Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990

An Act to apply certain provisions of laws of the Commonwealth relating to corporations, the securities industries and the futures industry as laws of Queensland and for other purposes

Part 1 Preliminary

1 Short title and purposes

- (1) This Act may be cited as the Corporations (Queensland) Act 1990.
- (2) The purposes of this Act are—
 - (a) to apply certain provisions of the Corporations Act 1989 (Cwlth) and the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 1989 (Cwlth) and of regulations under those Acts as laws of Queensland; and
 - (b) to apply certain other laws of the Commonwealth as laws of Queensland for the purpose of the administration and enforcement of the law relating to corporations, the securities industry, the futures industry and some other matters.

3 Definitions

- (1) In this Act—

applicable provision, in relation to a jurisdiction, means a provision of—

 - (a) the Corporations Law, or Corporations Regulations, of that jurisdiction; or

- (b) the ASIC Law, or ASIC Regulations, of that jurisdiction; or
- (c) in the case of the Capital Territory—a Commonwealth law as applying, of its own force or because of another Commonwealth law, in relation to—
 - (i) an offence against; or
 - (ii) an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of;
a provision that, because of any other application or applications of this definition, is an applicable provision of the Capital Territory or any other jurisdiction; or
- (d) in the case of a jurisdiction other than the Capital Territory—a Commonwealth law as applying, because of a law of that jurisdiction, in relation to—
 - (i) an offence against; or
 - (ii) an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of;
a provision that, because of any other application or applications of this definition, is an applicable provision of that or any other jurisdiction.

ASIC Act means the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act 1989 (Cwlth).

ASIC Law has the meaning given by part 11.

ASIC Law of Queensland means the provisions applying by reason of section 58.

ASIC Regulations has the meaning given by part 11.

ASIC Regulations of Queensland means the provisions applying by reason of section 59.

authority, in relation to the Commonwealth, has the same meaning as in the Corporations Act, part 8.

- (c) the Ombudsman Act 1976 (Cwlth);
- (d) the Privacy Act 1988 (Cwlth);

and the provisions of the regulations in force for the time being under those Acts.

Commonwealth authority means an authority or body (whether incorporated or not) that is established or continued in existence by or under an Act of the Commonwealth.

Commonwealth law means any of the written or unwritten laws of the Commonwealth, including laws about the exercise of prerogative powers, rights and privileges, other than the Corporations Law of the Capital Territory, the ASIC Law of the Capital Territory or provisions prescribed, for the purposes of the definition of “Commonwealth law” in the Corporations Act, section 4, by regulations under the Corporations Act, section 73.

Commonwealth Minister has the meaning given to “the Minister” by the Corporations Law, section 80A(2).

cooperative scheme law has the meaning given by section 84.

Corporations Act means the Corporations Act 1989 (Cwlth).

Corporations Law has the meaning given by part 3.

Corporations Law of Queensland means the provisions applying by reason of section 7.

Corporations Regulations has the meaning given by part 3.

Corporations Regulations of Queensland means the provisions applying by reason of section 8.

corresponding law means—

- (a) an Act of a jurisdiction (other than Queensland) that corresponds to this Act; or
- (b) regulations made under such an Act; or
- (c) the Corporations Law, Corporations Regulations, ASIC Law, or ASIC Regulations, or any other applicable provision, of such a jurisdiction; or
- (d) rules of court made because of such an Act.

Territory does not include the Northern Territory.

this jurisdiction means Queensland.

- (2) In this Act, a reference to a Commonwealth Act includes a reference to—
- (a) that Commonwealth Act as amended and in force for the time being; and
 - (b) an Act passed in substitution for that Act.

4 Australian Capital Territory

For the purposes of the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction, the Jervis Bay Territory is taken to be part of the Australian Capital Territory.

5 This Act and applicable provisions of Queensland not to be affected by later State laws

- (1) An Act enacted, or an instrument made under an Act, after the commencement of this section is not to be interpreted as amending or repealing, or otherwise altering the effect or operation of, this Act or the applicable provisions of Queensland.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not affect the interpretation of an Act, or of an instrument made under an Act, so far as that Act provides expressly for that Act or instrument, as the case may be, to have effect despite a specified provision, or despite any provision, of this Act or the applicable provisions of Queensland.

of this section has effect, and is taken always to have had effect, as if those regulations had taken effect under the Corporations Act from the specified day.

- (3) To the extent that a provision of the Corporations Regulations of Queensland is taken because of a particular application of subsection (2) to have effect, or to have had effect, before the day of notification of the regulations referred to in that subsection, the provision does not operate so as to—
- (a) affect a private person's rights as at that day so as to disadvantage that person; or
 - (b) impose a liability on a private person in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before that day.
- (4) In subsection (3)—
- private person* means a person other than—
- (a) the Commonwealth, a State or the Capital Territory; or
 - (b) an authority of the Commonwealth, of a State or of the Capital Territory.
- (5) Subsection (3) does not affect any other operation that the provision has because of subsection (2) or otherwise.

9 Interpretation of some expressions in the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland

In the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland—

the Minister for this jurisdiction means the Minister for the time being charged with the administration of this Act and includes a Minister who, for the time being, is performing the duties of the Minister.

this jurisdiction means Queensland.

10 Interpretation law

- (1) Subject to the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 1.2, the Acts Interpretation Act 1901 (Cwlth) as in force at the commencement of the Corporations Act, section 8, applies as a law of Queensland in relation to the Corporations Law, and the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland and any instrument made, granted or issued under that Law or those regulations (other than application orders under section 111A of that Law) and so applies as if that Law were an Act of the Commonwealth and those regulations or instruments were regulations or instruments made under such an Act.

- (2) The Acts Interpretation Act 1954 does not apply in relation to the Corporations Law, or the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland or an application order or any other instrument made, granted or issued under that Law or those regulations.

Part 3

Citing the Corporations Law and the Corporations Regulations

11 Simpler citation of Corporations Law, and Corporations Regulations, of Queensland

- (1) The Corporations Law of Queensland may be referred to simply as the Corporations Law.
- (2) The Corporations Regulations of Queensland may be referred to simply as the Corporations Regulations.
- (3) This section has effect subject to section 13.

12 References to Corporations Law, and Corporations Regulations, of other jurisdictions

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of an Act, a law of Queensland or an instrument made under an Act or under such a law.
- (2) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland that corresponds to section 7 of this Act provides that the Corporations Law set out in the Corporations Act, section 82 applies as law of that jurisdiction, the Corporations Law of that jurisdiction is the Corporations Law so set out, applying as law of that jurisdiction.

- (3) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland that corresponds to section 8 of this Act provides that the regulations under the Corporations Act, section 22 apply for the purposes of the Corporations Law of that jurisdiction, the Corporations Regulations of that jurisdiction are those regulations as so applying.

