissal; or

- (b) give the child a certificate of dismissal under the Criminal Code, section 700;

the court must not give the child the certificate until the child discharges his or her obligations under a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.

Division 4 Identifying particulars

25 Application by police officer for permission to take child's identifying particulars

- (1) This section applies if a child has been charged, without being arrested, with an indictable offence or an offence against any of the following Acts that is an arrest offence—
- Criminal Code
 - Drugs Misuse Act 1986
 - Police Service Administration Act 1990
 - Regulatory Offences Act 1985
 - Summary Offences Act 2005
 - Weapons Act 1990.
- (2) A police officer (the applicant) may apply to a Childrens Court magistrate (the court) to have all or any of the identifying particulars of the child taken.
- (3) The applicant must give notice of the application to—
- (a) the child; and
 - (b) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (c) the chief executive.
- (4) The court may decide the application in the absence of a person mentioned in subsection (3), if the court is satisfied that subsection (3) has been complied with.
- (5) On the application—

- (a) the applicant and anyone mentioned in subsection (3) is entitled to be heard and to provide evidence; and
 - (b) the court may act on statements of information and belief.
- (6) The court may order the identifying particulars to be taken if it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, of all the following facts—
- (a) someone has committed the charged offence;
 - (b) there is evidence of identifying particulars of the offender that are of the same type as the identifying particulars the applicant seeks to have taken from the child;
 - (c) the child is reasonably suspected of being the offender;
 - (d) the order is necessary for the proper conduct of the investigation of the offence.
- (7) The order must state the investigation for which the order is made.
- (8) If the child will not be in custody when the particulars are taken, the order must require the child to report to a police officer at a stated police station between stated hours within 7 days to enable a police officer to take the identifying particulars.
- (9) A child must not contravene the order.
Maximum penalty (subject to part 7)—10 penalty units.
- (10) If the child will be in custody when the particulars are taken, the order must require the particulars to be taken at the place the child is held in custody.
- (11) This section is subject to section 26.
- (12) In this section—
charged offence means the offence with which the child is charged or an offence arising out of the same, or the same set of, circumstances.

parent, of a child, includes someone who is apparently a parent of the child.

26 Support person must be present when identifying particulars are taken

- (1) In a proceeding for an offence, a court must not admit into evidence against a defendant identifying particulars taken from the defendant under section 25 unless the court is satisfied a support person chosen by the child was present when the identifying particulars were taken.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
 - (a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person when the particulars were taken; and
 - (b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the particulars should be admitted into evidence.
- (3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a person whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—
 - (a) is an accomplice of the child; or
 - (b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact; for the offence or another offence under investigation.
- (4) Also, this section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a parent of the child whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a person against whom the offence under investigation is alleged to have been committed.
- (5) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

27 Destruction of identifying particulars taken under court order

- (1) Identifying particulars taken from a child under an order under section 25 must be destroyed if the investigation for which the order was made does not result in a sentence order being made.
- (2) For subsection (1), the destruction must happen within 7 days of whichever of the following happens last—
 - (a) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding had started when the order was made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
 - (b) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is started within 28 days after the order is made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
 - (c) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is not started within 28 days of the order—the end of the period of 28 days.

Note—

See the extended meaning of charged offence in section 25.

- (3) An applicant who obtains an order to have identifying particulars taken from a child under section 25 must not fail to ensure the particulars are destroyed under this section, unless the applicant has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.
- (4) A failure to comply with subsection (3) may be dealt with as a breach of discipline under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

28 Division does not limit other provisions

This division does not limit provisions of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 authorising the taking of someone's identifying particulars to the extent to which those provisions apply to a child.

Division 5 Statements

29 Support person must be present for statement to be admissible

(1) In a proceeding for an indictable offence, a court must not admit into evidence against the defendant a statement made or given to a police officer by the defendant when a child, unless the court is satisfied a support person was present with the child at the time and place the statement was made or given.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

- (a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was a proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person at the time the statement was made or given; and

Examples—

- 1 There was a reasonable suspicion that allowing a support person to be present would result in an accomplice or accessory of the relevant person taking steps to avoid apprehension.
- 2 A support person was excluded under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.

- (b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the statement should be admitted into evidence.

(3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when a child makes or gives the statement a person the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—

- (a) is an accomplice of the child; or
- (b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact;
- in relation to the offence or another offence under investigation.

(4) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

Part 3 Restorative justice processes

Division 1 Preliminary

30 Object of part

The object of this part is to provide for the use of a restorative justice process for a child who commits an offence.

31 The restorative justice process

- (1) This part applies if a police officer or a court (each a referring authority) refers an offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.
- (2) The restorative justice process is to be a conference.
- (3) However, the restorative justice process is to be an alternative diversion program if—
 - (a) the referral is made by a police officer under section 22 or made by a court under section 24A or 164; and
 - (b) a conference can not be convened for any reason other than—
 - (i) the chief executive being unable to contact the child after reasonable inquiries; or
 - (ii) the child being unwilling to participate in the conference.

32 Returning referrals

- (1) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the referring authority, return the referral if—
 - (a) the chief executive is unable to contact the child after reasonable inquiries; or

[s 33]

- (b) the chief executive has made reasonable requirements of the child to attend an interview about the process and the child has failed to attend as required; or
 - (c) the chief executive considers it necessary for a victim of the offence to participate and the victim does not wish to participate or can not be located after reasonable inquiries; or
 - (d) during the restorative justice process the child denies committing the offence to the chief executive, a convenor or victim of the offence; or
 - (e) the chief executive is satisfied that an appropriate restorative justice agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the chief executive considers appropriate; or
 - (f) the chief executive considers that the referral is unsuitable for a restorative justice process; or
 - (g) a conference is convened for the referral and the convenor ends the conference without an agreement being made.
- (2) The notice must state the reasons for returning the referral, and the reasons may be considered by a court in any later proceeding for sentencing the child for the offence.
- (3) The referring authority must make reasonable efforts to inform the child that the referral has been returned.

Division 2 Conferences

33 Object of division

This division provides for the use of a conference to allow a child, who commits an offence, and other concerned persons to consider or deal with the offence in a way that benefits all concerned.

34 Who may participate in conference

- (1) The following persons are entitled to participate in the conference—
- (a) the child;
 - (b) the victim;
 - (c) the convenor;
 - (d) a representative of the commissioner of the police service;
 - (e) a parent of the child;
 - (f) if requested by the child, 1 or more of the following—
 - (i) the child’s legal representative;
 - (ii) a member of the child’s family;
 - (iii) another adult;
 - (g) if requested by the victim, 1 or more of the following—
 - (i) the victim’s legal representative;
 - (ii) a member of the victim’s family;
 - (iii) another adult;
 - (h) another person approved by the convenor.

Examples for paragraph (h)—

- 1 a representative of the chief executive
 - 2 a person present for the purpose of training, research or education
 - 3 for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child who is from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, a respected person of the community or a representative of a community justice group that may be in the community
- (2) To ensure that a victim of the offence is informed of his or her entitlement to participate in the conference, the referring authority must give the chief executive contact information for the victims of the offence.
- (3) For subsection (1)(h), if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait

Islander community, the convenor must consider inviting to attend the conference either or both of the following—

- (a) a respected person of the community;
- (b) if there is a community justice group in the community—a representative of the community justice group.

