

Proclamation – Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022

Human Rights Certificate

Prepared in accordance with Part 3 of the Human Rights Act 2019

In accordance with section 41 of the Human Rights Act 2019, I, Leanne Linard MP, Minister for Children and Youth Justice and Minister for Multicultural Affairs provide this human rights certificate with respect to the Proclamation made under the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 (the Proclamation).

In my opinion, the Proclamation, as tabled in the Legislative Assembly, is compatible with the human rights protected by the Human Rights Act 2019. I base my opinion on the reasons outlined in this statement.

Overview of the Subordinate Legislation

This Proclamation fixes the date of commencement of the provision of the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 outlined in schedule 1 of the Proclamation.

The amendments to commence are intended to streamline, clarify and improve regulation of care and make a number of minor, consequential and technical amendments.

Human Rights Issues

Human rights relevant to the subordinate legislation (Part 2, Division 2 and 3 Human Rights Act 2019)

The Proclamation does not affect or engage a human right. Human rights engaged by the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Act 2022 more generally were assessed and included in the Human Rights Statement of Compatibility for the Child Protection Reform and Other Legislation Amendment Bill 2021.

Conclusion

I consider that the Proclamation is compatible with the Human Rights Act 2019 because it does not raise a human rights issue.