13 References to Corporations Law and Corporations Regulations

- (1) The object of this section is to help ensure that the Corporations Law of Queensland operates, so far as possible, as if that Law, together with the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, constituted a single national Corporations Law applying of its own force throughout Australia.
- (2) Subject to this section, a reference in an instrument to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, is to be taken, for the purposes of the laws of Queensland—
 - (a) to be a reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of Queensland; and
 - (b) to include a separate reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of each jurisdiction other than Queensland.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect except so far as the contrary intention appears in the instrument, or the context of the reference otherwise requires.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a reference expressed as a reference to the Corporations Law, or to the Corporations Regulations, of a jurisdiction.
- (5) In this section—

Queensland but also, so far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits, the Crown in right of the Commonwealth, of each of the other States, of the Capital Territory, of the Northern Territory and of Norfolk Island.

- (2) To avoid doubt, the Corporations Law of Queensland, chapter 7 does not bind the Crown in right of the State of Queensland, of the Commonwealth, of any other State, of the Capital Territory, of the Northern Territory or of Norfolk Island.
- (3) The Corporations Law of Queensland, chapters 6 to 6D—
 - (a) bind the Commonwealth as far as the legislative power of the Parliament permits; and
 - (b) do not bind the State, the other States or Norfolk Island.

16 Corporations Law of other jurisdictions

Chapter 5 (except part 5.8) of the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland binds the Crown in right of the State of Queensland.

17 Crown not liable to prosecution

Nothing in this part, or in the Corporations Law, renders the Crown in any right liable to be prosecuted for an offence.

18 This part overrides the prerogative

Where, because of this part, a provision of a law of another jurisdiction binds the Crown in right of the State of Queensland, the Crown in that right is subject to that provision despite any prerogative right or privilege.

Part 5 Application orders

19 Commonwealth Minister to obtain consent of State Minister

Despite part 1.3 of the Corporations Law of Queensland and section 20 of this Act, the Commonwealth Minister may only make an order under section 111A of that Law, or that section as applying because of section 20 of this Act, with the consent of the Minister for this jurisdiction.

20 Application orders for ASIC Law

Part 1.3 of the Corporations Law of Queensland applies for the purposes of the ASIC Law of Queensland as if the provisions of the ASIC Law of Queensland were provisions of the Corporations Law of Queensland.

Part 7 Imposition of fees and taxes

22 Fees (including taxes) for chargeable matters

This section imposes the fees (including fees that are taxes) that the Corporations Regulations of Queensland prescribe.

23 Contributions and levies for fidelity funds of securities exchanges

- (1) This section imposes—
 - (a) the contribution payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 902(1) by a person who wishes to be admitted to membership of a securities exchange, or to a partnership in a member firm recognised by a securities exchange; and

- (b) the annual contribution payable under section 902(2) of that Law by a member of a securities exchange; and
 - (c) any levy payable under section 904 of that Law by a member of a securities exchange.
- (2) An expression has in subsection (1) the meaning it would have if this section were in the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 7.9.

24 Levies for national guarantee fund

This section imposes any levy that is payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 938, 940 or 941.

25 Contributions and levies for fidelity funds of futures organisations

- (1) This section imposes—
- (a) the contribution payable under the Corporations Law of Queensland, section 1234(1) by a person who wishes to be admitted to membership of a futures organisation; and
 - (b) the annual contribution payable under section 1234(2) of that Law by a contributing member of a futures organisation; and
 - (c) any levy payable under section 1235 of that Law by a contributing member of a futures organisation.
- (2) An expression has in subsection (1) the meaning it would have if this section were in the Corporations Law of Queensland, part 8.6.

Part 8 National administration and enforcement of the Corporations Law

Division 1 Preliminary

26 Object

The object of this part is to help ensure that—

- (a) the Corporations Law of Queensland, and the Corporations Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, are administered and enforced on a national basis, in the same way as if those Laws constituted a single law of the Commonwealth; and
- (b) the ASIC Law of Queensland, and the ASIC Law of each jurisdiction other than Queensland, are administered and enforced on a national basis, in the same way as if those Laws constituted a single law of the Commonwealth.

27 Effect of part

- (1) This part has effect subject to this Act (in particular part 9), the Corporations Law of Queensland and the ASIC Law of Queensland.
- (2) Nothing in this part limits the generality of anything else in it.

Division 2 Offences against applicable provisions

28 Object

- (1) The object of this division is to further the object of this part by providing—

- (a) for an offence against an applicable provision of Queensland to be treated as if it were an offence against a law of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) for an offence against an applicable provision of another jurisdiction to be treated in Queensland as if it were an offence against a law of the Commonwealth.
- (2) The purposes for which an offence is to be treated as mentioned in subsection (1) include, for example (but without limitation)—
- (a) the investigation and prosecution of offences; and
 - (b) the arrest, custody, bail, trial and conviction of offenders or persons charged with offences; and
 - (c) proceedings relating to a matter referred to in paragraph (a) or (b); and
 - (d) appeals and review relating to criminal proceedings and to proceedings of the kind referred to in paragraph (c); and
 - (e) the sentencing, punishment and release of persons convicted of offences; and
 - (f) fines, penalties and forfeitures; and
 - (g) liability to make reparation in connection with offences; and
 - (h) proceeds of crime; and
 - (i) spent convictions.

29 Application of Commonwealth laws in relation to offences against applicable provisions

- (1) The Commonwealth laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of Queensland as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of Queensland.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an offence against the applicable provisions of Queensland—

[s 30]

- (a) is taken to be an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is taken not to be an offence against the laws of Queensland.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

30 Application of Commonwealth laws in relation to offences against applicable provisions of other jurisdictions

- (1) The Commonwealth laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of that other jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an offence against the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction—
- (a) is taken to be an offence against the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is taken not to be an offence against the laws of that jurisdiction.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.
- (4) This section does not require, prohibit, empower, authorise or otherwise provide for, the doing of an act outside Queensland.

31 Functions and powers conferred on Commonwealth authorities

- (1) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 29 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an offence against the applicable provisions of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of Queensland.

- (2) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 30 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an offence against an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of another jurisdiction.
- (3) The function or power referred to in subsection (2) may only be performed or exercised in Queensland.
- (4) In performing a function or exercising a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2), an officer or authority of the Commonwealth must act as nearly as practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power in relation to an offence against the corresponding applicable provision of the Capital Territory.
- (5) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 29 or 30 applies as if it did not contain any provision empowering a Minister of State for the Commonwealth to give any directions in relation to the performance of a function or the exercise of a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2).

32 Reference in Commonwealth law to a provision of another law

A reference in a Commonwealth law to a provision of that or another Commonwealth law is taken, for the purposes of section 29 or 30, to be a reference to that provision as applying because of that section.

Division 3 Administrative law

34 Object

The object of this division is to further the object of this part by providing that the Commonwealth administrative laws—

- (a) apply to the applicable provisions of Queensland; and
- (b) apply, in Queensland, to the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction;

as if the applicable provisions were those of the Capital Territory.

