An Act to provide comprehensively for the laws concerning children who commit, or who are alleged to have committed, offences and for related purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Youth Justice Act 1992.

2 Objectives of Act

The principal objectives of this Act are—

- (a) to establish the basis for the administration of juvenile justice; and
- (b) to establish a code for dealing with children who have, or are alleged to have, committed offences; and
- (c) to provide for the jurisdiction and proceedings of courts dealing with children; and
- (d) to ensure that courts that deal with children who have committed offences deal with them according to principles established under this Act; and
- (e) to recognise the importance of families of children and communities, in particular Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander communities, in the provision of services designed to—
 - (i) rehabilitate children who commit offences; and
 - (ii) reintegrate children who commit offences into the community.

3 Youth justice principles

- (1) Schedule 1 sets out a charter of youth justice principles.
- (2) The principles underlie the operation of this Act.

4 Definitions

The dictionary in schedule 4 defines particular words used in this Act.

5 Note in text

A note in the text of this Act is part of the Act.

7 Meaning of police officer starting a proceeding

In this Act, mention of a police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence includes—

- (a) obtaining a warrant for the arrest of a child on a charge for an offence; and
- (b) arresting a child for an offence without a warrant.

8 Meaning of serious offence

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), in this Act serious offence means—
 - (a) a life offence; or
 - (b) an offence of a type that, if committed by an adult, would make the adult liable to imprisonment for 14 years or more.
- (2) An offence is not a serious offence if—
 - (a) it is a relevant offence under the Criminal Code, section 552BA; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552BA (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily)

- (b) it is an offence that is the subject of a charge to which the Criminal Code, section 552A or 552B applies; or

Editor's note—

Criminal Code, section 552A (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily on prosecution election) or 552B (Charges of indictable offences that must be heard and decided summarily unless defendant elects for jury trial)

- (c) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily; or

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 13 (Certain offences may be dealt with summarily)

- (d) under the Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14, proceedings for a charge for the offence may be taken summarily.

Note—

Proceedings for a charge for an offence may not be taken summarily under section 14 if the prosecution allegations include an allegation as to a commercial purpose.

Editor's note—

Drugs Misuse Act 1986, section 14 (Other offences that may be dealt with summarily if no commercial purpose alleged)

- (2A) If it is necessary for the purposes of subsection (2) to have reference to the table of excluded offences included in the Criminal Code, section 552BB, a reference in that table to the circumstance that the offender does not plead guilty to an offence is taken to be a reference to a child not admitting to committing the offence.
- (3) For the purpose of this section, the type of an offence includes the circumstances in which it is committed.

9 Meaning of court that made order

- (1) In this Act, mention of the court that made a particular order on sentence includes, if the order was made by—

[s 10]

- (a) the Supreme Court—any sittings of the Supreme Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or
 - (b) the District Court—any sittings of the District Court in its criminal jurisdiction at any place in Queensland; or
 - (c) a Childrens Court judge—any sittings of a Childrens Court judge at any place in Queensland; or
 - (d) a Magistrates Court—any Magistrates Court sitting at any place in Queensland; or
 - (e) a Childrens Court magistrate—any Childrens Court magistrate sitting at any place in Queensland.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the court is not constituted by the same judicial officer who made the order originally.

Part 2 Special provisions about policing and children

Division 1 Police officer must consider appropriate way to proceed

10 Division does not apply to 2 general ways of proceeding

This division has no effect on—

- (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
- (b) a proceeding on an indictment.

11 Police officer to consider alternatives to proceeding against child

- (1) Unless otherwise provided under this division, a police officer, before starting a proceeding against a child for an offence other than a serious offence, must first consider whether in all the circumstances it would be more appropriate to do 1 of the following—

- (a) to take no action;
 - (b) to administer a caution to the child;
 - (c) to refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process;
 - (d) if the offence is a minor drugs offence and the child may be offered a drug diversion warning or the opportunity to participate in a drug diversion assessment program under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 14, part 4, division 5—to offer the child the warning or opportunity in accordance with that division;
 - (e) if the offence is a graffiti offence and the child may be offered an opportunity to attend a graffiti removal program under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 379A—to offer the child that opportunity in accordance with that section.

Note—

Because of section 134, a police officer must consider offering the same opportunities for diversion from the court system as apply to a child to a person who committed an offence as a child but is now an adult.

- (2) The circumstances to which the police officer must have regard include—
 - (a) the circumstances of the alleged offence; and
 - (b) the child’s criminal history, any previous cautions administered to the child for an offence and, if the child has been in any other way dealt with for an offence under any Act, the other dealings.
- (3) If necessary, the police officer must delay starting the proceeding in order to comply with a requirement under subsection (1) or (2).
- (4) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), then the police officer must do so.
- (5) If, on complying with subsections (1) and (2), the police officer considers it would not be more appropriate to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c), (d) or (e), the police officer may start a proceeding against the child for the offence.

- (6) The police officer may take the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a), (b), (c) or (e) even though—
- (a) action of that kind has been taken in relation to the child on a previous occasion; or
 - (b) a proceeding against the child for another offence has already been started or has ended.
- (7) Subsection (1) does not prevent a police officer from taking the action mentioned in subsection (1)(a) to (c) for a serious offence.
- (8) If the police officer decides to act as mentioned in subsection (1)(a) or (b) in relation to a minor drugs offence, the minor drugs matter the subject of the minor drugs offence is forfeited to the State.

Note—

The Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, chapter 14, part 4, division 5 provides for forfeiting a minor drugs matter on agreeing to an offer under that division.

- (9) In this section—

minor drugs matter see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, schedule 6.

minor drugs offence see the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 378B.

12 Preferred way for police officer to start proceedings

A police officer starting a proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence, must start the proceeding by way of complaint and summons or notice to appear, unless otherwise provided under this Act.

13 Police officer's power of arrest preserved in particular general circumstances

(1) A police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), without a warrant, to arrest a child for an offence without regard to sections 11 and 12 only if the police officer believes on reasonable grounds—

- (a) the arrest is necessary—
 - (i) to prevent a continuation or a repetition of the offence or the commission of another offence; or
 - (ii) to obtain or preserve, or prevent concealment, loss or destruction of, evidence relating to the offence; or
 - (iii) to prevent the fabrication of evidence; or
 - (iv) to ensure the child's appearance before a court; or

Note—

Under the youth justice principles in schedule 1, it is a principle of this Act that a child should be detained in custody for an offence, whether on arrest, remand or sentence, only as a last resort and for the least time that is justified in the circumstances.

- (b) the child is an adult; or
 - (c) the child is contravening section 278 or is unlawfully at large.
- (2) In deciding for subsection (1)(b) whether the police officer had reasonable grounds, a court may have regard to the child's apparent age and the circumstances of the arrest.
- (3) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(2), without a warrant, to arrest a child without regard to sections 11 and 12.
- (4) Also, a police officer may use the police officer's power of arrest under a warrant issued under the Bail Act 1980 without regard to sections 11 and 12.

- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that this section does not affect a police officer's power under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, section 365(3), to arrest a child without warrant for a serious offence.

Division 2 Cautioning

14 Purpose of caution

The purpose of this division is to set up a way of diverting a child who commits an offence from the courts' criminal justice system by allowing a police officer to administer a caution to the child instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence.

15 Police officer may administer a caution

- (1) A police officer instead of bringing a child before a court for an offence may administer a caution to the child.
- (2) The child is then not liable to be prosecuted for the offence.
- (3) The caution is not part of the child's criminal history.

16 Conditions for administration of police caution

- (1) A police officer may administer a caution to a child for an offence only if the child—
 - (a) admits committing the offence to the police officer; and
 - (b) consents to being cautioned.
- (2) A police officer who administers a caution, or who requests the administration of a caution under section 17, must, if practicable, arrange to be present at the administration of the caution—
 - (a) an adult chosen by the child; or
 - (b) a parent of the child or a person chosen by a parent of the child.

- (3) The commissioner of the police service may authorise a police officer who the commissioner considers has sufficient training or experience (authorised officer) to administer cautions.
 - (4) If a police officer administering a caution is not an authorised officer, the caution must be administered in the presence of an authorised officer.

17 Caution administered by respected person of Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community

- (1) If a caution is to be administered to a child who is a member of an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, an authorised officer mentioned in section 16—
 - (a) must consider whether there is a respected person of the community who is available and willing to administer the caution; and
 - (b) if a respected person of the community is available and willing to administer the caution—must request the person to administer the caution.
- (2) In a proceeding, evidence that a person purported to administer a caution under subsection (1) as a respected person mentioned in the subsection is evidence that the person was a respected person.

18 Caution procedure must involve explanation

- (1) A police officer who administers, or requests the administration of, a caution to a child must take steps to ensure that the child and the person present under section 16(2) understand the purpose, nature and effect of the caution.
- (2) The steps that can be taken include, for example—
 - (a) personally explaining these matters to the child; and
 - (b) having some person with training or experience in the cautioning of children give the explanation; and

- (c) having an interpreter or other person able to communicate effectively with the child give the explanation; and
- (d) supplying an explanatory note in English or another language.

19 Caution procedure may involve apology to victim

- (1) This section applies only after a police officer decides that a caution should be administered to a child for an offence.
- (2) The procedure of administering a caution to a child for an offence may involve the child apologising to a victim of the offence if—
 - (a) the police officer administering, or requesting the administration of, the caution considers that an apology is an appropriate course of action in the particular circumstances of the case; and
 - (b) the child is willing to apologise; and
 - (c) the victim is willing to participate in the procedure.

