- (4) The reference committee may ask the senior executive officer (crime) to help the committee to conduct the review, and, if asked, the senior executive officer (crime) must give the committee the help it needs to conduct the review.

 - (b) an immediate search is necessary to protect the safety of a person.

 - (i) the relevant person; or

- (a) a condition requiring regular reporting to a judge on activities under the warrant; and
 - (b) a condition requiring that, if a listening device is to be used in a public place or class of place, the officer, before installing or using the device, must have a reasonable belief that the relevant person is or will be in the place where the device is to be used.

Example for subsection (3)(b)—

The warrant may be issued for any motel in a stated area because the officer may have a reasonable belief that the relevant person may be in a motel in the area but not know in advance which one. The condition may be that the device may only be installed if the officer reasonably believes the person is likely to be in the place.

125 What surveillance warrant must state

A surveillance warrant must state the following—

Part 10 Arrest warrants

167 Arrest warrant application

- (1) An authorised commission officer, with the chairperson's approval, may apply to a magistrate for a warrant for the apprehension of a person (arrest warrant) who has been given an attendance notice.
- (2) The application must be sworn and state the grounds on which the warrant is sought.
- (3) The magistrate may refuse to consider the application until the officer gives the magistrate all the information the magistrate requires about the application in the way the magistrate requires.

168 Issue of arrest warrant

- (1) The magistrate may issue a warrant for the apprehension of the person if the magistrate is satisfied—
 - (a) on sworn evidence before the magistrate—
 - (i) the person—
 - (A) has been given the attendance notice; and
 - (B) has, without reasonable excuse, failed to attend at the commission hearing as required by the notice; or
 - (ii) the person has made a representation that the person intends not to attend at a commission hearing as required by the attendance notice; and

- (b) it is in the public interest that the person be compelled to attend at the hearing to avoid prejudice to the conduct of an investigation.
 - (2) For subsection (1)(a)(ii), an arrest warrant may be issued even though the time stated in the attendance notice for the person to attend has not yet passed.
 - (3) In this section—
 - representation* includes—
 - (a) an express or implied representation, whether oral or in writing; and
 - (b) a representation inferred from conduct; and
 - (c) a representation not intended by its maker to be communicated to or seen by another person.

169 What arrest warrant authorises

- (1) The arrest warrant authorises any authorised commission officer or police officer (authorised officer) to whom it is addressed to enter a place, using the force reasonably necessary, and to stay for a reasonable time on the place to apprehend the person subject to the warrant.
- (2) The person apprehended—
 - (a) must be brought immediately before a commission hearing; and
 - (b) may be detained in custody until excused from attendance at the hearing by the presiding officer at the hearing.
- (3) The Bail Act 1980 applies to a person taken into custody under an arrest warrant in the same way it applies to a person in custody charged with an offence.
- (4) The arrest warrant may be executed by any authorised officer to whom it is addressed.

- (5) An authorised officer executing the arrest warrant may use the force that is reasonably necessary, including force to enter premises, to execute the warrant.
- (6) However, before the authorised officer uses force that may cause damage to a place to gain entry to the place, the authorised officer must, if reasonably practicable—
 - (a) ask the occupier of the place to allow the authorised officer to enter the place; and
 - (b) give the occupier a reasonable opportunity to allow the entry.

170 Provision for overnight detention

Unless the arrest warrant otherwise provides, if the person is required to be detained overnight, the commission must arrange for the person to be provided with accommodation and meals to a standard comparable to that generally provided to jurors kept together overnight.

171 Person's liability for noncompliance with attendance notice unaffected by issue of arrest warrant

The issue of an arrest warrant for the apprehension of a person, or the apprehension of a person under the arrest warrant, does not relieve the person from any liability incurred by the person for noncompliance with an attendance notice.