35 Application of Commonwealth administrative laws in relation to applicable provisions

- (1) The Commonwealth administrative laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to any act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of Queensland as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of Queensland.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of Queensland—
 - (a) is taken to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is taken not to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of Queensland.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.

36 Application of Commonwealth administrative laws in relation to applicable provisions of other jurisdictions

- (1) The Commonwealth administrative laws apply as laws of Queensland in relation to any act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth and were not laws of that jurisdiction.
- (2) For the purposes of a law of Queensland, an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the applicable provisions of another jurisdiction—
 - (a) is taken to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of the Commonwealth, in the same way as if those provisions were laws of the Commonwealth; and
 - (b) is taken not to be an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the laws of that jurisdiction.
- (3) Subsection (2) has effect for the purposes of a law of Queensland except as prescribed by regulations under section 80.
- (4) This section does not require, prohibit, empower, authorise or otherwise provide for the doing of an act outside Queensland.

36A Construction of references to part 7 of Commonwealth Administrative Review Tribunal Act

For sections 35 and 36, a reference in a provision of the Administrative Review Tribunal Act 2024 (Cwlth), as that provision applies as a law of Queensland, to the whole or part of part 7 of that Act is taken to be a reference to the whole or part of that part as it has effect as a law of the Commonwealth.

37 Functions and powers conferred on Commonwealth authorities

- (1) A Commonwealth administrative law applying because of section 35 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an act,

matter or thing arising under or in respect of an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of Queensland.

- (2) A Commonwealth administrative law applying because of section 36 that confers on an officer or authority of the Commonwealth a function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of an applicable provision of the Capital Territory also confers on the officer or authority the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of another jurisdiction.
- (3) The function or power referred to in subsection (2) may only be performed or exercised in Queensland.
- (4) In performing a function or exercising a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2), an officer or authority of the Commonwealth must act as nearly as practicable as the officer or authority would act in performing or exercising the same function or power in relation to an act, matter or thing arising under or in respect of the corresponding applicable provision of the Capital Territory.
- (5) A Commonwealth law applying because of section 35 or 36 applies as if it did not contain any provision empowering a Minister of State for the Commonwealth to give any directions in relation to the performance of a function or the exercise of a power conferred by subsection (1) or (2).

38 Reference in Commonwealth administrative law to a provision of another law

A reference in a Commonwealth administrative law to a provision of that or another Commonwealth administrative law is taken for the purposes of section 35 or 36, to be a reference to that provision as applying because of that section.

Part 9 Jurisdiction and procedure of courts

Division 1 Vesting and cross-vesting of civil jurisdiction

40 Operation of division

- (1) This division provides in relation to—
- (a) the jurisdiction of courts in respect of civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland; and
 - (b) the jurisdiction of the courts of Queensland in respect of civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory; and
 - (c) the jurisdiction of courts in respect of matters arising under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth) involving or related to decisions made under the Corporations Law of a State or the Capital Territory by Commonwealth authorities and officers of the Commonwealth; and
 - (d) the jurisdiction of courts in civil matters in respect of decisions made by officers of the Commonwealth to prosecute persons for offences against the Corporations Law of a State or the Capital Territory and related criminal justice process decisions;
- and so provides to the exclusion of the Jurisdiction of Courts (Cross-vesting) Act 1987.
- (2) Nothing in this division affects any other jurisdiction of any court.

41 Interpretation

- (1) In this division—
- civil matter means a matter other than a criminal matter.

Corporations Law has the extended meaning given by subsection (2).

judgment means a judgment, decree or order, whether final or interlocutory.

lower court means a court of a State or Territory that is not a superior court.

superior court means the Supreme Court of a State or Territory or a State Family Court.

superior court matter means a civil matter the Corporations Law clearly intends (for example, by use of the Court) to be dealt with only by a superior court.

- (2) In this division—
- (a) a reference to the Corporations Law of Queensland includes a reference to—
 - (i) the Corporations Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (ii) the ASIC Law of Queensland; and
 - (iii) the ASIC Regulations of Queensland; and
 - (iv) any other applicable provisions (as defined in section 3) of Queensland; and
 - (v) this Act; and
 - (vi) regulations made under this Act; and
 - (vii) rules of court made by the Supreme Court of Queensland because of a provision of this Act; and
 - (viii) rules of court applied by the Supreme Court of another State, or of the Capital Territory, or a State Family Court of another State, when exercising jurisdiction conferred by this division (including jurisdiction conferred by virtue of any previous application or applications of this subparagraph); and
 - (b) a reference to the Corporations Law of another State or of the Capital Territory is a reference to the Corporations Law of that other State or of the Capital

Territory within the meaning of the law of that other State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division.

42 Jurisdiction of State and Territory Supreme Courts

- (1) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth), section 9, jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court of Queensland and of each other State and the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.
- (1A) Despite section 9 of the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth), jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court of Queensland and of each other State and the Capital Territory with respect to matters arising under that Act involving or related to decisions made, or proposed to be made, under the Corporations Law of a State or the Capital Territory by a Commonwealth authority or an officer of the Commonwealth.
- (1B) Subsection (1A) applies to a decision made, or proposed or required to be made—
 - (a) whether or not in the exercise of a discretion; and
 - (b) whether before or after the commencement of this subsection.
- (2) The jurisdiction conferred on a Supreme Court by subsection (1) or (1A) is not limited by any limits to which any other jurisdiction of that Supreme Court may be subject.
- (3) This section has effect subject to section 42AA.

42A Jurisdiction of State Family Courts

- (2) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth), section 9, jurisdiction is conferred on each State Family Court with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.

[s 42AA]

- (3) The jurisdiction conferred on a State Family Court by subsection (2) is not limited by any limits to which any other jurisdiction of the State Family Court may be subject.
- (4) This section has effect subject to section 42AA.

42AA Jurisdiction of Supreme Court in relation to certain decisions made by Commonwealth officers

- (1) If a decision to prosecute a person for an offence against the Corporations Law of Queensland has been made by an officer or officers of the Commonwealth and the prosecution is proposed to be commenced in a court of Queensland, jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court with respect to any matter in which a person seeks a prerogative order or an injunction against the officer or officers in relation to that decision.
- (2) At any time when—
 - (a) a prosecution for an offence against the Corporations Law of Queensland is before a court of Queensland; or
 - (b) an appeal arising out of such a prosecution is before a court of Queensland;

jurisdiction is conferred on the Supreme Court with respect to any matter in which the person who is or was the defendant in the prosecution seeks a prerogative order or an injunction against an officer or officers of the Commonwealth in relation to a related criminal justice process decision.