35 Convening conference

- (1) The conference may be convened only if—
 - (a) the child and the convenor attend the conference; and
 - (b) there is a degree of victim participation in the conference through—
 - (i) the attendance of the victim or a representative of the victim; or
 - (ii) the use of pre-recorded communication recorded by the victim for use in the conference; or
 - (iii) a representative of an organisation that advocates on behalf of victims of crime.
- (2) The convenor is responsible for convening the conference and must be independent of the circumstances of the offence.
- (3) The conference must be directed towards making a conference agreement.
- (4) If the child is not legally represented at the conference, the convenor must ensure the child—
 - (a) is informed of the right to obtain legal advice; and
 - (b) has reasonable information about how to obtain legal advice and a reasonable opportunity to do so.
- (5) The conference ends when a conference agreement is made or the convenor brings the conference to an end because—
 - (a) the child fails to attend the conference as required; or
 - (b) the child denies committing the offence at the conference; or

- (c) the convenor concludes a participant's conduct or failure will result in a conference agreement being unlikely to be made; or
 - (d) the convenor concludes a conference agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the convenor considers appropriate.
- (6) If the conference ends without a conference agreement but the convenor considers it is worthwhile persisting with efforts to make a conference agreement, the convenor may convene another conference.

36 Conference agreement

- (1) A conference agreement is an agreement reached at the conference—
- (a) in which a child admits committing the offence; and
 - (b) in which the child undertakes to address the harm caused by the child committing the offence.
- (2) The conference agreement must be in the approved form and be agreed to and signed by—
- (a) the child; and
 - (b) the convenor; and
 - (c) if a representative of the commissioner of the police service participates in the conference—the representative; and
 - (d) if a victim of the offence participates in the conference—the victim.

Note—

If a court makes a presentence referral, the court must, amongst other things, have regard to the child's obligations, and anything done by the child, under the conference agreement in sentencing the child for the offence. See section 165(6).

- (3) The conference agreement may not provide for the child to be treated more severely for the offence than if the child were sentenced by a court or in a way that contravenes the sentencing principles in section 150.

- (4) A copy of the conference agreement must immediately be given to each person who signed the agreement.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the conference agreement may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

A conference agreement may require the child to perform voluntary work for a charity that is located outside the State.

37 Amendment of conference agreement by chief executive

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive considers that the conference agreement is or becomes unworkable, including, for example, because compliance with the agreement has become impossible or unsafe.
- (2) The chief executive may, if the child agrees, amend the conference agreement to the extent necessary to make the agreement workable.
- (3) In deciding how to amend the conference agreement, the chief executive must take reasonable steps to find out, and give effect to, the views of each participant who signed the agreement.
- (4) The amended conference agreement replaces the original agreement and takes effect from its amendment by the chief executive.
- (5) After amending the conference agreement, the chief executive must make reasonable efforts to give a copy of the amended agreement to each participant who signed the agreement.

Division 3 Alternative diversion programs

38 Alternative diversion program

- (1) An alternative diversion program is a program, agreed to by the chief executive and the child, that involves the child participating in any of the following to address the child's behaviour—
 - (a) remedial actions;
 - (b) activities intended to strengthen the child's relationship with the child's family and community;
 - (c) educational programs.
- (2) The program must be designed to—
 - (a) help the child to understand the harm caused by his or her behaviour; and
 - (b) allow the child an opportunity to take responsibility for the offence committed by the child.
- (3) The program may not provide for the child to be treated more severely for the offence than if the child were sentenced by a court or in a way that contravenes the sentencing principles in section 150.
- (4) The program must be in writing and be signed by the child.
- (5) The chief executive must give the referring authority a copy of the alternative diversion program.

Division 4 General

39 Convenors

- (1) A convenor is responsible for convening a conference.
- (2) The chief executive may approve appropriately qualified persons as convenors.
- (3) A convenor has all the powers—

[s 40]

- (a) necessary to perform the responsibilities of a convenor;
or
- (b) conferred on the convenor under this Act or another Act.

40 Admissibility of particular evidence

- (1) An admission about committing the relevant offence, made by the child while participating in a restorative justice process, is inadmissible in any proceeding.
- (2) Subsection (1) extends to—
 - (a) any written material or other correspondence made for the purpose of the restorative justice process; or
Example—
 - a written apology given as a requirement of a conference agreement
 - (b) actions of the child, done for the purpose of the restorative justice process, that make evident that the child committed the relevant offence.
- (3) However, evidence that would otherwise be inadmissible in a proceeding because of subsection (1) is admissible—
 - (a) if the child agrees to the admission of the evidence; or
 - (b) in a proceeding under part 7, division 2.
- (4) In this section—
relevant offence, in relation to a restorative justice process, means the offence to which the process relates.

41 Notice of successful completion of restorative justice agreement

If a child discharges his or her obligations under a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of a restorative justice process, the chief executive must notify the referring authority for the process accordingly.

Part 4 Proceedings generally started by complaint and summons

42 Preferred way of starting proceedings

- (1) A proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence, must be started by way of complaint and summons.
- (2) This section does not apply to a police officer.

Note—

The requirement for a police officer to start a proceeding by complaint and summons or notice to appear is dealt with by section 12.

- (3) This section does not affect—
 - (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
 - (b) the arrest of a child for escaping from lawful custody or who is unlawfully at large; or
 - (c) a proceeding against a child on an indictment.

- (2) The complaint is also to be served on—
 - (a) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (b) the chief executive.
- (3) A person serving a complaint and summons on a child must do so—
 - (a) as discreetly as practicable; and

- (b) not at or in the vicinity of the child's place of employment or school, unless there is no other place where service may be reasonably effected.
- (4) Subject to the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 382(3) and 388, this section does not apply to a notice to appear.
- (5) In this section—
parent, of a child, includes someone who is apparently a parent of the child.

44 Proof of service of complaint and summons in compliance with this Act

- (1) A statement in a deposition made for the purposes of the Justices Act 1886, section 56(3)(b) that the complaint and summons was served as required by this Act is evidence of that fact.
- (2) The Justices Act 1886, section 56(5) applies to the deposition.

45 No costs against child for lodgement of complaint and summons

In a proceeding started against a child by complaint and summons, a court must not order the child to pay the cost of lodging the complaint and summons with the clerk of the court.

46 Proceeding in relation to simple offence in absence of child

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a Childrens Court magistrate may hear and determine a proceeding against a child in relation to a complaint and summons for a simple offence in the absence of the child in the way set out in the Justices Act 1886, part 6.
- (2) Under subsection (1), the only sentence order a Childrens Court magistrate may make against a child in the child's absence is an order imposing a fine, and then only if the child has indicated in writing to the court that the child has a capacity to pay a fine of a specified amount that is equal to or greater than the fine ordered to be paid.

Part 5 Bail and custody of children

47 Bail Act 1980 applies

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Bail Act 1980 applies in relation to a child charged with an offence.
- (2) A review of a sentence order under part 6, division 9 is an appeal for the purposes of the Bail Act 1980.

