Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004

An Act to require particular offenders who commit sexual, or particular other serious, offences against children to keep police informed of their whereabouts and other personal details for a period of time, to reduce the likelihood that they will re-offend, and to facilitate the investigation and prosecution of any future offences that they may commit, and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2004.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on a day to be fixed by proclamation.

3 Purposes of this Act

- (1) Parliament recognises that any risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally, is unacceptable.
- (1A) The purposes of this Act are—
 - (a) to provide for the protection of the lives of children and their sexual safety; and
 - (b) to require particular offenders who commit sexual, or particular other serious, offences against children to keep police informed of the offender's whereabouts and other personal details for a period of time after the offender's release into the community—

[s 3]

- (i) to reduce the likelihood that the offender will re-offend; and
- (ii) to facilitate the investigation and prosecution of any future offences that the offender may commit.

(2) In outline, this Act—

- (a) provides for the establishment of a child protection register; and
- (b) requires offenders who are sentenced for reportable offences after the commencement date to report specified personal details for inclusion in the register, and extends this requirement to particular offenders sentenced for reportable offences before that date; and
- (c) requires those reportable offenders to keep those details up to date, to report those details periodically and to also report particular travel plans; and
- (d) imposes those reporting obligations for a period of between 2½ years and life, depending on the number, severity and timing of the offences committed, and the age of the reportable offender at the time an offence was committed; and
- (e) allows for the recognition of the period of reporting obligations imposed under laws of foreign jurisdictions; and
- (f) provides for the making of orders against particular offenders who commit sexual, or particular other serious, offences against children to—
 - (i) prohibit the offenders from engaging in conduct posing a risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally; or

- (ii) require the offenders to do particular things to reduce the risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally.
- (3) Subsection (2) is intended only as a guide to readers about the general scheme and effect of this Act.

4 Relationship between this Act and Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003

- (1) This section applies to a person who is, for a period (the concurrent period)—
 - (a) a reportable offender subject to reporting obligations under this Act; and
 - (b) subject to the requirements of a supervision order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003.
- (2) During the concurrent period, the reportable offender is not required to make any report under this Act other than an initial report.

Part 2 Interpretation

5 Reportable offender defined

- (1) A reportable offender is a person who is—
 - (a) sentenced for a reportable offence after the commencement of this section; or
 - (aa) sentenced for an offence for which a court has made a declaration under subsection (5A); or
 - (b) an existing reportable offender; or
 - (c) a corresponding reportable offender; or
 - (d) subject to an offender reporting order; or
 - (e) subject to an offender prohibition order; or
 - (f) a post-DPSOA reportable offender.

[s 5]

- (2) However, a person mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is not a reportable offender only because—
- (a) the person was convicted of a prescribed offence, if the conviction was not recorded under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 12 or the Youth Justice Act 1992, section 183, (or an equivalent order under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction); or
 - (b) the person was sentenced for a single prescribed offence, if the sentence did not include—
 - (i) a term of imprisonment; or
 - (ii) a requirement that the person be under the supervision of a supervising authority or another person or body; or
 - (c) the person, as a child, committed—
 - (i) a single offence against the Classification of Computer Games and Images Act 1995, section 26(3), the Classification of Films Act 1991, section 41 or 42 or the Classification of Publications Act 1991, section 13, 14, 15 or 16; or
 - (ii) a single offence of possessing or publishing child pornography (in whatever terms expressed) under the laws of Queensland; or
 - (iii) a single offence of possessing or publishing child pornography (in whatever terms expressed) under the laws of a foreign jurisdiction; or
 - (iv) a single offence (including an offence under the law of a foreign jurisdiction) that falls within a class of offence that the regulations state is an offence for the purposes of this subparagraph.
- (3) Also, a person is not a reportable offender if the person—
- (a) is receiving protection under a foreign witness protection law specified under a regulation for the purposes of this subsection; or

- (b) has the same status as a person mentioned in paragraph (a) under an order made under a corresponding Act specified under a regulation for the purposes of this subsection.
- (4) For this section, it is irrelevant whether or not a person may lodge, or has lodged, an appeal in relation to a finding of guilt, sentence or offender reporting order.
- (5) For subsection (1)(a), a person is a reportable offender even if the reportable offence was committed before the commencement of this section.
- (5A) For subsection (1)(aa), if a court finds a person guilty of an offence other than a reportable offence, it may also declare it is satisfied the facts and circumstances surrounding the offence constitute elements of a reportable offence.
- (6) For subsection (1)(b) to (d), a person is a reportable offender even if the person was sentenced for the reportable offence before the commencement of this section.
- (7) A reference to a single offence in subsection (2)(b) and (c) includes a reference to more than 1 offence arising from the same incident.

Note—

For when offences arise from the same incident, see section 11.

- (8) In subsection (2)(b)(ii)—
- supervision* of a supervising authority does not include supervision under a fine option order.

6 Existing reportable offender defined

- (1) An existing reportable offender is—
- (a) a person who, as a result of having been sentenced for a reportable offence before the commencement date—
- (i) is serving a term of imprisonment; or
- (ii) is subject to a supervision order; or

[s 7]

- (b) a person who, immediately before the commencement date, was subject to a reporting order made under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, section 19.
- (2) Subsection (1)(a) does not apply if a conviction was not recorded under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 12 or the Youth Justice Act 1992, section 183.

7 Corresponding reportable offender defined

A corresponding reportable offender is a person who—

- (a) had at any time (whether before or after the commencement of this section) been in a foreign jurisdiction and at that time had been required to report to the corresponding registrar in that jurisdiction for a longer period than the person would be required to report under this Act; and
- (b) would, if the person were currently in that foreign jurisdiction, be required to report to the corresponding registrar in that jurisdiction for a longer period (the recognised foreign reporting period) than the person would be required to report under this Act; and
- (c) falls within a class of person whom a regulation states is a corresponding reportable offender.

Note—

A regulation might prescribe a person to be a corresponding reportable offender if the longer reporting period arises because the foreign jurisdiction recognises, as a reportable offence, an offence that is not a reportable offence under this Act, or the corresponding Act commenced earlier than this Act, or for any other reason.

7A Post-DPSOA reportable offender defined

- (1) A post-DPSOA reportable offender is a person who—
- (a) was sentenced for a reportable offence, whether before or after the commencement date; and

- (b) was, but is no longer, subject to a division 3 order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003; and
 - (c) at the time the person stopped being subject to the division 3 order mentioned in paragraph (b), was not subject to reporting obligations as a reportable offender under section 5(1)(a), (aa) or (b).
- (2) A person becomes a post-DPSOA reportable offender when the person stops being subject to the division 3 order mentioned in subsection (1)(b).

8 When a person stops being a reportable offender

A person stops being a reportable offender when any of the following events happen—

- (a) the finding of guilt in relation to the only offence that makes the person a reportable offender under this Act is quashed or set aside by a court;
- (b) the person’s sentence for the only reportable offence that makes the person a reportable offender under this Act is reduced or altered so that the person would have been a person mentioned in section 5(2)(a) or (b) had the amended sentence been the original sentence;
- (c) the offender reporting order that makes the person a reportable offender under this Act—
 - (i) is quashed on appeal; or
 - (ii) if the offender reporting order was made with a forensic order—ends because the forensic order is revoked;
- (d) the end of all reporting periods to which the person is subject, including under an offender prohibition order.

9 Reportable offence defined

A reportable offence is—

[s 9A]

- (a) an offence (a prescribed offence) that is mentioned in schedule 1, item 9, if—
 - (i) the offence is committed in respect of a child; or
 - (ii) the police commissioner reasonably believes the reportable offender committed the offence in the belief that the person in respect of whom the offence was committed was a child; or
- (b) another offence (also a prescribed offence) that is mentioned in schedule 1; or
- (c) another offence that results in an offender reporting order being made.

9A Reportable contact defined

- (1) A reportable offender has reportable contact with a child if the offender—
 - (a) has physical contact with the child; or
 - (b) communicates with the child orally, whether in person, by telephone or over the internet; or
 - (c) communicates with the child in writing (including by electronic communication).
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), reportable contact includes contact with a child when the offender is—
 - (a) supervising or caring for any child; or
 - (b) exchanging contact details with any child; or
 - (c) attempting to befriend any child.
- (3) Reportable contact does not include contact with a child that is incidental to the offender’s daily life unless the contact—
 - (a) involves an attempt by the offender to befriend, or establish further contact with, the child; or
 - (b) occurs with a regularity or frequency, or in a way, that may reasonably be expected to result in a level of familiarity or trust between the offender and the child beyond what may reasonably be expected to be incidental to the offender's daily life.

Examples of contact with a child that is incidental to a reportable offender's daily life—

- the offender buys a newspaper from a shop where the shop attendant is a child
- the offender buys takeaway food from a shop that has child employees

(4) In this section—

contact means contact that happens in Queensland or elsewhere.

10 Finding of guilt defined

- (1) A reference to a finding of guilt in relation to an offence (however expressed) committed by a person is a reference to any of the following—
- (a) a court making a formal finding of guilt in relation to the offence;
 - (b) a court convicting the person of the offence, if there has been no formal finding of guilt before conviction;
 - (c) a court accepting a plea of guilty from the person in relation to the offence;
 - (d) a court accepting an admission of guilt from the person in relation to the offence for the purpose of the offence being taken into account under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 189 or the Youth Justice Act 1992, section 157, or under equivalent provisions of the laws of a foreign jurisdiction.
- (2) However, a reference to a finding of guilt does not include a finding of guilt that is later quashed or set aside by a court.

10A Personal details defined

The personal details of a reportable offender are the details mentioned in schedule 2 for the offender.

[s 10B]

10B When a person poses a risk to children

A person poses a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally, if there is a risk that the person will engage in conduct that may constitute a reportable offence against or in relation to a child or children.

11 References to other terms and concepts

- (1) Offences arise from the same incident only if they are committed—
 - (a) within a single period of 24 hours; and
 - (b) against the same person.
- (2) A reference to doing a thing in person is a reference to doing the thing by personal attendance at a place, and is not a reference to attending the place by phone or by other electronic means.

12 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 5 defines particular words used in this Act.

Part 3 Offender reporting orders

13 Offender reporting orders

- (1) If a court—
 - (a) finds a person guilty of an offence (the offence) that is not a prescribed offence; or
 - (b) makes a forensic order in relation to a person;the court may also make an order that the person comply with the reporting obligations of this Act (an offender reporting order).

- (2) However, the court may only make the offender reporting order—
- (a) if the court is satisfied that the person poses a risk to the lives or the sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally; or
 - (b) if the offence is a child abduction offence—without limiting paragraph (a), if the court is satisfied, having regard to the circumstances of the case, that—
 - (i) the context in which the offence was committed was not familial; and
 - (ii) it is appropriate to make the order.

Example for subparagraph (ii)—

The commission of the offence was not merely incidental.

- (3) For subsection (2)(a), it is not necessary that the court be able to identify a risk to particular children, or a particular class of children.
- (4) A court may make an offender reporting order under subsection (1)(a) only if the court—
- (a) imposes a sentence for the offence; and
 - (b) records a conviction.

Note—

For when no conviction is recorded, see—

- the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 12
- the Youth Justice Act 1992, section 183.

- (5) A court may make an offender reporting order—
- (a) on its own initiative; or
 - (b) on an application for the imposition of the order made by the prosecution.
- (5A) The prosecution may make an application under subsection (5)(b) at any time within 6 months after the day the court—
- (a) imposes the sentence for the offence; or

- (b) makes the forensic order.
- (6) If a court—
 - (a) has made an offender reporting order under subsection (1)(a) in relation to a person, the person may appeal against the making of the order under the Criminal Code, chapter 67 as if the order were a sentence pronounced on the conviction of the person for an indictable offence; or
 - (b) has refused to make an offender reporting order under subsection (1)(a) in relation to a person, the Attorney-General may appeal against the refusal under the Criminal Code, chapter 67 as if the refusal were a sentence pronounced on conviction of the person for an indictable offence.
- (7) If a court—
 - (a) has made an offender reporting order under subsection (1)(b) in relation to a person, the person may appeal against the making of the order under the Mental Health Act 2016 as if the order were a decision of the Mental Health Court; or
 - (b) has refused to make an offender reporting order under subsection (1)(b), the Attorney-General may appeal against the refusal under the Mental Health Act 2016 as if the order were a decision of the Mental Health Court.
- (8) For subsection (7), a reference to the Mental Health Court in the Mental Health Act 2016 is to be read as a reference to the court that made, or refused to make, the offender reporting order.
- (9) An order made under subsection (1)(b) ends if the forensic order is revoked under the Mental Health Act 2016, section 441.
- (10) For part 4, division 5, if, under subsection (1)(a), an offender reporting order is imposed on a person for the offence, the person is taken to have been found guilty of a prescribed offence.

(11) In this section—

child abduction offence means—

- (a) an offence against the Criminal Code, section 354 involving the kidnap of a child; or
- (b) an offence against the Criminal Code, section 363 or 363A.

Note—

See the Criminal Code, sections 354 (Kidnapping), 363 (Child-stealing) and 363A (Abduction of a child under 16).

Part 3A Offender prohibition orders

Division 1 Offender prohibition orders

Subdivision 1 Prohibition orders

13A Application

- (1) The police commissioner may apply to a court for a prohibition order for a person if the police commissioner believes, on reasonable grounds, the person—
 - (a) is a relevant sexual offender; and
 - (b) has engaged in concerning conduct.
- (2) The application must be in the approved form and must state—
 - (a) the particulars of each conviction of the respondent for a reportable offence committed against a child; and
 - (b) the particulars of the concerning conduct the respondent is alleged to have engaged in; and
 - (c) when the respondent is alleged to have engaged in the concerning conduct; and

[s 13B]

- (d) the conduct of the respondent proposed to be prohibited under the prohibition order, including the conditions sought by the police commissioner.
- (3) In this section—

concerning conduct means an act or omission, or a course of conduct, the nature or pattern of which poses a risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally, and may include the following—

- (a) conduct that constitutes an offence;
- (b) conduct that is a single act or omission.

Examples—

- loitering at or near a park fitted with playground equipment regularly used by children
- seeking employment or volunteer work that will involve the employee coming into contact with children, including, for example, door-to-door sales or collecting
- living near a school
- living in a household with children under 16 years

13B How proceeding for prohibition order is started

- (1) The police commissioner starts a proceeding against a respondent under section 13A(1) by issuing an appearance notice for the proceeding.
- (2) As soon as practicable after starting the proceeding, and before the time the respondent is required to appear at a place before a court under the appearance notice, the police commissioner must file the following documents with the registrar of the court at the place—
- (a) the application for the proceeding;
- (b) a copy of the appearance notice for the proceeding.
- (3) A police officer must serve a copy of the application and the appearance notice (the application documents) on the respondent.

Note—

For further provisions about service, see section 13ZL.

- (4) Also, for a child respondent, the police commissioner must, as soon as practicable after starting the proceeding, give a copy of the application documents to—
- (a) the chief executive (child safety), if the prohibition order sought is likely to result in the child respondent needing to change the child respondent's place of residence; and
 - (b) a parent of the child respondent, if the police commissioner is able to find a parent of the child respondent after making reasonable attempts.