- (3) Subsections (1) and (2) have effect despite anything in this Act or in any other law.
- (4) In this section—

appeal includes an application for a new trial and a proceeding to review or call in question the proceedings, decision or jurisdiction of a court or judge.

prerogative order means an order the relief or remedy under which is in the nature of, and to the same effect as, a writ of mandamus or prohibition.

related criminal justice process decision, in relation to an offence, means a decision, other than a decision to prosecute, made in the criminal justice process in relation to the offence, including—

- (a) a decision in connection with the investigation, committal for trial or prosecution of the defendant; and
- (b) a decision in connection with the appointment of investigators or inspectors for the purposes of such an investigation; and
- (c) a decision in connection with the issue of a warrant, including a search warrant or a seizure warrant; and
- (d) a decision requiring the production of documents, the giving of information or the summoning of persons as witnesses; and
- (e) a decision in connection with an appeal arising out of the prosecution.

42B Jurisdiction of lower courts

- (1) Subject to the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1977 (Cwlth), section 9, jurisdiction is conferred on the lower courts of Queensland and of each other State and the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters, other than superior court matters, arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland.
- (2) The jurisdiction conferred on a lower court by subsection (1)—
 - (a) is subject to the court's general jurisdictional limits, so far as they relate to the amounts, or the value of property, with which the court may deal; but
 - (b) is not subject to the court's other jurisdictional limits.

43 Appeals

- (1) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court of Queensland to a court of another State or of the Capital Territory.
- (4) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court (not being a State Family Court) of another State to a State Family Court of that State or to a court of a different State or of the Capital Territory.
- (5) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a court of the Capital Territory to a court of a State.
- (6) An appeal may not be instituted from a decision of a State Family Court of a State to a court of the Capital Territory or of another State, or (except in accordance with the law of the State under which the State Family Court is constituted) to the Supreme Court of that State.

44 Transfer of proceedings

- (1) This section applies to the following—
 - (a) a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland that is in a court having jurisdiction under section 42(1) or (2);
 - (b) a proceeding with respect to a matter referred to in section 42(1A) that is in a court having jurisdiction under that subsection or in the Federal Court.
- (2) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), if it appears to the court that, having regard to the interests of justice, it is more appropriate for the proceeding, or an application in the proceeding, to be determined by another court having jurisdiction in the matters for determination in the proceeding or application, the firstmentioned court may transfer the proceeding or application to that other court.
- (3) If a proceeding with respect to matter referred to in section 42(1A) is pending in the Supreme Court of a State or the Capital Territory (the relevant jurisdiction), the court must transfer the proceeding to the Federal Court unless the matter for determination in it arises out of, or relates to, another proceeding pending in any court of the relevant jurisdiction—

- (a) that arises, or a substantial part of which arises, under the Corporations Law of a State or the Capital Territory; and
- (b) that is not with respect to a matter referred to in section 42(1A);

regardless of which proceeding was commenced first.

- (4) Even if the Supreme Court of a State or the Capital Territory is not required by subsection (3) to transfer a proceeding with respect to a matter referred to in section 42(1A) to the Federal Court, it may nevertheless do so if it considers that to be appropriate, having regard to the interests of justice, including the desirability of related proceedings being heard in the same jurisdiction.
- (5) If a proceeding with respect to a matter referred to in section 42(1A) is pending in the Federal Court, the Federal Court may only transfer the proceeding, or an application in the proceeding, to the Supreme Court of a State or the Capital Territory (the relevant jurisdiction) if—
 - (a) the matter arises out of, or relates to, another proceeding pending in any court of the relevant jurisdiction—
 - (i) that arises, or a substantial part of which arises, under the Corporations Law of a State or the Capital Territory; and
 - (ii) that is not a proceeding with respect to a matter referred to in section 42(1A);regardless of which proceeding was commenced first; and
 - (b) the Federal Court considers the transfer to be appropriate, having regard to the interests of justice, including the desirability of related proceedings being heard in the same jurisdiction.

[s 44A]

- (6) Nothing in this section confers on a court jurisdiction that the court would not otherwise have.
- (7) The fact that some references in this section to the interests of justice include the desirability of related proceedings being heard in the same jurisdiction does not of itself mean that other references to the interests of justice, in this section or elsewhere in this Act, do not include that matter.

44A Transfer of proceedings by State Family Courts

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland in a State Family Court (the first court) having jurisdiction under section 42A.
- (2) If it appears to the first court that—
 - (a) the proceeding arises out of, or is related to, another proceeding pending in another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, and that the court in which the other proceeding is pending is the most appropriate court to determine the firstmentioned proceeding; or
 - (b) having regard to—
 - (i) whether, in the first court’s opinion, apart from this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division, the proceeding, or a substantial part of it, would have been incapable of being instituted in the first court; and
 - (ii) the extent to which, in the first court’s opinion, the matters for determination in the proceeding are matters not within the first court’s jurisdiction apart from this division or such a law; and
 - (iii) the interests of justice;another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, is the most appropriate court to determine the proceeding; or

- (c) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that another court of a State or of the Capital Territory, determine the proceeding;
- the first court must transfer the proceeding to the other court.
- (3) Subject to subsection (2), if it appears to the first court that—
- (a) the proceeding arises out of, or is related to, another proceeding pending in another State Family Court having jurisdiction under section 42A in the matters for determination in the firstmentioned proceeding, and that the other court is the most appropriate court to determine the firstmentioned proceeding; or
- (b) it is otherwise in the interests of justice that the proceeding be determined by another State Family Court having jurisdiction under section 42A in the matters for determination in the proceeding;
- the first court must transfer the proceeding to the other court.
- (4) If—
- (a) the first court transfers the proceeding to another court; and
- (b) it appears to the first court that—
- (i) there is another proceeding pending in the first court that arises out of, or is related to, the firstmentioned proceeding; and
- (ii) it is in the interests of justice that the other court also determine the other proceeding;
- the first court must also transfer the other proceeding to the other court.
- (5) Nothing in this section confers on a court jurisdiction that the court would not otherwise have.

44AA Transfer of proceedings in lower courts

- (1) This section applies to a proceeding with respect to a civil matter arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland in a lower court (the first court) having jurisdiction under section 42B.

- (2) If it appears to the first court that, having regard to the interests of justice, it is more appropriate for the proceeding, or an application in the proceeding, to be determined by another court (the second court) having jurisdiction in the matters for determination in the proceeding or application, the first court may take action under whichever of subsections (3) and (4) applies.
- (3) If the second court is also a lower court, the first court may transfer the proceeding or application to the second court.
- (4) If the second court is a superior court, the first court may transfer the proceeding or application to the relevant Supreme Court and recommend that the proceeding or application be transferred by the Supreme Court to the second court.
- (5) The relevant Supreme Court is not bound to comply with a recommendation under subsection (4) and it may instead decide—
 - (a) to deal with the proceeding or application itself; or
 - (b) to transfer the proceeding or application to another court (which could be the first court).
- (6) Nothing in this section allows the relevant Supreme Court to transfer the proceeding or application to another court otherwise than under section 44 and the other requirements of this division.
- (6A) Nothing in this section confers on a court jurisdiction that the court would not otherwise have.
- (7) In this section—

relevant Supreme Court means the Supreme Court of the State or Territory of which the first court is a court.