48 Decisions about bail and related matters

- (1) This section applies to a court or police officer in making any of the following decisions relating to a child in custody in connection with a charge of an offence—
 - (a) whether to release the child or keep the child in custody;
 - (b) if releasing the child, whether to release the child without bail or grant bail to the child;
 - (c) if the child is being, or has been, granted bail, the conditions that should apply to the grant of bail.
- (2) The court or officer must consider the need to ensure that, if the child is released—

 - (b) while on release, the child will not—
 - (i) commit an offence; or
 - (ii) endanger anyone's safety or welfare; or
 - (iii) interfere with a witness or otherwise obstruct the course of justice, whether for the child or anyone else.

- (3) The court or officer must have regard to any of the following matters of which the court or officer is aware—

 - (da) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—any submissions made by a representative of the community justice group in the child’s community, including, for example, about—
 - (i) the child’s relationship to the child’s community; or
 - (ii) any cultural considerations; or
 - (iii) any considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates;
 - (e) any other relevant matter.
- (3A) Also, if it is a court that is making the decision, the court must have regard to the sentence order or other order likely to be made for the child if found guilty.
- (4) In deciding whether to release the child or keep the child in custody, the court or officer must decide to release the child unless the court or officer is required by this Act or another Act to keep the child in custody.
- (5) The court or officer must not release the child if the court or officer is satisfied there is an unacceptable risk relating to a matter mentioned in subsection (2).
- (6) If the child is before a court and the court has information indicating there may be an unacceptable risk relating to a matter mentioned in subsection (2), but does not have enough information to properly consider the matter, the court must remand the child in custody while the information is obtained.

- (7) The court or officer must not release the child if the court or officer is satisfied—
- (a) the child's safety would be endangered, because of the alleged offence, if the child were released; and
 - (b) in the circumstances, there is no reasonably practicable way of ensuring the child's safety other than by keeping the child in custody.
- (7A) If required by the court or officer for subsection (3)(da), a representative of the community justice group in the child's community must advise the court or police officer whether—
- (a) any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission is related to the child or the victim; or
 - (b) there are any circumstances that give rise to a conflict of interest between any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission and the child or victim.
- (8) In this section—
- keep the child in custody* includes, for a court, remand the child in custody.

49 Arrested child must be brought promptly before the Childrens Court

- (1) A child who is arrested on a charge of an offence must be brought promptly before the Childrens Court to be dealt with according to law.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
- (a) the child is being dealt with in a way mentioned in the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 393(2)(b) to (e) or (3)(b); or
 - (b) the child is released under this part or the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 14, part 4.

50 Dealing with a child if court can not be promptly constituted

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a child is arrested in connection with a charge of an offence and delivered into the custody of a police officer at a place that is a police station, police establishment or watch-house; and
 - (b) the child is not being detained under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 15, part 2; and
 - (c) it is not practicable to promptly constitute the Childrens Court to deal with the child.
- (2) The police officer for the time being in charge of the place or, if the place is a watch-house, a prescribed police officer within the meaning of the Bail Act 1980, section 7, must—
 - (a) give the child a release notice or a notice to appear and release the child from custody under section 51; or
 - (b) grant bail to the child and release the child from custody under section 52; or
 - (c) keep the child in custody.
- (3) However, if the child is released under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 378 or 379—
 - (a) subsection (2) does not apply; and
 - (b) any proceeding against the child for the offence is discontinued even though the child may have been charged with having committed the offence.
- (4) If the officer decides to keep the child in custody, the officer must record the reasons for the decision in a record of the persons kept in custody at the place.
- (5) The keeping of the child in custody is not unlawful merely because of a failure to comply with subsection (4).
- (6) This section applies subject to section 48.

- (1) This section applies if, under section 50, a police officer decides to release a child without bail.
- (2) The officer may release the child into the custody of the child's parents or release the child to go at large.
- (3) Before releasing the child, if the officer does not issue and give to the child a notice to appear, the officer must give the child a notice in the approved form (a release notice).
- (4) The release notice must set out—
 - (a) the child's name; and
 - (b) the offence or the nature of the warrant on which the child was held in custody; and
 - (c) the name of the police officer who started the proceeding, or justice who issued the warrant, on which the child was held in custody; and
 - (d) the court into whose custody the child is required to surrender under the conditions of release; and
 - (e) the time and place the child is required to surrender into the court's custody; and
 - (f) a warning that a warrant will be issued for the child's arrest if the child fails to surrender into the court's custody.

52 Conditions of release on bail

- (1) This section applies if a court or police officer decides to grant bail to a child who is being held in custody in connection with a charge of an offence.
- (2) The court or officer must release the child on the child's own undertaking, without sureties and without deposit of money or other security, unless the court or officer is satisfied it would be inappropriate in all the circumstances.
- (3) If the court or officer does not release the child under subsection (2), the court or officer must consider the conditions for the release of the child on bail in the following sequence—

- (a) the release of the child on the child's own undertaking with a deposit of money or other security of stated value;
 - (b) the release of the child on the child's own undertaking with a surety or sureties of stated value;
 - (c) the release of the child on the child's own undertaking with a deposit of money or other security of stated value and a surety or sureties of stated value.

a condition imposing a curfew on the child

- (5) Any conditions imposed on the grant of bail—
- (a) must not be more onerous than the court or officer considers necessary in all the circumstances; and
 - (b) must be supported by the court's or officer's written reasons.
- (6) Subsection (5)(b) does not apply to a condition about—
- (a) attending court or surrendering into custody; or
 - (b) reporting to police or the chief executive; or
 - (c) where, or with whom, the child lives.

53 Granting of bail by audio visual link or audio link

- (1) A court may allow anything that must or may be done in relation to the granting of bail to a child to be done over an audio visual link or audio link if the child agrees to the use of the link and the court is satisfied the child has had an opportunity to obtain independent legal advice.

- (2) The provisions of the Evidence Act 1977 relating to the use of an audio visual link or audio link in criminal proceedings apply for, and are not limited by, subsection (1).

54 Custody of child pending court appearance

- (a) the commissioner of the police service; or
 - (b) the chief executive in accordance with arrangements mentioned in subsection (2).
- (2) The commissioner of the police service must make arrangements with the chief executive for an arrested child wherever practicable to be placed in a detention centre until brought before a court.
- (3) The chief executive must take the action necessary to hold the child in custody in accordance with the arrangements.

55 Court may in all cases release child without bail

- (1) If, under this Act or the Bail Act 1980, a court may grant bail to a child and release the child from custody, the court may instead—
- (a) release the child into the custody of a parent; or
 - (b) permit the child to go at large;
- without bail.
- (2) The release of a child without bail must be subject to a condition that the child surrenders into the custody of the court before which the child is required to appear at the time and place for the time being appointed for the child to do so.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not limit the power of a court to grant bail.

56 Custody of child if not released by court

- (1) Except where the child remains the prisoner of the court, a court that remands a child in custody must remand the child into the custody of the chief executive despite the provisions of any other Act to the contrary.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to a person who is an adult being dealt with for an offence committed by the person as a child if, under section 136, 137 or 138, the person must be held in a corrective services facility.
- (3) Jurisdiction conferred by an Act on a court—
 - (a) to commit a person to a place of detention (other than a detention centre) pending appearance before a court; and
 - (b) to give directions to the person in charge of the place; is taken, if the person is a child and subsection (1) applies, instead to confer jurisdiction on the court to remand the child into the custody of the chief executive and to give directions to the chief executive.
- (4) A court that remands a child into the custody of the chief executive must order the commissioner of the police service to deliver the child as soon as practicable into the custody of the chief executive.
- (5) A child held by the commissioner of the police service under an order made under subsection (4) is—
 - (a) before being delivered to the chief executive—in the custody of the commissioner of the police service; and

- (6) Subject to subsection (7), the chief executive may keep a child mentioned in subsection (4) who is in the chief executive's custody in places that the chief executive determines from time to time.
- (7) The chief executive can not determine under subsection (6) that a child is to be kept in a prison.