13C Making prohibition order

- (1) A court may make a prohibition order if the court is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, after considering the matters mentioned in section 13D—
- (a) the respondent is a relevant sexual offender; and
 - (b) having regard to the nature or pattern of conduct engaged in by the respondent—
 - (i) the respondent poses an unacceptable risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally; and
 - (ii) the making of the prohibition order will reduce the risk.
- (2) Also, for a child respondent, the court may only make the prohibition order—
- (a) after considering a report given to the court under section 13E; and
 - (b) if satisfied the making of the prohibition order is a last resort and the most effective way of reducing the risk mentioned in subsection (1)(b)(i).
- (3) For subsection (1), it is not necessary for the court to be able to identify a risk to a particular child or particular children.

[s 13D]

- (4) The application for the prohibition order may be heard in the respondent's absence if the court is satisfied the respondent was served with the application documents under section 13B(3).
- (5) However, the court may, at any time before making the prohibition order, direct the police commissioner to give a further appearance notice to the respondent as directed by the court.

13D Matters court must consider before making prohibition order

- (1) The matters a court must consider for section 13C(1) are—
 - (a) when the conduct that is the subject of the proposed prohibition order happened; and
 - (b) the seriousness of the respondent's reportable offences committed against a child, whether committed in Queensland or elsewhere; and
 - (c) the period since the reportable offences were committed; and
 - (d) for each reportable offence—
 - (i) the age of the respondent, and the age of the victim of the offence, when the offence was committed; and
 - (ii) the difference in age between the respondent and the victim of the offence; and
 - (e) the respondent's present age; and
 - (f) the seriousness of the respondent's criminal history; and
 - (fa) whether the respondent has ever been subject to a division 3 order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003; and
 - (g) the effect of the prohibition order sought on the respondent in comparison with the level of risk of the respondent committing a reportable offence against a child; and

- (h) the respondent's circumstances—
 - (i) to the extent the circumstances relate to the conduct sought to be prohibited; and
 - (ii) including the reportable offender's accommodation, employment needs and integration into the community; and
 - (i) for a child respondent—the child respondent's educational needs; and
 - (j) anything else the court considers relevant.
- (2) In this section—

charge, of an offence, means a charge in any form, including, for example—

- (a) a charge on an arrest; and
- (b) a notice to appear served under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 382; and
- (c) a complaint under the Justices Act 1886; and
- (d) a charge by a court under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A), or another provision of an Act; and

Note—

The Justices Act 1886, section 42 deals with the commencement of proceedings.

- (e) an indictment.

criminal history, of a person, means, despite the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, sections 5, 6, 8 and 9—

- (a) every conviction of the person for a reportable offence committed against a child, in Queensland or elsewhere, whether before or after the commencement; and
- (b) every charge made against the person for a reportable offence committed against a child, in Queensland or elsewhere, whether before or after the commencement—

[s 13E]

- (i) that has not been withdrawn or discontinued, or dismissed by a court; or
- (ii) for which the respondent has not been acquitted or convicted; or
- (iii) that has been withdrawn or discontinued because the complainant died or was unable or unwilling to proceed with the matter.

13E Court must order report before making prohibition order for child respondent

- (1) This section applies if the court is satisfied of the matters mentioned in section 13C(1) in relation to a child respondent.
- (2) Before making a prohibition order for the child respondent, the court must direct the chief executive (communities) to give to the court a written report containing stated information, assessments and reports about—
 - (a) the child respondent; or
 - (b) the child respondent’s family; or
 - (c) other matters.
- (3) The report may contain the opinion of the chief executive (communities) on what impact a prohibition order may have on the child respondent in relation to the child respondent’s accommodation, educational, health, cultural or social needs.
- (4) The report must be given to the court within the period stated by the court in the direction.
- (5) When the report is given to the court under subsection (4), the registrar of the court must give a copy of the report to each party to the proceeding.

13F Conduct that may be prohibited

- (1) A prohibition order may prohibit the respondent from engaging in stated conduct, including, for example—

- (a) associating with, or otherwise contacting, stated persons or a stated kind of person; or corresponding with other relevant sexual offenders

Example—

- (b) being in stated locations or a stated kind of location; or within 200m of a school between 7a.m. and 7p.m. on school days

Example—

- (c) residing at a stated residence, stated residences, a stated kind of residence or a residence at a stated location; or

Examples—

- a residence within 200m of a school
- a residence where children under 16 years reside

- (d) engaging in stated behaviour; or

Examples—

- taking photos of children
- downloading from the internet catalogues that feature child models
- using internet chat rooms that are primarily aimed at children

- (e) being in stated employment, or a stated kind of employment, whether paid or voluntary, that is likely to bring the respondent into contact with children.

Examples—

- employment in a cafe in the vicinity of a school
- door-to-door sales or collecting

- (2) A prohibition order may prohibit conduct—

(a) absolutely; or

(b) on the terms the court considers appropriate.

- (3) A prohibition order may prohibit the respondent from entering or remaining in a stated place even if the respondent has a right to enter or to be in the place.

[s 13FA]

- (4) If a prohibition order prohibits the respondent from entering or remaining in a place as mentioned in subsection (3), the court must, if satisfied it is necessary to do so, ensure the prohibition order provides for the respondent to recover the respondent's personal property from the place.

Example—

A provision of a prohibition order may allow a respondent to enter a stated place between stated times, if accompanied by a police officer, to recover the respondent's property.

13FA Conduct that may be required

- (1) A prohibition order may require the respondent to do any of the following things—
- (a) wear a tracking device for a stated period;
 - (b) comply with a condition the court considers necessary to facilitate the operation of a tracking device;
 - (c) reside at a particular place of residence;
 - (d) submit to psychological treatment;
 - (e) comply with a condition the court considers necessary to reduce the risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally.
- (2) This section does not limit section 13F.
- (3) In this section—

tracking device means an electronic device capable of being worn, and not removed, by a person for the purpose of the police service, or the chief executive (corrective services), finding or monitoring the geographical location of the person.

13G Term of prohibition order

- (1) A prohibition order—
- (a) takes effect on the day notice of it is given to the respondent; and

- (b) subject to subsection (3), remains in force for the following term—
- (i) for an adult respondent—5 years;
 - (ii) for a child respondent—2 years.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if an application for a new prohibition order for a respondent—
- (a) is made before the end of the term of the existing prohibition order for the respondent; and
 - (b) is not decided before the day the existing prohibition order ends.
- (3) The existing prohibition order continues to have effect until the application for the new prohibition order is decided.
- (4) The term of a new prohibition order mentioned in subsection (3) starts when the term of the existing prohibition order mentioned in the subsection ends.

Example—

The term of the existing prohibition order ends on 30 June 2018. An application for a new prohibition order is made on 31 May 2018. The application for the new prohibition order is decided, and the new prohibition order is made, on 1 August 2018.

Under subsection (3), the term of the existing prohibition order is extended until the new prohibition order is made on 1 August 2018. Although the new prohibition order takes effect on 1 August 2018 under subsection (1), its term starts on 1 July 2018 under subsection (4).

- (5) In this section—
- term*, of an existing prohibition order, does not include the period for which the existing prohibition order's effect is continued under subsection (3).

Subdivision 2 Temporary orders

13H Definition for subdivision

In this subdivision—

final order means an order under section 13C(1).

13I Applying for temporary order

- (1) The police commissioner may apply in the approved form to a magistrate for a temporary order for a person if the police commissioner—
 - (a) has the belief mentioned in section 13A(1) about the person; and
 - (b) also believes on reasonable grounds that—
 - (i) the making of a temporary order for the person is necessary to prevent an immediate risk of the respondent engaging in conduct posing a risk to the safety or wellbeing of 1 or more children, or of children generally; and
 - (ii) the making of the temporary order will reduce the risk.
- (2) The application must state—
 - (a) the matters mentioned in section 13A(2); and
 - (b) why the police commissioner believes the temporary order is necessary.
- (3) The application may be made without notice being given to the respondent, or a police officer may give notice, in the approved form, to the respondent stating—
 - (a) when and how the application will be made; and
 - (b) that the respondent—
 - (i) may be present before the magistrate when the application is made; and
 - (ii) may make submissions to the magistrate.
- (4) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 800 to 802 apply to the application for the temporary order as if the temporary order were a prescribed authority within the meaning of that Act.

Note—

The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 800 to 802 provide for obtaining prescribed authorities by phone, fax, radio, email or another similar facility.

13J Temporary order made by magistrate

- (1) A magistrate may make a temporary order if the magistrate is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, of the matters mentioned in section 13C(1).
- (2) For subsection (1)—
 - (a) the reference in section 13C(1)(b)(ii) to the prohibition order is taken to be a reference to the temporary order; and
 - (b) it is not necessary for the magistrate to be able to identify a risk to a particular child or particular children; and
 - (c) sections 13C(2), (4) and (5), 13D and 13E do not apply.
- (3) Also, for subsection (1), if the application for the temporary order is made without notice being given to the respondent, the magistrate may not make the temporary order unless the magistrate considers it necessary to make the temporary order without notice to the respondent in the particular circumstances of the case.
- (4) The temporary order need only be supported by information the magistrate considers sufficient and appropriate having regard to the temporary nature of the temporary order.

Example—

oral submissions, rather than evidence on oath

- (5) When the magistrate makes the temporary order, the magistrate must fix a return date, time and place for an application for a final order.
- (6) On the making of the temporary order, the police commissioner must immediately start a proceeding under section 13B(1) for the final order.

[s 13K]

- (7) The date, time and place stated in the appearance notice for the final order must be the date, time and place fixed under subsection (5).

13K Temporary order made by court

- (1) During a proceeding for a final order for a respondent, the court must, on its own initiative or on application by a party to the proceeding, decide whether to make a temporary order for the respondent.
- (2) However, the court may only make the temporary order if the court—
 - (a) is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, of the matters mentioned in section 13C(1); and
 - (b) after the temporary order is made, adjourns the proceedings.
- (3) For subsection (2)(a)—
 - (a) the reference in section 13C(1)(b)(ii) to the prohibition order is taken to be a reference to the temporary order; and
 - (b) it is not necessary for the court to be able to identify a risk to a particular child or particular children; and
 - (c) sections 13C(2), (4) and (5), 13D and 13E do not apply.
- (4) The temporary order need only be supported by information the court considers sufficient and appropriate having regard to the temporary nature of the temporary order.
- (5) The temporary order may be made in the respondent's absence if the court is satisfied application documents for the final order were served on the respondent under section 13B(3).

13L Conduct that may be prohibited

Section 13F applies to a temporary order as if—

- (a) a reference in the section to a prohibition order were a reference to a temporary order; and
- (b) a reference in the section to the court included, for section 13J a reference to a magistrate.

13LA Conduct that may be required

Section 13FA applies to a temporary order as if—

- (a) a reference in the section to a prohibition order were a reference to a temporary order; and
- (b) a reference in the section to the court included, for section 13J, a reference to a magistrate.

13M Term of temporary order

- (1) A temporary order takes effect—
 - (a) if the respondent is present before the magistrate or court when the temporary order is made—when it is made; or
 - (b) if the respondent is not present before the magistrate or court when the temporary order is made—when a copy of the temporary order is served on the respondent under section 13S(2).
- (2) The temporary order remains in force until whichever of the following happens first—
 - (a) if the temporary order is made under section 13J—a proceeding for a final order is not started by the return date and time fixed by a magistrate under section 13J(5);
 - (b) the application for the final order is next mentioned in a court and the court does not extend the term of the temporary order under section 13N;
 - (c) the prescribed period ends;
 - (d) a court decides the application for the final order;

[s 13N]

- (e) the police commissioner discontinues the application for the final order;
 - (f) the temporary order is revoked under section 13Q or on appeal.
- (3) In this section—
- final order* means a final order for the respondent for the temporary order.
- prescribed period* means—
- (a) the period for which the temporary order is extended under section 13N; or
 - (b) otherwise—28 days.

13N Extending temporary order if application for final order adjourned

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a temporary order is in force for the respondent to an application for a final order; and
 - (b) the court adjourns the application; and
 - (c) the temporary order will end before the application is decided.
- (2) The court may, on application or on its own initiative, extend the temporary order for not more than 28 days, or a longer period to which the respondent consents.
- (3) The temporary order may be extended in the respondent's absence if the court is satisfied application documents for the final order were served on the respondent under section 13B(3).

Subdivision 3 Other provisions about offender prohibition orders

130 Who may be present at hearing of application

- (1) A magistrate or court hearing an application for an offender prohibition order must hear the application in the presence of only—
- (a) the applicant; and
 - (b) unless the application is heard in the respondent's absence—the respondent; and
 - (c) any witness the magistrate or court allows for the application; and
 - (d) another person the magistrate or court considers appropriate to be present and allows to be present; and

Examples—

- a parent of a child respondent
 - another person who is able to provide cultural or emotional support for the respondent, or for a witness whom the magistrate or court has allowed to be present
 - a person conducting relevant academic or scientific research
- (e) a lawyer representing anyone mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c); and
 - (f) a person whose presence the magistrate or court considers is necessary or desirable for the proper conduct of the proceedings.

Example—

a recorder performing a function under the Recording of Evidence Act 1962

- (2) This section does not limit the Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 10.24.

Note—

The Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 10.24 provides for the representation of police officers in court.

[s 13P]

13P Making order for adult respondent by consent

- (1) This section applies if an application is made to a magistrate or court for an order under this part for an adult respondent.
- (2) The magistrate or court may make the order if the applicant and the respondent consent to the making of the order.
- (3) The court may make an offender prohibition order with the consent of the applicant and the respondent without being satisfied of the matters stated in section 13C, or considering the matters mentioned in section 13D, unless the court considers it is not in the interests of justice to do so.
- (4) In considering the interests of justice for subsection (3), the matters to which the court may have regard include—
 - (a) whether the respondent has obtained legal advice about the proposed offender prohibition order; and
 - (b) whether the respondent—
 - (i) has an intellectual disability or cognitive impairment; or Examples—
an acquired brain injury, Alzheimer’s disease or dementia
 - (ii) has a significant mental illness that requires ongoing treatment by a psychiatrist; or
 - (iii) has an alcohol or drug addiction that impairs the respondent’s decision-making ability or has caused the respondent to be hospitalised; or
 - (iv) is a person for whom an order appointing a guardian is in force under the Guardianship and Administration Act 2000; or
 - (v) is illiterate, or is not literate in the English language; or
Example—
a person from a non-English speaking background
 - (vi) is subject to some other condition preventing the respondent from understanding the effect of consenting to the proposed offender prohibition order being made.

- (5) This section does not limit the magistrate's or court's power under section 13C, 13J, 13K or 13Q.

13Q Varying or revoking offender prohibition order

- (1) The police commissioner, or the respondent, may apply to the court under the relevant rules of court for the variation or revocation of an offender prohibition order.
- (2) However, other than in relation to an offender prohibition order made in the respondent's absence, the respondent may only make an application under subsection (1) with the court's leave.
- (3) The court may grant the leave if satisfied—
- (a) it is in the interests of justice, having regard to changes in the respondent's circumstances, or circumstances affecting the respondent, since the prohibition order was made or last varied; or

Example of the respondent's circumstances—

the respondent's accommodation, employment, health, cultural or social needs

Example of circumstances affecting the respondent—

Under the prohibition order, the respondent is prohibited from going within a stated distance of stated premises and the premises have closed down since the prohibition order was made.

