

Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022

Human Rights Certificate

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights Act 2019

In accordance with section 41 of the Human Rights Act 2019, I, the Honourable Grace MP, Minister for Education, Minister for Industrial Relations and Minister for Racing, provide this human rights certificate with respect to the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022 made under the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation Act 2003.

In my opinion, the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022, as tabled in the Legislative Assembly, is compatible with the human rights protected by the Human Rights Act 2019. I base my opinion on the reasons outlined in this statement.

Overview of the Subordinate Legislation

Each year workers' compensation entitlements are indexed in accordance with Queensland Ordinary Time Earnings (QOTE) to ensure the relative value of entitlements over time.

The purpose of the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022 is to notify the amount of QOTE for 2022-23 and the percentage difference in QOTE compared to QOTE for the previous financial year.

Human Rights Issues

The Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022 applies an existing legislated indexation to entitlement amounts and does not limit or engage a human right.

Conclusion

I consider the Workers' Compensation and Rehabilitation (QOTE) Notice 2022 is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019 because it does not raise a human rights issue.