57 Warrant for arrest of child who fails to appear after release without bail

Subject to this Act, the provisions of the Bail Act 1980 relating to the issue of warrants for the arrest of defendants who fail to surrender into the custody of the court before which they were required to appear after being permitted to go at large without bail apply to a child who fails to appear after being released into the custody of a parent, or permitted to go at large, without bail.

58 Custody of child arrested on court warrant

If, under an Act, a court issues or orders the issue of a warrant for the arrest of a child (other than a warrant for the commitment of a child to a detention centre) it must order the commissioner of the police service to have the child promptly brought before a court to be dealt with according to law.

- (3) A child charged with an offence mentioned in the Bail Act 1980, section 13 may be granted bail by a Childrens Court judge, despite the section.
- (4) This section does not limit the power a court or person ordinarily has to grant, enlarge, vary or revoke bail.

- (4) The application must be made within 28 days of the finding or order.

- (6) If the court grants the application, the court must state the day on which the order takes effect.

Subdivision 4 Circumstances affecting whether offender is treated as adult or child

140 When offender must be treated as an adult

- (1) If 1 year has passed after an offender has become an adult—
 - (a) a proceeding afterwards started against the offender for a child offence must be taken as if the offender were an adult at the time of the commission of the child offence; and
 - (b) if found guilty in the proceeding—the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (2) If—
 - (a) a proceeding has started against an offender for a child offence in the way provided in this Act for a child; but
 - (b) the proceeding has not been completed to a finding of guilty or not guilty by the time 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult;then—

- (c) the proceeding must be finished in the way provided in this Act for a child; but
 - (d) if found guilty—the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (3) If, after a finding of guilt in a proceeding started against an offender as a child—
- (a) the court has been unable to sentence the offender because the offender has—
 - (i) escaped from detention; or
 - (ii) failed, without reasonable excuse, to appear as required under the conditions of bail; or
 - (iii) failed, without reasonable excuse, to return to the detention centre at the end of a period of leave granted under section 269; and
 - (b) 1 year has passed after the offender has become an adult;
- the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (4) An offender must not be treated as an adult under this section if the court is satisfied that there was undue delay on the part of the prosecution in starting or completing the proceeding.

141 When offender may be treated as an adult

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a proceeding has started against an offender for a child offence in the way provided in this Act for a child (the childhood proceeding); and
 - (b) by the time 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult—
 - (i) the childhood proceeding has not been completed to a finding of guilty or not guilty; and
 - (ii) the offender, for another offence—
 - (A) is proceeded against as an adult; or

(B) has been sentenced as an adult.

- (2) The court hearing the childhood proceeding may decide to continue the proceeding as if the offender were an adult when the child offence was committed.
- (3) For subsection (2), the Childrens Court may continue the proceeding in its concurrent jurisdiction.
- (4) If the offender is found guilty, the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (5) This section applies despite section 140(2).

142 Continuing effect on offender of orders made when child

- (1) An order that may be made under this Act against a child (the order) may be made even though the person concerned will have ceased to be a child before the order's effect will have ceased under its terms.
- (2) If a person against whom the order is made ceases to be a child before the order's effect ceases under its terms—
 - (a) the order continues to apply as if the person continued to be a child; and
 - (b) other proceedings and orders arising out of the order that could have been taken or made in relation to the person had the person remained a child must be taken or made as if the person were a child.
- (3) For subsection (2), a reference in this Act to a child subject to an order who commits an offence or contravenes the order is declared to include a reference to the child committing the offence or contravening the order while subject to the order after becoming an adult.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit subsection (2).
- (5) If—
 - (a) a proceeding or order mentioned in subsection (2)(b) may be taken before, or made by, a court if a person is found guilty of an offence before the court; and

- (b) the person is found guilty before a Magistrates Court of an adult offence;
- the court has concurrent jurisdiction to hear the proceeding or make the order.
- (6) For subsection (5), any judicial officer constituting the Magistrates Court may constitute the Childrens Court.

143 When order made as child may be dealt with as adult order

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a sentence order is made against a person as a child (the childhood sentence order); and
 - (b) a proceeding arising out of the order is taken before a court after the person becomes an adult.
- (2) If the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3) apply, the court may decide to deal with the person as if—
- (a) the childhood sentence order were a corresponding adult order made for the offence; and
 - (b) the offence were committed as an adult.
- (3) The circumstances are—
- (a) the person, for another offence committed as an adult—
 - (i) is being proceeded against; or
 - (ii) has been sentenced; or
 - (b) more than 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult.
- (4) The court may declare the childhood sentence order to be a corresponding adult order and make all necessary changes to the childhood sentence order to change it to a corresponding adult order.
- (5) The person is then subject to the corresponding adult order for the proceeding before the court and any further proceedings and orders.

- (6) For the application of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992—
- (a) section 123 of that Act does not apply to a contravention of the childhood sentence order that happens before the order is declared under this section to be a community based order under that Act; and
 - (b) if the corresponding adult order is a probation order or community service order under that Act, section 12(6) of that Act does not apply to the court for the proceeding before the court.
- (7) For subsection (2), the Childrens Court may continue the proceeding in its concurrent jurisdiction.
- (8) In this section—
- corresponding adult order to a childhood sentence order, means a type of sentence to which an adult is liable that is similar to the type of the childhood sentence order, for example—
- (a) a probation order made under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is a corresponding adult order to a probation order made under this Act; and
 - (b) a community service order made under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is a corresponding adult order to a community service order made under this Act.

144 Sentencing offender as adult

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a court sentencing an offender as an adult under section 140, 141 or 143 has jurisdiction to sentence the offender in any way that an adult may be sentenced.
- (2) The court must have regard to—
- (a) the fact that the offender was a child when the child offence was committed; and
 - (b) the sentence that might have been imposed on the offender if sentenced as a child.

- (3) The court can not order the offender—
- (a) to serve a term of imprisonment longer than the period of detention that the court could have imposed on the offender if sentenced as a child; or
 - (b) to pay an amount by way of fine, restitution or compensation greater than that which the court could have ordered the offender to pay if sentenced as a child.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies even though an adult would otherwise be liable to a heavier penalty which by operation of law could not be reduced.

145 Chief executive (corrective services) to be notified if offender sentenced as adult

- (1) This section applies if, under this division, an order is made by a court sentencing an offender as an adult.
- (2) The chief executive must immediately give the chief executive (corrective services) notice of the order.