20 Child must be given a notice of caution

- (1) If a caution is administered to a child for an offence, the police officer who—
 - (a) administered the caution; or
 - (b) under section 17, requested the administration of the caution;must give the child a notice in a form approved by the commissioner of the police service.
- (2) The notice must state—
 - (a) that a caution was administered to the child; and
 - (b) the time and date the caution was administered; and
 - (c) the child's name; and

- (d) the substance of the offence; and
 - (e) the police officer's name and rank; and
 - (f) the place where the caution was issued; and
 - (g) the names of all persons present when the caution was issued; and
 - (h) the nature and effect of a caution.
- (3) In a proceeding, a document purporting to be a notice or copy of a notice is evidence that the child was administered a caution for the offence in the circumstances stated in the notice.
- (4) A document mentioned in subsection (3) is not evidence that the child committed the offence.

21 Childrens Court may dismiss charge if caution should have been administered or no action taken

- (1) If a child pleads guilty before a Childrens Court to a charge made against the child by a police officer, the court may dismiss the charge instead of accepting the plea of guilty if—
- (a) application is made for the dismissal by or on behalf of the child; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied that the child should have been cautioned instead of being charged or no action should have been taken against the child.
- (2) In deciding the application, the Childrens Court may have regard to—
- (a) any other cautions administered to the child for any offence; and
 - (b) whether any previous conference agreements have been made by the child.
- (3) If the court dismisses a charge under subsection (1) because the child should have been cautioned, the court may—
- (a) administer a caution to the child; or

- (b) direct a police officer to administer a caution to the child as directed by the court.
- (4) The caution is not part of the child's criminal history.

Division 3 Referral for restorative justice process

22 When police officer may refer offence for restorative justice process

- (1) This section applies if a child admits committing an offence to a police officer.
- (2) Instead of bringing the child before a court for the offence, the police officer may, by written notice given to the chief executive, refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.
- (3) However, the police officer may make the referral only if—
 - (a) the child indicates willingness to comply with the referral; and
 - (b) having regard to the deciding factors, the officer considers—
 - (i) a caution is inappropriate; and
 - (ii) a proceeding for the offence would be appropriate if the referral were not made; and
 - (iii) the referral is a more appropriate way of dealing with the offence than starting a proceeding.
- (4) The deciding factors for referring an offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process are—
 - (a) the nature of the offence; and
 - (b) the harm suffered by anyone because of the offence; and
 - (c) whether the interests of the community and the child would be served by having the offence dealt with under a restorative justice process.

- (5) The police officer must inform the child generally of the restorative justice process and potential consequences for the child if he or she fails to properly participate in the process.
- (6) If the referral is accepted by the chief executive, the chief executive must give written notice of the acceptance to the police officer and the child.

23 If restorative justice agreement is made as a consequence of referral for restorative justice process

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a police officer refers an offence committed by a child to the chief executive for a restorative justice process; and
 - (b) a restorative justice agreement is made as a consequence of the referral.
- (2) The child is not liable to be prosecuted for the offence unless otherwise provided under this Act.

24 Powers of police officer if referral is unsuccessful or if child contravenes restorative justice agreement

- (1) This section applies if a police officer refers an offence committed by a child to the chief executive for a restorative justice process and—
 - (a) the chief executive returns the referral to the officer under section 32(1); or
 - (b) the child fails to comply with a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.
- (2) In considering what further action is appropriate, the police officer must consider—
 - (a) the matters mentioned in section 11(2); and
 - (b) any participation by the child in the restorative justice process; and

- (c) if a restorative justice agreement was made as a consequence of the referral—anything done by the child under the agreement.
- (3) The police officer may—
 - (a) take no action; or
 - (b) administer a caution to the child; or
 - (c) refer the offence to the chief executive for another restorative justice process; or
 - (d) start a proceeding against the child for the offence.

24A Childrens Court may dismiss charge if offence should have been referred to restorative justice process

- (1) If a child pleads guilty before a Childrens Court to a charge made against the child by a police officer, the court may dismiss the charge instead of accepting the plea of guilty if—
 - (a) application is made for the dismissal by or on behalf of the child; and
 - (b) the court is satisfied the offence should have been referred to the chief executive for a restorative justice process under section 22, regardless of whether or not the child admitted committing the offence to the police officer.
- (1A) In deciding the application, the Childrens Court may have regard to—
 - (a) any cautions administered to the child for any offence; and
 - (b) whether any previous restorative justice agreements have been made by the child.
- (2) If the court dismisses the charge, the court may refer the offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.
- (3) However, the dismissal of the charge does not prevent a police officer restarting a proceeding against the child for the offence or a court sentencing the child for the offence if—

- (a) the chief executive returns the referral under section 32(1); or
 - (b) the child fails to comply with a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.
- (4) For part 3, the police officer is taken to be the referring authority for a referral made under subsection (2).
- (5) If the court decides to—
- (a) make an order of dismissal under the Justices Act 1886, section 149 and give the child a certificate of the dismissal; or
 - (b) give the child a certificate of dismissal under the Criminal Code, section 700;

the court must not give the child the certificate until the child discharges his or her obligations under a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of the referral.

Division 4 Identifying particulars

25 Application by police officer for permission to take child's identifying particulars

- (1) This section applies if a child has been charged, without being arrested, with an indictable offence or an offence against any of the following Acts that is an arrest offence—
- Criminal Code
 - Drugs Misuse Act 1986
 - Police Service Administration Act 1990
 - Regulatory Offences Act 1985
 - Summary Offences Act 2005
 - Weapons Act 1990.
- (2) A police officer (the applicant) may apply to a Childrens Court magistrate (the court) to have all or any of the identifying particulars of the child taken.

- (3) The applicant must give notice of the application to—
 - (a) the child; and
 - (b) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (c) the chief executive.
- (4) The court may decide the application in the absence of a person mentioned in subsection (3), if the court is satisfied that subsection (3) has been complied with.
- (5) On the application—
 - (a) the applicant and anyone mentioned in subsection (3) is entitled to be heard and to provide evidence; and
 - (b) the court may act on statements of information and belief.
- (6) The court may order the identifying particulars to be taken if it is satisfied, on the balance of probabilities, of all the following facts—
 - (a) someone has committed the charged offence;
 - (b) there is evidence of identifying particulars of the offender that are of the same type as the identifying particulars the applicant seeks to have taken from the child;
 - (c) the child is reasonably suspected of being the offender;
 - (d) the order is necessary for the proper conduct of the investigation of the offence.
- (7) The order must state the investigation for which the order is made.
- (8) If the child will not be in custody when the particulars are taken, the order must require the child to report to a police officer at a stated police station between stated hours within 7 days to enable a police officer to take the identifying particulars.
- (9) A child must not contravene the order.

Maximum penalty (subject to part 7)—10 penalty units.

(10) If the child will be in custody when the particulars are taken, the order must require the particulars to be taken at the place the child is held in custody.

(11) This section is subject to section 26.

(12) In this section—

charged offence means the offence with which the child is charged or an offence arising out of the same, or the same set of, circumstances.

parent, of a child, includes someone who is apparently a parent of the child.

26 Support person must be present when identifying particulars are taken

(1) In a proceeding for an offence, a court must not admit into evidence against a defendant identifying particulars taken from the defendant under section 25 unless the court is satisfied a support person chosen by the child was present when the identifying particulars were taken.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—

(a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person when the particulars were taken; and

(b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the particulars should be admitted into evidence.

(3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a person whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—

(a) is an accomplice of the child; or

(b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact; for the offence or another offence under investigation.

[s 27]

- (4) Also, this section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when the identifying particulars are taken a parent of the child whom the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds is a person against whom the offence under investigation is alleged to have been committed.
- (5) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

27 Destruction of identifying particulars taken under court order

- (1) Identifying particulars taken from a child under an order under section 25 must be destroyed if the investigation for which the order was made does not result in a sentence order being made.
- (2) For subsection (1), the destruction must happen within 7 days of whichever of the following happens last—
 - (a) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding had started when the order was made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
 - (b) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is started within 28 days after the order is made and the proceeding ends without a sentence order being made—the end of the proceeding;
 - (c) if the investigation is for an offence for which a proceeding is not started within 28 days of the order—the end of the period of 28 days.

Note—

See the extended meaning of charged offence in section 25.

- (3) An applicant who obtains an order to have identifying particulars taken from a child under section 25 must not fail to ensure the particulars are destroyed under this section, unless the applicant has a reasonable excuse for failing to do so.

- (4) A failure to comply with subsection (3) may be dealt with as a breach of discipline under the Police Service Administration Act 1990.

28 Division does not limit other provisions

This division does not limit provisions of the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000 authorising the taking of someone's identifying particulars to the extent to which those provisions apply to a child.

Division 5 Statements

29 Support person must be present for statement to be admissible

- (1) In a proceeding for an indictable offence, a court must not admit into evidence against the defendant a statement made or given to a police officer by the defendant when a child, unless the court is satisfied a support person was present with the child at the time and place the statement was made or given.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if—
- (a) the prosecution satisfies the court there was a proper and sufficient reason for the absence of a support person at the time the statement was made or given; and
- Examples—*
- 1 There was a reasonable suspicion that allowing a support person to be present would result in an accomplice or accessory of the relevant person taking steps to avoid apprehension.
 - 2 A support person was excluded under the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000.
- (b) the court considers that, in the particular circumstances, the statement should be admitted into evidence.

[s 30]

- (3) This section does not require that a police officer permit or cause to be present when a child makes or gives the statement a person the police officer suspects on reasonable grounds—
- (a) is an accomplice of the child; or
 - (b) is, or is likely to become, an accessory after the fact; in relation to the offence or another offence under investigation.
- (4) This section does not limit the common law under which a court in a criminal proceeding may exclude evidence in the exercise of its discretion.

