

Legal Profession (Society Rules) Amendment Notice 2023

Explanatory notes for SL 2023 No. 34

Made under the

Legal Profession Act 2007

General Outline

Short Title

Legal Profession (Society Rules) Amendment Notice 2023

Authorising law

Section 697 of the Legal Profession Act 2007 (the Act)

Policy objectives and the reasons for them

Section 696(1) of the Act provides for the Queensland Law Society (QLS) to make rules (society rules) for various purposes, including to fix fees, levies and subscriptions in relation to QLS membership.

Under section 697(1) of the Act, society rules have no effect unless the Minister notifies the making of the rules. This notice is subordinate legislation (section 697(2) of the Act). The society rules made and notified to date under sections 696 and 697 of the Act are consolidated in the Legal Profession (Society) Rules 2007 (Society Rules).

The purpose of the Legal Profession (Society Rules) Amendment Notice 2023 (the Notice) is to give notice of the making of the Legal Profession (Society) Amendment Rule (No. 1) 2023 (Amendment Rule) by the QLS Council.

The Amendment Rule amends rule 16 of the Society Rules to set the membership fees for the financial year commencing 1 July 2023 and to make other minor amendments.

Achievement of policy objectives

The Notice gives effect to the Amendment Rule.

Consistency with policy objectives of authorising law

The Notice is consistent with the policy objectives of the Act, which provides for the making of society rules.

Inconsistency with policy objectives of other legislation

The Notice is not inconsistent with the policy objectives of other legislation.

Benefits and costs of implementation

The benefit of the Notice is that it gives effect to the mentioned amendments to the Society Rules. There are no costs associated with implementation of the Notice.

Consistency with fundamental legislative principles

The Notice is consistent with fundamental legislative principles.

Consultation

The Notice is made at the request of the QLS.

The Office of Best Practice Regulation has not been consulted because the Notice is of a machinery nature and is therefore excluded from regulatory impact analysis under the Queensland Government Guide to Better Regulation.