- (b) it is appropriate on compassionate grounds, including having regard to the respondent's culturally specific needs.
- Examples—*
- to visit a relative who is seriously ill
 - to attend a relative's funeral
- (4) In deciding the application, the court must have regard to—

[s 13R]

- (a) the matters mentioned in sections 13C and 13D, to the extent the magistrate or court that made the offender prohibition order was required to have regard to those matters; and
 - (b) any changes in the respondent's circumstances since the offender prohibition order was made or last varied.
- (5) A variation takes effect—
- (a) if the respondent is present in court when the variation is made—when it is made; or
 - (b) if the respondent is not present in court when the variation is made—when a copy of the order varying the offender prohibition order is served on the respondent under section 13S(2).
- (6) A revocation takes effect when it is made.

13R Explaining and giving notice of offender prohibition order to respondent

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if the respondent is present before—
- (a) a magistrate when the magistrate makes an offender prohibition order; or
 - (b) a court when the court makes or varies an offender prohibition order.
- (2) The magistrate or court must ensure all reasonable steps are taken to explain to the respondent in language likely to be understood by the respondent—
- (a) the respondent's obligations under the offender prohibition order or variation; and
 - (b) the consequences that may follow if the respondent fails to comply with the obligations.
- (3) Also, subsection (4) applies if the respondent was not a reportable offender immediately before the offender prohibition order was made.

- (4) As soon as practicable after the offender prohibition order is made, the police commissioner must give the respondent a notice complying with section 54 (a section 54 notice).
- (5) Subsection (4) applies despite section 54(4).
- (6) Failure to comply with subsection (2) or (4) does not affect the validity of the offender prohibition order.

13S Giving respondent copy of offender prohibition order dealt with in respondent's absence

- (1) This section applies if a magistrate or court makes, varies or revokes an offender prohibition order in the respondent's absence.
- (2) A police officer must serve the respondent with the documents mentioned in subsections (3) and (4).

Note—

For further provisions about service, see section 13ZL.

- (3) In each case, the respondent must be served with a copy of the order making, varying or revoking the offender prohibition order.
- (4) Also, if the magistrate or court makes an offender prohibition order, the respondent must be served with—
 - (a) a notice stating that, if a law of another jurisdiction provides for registration of the offender prohibition order under corresponding provisions, the offender prohibition order may be registered in the other jurisdiction; and
 - (b) if the respondent was not a reportable offender immediately before the offender prohibition order was made—a section 54 notice in relation to the respondent as a reportable offender.
- (5) Also, for a child respondent, the police commissioner must, as soon as practicable after the magistrate or court makes, varies or revokes the offender prohibition order, give a copy of the court's or magistrate's order to—

[s 13T]

- (a) the chief executive (child safety), if the offender prohibition order is likely to result in the child respondent needing to change the child respondent's place of residence; and
 - (b) a parent of the child respondent, if the police commissioner is able to find a parent of the child respondent after making reasonable attempts.
- (6) Failure to comply with any of subsections (2) to (5) does not affect the validity of the offender prohibition order.
- (7) In this section—
- corresponding provisions* means provisions corresponding to division 2.

13T Making disqualification order instead of temporary order

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a magistrate hearing an application for a temporary order (the relevant application) for a person decides not to make the temporary order; or
 - (b) a court hearing an application for an offender prohibition order (also the relevant application) for a person—
 - (i) has not made a final order for the person; and
 - (ii) decides not to make a temporary order for the person under section 13K.
- (2) The magistrate or court must consider whether to make an order (disqualification order) in relation to the person stating the person may not—
- (a) hold a working with children authority; or
 - (b) make a working with children check application.
- (3) However, the magistrate or court may make the disqualification order only if the magistrate or court considers it would not be in the interests of children for the chief executive (justice) to issue a working with children authority to the person.

- (4) The following provisions apply to the making of the disqualification order—
 - (a) if the relevant application is made under section 13I—section 13J(3) to (7);
 - (b) if the relevant application is made under section 13K—section 13K(4) and (5).
- (5) The provisions mentioned in subsection (4) apply for that subsection as if—
 - (a) a reference in the provisions to the respondent were a reference to the person; and
 - (b) a reference in the provisions to a temporary order were a reference to the disqualification order.
- (6) If the magistrate or court makes the disqualification order in the person's absence, a police officer must serve the person with a copy of the disqualification order.

13U Term of disqualification order

- (1) A disqualification order takes effect—
 - (a) if the person who is subject to the disqualification order is present before the magistrate or court when the disqualification order is made—when it is made; or
 - (b) if the person who is subject to the disqualification order is not present before the magistrate or court when the disqualification order is made—when a copy of the disqualification order is served on the person under section 13T(6).
- (2) The disqualification order remains in force until whichever of the following happens first—
 - (a) if the disqualification order is made by a magistrate hearing an application for a temporary order under section 13J—a proceeding for a final order is not started by the return date and time fixed by the magistrate under section 13J(5);

- (b) the application for the final order is next mentioned in a court and the court does not extend the term of the disqualification order under section 13V;
 - (c) the prescribed period ends;
 - (d) a court decides the application for the final order;
 - (e) the police commissioner discontinues the application for the final order;
 - (f) the disqualification order is revoked under section 13W.
- (3) In this section—

final order means a final order for the person.

prescribed period means—

- (a) the period for which the disqualification order is extended under section 13V; or
- (b) otherwise—28 days.

13V Extending disqualification order if application for final order adjourned

Section 13N applies in relation to a disqualification order as if—

- (a) a reference in the section to a temporary order were a reference to the disqualification order; and
- (b) a reference in the section to the respondent were a reference to the person who is subject to the disqualification order.

13W Revoking disqualification order

- (1) A person who is subject to a disqualification order may apply to the court under the relevant rules of court for revocation of the disqualification order.

- (2) However, other than in relation to a disqualification order made in the person's absence, the person may only make an application under subsection (1) with the court's leave.
- (3) The court may grant the leave if satisfied it is in the interests of justice to do so.
- (4) In deciding the application, the court must have regard to whether it would be in the best interests of children for the chief executive (justice) to issue a working with children authority to the person.
- (5) A revocation takes effect when it is made.

13X Costs

A court must not award costs on an application for an offender prohibition order or for a variation or revocation of an offender prohibition order unless the court dismisses the application as frivolous or vexatious or another abuse of process.

Division 2 Corresponding orders

13Y Application for registration of corresponding order in Queensland

The police commissioner may apply in the approved form to the registrar of a Magistrates Court (the registrar) for the registration of a corresponding order.

13Z Registration of corresponding order

- (1) This section applies if the registrar is satisfied—
 - (a) the corresponding order is in force; and
 - (b) the corresponding order was served on the person against whom it was made under the law of the jurisdiction where the corresponding order was made.

[s 13Z]

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (10), the registrar must register the corresponding order.
- (3) The registrar must refer the corresponding order to the court for adaptation or modification for its effective operation in the State if—
 - (a) the registrar believes it is necessary to do so; or
 - (b) the police commissioner asks the registrar to do so.
- (4) If the corresponding order is referred to the court, a police officer must serve a copy of the application for registration of the corresponding order and an appearance notice on the respondent.
- (5) The application may be heard in the respondent's absence if the court is satisfied a copy of the application and an appearance notice were served on the respondent under subsection (4).
- (6) However, the court may, at any time before deciding the application, direct the police commissioner to give a further appearance notice to the respondent.
- (7) Section 13O applies to the hearing for the variation of the corresponding order as if the hearing were a hearing for an offender prohibition order.
- (8) The court may vary the corresponding order for the purposes of its registration by adapting or modifying it in a way the court considers necessary or desirable for its effective operation in the State.
- (9) For varying the corresponding order as mentioned in subsection (8), the court must consider—
 - (a) anything that may be considered under sections 13C and 13D on an application for a prohibition order under section 13C; and
 - (b) any changes in the respondent's circumstances since the corresponding order was made.
- (10) The registrar must register the corresponding order as varied by the court.

- (11) A registered corresponding order is registered for the period during which the corresponding order, as originally made, is in force.
- (12) A regulation may—
- (a) prescribe the way the registrar is to register a corresponding order or a varied corresponding order; and
 - (b) provide for the keeping of the register and access to it.
- (13) In this section—

appearance notice means a notice, in the approved form, stating the following in relation to a corresponding order—

- (a) that an application for the registration of the corresponding order has been referred to the court;
- (b) when and where the application is to be heard;
- (c) that the respondent is required to appear at the hearing;
- (d) that the court may register the corresponding order, or the corresponding order as varied by the court, in the respondent's absence if the respondent fails to appear at the hearing.

13ZA Action by registrar and police commissioner after registration of corresponding order

- (1) No later than 2 business days after registering a corresponding order, the registrar must give the police commissioner a certificate of the registration with a copy of the registered corresponding order attached.
- (2) The registrar may not ask the police commissioner for any fee, or reimbursement for any expenses incurred, under this division.
- (3) After receiving a copy of the registered corresponding order, the police commissioner must serve on the respondent—
 - (a) a copy of the registered corresponding order; and

[s 13ZB]

- (b) if the respondent for the registered corresponding order was not a reportable offender immediately before its registration—a section 54 notice in relation to the respondent as a reportable offender.

Note—

Under section 13ZB(1)(a), the registered corresponding order has the same effect as a prohibition order made under this part.

- (4) Also, for a child respondent, the police commissioner must, as soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the registered corresponding order, give a copy of the registered corresponding order to—
 - (a) the chief executive (child safety), if the registered corresponding order is likely to result in the respondent needing to change the respondent’s place of residence; and
 - (b) a parent of the child respondent, if the police commissioner is able to find a parent of the child respondent after making reasonable attempts.
- (5) Failure to comply with subsection (3) or (4) does not affect the validity of the registration of the corresponding order.

13ZB Effect of registration of corresponding order

- (1) A registered corresponding order—
 - (a) has the same effect as a prohibition order made under this part; and
 - (b) may be enforced against the respondent as if it were a prohibition order made under this part.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect even if the corresponding order was registered in the respondent’s absence.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if the corresponding order was varied under section 13Z(8) in the respondent’s absence, and the respondent has not been notified of the variation.

- (4) Despite subsection (2), until the respondent is notified of the variation, the registered corresponding order has effect and is enforceable against the respondent as if it had not been varied.

13ZC Varying registered corresponding order

- (1) The police commissioner, or the respondent, may apply to the court under the relevant rules of court for a variation of a registered corresponding order.
- (2) In deciding the application, the court must consider—
 - (a) anything that must be considered under sections 13C and 13D on an application for a prohibition order under section 13C; and
 - (b) any changes in the respondent's circumstances since the registered corresponding order was registered or last varied.
- (3) Also, section 13Q(2), (3) and (5) applies to the application as if a reference in the subsections to an offender prohibition order were a reference to a registered corresponding order.

13ZD Cancelling registration of registered corresponding order

- (1) The police commissioner, or the respondent, may apply to the court for an order cancelling the registration of a registered corresponding order.
- (2) In deciding the application, the court must consider—
 - (a) anything that must be considered under sections 13C and 13D on an application for a prohibition order under section 13C; and
 - (b) any changes in the respondent's circumstances since the registered corresponding order was registered.
- (3) Also, section 13Q(2) and (3) applies to the application as if a reference in the subsections to an offender prohibition order were a reference to a registered corresponding order.

[s 13ZE]

- (4) If the court cancels the registration of the registered corresponding order, the corresponding order, or the corresponding order as varied under this part, stops having effect in Queensland.

Division 3 Reportable offender obligations

13ZE Offender reporting requirement after offender prohibition order made

- (1) If a court makes an offender prohibition order for a respondent who is not a reportable offender—
 - (a) the respondent becomes a reportable offender; and
 - (b) the length of the respondent's reporting period is taken to be the period for which the offender prohibition order has effect.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) has effect despite sections 36 and 37.

13ZF Offender reporting requirement after registration of corresponding order

- (1) If the respondent for a registered corresponding order is not a reportable offender immediately before the registration of the corresponding order, on its registration—
 - (a) the respondent is taken to be a reportable offender; and
 - (b) the registered corresponding order is taken to be an offender reporting order; and
 - (c) the length of the respondent's reporting period is taken to be—
 - (i) for an adult respondent—5 years, or the period for which the registered corresponding order has effect, whichever is shorter; or
 - (ii) for a child respondent—2 years, or the period for which the registered corresponding order has effect, whichever is shorter.

- (2) Subsection (1)(c) has effect despite sections 36 and 37.

Division 4 Appeals

13ZG Who may appeal

The police commissioner, or the respondent for an offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order (the relevant order), may appeal to the following entity (the appeal court) against a decision made by a court under this part (the relevant decision) in relation to the relevant order—

- (a) for a child respondent—a Childrens Court constituted by a Childrens Court judge;
- (b) otherwise—the District Court.

13ZH Starting appeal

- (1) The appeal must be started within 28 days (the appeal period) after—
 - (a) the day the relevant decision is made; or
 - (b) if the relevant decision was made in the absence of the respondent for the relevant order—the day on which a copy of the order resulting from the relevant decision is served on the respondent for the relevant order.
- (2) On application, the appeal court may extend the appeal period.
- (3) The appeal must be started by filing a notice of appeal in writing with the registrar of the appeal court.
- (4) If it appears to the appeal court that it is not reasonably practicable to serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the respondent to the appeal, the appeal court may make an order substituting another way of serving the notice of appeal.
- (5) The appeal must be heard in the presence of only—
 - (a) the appellant; and

[s 13ZI]

- (b) the respondent; and
- (c) any witness the appeal court allows for the proceeding; and
- (d) anyone else the appeal court considers appropriate to be present and allows to be present; and

Examples—

- a parent of a child respondent
 - another person who is able to provide cultural or emotional support for the respondent or a witness
 - a person conducting relevant academic or scientific research
- (e) a lawyer representing anyone mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c).

13ZI Nature of appeal

- (1) The appeal is by way of rehearing and, subject to section 13ZH, under the Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 or, to the extent the rules can not be applied to the appeal, in accordance with directions given by a judge of—
 - (a) for a child respondent—the Childrens Court; or
 - (b) otherwise—the District Court.
- (2) Despite subsection (1), further evidence may not be admitted on the appeal.
- (3) An appeal against a relevant decision does not stay the operation of the relevant order, unless the appeal court orders otherwise.

13ZJ Powers on appeal

- (1) The appeal court may, on an appeal against a relevant decision about an offender prohibition order—
 - (a) make, vary or revoke the offender prohibition order, as it considers appropriate; or

- (b) make another order or decision it considers should have been made.
- (2) The appeal court may, on an appeal against a relevant decision about a registered corresponding order—
 - (a) register, or revoke the registration of, the corresponding order or a variation of it; or
 - (b) make another order or decision it considers should have been made.
- (3) An order or decision made under subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b) takes effect from when it is made.

13ZK Court may not award costs unless application is frivolous or vexatious or another abuse of process

An appeal court must not award costs on an appeal under this division unless the appeal court dismisses the application as frivolous or vexatious or another abuse of process.

Division 5 Miscellaneous

13ZL Service of documents

- (1) This section applies if a provision of this part requires a police officer, including the police commissioner, to serve a document on a respondent for—
 - (a) a proposed offender prohibition order; or
 - (b) an offender prohibition order; or
 - (c) a corresponding order; or
 - (d) a registered corresponding order.
- (2) This section also applies for the purpose of service of notice on a respondent in relation to an application for a temporary order if notice is given.
- (3) The document must be served personally on the respondent.

[s 13ZM]

- (4) However, if, despite making reasonable attempts, a police officer is unable to personally serve a document on the respondent, the police commissioner may apply to the court to authorise substituted service under subsection (5).
- (5) If it appears to the court that it is not reasonably practicable to serve the document personally on the respondent, the court may authorise another way of serving it (substituted service).