Part 3 Restorative justice processes

Division 1 Preliminary

30 Object of part

The object of this part is to provide for the use of a restorative justice process for a child who commits an offence.

31 The restorative justice process

- (1) This part applies if a police officer or a court (each a referring authority) refers an offence to the chief executive for a restorative justice process.
- (2) The restorative justice process is to be a conference.
- (3) However, the restorative justice process is to be an alternative diversion program if—
- (a) the referral is made by a police officer under section 22 or made by a court under section 24A or 164; and
 - (b) a conference can not be convened for any reason other than—

- (i) the chief executive being unable to contact the child after reasonable inquiries; or
- (ii) the child being unwilling to participate in the conference.

32 Returning referrals

- (1) The chief executive may, by written notice given to the referring authority, return the referral if—
 - (a) the chief executive is unable to contact the child after reasonable inquiries; or
 - (b) the chief executive has made reasonable requirements of the child to attend an interview about the process and the child has failed to attend as required; or
 - (c) the chief executive considers it necessary for a victim of the offence to participate and the victim does not wish to participate or can not be located after reasonable inquiries; or
 - (d) during the restorative justice process the child denies committing the offence to the chief executive, a convenor or victim of the offence; or
 - (e) the chief executive is satisfied that an appropriate restorative justice agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the chief executive considers appropriate; or
 - (f) the chief executive considers that the referral is unsuitable for a restorative justice process; or
 - (g) a conference is convened for the referral and the convenor ends the conference without an agreement being made.
- (2) The notice must state the reasons for returning the referral, and the reasons may be considered by a court in any later proceeding for sentencing the child for the offence.
- (3) The referring authority must make reasonable efforts to inform the child that the referral has been returned.

Division 2 Conferences

33 Object of division

This division provides for the use of a conference to allow a child, who commits an offence, and other concerned persons to consider or deal with the offence in a way that benefits all concerned.

34 Who may participate in conference

(1) The following persons are entitled to participate in the conference—

- (a) the child;
- (b) the victim;
- (c) the convenor;
- (d) a representative of the commissioner of the police service;
- (e) a parent of the child;
- (f) if requested by the child, 1 or more of the following—
 - (i) the child’s legal representative;
 - (ii) a member of the child’s family;
 - (iii) another adult;
- (g) if requested by the victim, 1 or more of the following—
 - (i) the victim’s legal representative;
 - (ii) a member of the victim’s family;
 - (iii) another adult;
- (h) another person approved by the convenor.

Examples for paragraph (h)—

- 1 a representative of the chief executive
- 2 a person present for the purpose of training, research or education

- 3 for an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander child who is from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, a respected person of the community or a representative of a community justice group that may be in the community
- (2) To ensure that a victim of the offence is informed of his or her entitlement to participate in the conference, the referring authority must give the chief executive contact information for the victims of the offence.
- (3) For subsection (1)(h), if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person from an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander community, the convenor must consider inviting to attend the conference either or both of the following—
- (a) a respected person of the community;
 - (b) if there is a community justice group in the community—a representative of the community justice group.

35 Convening conference

- (1) The conference may be convened only if—
- (a) the child and the convenor attend the conference; and
 - (b) there is a degree of victim participation in the conference through—
 - (i) the attendance of the victim or a representative of the victim; or
 - (ii) the use of pre-recorded communication recorded by the victim for use in the conference; or
 - (iii) a representative of an organisation that advocates on behalf of victims of crime.
- (2) The convenor is responsible for convening the conference and must be independent of the circumstances of the offence.
- (3) The conference must be directed towards making a conference agreement.
- (4) If the child is not legally represented at the conference, the convenor must ensure the child—

[s 36]

- (a) is informed of the right to obtain legal advice; and
 - (b) has reasonable information about how to obtain legal advice and a reasonable opportunity to do so.
- (5) The conference ends when a conference agreement is made or the convenor brings the conference to an end because—
- (a) the child fails to attend the conference as required; or
 - (b) the child denies committing the offence at the conference; or
 - (c) the convenor concludes a participant's conduct or failure will result in a conference agreement being unlikely to be made; or
 - (d) the convenor concludes a conference agreement is unlikely to be made within a time the convenor considers appropriate.
- (6) If the conference ends without a conference agreement but the convenor considers it is worthwhile persisting with efforts to make a conference agreement, the convenor may convene another conference.

36 Conference agreement

- (1) A conference agreement is an agreement reached at the conference—
- (a) in which a child admits committing the offence; and
 - (b) in which the child undertakes to address the harm caused by the child committing the offence.
- (2) The conference agreement must be in the approved form and be agreed to and signed by—
- (a) the child; and
 - (b) the convenor; and
 - (c) if a representative of the commissioner of the police service participates in the conference—the representative; and

- (d) if a victim of the offence participates in the conference—the victim.

Note—

If a court makes a presentence referral, the court must, amongst other things, have regard to the child's obligations, and anything done by the child, under the conference agreement in sentencing the child for the offence. See section 165(6).

- (3) The conference agreement may not provide for the child to be treated more severely for the offence than if the child were sentenced by a court or in a way that contravenes the sentencing principles in section 150.
- (4) A copy of the conference agreement must immediately be given to each person who signed the agreement.
- (5) To remove any doubt, it is declared that the conference agreement may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

A conference agreement may require the child to perform voluntary work for a charity that is located outside the State.

37 Amendment of conference agreement by chief executive

- (1) This section applies if the chief executive considers that the conference agreement is or becomes unworkable, including, for example, because compliance with the agreement has become impossible or unsafe.
- (2) The chief executive may, if the child agrees, amend the conference agreement to the extent necessary to make the agreement workable.
- (3) In deciding how to amend the conference agreement, the chief executive must take reasonable steps to find out, and give effect to, the views of each participant who signed the agreement.
- (4) The amended conference agreement replaces the original agreement and takes effect from its amendment by the chief executive.

- (5) After amending the conference agreement, the chief executive must make reasonable efforts to give a copy of the amended agreement to each participant who signed the agreement.

Division 3 Alternative diversion programs

38 Alternative diversion program

- (1) An alternative diversion program is a program, agreed to by the chief executive and the child, that involves the child participating in any of the following to address the child's behaviour—
 - (a) remedial actions;
 - (b) activities intended to strengthen the child's relationship with the child's family and community;
 - (c) educational programs.
- (2) The program must be designed to—
 - (a) help the child to understand the harm caused by his or her behaviour; and
 - (b) allow the child an opportunity to take responsibility for the offence committed by the child.
- (3) The program may not provide for the child to be treated more severely for the offence than if the child were sentenced by a court or in a way that contravenes the sentencing principles in section 150.
- (4) The program must be in writing and be signed by the child.
- (5) The chief executive must give the referring authority a copy of the alternative diversion program.

Division 4 General

39 Convenors

- (1) A convenor is responsible for convening a conference.
- (2) The chief executive may approve appropriately qualified persons as convenors.
- (3) A convenor has all the powers—
 - (a) necessary to perform the responsibilities of a convenor; or
 - (b) conferred on the convenor under this Act or another Act.

40 Admissibility of particular evidence

- (1) An admission about committing the relevant offence, made by the child while participating in a restorative justice process, is inadmissible in any proceeding.
- (2) Subsection (1) extends to—
 - (a) any written material or other correspondence made for the purpose of the restorative justice process; or
Example—
a written apology given as a requirement of a conference agreement
 - (b) actions of the child, done for the purpose of the restorative justice process, that make evident that the child committed the relevant offence.
- (3) However, evidence that would otherwise be inadmissible in a proceeding because of subsection (1) is admissible—
 - (a) if the child agrees to the admission of the evidence; or
 - (b) in a proceeding under part 7, division 2.
- (4) In this section—
relevant offence, in relation to a restorative justice process, means the offence to which the process relates.

41 Notice of successful completion of restorative justice agreement

If a child discharges his or her obligations under a restorative justice agreement made as a consequence of a restorative justice process, the chief executive must notify the referring authority for the process accordingly.

Part 4 Proceedings generally started by complaint and summons

42 Preferred way of starting proceedings

- (1) A proceeding against a child for an offence, other than a serious offence, must be started by way of complaint and summons.
- (2) This section does not apply to a police officer.

Note—

The requirement for a police officer to start a proceeding by complaint and summons or notice to appear is dealt with by section 12.

- (3) This section does not affect—
 - (a) the charging of a child under the Justices Act 1886, section 42(1A); or
 - (b) the arrest of a child for escaping from lawful custody or who is unlawfully at large; or
 - (c) a proceeding against a child on an indictment.

43 Service of complaint and summons if offender a child

- (1) A complaint and summons requiring a child to appear before a court to answer a complaint of an offence must be served on the child a reasonable time before the child is required to appear before the court.
- (2) The complaint is also to be served on—

- (a) a parent of the child, unless a parent can not be found after reasonable inquiry; and
 - (b) the chief executive.
- (3) A person serving a complaint and summons on a child must do so—
- (a) as discreetly as practicable; and
 - (b) not at or in the vicinity of the child’s place of employment or school, unless there is no other place where service may be reasonably effected.
- (4) Subject to the Police Powers and Responsibilities Act 2000, sections 382(3) and 388, this section does not apply to a notice to appear.
- (5) In this section—
- parent*, of a child, includes someone who is apparently a parent of the child.

44 Proof of service of complaint and summons in compliance with this Act

- (1) A statement in a deposition made for the purposes of the Justices Act 1886, section 56(3)(b) that the complaint and summons was served as required by this Act is evidence of that fact.
- (2) The Justices Act 1886, section 56(5) applies to the deposition.

45 No costs against child for lodgement of complaint and summons

In a proceeding started against a child by complaint and summons, a court must not order the child to pay the cost of lodging the complaint and summons with the clerk of the court.