 - (b) the proceeding is started within 1 year of the commission of the offence;the detainee may be treated as a child for the purpose of the proceeding.
- (3) A court may treat the detainee as a child if it considers this appropriate, for example because—

[s 147]

- (a) treatment of the detainee as an adult would disrupt the application of an existing sentence order; or
 - (b) the offence was committed in a detention centre in circumstances suggesting that the detainee should be treated as a child in relation to the offence; or
 - (c) a recommendation made by the chief executive or in a pre-sentence report supports the treatment of the detainee as a child.
- (4) A court may act under this section on application by a party to the proceeding or on its own initiative.

Division 12 Some provisions about admissibility of childhood offences

147 Use of evidence of cautions and restorative justice agreements in deciding issue of criminal responsibility

A court considering an issue of criminal responsibility under the Criminal Code, section 29 in relation to a child may have regard to any previous caution administered to the child or any previous restorative justice agreement made by the child.

148 Evidence of childhood finding of guilt not admissible against adult

- (1) In a proceeding against an adult for an offence, there must not be admitted against the adult evidence that the adult was found guilty as a child of an offence if a conviction was not recorded.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the evidence would otherwise be admissible under the Evidence Act 1977, section 15 and the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, section 5(3)(b).
- (3) This section does not prevent a court that is sentencing an adult from receiving information about any other sentence to which the adult is subject if that is necessary to mitigate the effect of the court's sentence.

- (4) For subsection (1), if a person is found guilty as a child of an offence, the person is not taken to have been found guilty as an adult of the offence merely because of the making of a declaration under section 143(4).

Part 7 Sentencing

Division 1 Sentencing generally

149 Jurisdiction to sentence child exclusive

- (1) A court that sentences a child for an offence must sentence the child under this part.

 - (b) the youth justice principles; and
 - (c) the special considerations stated in subsection (2); and
 - (d) the nature and seriousness of the offence; and
 - (e) the child's previous offending history; and
 - (f) any information about the child, including a pre-sentence report, provided to assist the court in making a determination; and
 - (g) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—any submissions made by a representative of the community justice group in the child's community that are relevant to sentencing the child, including, for example—

- (i) the child's relationship to the child's community;
or
 - (ii) any cultural considerations; or
 - (iii) any considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates; and
- (h) any impact of the offence on a victim, including harm mentioned in information relating to the victim given to the court under the Victims of Crime Assistance Act 2009, section 15; and

- (j) a sentence that the child is liable to have imposed because of the revocation of any order under this Act for the breach of conditions by the child; and

- (2) Special considerations are that—
- (a) a child's age is a mitigating factor in determining whether or not to impose a penalty, and the nature of a penalty imposed; and
 - (b) a non-custodial order is better than detention in promoting a child's ability to reintegrate into the community; and
 - (c) the rehabilitation of a child found guilty of an offence is greatly assisted by—
 - (i) the child's family; and
 - (ii) opportunities to engage in educational programs and employment; and
 - (d) a child who has no apparent family support, or opportunities to engage in educational programs and

- employment, should not receive a more severe sentence because of the lack of support or opportunity; and
- (e) a detention order should be imposed only as a last resort and for the shortest appropriate period.
- (4) If required by the court for subsection (1)(g), the representative must advise the court whether—
- (a) any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission is related to the offender or the victim; or
 - (b) there are any circumstances that give rise to a conflict of interest between any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission and the child or victim.
- (4A) In sentencing a child for an offence, a court may receive any information, or a sentencing submission made by a party to the proceedings, it considers appropriate to enable it to impose the proper sentence or make a proper order in connection with the sentence.
- (6) In this section—
- sentencing submission*, made by a party, means a submission stating the sentence, or range of sentences, the party considers appropriate for the court to impose.

151 Pre-sentence report

- (1) A court, before it sentences a child found guilty of an offence, may order the chief executive to give to the court a pre-sentence report concerning the child.

- (3) The court may request that the report contain specified information, assessments and reports relating to the child or the child's family or other matters.

- (4) The pre-sentence report may not contain the chief executive's opinion on what impact an order under section 234 may have on the child.
- (5) Pending the giving of a pre-sentence report, the court may adjourn the proceeding and remand the child in custody or exercise the powers conferred by part 5 to grant bail to and release the child from custody.
- (6) In releasing the child from custody, the court may impose conditions that it considers necessary to facilitate the preparation of the pre-sentence report.
- (7) The chief executive must cause the pre-sentence report to be prepared in documentary form and given to the court promptly.
- (8) The report must be given to the court promptly, but need not be given in less than 15 business days.
- (9) For subsection (7), it is enough if the chief executive gives the court further material to be considered with another report prepared for another sentencing of the child that happens on the same day.

151A Permitted use and disclosure of information for pre-sentence report

The chief executive may make information about a child, obtained under this Act or another Act, available to a person in order to assist the chief executive comply with section 151(1).

- (2) The court may ask, and allow parties to the proceeding to ask, questions of a person attending the court under subsection (1).

- (3) A court may give as much weight as it considers appropriate to a pre-sentence report or answers given in response to questions under subsection (2).

153 Disclosure of pre-sentence report

- (1) If a pre-sentence report is given to a court under section 151, the court must give a copy of the report as soon as practicable—
 - (a) to the prosecution; and
 - (b) if the child is represented by a lawyer—the lawyer.
- (2) If the child is not represented by a lawyer, the court may give the report to the child or a parent of the child present in the court.
- (3) The court may give directions it considers appropriate about a report given to anyone under subsection (1) or (2), including, for example, a direction limiting disclosure and a direction requiring the report's return.

153A Permitted use and disclosure of information in a pre-sentence report

- (1) This section applies to information—
 - (a) given under section 152; or

- (3) However, subsection (1) does not apply to a finding of guilt against a child by a court for an offence if—
 - (a) the offence was referred to the chief executive for a restorative justice process under section 163(1)(d)(i); and
 - (b) a restorative justice agreement was made as a consequence of the referral.

155 Mandatory sentence provisions inapplicable

A court that sentences a child for an offence—

- (a) must disregard a requirement under any other Act that an amount of money or term of imprisonment must be the minimum penalty for the offence; and
- (b) must take a requirement under any other Act that an amount of money or term of imprisonment must be the only penalty for the offence as providing instead that the amount or term is the maximum penalty for the offence.

156 Preference to be given to compensation and restitution

If a court sentencing a child for an offence considers—

- (a) that it is appropriate to make both of the orders that the child pay—

213 Court may order detention period to be cumulative

(1) If, at the time a court makes a detention order against a child for an offence, the child—

- (a) is serving; or
- (b) has been sentenced to serve;

a period of detention for another offence, the court may order the period of detention under the court's detention order to take effect from the end of the other period of detention.

(2) Subsection (1) applies even if the other period of detention has to be served concurrently or cumulatively with a period of detention for an offence other than the one for which the court makes the detention order.

214 Limitation on cumulative orders

(1) A court making more than 1 detention order under section 175 against a child on the same day or in the same proceedings is not to direct that a detention order be served cumulatively with another of the detention orders if the total period of the detention orders would exceed—

- (a) when made by a Childrens Court magistrate—1 year; or
- (b) when made by another court—7 years.

(2) To the extent that the total exceeds the maximum allowed the orders are of no effect.

215 Period of escape, mistaken release or release pending appeal or review not counted as detention

If a child serving a period of detention under a detention order—

- (a) is released from custody under part 5 pending an appeal against, or a review of, the detention order; or
 - (b) is unlawfully at large;
- the period for which the child is absent from custody pending the appeal or review, or is unlawfully at large, as the case may be, must not be counted as part of the period of detention.