Example—

by personal service of the document on a relative, guardian or other person with whom the respondent is known to associate

- (6) When serving an appearance notice personally on the respondent, the police officer must explain the contents of the appearance notice to the respondent in language likely to be understood by the respondent, having regard, for example, to the respondent's age and cultural, educational and social background.
- (7) A document that is to be served personally on a child respondent—
 - (a) must be served on the child respondent as discreetly as possible; and
 - (b) must not be served on the child respondent at or in the vicinity of the child respondent's place of employment or school, unless there is no other place where the document may reasonably be served on the child respondent.

13ZM No filing fee is payable

A fee is not payable for making an application, or filing another document, under this part.

13ZN Approval of forms

The police commissioner may approve forms for use under this part.

Part 4 Reporting obligations

Division 1 Initial report

14 When reportable offender must make initial report

- (1) This section applies to a reportable offender mentioned in schedule 3, column 1.
- (2) If the police commissioner gives the reportable offender a notice under section 54(5), the offender must make a report (the initial report) of the offender's personal details to the commissioner when the offender receives the notice.
- (3) However, if it is not reasonably practicable for the reportable offender to make the initial report when the offender receives the notice, the offender must make the initial report—
 - (a) within 7 days after the day the offender receives the notice; or
 - (b) if the offender intends to leave Queensland before the end of 7 days after the offender receives the notice—before the offender leaves Queensland.
- (4) If the police commissioner does not give the reportable offender a notice under section 54(5), the offender must make the offender's initial report to the commissioner—
 - (a) within the period stated for the offender in schedule 3, column 2; or
 - (b) if more than 1 circumstance mentioned in schedule 3, column 1 applies to the offender—within the shorter of the applicable periods stated for the offender in schedule 3, column 2; or
 - (c) if the offender intends to leave Queensland before the end of the period stated for the offender in schedule 3, column 2—before the offender leaves Queensland.

[s 15]

- (5) However, subsection (4)(c) does not apply to an offender who enters Queensland from a foreign jurisdiction and remains for less than 7 consecutive days.
- (6) Also, if—
 - (a) a reportable offender’s reporting period for a reportable offence ends; and
 - (b) the offender is later sentenced for another reportable offence when the offender is not in Queensland;the offender must make the offender’s initial report to the police commissioner within 7 days after entering and remaining in Queensland for 7 or more consecutive days.
- (7) The 7 or more consecutive days does not include any day the reportable offender spends in government detention.

15 Provision of personal details by corrective services

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender is in government detention in Queensland.
- (2) The chief executive (corrective services) may give the police commissioner the following personal details about the offender—
 - (a) the offender’s name;
 - (b) the offender’s date of birth;
 - (c) the address where the offender generally resided before the offender entered government detention.
- (3) The details are taken to be the reportable offender’s initial report for the purposes of including the details in the register established under section 68.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not affect the reportable offender’s reporting obligations under section 14.

16 Persons required to report under corresponding Act

- (1) This section applies to a person (other than a protected witness) who—
 - (a) is or has been required to report to a corresponding registrar, whether or not the person is a reportable offender under this Act; and
 - (b) has not previously complied with the obligation imposed by this section.
- (2) The person must, within 7 days after entering and remaining in Queensland (not including any day spent in government detention), contact a nominated person—
 - (a) by telephone; or
 - (b) in another way prescribed by regulation.
- (3) The police commissioner must ensure the nominated person's contact details are available at any police station.
- (4) When contacted, the nominated person must advise the person—
 - (a) whether the person is a reportable offender under this Act; and
 - (b) about any reporting obligations the person has under this Act.
- (5) A person is not guilty of an offence against section 50 because of a failure to comply with subsection (2) if the person—
 - (a) is not a reportable offender under this Act; or
 - (b) could not reasonably have been expected to have known that the person was required to report under this Act; or
 - (c) does not remain in Queensland for 7 or more consecutive days, not counting any day spent in government detention; or
 - (d) makes an initial report under section 14.
- (6) In this section—

[s 17]

nominated person means a person nominated by the police commissioner for this section.

Division 2 Ongoing reporting obligations

Subdivision 1 Preliminary

17 Application of div 2

This division applies to a reportable offender who has made an initial report.

Subdivision 2 Periodic reporting

18 Requirement to make periodic reports

- (1) A reportable offender must periodically make reports (each a periodic report) of the offender's personal details to the police commissioner until the offender's reporting period ends.
- (2) However, a reportable offender whose reporting obligations are suspended under section 4 or division 4, 6 or 10 is not required to make periodic reports while the suspension is in force.
- (3) A periodic report includes a report that simply confirms that the reportable offender's personal details stated in the last report previously made by the offender—
 - (a) are correct; and
 - (b) have not changed since the offender made the last report.

19 When periodic reports must be made

- (1) A reportable offender must make a periodic report in each reporting month, starting in the first reporting month after the offender makes the offender's initial report.
- (2) However, the police commissioner may at any time require the reportable offender to make periodic reports more frequently, if the commissioner is reasonably satisfied more frequent periodic reporting is necessary to protect the lives or sexual safety of children.
- (3) If the police commissioner decides to require the reportable offender to make periodic reports more frequently, the commissioner must, as soon as reasonably practicable, give the offender a written notice stating when the offender is required to make periodic reports.
- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the notice replaces any notice previously given by the police commissioner to the reportable offender stating when the offender is required to make periodic reports.
- (5) The reportable offender must comply with the notice until whichever of the following first happens—
 - (a) the offender's reporting period ends;
 - (b) the police commissioner gives the offender a written notice that varies when the offender is required to make periodic reports.

Subdivision 3 Reporting change in personal details

19A Reporting changes in personal details

- (1) A reportable offender must report any change in the offender's personal details to the police commissioner—
 - (a) for a change relating to reportable contact between the offender and a child—within 24 hours after the change happens; or

[s 19A]

- (aa) if the offender has ever been subject to a division 3 order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003 and the change relates to any premises where the offender generally resides, or a locality where the offender can generally be found—within 24 hours after the change happens; or
 - (b) for a change relating to the reportable offender being in government detention for at least 7 consecutive days—
 - (i) within 7 days after the offender stops being in government detention; or
 - (ii) if the offender intends to leave Queensland before the end of the period mentioned in subparagraph (i)—before the offender leaves Queensland; or
 - (c) for any other change—
 - (i) within 7 days after the change happens; or
 - (ii) if the offender intends to leave Queensland before the end of the period mentioned in subparagraph (i)—before the offender leaves Queensland.
- (2) However, if a reportable offender (other than a protected witness) is not in Queensland when the change in the offender's personal details happens, the offender must report the change within 48 hours after entering and remaining in Queensland for 48 consecutive hours, not counting any time spent in government detention.

Note—

For the suspension of reporting obligations while a reportable offender (other than a protected witness) is not in Queensland, see section 34.

- (3) Also, if a reportable offender made a statement to the police commissioner under section 20(2)(e), the offender is not required to report a change in the offender's personal details unless—
- (a) the offender returns to Queensland and is required to make a report under section 22(2); or

- (b) the offender decides not to leave Queensland and is required to make a report under section 22(4).
- (4) The obligation on a reportable offender under this section applies in addition to any other reporting obligation imposed on the offender under this part.
- (5) In this section—
- change, in relation to a reportable offender’s personal details, includes any of the personal details no longer applying to the offender.

Example—

A reportable offender has advised the police commissioner of the details of a car the offender bought. The sale of the car is a change in the offender’s personal details that must be reported to the police commissioner.

Subdivision 4 Other reporting

20 Intended absence from Queensland to be reported

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender—
- (a) intends to leave Queensland for 48 or more consecutive hours to travel elsewhere in Australia; or
- Note—*
- If a reportable offender intends to leave Queensland to travel elsewhere in Australia on an average of at least once a month, irrespective of the length of the absence, see section 23.
- (b) intends to leave Queensland to travel out of Australia.
- (2) At least 7 days before leaving Queensland, the reportable offender must report the intended travel to the police commissioner and must give details of—
- (aa) any child the reportable offender—
- (i) intends to leave Queensland with; or
- (ii) intends to have reportable contact with while out of Queensland; and

[s 21]

- (a) each State, Territory or country to which the offender intends to go while out of Queensland; and
 - (b) the approximate dates during which the offender intends to be in each of those States, Territories or countries; and
 - (c) each address or location within each State, Territory or country at which the offender intends to reside (to the extent that they are known) and the approximate dates during which the offender intends to reside at those addresses or locations; and
 - (d) if the offender intends to return to Queensland, the approximate date on which the offender intends to return; and
 - (e) if the offender does not intend to return to Queensland, a statement of that intention.
- (3) If circumstances arise making it impracticable for a reportable offender to make the report 7 days before the offender leaves, it is sufficient compliance with subsection (2) if the offender reports the required information to the police commissioner at least 24 hours before the intended travel.

21 Change of travel plans while out of Queensland to be given

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender who is out of Queensland decides—
- (a) to extend a stay elsewhere in Australia beyond 48 hours; or
 - (b) to change any details given to the police commissioner under section 20.
- (2) Within 48 hours after making the decision, the reportable offender must—
- (a) if subsection (1)(a) applies—report the details required by section 20(2) to the police commissioner (including those details as they relate to the travel that has already been completed); or

- (b) if subsection (1)(b) applies—report the changed details to the police commissioner.
- (3) The reportable offender must make the report—
 - (a) by fax or email sent to the police commissioner, or to another address allowed under a regulation; or
 - (b) in another way allowed under a regulation.

22 Reportable offender to report return to Queensland or decision not to leave

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender was required to report that the offender intended to leave Queensland under section 20.
- (2) If the reportable offender left Queensland, the offender must report his or her return to Queensland to the police commissioner within 48 hours after entering and remaining in Queensland for 48 consecutive hours, not counting any time spent in government detention.
- (3) A report made under subsection (2) in relation to travel out of Australia must be accompanied by a copy of the reportable offender's passport and travel documents verifying or supporting details in the report.
- (4) If the reportable offender decides not to leave Queensland, the offender must report his or her change of intention to the police commissioner within 48 hours after deciding not to leave.

23 Report of recurring absences from Queensland

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender leaves, or intends to leave, Queensland to travel elsewhere in Australia on an average of at least once a month (irrespective of the length of the absence).

[s 24]

- (2) The reportable offender must make a report to the police commissioner stating—
 - (a) in general terms—
 - (i) the expected frequency of the offender's travel; and
 - (ii) the offender's travel destinations; and
 - (iii) the offender's reasons for travelling to the destinations with the expected frequency; and
 - (b) whether the offender expects to travel with a child or have reportable contact with a child while travelling.
- (3) The reportable offender must make the report within 7 days before, but not less than 24 hours before, the offender first travels.

Note—

The reportable offender is not required to make another report under this section unless the information that is required to be reported under subsection (2) changes, including, for example, the travel destination.

- (4) The reportable offender must report any change in the information to the police commissioner—
 - (a) for a change in the information mentioned in subsection (2)(a)—
 - (i) if the change happens when the offender is out of Queensland—within 48 hours after the offender returns to Queensland; or
 - (ii) otherwise—within 7 days after the change happens; or
 - (b) for a change relating to travel with a child or reportable contact the offender has had, or expects to have, with a child—within 24 hours after the change happens.

24 Information about international travel to be given to the AFP

As soon as practicable after receiving a report under section 20, 21 or 22 about a reportable offender's intentions in relation to travel out of Australia, the police commissioner must ensure that a copy of the report is given to the commissioner of the Australian Federal Police.

Division 3 Provisions applying to all reporting obligations

25 Where report must be made

- (1) A report under this part must be made—
 - (a) at any police station in the locality in which the reportable offender is currently residing (subject to subsection (2)); or
 - (b) if a direction is given under a regulation about the police station at which the report must be made, at that police station; or
 - (c) at some other place approved (either generally or in a particular case) by the police commissioner.

Example—

The police commissioner may approve all authorised mental health services under the Mental Health Act 2016 to be approved places for forensic patients to report under this part.

- (2) If a police station in the locality in which a reportable offender is currently residing is a restricted police station, the offender—
 - (a) with the police commissioner's approval, may make the report at that station; or
 - (b) may make the report at the next nearest police station that is not a restricted police station.
- (3) For subsection (2), a restricted police station is a police station that is a police station, or that falls within a class of police station, that a regulation states is not to be used as a venue for the purposes of this section without the police commissioner's approval.

[s 26]

- (4) This section does not apply if, under section 26(2), a report is allowed to be made in a way that is inconsistent with this section.

26 How reports must be made

- (1) A reportable offender must—
 - (a) make the offender’s initial report in person; and
 - (b) make each periodic report in the way stated by the police commissioner in a written notice given under section 54(5) to the offender.
- (2) A reportable offender may make any other report that the offender is required to make in person, or in another way allowed under a regulation or by the police commissioner, either generally or in a particular case.
- (3) A police officer, or another person approved by the police commissioner, may receive a report.
- (4) If a reportable offender attending in person has a disability that makes it impracticable for the offender to make a report, any parent, guardian, carer or other person nominated by the offender who is accompanying the offender may make the report on the offender’s behalf.
- (5) Similarly, if a reportable offender who is allowed to make a report other than in person under subsection (2) has a disability that makes it impracticable for the offender to make the report himself or herself, a parent, guardian, carer or other person nominated by the offender may make the report on the offender’s behalf.

27 Right to privacy and support when reporting

- (1) A person making a report under this part at a police station or a place approved by the police commissioner—
 - (a) is entitled to make the report out of the hearing of members of the public; and

- (b) is entitled to be accompanied by a support person of the person's own choosing.
 - (2) Subsection (3) applies if a police officer or other person receiving the report is aware the person making the report—
 - (a) has special needs; and
 - (b) because of the special needs, needs to be accompanied by an adult support person when making the report.
 - (3) If it is not practicable for the person to be accompanied by an adult support person of the person's own choice, the police officer or person receiving the report must arrange, if practicable, for an adult support person to be present when the person is making the report.
 - (4) A police officer or other person receiving the report may arrange for an interpreter to be present when a person is making a report under this part.
 - (5) A police officer or other person receiving a report under this part must not allow a support person or interpreter to be present when a person is making the report unless the support person or interpreter has signed an undertaking not to disclose any information derived from the report unless required or authorised by or under any Act or law to do so.
 - (6) In this section—

special needs, of a person, means the person's needs by taking into account—

 - (a) the person's age, sex or cultural background; and
 - (b) any disability the person has.

28 Receipt of information to be acknowledged

- (1) As soon as practicable after receiving a report under this part, the police officer or other person receiving the report must acknowledge the making of the report.
- (2) The acknowledgement—
 - (a) must be in writing; and

[s 29]

- (b) must be given to the person who made the report; and
- (c) must include—
 - (ii) the date and time when, and the place where, the report was received; and
 - (iii) a copy of the information that was reported; and
 - (iv) a copy of the record of any agreement made under subsection (4).
- (3) If a report is not made in person, the police officer or other person who received the report must as soon as practicable—
 - (a) give the person making the report a unique reference number; and
 - (b) record that number on the relevant reportable offender's file and on the acknowledgement.
- (4) The police commissioner may make an agreement with the reportable offender about the way in which a reference number or acknowledgement required to be given by this section may be given.
- (5) The police commissioner must ensure—
 - (a) that there is a method of recording an agreement made under subsection (4); and
 - (b) that, except with the reportable offender's written consent, a reference number or acknowledgement required to be given by this section is given in accordance with the agreement while the agreement remains in force.
- (6) The police commissioner must ensure that a copy of every acknowledgement is kept.

