Explanatory notes for SL 2016 No. 165

made under the

North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016

General Outline

Short title

North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016

Authorising law

Section 2 of the North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016

Policy objectives and the reasons for them

The objective of the Proclamation is to commence part 5 of the North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016 (the Act) on 9 September 2016.

This part provides for amendments to the Land Court Act 2000 to insert a new division 6, which introduces a transitional regulation-making power in relation to the new compensation provisions introduced by the Act.

Achievement of policy objectives

The policy objective is achieved by fixing a commencement date of 9 September 2016 for part 5 of the Act.

Consistency with policy objectives of authorising legislation

The Proclamation is consistent with the policy objectives of the Act in that it provides that on 9 September 2016, part 5 of the Act will commence and provide for a transitional regulation-making power in the Land Court Act 2000 in relation to the compensation provisions under sections 345 and 346 of the Mineral Resources Act 1989.

Inconsistency with policy objectives of other legislation

There is no inconsistency with the policy objectives of other legislation.

Alternative ways of achieving policy objectives

There are no alternative means of achieving the purpose of the Proclamation.

Benefits and costs of implementation

The Proclamation simply commences part 5 of the North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016. Any implementation costs arising from initiatives to support the amendments to the Land Court Act 2000 will be met from existing agency resources. The future allocation of resources will be determined through normal budgetary processes.

Consistency with fundamental legislative principles

The Proclamation is consistent with fundamental legislative principles.

Consultation

Consultation was carried out during the drafting of the North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016 to which this Proclamation relates.

The Department of Justice and the Attorney-General was consulted about the Proclamation, and raised no objections to the fixing date of 9 September 2016.

Queensland Treasury was consulted and had no issues or comments.

As the proposed Proclamation is machinery in nature, no consultation was undertaken with OBPR as per the Queensland Government Guide to Better Regulation Agency-assessed exclusion category (g).

No additional consultation was undertaken in relation to the Proclamation as it is consequential to the North Stradbroke Island Protection and Sustainability and Other Acts Amendment Act 2016.