44B Further matters for a court to consider when deciding whether to transfer a proceeding

In deciding whether to transfer under section 44, 44A or 44AA a proceeding or application, a court must have regard to—

- (a) the principal place of business of any body corporate concerned in the proceeding or application; and
- (b) the place or places where the events that are the subject of the proceeding or application took place; and
- (c) the other courts that have jurisdiction to deal with the proceeding or application.

44C Transfer may be made at any stage

A court may transfer under section 44, 44A or 44AA a proceeding or application—

- (a) on the application of a party made at any stage; or
- (b) of the court's own motion.

44D Transfer of documents

Where, under section 44, 44A or 44AA, a court transfers a proceeding, or an application in a proceeding, to another court—

- (a) the registrar or other proper officer of the firstmentioned court must transmit to the registrar or other proper officer of the other court all documents filed in the firstmentioned court in respect of the proceeding or application, as the case may be; and
- (b) the other court must proceed as if—
 - (i) the proceeding had been originally instituted in the other court; and
 - (ii) the same proceedings had been taken in the other court as were taken in the firstmentioned court; and

- (iii) in a case where an application is transferred—the application had been made in the other court.

45 Conduct of proceedings

- (1) Subject to sections 51 and 52A, where it appears to a court that, in determining a matter for determination in a proceeding, the court will, or will be likely to, be exercising relevant jurisdiction the rules of evidence and procedure to be applied in dealing with the matter are to be such as the court considers appropriate in the circumstances, being rules that are applied in a superior court in Australia or in an external Territory.
- (2) Where a proceeding is transferred or removed to a court (the transferee court) from another court (the transferor court), the transferee court must deal with the proceeding as if, subject to any order of the transferee court, the steps that had been taken for the purposes of the proceeding in the transferor court (including the making of an order), or similar steps, had been taken in the transferee court.
- (3) In this section—relevant jurisdiction means—
- (a) jurisdiction conferred on a court of Queensland with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory; or
 - (b) jurisdiction conferred on a court of another State or the Capital Territory with respect to civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland; or
 - (c) jurisdiction conferred on a court of a State or the Capital Territory with respect to matters referred to in section 42(1A).

46 Courts to act in aid of each other

All courts having jurisdiction in civil matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, or in matters referred to in section 42(1A), and the officers of, or under the control of, those courts must severally act in aid of, and be auxiliary to, each other in all such matters.

47 Exercise of jurisdiction pursuant to cross-vesting provisions

A court of Queensland may—

- (a) exercise jurisdiction (whether original or appellate) conferred on it by a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of that State or Territory; and
- (b) hear and determine a proceeding transferred to it under such a provision.

48 Rights of appearance

A person who is entitled to practise as a barrister or a solicitor, or as both a barrister and a solicitor, in a court has, if a proceeding (the transferred proceeding) in that court is transferred to another court under this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory that corresponds to this division, the same entitlements to practise in relation to—

- (a) the transferred proceeding; and
- (b) any other proceeding out of which the transferred proceeding arises or to which the transferred proceeding is related, being another proceeding that is to be determined together with the transferred proceeding;

in the other court that the person would have if the other court were a federal court exercising federal jurisdiction.

49 Limitation on appeals

An appeal does not lie from a decision of a court—

- (a) in relation to the transfer of a proceeding under this division; or

- (b) as to which rules of evidence and procedure are to be applied pursuant to section 45(1).

50 Enforcement of judgments etc.

- (1) A judgment of a court of Queensland that is entirely or partly given in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this division, or by a law of another State that corresponds to this division, is enforceable in Queensland as if the judgment had been given by that court entirely in the exercise of the jurisdiction of that court apart from this division or any such law.
- (2) Where—
 - (a) a provision of a law of Queensland (not being a law in relation to the enforcement of judgments) refers to a thing done by the Supreme Court of Queensland or of another State or of the Capital Territory, a State Family Court or a particular lower court of Queensland or of another State or of the Capital Territory; and
 - (b) that thing is done by another court in the exercise of jurisdiction conferred by this division or a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division;

the reference in that provision to the Supreme Court of Queensland or of the other State or Territory, that State Family Court or that lower court, as the case may be, is taken as a reference to that other court.

51 Rules of court

- (1) When a lower court of Queensland is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court, with all necessary changes.
- (2) When a court of Queensland is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory, and the jurisdiction is conferred by a law of another State or the Capital Territory corresponding to this division, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court, with all necessary changes.

- (3) When a court of another State or the Capital Territory is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, and the jurisdiction is conferred by this division, the court must apply the relevant rules of court of the Supreme Court of the State or Territory, with all necessary changes.

- (4) In this section—

Corporations Law of another State or the Capital Territory does not include rules of court.

Corporations Law of Queensland does not include rules of court.

52A Rules of a State Family Court

- (1) When a State Family Court of another State is exercising jurisdiction with respect to matters arising under the Corporations Law of Queensland, being jurisdiction conferred by this division, that court must apply the rules of court made under the Law of the State corresponding to the Corporations Act, section 61A(1), with such alterations as are necessary.

- (2) In this section—

Corporations Law of Queensland does not include rules of court.

Division 2 Citing the ASIC Law and the ASIC Regulations

63 Alternative citations of the ASIC Law, and the ASIC Regulations, of Queensland

- (1) The ASIC Law of Queensland may be referred to simply as the ASIC Law.
- (2) The ASIC Regulations of Queensland may be referred to simply as the ASIC Regulations.
- (3) This section has effect subject to section 65.

64 References to ASIC Law, and ASIC Regulations, of another jurisdiction

- (1) This section has effect for the purposes of an Act, a law of Queensland or an instrument made under an Act or under such a law.
- (2) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland contains provisions corresponding of the Corporations Act, sections 5 and 6 and also provides for provisions of the ASIC Act to apply as law of that jurisdiction, those provisions of the ASIC Act, as so applying, are the ASIC Law of that jurisdiction.
- (3) Where a law of a jurisdiction other than Queensland provides for the regulations of the ASIC Act, section 251 to apply for the purposes of the ASIC Law of that jurisdiction, those regulations as so applying are the ASIC Regulations of that jurisdiction.

65 References to ASIC Law and ASIC Regulations

- (1) The object of this section is to help ensure that, so far as possible—
 - (a) the bodies established by the ASIC Act and the staff of those bodies, can perform functions and exercise powers; and
 - (b) persons can have dealings with those bodies;as if the ASIC Act, the ASIC Law of Queensland and the ASIC Law of each other State, constituted a single national ASIC Law applying of its own force throughout Australia.
- (2) Subject to this section, a reference in an instrument to the ASIC Law, or to the ASIC Regulations, is to be taken, for the purposes of the laws of Queensland—
 - (a) to be a reference to the ASIC Law, or to the ASIC Regulations, of Queensland; and
 - (b) to include a separate reference to the ASIC Law, or to the ASIC Regulations, of each jurisdiction other than Queensland.

