Maintenance Regulations 1967

Part I Preliminary

1 Short title

These Regulations may be cited as the Maintenance Regulations 1967.

2 Commencement

- (1) Subject to subregulation (2) of this Regulation, these Regulations shall come into operation on the date of commencement of the Act.
- (2) Where the Governor in Council, pursuant to subsection (2) of section 2 of the Act, by Proclamation fixes a date or dates for the commencement of Division 2 of Part III of the Act, or for the commencement of the several provisions of Part IV of the Act, later than the date fixed by the Proclamation under subsection (1) of section 2 of the Act for the commencement of the Act, then, in subregulation (1) of this Regulation, the term “date of commencement of the Act” means, in relation to any Regulations made for the purposes of Division 2 of Part III of the Act, or of any of the several provisions of Part IV of the Act, the date of the commencement of that Division or of that provision, so fixed.

3 Parts

These Regulations are divided into Parts and a Schedule as follows:—

PART I—PRELIMINARY (Regulations 1–6);

PART II—LOCAL MAINTENANCE (Regulations 7–32);

PART III—INTERSTATE MAINTENANCE (Regulations 33–50);

PART IV—OVERSEAS MAINTENANCE (Regulations 51–75);

PART V—GENERAL (Regulations 76–78);

THE SCHEDULE.

4 Repeals and Savings

- (1) All Rules of Court made under “The Maintenance Acts, 1949 to 1954,” are hereby repealed.
- (2) All Regulations made under “The Interstate Destitute Persons Relief Acts, 1914 to 1944,” are hereby repealed as from the date Part III of these Regulations comes into operation.
- (3) All Regulations and Rules of Court made under “The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Acts, 1921 to 1959,” are, except as hereinafter provided, hereby repealed as from the date Part IV of these Regulations comes into operation:

Provided that any such Regulations or Rules in force immediately prior to the date Part IV of these Regulations comes into operation shall continue and be of full force and effect for the purposes of subsections (4) and (5) of section five of the Act in relation to orders that were, prior to the commencement of Division 3 of Part IV of the Act, registered in the Supreme Court of Queensland under “The Maintenance Orders (Facilities for Enforcement) Acts, 1921 to 1959,” and were, immediately prior to the commencement of that Division, enforceable in that court or in a Magistrates Court of Queensland.

5 Interpretation

Without limiting the operation of “The Acts Interpretation Acts, 1954 to 1962,” in these Regulations, unless the context otherwise indicates or requires, the following terms have the meanings set against them respectively, that is to say:—

“Schedule”—The Schedule to these Regulations;

“The Act”—“The Maintenance Act of 1965.”

6 Forms

- (1) The Forms set out in the Schedule to these Regulations shall be used for the purposes for which they are respectively designed.
- (2) Strict compliance with a Form in the Schedule is not necessary and substantial compliance is sufficient.
- (3) A Form shall be completed in accordance with any directions contained in that Form, and with such additions thereto and deletions therefrom as may be appropriate for the purpose for which the Form is used.

Part II Local Maintenance

7 Complaints

A complaint shall be sufficiently made for the purposes of the Act if the cause of complaint is stated in or to the effect of one of the forms in Form No. 1 of the Schedule, as appropriate.

8 Orders

In any order in Form No. 3, Form No. 6, Form No. 7, Form No. 8, Form No. 10, Form No. 11, or Form No. 12 of the Schedule the Preamble to the order shall include the matter set out in Form No. 2 of the Schedule, as appropriate.

9 Nominal Orders

An order for the payment of a merely nominal amount of maintenance shall be in Form No. 3 of the Schedule.

10 Preliminary Orders

An order made ex parte for the preliminary maintenance of a child shall be in Form No. 4 of the Schedule.

11 Interim Orders

An interim order for the payment of maintenance pending the hearing and determination of a complaint shall be in Form No. 5 of the Schedule.

12 Maintenance Orders

An order for the maintenance of a person shall be in Form No. 6 of the Schedule.

13 Maintenance Orders—Children

An order for the maintenance of a child whose parents were not married to each other at the time of its conception and have not since married each other shall be in Form No. 7 of the Schedule.

14 Orders for payment of preliminary expenses

An order for the payment of preliminary expenses of a mother of a child to whose father she was not married at the time of its conception and whom she did not subsequently marry shall be in Form No. 8 or Form No. 9 of the Schedule, whichever is appropriate.

15 Orders for payment of funeral expenses of children

An order for the payment of funeral expenses of a child shall be in Form No. 10 of the Schedule.

The grounds upon which the making of the Order herein could have been opposed if the abovenamed defendant had appeared at the hearing of the proceedings on which the Order was made are—

1. That the said complainant is not in fact the wife (or husband) of the said defendant;
2. That the said child (or children) is (or are) not a * child (or children) of the family of the said defendant;
3. That the said defendant did provide and is providing the said complainant (or child or children) with adequate means of support;
4. That the said defendant had just cause or excuse for neglecting to provide the said complainant (or child or children) with adequate means of support;

* Section 7 of “The Maintenance Act of 1965” provides that—

A child of the family, in relation to parties to a marriage, or to either of them and whether or not either party to the marriage is dead, means—

(a) Any child of both parties; and

(b) Any child of either party who has been accepted as one of the family by the other party; and mother, father, and parent, in relation to a child of the family, are to be construed accordingly.

For the purposes of the interpretation of child of the family, a child of either party to the marriage shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be taken to have been accepted by the other party as one of the family if it is proved that at any time the child was ordinarily a member of the family household.