29 Additional matters to be given

- (1) If a report is required to be made in person, the person making the report must also—
 - (a) if the person is the reportable offender—

- (i) present for inspection the offender's driver licence (if any) or another form of identification or other document specified by a regulation for the purposes of this section to verify or support details in the report; and
 - (ii) provide a photograph of the reportable offender's head and face of a type suitable for use in an Australian passport; or
 - (b) if the person is not the reportable offender—present for inspection the person's driver licence (if any) or another form of identification specified by a regulation for the purposes of this section.
- (2) The police officer receiving the report may waive the requirements of subsection (1)(a) or (b) if—
- (a) the reportable offender permits his or her fingerprints to be taken immediately before or after the report is made; or
 - (b) the police officer is otherwise satisfied about the reportable offender's identity.
- (3) The police officer receiving the report may waive the requirements of subsection (1)(b) if the officer is otherwise satisfied about the person's identity.
- (4) The police officer receiving a report may copy a document presented to the officer for inspection under subsection (1)(a) or (b).
- (5) If a report is made otherwise than in person, a regulation may specify—
- (a) the circumstances in which—
 - (i) information about the identity of the reportable offender and the identity of the person making the report are required; and
 - (ii) a document verifying or supporting details in the report are required; and

[s 30]

(b) the way in which the information or document must be given;

but may not require an original document to be given.

30 Power to take fingerprints

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a reportable offender is making the initial report of the offender’s personal details to the police commissioner after receiving a section 54 notice; or
 - (b) a police officer—
 - (i) is receiving a report made in person under this part; and
 - (ii) is not reasonably satisfied about the reportable offender’s identity after the officer has examined all the material relating to identity given or presented to the officer by, or on behalf of, the reportable offender.
- (2) The officer may take, or cause a person authorised by the officer to take, the reportable offender’s fingerprints.

31 Power to take photographs

- (1) A police officer may require a reportable offender—
 - (a) to be photographed; or
 - (b) to expose any part of the offender’s body to enable that part of the body to be photographed by the officer or a person authorised by the officer.
- (2) However, a police officer can not require a reportable offender to expose—
 - (a) the offender’s genitals; or
 - (b) the anal area of the offender’s buttocks; or
 - (c) if the offender is a female or a transgender person who identifies as a female—the offender’s breasts.

- (3) Also, a police officer may photograph a thing if a reportable offender is required to report information about the thing under this part.

Example—

A police officer may photograph a car that a reportable offender has reported as just having been bought by the reportable offender.

32 Retention of material for law enforcement, crime prevention or child protection

For law enforcement, crime prevention or child protection purposes, the police commissioner may keep any of the following taken under this division from a person—

- (a) copies of any documents;
- (b) any fingerprints;
- (c) any photographs.

33 Reporting by remote offenders

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender resides more than 100 kilometres from the nearest police station that is not a restricted police station.
- (2) A reportable offender need not comply with a time limit about the making of a report in person under this part if—
- (a) the offender, or a person entitled to make the report on the offender's behalf, contacts the police commissioner before the time limit ends; and
 - (b) the police commissioner agrees to allow the report to be made at a specific time, that is after the time limit, and at a specific place; and
 - (c) when contacting the police commissioner under paragraph (a), the person gives the police commissioner, by phone or another way, the information required to be reported under division 1 or 2.

[s 34]

- (3) The police commissioner must ensure that there is a method of recording all agreements made under this section.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), the recording method must result in the creation of a written record that—
 - (a) is identified by a unique reference number; and
 - (b) identifies when and where each agreement was made; and
 - (c) identifies the person who enters into any agreement; and
 - (d) contains the terms of any agreement.
- (5) If an agreement is made under this section, the police commissioner must ensure that the reportable offender is given the reference number mentioned in subsection (4)(a).
- (6) The police commissioner must ensure that there is a method of recording all information given under subsection (2).

Division 4 Suspension and extension of reporting obligations

34 Suspension and extension of reporting obligations

- (1) Any obligation imposed on a reportable offender by this part is suspended for any period during which the offender—
 - (a) is in government detention; or
 - (b) is outside Queensland unless—
 - (i) the offender is someone to whom division 9 applies; or
 - (ii) the obligation is under section 21; or
 - (c) is the subject of an order under division 6 (or an equivalent order in a foreign jurisdiction); or
 - (d) is the subject of a decision made by the police commissioner under division 10.

Note—

For the effect of a decision of a Magistrates Court on an appeal from a decision by the police commissioner under division 10, see section 67J(5).

- (2) The period for which a reportable offender's reporting obligations continue is extended by any length of time for which the obligations are suspended under subsection (1)(a).
- (3) This section does not apply to a forensic reportable offender.

Division 5 Reporting period

35 When reporting obligations begin

- (1) A reportable offender's reporting obligations in relation to a reportable offence begin—
 - (a) for a forensic reportable offender—when an offender reporting order is imposed on the reportable offender; or
 - (aa) for a post-DPSOA reportable offender—when the offender becomes a post-DPSOA reportable offender; or
 - (b) for another reportable offender—
 - (i) when the reportable offender is sentenced for the offence; or
 - (ii) when an offender reporting order or offender prohibition order is imposed on the reportable offender; or
 - (iii) when the reportable offender stops being in government detention for the offence;

whichever is the later.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even if the reportable offender is already complying with reporting obligations in relation to another reportable offence.
- (3) For an existing reportable offender, if an event mentioned in subsection (1)(b) happened before the commencement date, the reportable offender's reporting obligations begin when the event happened.

- (4) Subsection (1)(b) is subject to section 36(5).

36 Length of reporting period

- (1) A reportable offender must continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part for—
- (a) 5 years, if the offender—
 - (i) has ever been found guilty of 1 reportable offence; or
 - (ii) has been found guilty of more than 1 reportable offence and paragraph (b) or (c) does not apply to the offender; or
 - (b) 10 years, if the offender—
 - (i) has ever been found guilty of 1 or more reportable offences; and
 - (ii) in relation to the offence or offences, has been given notice of the offender's reporting obligations under this Act or a corresponding Act; and
 - (iii) after being given the notice, commits and is found guilty of 1 single further reportable offence; or
 - (c) the remainder of the offender's life, if the offender—
 - (i) has ever been found guilty of 1 or more reportable offences; and
 - (ii) in relation to the offence or offences, has been given notice of the offender's reporting obligations under this Act or a corresponding Act; and
 - (iii) after being given the notice, commits and is found guilty of more than 1 single further reportable offence.
- (2) Subsection (1)(b) applies even if the reportable offender's reporting obligations under subsection (1)(a) ended before the offender commits and is found guilty of another reportable offence.

- (2A) Subsection (1)(c) applies even if the reportable offender's reporting obligations under subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b) ended before the offender commits and is found guilty of another reportable offence.
- (3) A reference in subsection (1) to an offence extends to an offence committed before 1 January 2005.
- (4) For this section, 2 or more offences that arise from the same incident are to be treated as a single offence.

Note—

The meaning of single offence is qualified by subsection (4) and by section 11(1).

- (5) For this section, to work out when the reporting obligations of an existing reportable offender end, the offender's reporting obligations in relation to a reportable offence are taken to have commenced—
- (a) when the reportable offender was sentenced for the offence; or
 - (b) if the reportable offender is subject to an order under the Criminal Law Amendment Act 1945, section 19—when the order under that section was imposed on the reportable offender; or
 - (c) when the reportable offender stopped being in government detention for the offence;
- whichever was the later.
- (6) Despite anything to the contrary in this section or section 37, a forensic reportable offender must continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part until the person stops being a reportable offender.

37 Reduced period applies for child reportable offenders

- (1) The reporting periods stated in section 36 do not apply to a reportable offender who was a child at the time at which the offender committed each reportable offence.
- (2) Instead, a reporting period that is half the reporting period that would otherwise apply to the offender under section 36 (or 7½ years for a reporting period for life) applies to the offender.

38 Extended reporting period if reportable offender still on parole

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a reportable offender is on parole in relation to a reportable offence; and
 - (b) the reporting period for the offence will end before the expiry of the sentence of imprisonment to which the parole relates.
- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in this division, the reporting period is extended until the end of the term of imprisonment to which the parole relates.

38A Extended reporting period if reportable offender ever subject to division 3 order

- (1) This section applies to a reportable offender who has ever been subject to a division 3 order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003.
- (2) Despite anything to the contrary in this division, the offender must continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part for the remainder of the offender's life.

39 Reporting period for corresponding reportable offenders

- (1) Despite anything to the contrary in this part, a corresponding reportable offender must continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part for the recognised foreign reporting period mentioned in section 7(b).

- (2) For this section, if a corresponding reportable offender is a corresponding reportable offender under the laws of more than 1 jurisdiction, the recognised foreign reporting period is the longest period for which the offender would be required to report to the corresponding registrar of a foreign jurisdiction.

Division 5A Obligations about DNA sampling and analysis

40A Allowing DNA sample to be taken

- (1) A reportable offender must comply with a written notice given to the offender by the police commissioner requiring the offender to—
- (a) attend at a stated time and place; and
 - (b) allow a DNA sampler to take a DNA sample from the offender for DNA analysis.

Note—

For the offence for failing to comply with a notice, see section 50.

- (2) However, a reportable offender need not comply with subsection (1) if either of the following is currently kept under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000—
- (a) a DNA sample taken from the reportable offender;
 - (b) the results of a DNA analysis of the DNA sample.
- (3) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 17, part 5 applies in relation to a DNA sample taken under this section.
- (4) In this section—

DNA sample see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, schedule 6.

[s 41]

DNA sampler see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, schedule 6.

Division 6 Exemption from reporting obligations

41 Supreme Court may exempt particular reportable offenders

- (1) This division applies to a reportable offender who is required to continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part for the rest of the offender's life.
- (2) If—
 - (a) a period of 15 years has passed (ignoring any period during which the reportable offender was in government detention) since the later of the following days—
 - (i) the day the offender was last sentenced in relation to a reportable offence or a corresponding reportable offence;
 - (ii) the day the offender was last released from government detention in relation to a reportable offence or a corresponding reportable offence;
 - (iii) the day the offender was last subject to a division 3 order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003; and
 - (b) the offender did not become the subject of a life-long reporting period under a corresponding Act while in a foreign jurisdiction before becoming the subject of a life-long reporting period in Queensland; and
 - (c) the offender is not subject to parole in relation to a reportable offence;

the offender may apply to the Supreme Court for an order suspending the reporting obligations.

42 Order for suspension

- (1) On the application of a reportable offender mentioned in section 41(2), the Supreme Court may make an order suspending the offender's reporting obligations.
- (2) The court must not make the order unless it is satisfied that the offender does not pose a risk to the safety of children.
- (3) When deciding whether to make the order, the court must take into account—
 - (a) the seriousness of the offender's reportable offences and corresponding reportable offences; and
 - (b) the period of time since the offences were committed; and
 - (c) the age of the offender, the age of the victims of the offences, and the difference in age between the offender and the victims, when the offences were committed; and
 - (d) the offender's present age; and
 - (e) the offender's criminal record; and
 - (f) any other matter that the court considers appropriate.

44 Police to be notified of order

A registrar of the Supreme Court must notify the police commissioner of the terms of any order made under this division, unless the police commissioner is a party to the application.

45 No costs to be awarded

The Supreme Court may not award costs in relation to proceedings under this division.

46 Right of appeal

A party to proceedings under this division may appeal to the Court of Appeal, on a question of law, from any decision of the Supreme Court in the proceedings.

47 Restriction on right of unsuccessful applicant to re-apply for order

If the Supreme Court refuses to make an order under this division, the reportable offender is not entitled to make a further application to the court until 5 years have elapsed from the date of the refusal, unless the court otherwise orders at the time of the refusal.

48 When order stops having effect

- (1) An order made under this division stops having effect if, at any time after the making of the order, the reportable offender becomes—
 - (a) a reportable offender, other than a corresponding reportable offender; or
 - (b) a corresponding reportable offender who must, under section 39, continue to comply with the reporting obligations imposed by this part for any period.
- (2) An order that stopped having effect under subsection (1) is revived if—
 - (a) the finding of guilt that caused the order to stop having effect is quashed or set aside by a court; or
 - (b) for an order that stopped having effect under subsection (1)(a)—
 - (i) the offender reporting order is quashed on appeal; or
 - (ii) the offender's finding of guilt in relation to the offence that resulted in the making of that order is quashed or set aside by a court.

- (3) For this section, it is irrelevant whether or not a person may lodge, or has lodged, an appeal in relation to a finding of guilt or offender reporting order.

49 Application for new order

- (1) If an order stops having effect under section 48(1), the reportable offender may apply under this division for a new order.
- (2) Section 47 does not apply to an application under subsection (1).
- (3) If an order stops having effect under section 48(1), on an application under this division for a new order, section 41(2)(a) applies as if the period referred to were a period of 15 years (ignoring any period during which the offender was in government detention) since the offender last committed a reportable offence or corresponding reportable offence.

Division 7 Offences

50 Failure to comply with reporting obligations

- (1) A reportable offender must comply with the offender's reporting obligations, unless the offender has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is a crime.
- (3) When deciding whether a reportable offender has a reasonable excuse, the court must have regard to—
 - (a) the offender's age; and
 - (b) whether the offender has a disability that affects the offender's ability to understand, or to comply with, the obligations; and

[s 51]

- (c) whether the form of notice given to the offender about the obligations was adequate to inform the offender of the obligations, having regard to the offender's circumstances; and
 - (d) any matter specified by a regulation for the purposes of this section; and
 - (e) any other matter that the court considers is appropriate.
- (4) It is a defence to proceedings for an offence of failing to comply with a reporting obligation if it is established by or on behalf of the person charged with the offence that, at the time the offence is alleged to have occurred, the person had not received notice, and was otherwise unaware, of the obligation.

51 False or misleading information

- (1) A person must not give information to a person under this Act that the person knows is false or misleading in a material particular.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is a crime.
- (3) Subsection (1) does not apply to information given in a document, if the person when giving the document—
- (a) informs the person being given the document, to the best of the person's ability, how the information is false or misleading; and
 - (b) if the person has, or can reasonably obtain, the correct information—gives the correct information.
- (4) It is enough for a complaint against a person for an offence against subsection (1) to state that the information was 'false or misleading', without specifying whether it was false or whether it was misleading.

51A Failing to comply with offender prohibition order

- (1) A respondent for an offender prohibition order must not contravene the offender prohibition order, unless the respondent has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

- (2) An offence against subsection (1) is a crime.
- (3) If an issue is raised in a proceeding of whether the respondent knew of the offender prohibition order, it is enough if it is proved—
- (a) the respondent was present in court when the prohibition order was made; or
 - (b) the respondent was served personally with a copy of the prohibition order; or
 - (c) a police officer told the respondent about the existence of the prohibition order.

- (4) A respondent for a registered corresponding order must not contravene the registered corresponding order, unless the respondent has a reasonable excuse.

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

- (5) An offence against subsection (4) is a crime.
- (6) If an issue is raised in a proceeding of whether the respondent for a registered corresponding order knew of the registered corresponding order, it is enough if it is proved—
- (a) the respondent was present in court when the corresponding order was made and the corresponding order stated that it could be registered in another jurisdiction; or
 - (b) the respondent was served personally with a copy of the corresponding order and the order stated that it could be registered in another jurisdiction; or

[s 51B]

- (c) a police officer told the respondent about the existence of the corresponding order, including the fact that the corresponding order could be registered in another jurisdiction; or
 - (d) that the respondent ought to have known that the corresponding order was registered in this jurisdiction.
- (7) In this section—
- police officer*, for subsection (6)(c), includes a member of the police force of the jurisdiction where the registered corresponding order was made.