216 Application for variation of detention order in interests of justice

- (1) This section applies to a child who—
 - (a) is unlawfully at large while subject to a detention order for an offence (the original order and offence); and
 - (b) is held in custody in another State for another offence committed in the other State or on a charge of an offence allegedly committed in the other State (the interstate custody).
- (2) An application may be made at any time to the court that made the original order to change the original order in the interests of justice.
- (3) The application may be made by the child or the chief executive, acting in the interests of the child.
- (4) If the application is not made by the chief executive, notice of the application must be given to the chief executive.
- (5) On the application the court may—
 - (a) take no action; or
 - (b) order all or part of the period of interstate custody to be a period of detention taken to have been served under the original order.
- (6) An order under subsection (5)(b) has effect even if the period of interstate custody is required to be served, concurrently or cumulatively, with a period of custody imposed because of an offence, other than the original offence, committed in Queensland or elsewhere.

217 Multiple orders of detention and imprisonment against person as adult and child

Sections 212 and 213 extend to a case where—

- (a) at the time a court makes a detention order against a person as a child, the person is serving or has been sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment as an adult; or
- (b) at the time a court makes an order sentencing a person to a term of imprisonment as an adult, the person is serving or has been sentenced to serve a period of detention as a child;

as if a reference in the sections to a period of detention included a reference to the term of imprisonment mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

218 Period of custody on remand to be treated as detention on sentence

- (1) If a child is sentenced to a period of detention for an offence, any period of time for which the child was held in custody pending the proceeding for the offence must be counted as part of the period of detention that is served in a detention centre or corrective services facility.

Note—

In determining, under section 227, when to release the child from detention under a supervised release order under section 228, the chief executive counts the period of time for which the child was held in custody pending the proceeding for the offence.

- (2) A period of time for which a child is also held in custody on sentence for another offence is not to be counted for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (3) Any period of custody of less than 1 day is not to be counted under subsection (1).

Subdivision 2 Conditional release order

219 Purpose of conditional release order

The purpose of this subdivision is to provide for an option instead of the detention of a child by allowing a court to immediately release the child into a structured program with strict conditions.

220 Conditional release order

- (1) A court that makes a detention order against a child may immediately suspend the order and make an order (conditional release order) that the child be immediately released from detention.
- (2) The child must be released from detention in accordance with the conditional release order.

221 Conditional release order—requirements

- (1) A conditional release order must require—
 - (a) that the child participate as directed by the chief executive in a program (the conditional release program) for the period, of not more than 3 months, stated in the order (the program period); and
 - (b) that, during the period of the order—
 - (i) the child abstain from violation of the law; and
 - (ii) the child comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and
 - (iii) the child report and receive visits as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (iv) the child or a parent of the child notify the chief executive within 2 business days of any change of address, employment or school; and

- (v) the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (2) A conditional release order made in relation to a child may contain requirements that the child comply, during the whole or a part of the period of the order, with conditions that the court considers necessary for preventing a repetition by the child of the offence for which the detention order was made or the commission by the child of other offences.

Example of a condition—

a condition imposing a curfew on the child

- (3) An order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

- (4) A requirement imposed by a court under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must relate to the offence for which the detention order was made; and
 - (b) must be supported by the court's written reasons.

222 Child must be willing to comply

A court may make a conditional release order in relation to a child only if the child expresses willingness to comply with the order.

223 Pre-sentence report must include particular comments

The pre-sentence report considered by a court before making the relevant detention order must include comments—

- (a) outlining the potential suitability of the child for release from detention under a conditional release order; and
- (b) advising whether an appropriate conditional release program is available on the child's release under the order.

224 Effect of program period ending

Subject to division 12, at the end of the program period the child is no longer liable to serve a period of detention under the detention order.

225 Program period

- (1) The program period of a child's conditional release program starts when the conditional release order is made and ends at the later of the following times—
 - (a) the end of the last day of the period of the conditional release order;
 - (b) if the conditional release program was suspended for part or all of any days (the suspended days)—the end of the day that is the last day of the period of the order and, additionally, the number of suspended days.
- (2) If, at the time a court makes a conditional release order for a child—
 - (a) another conditional release order has already been made for the child; and
 - (b) the conditional release program under the other order has not ended;

the period when the child is subject to both conditional release programs is counted concurrently.

226 Suspension of program

- (1) If, during the program period, a child for good reason is unable to participate in the program mentioned in section 221(1)(a), the chief executive may, by written notice given to the child, suspend the program for a stated period.
- (2) The period for which the program is suspended is not to be counted as part of the program period.

Subdivision 3 Release after fixed period of detention

227 Release of child after service of period of detention

- (1) Unless a court makes an order under subsection (2), a child sentenced to serve a period of detention must be released from detention after serving 70% of the period of detention.
- (2) A court may order a child to be released from detention after serving 50% or more, and less than 70%, of a period of detention if it considers that there are special circumstances, for example to ensure parity of sentence with that imposed on a person involved in the same or related offence.
- (3) If the child is entitled under section 218 to have a period of custody pending the proceeding (the custody period) treated as detention on sentence, the period before the child is released under this section must be reduced by the custody period.

Example—

C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 2 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive must make a supervised release order releasing the child 5 weeks after sentence, which is 70% of 10 weeks with a further reduction of 2 weeks.

228 Chief executive's supervised release order

- (1) At the end of the period after which a child is required to be released under section 227, the chief executive must make an order (a supervised release order) releasing the child from detention.
- (2) However, the chief executive is not required to make a supervised release order if the custody period mentioned in section 227(3) is equal to or more than the period of detention the child was sentenced to serve.

Examples—

- 1 C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 10 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive is not required to make a supervised release order.
 - 2 C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 8 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive must make a supervised release order for the remaining 2 weeks.
- (3) The chief executive may—
- (a) impose conditions that the chief executive considers appropriate on the supervised release order; and
 - (b) amend the conditions at any time by written notice served on the child.
- (4) The supervised release order must require that, during the period of the order—
- (a) the child abstain from violation of the law; and
 - (b) the child satisfactorily attend programs as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (c) the child comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and
 - (d) the child report and receive visits as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (e) the child or a parent of the child notify the chief executive within 2 business days of any change of address, employment or school; and
 - (f) the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (5) A supervised release order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

229 Child may be released from detention while absent from place of detention

To remove any doubt, it is declared that a child who is serving a period of detention at a place may be released from detention under this subdivision whether or not the child is at the place at the time of release.

Example—

A child is serving a period of detention at a detention centre. The chief executive grants the child leave of absence under section 269. While the child is on the leave of absence, the chief executive may make a supervised release order releasing the child from detention.

230 Release period counts as part of detention period

A period of time for which a child is released from detention under a supervised release order must be counted as part of the period that the child spent in detention for the purpose of calculating the end of the child's period of detention.

Subdivision 4 Release for life sentences

232 Application of sdiv 4

This subdivision applies to a child who is sentenced to detention for life.

233 Application of parole provisions

- (1) The Corrective Services Act 2006, chapter 5, part 1 applies to the child.
- (2) For subsection (1), a reference in the part to a prisoner serving a term of imprisonment for life is taken to include the child.

