

Queensland

Supreme Court of Queensland Regulation 2012

Explanatory Notes for SL 2012 No. 149

made under the

Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991

General outline

Short title

Supreme Court of Queensland Regulation 2012.

Authorising law

Section 92 of the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991.

Policy objectives and the reasons for them

The objective of the regulation is to continue the Supreme Court districts which are currently prescribed as comprising stated Magistrates Court districts under the Supreme Court Regulation 2008. This regulation needs to be replaced because the Supreme Court Act 1995 under which it is made will be repealed on commencement of section 211 of the Civil Proceedings Act 2011.

Achievement of policy objectives

The new regulation achieves this policy objective by providing for each Supreme Court district stated in the Schedule to the regulation to continue as a Supreme Court district and to comprise the same Magistrates Court districts as under the Supreme Court Regulation 2008.

Consistency with policy objectives of authorising law

The regulation is consistent with the main objects of the Supreme Court of Queensland Act 1991.

Inconsistency with policy objectives of other legislation

The regulation is not inconsistent with any policy objectives of any other legislation.

Benefits and costs of implementation

The regulation continues the existing Supreme Court districts.

No costs are expected to arise from implementation.

Consistency with fundamental legislative principles

The regulation does not conflict with fundamental legislative principles.

Consultation

This regulation has not been consulted on because it is of a machinery nature and preserves the status quo for Supreme Court districts.

ENDNOTES

- 1 Laid before the Legislative Assembly on . . .
- 2 The administering agency is the Department of Justice and Attorney-General.