51B Access information for digital devices

- (1) This section applies if an authorised police officer suspects, on reasonable grounds, that a reportable offender has committed an indictable offence against this Act.
- (2) The authorised police officer may require the reportable offender to—
 - (a) give a police officer access to a digital device—
 - (i) that is in the offender’s possession; or
 - (ii) to which the offender has access; or
 - (b) give a police officer access information for the device or any assistance necessary for the officer to gain access to device information from the device; or
 - (c) allow a police officer to—
 - (i) use the access information to gain access to device information from the device; or
 - (ii) examine device information from the device, including by using a software program on the device, to find out whether the information may be relevant evidence; or
 - (iii) make a copy of device information from the device that may be relevant evidence, including by using another digital device; or

- (iv) convert device information from the device that may be relevant evidence into documentary form, or another form, that enables the information to be understood by a person.
- (3) The reportable offender must comply with the requirement, unless the reportable offender has a reasonable excuse.
- Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.
- (4) An offence against subsection (3) is a crime.
- (5) It is not a reasonable excuse to fail to comply with the requirement that complying might tend to incriminate the reportable offender or expose the offender to a penalty.
- (6) The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 161 to 163 apply as if a reference in those sections to a police officer exercising powers under section 160 of that Act were a reference to the authorised police officer exercising a power under subsection (2) of this section.
- (7) The reportable offender does not commit an offence against subsection (3) unless a magistrate makes a post-search approval order under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 162 in relation to the exercise of a power under subsection (2).
- (8) The police officer must inform the reportable offender, in a way that is reasonable in the circumstances, that the offender must comply with the requirement even though complying might tend to incriminate the offender or expose the offender to a penalty.
- (9) If a court convicts a reportable offender of an offence against subsection (3), the court may, as well as imposing a penalty for the offence, order the offender to comply with the requirement.
- (10) In this section—
- access information, for a digital device, means information necessary for a person to access or read device information from the device.

[s 51C]

Examples—

userid, username, passcode, password authorised police officer means a police officer authorised in writing by the police commissioner to exercise a power under this Act.

device information, from a digital device, means—

- (a) information stored on the device; or
- (b) information accessed, communicated or distributed by using the device, including by using an application on the device.

Examples—

- images stored on a computer
- location data stored on or sent from a mobile phone
- emails or text messages sent from a smart phone
- messages or videos distributed from a social media application on a tablet computer digital device—

- (a) means a device on which information may be stored or accessed electronically; and
- (b) includes a computer, memory stick, portable hard drive, smart phone and tablet computer.

relevant evidence means evidence of the commission of—

- (a) a reportable offence; or
- (b) an offence against this Act.

51C Prohibition on disclosing protected information

- (1) A person who obtains protected information because of the person's involvement in the administration of part 3A, including a proceeding under part 3A, must not disclose the information to anyone else.

Maximum penalty—2 years imprisonment.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply to—

- (a) a disclosure authorised by a magistrate or court in a proceeding under part 3A; or
 - (b) a disclosure authorised under an offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order; or
 - (c) a disclosure by a person that the person is a respondent; or
 - (d) a disclosure made in a proceeding before a court or tribunal; or
 - (e) a disclosure to a respondent made for the purposes of—
 - (i) the administration of part 3A; or
 - (ii) the operation of the relevant offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order; or
 - (f) a disclosure to a police officer, or someone else who is a member of a law enforcement agency of a State or the Commonwealth, for the purpose of the performance of the police officer's or other person's functions; or
 - (g) a disclosure made for the purpose of an Act the operation of which requires the disclosure; or
 - (h) a disclosure to a person involved in the respondent's assessment and management under an Act; or
- Example—*
- a corrective services officer under the Corrective Services Act 2006
- (i) a disclosure to a lawyer representing a person who is, or was, a party to a proceeding under part 3A; or
 - (j) a disclosure to anyone else to whom the disclosure is required or permitted to be made under an Act; or
 - (k) if the protected information relates to a child—a disclosure for a purpose directly related to the child's protection or wellbeing.
- (3) A person must not disclose protected information to another person with intention to incite anyone to intimidate or harass a respondent.

[s 52]

Maximum penalty—300 penalty units or 5 years imprisonment.

(4) An offence against subsection (3) is a crime.

(5) In this section—

Act includes an Act of the Commonwealth or another State.

intimidate or harass includes—

(a) intimidate or harass whether on 1, or more than 1, occasion; and proceeding includes an application under part 3A and any prosecution for an offence against this Act.

protected information means—

(a) the name of a respondent; or

(b) the name of any victim of a reportable offence committed by a respondent; or

(c) the name of any particular person referred to in a proceeding under part 3A as a person at risk because of the conduct prohibited, or proposed to be prohibited, by an offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order; or respondent means a respondent for a proposed offender prohibition order, an offender prohibition order, a corresponding order or a registered corresponding order.

(d) anything else reasonably likely to enable a person mentioned in paragraph (a), (b) or (c) to be identified.

52 No time limit for prosecutions

Despite anything to the contrary in the Justices Act 1886, a proceeding for an offence under this Act may be started at any time.

52A Proceedings for an indictable offence

- (1) A proceeding for a charge of an offence against section 50(1), 51(1), 51A(1) or (4), 51B(3) or 51C(3) may, at the prosecution's election, be taken—
 - (a) by way of summary proceedings before a magistrate under the Justices Act 1886; or
 - (b) on indictment.
- (2) Subsection (3) applies if at any stage during a summary proceeding the magistrate is satisfied that the defendant may not be adequately punished on summary conviction because of the nature and seriousness of the offence or any other relevant consideration.
- (3) The Magistrates Court—
 - (a) must not decide the charge as a summary offence; and
 - (b) must proceed by way of an examination of witnesses in relation to an indictable offence.
- (4) If a Magistrates Court acts under subsection (3)—
 - (a) any plea of the person charged, made at the start of the proceeding, must be disregarded; and
 - (b) any evidence brought in the proceeding before the magistrate decided to act under subsection (3) is taken to be evidence in the proceeding for the committal of the person for trial or sentence; and
 - (c) before committing the person for trial or sentence the magistrate must make a statement to the person under the Justices Act 1886, section 104(2)(b).
- (5) The magistrate must invite and hear any submissions from the prosecution and defence before making a decision under subsection (2).

[s 52B]

52B Limitation on who may summarily hear a proceeding for an indictable offence and the level of penalty

- (1) A proceeding against a person for an offence against section 50(1), 51(1), 51A(1) or (4), 51B(3) or 51C(3) must be before a magistrate if it is a proceeding—
 - (a) for the summary conviction of a person; or
 - (b) for an examination of witnesses in relation to the charge.
- (2) However, if a proceeding for the offence is brought before a justice who is not a magistrate, jurisdiction is limited to taking or making a procedural action or order within the meaning of the Justices of the Peace and Commissioners for Declarations Act 1991.
- (3) The maximum penalty that may be imposed on a summary conviction of the offence is 200 penalty units or 3 years imprisonment.

53 Bar to prosecution for failing to report leaving Queensland

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a reportable offender leaves Queensland; and
 - (b) the offender is found guilty of failing to report his or her presence in a foreign jurisdiction, as required by a corresponding Act.
- (2) The offender must not be prosecuted for a failure to comply with section 20 in relation to the travel out of Queensland.

Division 8 Notification of reporting obligations

54 Notice to be given to reportable offender

- (1) A reportable offender must be given written notice of—
 - (a) his or her reporting obligations; and

- (b) the consequences that may arise if the offender fails to comply with those obligations.
- (2) A reportable offender must be given the notice as soon as practicable after any of the following events happen—
 - (a) the offender is—
 - (i) sentenced for a reportable offence; or
 - (ii) made subject to an offender reporting order or offender prohibition order;
 - (b) the offender is released from government detention (whether in government detention for a reportable offence or otherwise);
 - (c) the offender enters Queensland, if the offender has not previously been given notice of his or her reporting obligations in Queensland;
 - (d) the offender becomes a corresponding reportable offender, if the person is in Queensland at that time.
- (3) The notice must be given by the entity specified in, or determined under, a regulation.
- (4) However, an entity is not required to give the notice if—
 - (a) it has been given by another entity; or
 - (b) the police commissioner has given the reportable offender a notice under subsection (5).
- (5) The police commissioner may at any time give a reportable offender written notice in relation to—
 - (a) the offender's reporting obligations; and
 - (b) the consequences that may arise if the offender fails to comply with them.
- (6) A regulation under subsection (3) must not specify a court, or an officer of the court, to be an entity except when the court has made an offender reporting order.
- (7) Despite anything to the contrary in this division, a notice given under this section is not required to specify the reportable offender's reporting period if, as required by a regulation, a notice containing that information is given to the reportable offender when reporting his or her personal details to the police commissioner.

55 Courts to provide sentencing information to police commissioner

- (1) This section applies if a court—
 - (a) makes any order or imposes any sentence that has the effect of making a person a reportable offender for this Act; or
 - (b) imposes any sentence on a person for a reportable offence; or
 - (c) makes any order in relation to a reportable offender that has the effect of removing the offender from the ambit of this Act.

Example—

Paragraph (c) would apply, for instance, if a court on appeal quashes a person's finding of guilt for a reportable offence for which the person had been sentenced and that was the only reportable offence that the person had ever been found guilty of.

- (2) The court must ensure that details of the order or sentence are given to the police commissioner as soon as practicable after the making or imposition of the order or sentence.
- (3) For subsection (2), it is sufficient for the verdict and judgement record, made under the Criminal Practice Rules, to be given to the police commissioner.
- (4) In this section—

court does not include a court of a foreign jurisdiction.

56 Notice to be given when reporting period changes

- (1) This section applies to a reportable offender whose reporting period has changed since the offender was last notified of his or her reporting period in Queensland.

- (2) The police commissioner must give written notice to the reportable offender as soon as practicable after the change.

57 Supervising authority to notify police commissioner of personal details

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the police commissioner may require a supervising authority who the police commissioner reasonably considers has the personal details of a reportable offender to give the details to the police commissioner.
- (2) The supervising authority is authorised and directed to give the details to the police commissioner.

Example—

If a reportable offender has failed to report and can not be located, the police commissioner may ask the supervising authority for the offender's address.

58 Supervising authority to notify police commissioner of particular events

- (1) As soon as practicable before or after a decision mentioned in any of the following provisions of the Mental Health Act 2016 is made in relation to a forensic reportable offender, the supervising authority is authorised and directed to give written notice of that fact to the police commissioner—
- (a) chapter 5, part 4, division 2, subdivision 2;
 - (b) section 221;
 - (c) chapter 12, part 3, division 4;
 - (d) section 525.
- (2) As soon as practicable before or after any other reportable offender—
- (a) is on unescorted leave of absence; or
 - (b) is authorised to leave Queensland under the Corrective Services Act 2006 or the Youth Justice Act 1992; or

[s 60]

- (c) stops being in government detention, including because of the making of a supervision order; or
 - (d) stops being subject to a supervision order;
- the supervising authority is authorised and directed to give written notice of that fact to the police commissioner.
- (3) A notice under this section must include any details required by a regulation.
 - (4) Subsection (2) applies regardless of why a reportable offender who was in government detention or subject to the supervision order was in government detention or subject to the supervision order.

60 Power of detention to enable notice to be given

- (1) This section applies if there are reasonable grounds to suspect that—
 - (a) a person is a reportable offender; and
 - (b) the person has not been given notice, or is otherwise unaware, of his or her reporting obligations.
- (2) A police officer may detain the person if it is reasonably necessary to do so—
 - (a) to enable a decision to be made about—
 - (i) whether or not the person is a reportable offender; or
 - (ii) if the person is a reportable offender—whether or not the person has been given notice, or is aware, of his or her reporting obligations; or
 - (b) to enable the person to be given notice of those obligations if the person is not aware of them.
- (3) When detaining the person, the police officer must tell the person—
 - (a) why the person is being detained; and
 - (b) that the detention is authorised under this Act; and

- (c) that the person will be released immediately after the reasons for the detention are satisfied.
- (4) The detained person—
 - (a) may be taken to the nearest police station; and
 - (b) must—
 - (i) not be held for longer than is reasonably necessary to enable the purpose of the detention to be satisfied; and
 - (ii) not be held only because the person has refused to sign an acknowledgement that the person has been given notice of the person's reporting obligations; and
 - (iii) be released immediately after the purpose of detention is satisfied.

61 Failure to comply with procedural requirements does not affect reportable offender's obligations

A failure by a person other than a reportable offender to comply with a procedural requirement imposed on the person by this part or a regulation does not, of itself, affect a reportable offender's reporting obligations.

Note—

This section aims to prevent a reportable offender who was not given notice of a reporting obligation by an official as required by this part from arguing that the obligation does not apply to him or her as a result of that failure if there is evidence that the reportable offender was aware of the obligation through some other way. If there is no evidence of that, then the reportable offender would have a defence to the charge under section 50(4) on the basis that the person was not aware of the obligation.

Division 9 Modified reporting procedures for protected witnesses

62 Who this division applies to

- (1) This division applies to a reportable offender who—
 - (a) is currently a participant in a witness protection program; or
 - (b) is the subject of an order in force under this division declaring that the person is a person to whom this division applies; or
 - (c) has been a participant in a witness protection program but in relation to whom an order under this division is not yet in effect.
- (2) This division (other than sections 64 to 66) also applies to a reportable offender who—
 - (a) is receiving protection under a foreign witness protection law specified by a regulation for the purposes of this subsection; or
 - (b) has the same status as a person mentioned in paragraph (a) under an order made under a corresponding Act specified by a regulation for the purposes of this subsection.
- (3) In this division—

witness protection program has the same meaning as it has in the Witness Protection Act 2000.

Note—

Section 5(3) excludes from the definition reportable offender persons receiving protection under foreign witness protection laws prescribed for the purposes of that section or who have the same status as those persons under a corresponding Act that is so prescribed.

63 Report need not be made in person

It is sufficient compliance with this part if—

- (a) a person to whom this division applies reports the information that the person is required to report under this part at the times, and in a way, authorised by the police commissioner for the purposes of this section; and
- (b) the acknowledgement of the making of a report is given in a way approved by the police commissioner.

64 Order about whether this division applies

- (1) The police commissioner must make an order declaring that a reportable offender who is, or has been, a participant in a witness protection program either is, or is not, a person to whom this division applies—
 - (a) when the reportable offender stops being a participant in the program as a result of a withdrawal under the Witness Protection Act 2000, section 13; or
 - (b) when the chairperson of the Crime and Corruption Commission makes a decision under the Witness Protection Act 2000, section 14, to end the protection and assistance given to the reportable offender under the program.
- (2) On making the order, the police commissioner must take reasonable steps to notify the reportable offender of the terms of the order.
- (3) A person who receives the notice may, within 28 days after receiving it, apply in writing to the police commissioner for a review of the decision.
- (4) On receiving an application for a review, the police commissioner must—
 - (a) give the applicant a reasonable opportunity to state his or her case before making a decision on the matter; and
 - (b) review the order, and confirm or reverse it; and
 - (c) give written notice of the decision to the applicant.

