[s 28]

section 50A(1) was taken in relation to a licence for a child care service.

 - (ii) a person had applied to QCAT under the Child Care Act 2002, section 163 to have the decision reviewed but QCAT had not finished dealing with the application.
- (2) If subsection (1)(c)(i) applies, the person may apply to QCAT, and QCAT may deal with the application, under the Child Care Act 2002 as if the service were still a child care service to which that Act applied.
- (3) If subsection (1)(c)(ii) applies, QCAT may continue to deal with the application under the Child Care Act 2002 as if the service were still a child care service to which that Act applied.

- (4) However, in exercising its powers after reviewing the decision, QCAT must make the orders it considers appropriate having regard to the provisions of the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland).

Example—

An application for review mentioned in subsection (3) concerns a decision to refuse an application for a licence under the Child Care Act 2002. QCAT may order that the chief executive issue the person a provider approval and service approval under this Act.

- (5) If, for a decision mentioned in subsection (1)(a)(ii), QCAT confirms the decision to give the compliance notice, it is taken to be a compliance notice under the Education and Care Services National Law (Queensland).

29 Chief executive reviews of compliance notice decisions under Child Care Act 2002

- (1) This section applies to a decision made by the chief executive under the Child Care Act 2002 before the scheme commencement day if—
- (a) the decision was to give to a person a compliance notice relating to a contravention of a provision of the Child Care Act 2002; and
 - (b) the contravention related to a child care service that is, on the scheme commencement day, a declared approved service; and

To remove any doubt, it is declared that section 6(1)(b) and (c) do not affect the application of the Information Privacy Act 2009 and the Right to Information Act 2009 in relation to the Child Care Act 2002 or instruments made under that Act.

Example—

Before the scheme commencement day, an application is made for a licence for a child care service under the Child Care Act 2002.