46 Proceeding in relation to simple offence in absence of child

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), a Childrens Court magistrate may hear and determine a proceeding against a child in relation to a complaint and summons for a simple offence in the absence of the child in the way set out in the Justices Act 1886, part 6.
- (2) Under subsection (1), the only sentence order a Childrens Court magistrate may make against a child in the child's absence is an order imposing a fine, and then only if the child has indicated in writing to the court that the child has a capacity to pay a fine of a specified amount that is equal to or greater than the fine ordered to be paid.

Part 5 Bail and custody of children

47 Bail Act 1980 applies

- (1) Subject to this Act, the Bail Act 1980 applies in relation to a child charged with an offence.

Note—

Particular provisions of the Bail Act 1980 do not apply in relation to children. See, for example, sections 7, 11, 16 and 16A of that Act.

- (2) A review of a sentence order under part 6, division 9 is an appeal for the purposes of the Bail Act 1980.

48 Releasing children in custody in connection with a charge of an offence

- (1) This section applies if a court or police officer is deciding whether to release a child in custody in connection with a charge of an offence or keep the child in custody.
- (2) The court or police officer must decide to release the child unless required under this Act or another Act to keep the child in custody or exercising a discretion under this or another Act to keep the child in custody.

Notes—

- 1 See, for example, sections 48AAA(2), 48AE, 48AF and 48A for when a child must not be released from custody.
- 2 See also the Bail Act 1980, section 13 for when only particular courts may grant a person bail.

48AAA Releasing children in custody—risk assessment

- (1) This section applies if a court or police officer is deciding whether to release a child in custody in connection with a charge of an offence or keep the child in custody.
- (2) The court or police officer must decide to keep the child in custody if satisfied—
 - (a) if the child is released, there is an unacceptable risk that the child will commit an offence that endangers the safety of the community or the safety or welfare of a person; and
 - (b) it is not practicable to adequately mitigate that risk by imposing particular conditions of release on bail.
- (3) Also, the court or police officer may decide to keep the child in custody if satisfied that, if the child is released, there is an unacceptable risk that—
 - (a) the child will not surrender into custody in accordance with a condition imposed on the release or a grant of bail to the child; or
 - (b) the child will commit an offence, other than an offence mentioned in subsection (2)(a); or
 - (c) the child will interfere with a witness or otherwise obstruct the course of justice, whether for the child or another person.
- (4) Subsection (5) applies if—
 - (a) the child is before a court; and
 - (b) the court has information indicating there may be an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in subsection (2) or (3), but does not have enough information to properly consider the matter.

- (5) The court may remand the child in custody while further information about the matter is obtained.

48AA Matters to be considered in making particular decisions about release and bail

- (1) This section applies if a court or police officer is making any of the following decisions in relation to a child in custody in connection with a charge of an offence (the alleged offence)—
- (a) whether there is an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in section 48AAA(2);
 - (b) whether there is an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in section 48AAA(3);
 - (c) whether to release the child despite being satisfied there is an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in section 48AAA(3);
 - (d) whether to release the child without bail or grant bail to the child;
 - (e) whether the child has shown cause under section 48AF(2) why the child's detention in custody is not justified.
- (2) The court or police officer must have regard to the following matters of which the court or police officer is aware—
- (a) any promotion by the child of terrorism;
 - (b) any association the child has or has had with a terrorist organisation, or with a person who has promoted terrorism, that the court or police officer is satisfied was entered into by the child for the purpose of supporting the organisation or person—
 - (i) in the carrying out of a terrorist act; or
 - (ii) in promoting terrorism.

Note—

See also section 48AB.

- (3) Also, if the decision is being made by a court, the court must have regard to the sentence order or other order likely to be made for the child if found guilty.
- (4) In making a decision mentioned in subsection (1)—
 - (a) the court or police officer may have regard to any of the following matters of which the court or police officer is aware—
 - (i) the nature and seriousness of the alleged offence;
 - (ii) the child’s criminal history and other relevant history, associations, home environment, employment and background;
 - (iii) the history of a previous grant of bail to the child;
 - (iv) the strength of the evidence against the child relating to the alleged offence;
 - (v) the child’s age, maturity level, cognitive ability and developmental needs;
 - (vi) whether a parent of the child, or another person, has indicated a willingness to the court or police officer that the parent or other person will do any of the following things—
 - (A) support the child to comply with the conditions imposed on a grant of bail;
 - (B) notify the chief executive or a police officer of a change in the child’s personal circumstances that may affect the child’s ability to comply with the conditions imposed on a grant of bail;
 - (C) notify the chief executive or a police officer of a breach of the conditions imposed on a grant of bail;
 - (vii) if the child is an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander—a submission made by a representative of the community justice group in the child's community, including, for example, a submission about—

- (A) the child's connection with the child's community, family or kin; or
- (B) cultural considerations; or
- (C) considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates;

 - (vii) for a child with a disability—the disability and the child's need for services and supports in relation to the disability;

- (viii) if the child is an Aboriginal person or Torres Strait Islander—the desirability of maintaining the child’s connection with the child’s community, family and kin;
 - (ix) if the child is under 14 years—the particular desirability of releasing children under 14 years from custody due to their vulnerability and community expectations that children under 14 years are entitled to special care and protection;
 - (x) the likely effect that refusal to release the child would have on—
 - (A) a person with whom the child is in a family relationship and for whom the child is the primary caregiver; or
 - (B) a person with whom the child is in an informal care relationship; or
 - (C) if the child is pregnant—the child of the pregnancy.
- (5) In deciding whether there is an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in section 48AAA(3), the court or police officer may—
- (a) consider whether a condition could, under section 52A, be imposed on a grant of bail to the child; and
 - (b) have regard to the effect on the risk of imposing the condition.
- (6) The court or police officer must not decide there is an unacceptable risk of a matter mentioned in section 48AAA(2) or (3), or to refuse to release a child from custody, solely because 1 or both of the following apply—
- (a) the child has no apparent family support;
 - (b) the child will not have accommodation, or adequate accommodation, on release from custody.
- (7) In this section—

terrorist organisation see the Criminal Code (Cwlth), section 102.1(1).

48AB Promotion of terrorism and references to terrorist acts

Examples of conditions a court may consider necessary to facilitate the operation of a monitoring device required to be worn by a child—

- (2A) For subsection (2)(a), the child may be detained in custody only for the purpose of fitting the monitoring device and for the least time that is justified in the circumstances.
- (3) A court, before it imposes on a grant of bail to a child a monitoring device condition, must order the chief executive to give to the court a report (a suitability assessment report) containing the chief executive's assessment of the child's suitability for a monitoring device condition having regard to the matters mentioned in subsection (1)(f).
- (4) If the court makes an order under subsection (3), the chief executive must give the court the suitability assessment report—

69 Presence of parent required generally

- (1) If a parent of a child is not present when the child appears before a court charged with an offence, the court, after making inquiries of those present as to—
 - (a) the whereabouts of the child's parents; and

 - (i) not aware of the time and place of the proceeding in sufficient time to allow the parent to be present; or
 - (ii) unable to attend for sufficient reason.
- (2) The court may set aside the finding or order if it considers that it is in the interests of justice to do so, for example if it considers that the child's capacity to make an election or other decision relating to the proceeding was adversely affected.

- (3) The matter determined by the finding or order must then be heard and determined afresh.
- (4) The application must be made within 28 days of the finding or order.

72 Explanation of proceeding

- (1) In a proceeding before a court in which a child is charged with an offence, the court must take steps to ensure, as far as practicable, that the child and any parent of the child present has full opportunity to be heard and participate in the proceeding.
- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), the court must ensure that the child and parent understand, as far as practicable—
 - (a) the nature of the alleged offence, including the matters that must be established before the child can be found guilty; and
 - (b) the court's procedures; and

 - (d) causing an explanatory note in English or another language to be supplied to the child and parent.

73 Ordinary practice applies to explanations if child is represented

This part does not—

- (a) prevent an explanation required to be given to a person, or an inquiry required to be made of a person, from being given to or made of a lawyer representing the person; or
- (b) prevent the lawyer from responding to the explanation or inquiry on behalf of the person.

74 Chief executive's right of audience generally

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding before a court in which a child is charged with an offence.
- (2) The chief executive is entitled to be heard by the court on matters mentioned in subsection (3), even though the chief executive is not a party to the proceeding.

- (2) The remand, bail and custody provisions of part 5 apply to the adjournment.

76 One year limitation inapplicable if indictable offence dealt with summarily

- (1) The purpose of this section is to ensure that a child may elect to have an indictable offence dealt with before a Childrens Court magistrate despite delay in prosecution.
- (2) A Childrens Court magistrate may exercise jurisdiction under this part in relation to an indictable offence even though more than 1 year has passed since the offence was committed.

77 Court to refrain from inappropriate summary hearing of indictable offence

- (1) This section applies if a Childrens Court magistrate (the court) has jurisdiction to hear and determine summarily a charge against a child of an indictable offence (subject to the consent of the child).
- (2) The court must refrain from exercising the jurisdiction unless it is satisfied that the charge can be adequately dealt with summarily by the court.
- (3) The court may initially decide to exercise the jurisdiction on submissions made by the parties.
- (4) If at any stage of the proceeding the court decides that the charge can not be adequately dealt with summarily by the court, any further proceeding before the court must be conducted as a committal proceeding.

78 Procedural elections under this Act in relation to an indictable offence replace other elections

The rules set out in this part relating to election by a child of procedure in relation to an indictable offence apply despite any right of election that may be conferred on any person under any other Act or any provision of another Act that requires the indictable offence to be heard and decided summarily.