- (3) Subsection (2) has effect except so far as the contrary intention appears in the instrument, or the context of the reference otherwise requires.
- (4) Without limiting subsection (3), subsection (2) does not apply in relation to a reference expressed as a reference to the ASIC Law, or to the ASIC Regulations, of a jurisdiction.
- (5) In this section—
instrument means—
 - (a) an Act or an instrument made under an Act; or
 - (b) a law of Queensland or an instrument made under such a law; or
 - (c) an award or other industrial determination or order, or an industrial agreement; or

- (2) The disciplinary board has power to do acts in Queensland in the performance or exercise of any function or power expressed to be conferred on it by a national scheme law of another jurisdiction.

Division 6 Miscellaneous

72 Acting appointments

Where a person is appointed under the ASIC Act to act in a particular office, the law of this jurisdiction applies in relation to that person while acting in that office as if the person were the holder of the office.

73 Alteration of names and constitutions

(1) Where—

- (a) the name of a body established by the ASIC Act is changed by law (whether or not the body is incorporated); or
- (b) the name of an office established by that Act is changed by law;

then, unless the contrary intention appears, a reference in—

- (c) any Act of this jurisdiction; or
- (d) any instrument under such an Act; or
- (e) any award or other industrial determination or order or any industrial agreement; or
- (f) any other order (whether executive, judicial or otherwise); or
- (g) any contract; or
- (h) any pleading in, or process issued in connection with, any legal or other proceeding; or
- (i) any other instrument;

to the body or the office under the former name, except in relation to matters that occurred before that change took place, is taken as a reference to the body or the office under the new name.

(2) Where the constitution of a body established by the ASIC Act is changed by law (whether or not the body is incorporated), then, unless the contrary intention appears, the alteration does not affect any functions or powers conferred or expressed to be conferred on that body by a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

74 Application of Commonwealth Crimes Act

- (1) For the purposes of the ASIC Law of Queensland, part 3, the Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), part 3 applies as a law of Queensland.
- (2) For the purposes of the Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), part 3 as applying because of subsection (1), an examination or a hearing is a judicial proceeding.
- (3) For the purposes of a national scheme law of Queensland—
 - (a) an offence under the Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), part 3 as applying because of subsection (1) in relation to an examination or hearing, is taken to be an offence against the ASIC Law of Queensland, part 3; and
 - (b) an offence under the Crimes Act 1914 (Cwlth), part 3 as applying, in relation to an examination or hearing held under the ASIC Law of another jurisdiction, as a law of that jurisdiction is taken to be an offence against the ASIC Law, part 3 of that jurisdiction.

75 Application of Commonwealth Evidence Act

- (1) For the purposes of the ASIC Law of Queensland, part 3 the following provisions of the Evidence Act 1995 (Cwlth) apply as a law of Queensland—
 - part 2.2 (Documents)
 - section 69 (Exception: business records)
 - section 70 (Exception: contents of tags, labels and writing)
 - section 71 (Exception: telecommunications)

[s 76]

- section 147 (Documents produced by processes, machines and other devices in the course of business)
 - part 4.6, division 2.
- (2) Those provisions of the Evidence Act 1995 (Cwlth) apply to an examination in the same way as they apply to a proceeding to which that Act applies under section 4 of that Act.

Part 12 General

Division 1 Arrangements

76 Definition

In this division—

relevant State law means—

- (a) a law of the State concerning the management or affairs of a body corporate; or
 - (b) a law of the State concerning fraud or dishonesty; or
 - (c) any other law of the State;
- other than a cooperative scheme law.

77 Arrangements relating to applicable provisions

- (1) Where an arrangement between the Minister for this jurisdiction and the Commonwealth Minister provides—
- (a) that an authority or officer of the Commonwealth has certain functions or powers under a relevant State law; or
 - (b) that, despite section 33 or 39, an authority or officer of the State has certain functions or powers under an applicable provision of this jurisdiction;

those functions or powers are conferred on that authority or officer.

- (2) Functions and powers conferred under an arrangement under subsection (1) are to be performed and exercised in accordance with the arrangement but are to be taken to have been validly performed or exercised despite any failure to comply with any condition or restriction under the arrangement.

78 Notice of arrangement

Notice of each arrangement under section 77 must be published in the government gazette and in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette within 21 days after it is made.

Division 2 Penalties and fines

79 Application of penalties and fines

All fines, penalties and other money (other than fees and taxes) which, under and by virtue of the applicable provisions of Queensland, are authorised or directed to be imposed on any person must be paid to the Commonwealth.

Division 3 Regulations

80 Regulation-making power

The Governor in Council may make regulations under this Act.

Part 13 Transitional

Division 1 Staff

81 Information previously acquired

A staff member who, before the commencement of this section, was an officer or employee of the public service of Queensland engaged in the administration of a cooperative scheme law may disclose to the commission information acquired while so engaged.

83 Superannuation

- (1) This section applies in respect of a member of the commission's staff who—
- (a) is appointed as such under the Public Service Act 1922 (Cwlth), section 81B; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement of this section and before that appointment was a State superannuation officer employed in the office of the commissioner for corporate affairs;

whilst that member continues to be a member of the commission's staff.

- (1A) This section also applies in respect of a member of the commission's staff who—
- (a) is employed on the commencement of this section by the commission under the ASIC Act, section 120(3) as regional commissioner of the commission for Queensland; and
 - (b) immediately before the commencement of the employment referred to in paragraph (a), was a State superannuation officer employed in the Department of Justice and Corrective Services.

- (2) A commission officer continues to be an officer within the meaning of the State Superannuation Act but ceases to be such an officer if he or she before 1 January 1992 becomes a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme or elects to be a member of the State (public sector) scheme.
- (2A) A commission officer who at any time before 1 January 1992 becomes a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme is taken, for the purpose of the application of the State Superannuation Act, to have made an election at that time under section 35(2) of that Act.
- (2B) A commission officer referred to in subsection (2A) may by notice in writing to the board within 3 months of becoming a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme but in any case before 1 January 1992 elect to transfer the entitlements in the fund to the administrators of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme, whereupon the amount that would have been credited to the fund had the State Superannuation Act, section 35 applied is to be paid in lieu by the board from the fund to the administrators of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme and the commission officer has no further entitlements under the State Superannuation Act.
- (3) At any time after officers of the public service of Queensland become eligible to transfer membership from the State Service Superannuation scheme to the State (public sector) scheme, a commission officer who is not a member of the Commonwealth superannuation scheme may elect, at any time before 1 January 1992, to be a member of the State (public sector) scheme.
- (3A) For the purposes of the State (public sector) scheme—
- (a) the commission officer referred to in subsection (3) is taken to be an employee of a unit of the State public sector; and
 - (b) contributions payable by the employer in respect of that employee and paid by the commission are to be taken to be paid by the unit of the public sector employing that commission officer.

