

Statutory Instruments Regulation 2022

Human Rights Certificate

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights Act 2019

In accordance with section 41 of the Human Rights Act 2019, I, Annastacia Palaszczuk MP, Premier and Minister for the Olympics provide this human rights certificate with respect to the Statutory Instruments Regulation 2022 (the Regulation) made under the Explosives Act 1999, Statutory Instruments Act 1992 (the Act), Transport Infrastructure Act 1994 and Transport Operations (Road Use Management) Act 1995.

In my opinion, the Regulation, as tabled in the Legislative Assembly, is compatible with the human rights protected by the Human Rights Act 2019. I base my opinion on the reasons outlined in this statement.

Overview of the Subordinate Legislation

Part 7 of the Act is designed to require regular review of Queensland's subordinate legislation by causing most subordinate legislation to automatically expire on 1 September first occurring after the tenth anniversary of the day of its making.

Section 56 of the Act allows a regulation to be made to exempt uniform subordinate legislation from expiry for a stated period of not more than five years after the uniform subordinate legislation would otherwise expire.

Section 56A(1) of the Act allows a regulation to be made to exempt subordinate legislation from expiry for one year on the following grounds:

- replacement subordinate legislation is being drafted and is proposed to be made before the stated period ends [section 56A(1)(a)(i)];
- the subordinate legislation is not proposed to be replaced or preserved when it expires at the end of the stated period [section 56A(1)(a)(ii)]; or
- the Act or provision under which or in relation to which the subordinate legislation or part of the subordinate legislation is made or preserved is subject to review [section 56A(1)(b)].

Subordinate legislation previously extended under section 56A(1)(b) may also be further extended for periods of not more than one year under section 56A(2) of the Act.

The Regulation ensures that subordinate legislation may be exempted from expiry or further exempted from expiry where appropriate grounds exist under sections 56 and 56A of the Act.

Human Rights Issues

The Regulation does not affect or engage a human right.

When individual pieces of subordinate legislation exempted from expiry are remade, they will be subject to human rights analysis and must be accompanied by a human rights certificate detailing whether the subordinate legislation is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019.

Conclusion

I consider that the Regulation is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019 because it does not raise a human rights issue.