79 Court to check child's legal representation

If a child appears before a court charged with an indictable offence but is not represented by a lawyer, the court may proceed with a hearing and determination only if it is satisfied that the child—

- (b) has decided not to be represented by a lawyer.

80 Use of adduced evidence after change of procedure

- (1) This section applies if a proceeding before a court (former proceeding) changes into another proceeding (new proceeding) before the court because of—
 - (a) an election or change of an election under this Act; or
 - (b) a decision of a court to refrain from exercising summary jurisdiction in relation to an indictable offence; or
 - (c) a decision of a court to remove the proceeding to its concurrent jurisdiction on discovering a misapprehension affecting the court's treatment of the defendant as a child or adult; or
 - (d) a decision of a court to continue or hear a proceeding in its concurrent jurisdiction under division 11.
- (2) If evidence has been adduced in the course of the former proceeding, the hearing again of the evidence in the new proceeding is at the discretion of the court.

- (3) If the court decides against hearing the evidence again in the new proceeding, the evidence is taken to have been adduced by the party who adduced the evidence in the former proceeding.

Subdivision 4 Circumstances affecting whether offender is treated as adult or child

140 When offender must be treated as an adult

- (1) If 1 year has passed after an offender has become an adult—
 - (a) a proceeding afterwards started against the offender for a child offence must be taken as if the offender were an adult at the time of the commission of the child offence; and
 - (b) if found guilty in the proceeding—the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (2) If—
 - (a) a proceeding has started against an offender for a child offence in the way provided in this Act for a child; but

- (b) the proceeding has not been completed to a finding of guilty or not guilty by the time 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult;
then—
 - (c) the proceeding must be finished in the way provided in this Act for a child; but
 - (d) if found guilty—the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (3) If, after a finding of guilt in a proceeding started against an offender as a child—
- (a) the court has been unable to sentence the offender because the offender has—
 - (i) escaped from detention; or
 - (ii) failed, without reasonable excuse, to appear as required under the conditions of bail; or
 - (iii) failed, without reasonable excuse, to return to the detention centre at the end of a period of leave granted under section 269; and
 - (b) 1 year has passed after the offender has become an adult;
the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (4) An offender must not be treated as an adult under this section if the court is satisfied that there was undue delay on the part of the prosecution in starting or completing the proceeding.

141 When offender may be treated as an adult

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a proceeding has started against an offender for a child offence in the way provided in this Act for a child (the childhood proceeding); and
 - (b) by the time 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult—

- (i) the childhood proceeding has not been completed to a finding of guilty or not guilty; and
 - (ii) the offender, for another offence—
 - (A) is proceeded against as an adult; or
 - (B) has been sentenced as an adult.
- (2) The court hearing the childhood proceeding may decide to continue the proceeding as if the offender were an adult when the child offence was committed.
- (3) For subsection (2), the Childrens Court may continue the proceeding in its concurrent jurisdiction.
- (4) If the offender is found guilty, the offender must be sentenced as an adult.
- (5) This section applies despite section 140(2).

142 Continuing effect on offender of orders made when child

- (1) An order that may be made under this Act against a child (the order) may be made even though the person concerned will have ceased to be a child before the order's effect will have ceased under its terms.
- (2) If a person against whom the order is made ceases to be a child before the order's effect ceases under its terms—
 - (a) the order continues to apply as if the person continued to be a child; and
 - (b) other proceedings and orders arising out of the order that could have been taken or made in relation to the person had the person remained a child must be taken or made as if the person were a child.
- (3) For subsection (2), a reference in this Act to a child subject to an order who commits an offence or contravenes the order is declared to include a reference to the child committing the offence or contravening the order while subject to the order after becoming an adult.
- (4) Subsection (3) does not limit subsection (2).

- (5) If—
- (a) a proceeding or order mentioned in subsection (2)(b) may be taken before, or made by, a court if a person is found guilty of an offence before the court; and
 - (b) the person is found guilty before a Magistrates Court of an adult offence;
- the court has concurrent jurisdiction to hear the proceeding or make the order.
- (6) For subsection (5), any judicial officer constituting the Magistrates Court may constitute the Childrens Court.

143 When order made as child may be dealt with as adult order

- (1) This section applies if—
- (a) a sentence order is made against a person as a child (the childhood sentence order); and
 - (b) a proceeding arising out of the order is taken before a court after the person becomes an adult.
- (2) If the circumstances mentioned in subsection (3) apply, the court may decide to deal with the person as if—
- (a) the childhood sentence order were a corresponding adult order made for the offence; and
 - (b) the offence were committed as an adult.
- (3) The circumstances are—
- (a) the person, for another offence committed as an adult—
 - (i) is being proceeded against; or
 - (ii) has been sentenced; or
 - (b) more than 1 year has passed after the offender becomes an adult.
- (4) The court may declare the childhood sentence order to be a corresponding adult order and make all necessary changes to the childhood sentence order to change it to a corresponding adult order.

- (5) The person is then subject to the corresponding adult order for the proceeding before the court and any further proceedings and orders.
- (6) For the application of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992—
 - (a) section 123 of that Act does not apply to a contravention of the childhood sentence order that happens before the order is declared under this section to be a community based order under that Act; and
 - (b) if the corresponding adult order is a probation order or community service order under that Act, section 12(6) of that Act does not apply to the court for the proceeding before the court.
- (7) For subsection (2), the Childrens Court may continue the proceeding in its concurrent jurisdiction.
- (8) In this section—

corresponding adult order to a childhood sentence order, means a type of sentence to which an adult is liable that is similar to the type of the childhood sentence order, for example—

- (a) a probation order made under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is a corresponding adult order to a probation order made under this Act; and
- (b) a community service order made under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 is a corresponding adult order to a community service order made under this Act.

144 Sentencing offender as adult

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), a court sentencing an offender as an adult under section 140, 141 or 143 has jurisdiction to sentence the offender in any way that an adult may be sentenced.
- (2) The court must have regard to—

- (a) the fact that the offender was a child when the child offence was committed; and
 - (b) the sentence that might have been imposed on the offender if sentenced as a child.
- (3) The court can not order the offender—
- (a) to serve a term of imprisonment longer than the period of detention that the court could have imposed on the offender if sentenced as a child; or
 - (b) to pay an amount by way of fine, restitution or compensation greater than that which the court could have ordered the offender to pay if sentenced as a child.
- (4) Subsection (3) applies even though an adult would otherwise be liable to a heavier penalty which by operation of law could not be reduced.

145 Chief executive (corrective services) to be notified if offender sentenced as adult

- (1) This section applies if, under this division, an order is made by a court sentencing an offender as an adult.
- (2) The chief executive must immediately give the chief executive (corrective services) notice of the order.

- (2) If—
 - (a) a proceeding is started against a detainee for an offence committed within the period of 1 year after the detainee ceased to be a child; and
 - (b) the proceeding is started within 1 year of the commission of the offence;

the detainee may be treated as a child for the purpose of the proceeding.

- (3) A court may treat the detainee as a child if it considers this appropriate, for example because—
 - (a) treatment of the detainee as an adult would disrupt the application of an existing sentence order; or
 - (b) the offence was committed in a detention centre in circumstances suggesting that the detainee should be treated as a child in relation to the offence; or
 - (c) a recommendation made by the chief executive or in a pre-sentence report supports the treatment of the detainee as a child.
- (4) A court may act under this section on application by a party to the proceeding or on its own initiative.

Division 12 Some provisions about admissibility of childhood offences

147 Use of evidence of cautions and restorative justice agreements in deciding issue of criminal responsibility

A court considering an issue of criminal responsibility under the Criminal Code, section 29 in relation to a child may have regard to any previous caution administered to the child or any previous restorative justice agreement made by the child.

148 Evidence of childhood finding of guilt not admissible against adult

- (1) In a proceeding against an adult for an offence, there must not be admitted against the adult evidence that the adult was found guilty as a child of an offence if a conviction was not recorded.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the evidence would otherwise be admissible under the Evidence Act 1977, section 15 and the Criminal Law (Rehabilitation of Offenders) Act 1986, section 5(3)(b).

- (3) This section does not prevent a court that is sentencing an adult from receiving information about any other sentence to which the adult is subject if that is necessary to mitigate the effect of the court's sentence.
- (4) For subsection (1), if a person is found guilty as a child of an offence, the person is not taken to have been found guilty as an adult of the offence merely because of the making of a declaration under section 143(4).

149 Jurisdiction to sentence child exclusive

- (1) A court that sentences a child for an offence must sentence the child under this part.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies despite any other Act or law.