- (3B) Subject to subsection (5), for so long as a person who is a commission officer is a member of the State (public sector) scheme and makes the contributions prescribed under that scheme—
- (a) the commission officer has the same rights as the person would have if he or she had been an employee of a unit of the State public sector during the whole of the period during which the person so contributes; and
 - (b) for the purpose of the application of the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990, employment by the commission is to be taken to be employment by a unit of the public sector but the Crown in right of the State is not liable to make any contribution in respect of that employment.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), for so long as a person who is a commission officer continues to be a State superannuation officer and to make the contributions to the fund as prescribed under the State Superannuation Act—
- (a) the commission officer has the same rights as the person would have if he or she had been a State superannuation officer during the whole of the period during which the person so contributes; and
 - (b) for the purpose of the application of the State Superannuation Act, employment by the commission is to be taken to be employment by the Crown but the Crown in right of the State is not liable to make any contributions for the period the person is a commission officer.
- (5) If the commission fails to pay in full—
- (a) in respect of a commission officer who is a State superannuation officer, the contributions prescribed under the State Superannuation Act to be paid by the Crown in respect of such an officer; or
 - (b) in respect of a commission officer who is a member of the State (public sector) scheme, the contributions prescribed under the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990 to be paid by a unit of the State public sector in respect of such an officer;

the method of calculation of the benefits of that commission officer may be varied by order in council made on the recommendation of an actuary appointed for the purposes of the State Superannuation Act or, as the case may be, the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990 to reflect the reduction in the amount of the contributions by the commission but not so as to reduce the benefits accrued by the commission officer prior to the failure to pay.

(6) In this section—

board means the State Service Superannuation Board.

commission officer means a member of the commission's staff referred to in subsection (1) or (1A).

Commonwealth superannuation scheme means the superannuation scheme established under the Superannuation Act 1990 (Cwlth).

fund means the State service superannuation fund.

State (public sector) scheme means a scheme within the meaning of the Superannuation (State Public Sector) Act 1990.

State Superannuation Act means the State Service Superannuation Act 1972.

State superannuation officer means an officer within the meaning of the State Superannuation Act.

Division 2 Cooperative scheme laws

84 Cooperative scheme laws

For the purposes of this Act, the following are the cooperative scheme laws—

- Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981

- Companies (Queensland) Code
- Companies (Acquisition of Shares) (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Companies (Acquisition of Shares) (Queensland) Code
- Companies and Securities (Interpretation and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Companies and Securities (Interpretation and Miscellaneous Provisions) (Queensland) Code
- Securities Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1981
- Securities Industry (Queensland) Code
- Futures Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1986
- Futures Industry (Queensland) Code.

85 National scheme laws prevail over cooperative scheme laws

- (1) This section provides for the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction to supersede the cooperative scheme laws, which are to continue to operate of their own force only in relation to—
 - (a) matters arising before the commencement of this section; and
 - (b) matters arising, directly or indirectly, out of such matters;in so far as the national scheme laws or the Corporations legislation do not deal with those matters.
- (2) Where a cooperative scheme law is inconsistent with a national scheme law of this jurisdiction, the national scheme law prevails and, to the extent of the inconsistency, the cooperative scheme law does not operate.
- (3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a cooperative scheme law is inconsistent with a national scheme law if it would be inconsistent within the meaning of section 109 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Australia if the national scheme law were an Act of the Commonwealth.

(4) In this section—

Corporations legislation means the Corporations legislation to which the Corporations Act 2001 (Cwlth), part 1.1A applies.

86 Regulations may exclude residual operation of cooperative scheme laws

- (1) Regulations under section 80 may provide that prescribed provisions of cooperative scheme laws do not operate, either generally or as otherwise prescribed by the regulations.
- (2) Regulations in force because of subsection (1) have effect accordingly.

87 Effect of ss 85–86

- (1) To the extent that a cooperative scheme law ceases to operate because of section 85 or 86, the law is taken for the purposes of the Acts Interpretation Act 1954 to have been repealed by this Act.
- (2) Nothing in this Act revives, or otherwise affects the exclusion of, the provisions referred to in the Companies (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 18(1) or the Securities Industry (Application of Laws) Act 1981, section 16(1).

88 Regulations may modify cooperative scheme laws

- (1) Regulations under section 80 may provide that a specified cooperative scheme law, or specified provisions of a cooperative scheme law, has or have effect with such modifications as the regulations prescribe.
- (2) Regulations in force because of subsection (1) have effect accordingly, even if, because of section 85 or 86, the specified law does not operate of its own force, or the specified provisions do not operate of their own force, as the case requires.

- (3) However, a reference in section 85(2) to a cooperative scheme law includes a reference to such a law as it has effect, or to provisions of such a law as they have effect, because of this section.

89 Cooperative scheme laws not affected by certain Commonwealth regulations

The operation or effect of a cooperative scheme law is not modified or otherwise affected because regulations of a kind referred to in the Corporations Act, section 77 or 79 modify or otherwise affect the operation of a Cooperative Scheme Act within the meaning of the Corporations Act, part 12.

90 References to cooperative scheme laws and regulations

- (1) In this section—

Code regulations means provisions applying as regulations made under a Code by reason of a provision of an Act that is a cooperative scheme law.

instrument has the same meaning as in section 13, but does not include—

- (a) a cooperative scheme law; or
 - (b) regulations under an Act that is such a law, or under this Act; or
 - (c) Code regulations; or
 - (d) a national scheme law of this jurisdiction, or the Corporations Regulations, or ASIC Regulations, of Queensland.

- (3) Subject to subsection (4) and to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to Code regulations is to be taken to include a reference to such provisions of the Corporations Regulations, or ASIC Regulations, of Queensland as correspond to provisions of the Code regulations.
- (4) Subject to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to a provision of a cooperative scheme law or of Code regulations is to be taken to include a reference to the corresponding provision of a national scheme law of this jurisdiction or of the Corporations Regulations, or ASIC Regulations, of Queensland, as the case may be.
- (5) Subject to any regulations in force under subsection (7), a reference in an instrument to the NCSC is to be taken to include a reference to the commission.
- (6) Regulations under section 80 may declare that, for the purposes of this section—
 - (a) prescribed provisions of national scheme laws of this jurisdiction correspond to prescribed provisions of cooperative scheme laws; and
 - (b) prescribed provisions of the Corporations Regulations, or ASIC Regulations, correspond to prescribed provisions of Code regulations.
- (7) Regulations under section 80—
 - (a) may declare that subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) of this section does not apply in relation to prescribed references in prescribed instruments; or
 - (b) may declare that subsection (2), (3), (4) or (5) of this section has effect in relation to prescribed references in prescribed instruments as if, in the subsection, the words ‘be taken to be’ were substituted for the words ‘be taken to include’.
- (8) Regulations in force because of subsection (6) or (7) have effect accordingly.