[s 65]

- (5) If the police commissioner's decision is to confirm the order, the notice of the decision must inform the applicant of his or her rights under section 65.

65 Appeal against order

- (1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the police commissioner about an order under this division may appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision within 3 days after receiving notice of the decision.
- (2) The Supreme Court, in deciding the appeal, may make any decision that could have been made by the police commissioner.
- (3) The Supreme Court's decision for the appeal is final and has effect according to its terms.

66 When order takes effect

- (1) An order declaring that this division applies to a reportable offender takes effect immediately.
- (2) An order declaring that this division does not apply to a reportable offender takes effect—
 - (a) at the end of 28 days after notice of the making of the order is given to the reportable offender; or
 - (b) if an application mentioned in section 64(3) is made before the end of that period, at the end of 3 days after notice is given to the applicant as mentioned in section 64(4)(c); or
 - (c) if an appeal is made under section 65 before the end of that 3 day period, on the day on which the Supreme Court decides the appeal;

whichever is the later.

67 Modification of reporting obligations

Sections 20 to 23 and 53 and schedule 2 apply to a person to whom this division applies as if a reference to Queensland were a reference to the jurisdiction in which the person generally resides.

Division 10 Police commissioner may suspend reporting obligations for particular reportable offenders

67A Application of this division

This division applies to a reportable offender who—

- (a) was a child when he or she committed the offence that makes the person a reportable offender; or
- (b) has a cognitive or physical impairment; or
- (c) has a mental illness.

67B Reportable offenders under legal guardianship

- (1) This section applies if the police commissioner is required under this division to give written notice to a reportable offender who is—
 - (a) a child; or
 - (b) an adult for whom a legal guardian has been appointed.
- (2) The police commissioner must give a copy of the notice to—
 - (a) the reportable offender; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) if the reportable offender is a child—the offender’s parent or legal guardian; or
 - (ii) if the reportable offender is an adult for whom a legal guardian has been appointed—the offender’s legal guardian.

67C Suspension of reporting obligations of reportable offenders on police commissioner's own initiative

- (1) The police commissioner may suspend the reportable offender's reporting obligations on the commissioner's own initiative only if satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that—
 - (a) the offender does not pose a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally; and
 - (b) if the offender has a cognitive or physical impairment—the impairment is a significant impairment; and
 - (c) if the offender has a mental illness—the illness is a significant mental illness.
- (2) The police commissioner must give the reportable offender written notice of the suspension as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (3) The suspension takes effect when the commissioner gives the notice to the reportable offender.

67D Reportable offenders may apply for suspension of reporting obligations

- (1) The reportable offender may apply, in writing, to the police commissioner for a suspension of the offender's reporting obligations.
- (2) If the reportable offender is a child or an adult for whom a legal guardian has been appointed, the offender's parent or guardian may apply for the offender.
- (3) The reportable offender's reporting obligations are not suspended only because the application is made.
- (4) The police commissioner must decide whether to grant or refuse the application as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the application.
- (5) The police commissioner may grant the application only if satisfied, on reasonable grounds, that—

- (a) the reportable offender does not pose a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally; and
 - (b) if the reportable offender has a cognitive or physical impairment—the impairment is a significant impairment; and
 - (c) if the offender has a mental illness—the illness is a significant mental illness.
- (6) The police commissioner must give written notice of the grant or refusal of the application to the reportable offender as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (7) A suspension of the reportable offender's reporting obligations takes effect when the commissioner gives the notice to the reportable offender.

67E Effect of suspension

While a suspension granted under this division is in force, the reportable offender is not required to make any report other than an initial report.

67F Revocation of suspension

- (1) The police commissioner may at any time revoke a suspension made under this division if the commissioner believes, on reasonable grounds—
- (a) the reportable offender poses, or may pose, a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally; or
 - (b) if the reportable offender has a cognitive or physical impairment—the impairment is not, or is no longer, a significant impairment; or
 - (c) if the offender has a mental illness—the illness is not, or is no longer, a significant mental illness.

[s 67G]

- (2) If the police commissioner revokes a suspension, the police commissioner must give the reportable offender written notice of the revocation as soon as reasonably practicable.
- (3) The revocation takes effect when the police commissioner gives the notice to the reportable offender.

Part 4A Reviews and appeals

Notes—

- For review of a decision of the police commissioner under section 64, see section 64(4).
- For review of a decision about an entry on the register, see section 74.

Division 1 Preliminary

67G Application of pt 4A

This part applies if a reportable offender is dissatisfied with a decision mentioned in schedule 4.

Division 2 Internal review

67H Application for internal review

- (1) The reportable offender may apply to the police commissioner for an internal review of the decision.
- (2) The application must—
 - (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) state the grounds on which the reportable offender seeks the review of the decision; and
 - (c) be made within 28 days after the reportable offender receives written notice of the decision.

- (3) However, the police commissioner may at any time extend the time for making the application.

67I Internal review

- (1) As soon as reasonably practicable after receiving the application, the police commissioner must—
- (a) review the decision; and
 - (b) decide to—
 - (i) confirm the decision; or
 - (ii) amend the decision; or
 - (iii) substitute another decision for the decision.
- (2) The application must not be decided by—
- (a) the person who made the decision; or
 - (b) a person in a less senior office than the person who made the decision.
- (3) Subsection (2)—
- (a) applies despite the Acts Interpretation Act 1954, section 27A; and
 - (b) does not apply to a decision made by the police commissioner.
- (4) If the police commissioner decides to confirm or amend the decision, the decision, or the amended decision, is taken to be the police commissioner's decision for the purpose of an appeal under division 3.
- (5) The police commissioner must give the reportable offender a written notice that states—
- (a) the decision on the review; and
 - (b) the reasons for the decision; and
 - (c) that the offender may appeal against the decision to a Magistrates Court within 28 days after the day when the notice is given to the offender.

[s 67J]

- (6) If the police commissioner does not give the notice to the reportable offender within 10 business days after making his or her decision, the commissioner is taken to have confirmed the decision.

Division 3 Appeals to Magistrates Court

67J Appeal

- (1) The reportable offender may appeal against the police commissioner's decision under section 67I by filing a notice of appeal with a Magistrates Court within—
 - (a) 28 days after the day when the offender receives, or ought to have received, the notice; or
 - (b) if the Court extends the time for filing the notice of appeal—the time allowed by the Court.
- (2) The reportable offender must serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the police commissioner.
- (3) The procedure for an appeal under this part must be in accordance with the rules of court applicable to the appeal.
- (4) In deciding an appeal, the Magistrates Court may—
 - (a) confirm the decision; or
 - (b) amend the decision; or
 - (c) set aside the decision and substitute a decision the Court considers should have been made.
- (5) If the Magistrates Court amends the decision or substitutes another decision, the amended decision, or the substituted decision, is taken to be the decision of the police commissioner for the purposes of this Act, other than this part.
- (6) The Magistrates Court must not award costs in relation to an appeal under this part.

Part 5 The register

68 Child protection register

- (1) The police commissioner must establish a child protection register or arrange with another entity to establish a child protection register on his or her behalf.
- (2) The register may contain the following information in relation to each reportable offender (to the extent that it is known by the police commissioner)—
 - (a) the offender's name and other identifying particulars;
 - (b) details of each reportable offence of which the offender has been found guilty or with which the person has been charged;
 - (c) details of each offence of which the offender has been found guilty that resulted in the making of an offender reporting order;
 - (d) the date on which the offender was sentenced for any reportable offence;
 - (e) the date on which the offender—
 - (i) was released from government detention for a reportable offence; or
 - (ii) entered, or was released from, government detention for any offence during his or her reporting period;
 - (f) any information reported in relation to the reportable offender under part 4;
 - (g) any other information that the police commissioner considers appropriate to include in the register.
- (3) The register may have various constituent parts, including, for example, a part maintained by any of the following entities—
 - (a) the Queensland Police Service;
 - (b) the police service of another State;

- (c) the Australian Federal Police;
- (d) the Australian Criminal Intelligence Commission;
- (e) another entity or agency of the Commonwealth or a State prescribed by regulation.

69 Access to the register to be restricted

- (1) The police commissioner must ensure—
 - (a) that the register, or any part of the register, is only accessed by a person, or a class of person, who is authorised to do so by the police commissioner; and
 - (b) that personal information in the register is only disclosed by a person with access to the register, or the relevant part of the register, in circumstances authorised by the police commissioner or as otherwise required by or under any Act or law.
- (2) The police commissioner must develop guidelines about the access to, and disclosure of, personal information in the register that attempt to ensure that access to the personal information in the register is restricted to the greatest extent possible without interfering with the purpose of this Act.
- (3) For this section, the register includes any information from any register maintained under a corresponding Act that is accessible by the police commissioner, regardless of whether or not that information is physically part of the register.
- (4) This section has effect despite any other Act or law to the contrary.

70 Confidentiality

- (1) A person authorised to have access to the register or any part of the register must not disclose any personal information in the register, unless the person—
 - (a) is authorised by the police commissioner to disclose the information; or

Maximum penalty—150 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment.

- (2) If the person is a police officer, an authorisation for subsection (1)(a) may be given under this Act or the Police Service Administration Act 1990, section 10.2.

71 Release of information to corresponding registrar

The police commissioner may release personal information in the register to a corresponding registrar for the purposes of a corresponding Act.

72 Restriction on who may access personal information on protected witnesses

The police commissioner must ensure that any personal information in the register about a person to whom part 4, division 9 applies can not be accessed other than by a person authorised by the officer responsible for the day to day operation of the witness protection program.

Note—

Part 4, division 9 applies to particular people who are, or were, in witness protection programs.

73 Reportable offender's rights in relation to register

- (1) If asked to do so by a reportable offender, the police commissioner must give the offender a copy of all the reportable information that is held in the register in relation to the offender.
- (2) The police commissioner must comply with subsection (1) as soon as practicable after being asked to do so.
- (3) A reportable offender may ask the police commissioner to amend any reportable information held on the register in relation to the offender that is incorrect.

[s 74]

- (4) The police commissioner must comply with the request on being satisfied that the information is incorrect.
- (4A) A request may be made under subsection (1) or (3) for a reportable offender by another person only if the other person has been authorised in writing by the reportable offender to make the request.
- (5) In this section—
reportable information means any information given to the police commissioner by, or on behalf of, the reportable offender that the offender is required to report to the police commissioner and that is still held in the register.

74 Review about entry on register

- (1) This section applies if a person believes that—
 - (a) the person has been placed on the register—
 - (i) in error; or
 - (ii) for a person who has been placed on the register because of the police commissioner’s belief mentioned in section 9(a)(ii)—the police commissioner’s belief is not a reasonable belief; or
 - (b) an error has been made in working out the length of the person’s reporting period.
- (2) The person may apply in writing to the police commissioner to review the following—
 - (a) the decision to place the person on the register;
 - (b) the decision about the length of the person’s reporting period.
- (3) The application must be made within 28 days after the person is given notice of his or her reporting obligations under section 54.
- (3A) The application may be made by another person (an agent) on the person’s behalf only if the person has authorised the agent in writing to make the application.

- (4) The person's reporting obligations are not suspended because the person made the application.
- (5) On receiving an application for a review, the police commissioner must—
 - (a) give the person a reasonable opportunity to state his or her case before making a decision on the matter; and
 - (b) if the application relates to a decision to place the person on the register—review the decision to place the person on the register and confirm or revoke it; and
 - (c) if the application relates to a decision about the length of the person's reporting period—review the decision and confirm or change it; and
 - (d) give the person written notice—
 - (i) of the decision; and
 - (ii) informing the person of the person's right to a copy of all reportable information that is held in the register in relation to the person under section 73.
- (6) If the police commissioner revokes a decision to place a person on the register, the police commissioner must ensure that the person's personal details are removed from the register, and any copies of documents, fingerprints or photographs taken from the person under this Act are not kept.
- (7) If the police commissioner changes a decision about the length of a person's reporting period, the police commissioner must ensure the entry for the reporting period on the register is corrected.

Part 5A Change of name

74A Change of name of reportable offender

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender intends to change his or her name under the Births, Deaths and Marriages

[s 74B]

Registration Act 2003 or a law of a foreign jurisdiction (each the relevant law).

- (2) The reportable offender must obtain the police commissioner's written permission before changing, or applying to change, the offender's name under the relevant law.

Maximum penalty—20 penalty units or 6 months imprisonment.

- (3) In deciding whether to give the permission, the police commissioner must consider each of the following—
- (a) the safety of the reportable offender and other persons;
 - (b) the reportable offender's rehabilitation or care or treatment;
 - (c) whether the proposed name change could be used to further an unlawful activity or purpose;
 - (d) whether the proposed name change could be considered offensive to a victim of a crime or an immediate family member of a deceased victim of a crime.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if the police commissioner becomes aware that the reportable offender has failed to comply with subsection (2) in registering, under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2003, a change of name.
- (5) The police commissioner may apply to the registrar under the Births, Deaths and Marriages Registration Act 2003 for the cancellation of the registration.

Part 6 Other matters

74B Declaration about disclosure or release of personal information to particular corresponding registrars

- (1) This section applies to a disclosure or release of personal information in the register made under or purportedly under this Act or the Police Service Administration Act 1990—

- (a) by the commissioner before the prescribed day; and
 - (b) to a person who became a corresponding registrar on the prescribed day.
- (2) The disclosure or release is and always was as lawfully made as if it were made on the prescribed day.
 - (3) In this section—

prescribed day means the day each of the following Acts became a corresponding Act—

- (a) the Child Protection (Offender Reporting and Registration) Act (NT);
- (b) the Child Sex Offenders Registration Act 2006 (SA);
- (c) the Community Protection (Offender Reporting) Act 2005 (Tas);
- (d) the Crimes (Child Sex Offenders) Act 2005 (ACT).

74C Review of Act

- (1) The Crime and Corruption Commission must—
 - (a) review the operation of this Act; and
 - (b) prepare a report on the review.
- (2) The conduct of the review, and the preparation of the report, is a function of the Crime and Corruption Commission for the Crime and Corruption Act 2001.
- (3) The review must be started as soon as practicable after 5 years after the commencement.
- (4) The Crime and Corruption Commission must give a copy of the report to the Speaker for tabling in the Legislative Assembly.

74D Giving information to police commissioner

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the police commissioner may direct an entity to give the police commissioner any information about a reportable offender, including about an order made under this Act in relation to the offender, held by the entity that is relevant to—

[s 74E]

- (a) deciding whether an application for an order under this Act should be made; or
 - (b) the making of an order under this Act; or
 - (c) amending or revoking an order under this Act; or
 - (d) serving an application or order under this Act; or
 - (e) investigating an alleged breach of this Act or an order under this Act.
- (2) The direction must—
- (a) be given in writing; and
 - (b) state the day on or before which the information must be given.
- (3) The entity is authorised and, despite any other Act, required to give the information sought by the direction to the police commissioner.
- (4) However, the entity is not required to give the information if the information is subject to legal professional privilege.
- (5) This section does not apply to the following entities—
- (a) the chief executive of the department in which the Hospital and Health Boards Act 2011 is administered;
 - (b) a Hospital and Health Service under that Act.
- (6) In this section—
entity includes a government entity.

74E Police commissioner may give information to government and other entities

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, the police commissioner may give the following information about a reportable offender, including about an order made under this Act in relation to the offender, to an entity—

- (a) the offender's name and date of birth;
 - (b) the term of any order;
 - (c) the conduct by the offender that any order prohibits;
 - (d) anything else the police commissioner reasonably considers is necessary to allow the entity to identify the offender to ensure the safety of—
 - (i) a child or children in the entity's care; or
 - (ii) the offender.