150 Sentencing principles

- (1) In sentencing a child for an offence, a court must have regard to—
 - (a) subject to this Act, the general principles applying to the sentencing of all persons; and
 - (b) the youth justice principles; and
 - (c) the special considerations stated in subsection (2); and
 - (d) the nature and seriousness of the offence; and
 - (e) the child's previous offending history; and
 - (ea) the hardship that any sentence imposed would have on the child, having regard to the child's characteristics,

- including disability, gender identity, parental status, race, religion, sex, sex characteristics and sexuality; and
- (eb) regardless of whether there are exceptional circumstances, the probable effect that any sentence imposed would have on—
 - (i) a person with whom the child is in a family relationship and for whom the child is the primary caregiver; and
 - (ii) a person with whom the child is in an informal care relationship; and
 - (iii) if the child is pregnant—the child of the pregnancy; and
 - (f) the presence of any aggravating or mitigating factor concerning the child; and
 - (g) without limiting paragraph (f), whether the child committed the offence—
 - (i) while released into the custody of a parent, or at large with or without bail, for another offence; or
 - (ii) after being committed for trial, or awaiting trial or sentencing, for another offence; and
 - (ga) also without limiting paragraph (f), the following matters—
 - (i) whether the child is a victim of, or has been exposed to, domestic violence;
 - (ii) whether the commission of the offence is wholly or partly attributable to the effect of domestic violence, or exposure to domestic violence, on the child;
 - (iii) the child’s history of being abused or victimised; and
 - (h) any information about the child, including a pre-sentence report and bail history, provided to assist the court in making a determination; and

- (ha) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—any cultural considerations, including the effect of systemic disadvantage and intergenerational trauma on the child; and
 - (i) if the child is an Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander person—any submissions made by a representative of the community justice group in the child’s community that are relevant to sentencing the child, including, for example—
 - (i) the child’s connection with the child’s community, family or kin; or
 - (ii) any cultural considerations, including the effect of systemic disadvantage and intergenerational trauma on the child; or
 - (iii) any considerations relating to programs and services established for offenders in which the community justice group participates; and
 - (j) any impact of the offence on a victim, including harm mentioned in information relating to the victim given to the court under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 179K; and
 - (k) a sentence imposed on the child that has not been completed; and
 - (l) a sentence that the child is liable to have imposed because of the revocation of any order under this Act for the breach of conditions by the child; and
 - (m) the fitting proportion between the sentence and the offence.
- (2) Special considerations are that—
- (a) a child’s age is a mitigating factor in determining whether or not to impose a penalty, and the nature of a penalty imposed; and
 - (b) a non-custodial order is better than detention in promoting a child’s ability to reintegrate into the community; and

- (c) the rehabilitation of a child found guilty of an offence is greatly assisted by—
 - (i) the child’s family; and
 - (ii) opportunities to engage in educational programs and employment; and
 - (d) a child who has no apparent family support, or opportunities to engage in educational programs and employment, should not receive a more severe sentence because of the lack of support or opportunity; and
 - (e) a detention order should be imposed only as a last resort and for the shortest appropriate period.
- (3) In determining the appropriate sentence for a child convicted of the manslaughter of a child under 12 years, a court must treat the victim’s defencelessness and vulnerability, having regard to the victim’s age, as an aggravating factor.
- (3A) In determining the appropriate sentence for a child who is a victim of, or has been exposed to, domestic violence, the court must treat as a mitigating factor—
- (a) the effect of the domestic violence or exposure to domestic violence on the child; and
 - (b) if the commission of the offence is wholly or partly attributable to the effect of the domestic violence, or exposure to domestic violence, on the child—the extent to which the commission of the offence is attributable to the effect of the violence or exposure.
- (3B) In determining the appropriate sentence for a child convicted of a relevant serious offence committed in relation to a pregnant person that resulted in destroying the life of the person’s unborn child, the court must treat the destruction of the unborn child’s life as an aggravating factor, unless the court considers it is not reasonable because of the exceptional circumstances of the case.
- (4) If required by the court for subsection (1)(i), the representative must advise the court whether—

- (a) any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission is related to the offender or the victim; or
 - (b) there are any circumstances that give rise to a conflict of interest between any member of the community justice group that is responsible for the submission and the child or victim.
- (4A) In sentencing a child for an offence, a court may receive any information, or a sentencing submission made by a party to the proceedings, it considers appropriate to enable it to impose the proper sentence or make a proper order in connection with the sentence.

- (6) In this section—

 - (iii) any other matter the court considers relevant; and
 - (d) the court is satisfied that there is a high probability that the child would commit a further prescribed indictable offence.
- (3) If the court makes a declaration that the child is a serious repeat offender, the court in sentencing the child must have primary regard to—
 - (a) the need to protect members of the community; and
 - (b) the nature and extent of violence, if any, used in the commission of the offence; and
 - (c) the extent of any disregard by the child in the commission of the offence for the interests of public safety; and
 - (d) the impact of the offence on public safety; and
 - (e) the child's previous offending history and bail history.

- (2) Before making the order, the court must consider whether a pre-sentence report is the most efficient and effective way to obtain information relevant to the sentencing of the child.
- (3) However, subsection (2) does not apply if the court considers it may be required, under section 203 or 207, to make the order.

- (7) The pre-sentence report may not contain the chief executive's opinion on what impact an order under section 234 may have on the child.
- (8) Pending the giving of a pre-sentence report, the court may adjourn the proceeding and remand the child in custody or exercise the powers conferred by part 5 to grant bail to and release the child from custody.
- (9) In releasing the child from custody, the court may impose conditions that it considers necessary to facilitate the preparation of the pre-sentence report, other than a condition that the child must wear a monitoring device while on release.
- (10) If an order is made under subsection (1), the chief executive must—
 - (a) give the court a written pre-sentence report in relation to the child; or
 - (b) give the court further written material to be considered with another pre-sentence report given to the court for another sentencing of the child.
- (11) However, subsection (10)(b) applies only if the other sentencing of the child happens or happened not more than 6 months before the sentencing to which the order relates.
- (12) The pre-sentence report or further material must be given to the court—
 - (a) within the period stated by the court under subsection (6); or

- (2) Subject to subsection (3), the number of hours of unperformed unpaid service and the number of hours of graffiti removal service ordered for the graffiti offence, or offences, mentioned in subsection (1)(a) must not, when added together, total more than the maximum number of hours of community service, appropriate to the child, allowed by section 175(1)(e) for 1 offence.
- (3) If the number of hours of unperformed unpaid service equals the maximum number of hours of community service, appropriate to the child, allowed by section 175(1)(e) for 1 offence, then the graffiti removal service ordered to be served for the graffiti offence, or offences, mentioned in subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) must be performed concurrently with any unperformed graffiti removal service to the extent that the number of hours of graffiti removal service ordered to be served for the graffiti offence, or offences, mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is, when added to the number of hours of unperformed graffiti removal service, more than the maximum number of hours of graffiti removal service, appropriate to the child, allowed by section 176A(3) for 1 graffiti offence; or
 - (b) to the extent that paragraph (a) does not apply—must, when it is performed by the child, be taken to be both—
 - (i) community service performed under 1 or more of the existing community service orders; and
 - (ii) graffiti removal service performed under the graffiti removal order made by the court for the offence.
- (4) For subsection (3)(b), the chief executive must—
 - (a) subject to any order of the court, identify the existing community service order, or orders, in relation to which the graffiti removal service is taken to have been performed; and
 - (b) notify the child in writing of the matter mentioned in paragraph (a).

194J Unpaid service to be performed cumulatively

All unpaid service to which the following sections apply is to be performed cumulatively unless the court orders otherwise—

- (a) section 194F, subject to subsection (2) of that section;
- (b) section 194G, subject to subsection (2) of that section;
- (c) section 194H, subject to subsections (2) and (3) of that section;
- (d) section 194I, subject to subsections (2) and (3) of that section.

 - (b) a community service order under this Act;
 - (c) a graffiti removal order under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992;
 - (d) a community service order under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992.
- (2) To the extent that the total number of hours of service to which the person is subject under all of the orders is more than the maximum number of hours of unpaid service applicable to the person under this division or division 8 or under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, part 5 or 5A, the order or orders made by the court is or are of no effect.
- (3) The hours of service in each order to which the person is subject are cumulative on the hours in each other order to which the person is subject, unless the court that makes the order directs otherwise.

194L Ending of graffiti removal order

A graffiti removal order made against a child remains in effect until—

- (a) the child has performed graffiti removal service in accordance with the requirements specified under section 194B(1)(b) and (c) for the number of hours specified in the order; or
- (b) the order is discharged under section 245 or 247; or
- (c) the expiry of the period within which the graffiti removal service is required to be performed under section 194D;

whichever first happens.

Division 8 Community service orders

195 Preconditions to making of community service order

A court may make a community service order against a child only if—

- (a) the child indicates willingness to comply with the order; and
- (b) the court is satisfied that the child is a suitable person to perform community service; and
- (c) the court is satisfied on consideration of a report by the chief executive that community service of a suitable nature can be provided for the child.

196 Requirements to be set out in community service order

- (1) A community service order must contain requirements—
 - (a) that the child report in person to the chief executive within 1 business day after the order is made or any longer period that is specified in the order; and

- (b) that the child perform in a satisfactory way for the number of hours specified in the order the community service that the chief executive directs the child to perform; and
 - (c) that the child, while performing community service, comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and
 - (d) that the child or a parent of the child inform the chief executive of every change in the child's place of residence within 2 business days of the change; and
 - (e) that the child abstain from violation of the law during the period of the order; and
 - (f) that the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland during the period of the order without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (2) An order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to perform a community service at a place outside the State.

- (3) If the order is for less than 50 hours of community service, the order may contain a requirement that the child must perform the community service within a period starting on the date of the order that is less than 1 year.

Note—

If a requirement is not imposed under this subsection, the period of 1 year mentioned in section 198(a)(i) will apply.

- (4) Before imposing a requirement under subsection (3), a court must consider what is a reasonable period for the child to perform the community service in all the circumstances of the case.

197 Obligation of chief executive

The chief executive, in giving directions to a child in relation to the child's performance of community service, is—

- (a) to avoid, if practicable, conflicts with the religious and cultural beliefs and practices of the child or the child's parent; and
- (b) to avoid, if practicable, interference with the child's attendance at a place of employment or a school or other educational or training establishment; and
- (c) to take all steps necessary to ensure that the child, if practicable, is kept apart from any adult under sentence for an offence.

198 Community service to be performed within limited period

A child against whom a community service order is made must perform the number of hours of community service specified in the order—

- (a) within—
 - (i) for a community service order of less than 50 hours—the period of 1 year starting on the date of the order or, if the order states a lesser period, the lesser period; or
 - (ii) otherwise—the period of 1 year starting on the date of the order; or
- (b) within any extended period that a court may order under section 245(1)(b)(ii) or 247; or
- (c) any extended period allowed by order of the proper officer of the court under section 252.