Subdivision 5 Publication orders

234 Court may allow publication of identifying information about a child

- (1) This section applies if a court makes an order against a child under section 176(3)(b).
- (2) The court may order that identifying information about the child may be published if the court considers it would be in the interests of justice to allow the publication, having regard to—
 - (a) the need to protect the community; and
 - (b) the safety or wellbeing of a person other than the child; and
 - (c) the impact of publication on the child's rehabilitation; and
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (3) The order does not authorise publication of identifying information before the end of any appeal period or, if the child gives notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal, before any appeal proceeding has ended.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared this section does not apply to a Childrens Court constituted by a Childrens Court magistrate.
- (5) In this section—

appeal period means the 1 calendar month from the date of conviction or sentence mentioned in the Criminal Code, section 671.

Division 11 Restitution and compensation

235 Restitution, compensation

- (1) In this section—

offence affected property includes—

- (a) property in relation to which the offence was committed; or
 - (b) property affected in the course of, or in connection with, the commission of the offence, for example, property of a victim of an offence committed against the victim's person.
- (2) If a child is found guilty before a court of an offence relating to property or against the person of another, the court may in addition to making a sentence order against the child, make 1 or more of the following orders—
- (a) an order that the child make restitution of offence affected property;
 - (b) an order that the child pay compensation (not more than an amount equal to 20 penalty units) for loss caused to offence affected property;
 - (c) an order that the child pay compensation for injury suffered by another person (whether the victim against whose person the offence was committed or another) because of the commission of the offence.
- (3) An order under this section requiring a child to pay an amount by way of compensation or making restitution must direct—
- (a) that the amount must be paid by a time specified in the order or by instalments specified in the order; and
 - (b) that the amount must be paid in the first instance to the proper officer of the court.
- (4) An order under this section may include a direction the court considers necessary or convenient for the order, for example the way in which restitution of property is to be carried out.
- (5) A court may make an order requiring a child to pay an amount under this section only if the court is satisfied that the child has the capacity to pay the amount.

Division 12 Contravention of community based orders and related matters

236 Reference to child

- (1) A reference in this division to a child against whom a community based order has been made includes a person who has become an adult since the order was made.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not limit section 142.

237 Chief executive must warn child about contravention

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a community based order is made against a child; and
 - (b) the chief executive reasonably believes the child has contravened the order.
- (2) The chief executive must warn the child of the consequences of further contravention, including the making of an application under section 238.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the chief executive does not know the child's whereabouts and can not reasonably find out.

238 Chief executive's application on contravention

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a community based order is made against a child; and
 - (b) the chief executive reasonably believes the child has contravened the order; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the contravention is believed to have happened after the child has been given a warning, under section 237, relating to a previous believed contravention of the order; or

- (ii) the chief executive is not required to warn the child under section 237; and
 - (d) the child has not been charged with an offence for the act or omission comprising the contravention.
- (2) The chief executive, by way of complaint and summons served on the child, may apply to a Childrens Court magistrate for a finding that the child has contravened the order.
- (3) The application may only be made during the period of the order.
- (4) A copy of the complaint must be served on a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry.
- (5) A Childrens Court magistrate may issue a warrant for the child's arrest if the child fails to appear before the court in answer to the summons.
- (6) A justice may issue a warrant for the child's arrest if the chief executive—
 - (a) makes a complaint before the justice that the child has contravened a community based order; and
 - (b) gives information before the justice, on oath, substantiating—
 - (i) the matter of the complaint; and
 - (ii) that the chief executive—
 - (A) does not know the child's whereabouts and can not reasonably find out; or
 - (B) reasonably believes the child would not comply with a summons.
- (7) A warrant issued under subsection (5) or (6) must state which part of the community based order has been contravened.
- (8) For part 5, a child arrested under the warrant must be treated as if arrested on a charge of an offence.
- (9) In this section—

parent, of a child, includes someone who is apparently a parent of the child.

239 Cancellation of warrant

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a warrant for a child’s arrest is issued under section 238; and
 - (b) the child appears before a Childrens Court magistrate other than through the execution of the warrant.
- (2) The magistrate may cancel the warrant and deal with the child under this division for the alleged contravention of the community based order.

240 General options available on breach of order

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a complaint is made under section 238 that a child has breached a community based order; and
 - (b) the child appears before a Childrens Court magistrate; and
 - (c) the magistrate is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt the contravention has happened.
- (2) If the order was made by a Childrens Court magistrate, the magistrate may take the following action—
 - (a) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action allowed under section 245;
 - (b) for a conditional release order—any action allowed under section 246.
- (3) If the order was made by a higher court, the magistrate may take the following action—
 - (a) if the magistrate considers that, having regard to the circumstances of the contravention, the order should be discharged and the child dealt with for the offence in respect of which the order was made—order the child to appear before the higher court;

(b) otherwise—

(i) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action under section 245 other than section 245(1)(d)(ii); or

(ii) for a conditional release order—deal with the child under section 246(2).

(4) If the magistrate orders the child to appear before the higher court, the magistrate may commit the child to custody or release the child under part 5 to be brought or to appear before the higher court.

(5) In this section—

higher court means the Supreme Court or a Childrens Court judge.

241 General options available to superior court to which child committed for breach

(1) This section applies if—

(a) the chief executive applies to a Childrens Court magistrate under section 238 for a finding that a child has breached a community based order; and

(b) under section 240(3)(a), the magistrate orders the child to appear before the Supreme Court or a Childrens Court judge (the higher court); and

(c) the higher court is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt of the matter alleged against the child in the chief executive's application.

(2) The higher court may take the following action—

(a) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 245;

(b) for a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 246.

- (3) The proceeding before the higher court must be heard and decided by a judge sitting without a jury.

242 General options available to court before which child found guilty of an indictable offence

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a child commits an indictable offence while the child is subject to a community based order; and
 - (b) a court finds the child guilty of the offence.
- (2) If the order was made by the court, it may take the following action—
- (a) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 245;
 - (b) for a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 246.
- (3) If the order was not made by the court, it may take the following action—
- (a) if it considers that, having regard to the circumstances of the offence, the order should be discharged and the child resentenced for the offence in respect of which the order was made—order the child to appear before the court that made the order or, if it may act under section 243, act under that section;
 - (b) otherwise—
 - (i) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action under section 245 other than section 245(1)(d)(ii); or
 - (ii) for a conditional release order—deal with the child under section 246(2).
- (4) If the court orders the child to appear before another court under subsection (3)(a), it may commit the child to custody or release the child under part 5 to be brought or to appear before the other court.

243 Court may resentence child originally sentenced by lower court

- (1) This section applies to a court acting under section 242(3)(a) in relation to a community based order that it did not make.
- (2) If the court is the Supreme Court or a Childrens Court judge and the court that made the order is a Childrens Court magistrate, it may make a sentence order under the following provisions that a Childrens Court magistrate could make in the same circumstances—
 - (a) for an order other than a conditional release order—section 245(1)(d)(ii);
 - (b) for a conditional release order—section 246(1).
- (3) A sentence order made under subsection (2)—
 - (a) for the purposes of an appeal, is taken to be a sentence order made on indictment; but
 - (b) for all other purposes, is taken to be a sentence order made by a Childrens Court magistrate.
- (4) If the court is the Supreme Court and the court that made the order is a Childrens Court judge, it may make a sentence order under the following provisions that a Childrens Court judge could make in the same circumstances—
 - (a) for an order other than a conditional release order—section 245(1)(d)(ii);
 - (b) for a conditional release order—section 246(1).
- (5) A sentence order made under subsection (4) is taken to be a sentence order made by the Childrens Court judge.