Example—

a photo of the offender

- (2) If—
 - (a) the police commissioner gives information about an order to an entity; and
 - (b) the order is later varied or revoked;the police commissioner must give written notice of the variation or revocation to the entity.
- (4) In this section—
 - entity* includes a government entity.
 - order* includes a registered corresponding order.

74F Disclosing information about offender prohibition orders

- (1) This section applies if a prescribed entity is given information about an offender prohibition order under section 74E(1).
- (2) The prescribed entity may give the information to a person if the entity reasonably believes the giving of the information is necessary for the person to perform a function for which the person is employed.
- (3) Subsection (4) applies if—
 - (a) a prescribed entity has given information about an offender prohibition order to a person under subsection (2); and

[s 74G]

- (b) the prescribed entity is given notice of the variation or revocation of the offender prohibition order under section 74E(2).
- (4) The prescribed entity must give written notice of the variation or revocation to the person.
- (5) A person given information under subsection (2) or (4) must not disclose the information, unless permitted to do so under section 51C or under another Act.
- (6) In this section—

Act includes an Act of the Commonwealth or another State.

offender prohibition order includes a registered corresponding order.

prescribed entity means—

 - (a) the chief executive of a government entity; or
 - (b) another entity that is wholly or partly funded by the State or the Commonwealth.

74G Chief executive (communities) to be given information about child respondent

- (1) For the purpose of giving a report to the court in compliance with a direction of the court under section 13E(2), the chief executive (communities) may ask a government entity to give the chief executive (communities) any information—
 - (a) held by the government entity; and
 - (b) relevant for the report.
- (2) The request must—
 - (a) be given in writing; and
 - (b) state the day on or before which the information is to be given.
- (3) The government entity is authorised, despite any other Act, to give the chief executive (communities) the information requested.

74H Duty of persons obtaining information

- (1) This section applies to a person who obtains information under sections 74D to 74G.
- (2) It is the duty of the person to take all reasonable steps to ensure the information is used or disclosed only for the purpose for which it was obtained.

74I Police commissioner may give information about order to other particular persons

To the extent the police commissioner reasonably considers it necessary and appropriate to reduce a risk to the lives or sexual safety of 1 or more children, or of children generally, the police commissioner may give information about an order made under this Act to a person, including, for example—

- (a) if the respondent is a child respondent—a parent or guardian of the child respondent; or
- (b) a parent or guardian of any child protected by the order.

74J Protection from liability for giving information

- (1) This section applies if a person, acting honestly, gives information under this Act.
- (2) The person is not liable, civilly, criminally or under an administrative process, for giving the information.
- (3) Without limiting subsection (2)—
 - (a) in a proceeding for defamation, the person has a defence of absolute privilege for disclosing the information; and
 - (b) if the person would otherwise be required to maintain confidentiality about the information under an Act, the person does not contravene the Act by giving the information.

[s 75]

75 Protection from personal liability

- (1) A person acting in the administration or execution of this Act does not incur civil liability for an act done, or omission made, honestly and without negligence under this Act.
- (2) If subsection (1) prevents civil liability attaching to the person, the liability attaches instead to the State.

76 Effect of spent convictions

- (1) The fact that an offence for which a reportable offender has been found guilty becomes spent does not affect—
 - (a) the status of the offence as a reportable offence under this Act in relation to the offender; or
 - (b) any reporting obligations of the offender.
- (2) For this section, an offence becomes spent if, under a law in any jurisdiction, the reportable offender is allowed to not disclose the fact that the person was convicted or found guilty of the offence.

77 Evidentiary provisions

- (1) In a proceeding under this Act, a statement by the prosecution that the register—
 - (a) at a particular date contained particular information; or
 - (b) indicated that, during a particular period, a specified person failed to notify information as required by this Act;is evidence of the stated matters.
- (2) For this Act, a certificate that would be evidence under a corresponding Act that at a specified time, or during a specified period, a person was required to report to a corresponding registrar under that Act is evidence of the facts stated in the certificate.
- (3) In a proceeding under this Act, a statement by the prosecution about the following matters is evidence of the matters—

- (a) a stated person was served with a copy of a stated offender prohibition order, stated corresponding order or stated registered corresponding order by a stated process server on a stated date;
 - (b) a stated process server was authorised to serve a stated corresponding order;
 - (c) the respondent for an offender prohibition order, or corresponding order, was present in court when the order was made;
 - (d) the respondent for a registered corresponding order was present in court when the order was registered.
- (4) In a proceeding under this Act, an affidavit by a stated process server stating the date, time and way the process server served a stated offender prohibition order on a stated person is evidence of the stated matters.
- (5) If a defendant intends to challenge a matter stated in either of the following paragraphs at a hearing in a proceeding for an offence against this part, the defendant must give written notice of the challenge to the prosecution at least 3 business days before the day fixed for the hearing—
- (a) a statement mentioned in subsection (3);
 - (b) an affidavit mentioned in subsection (4).
- (6) In this section—
- court, in relation to the making of a corresponding order, means any court of another jurisdiction that made the corresponding order.
- process server means—
- (a) a police officer; or
 - (b) in relation to a registered corresponding order—
 - (i) a member of the police force of the jurisdiction where the corresponding order was made; or
 - (ii) another person authorised under the law of that jurisdiction to serve the corresponding order.

[s 77A]

77A Legal proceedings for pt 3A

- (1) An application under part 3A may be made, and a court may deal with the application, even if a person concerned in the application has been charged with an offence arising out of conduct on which the application is based.
- (2) The Uniform Civil Procedure Rules 1999 apply to a proceeding under part 3A, other than a proceeding for—
 - (a) a temporary order; or
 - (b) an offence against this Act.
- (3) A question of fact in a proceeding under part 3A is to be decided on the balance of probabilities.

77B Cross-examining protected witnesses

The Evidence Act 1977, part 2, division 6 applies to a proceeding under this Act as if—

- (a) a reference to a protected witness included a reference to an alleged victim of the offence who was under 16 years when the offence was committed, irrespective of the alleged victim's age when giving evidence; and
- (b) a reference to a person charged were a reference to—
 - (i) a reportable offender; or
 - (ii) a respondent in a proceeding under this Act.

77C Application of Evidence Act 1977, s 53

- (1) In a proceeding under part 3A, the relevant provision applies for the purpose of proving—
 - (a) an offender prohibition order or another order made under part 3A; or
 - (b) a corresponding order; or
 - (c) the registration of a corresponding order under part 3A.

- (2) For applying the relevant provision as mentioned in subsection (1)(a)—
- (a) a reference to a court in subsection (1)(a) to (f) of the relevant provision includes a reference to a magistrate; and
 - (b) a reference to a court in subsection (1)(g) of the relevant provision, in relation to an order made by a magistrate, includes a reference to the court where the magistrate usually constitutes the court.
- (3) For applying the relevant provision as mentioned in subsection (1)(b) or (c)—
- (a) a reference to a court in subsection (1)(a) of the relevant provision includes—
 - (i) a judicial officer of a court of another jurisdiction who has made a corresponding order; and
 - (ii) a registrar of a Magistrates Court who has registered a corresponding order; and
 - (b) a reference to a court in subsection (1)(g) of the relevant provision includes a reference to the court where the corresponding order was registered.
- (4) In this section—

relevant provision means the Evidence Act 1977, section 53.

Note—

See also the Evidence Act 1995 (Cwlth), sections 5, 157 and 158 for proof of corresponding orders.

77D Proof of knowledge of order conditions

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if—
- (a) an issue is raised in a proceeding of whether a respondent for an offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order knew about a particular condition of the order alleged to have been contravened; and

[s 77E]

- (b) there is evidence that the respondent only knew of the existence of the order because a police officer told the respondent about its existence.
- (2) The respondent can not be convicted unless it is proved that the police officer told the respondent about the particular condition.
- (3) In this section—
police officer, in relation to a registered corresponding order, includes a member of the police force of the jurisdiction where the corresponding order was made.

77E Reasonable excuse defence

When deciding whether a respondent had a reasonable excuse for contravening section 51A (1) or (4), the court must have regard to—

- (a) the respondent's age; and
- (b) whether the respondent had, at the time of the contravention, a disability that affected the respondent's ability to understand, or to comply with, the offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order; and
- (c) whether the form of notice given to the respondent about the offender prohibition order or registered corresponding order was adequate to inform the respondent of the respondent's obligations under the order, having regard to the respondent's circumstances; and
- (d) any other matter the court considers appropriate.

77F Concurrent criminal proceeding

- (1) An application under this Act may be made, and a court may deal with the application, even if a person concerned in the application has been charged with an offence arising out of conduct on which the application is based.

- (2) However, if a person is charged with an offence arising out of conduct on which an application under this Act is based, a reference to any of the following is admissible in the trial of the person for the offence only with the leave of the court—
 - (a) the existence of the application;
 - (b) the existence of any proceeding relating to the application;
 - (c) the making of, or refusal to make, any order relating to the application;
 - (d) the making of, or refusal to make, any variation of any order relating to the application;
 - (e) the fact that evidence of a particular nature or content was given in any proceeding relating to the application.
- (3) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, subject to this section, an application, proceeding or order under this Act in relation to the conduct of a person does not affect—
 - (a) any proceeding for an offence against the person arising out of the same conduct; or
 - (b) any civil liability of the person.
- (4) The person may be punished for the offence mentioned in subsection (3)(a) despite any order made against the person under this Act.

78 Regulation-making power

- (1) The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the Governor in Council may make a regulation imposing a penalty of not more than 20 penalty units for a contravention of a regulation.

Part 7 Transitional provisions

Division 1 Provision for the Criminal Code and Other Acts Amendment Act 2008

79 Transitional provision

Schedule 1 applies as if the reference to the Criminal Code, section 208 included a reference to the Criminal Code, section 209 as in force at any time before its repeal by the Criminal Code and Other Acts Amendment Act 2008.

Division 2 Provisions for the Child Protection (Offender Reporting) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2011

80 Declaration about application of s 14

- (1) This section applies to a reportable offender who—
 - (a) before the commencement, was required to make an initial report; but
 - (b) had not made the report before the commencement because the period, stated in pre-amended section 14, for making the report had not ended.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that pre-amended section 14 continues to apply to the reportable offender for making the report.
- (3) In this section—

commencement means the commencement of this section.

pre-amended section 14 means section 14 as in force immediately before the commencement.

81 Application of s 33

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before the commencement, the police commissioner agreed, under section 33(2), to allow a reportable offender to make a report at a specific time; and
 - (b) at the commencement, the specific time had not ended and the offender had not made the report.
- (2) Section 33(2) as in force immediately before the commencement continues to apply to the reportable offender until the end of the specific time.
- (3) In this section—

commencement means the commencement of this section.

82 Declaration and other provision about effect of previous sentence for a new class 1 or class 2 offence

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) before the commencement, was sentenced for an offence that is a new class 1 or 2 offence; but
 - (b) immediately before the commencement, was not a reportable offender.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that, subject to section 5, the person is a reportable offender.
- (3) However, a reporting obligation does not apply to the person unless the police commissioner has given the person a notice under section 59.
- (4) In this section—

commencement means the commencement of this section.

new class 1 or 2 offence means an offence that—
 - (a) before the commencement, was not a class 1 or 2 offence; but
 - (b) on the commencement, is a class 1 or 2 offence.

Division 3 Transitional provisions for Child Protection (Offender Reporting) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2014

83 Definitions for div 3

In this division—

amending Act means the Child Protection (Offender Reporting) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2014.

commencement means the time of commencement of the provision in which this term appears.

pre-amended Act means this Act as in force immediately before it was amended by the amending Act.

84 Single offence by child against Criminal Code, s 210

To remove any doubt, it is declared that a person is not a reportable offender under this Act only because the person committed a single offence against the Criminal Code, section 210—

- (a) when the person was a child; and
- (b) before the commencement.

85 New South Wales reportable offenders

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) was, immediately before the commencement, a New South Wales reportable offender under the pre-amended Act, section 8; and
 - (b) would, except for the amendment made by the amending Act, have continued to be a New South Wales reportable offender for a period (the remaining reporting period) after the commencement.

- (2) The person is taken to be a corresponding reportable offender under this Act until—
 - (a) the remaining reporting period ends; or
 - (b) the person otherwise stops being a reportable offender.

86 Reportable offenders who have made annual report before commencement

- (1) This section applies if a reportable offender has, before the commencement, made an annual report for 2014 under the pre-amended Act, section 18.
- (2) The reportable offender must start making periodic reports—
 - (a) if the police commissioner gives the offender a notice under section 19(3)—at the time stated in the notice; or
 - (b) otherwise—
 - (i) if the anniversary of the date when the offender made the initial report falls in a reporting month—in that month; or
 - (ii) if the anniversary does not fall in a reporting month—in the next reporting month after the anniversary.

Example for paragraph (b)—

A reportable offender makes an annual report in March 2014. If the amending Act commences in April 2014, the offender must start making periodic reports in May 2015.

87 Evidence certificates for existing proceedings

Section 77 of the pre-amended Act continues to apply to a proceeding started before the commencement, despite the amendment of section 77.

[s 88]

Division 4 Transitional provision for Health and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2016

88 Sch 1 references to the Criminal Code, s 215

Schedule 1 applies as if the reference to the Criminal Code, section 215 included a reference to—

- (a) the Criminal Code, section 208 as in force at any time before its repeal by the Health and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2016; and
- (b) the Criminal Code, section 209 as in force at any time before its repeal by the Criminal Code and Other Acts Amendment Act 2008.

Division 5 Transitional provisions for Child Protection (Offender Reporting) and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2017

89 References to Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008

If the context allows, a reference in an Act or other document to the Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008 (the repealed Act) is taken to be a reference to this Act.

90 Documents under Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008

- (1) This section applies to a document under the repealed Act that is in effect immediately before the Act is repealed.
- (2) The document continues to have effect according to its terms and conditions.
- (3) This Act applies to the document as if the document had been made under this Act.

- (4) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the document took effect or was made, given or received when the document took effect or was made, given or received under the repealed Act.
- (5) In this section—
document includes—
 - (a) an offender prohibition order or any other order; and
 - (b) a direction; and
 - (c) a delegation; and
 - (d) a notice.

91 Taking fingerprints

- (1) This section applies to a reportable offender who, before the commencement—
 - (a) made an initial report of the offender's personal details to the police commissioner after receiving a notice under section 54(5); and
 - (b) when making the initial report, was not required to allow a police officer to take, or cause a person authorised by the officer to take, the offender's fingerprints.
- (2) The police commissioner must, by written notice, require the reportable offender to allow a police officer to take, or cause a person authorised by the officer to take, the offender's fingerprints when the offender is next required under this Act to make a report.

Division 6 Transitional provisions for Police Powers and Responsibilities and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2020

92 Definitions for division

In this division—

amending Act means the Police Powers and Responsibilities and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2020.

former section 51B means section 51B as in force from time to time before it was amended by part 2 of the amending Act.

93 Saving of former s 51B

Former section 51B continues to apply, as if part 2 of the amending Act had not commenced, in relation to a requirement imposed under former section 51B(2) before the commencement.

94 Declaratory provision about effect of amending Act

- (1) This section applies for deciding, after the commencement, a matter to which former section 51B applies.
- (2) The amendment of former section 51B by the amending Act is to be disregarded.
