Part 3 Limit on publicity

6 Publication at large of complainant's identity prohibited

- (1) Any report made or published concerning an examination of witnesses or a trial, other than a report specified in section 8(1), shall not reveal the name, address, school or place of employment of a complainant therein or any other particular likely to lead to the identification of a complainant therein unless the court, for good and sufficient reason shown, orders to the contrary.
- (2) If the court makes an order to the contrary it may therein specify—
 - (a) the particulars that may be revealed; and
 - (b) the extent to which publication of the report made is permitted.
- (3) A person must not make or publish a report that contravenes subsection (1).

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for an individual—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; or
- (b) for a corporation—1,000 penalty units.

Note—

If a corporation commits an offence against this provision, an executive officer of the corporation may be taken, under section 12, to have also committed the offence.

- (4) If the court makes an order under subsection (2) about the making or publishing of a report, a person who makes or publishes a report that contravenes the order commits an offence.

Maximum penalty—

[s 7]

- (a) for an individual—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; or
- (b) for a corporation—1,000 penalty units.

Note—

If a corporation commits an offence against this provision, an executive officer of the corporation may be taken, under section 12, to have also committed the offence.

- (5) The fact that a person is liable to a penalty for an offence under subsection (4) does not prevent the person being dealt with for contempt of court evidenced by the person's offence.

7 Application for non-publication order, and notice of application

- (1) This section applies if a defendant is charged with a prescribed sexual offence.
- (2) An eligible person may apply to a Magistrates Court for an order (a non-publication order) prohibiting the publication, before the defendant is committed for trial or sentence or sentenced on the charge, of identifying matter relating to the defendant.
- (3) The applicant must give 3 business days' notice of their intention to make the application to—
 - (a) the court; and
 - (b) each other eligible person.
- (4) However, the court may hear an application for a non-publication order despite the failure of the applicant to give notice under subsection (3) if the court is satisfied—
 - (a) there is a good reason for notice not having been given under subsection (3); or
 - (b) it is in the interests of justice that the court hear the application without notice having been given under subsection (3).
- (5) Also, if the applicant is the defendant, notice to the complainant—

- (a) must not be given personally by the defendant; and
 - (b) must be given by the prosecution giving a copy of the notice to the complainant or another person nominated to receive correspondence on the complainant's behalf in relation to the matter.
- (6) Notice under subsection (5) may be given by electronic communication.

7A Notifications to accredited media entities

- (1) On receiving a notice under section 7(3), the court must take reasonable steps to ensure that each accredited media entity is notified of the application.
- (2) The notification may be by electronic communication or any other way the court considers appropriate.

7B Grounds for non-publication order

The court may make a non-publication order if satisfied of one or more of the following grounds—

- (a) the order is necessary to prevent prejudice to the proper administration of justice;
- (b) the order is necessary to prevent undue hardship or distress to a complainant or witness in relation to the charge;
- (c) the order is necessary to protect the safety of any person.

7C Procedure for making non-publication order

- (1) Each of the following persons may appear and be heard by the court on an application for a non-publication order—
 - (a) the applicant;
 - (b) an eligible person in relation to the charge to which the application relates;
 - (c) an accredited media entity;

- (d) any other person whom the court considers has sufficient interest in the question of whether the order should be made.
- (2) The court may order that the application be heard in closed court.
- (3) In hearing the application the court—
 - (a) may receive and take into account evidence of any kind that it considers credible or trustworthy in the circumstances; and
 - (b) must consider the following—
 - (i) the primacy of the principle of open justice;
 - (ii) the public interest;
 - (iii) any submissions made or views expressed by or on behalf of the complainant about the application;
 - (iv) any special vulnerabilities of the complainant or the defendant;
 - (v) any cultural considerations relating to the complainant or the defendant;
 - (vi) the potential effect of publication in a rural or remote community;
 - (vii) the potential to prejudice any future court proceedings;
 - (viii) the history and context of any relationship between the complainant and the defendant (including, for example, any domestic violence history);
 - (ix) any other matter the court considers relevant.
- (4) If the court grants the application, the court must state in the order—
 - (a) the grounds on which the order is made; and
 - (b) any identifying matter that is not covered by the order; and

- (c) the extent to which publication of identifying matter is prohibited; and
- (d) that the order ceases to have effect when the defendant is committed for trial or sentence or sentenced on the charge or when the charge is withdrawn, whichever happens first.

7D Interim orders

- (1) If an application is made to the court for a non-publication order, the court may, without determining the merits of the application, make an order (an interim order) prohibiting the publication of identifying matter relating to the defendant.
- (2) An interim order has effect until—
 - (a) it is revoked by the court; or
 - (b) the court finally decides the application.
- (3) If the court makes an interim order, the court must hear and decide the application as a matter of urgency and, where practicable, within 72 hours after making the interim order.

7E Review of non-publication order

- (1) The court may review a non-publication order made by the court—
 - (a) on the court's own motion; or
 - (b) on the application of a person mentioned in section 7C(1)(a) to (d).
- (2) Each of the persons mentioned in section 7C(1)(a) to (d) is entitled to appear and be heard by the court on the review.
- (3) On a review the court may confirm, vary or revoke the order.

7F Contravention of interim order or non-publication order

- (1) A person must not contravene an interim order or a non-publication order.

[s 8]

Maximum penalty—

- (a) for an individual—100 penalty units or 2 years imprisonment; or
- (b) for a corporation—1,000 penalty units.

Note—

If a corporation commits an offence against this provision, an executive officer of the corporation may be taken, under section 12, to have also committed the offence.

- (2) However, a person does not commit an offence against subsection (1) merely because of a statement or representation made or published by the person—
 - (a) in a report specified in section 8(1); or
 - (b) for an authorised purpose mentioned in section 11.

8 Exempted reports

- (1) Sections 6 and 7F(1) do not apply to—
