

Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021

Human Rights Certificate

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights Act 2019

In accordance with section 41 of the Human Rights Act 2019, I, Annastacia Palaszczuk MP, Premier and Minister for the Olympics provide this human rights certificate with respect to the Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021 made under the Governors (Salary and Pensions) Act 2003 (the Act).

In my opinion, the Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021, as tabled in the Legislative Assembly, is compatible with the human rights protected by the Human Rights Act 2019. I base my opinion on the reasons outlined in this statement.

Overview of the Subordinate Legislation

Section 3 of the Act prescribes that a salary is payable to the Governor at the rate prescribed under a regulation.

The Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021 amends the Governors (Salary and Pensions) Regulation 2013 to prescribe the salary rate for the Governor of Queensland, effective from 1 November 2021.

Human Rights Issues

Human rights relevant to the subordinate legislation (Part 2, Division 2 and 3 Human Rights Act 2019)

The Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021 does not affect or engage a human right.

Conclusion

I consider that the Governors (Salary and Pensions) Amendment Regulation 2021 is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019 because it does not limit human rights.
