General outline

Short title

Jury and Other Legislation Amendment Regulation (No. 1) 2012.

Authorising law

Section 16 of the Court Funds Act 1973.

Section 74 of the Jury Act 1995.

Section 417 of the Mineral Resources Act 1989.

Policy objectives and the reasons for them

The amendment regulation makes minor amendments to the Jury Regulation 2007 to reflect the renaming of the central, northern and far northern sheriffs as deputy sheriffs by amendments to the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991 in the Civil Proceedings Act 2011.

The amendment regulation also contains minor amendments consequential to the Civil Proceedings Act 2011.

Achievement of policy objectives

The amendment regulation makes consequential amendments to support new sheriff arrangements by replacing references in the Jury Regulation 2007 to central, northern and far northern sheriffs with references to deputy sheriffs.

The amendment regulation also updates legislative cross-references contained in the Court Funds Regulation 2009 and the Mineral Resources Regulation 2003 from the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991 to the Civil Proceedings Act 2011.

Consistency with policy objectives of authorising law

The amendment regulation is consistent with the main objects of the authorising legislation.

Inconsistency with policy objectives of other legislation

The amendment regulation is not inconsistent with any policy objectives of any other legislation.

Benefits and costs of implementation

The amendment regulation updates the specified subordinate legislation in line with amendments to the relevant primary legislation.

No costs are expected to arise from implementation.

Consistency with fundamental legislative principles

The amendment regulation does not conflict with fundamental legislative principles.

Consultation

Consultation was undertaken with relevant Government agencies.