244 General options available to court to which child committed for breach by indictable offence

- (1) This section applies if a court orders a child to appear before another court under section 242(3)(a).
- (2) The other court may take the following action—

- (a) for an order other than a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 245;
 - (b) for a conditional release order—any action allowed by section 246.
- (3) If the other court is the Supreme Court or Childrens Court judge, the proceeding must be heard and decided by a judge sitting without a jury.

245 Court's power on breach of a community based order other than a conditional release order

- (1) A court that acts under this section may—
- (a) for a probation order—extend the period of the order, but not so that the period by which the order is extended is longer than the period for which the order could be made under sections 175(1)(d), 176(1)(a) and 180(3); or
 - (aa) for a graffiti removal order—
 - (i) increase the number of graffiti removal service hours but not so that the total number of hours is more than the number allowed under section 176A(3) or sections 194F to 194I; or
 - (ii) extend the period within which the graffiti removal service must be performed, but not so that the extended period ends more than 1 year after the court acts under this section; or
 - (ab) for a restorative justice order—extend the period within which the child's obligations under the order must be performed, but not so that the extended period ends more than 1 year after the court acts under this section; or
 - (b) for a community service order—
 - (i) increase the number of community service hours, but not so that the total number of hours is more than the number allowed under section 175(1)(e); or

- (ii) extend the period within which the community service must be performed, but not so that the extended period ends more than 1 year after the court acts under this section; or
 - (c) for an intensive supervision order—extend the period of the order, but not so that the last day of the order is more than 6 months after the court acts under this section; or
 - (d) for any community based order—
 - (i) vary another requirement of the order other than the requirement that the child abstain from violation of the law; or
 - (ii) discharge the order and resentence the child for the offence for which the order was made as if the child had just been found guilty before the court of that offence; or
 - (iii) on the undertaking of the child to comply in all respects with the order, take no further action.
- (2) The court may vary the community based order only if the child expresses a willingness to comply with the order as varied.
- (3) An order under subsection (1)(a), (aa), (ab), (b) or (c) may be made in conjunction with an order under subsection (1)(d)(i).
- (4) If the court decides to extend the period of the community based order, the court must have regard to the period for which the child has complied with the order.
- (5) An order may be made under this section even though, at the time it is made, the community based order in relation to which the order is made is no longer in force because the period of the community based order has ended.
- (6) For part 6, division 9, subdivision 4, an order or decision mentioned in this section and made by a Childrens Court magistrate is a sentence order.
- (7) In this section—

community based order means a community based order other than a conditional release order.

246 Court's power on breach of conditional release order

- (1) A court that acts under this section may revoke the conditional release order and order the child to serve the sentence of detention for which the conditional release order was made.
- (2) However, instead of revoking the conditional release order, the court may permit the child a further opportunity to satisfy the requirements of the order and, for that purpose, may—
 - (a) vary the requirements in a way it considers just; or
 - (b) extend the program period for the order, but not so that the last day of the period is more than 3 months after the court acts under this section.
- (3) The onus is on the child to satisfy the court it should permit the child this further opportunity.
- (4) If the court decides to extend the program period for the conditional release order, the court must have regard to the period for which the child has complied with the order.
- (5) An order may be made under this section even though, at the time it is made, the conditional release order in relation to which the order is made is no longer in force because the period of the conditional release order has ended.
- (6) For part 6, division 9, subdivision 4, an order mentioned in this section and made by a Childrens Court magistrate is a sentence order.

247 Variation, discharge and resentence in the interests of justice

- (1) If a community based order is in force for a child, the child or the chief executive may apply to the court that made the order to—

- (a) vary the requirements of the order, other than the requirement that the child abstain from violation of the law; or
 - (b) for an order other than a conditional release order—
 - (i) discharge the order; or
 - (ii) discharge the order and resentence the child for the offence in respect of which the order was made as if the child had just been found guilty before the court of the offence; or
 - (ba) for a restorative justice order—extend the period within which the child’s obligations under the order must be performed, but not so that the extended period ends more than 1 year after the court acts under this section; or
 - (c) for a conditional release order—revoke the order and order the child to serve the sentence of detention for which the conditional release order was made.
- (2) The applicant must give written notice of the making of the application—
- (a) if the application is made by the child—to the chief executive; or
 - (b) if the application is made by the chief executive—to the child.
- (3) The court may grant the application if the court considers it would be in the interests of justice, having regard to circumstances that have arisen or become known since the order was made.
- (4) The application can not be made on the grounds that the child has contravened the order.
- (5) On an application mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(ii), the child can not be resented to a greater penalty than would be the case if the balance of the order were served.

Example of a greater penalty—

a penalty that would impose a greater degree of restriction on the child's liberty

248 Detention reduced to the extent just

- (1) This section applies to a court if, under this division, it revokes a conditional release order and orders a child to serve the period of detention for which the conditional release order was made.
- (2) The court must reduce the period of detention by the period the court considers just, having regard to everything done by the child to conform with the conditional release order.

249 Matters relevant to making further order

- (1) This section applies to a court if, under this division, it discharges a community based order, other than a conditional release order, and resentsences the child for the offence in respect of which the order was made.
- (2) The court must have regard to—
 - (a) the reasons for making the order; and
 - (b) anything done by the child in compliance with the order.
- (3) If the community based order is a graffiti removal order, the court need not, when resentencing the child for the graffiti offence for which the order was made, make another graffiti removal order.

250 Affidavits may be used in certain proceedings

- (1) In a proceeding before a court under this division, evidence by affidavit of a person having direct knowledge of the facts deposed to is admissible to prove facts material to any question.
- (2) The proceeding may be decided on evidence by affidavit alone, unless the court orders, in the interests of justice, that a person who has made an affidavit be called to give evidence in the proceeding.

- (3) The court may make an order under subsection (2) of its own initiative or on the application of a party to the proceeding.
- (4) This section does not limit another way in which the proceeding may be conducted.

251 Notice of discharge etc. of community based order

If a court in the exercise of jurisdiction under this division affects the terms or operation of a community based order made against a child, it must cause written notice of the exercise of the jurisdiction to be given to—

- (a) the child; and
- (b) the chief executive; and
- (c) if that court is not the court that made the community based order to which the application for exercise of the jurisdiction applied—the court that made the order.

252 Variations by consent

- (1) This section applies to a community based order, other than a conditional release order, that is in force for a child.
- (2) The child or the chief executive may apply to the proper officer of the court that made the order to make stated amendments to the requirements of the order.
- (3) The application must be accompanied by an affidavit deposing to the fact that the chief executive and the child consent to the proposed amendment of the order.
- (4) If the application is made under this section, the proper officer must grant the application by amending the order and noting the amendments on the court's record of the order.
- (5) The following amendments may not be made under this section—

- (a) an amendment of the requirement that the child abstain from violation of the law;
- (b) for a community based order other than a community service order—an amendment of the period of the order;