91 Conferral of functions and powers in relation to cooperative scheme laws

- (1) The Commonwealth director of public prosecutions—
 - (a) has the same enforcement powers in relation to the cooperative scheme laws as has the director of prosecutions of Queensland; and
 - (b) may, in relation to an offence against a cooperative scheme law, perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on the director of public prosecutions by the Director of Public Prosecutions Act 1983 (Cwlth) in relation to offences against the laws of the Commonwealth as if the offence against the cooperative scheme law were an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.
- (2) The Australian Federal Police—
 - (a) have the same enforcement powers in relation to the cooperative scheme laws as has the Police Service of Queensland; and
 - (b) may, in relation to an offence against a cooperative scheme law, perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on the Australian Federal Police in relation to offences against the laws of the Commonwealth as if the offence against the cooperative scheme law were an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.
- (3) The Commonwealth Minister has, in respect of the prosecution of offences against the cooperative scheme laws, the same functions and powers as he or she has in respect of the prosecution of offences against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.
- (4) For the purposes of the exercise of enforcement powers, and other functions and powers conferred by this section, including the obtaining of warrants to arrest, an offence against a cooperative scheme law is taken to be an offence against a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.
- (5) In this section—

enforcement power means a function or power relating to—

- (a) the investigation of an offence; or
- (b) the arrest and custody of persons charged with an offence; or
- (c) the institution and carrying on of a prosecution of an offence; or
- (d) matters relating to such an investigation, arrest, custody or prosecution.

92 Arrangements affecting exercise of investigation powers by State authorities and officers

- (1) Where an arrangement between the Minister for this jurisdiction and the Commonwealth Minister makes provision in relation to the exercise by a State authority or officer of enforcement powers within the meaning of section 91 in relation to the cooperative scheme laws—
 - (a) the State authority or officer is authorised to act in accordance with that arrangement; and
 - (b) the State authority or officer must not exercise an enforcement power except in accordance with that arrangement; and
 - (c) the exercise of, or failure to exercise, an enforcement power by a State authority or officer is to be taken to have been validly performed or withheld, despite any failure to comply with any conditions in the arrangement.
- (2) Notice of each arrangement under subsection (1) must be published in the government gazette and in the Commonwealth of Australia Gazette within 21 days after it is made.

Division 3 Exemptions

93 Exempt bodies

Each of the following is an exempt body in relation to Queensland for the purposes of the Corporations Law of Queensland—

- (a) a co-operative under the Co-operatives National Law (Queensland);
- (b) a society within the meaning of the Cooperative Housing Societies Act 1958;
- (c) an association, society, institution or body incorporated under the Associations Incorporation Act 1981.

- (2) Part 2A has effect, as provided in this section, despite the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction.
- (3) A reference in part 2A to a relevant Code, except in relation to a time before the commencement of this section, is taken to be a reference to a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.
- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a reference in part 2A to a particular cooperative scheme law, except in relation to a time before that commencement, is taken to be a reference to such provisions of the national scheme laws of this jurisdiction as correspond to provisions of that law.
- (5) A reference in part 2A to a provision of a cooperative scheme law (other than a provision of part 2A itself), except in relation to a time before that commencement, is taken to be a reference to the corresponding provision of a national scheme law of this jurisdiction.

- (6) Regulations in force because of section 90(6) also have effect for the purposes of this section.

Division 5 Companies Auditors and Liquidators Disciplinary Board

96 Board to continue in existence for certain purposes

The Companies Auditors and Liquidators Disciplinary Board established under the Companies (Administration) Act 1981, part 3 may perform the functions and exercise the powers conferred on it under the Companies (Queensland) Code, part 2, division 2 in respect of applications made to it under subdivision B of that division before the commencement of this section.

Division 6 Application and saving provisions relating to amendments to this Act

96A Interpretation

In this division—

Court means the Federal Court or the Supreme Court of a State or Territory.

jurisdiction amendments means the amendments made by the Corporations (Queensland) Amendment Act 1995, sections 4 to 17.

jurisdiction commencement means the commencement of the jurisdiction amendments.

96B Application of jurisdiction amendments—general

The jurisdiction amendments apply to proceedings commenced, or recommenced, after the jurisdiction commencement, whether the cause of action arose before or after that commencement.

96C Effect of decision that court did not have jurisdiction

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before the jurisdiction commencement, proceedings in respect of a civil matter under the Corporations Law of Queensland were commenced in a court (the first court) other than the Court; and
 - (b) the first court, or another court on appeal from a decision of the first court, decided before the jurisdiction commencement that the first court did not have jurisdiction in respect of the matter; and
 - (c) the decision that the first court did not have jurisdiction still stands at the jurisdiction commencement; and
 - (d) the first court would have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter if the jurisdiction amendments had commenced before the cause of action arose.
- (2) The validity of the decision that the first court did not have jurisdiction is not affected by the jurisdiction amendments.
- (3) The decision does not affect a recommencement of the proceedings after the jurisdiction commencement.

96D Effect of absence of decision that court did not have jurisdiction

- (1) This section applies if—
 - (a) before the jurisdiction commencement, proceedings in respect of a civil matter under the Corporations Law of Queensland were commenced in a court (the first court) other than the Court; and

- (b) either—
- (i) no court expressly decided, before the jurisdiction commencement, whether the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter; or
 - (ii) a decision of the first court, or of another court on appeal from a decision of the first court, that the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter still stands at the jurisdiction commencement.
- (2) For the purposes of consideration by a court, after the jurisdiction commencement, of whether the first court had jurisdiction in respect of the matter, the first court is taken to have had jurisdiction in respect of the matter if it would have had that jurisdiction if the jurisdiction amendments had commenced before the cause of action arose.

96E Application of section 42AA

- (1) In this section—
- commencement* means the commencement of section 42AA.
- related criminal justice process decision*, in relation to an offence, has the same meaning as in section 42AA.
- (2) Section 42AA applies in relation to—
- (a) a decision made on or after the commencement to prosecute a person for an offence, even if the conduct alleged to give rise to the offence occurred before that commencement; or
 - (b) a related criminal justice process decision made on or after the commencement in relation to an offence, even if either or both of the following apply—
 - (i) the conduct alleged to give rise to the offence occurred before the commencement;
 - (ii) the prosecution of the offence, or an appeal arising out of the prosecution, was commenced before the commencement.

- (3) Section 42AA also applies in relation to—
- (a) a decision made before the commencement to prosecute a person for an offence, even if that decision is the subject of an application that is before a court at the commencement; or
 - (b) a related criminal process decision made before the commencement in relation to an offence, even if either or both of the following apply—
 - (i) the decision is the subject of an application that is before a court at the commencement;
 - (ii) the prosecution of the offence, or an appeal arising out of that prosecution, was commenced before the commencement.