199 Multiple or successive community service orders

A court—

- (a) may make 2 or more community service orders against a child in respect of 2 or more offences; and
- (b) may make a community service order against a child who is already subject to an existing community service order.

200 Limitation on number of hours of community service

- (1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), the community service hours specified in a community service order must not be less than 20.
- (2) If—
 - (a) a court makes 2 or more community service orders against a child found guilty of 2 or more offences; and
 - (b) the child is not subject to an existing community service order;the total of the community service hours specified in the orders must not be less than 20 or more than the maximum appropriate to the child allowed by section 175(1)(e) for 1 offence.
- (3) If—
 - (a) a court makes 1 or more community service orders against a child; and
 - (b) the child is subject to 1 or more existing community service orders;the total of the community service hours specified in all the orders, less the number of hours for which the child has performed community service under the existing order or orders, must not be less than 20 or more than the maximum appropriate to the child allowed by section 175(1)(e) for 1 offence.
- (4) To the extent that the total exceeds the maximum allowed, the order or orders made by the court is or are of no effect.
- (5) The community service hours in each community service order made against a child are cumulative on the hours in each other community service order made against the child, unless the court that makes a community service order directs otherwise.

201 Cumulative effect of child and adult community service orders

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) a court makes a community service order against a person; and
 - (b) the person is already subject to 1 or more existing community service orders; and
 - (c) on the making of the order, the person will be subject to an adult community service order and a child community service order.
- (2) The order mentioned in subsection (1)(a) is of no effect to the extent that the total number of hours of community service under all the community service orders to which the person will be subject, less the number of hours for which the person has performed community service under the existing order or orders, is more than the maximum number of hours of community service an adult may be ordered to perform.

- (3) In this section—

adult community service order means a community service order made against a person under the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992 for an offence committed by the person as an adult.

child community service order means a community service order made against a person under this Act for an offence committed by the person as a child.

community service order means an adult community service order or child community service order.

section 196(1)(b) and (c) for the number of hours specified in the order; or

- (b) the order is discharged under section 245 or 247; or
- (c) the expiry of the period within which the community service is required to be performed under section 198;

whichever first happens.

Division 9 Intensive supervision order

203 Preconditions to making of intensive supervision order

- (1) A court may make an intensive supervision order for a child only if—
 - (a) the child expresses willingness to comply with the order; and
 - (b) the court has ordered a pre-sentence report and considered the report; and
 - (c) the court considers the child, unless subject to an intensive period of supervision and support in the community, is likely to commit further offences having regard to the following—
 - (i) the number of offences committed by the child, including the child's criminal history;
 - (ii) the circumstances of the offences;
 - (iii) the circumstances of the child;
 - (iv) whether other sentence orders have not or are unlikely to stop the child from committing further offences.
- (2) The pre-sentence report mentioned in subsection (1)(b) must include comments—
 - (a) outlining the potential suitability of the child for an intensive supervision order; and

- (b) advising whether an appropriate intensive supervision program is available for the child.

204 Intensive supervision order—requirements

- (1) An intensive supervision order must require—
 - (a) that the child participate as directed by the chief executive in a program (the intensive supervision program) for the period decided under section 175(1)(f) (the program period); and
 - (b) that, during the period of the order—
 - (i) the child abstain from violation of the law; and
 - (ii) the child comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and

 - (iv) the child or a parent of the child notify the chief executive within 2 business days of any change of address or school; and
 - (v) the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (2) An intensive supervision order made for the child may contain requirements that the child comply, during the whole or a part of the period of the order, with conditions that the court considers necessary for preventing a repetition by the child of the offence for which the order was made or the commission by the child of other offences.

Example of a condition—

a condition imposing a curfew on the child

- (3) An order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

- (4) A requirement imposed by a court under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must relate to the offence for which the order was made; and
 - (b) must be supported by the court's written reasons; and
 - (c) must not require the child to wear a monitoring device.

205 Program period

- (1) The program period of a child's intensive supervision program starts when the intensive supervision order is made and ends at the later of the following times—
 - (a) the end of the last day of the period of the intensive supervision order;
 - (b) if the intensive supervision program was suspended for part or all of any days (the suspended days)—the end of the last day that is the last day of the period of the order and, additionally, the number of suspended days.
- (2) If, at the time a court makes an intensive supervision order for a child—
 - (a) another intensive supervision order has already been made against the child; and
 - (b) the intensive supervision program under the other order has not ended; the period when the child is subject to both intensive supervision programs is counted concurrently.

206 Suspension of intensive supervision program

- (1) If, during the program period, a child for good reason is unable to participate in the intensive supervision program, the chief executive may, by written notice given to the child, suspend the intensive supervision program for a specified period.
- (2) The period for which the intensive supervision program is suspended is not to be counted as part of the program period.

Division 10 Detention order

Subdivision 1 Initial order

207 Pre-sentence report must be obtained before detention order sentence

A court may make a detention order against a child only if it has first—

- (a) ordered the chief executive to prepare a pre-sentence report; and
- (b) received and considered the report.

208 Detention must be only appropriate sentence

A court may make a detention order against a child only if the court, after—

- (a) considering all other available sentences; and
- (b) taking into account the desirability of not holding a child in detention;

is satisfied that no other sentence is appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

209 Court's reasons for detention order to be stated and recorded

- (1) A court that makes a detention order against a child must—
 - (a) state its reasons in court; and
 - (b) cause the reasons to be reduced to writing and kept by the proper officer of the court with the documents relating to the proceeding.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3), a court's failure to comply with subsection (1) does not affect the sentence order.

- (3) A court considering the sentence order on appeal or review must take into account a failure to comply with subsection (1)(a) and give the failure the weight it considers appropriate.

210 Detention to be served in detention centre

- (1) Subject to this Act, a child who is sentenced to serve a period of detention must serve the period of detention in a detention centre.
- (2) If a court makes a detention order against a child and the child is not already in the custody of the chief executive, the commissioner of the police service must—
 - (a) take immediate custody of the child; and
 - (b) deliver the child into the custody of the chief executive as soon as reasonably practicable after the date the chief executive notifies to the commissioner under subsection (3).
- (3) The chief executive must—
 - (a) notify the commissioner of the police service of the date from which delivery of the child into the chief executive's custody will be accepted; and
 - (b) fulfil the duty under paragraph (a) as soon as reasonably practicable in all the circumstances, including, for example, the number of children held by the commissioner and the capacity of detention centres.
- (4) In deciding the date, the chief executive must have regard to the information available to the chief executive about the following matters—
 - (a) the child's needs, having regard to—
 - (i) the child's age and sex; and
 - (ii) the child's cultural background; and
 - (iii) the child's historic and current self-harm risk and suicide risk; and

- (iv) the child's medical conditions, if any; and
 - (v) the child's physical health and mental health issues, if any; and
 - (vi) the child's substance misuse and withdrawal issues, if any; and
 - (vii) the child's cognitive capacity; and
 - (viii) the location and date of the child's next court appearance; and
 - (ix) any other issue the chief executive considers may affect the child's health or wellbeing in a watch-house environment; and
 - (x) any other issue the chief executive considers may affect the child's health or wellbeing while the child is being transported between a watch-house and a detention centre;
- (b) if 1 or more other children are being held by the commissioner of the police service—the relative needs of the child and the other children having regard to the matters mentioned in paragraph (a);
- (c) the effect the delivery of the child is likely to have on—
- (i) the chief executive's ability to comply with section 263; and
 - (ii) the chief executive's ability to fulfil the chief executive's duties as an employer; and
 - (iii) the commissioner of the police service's ability to fulfil the commissioner's duties as an employer; and
 - (iv) the commissioner of the police service's ability to fulfil the commissioner's responsibility for—
 - (A) the security and management of watch-houses; and
 - (B) the safety and wellbeing of people detained in watch-houses.

- (5) A failure of the chief executive to provide procedural fairness to the child in deciding the date under subsection (4) does not affect the validity of the decision.
- (6) Subsection (2) does not apply if the court makes a conditional release order under section 220.
- (7) For the purposes of the Human Rights Act 2019, section 43(1), it is declared that this section has effect—
 - (a) despite being incompatible with human rights; and
 - (b) despite anything else in the Human Rights Act 2019.
- (8) This subsection and subsections (7) and (9) expire on 31 December 2026.
- (9) A regulation may postpone the expiry of this subsection and subsections (7) and (8) but can not postpone the expiry for more than 1 year after 31 December 2026.

211 Commencement of detention period

- (1) A period of detention under a detention order takes effect from the day the court makes the detention order.
- (2) Subsection (1) has effect subject to section 213, section 218 and subsection (3).
- (3) If a child is required to serve a period of detention or the unserved part of a period of detention as a result of an appeal against, or a review of, a sentence order, the period or unserved part takes effect from the start of the child's custody on sentence for the offence in question after the appeal or review.

212 Detention orders ordinarily concurrent

If, at the time a court makes a detention order against a child for an offence, the child—

- (a) is serving; or
- (b) has been sentenced to serve;

a period of detention for another offence, the period of detention under the court's detention order must be served concurrently with the other period of detention, unless other provision is made under section 213 or another Act.

213 Court may order detention period to be cumulative

(1) If, at the time a court makes a detention order against a child for an offence, the child—

- (a) is serving; or
- (b) has been sentenced to serve;

a period of detention for another offence, the court may order the period of detention under the court's detention order to take effect from the end of the other period of detention.

(2) Subsection (1) applies even if the other period of detention has to be served concurrently or cumulatively with a period of detention for an offence other than the one for which the court makes the detention order.