Part 11 General

172 Commission officer may use assistance in exercising particular powers

- (1) It is lawful for a commission officer exercising a power under this Act—

- (a) to seek the assistance of another person (an assistant) the officer reasonably requires for performing a function of the commission; or
 - (b) to take onto a place any assistant, equipment, vehicle, animal or material the officer reasonably requires for exercising the power.

Examples—

- 1 A commission officer may seek the help of an electrician to install a listening device under a surveillance warrant.
 - 2 A commission officer may seek the help of a translator to interpret conversations and visual images recorded using a surveillance device.
- (2) The commission officer may authorise the assistant—
 - (a) to take stated action at the place; and
 - (b) to exercise stated powers the commission officer is authorised to exercise.
 - (3) However, the commission officer can not authorise the assistant to apprehend a person.
 - (4) The commission officer must, if practicable, tell the assistant—
 - (a) of the action the assistant is authorised to take; and
 - (b) of the assistant’s powers under this section.
 - (5) Subsection (1) applies, in relation to animals, despite any other Act or law.

173 Protection for assistants from liability

- (1) An assistant does not incur civil liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence, while acting as an assistant.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents a liability attaching to an assistant, liability attaches instead to the State.

174 Commission's powers generally

- (1) Without limiting the commission's specific powers under this or another Act, the commission has power to do all things necessary or convenient to be done for or in connection with, or reasonably incidental to, the performance of its functions.

Note—

See, for example, the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 11 (Controlled operations).

- (2) A person who is a member of a relevant office whose services are seconded to the commission under section 255 retains, and may exercise, all powers had by the person as a member of the office.
- (3) In this section—

relevant office means a unit of public administration or an office within a unit of public administration.

175 Supplying officer's details

- (1) This section applies if a commission officer—
 - (a) searches a place under a warrant, other than a covert search warrant, under this chapter; or
 - (b) seizes any property, other than under a covert search warrant, under this chapter.
- (2) The officer must, as soon as is reasonably practicable, inform the person the subject of the power of the following—
 - (a) the fact that the officer is a commission officer;
 - (b) the officer's name;
 - (c) if the officer is a police officer, his or her rank and station.
- (3) If the officer is not a police officer in uniform, the officer must also produce for inspection his or her identity card.
- (4) If 2 or more officers are searching a place, only the officer in charge of the search is required to comply with subsections (2) and (3), unless a person asks another officer for the information.

- (1) Generally, a hearing is not open to the public.
- (2) However—
 - (a) for a hearing for a crime investigation, the commission may open the hearing to the public (public hearing) if it—
 - (i) considers opening the hearing will make the investigation to which the hearing relates more effective and would not be unfair to a person or contrary to the public interest; and

- (ii) approves that the hearing be a public hearing; or
 - (b) for a witness protection function hearing, the commission may open the hearing to the public if it—
 - (i) considers opening the hearing will make the hearing more effective and—
 - (A) would not be unfair to a person or contrary to the public interest; and
 - (B) would not threaten the security of a protected person or the integrity of the witness protection program or other witness protection activities of the commission; and
 - (ii) approves that the hearing be a public hearing; or
 - (c) for a hearing other than a hearing mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b), the commission may open the hearing to the public if it—
 - (i) considers closing the hearing to the public would be unfair to a person or contrary to the public interest; and
 - (ii) approves that the hearing be a public hearing.
- (3) A decision about whether a hearing should be a public hearing must not be delegated.
- (4) If the commission decides to open a hearing to the public, the presiding officer for the hearing may close the hearing for a particular purpose.

178 Who must conduct hearings

 - (c) a person authorised by the presiding officer; or
 - (d) a lawyer representing the witness.
- (3) The presiding officer may allow a person who is not giving sworn evidence at the hearing to be legally represented at the hearing if the presiding officer considers there are special circumstances.

- (1) This section applies if the presiding officer at a commission hearing reasonably suspects a witness is unable, because of inadequate knowledge of the English language or a physical disability, to understand what is being said or to speak with reasonable fluency in English.