214 Limitation on cumulative orders

(1) A court making more than 1 detention order under section 175 against a child on the same day or in the same proceedings is not to direct that a detention order be served cumulatively with another of the detention orders if the total period of the detention orders would exceed—

- (a) when made by a Children's Court magistrate—1 year; or
- (b) when made by another court—7 years.

(2) To the extent that the total exceeds the maximum allowed the orders are of no effect.

215 Period of escape, mistaken release or release pending appeal or review not counted as detention

If a child serving a period of detention under a detention order—

- (a) is released from custody under part 5 pending an appeal against, or a review of, the detention order; or
 - (b) is unlawfully at large;
- the period for which the child is absent from custody pending the appeal or review, or is unlawfully at large, as the case may be, must not be counted as part of the period of detention.

216 Application for variation of detention order in interests of justice

- (1) This section applies to a child who—
 - (a) is unlawfully at large while subject to a detention order for an offence (the original order and offence); and
 - (b) is held in custody in another State for another offence committed in the other State or on a charge of an offence allegedly committed in the other State (the interstate custody).
- (2) An application may be made at any time to the court that made the original order to change the original order in the interests of justice.
- (3) The application may be made by the child or the chief executive, acting in the interests of the child.
- (4) If the application is not made by the chief executive, notice of the application must be given to the chief executive.
- (5) On the application the court may—
 - (a) take no action; or
 - (b) order all or part of the period of interstate custody to be a period of detention taken to have been served under the original order.
- (6) An order under subsection (5)(b) has effect even if the period of interstate custody is required to be served, concurrently or cumulatively, with a period of custody imposed because of an offence, other than the original offence, committed in Queensland or elsewhere.

217 Multiple orders of detention and imprisonment against person as adult and child

Sections 212 and 213 extend to a case where—

- (a) at the time a court makes a detention order against a person as a child, the person is serving or has been sentenced to serve a term of imprisonment as an adult; or
- (b) at the time a court makes an order sentencing a person to a term of imprisonment as an adult, the person is serving or has been sentenced to serve a period of detention as a child;

as if a reference in the sections to a period of detention included a reference to the term of imprisonment mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b).

218 Period of custody on remand to be treated as detention on sentence

- (1) If a child is sentenced to a period of detention for an offence, any period of time for which the child was held in custody pending the proceeding for the offence must be counted as part of the period of detention that is served in a detention centre or corrective services facility.

Note—

In determining, under section 227, when to release the child from detention under a supervised release order under section 228, the chief executive counts the period of time for which the child was held in custody pending the proceeding for the offence.

- (2) A period of time for which a child is also held in custody on sentence for another offence is not to be counted for the purposes of subsection (1).
- (3) Any period of custody of less than 1 day is not to be counted under subsection (1).

Subdivision 2 Conditional release order

219 Purpose of conditional release order

The purpose of this subdivision is to provide for an option instead of the detention of a child by allowing a court to immediately release the child into a structured program with strict conditions.

220 Conditional release order

- (1) A court that makes a detention order against a child may immediately suspend the order and make an order (conditional release order) that the child be immediately released from detention.
- (2) The child must be released from detention in accordance with the conditional release order.

221 Conditional release order—requirements

- (1) A conditional release order must require—
 - (a) that the child participate as directed by the chief executive in a program (the conditional release program) for the period, of not more than 6 months, stated in the order (the program period); and
 - (b) that, during the period of the order—
 - (i) the child abstain from violation of the law; and
 - (ii) the child comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and
 - (iii) the child report and receive visits as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (iv) the child or a parent of the child notify the chief executive within 2 business days of any change of address, employment or school; and

- (v) the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (2) A conditional release order made in relation to a child may contain requirements that the child comply, during the whole or a part of the period of the order, with conditions that the court considers necessary for preventing a repetition by the child of the offence for which the detention order was made or the commission by the child of other offences.

Example of a condition—

a condition imposing a curfew on the child

- (3) An order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

- (4) A requirement imposed by a court under subsection (2)—
 - (a) must relate to the offence for which the detention order was made; and
 - (b) must be supported by the court's written reasons; and
 - (c) must not require the child to wear a monitoring device.

222 Child must be willing to comply

A court may make a conditional release order in relation to a child only if the child expresses willingness to comply with the order.

223 Pre-sentence report must include particular comments

The pre-sentence report considered by a court before making the relevant detention order must include comments—

- (a) outlining the potential suitability of the child for release from detention under a conditional release order; and

- (b) advising whether an appropriate conditional release program is available on the child's release under the order.

224 Effect of program period ending

Subject to division 12, at the end of the program period the child is no longer liable to serve a period of detention under the detention order.

225 Program period

- (1) The program period of a child's conditional release program starts when the conditional release order is made and ends at the later of the following times—
 - (a) the end of the last day of the period of the conditional release order;
 - (b) if the conditional release program was suspended for part or all of any days (the suspended days)—the end of the day that is the last day of the period of the order and, additionally, the number of suspended days.
- (2) If, at the time a court makes a conditional release order for a child—
 - (a) another conditional release order has already been made for the child; and
 - (b) the conditional release program under the other order has not ended;

the period when the child is subject to both conditional release programs is counted concurrently.

226 Suspension of program

- (1) If, during the program period, a child for good reason is unable to participate in the program mentioned in section 221(1)(a), the chief executive may, by written notice given to the child, suspend the program for a stated period.

- (2) The period for which the program is suspended is not to be counted as part of the program period.

Subdivision 3 Release after fixed period of detention

226A When a child has promoted terrorism

- (1) For this subdivision, a child has promoted terrorism if the child—
 - (a) carried out an activity to support the carrying out of a terrorist act; or
 - (b) made a statement in support of the carrying out of a terrorist act; or
 - (c) carried out an activity, or made a statement, to advocate the carrying out of a terrorist act or support for the carrying out of a terrorist act.
- (2) To remove any doubt, it is declared that a reference in subsection (1) to a terrorist act—
 - (a) includes a terrorist act that has not happened; and
 - (b) is not limited to a specific terrorist act.

227 Release of child after service of period of detention

- (1) Unless a court makes an order under subsection (2), a child sentenced to serve a period of detention must be released from detention after serving 70% of the period of detention.
- (2) A court may order a child to be released from detention after serving 50% or more, and less than 70%, of a period of detention if it considers that there are special circumstances, for example to ensure parity of sentence with that imposed on a person involved in the same or related offence.
- (3) However, a court may not make an order under subsection (2) if—

- (a) the child has, at any time, been found guilty of a terrorism offence; or
 - (b) the child is the subject of a Commonwealth control order; or
 - (c) the court is satisfied the child has promoted terrorism.
- (4) If the child is entitled under section 218 to have a period of custody pending the proceeding (the custody period) treated as detention on sentence, the period before the child is released under this section must be reduced by the custody period.

Example—

C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 2 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive must make a supervised release order releasing the child 5 weeks after sentence, which is 70% of 10 weeks with a further reduction of 2 weeks.

228 Chief executive's supervised release order

- (1) At the end of the period after which a child is required to be released under section 227, the chief executive must make an order (a supervised release order) releasing the child from detention.
- (2) However, the chief executive is not required to make a supervised release order if the custody period mentioned in section 227(4) is equal to or more than the period of detention the child was sentenced to serve.

Examples—

- 1 C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 10 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive is not required to make a supervised release order.
 - 2 C is sentenced to 10 weeks detention. C spent 8 weeks on remand before sentence. The chief executive must make a supervised release order for the remaining 2 weeks.
- (3) The chief executive may—
- (a) impose conditions that the chief executive considers appropriate on the supervised release order; and

- (b) amend a condition of the supervised release order at any time by written notice served on the child.
- (4) The supervised release order must require that, during the period of the order—
- (a) the child abstain from violation of the law; and
 - (b) the child satisfactorily attend programs as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (c) the child comply with every reasonable direction of the chief executive; and
 - (d) the child report and receive visits as directed by the chief executive; and
 - (e) the child or a parent of the child notify the chief executive within 2 business days of any change of address, employment or school; and
 - (f) the child not leave, or stay out of, Queensland without the prior approval of the chief executive.
- (5) A supervised release order may contain a requirement that the child must comply with outside the State.

Example—

An order may require the child to attend a particular educational establishment that is located outside the State.

- (6) A supervised release order must not require, or be subject to a condition, that the child must wear a monitoring device.

228A Supervised release orders for children with links to terrorism

- (1) This section applies in relation to a supervised release order for a child if—
- (a) the child has, at any time, been found guilty of a terrorism offence; or
 - (b) the child is the subject of a Commonwealth control order; or

- (c) the chief executive is satisfied the child has promoted terrorism.
- (2) The chief executive must impose any conditions on the supervised release order the chief executive considers are reasonably necessary and appropriate to reduce the risk of the child—
- (a) carrying out a terrorist act; or
- (b) promoting terrorism.

229 Child may be released from detention while absent from place of detention

To remove any doubt, it is declared that a child who is serving a period of detention at a place may be released from detention under this subdivision whether or not the child is at the place at the time of release.

Example—

A child is serving a period of detention at a detention centre. The chief executive grants the child leave of absence under section 269. While the child is on the leave of absence, the chief executive may make a supervised release order releasing the child from detention.

230 Release period counts as part of detention period

A period of time for which a child is released from detention under a supervised release order must be counted as part of the period that the child spent in detention for the purpose of calculating the end of the child's period of detention.

- (c) the impact of publication on the child's rehabilitation;
and
 - (d) any other relevant matter.
- (3) The order does not authorise publication of identifying information before the end of any appeal period or, if the child gives notice of appeal or of application for leave to appeal, before any appeal proceeding has ended.
